The following special learner certificates were issued in the Shoe Industry. These certificates authorize the employment of learners in any occupations except custodial, maintenance, supervisory, and office and clerical occupations. The learning period is 480 hours at not less than 65 cents an hour for the first 240 hours and not less than 70 cents an hour for the next 240 hours, except as otherwise indicated in parentheses.

Adams Shoe Co., Adamsdale, Pa., effective 7-27-50 to 8-25-50; six learners.

M. Beckerman & Sons, Inc., 326 East Fourth Street, Boyertown, Pa., effective 7-26-50 to 8-25-50; 25 learners for expansion (expanding plant).

Bijou Manufacturing Co., Inc., 478 Smithfield Avenue, Providence, R. I., effective 7-27-50 to 8-25-50; four learners.

International Shoe Co., St. James, Mo.; replacement certificate; 10 percent learners; effective 7-27-50 to 8-25-50.

The following special learner certificates were issued to the school-operated industries listed below:

Forest Lake Academy, Maitland, Fla., effective 9-1-49 to 9-15-50; print shop, typesetting, press work and bindery work; 15 learners; 500 hours at 30 cents, 500 hours at 30 cents.

Each certificate has been issued upon the employer's representation that employment of learners at subminimum rates is necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, and that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available except that employers of student-workers employed in school-operated industries were not required to certify the nonavailability of experienced workers. The certificates may be canceled in the manner provided in the regulations and as indicated in the certificates. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of any of these certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof within fifteen days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER pursuant to the provisions of Regulations, Part 522.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 3d day of August 1950.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1416]

SYRACUSE SUBURBAN GAS CO., INC., AND NIAGARA MOHAWK POWER CORP.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

AUGUST 4, 1950.

On June 8, 1950, Syracuse Suburban Gas Company, Inc. (Suburban), a public utility corporation of the State of New York, filed with the Commission a complaint against Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation (Niagara Mohawk), a public utility corporation of the State of New York, and a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act as defined in Title 15, section 717 (a) of the United States Code, alleging among other things, that Suburban has been served with gas since 1913 by Niagara Mohawk and predecessor companies for a number of years at pressures ranging from approximately 2 to 5 or more pounds in the summer months and 3 to 6 or more pounds in the winter months from the intermediate pressure system of Niagara Mohawk, which pressures Suburban has been informed will be reduced by Niagara Mohawk upon completion of a new high pressure line from Therm City to DeWitt, New York.

Suburban alleges Niagara Mohawk is unwilling to guarantee pressures in excess of 1 pound in the summer months and 2 pounds in the winter months; that the contemplated reduction in pressures and change in operation and practice is the equivalent to a rate increase, and operating expenses will be increased if and when it becomes necessary to use a booster to increase the pressure of gas in Suburban's distribution system.

Suburban further alleges additional points of connection have been proposed and considered but that negotiations have not resulted in any satisfactory conclusion; that in each instance Niagara Mohawk has been unwilling to guarantee pressures of more than 1 pound during the summer months and 2 pounds during the winter months at any point on its intermediate system; that it has been proposed to Niagara Mohawk that Suburban's pressure and volume needs could be adequately met with no detriment to Niagara Mohawk by service from its proposed high pressure line at DeWitt where it connects with the 8-inch line to Utica, or if necessary, at approximately one-half mile further south at the terminus of the 14-inch line from Therm City to DeWitt, and for which Suburban has offered to construct the necessary lateral. A delivery pressure of 25 to 30 pounds has been requested at a point of connection on the Utica or Therm City-DeWitt lines.

The complainant recites that a delivery pressure of 10 to 15 pounds would be adequate for the present to meet its requirements; that for the past several years it is experiencing a very rapid growth in the number of customers in therms sold and in gross revenues, and a still greater increase in the supply of gas will be necessary on or about October 1, 1950, as a result of the plant expansion of the Carrier Corporation, whose requirements are estimated at approximately 22,000 cubic feet per hour; that Suburban experienced a maximum day of 474 Mcf. in November 1949, and peak day for 1950-51 is estimated at 900 Mcf., with an estimated hourly peak demand of 75 Mcf.

The Complainant (Suburban) requests an order requiring Niagara Mohawk to continue serving it through an existing connection at present pressures and volume, and in addition thereto to render the same present service through a new connection at Court Street and North Midler Avenue (all in East Syracuse, New York) or in lieu of an additional connection and the continuation of a minimum pressure of higher than 2 pounds in the winter months and 1 pound in summer months at James Street that Niagara Mohawk be required to provide a direct connection at DeWitt, delivery to be made (in order of preference by Suburban) (1) at the limit of Suburban's franchise territory on Erie Boulevard about 1 mile southeast of Thompson Road, or (2) at the junction of Niagara Mohawk's 10-inch high pressure line and 8-inch line on Route 5 in DeWitt, or, if necessary, (3) at the terminus of the proposed 14-inch high pressure line of Niagara Mohawk in DeWitt under such terms and conditions as the Commission may determine to be reasonable and just; or an order requiring continuation of the present service and pressure at the present James Street connection and a direct connection to Niagara Mohawk's high pressure line at DeWitt under such terms and conditions as may be just and reasonable.

Suburban further requests in the event it develops adequate service making it necessary for it to proceed with and complete the construction of a connecting line to Court Street and North Midler Avenue prior to the final determination of this complaint, that Niagara Mohawk be required to maintain the present service and pressures on gas delivered at James Street and no lesser pressures at Court Street and North Midler Avenue until such time as Suburban shall find it prudent to make a connection and accept service from Niagara Mohawk's high pressure line in DeWitt under such terms and conditions as the Commission may determine to be just and reasonable; and for such other and further orders as the Commission may consider proper.

Due notice of the filing of the complaint has been given to Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation and the New York Public Service Commission. Niagara Mohawk has filed an answer to the complaint of Suburban and the New York Public Service Commission has filed a notice of intervention.

The Commission orders:

(A) A public hearing be held on September 5, 1950, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., with respect to the matters involved and the issues presented by: The complaint of Syracuse Suburban Gas Company and the answer filed thereto by Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation.

(B) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 or 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: August 4, 1950.

[Docket No. G-1428]

OHIO FUEL GAS CO.

AUGUST 4, 1950.

On June 27, 1950, The Ohio Fuel Gas Company (Applicant), an Ohio corporation having its principal place of business at Columbus, Ohio, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas transmission facilities pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended. The facilities are more particularly described in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. No request to be heard or protest has been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 13, 1950 (15 F. R. 4458).

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on August 15, 1950, at 9:45 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: August 4, 1950.

NEW ENGLAND GAS AND ELECTRIC ASSN. ET AL.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of August A. D. 1950.

In the matter of New England Gas and Electric Association, Plymouth County Electric Company, Cape & Vineyard Electric Company; File No. 70-2443.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by New England Gas and Electric Association ("Negea"), a registered holding company, and its wholly owned utility subsidiaries, Plymouth County Electric Company ("Plymouth"), and Cape & Vineyard Electric Company ("Cape"). Applicants-declarants have designated sections 6 (b), 9 and 10 of the act as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 16, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said joint application-declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after August 16, 1950, said joint application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application-declaration which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Cape proposes to issue and sell to Negea 8,000 additional shares of its common capital stock of a par value of $25 per share at a price of $50 per share. Plymouth proposes to issue and sell to Negea 10,000 additional shares of its common capital stock of a par value of $25 per share at a price of $35 per share. The proceeds from the sale of the stock are to be used to reimburse the Plant Replacement Fund Assets accounts of Cape and Plymouth for amounts borrowed therefrom for the purpose of financing extensions, additions and improvements to their respective properties.

The proposed issuances and sales of stock have been approved by the Department of Public Utilities of Massachusetts.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of August A. D. 1950.

Notice is hereby given that Middle South Utilities, Inc. ("Middle South"), a registered holding company, and its electric utility subsidiary, New Orleans Public Service Inc. ("New Orleans"), have filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), and have designated sections 6 (b), 7, 9 (a), 10, 12 (c) and 12 (f) thereof, and Rule U-43 thereunder, as applicable to the transactions proposed in said joint application-declaration which may be summarized as follows:

New Orleans proposes to issue and sell 160,074 shares of its authorized and unissued common stock without nominal or par value. New Orleans proposes to offer said shares of common stock (in the ratio of 0.168 shares for each share held of record on a date to be determined by the board of directors of New Orleans) for subscription pro rata by the common stockholders of New Orleans at a cash price of $25.00 per share which is the amount per share at which the issued and outstanding common stock is carried on the company's books. Subscription warrants (transferable to any assignee except to a dealer who takes the rights for the purpose of exercise and resale of the stock certificates obtainable by the exercise of such rights) expiring approximately 20 days after their issue and evidencing such right to subscribe for the additional shares would be issued to all present holders of New Orleans common stock. Warrants in respect of fractions of a share would be issued entitling the holder, upon surrender thereof and of other warrants together aggregating one or more full shares, to subscribe to the number of full shares which such warrants shall together aggregate, but no subscription would be accepted for fractional shares. New Orleans proposes to appoint the Transfer Agent for its common stock Transfer Agent also for the subscription warrants and for fractional subscription warrants.

Middle South as the holder of 906,671.823 shares (95.16%) of New Orleans outstanding common stock proposes to purchase pursuant to the offering of said stock, 152,320 shares, the number of full shares to which it would be entitled pursuant to the pro rata offering.

Rights evidenced by subscription warrants which shall not have been exercised on or prior to the date of termination of the right, to be fixed by the board of directors of New Orleans as aforesaid, will expire and all rights evidenced by such subscription warrants shall thereupon terminate.

New Orleans states that the proceeds from the sale of the common stock proposed to be issued will be used for the construction of additions and betterments to its property and for general corporate purposes.

The application-declaration states that the proposed issuance and sale of New Orleans common stock as above described has been expressly authorized by the Commission Council of the City of New Orleans, which is asserted to be the only state regulatory body having jurisdiction over the issuance and sale of said shares of common stock.

Applicants-declarants request that the Commission's order herein issue as promptly as may be practicable and that any order authorizing the proposed transactions become effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 21, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after August 21, 1950, said application-declaration may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to the application-declaration which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a full statement of the proposed transactions.

By the Commission.

MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of August 1950.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), by Michigan Consolidated Gas Company ("Michigan Consolidated"), a public-utility subsidiary of American Natural Gas Company ("American Natural"), a registered holding company. Declarant designates section 7 of the act and Rule U-50 (a) (2) promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is hereby further given that any interested person may, not later than August 18, 1950 at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held with respect to said declaration, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after August 21, 1950, said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration, as filed or as amended, which is on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Michigan Consolidated proposes to enter into a credit agreement with certain banks hereinafter named which will commit such banks to lend Michigan Consolidated, from time to time on demand prior to December 31, 1950, sums aggregating a maximum of $25,000,000, as follows:

National Bank of Detroit	$5,400,000
The National City Bank of New York	5,400,000
Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company—New York	5,400,000
Mellon National Bank and Trust Company—Pittsburgh	5,400,000
The Detroit Bank	1,500,000
The Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit	1,500,000

The credit agreement is to be executed as soon as practicable after authorization by the Commission, and it is contemplated that the first borrowing is to be made promptly upon the execution of the credit agreement. Each borrowing shall be pro rata from the respective banks and evidenced by separate notes bearing interest at the rate of 2¼ percent per annum and maturing February 20, 1951. The notes are to be prepayable any time in aggregate amounts of $2,500,000, or multiples thereof, without penalty, except that if prepayment is made out of the proceeds of borrowings from banks not parties to the proposed credit agreement, a penalty is to be paid at the rate of one-quarter of one percent (¼ of 1 percent) per annum for the unexpired term of the notes being prepaid. At the option of the company and with approval of the Commission, the notes are to be renewable upon ten days' notice on the same terms and conditions for an additional term of six months from February 20, 1951. A commitment fee is to be paid computed at the rate of one-half of one percent (½ of 1 percent) per annum on the average daily unused balance of the commitment from the date of the credit agreement to December 31, 1950, or until the entire $25,000,000 shall have been taken down, whichever shall occur first. The company may reduce the amount of the commitment at any time without penalty.

The credit agreement is to contain certain limitations with respect to the payment of dividends by Michigan Consolidated and with respect to mergers, consolidations, and the incurrence of other obligations by Michigan Consolidated and its subsidiary, Austin Field Pipe Line Company.

It is stated that the proceeds from borrowings under the commitment are to be used to finance the construction requirements of the company, estimated at $51,000,000 during the years 1950 and 1951. It is further stated that as soon as practicable and prior to the maturity of the notes to be issued, it is proposed to consummate a permanent financing program, which it is contemplated will provide for the elimination of the notes and will include, during 1950, the sale of $20,000,000 of first mortgage bonds and $6,000,000 of common stock, and the sale, in 1951, of about $10,000,000 of preferred stock.

It is also stated that no regulatory agency or authority other than this Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions, and that the proposed issue and sale of notes is exempt from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, under the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) thereof.

It is requested that the Commission enter an order, to become effective upon its issuance, by August 22, 1950, or as soon thereafter as possible, permitting the declaration to become effective.

By the Commission.

(a) The 1950 planted acreage (as determined for purposes of cotton marketing quotas) of upland cotton on the farm does not exceed such 1950 cotton farm acreage allotment. For the purpose of determining eligibility for a loan, the upland cotton acreage on the farm will not be deemed to be in excess of such acreage allotment unless such acreage allotment is knowingly exceeded. If the producer operating the farm is notified that such acreage allotment has been exceeded and the planted acreage is not adjusted to such acreage allotment within the period allowed under the notice, such acreage allotment shall be deemed to have been knowingly exceeded by the producers having an interest in the cotton.

(b) His aggregate share of the 1950 planted acreage of upland cotton on all farms in which he has an interest does not exceed, as determined by the county or State PMA committee, his aggregate share of the 1950 cotton acreage allotments for such farms. The producer's share of the acreage allotment for any farm shall be deemed to be proportionate to his share of the planted upland cotton acreage on the farm.

(c) Where eligible cotton is produced by a landlord and his share tenant or sharecropper, a loan may be obtained only as follows:

(1) If the cotton is divided among the producers entitled to share in such cotton, each landlord, tenant, and sharecropper may obtain a loan on his separate share.

(2) If the cotton is not divided, (i) the landlord and one or more of the share tenants or sharecroppers may obtain a joint loan on their shares of such cotton, or (ii) the landlord may obtain a loan on cotton in which both he and a share tenant or a sharecropper have an interest if he has the legal right to do so, and in such case the share tenant or sharecropper must be paid his pro rata share of the loan proceeds and his pro rata share of any additional proceeds received from the cotton. In no case shall a share tenant or sharecropper obtain a loan individually on cotton in which a landlord has an interest.

§ 607.105 Eligible cotton. Eligible cotton shall be upland cotton produced in the United States in 1950 which meets the following requirements:

(a) Such cotton must be of a grade and staple length specified in § 607.130.

(b) Such cotton must be represented by warehouse receipts complying with the provisions of § 607.119 or bills of lading complying with the provisions of § 607.123 or must be covered by a Cotton Chattel Mortgage (CCC Cotton Form F, hereinafter referred to as "Form F") and a 1950 Cotton Mortgage Supplement (1950 CCC Cotton Form FF, hereinafter referred to as "Form FF") which will give the payee of the Cotton Producer's Note (CCC Cotton Form E, hereinafter referred to as "Form E") secured by such mortgage a first lien on such cotton.

(c) Such cotton must not be false-packed, water-packed, reginned or repacked, and must not have been classed as gin cut, oily, sandy, dusty, or seedy, or reduced in grade because of extraneous matter (such as needle grass).

(d) Such cotton must not be compressed to high density.

(e) Such cotton must be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, except warehouseman's liens in the case of warehouse-stored cotton.

(f) Such cotton must have been produced by the person tendering it for a loan, and such person must have the legal right to pledge or mortgage it as security for a loan.

(g) If the person tendering such cotton for a loan is a landlord or landowner, the cotton must not have been acquired by him directly or indirectly from a share tenant or sharecropper and must not have been received in payment of fixed or standing rent; and if it was produced by him in the capacity of landlord, share tenant, or sharecropper, it must be his separate share of the crop, unless he is a landlord and is tendering cotton in which both he and a share tenant or sharecropper have an interest.

(h) The person tendering such cotton for a loan must not have previously executed and delivered, with respect to such cotton, a 1950 Cotton Producer's Note and Loan Agreement (1950 CCC Cotton Form A, hereinafter referred to as "Form A"), a Form E, or a 1950 CCC Cotton Form G–2, and must not have previously sold and repurchased such cotton.

(i) Each bale of such cotton must weigh at least 300 pounds.

(j) All persons having an interest in the cotton must be entitled to a loan under this part.

§ 607.106 Forms. The following documents must be delivered by producers in connection with every loan except loans made pursuant to §§ 607.124 and 607.127. (A Form A or E executed by an administrator, executor or trustee will be acceptable only where valid in law and must be accompanied by documentary evidence of the authority of the person executing the form or by a repurchase agreement of the lending agency. Copies of this agreement may be obtained from the applicable PMA commodity office. State documentary revenue stamps shall be affixed to loan documents where required by law.)

(a) Warehouse storage loans. (1) Cotton Producer's Note and Loan Agreement (CCC Cotton Form A) duly executed within the period prescribed in § 607.102.

(2) Warehouse receipts complying with the provisions of § 607.119.

(3) Producer's Letter of Transmittal (CCC Cotton Form B, hereinafter referred to as "Form B") if the loan is obtained direct from the applicable PMA commodity office.

(b) Farm storage loans. (1) Cotton Producer's Note (CCC Cotton Form E) duly executed within the period prescribed in § 607.102.

(2) Cotton Chattel Mortgage (CCC Cotton Form F) and 1950 Cotton Mortgage Supplement (CCC Cotton Form FF) covering the cotton tendered as security for loan.

(3) Form B if the loan is obtained direct from the applicable PMA commodity office.

(c) Cotton represented by order bills of lading. (1) Form A duly executed within the area and during the period such loans are available.

(2) Order bill of lading in a form acceptable to CCC and representing the cotton tendered as security for the loan.

(3) Weight and Condition Certificates complying with the provisions of § 607.123 if the Receiving Agency is not a warehouseman.

(4) Form B if the loan is obtained direct from the applicable PMA commodity office.

§ 607.107 Approved lending agency. An approved lending agency shall be any bank, corporation, partnership, association, individual, or other legal entity which has entered into a Lending Agency Agreement (CCC Cotton Form D) with CCC covering loans on 1950-crop cotton. Organizations desiring to enter into such agreements should communicate with the local county committee.

§ 607.108 Approved storage—(a) Warehouses. Cotton in warehouses will be accepted as security for loans under this part only if stored in warehouses approved by CCC. Warehousemen desiring approval of their facilities should communicate with the local county committee. When warehouses are approved, notification will be given either by letter or by published lists.

(b) Farm storage. Cotton in farm storage will be accepted as security for loans under this part only if stored in a structure approved by the county committee for the county in which the cotton is stored. Such structures may be on or off the farm and must afford safe storage and protection against weather damage, poultry and livestock, and reasonable protection against fire and theft. If the producer does not own the premises where the cotton is stored and his lease on such premises expires prior to September 30, 1951, the owner of such premises must execute the Consent for Storage on the Cotton Mortgage Supplement. Any other tenant who has a right or interest in the premises must also execute the Consent for Storage.

§ 607.109 Amount, weight, and rate. (a) Loans will be made on the gross weight of the cotton. Notes covering cotton pledged on reweights will not be accepted if it is evident that such reweights reflect an increase in weight due to the absorption of additional moisture. An allowance of 7 pounds per bale will be made for bales covered with cotton bagging.

(b) The base loan rate applicable at each approved warehouse will be shown in the "Schedule of Base Loan Rates for Warehouse-Stored Cotton" and the base loan rate under the farm-storage program for each county will be shown in the "Schedule of Base Loan Rates by Counties for Farm-Stored Cotton." These schedules will be published by CCC and will be available at county committee offices. The premium or discount applicable to each eligible grade and staple length is shown in § 607.130.

§ 607.110 Preparation of documents. All blanks on the loan forms must be filled in with ink, indelible pencil, or typewriter in the manner indicated therein, and no documents containing additions, alterations, or erasures will be accepted by CCC. The spaces provided in the notes on Forms A and E for the producer to request and direct payment of the proceeds of the note must be completed in every instance. All disbursements made from the proceeds of the note by the lending agency, including clerks' fees when deducted, must be shown. If the proceeds are to be paid only to the producer, his name should be shown. The total must agree with the amount of the note.

Before the clerk prepares loan documents for a producer, he must determine that the producer is eligible for a loan. The reverse side of the producer's marketing card will show the producer's eligibility. If the box following the word "Eligible" contains an "X" the clerk will use this as evidence that the producer is eligible for a loan and shall assist the producer in the preparation of his loan documents. If the box following the words "ineligible unless Loan Agreement Approved by County Committee" contains an "X" the clerk shall inform the producer that in order for him to obtain a loan he must have his loan documents prepared in the county office. If the box following the word "Ineligible" contains an "X", the producer cannot obtain a loan on cotton produced on that farm under any condition and should be so informed by the clerk. In the event that the marketing card indicates that the producer is eligible but shows evidence of any alteration or erasure, the clerk should not prepare loan documents and should inform the producer that the documents will have to be prepared in the county office.

(a) Warehouse-storage cotton. A producer desiring to obtain a loan on warehouse-stored cotton may obtain the necessary forms from county committees, approved lending agencies, approved warehouses, and approved clerks (persons approved by the county committees to assist producers in preparing and executing the loan forms). The Clerk's Certificate in each Form A tendered for a loan must be executed by an approved clerk, who will assist the producer in the preparation and execution of the Form A. The original of Form A must be signed by the producer and the copy marked "duplicate" is to be retained by the producer. All of the cotton pledged as security for any loan must be of only one grade and staple and must be stored in the same warehouse.

(b) Farm-storage cotton. A producer desiring to obtain a loan on farm-storage cotton should communicate with the county committee in the county in which the cotton is to be stored. The county committee will inspect the storage structure and approve it if it determines that it is of such construction as to afford adequate storage for the cotton. A service charge of $1 per bale with a minimum of $3.00 per loan will be collected by the county committee from the producer to cover services rendered under this program. No such service charge will be refunded. The producer may also obtain the necessary loan forms from, and will be assisted in their preparation, by the county committee. A deposit of $1.00 per bale will also be collected from the producer to guarantee delivery of the cotton if the loan is not repaid by the producer. Such deposit will be returned if the loan is repaid or the cotton is delivered in accordance with the provisions of Form FF. If the producer does not deliver the cotton upon demand by CCC, the county committee will arrange delivery and retain the deposit. The original of the Form FF will be retained by the county committee. If the producer desires to obtain a loan directly from CCC, the county committee will forward the loan documents for the producer.

(c) Fees. The clerk or county committee assisting the producer in the preparation of the loan documents may collect a fee from the producer not to exceed the fees shown in the following schedule:

Number of bales on note	Maximum fee allowed
1	25 cents.
2–6	25 cents plus 15 cents for each bale over 1.
7–18	$1.00 plus 10 cents for each bale over 6.
19 and over	$2.20 plus 5 cents for each bale over 18.

§ 607.111 Liens. Eligible cotton must be free and clear of all liens except warehouseman's liens on warehouse-storage cotton. The signatures of the holders of all existing liens on cotton tendered as security for a loan, such as landlords, laborers, or mortgagees (but not the warehouseman, if the cotton is stored in a warehouse), must be obtained in the Lienholders' Waiver on each Form A and Form FF. If the producer tendering the cotton for the loan is not the owner of the land on which the cotton was produced, all landowners and landlords must sign the Lienholders' Waiver on the Form A or Form FF whether or not they claim liens, unless they sign the note jointly with the borrower. A fraudulent representation, as to prior liens or otherwise, will render the producer personally liable under the terms of the Loan Agreement and subject him to criminal prosecution under the provisions of the Commodity Credit Corporation Charter Act. The Lienholders' Waiver must be signed personally by all lienholders, by their agents (in which case duly executed powers of attorney must be attached), or, if a corporation, by the designated officer thereof customarily authorized to execute such instruments (in which case no authority need be attached).

§ 607.112 Set-offs. (a) If the producer is indebted to CCC on any accrued obligation, or if any installments past due or maturing within twelve months are unpaid on any loan made available by CCC on farm-storage facilities, whether held by CCC or a lending agency, the producer must designate CCC or such lending agency as the payee of the proceeds of the loan to the extent of such indebtedness or installments, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of loan service fees and amounts due prior lienholders. If the producer is indebted to any other agency of the United States, and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, he must designate such agency as the payee of the proceeds as provided above. Indebtedness owing to CCC or to a lending agency as provided above shall be given first consideration after claims of prior lienholders. In such case, the producer must go to the office of the county committee in the county in which it is listed on the debt register and have his loan documents completed by a clerk in the county office. A clerk in the office of the county committee will assist the producer in the preparation of such loan documents and will show in the space provided in the notes the agency to which the check should be issued and the amount to be collected from the note.

(b) Compliance with the provisions of this section shall not constitute a waiver of any right of the producer to contest the justness of the indebtedness involved either by administrative appeal or by legal action.

§ 607.113 Classification of cotton. (a) All cotton must be classed by a Board of Cotton Examiners of the United States Department of Agriculture (hereinafter referred to as the "Board"). Warehousemen (for warehouse-storage cotton), receiving agencies (for cotton covered by bills of lading) and county committees (for farm-storage cotton) should forward samples to the Board serving the district in which the cotton is located. A Cotton Classification Memorandum Form A3 must be inserted in each sample. A Tag List and Record Sheet (CCC Cotton Form L, hereinafter referred to as "Form L"), must be prepared by the warehouseman, receiving agency or county committee listing each sample included in a shipment to the Board. A copy of such Form L shall be included with the samples and two copies must be mailed separately to the Board. The Board will enter the classification of each bale on the Form L and return a copy of such form to the warehouse, receiving agency or county committee. The Cotton Classification Memorandum Form A3 will be returned to the producer by the Board. A Cotton Classification Memorandum Form 1 of the United States Department of Agriculture will also be accepted, provided the sample is a representative cut sample drawn in accordance with instructions to organized cotton improvement groups for sampling cotton under the 1950 Smith-Doxey Program. If a sample has been drawn and submitted for a Form 1 classification, another sample may not be drawn and forwarded to a Board except for review.

(b) A charge of 25 cents per bale shall be collected from the producer for all cotton for which samples are submitted to a Board for classification, except that no charge shall be collected for samples submitted for Form 1 classification. The Boards will submit billings for classing charges to the warehousemen, receiving agencies, and county committees at the end of each month. A certified check, cashier's check, or postal money order payable to Treasurer of United States in care of CCC must be sent to the applicable PMA commodity office by each warehouseman, receiving agency, and county committee in payment of these charges.

§ 607.114 Method of obtaining loans. Producers may obtain loans from a local lending agency, which, in turn, will tender the notes evidencing such loans to CCC, or direct from the applicable PMA commodity office. A producer, if he so desires, may designate persons other than himself to receive all or part of the proceeds of the loan by designating them in the spaces provided in the note. In each case where the loan is obtained from the applicable PMA commodity office, the note must be made payable to CCC and must be tendered to the applicable PMA commodity office with a Form B, in duplicate, postmarked not later than April 30, 1951, if tendered by mail. Upon receipt of all necessary documents, properly executed, and upon approval, payment will be made in accordance with the directions of the producer contained in the note.

§ 607.115 Lending agency. The lending agency shall execute the Payee's Endorsement on Forms A and E. In the case of warehouse-storage cotton, care should be exercised by the lending agency to determine that the warehouse receipts are genuine. No deduction may be made from the loan proceeds by the lending agency as a charge for handling the loan documents, except the authorized clerk's fee in case an employee of the lending agency has executed the Clerk's Certificate on Form A. Lending agencies may carry their investment in the loans and receive interest at the rate of 1½ percent per annum. Lending agencies which are also eligible producers must obtain direct loans from the applicable PMA commodity office in accordance with § 607.114 or obtain loans from another approved lending agency on cotton produced by them.

§ 607.116 Interest rate. Loans will bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum from the date of disbursement.

§ 607.117 Maturity. Loans mature July 31, 1951, or upon such earlier date as CCC may make demand for payment. If a producer does not repay his loan by maturity, CCC has the right to sell, purchase or pool the cotton securing the loan in accordance with the provisions of the loan agreements. If the cotton is pooled, the producer will no longer have a right to redeem the cotton, but will share ratably in any overplus remaining upon liquidation of the pool. CCC shall have the right to treat any pooled cotton as a reserve supply to be marketed under such sales policies as CCC determines will promote orderly marketing, protect the interests of producers and consumers, and not unduly impair the market for the current crop of cotton, even though part or all of such pooled cotton is disposed of under such policies for prices less than the current domestic price for such cotton.

Any sum due the producer as a result of the sale of the cotton or collections of insurance proceeds therefrom, or his ratable share from a pool, shall be payable only to the producer or his personal representative without right of assignment to or substitution of any other person.

(a) Farm storage. If the producer does not repay his loan on or before maturity, he is required to deliver the cotton in accordance with the provisions of Form FF, and if the cotton is not delivered by the producer, the holder of the note may enter on the premises where the cotton is stored and remove the cotton. Upon such delivery or removal, the holder may dispose of the cotton in accordance with the provisions of this section.

§ 607.118 Safeguarding farm-storage cotton. The producer obtaining a farm-storage loan is obligated to maintain the farm-storage structure in good repair and to keep the cotton in good condition. The producer will be responsible for any loss or damage occurring through the fault or negligence of the producer or any other person having control of the storage structure or as a result of any cause other than fire, flood, lightning, explosion, windstorm, cyclone, or tornado except that he will not be responsible for loss in weight of not to exceed 10 pounds per bale which is due to natural shrinkage. The maximum amount of cotton stored in any structure shall be limited to 200 bales if only one producer has cotton stored in such structure and to 100 bales if more than one producer has cotton stored in such structure. The conversion or unlawful disposition of any bale of the cotton will render the producer personally liable for the payment of the mortgage indebtedness.

§ 607.119 Warehouse receipts and insurance. (a) Only negotiable warehouse receipts issued by an approved warehouse in the name of the individual, individuals, or concern who appear as producer on the Cotton Producer's Note to which the receipt is pledged will be acceptable, except that receipts representing cotton pledged in the name of a landowner, landlord, tenant or sharecropper or pledged jointly in the name of two or more parties to a tenancy will be acceptable when issued in the name of either individual who is a party to the tenancy or a signatory to the note. In those instances where the warehouse receipt is issued to an individual or concern who is a party to the tenancy, but who cannot be identified as such from the note, the producer securing a loan will be required to submit a statement certifying that the individual in whose name the warehouse receipt is issued is a tenant or sharecropper of the producer. The warehouse receipts must show that the cotton is covered by fire insurance, must be dated on or prior to the date of the producer's notes, and, if not bearer form receipts, must be properly assigned by an endorsement in blank so as to vest title in the holder. They must set out in their written or printed terms a description by tag number and weight of the bale represented thereby and all other facts and statements required to be stated in the written or printed terms of a warehouse receipt under the provisions of section 2 of the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act. Warehouse receipts issued prior to August 1, 1950, which by their terms will expire prior to August 1, 1951, must bear an endorsement of the warehouseman extending the terms of the warehouse receipts for a period of one year from August 1, 1950. Block warehouse receipts will not be accepted.

(b) In addition to the insurance carried by the warehouseman, CCC will carry insurance on the loan cotton covering losses due to flood and errors and omissions in the warehouseman's insurance. The cost of such insurance will be a charge against the cotton.

§ 607.120 Insurance on farm-storage cotton. CCC will not require the producer to insure cotton under farm-storage loan; however, if the producer does insure the cotton, such insurance shall inure to the benefit of CCC to the extent of its interest, after first satisfying the producer's equity in the cotton involved in the loss.

§ 607.121 Warehouse charges. The warehouseman's charges are limited and his obligations defined by the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement contained in Form A. The Agreement of Warehouseman on Form A must be executed by the warehouseman not more than 10 days preceding the date of the note.

§ 607.122 Tender of notes by lending agencies. Notes (Forms A and Forms E) evidencing loans made by a lending agency which has entered into a Lending Agency Agreement (CCC Cotton Form D) prior to the making of the loans will be eligible for purchase or pooling by CCC. Under this agreement, lending agencies which are parties thereto are required to tender to CCC, on Form C executed in quadruplicate, all notes on Form A and Form E with warehouse receipts, bills of lading (and weight and condition certificates, if required), or cotton chattel mortgages attached, representing loans made by the lending agency within 15 days after the dates of the notes. Forty notes shall be submitted on each Form C except when fewer notes are listed thereon in order that the loans may be tendered within 15 days after the dates of the notes. All notes transmitted on a Form C must cover cotton stored in warehouses in the same custodial district. Notes secured by warehouse receipts, by bills of lading and by chattel mortgages must be transmitted on separate Forms C. Notes accompanied by Producer's Powers of Attorney must also be transmitted on separate Forms C. Each Form C shall state whether the lending agency desires CCC to purchase the notes or to place them in a pool. Upon receipt of the loan papers by the applicable PMA commodity office, they will be examined and, if found correct, will be approved and transmitted to the custodial office serving the district in which the cotton is stored, and will be purchased or placed in a pool, as directed by the lending agency. Lending agencies which have previously been approved by CCC as eligible to draw drafts on CCC may, subject to such instructions and requirements as CCC may hereafter from time to time prescribe, obtain immediate payment for notes they desire to sell to CCC, by tendering such notes and letters of transmittal with sight drafts drawn on CCC through a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch Bank approved by CCC. In the event that the notes are pooled, a Certificate of Interest representing the interest in the pool acquired as the result of the deposit therein of the notes shown on the Form C will be issued to any approved lending agency designated on the Form C.

§ 607.123 Loans on order bills of lading. (a) Loans on cotton represented by order bills of lading will be available only in areas specified by the applicable PMA commodity office where there is a shortage of storage space and where the necessary arrangements for handling the cotton may be made.

(b) Cotton represented by order bills of lading will be eligible for a loan only when it is shipped by an approved receiving agency as agent for the producer. Warehousemen, ginners, and other responsible parties in areas where such loans are available may be approved to act as receiving agencies by the applicable PMA commodity office. Receiving agencies will enter into Receiving Agency Agreements with CCC. When receiving agencies are approved, notification will be given by letter or published lists.

(c) A producer who is unable to find storage space in his local area and who wishes to obtain such a loan should deliver his cotton to a receiving agency with the request that it ship the cotton as agent for the producer to a warehouse where storage space is available. The receiving agency will complete the Schedule of Pledged Cotton on a Form A and, if it is a warehouseman, will execute the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement thereon. If the receiving agency is not a warehouseman, it will have the cotton weighed by a public or licensed weigher and will secure a Weight and Condition Certificate in the form prescribed by CCC. The receiving agency will ship the cotton, secure order bills of lading in a form acceptable to CCC, and deliver to the producer the bills of lading, together with Forms A and Weight and Condition Certificates (if any). If the receiving agency is a warehouseman, it will be permitted to collect fees in accordance with the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement and a fee of not to exceed 10 cents a bale to cover the cost of preparation of shipping documents. If the receiving agency is not a warehouseman, it will be permitted to collect from producers a fee not to exceed the fee set forth in the Receiving Agency Agreement executed by the receiving agency, and shall post, in a conspicuous place, a notice showing the fee to be charged producers. Loans will be made at the full loan rate at the point where the receiving agency receives the cotton. CCC will pay warehouse storage charges on cotton tendered by the producer for a loan under this section, if the receiving agency is a warehouseman.

§ 607.124 Advance loans. (a) If a producer desires to obtain a loan under this part on cotton stored or to be stored in a warehouse, prior to the announcement of the loan rates on such cotton (as determined on the basis of the August 1, 1950, parity price of cotton), prior to the receipt of the classification of such cotton by a Board of Cotton Examiners, or prior to the issuance of a warehouse receipt representing the cotton, and if the producer desires to obtain interim financing from a lending agency until such time as a CCC loan may be obtained, the lending agency may make the producer a private loan (hereinafter called "the advance loan") on such cotton on forms and in amounts agreed upon between the lending agency and the producer and may obtain from the producer a duly executed Producer's Power of Attorney (CCC Cotton Form J, hereinafter referred to as "Form J") in triplicate authorizing and directing the lending agency to prepare or cause to be prepared and execute on behalf of and in the name of the producer Forms A covering all such cotton which is eligible for a loan under this part. The duplicate copy shall be delivered to the producer. On or before the date the advance loan is made, samples must have been drawn from the cotton and submitted to a Board of Cotton Examiners for classification or, if the cotton has not arrived at the warehouse, the warehouseman must have been instructed to sample the cotton and forward the samples for classification upon receipt of the cotton at the warehouse. On or before September 1, 1950, or within 15 days after the dates of the classification certificates, or within 15 days after the dates of the warehouse receipts, whichever is later, the lending agency shall (as provided in the Producer's Power of Attorney), unless the cotton is redeemed by the producer, prepare or cause to be prepared and execute on behalf of the producer Forms A covering all of such cotton which is eligible for a loan and make a CCC loan or loans to the producer under this part. The lending agency shall promptly remit to the producer any difference between the amount due on the advance loan and the proceeds of the CCC loan, less any applicable charges under this part paid by the lending agency on behalf of the producer. The duplicate copies of Forms A and the canceled note evidencing the advance loan shall be forwarded to the producer. The original of the Producer's Power of Attorney shall be transmitted with the notes when they are tendered to CCC.

(b) It shall be the joint responsibility of the lending agency named in the Form J to obtain the official classification from the producer or the warehouseman and of the producer to deliver the official classification to such lending agency, within 15 days from the date of the classification certificate, so that the Form A loans can be made within the specified time.

(c) It shall be the responsibility of the lending agency named in the Form J to obtain the execution of the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement and the Clerk's Certificate on the Form A. Only bona fide employees of lending agencies making the advance loans who are approved as clerks by the county committee, or approved clerks in the office of the county committee, will be permitted to execute the Clerk's Certificate on Forms A covering cotton on which advance loans have been made.

§ 607.125 Loans prior to August 1, 1950. Loans will be made available to eligible producers in the area where cotton is harvested prior to August 1, 1950. Base loan rates for warehouse locations in the early harvesting area will be announced by the applicable PMA commodity office prior to harvest. The premium or discount applicable to each eligible grade and staple length is shown in § 607.130. Other provisions for loans prior to August 1, 1950, will be the same as provided for loans after that date except that in the event that 90 percent of parity as of August 1, 1950, is in excess of the rate announced prior to such date, the difference will be paid to the producer upon his application to the applicable PMA commodity office in the manner prescribed by such office.

§ 607.126 Repayments—(a) Warehouse-stored cotton. No partial release of the cotton represented by warehouse receipts and securing a note will be permitted. If a producer desires to obtain the return of his note and the release of the cotton securing the note, he must execute the Producer's Redemption Request on the Producer's Loan Statement, which will be furnished to the producer by the applicable PMA commodity office at the time the notes are processed by that office, and must send or deliver the equity transfer to CCC, in care of the custodial office serving the district in which the cotton is stored, as shown in § 607.128. If the producer desires to sell his equity in the cotton, he must complete the Producer's Equity Transfer Agreement in the Producer's Equity Transfer on the reverse side of the Producer's Loan Statement furnished him by the applicable PMA commodity office, and the Certificate of Witness in the Producer's Equity Transfer must be dated and signed by a witness approved for such purpose by a county committee in the cotton-producing area. Outside the cotton-producing area, the certificate may be executed by a notary public. The equity purchaser must complete the Certificate of Purchaser in the Producer's Equity Transfer and send it to CCC, in care of the custodial office serving the district in which the cotton is stored. Upon receipt of the Producer's Redemption Request or the Producer's Equity Transfer, the custodial office will forward the note and warehouse receipts to any approved bank designated by the person requesting their release with directions to the bank to release the note and warehouse receipts only to the producer or holder of the equity transfer upon payment of the amount due on the loan. In all such cases, the bank will be instructed to return the note and warehouse receipts to the custodial office if payment is not effected within 15 days. All charges assessed by the bank to which the note and warehouse receipts are sent must be paid by the person requesting the release of the cotton. In the event the Producer's Loan Statement is destroyed or lost, the producer may obtain a duplicate of such form from the custodial office serving the district in which the cotton is stored.

(b) Farm-stored cotton. If the producer desires to repay his loan and obtain the release of the cotton securing the note, he may obtain complete instructions from the county committee of the county in which the cotton is stored. Partial releases will be allowed.

§ 607.127 Cotton cooperative marketing association loans. A special form of loan agreement will be made available to cotton cooperative marketing associations whereby members of such associations may act collectively in obtaining loans. The loan rates under this agreement will be the same as the loan rates to individual producers, and loans to such associations will otherwise be made on substantially the same basis as loans to individual producers. Members desiring to obtain loans from their associations should contact their associations.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Pear Order 3]

PART 939—BEURRE D'ANJOU, BEURRE BOSC, WINTER NELIS, DOYENNE DU COMICE, BEURRE EASTER, AND BEURRE CLAIRGEAU VARIETIES OF PEARS GROWN IN OREGON, WASHINGTON, AND CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 939.303 Pear Order 3—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 39 (7 CFR Part 939) regulating the handling of the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears grown in Oregon, Washington, and California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Control Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of such pears, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than August 15, 1950. A reasonable determination as to the composition of the available supplies of such pears, and therefore the extent of grade and size regulation warranted, must await the development of the crop; recommendations as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such pears were made by said committee on July 14, 1950, after consideration of all information then available relative to the supply and demand conditions for such pears, at which time such recommendations and supporting information were submitted to the Department and notice thereof given to handlers and growers; necessary supplemental information was not available to the Department until July 28, 1950; shipments of the current crop of such pears are expected to begin on or about August 15, 1950, and this regulation should be applicable to all shipments of such pears in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., August 15, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 1, 1951, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any Beurre D'Anjou pears which do not meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2 grade: Provided, That Beurre D'Anjou pears may be shipped in interstate commerce only, and not in foreign commerce, when bearing unhealed broken skins or skin punctures measuring not to exceed three-sixteenths of one inch in diameter or depth, as the case may be, if they otherwise meet the requirements of the U. S. Combination grade;

(ii) Any Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Bosc, Beurre Easter, or Beurre Clairgeau pears which do not meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2 grade;

(iii) Any Winter Nelis pears which are of a size smaller than the 225 size;

(iv) Any Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Bosc, Beurre Easter or Beurre Clairgeau pears which are of a size smaller than the 180 size; or

(v) Any Beurre D'Anjou pears which are of a size smaller than the 195 size.

(2) Definitions. As used herein, "handler," "ship," "shipments," and "shipped" shall have the same meaning as when used in the aforesaid marketing agreement and order; "U. S. No. 2" and "U. S. Combination Grade" shall have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Winter Pears such as Anjou, Bosc, Winter Nelis, Comice, and other similar varieties, issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, effective July 8, 1940 (14 F. R. 7415, 7479; 7 CFR 51.332); and "180 size," "195 size," and "225 size" shall mean that the pears are of a size which, as indicated by the size number, will pack, in accordance with the sizing and packing specifications of a standard pack, as specified in said United States Standards, 180, 195, or 225 pears, respectively, in a standard western pear box (inside dimensions, 18 inches long by 11½ inches wide by 8½ inches deep).

PART 958—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 958.307 Limitation of shipments—(a) Findings. (1) Notice of proposed rule making with respect to shipments of potatoes grown in Area No. 2, State of Colorado, to be made effective under Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR Part 958), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 4771). This regulatory program is effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051). After consideration of all matters presented, including the proposed rule set forth in the aforesaid notice, which proposed rule was recommended by the administrative committee for Area No. 2 (established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order), it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments hereinafter set forth, in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to postpone the effective date of this action until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER in that (i) shipments of potatoes from the production area will have begun by August 15, 1950, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest than would otherwise prevail will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes in the manner hereinafter set forth on and after the effective date of this section, (iii) notice has been given of the proposed limitation of shipments by publication thereof, as required by law (15 F. R. 4771), and (iv) the order should become effective on August 15, 1950, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., August 15, 1950, and ending 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., June 1, 1951, no handler shall ship potatoes grown in Area No. 2, as such area is defined in Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58, which do not meet the requirements of Regulation No. 1 limiting shipments to U. S. No. 2 or better grade (General Cull Regulation—published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, July 16, 1949—14 F. R. 3979) and which are of sizes smaller than 2 inches minimum diameter, as such sizes are defined in the United States Standards for Potatoes (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), including the tolerances provided therein: Provided, That the aforesaid limitations shall not be applicable to (i) potatoes shipped for seed purposes which have been officially certified as seed potatoes by the official Colorado seed certifying agency and which are in containers bearing official Colorado seed certification tags, and (ii) potatoes shipped for consumption by a charitable institution, for relief purposes, or for manufacturing purposes for conversion into by-products.

(2) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Order No. 58 (7 CFR 958.1 et seq.).

Done at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of August 1950, to be effective on August 15, 1950.

In the Matter of Gustave Goldstein, an Individual Trading as Humania Hair Goods & Specialty Co.

This proceeding having heretofore been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the respondent's answer thereto, and a stipulation as to the facts entered into by and between the respondent, Gustave Goldstein, and Richard P. Whiteley, Assistant Chief Counsel of the Commission, which said stipulation provided, among other things, that without further evidence or other intervening procedure the Commission might issue and serve upon the respondent its findings as to the facts and its conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of said proceeding; and

The Commission, after having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent had violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, on April 27, 1945, issued, and on April 30, 1945, served upon the respondent said findings as to the facts, conclusion, and its order to cease and desist; and

This proceeding, on April 25, 1949, having been reopened for the purpose of receiving such supplemental evidence as might be offered to determine whether or not changed conditions of fact or the public interest, or both, require modification of said findings as to the facts and order to cease and desist, certain supplemental evidence was received and duly filed; and the Commission, having considered said supplemental evidence and the entire record herein and having made its modified findings as to the facts and its conclusion based thereon, and being of the opinion that its order to cease and desist issued on April 27, 1945, should also be modified in certain respects:

It is ordered, That the Commission's findings as to the facts, conclusion, and order to cease and desist issued in this proceeding on April 27, 1945, be, and they hereby are, set aside.

It is further ordered, That the respondent, Gustave Goldstein, an individual trading as Humania Hair Goods & Specialty Co., or trading under any other name or through any corporate or other device, and said respondent's agents, representatives and employees, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of his cosmetic preparations designated "B. Paul's Compound", "Herolin Skin Cream", "Henry's Super-Light Working Oil", "Working Oil," "Henry's Sulphur Lanolin Treatment for Hair and Scalp", and "Humania Dandruff Treatment", or any other preparation or preparations of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, under whatever name or names sold, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating, or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents, directly or by implication,

(a) That the preparation, "B. Paul's Compound", is composed of harmless ingredients or can be used without harmful effects;

(b) That the preparation, "Herolin Skin Cream" constitutes a competent or effective treatment for superficial pimples or marks on the skin;

(c) That the preparations, "Henry's Super-Light Working Oil", "Working Oil", and "Henry's Sulphur Lanolin Treatment for Hair and Scalp" constitute competent or effective treatments for dandruff or itchy scalp or will relieve itchy scalp, except that caused by minor scalp irritations;

(d) That the preparation "Henry's Sulphur Lanolin Treatment for Hair and Scalp" will prevent falling hair or baldness or constitutes a competent or effective treatment therefor;

(e) That the preparation "Humania Dandruff Treatment" will cure dandruff or constitutes a competent or effective treatment for dandruff.

2. Disseminating, or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said preparations, any advertisement which contains any representation prohibited in paragraph 1 hereof.

In the Matter of Martin J. Goldstein and Isabel Goldstein, Individually and as Copartners Trading Under the Name of Realflex Products Company

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of the respondents, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, recommended decision of the trial examiner and exceptions thereto, and briefs and oral argument of counsel, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Martin J. Goldstein and Isabel Goldstein, individually and trading as Realflex Products Company, or trading under any other name, and their agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of spark plug cable sets or other automotive specialties, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Representing, directly or indirectly, that their said spark plug cable sets are made with cable of the same quality as the cable used on United States Government planes in combat or that their said spark plug cable sets are made from new and unused cable, when such is not a fact.

(2) Using the words "Champion", "Goodyear", or "Eveready", or any of them, either alone or in connection with any other word or words, to designate, describe, or refer to their said products.

(3) Representing, in any manner, that their said products are the products of, or are made by, Champion Spark Plug Company, Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, or National Carbon Company, Inc., or that any of said corporations has any connection with the manufacture or sale of said products.

(4) Representing, through the use of the trade name or mark of any other concern or concerns engaged in the manufacture, sale, or distribution of automotive specialties, or in any other manner, that respondents' said products are the products of, or are made by, such other concerns.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly: § 3.20 Comparative data or merits; § 3.30 Composition of goods; § 3.170 Qualities or properties of product or service; § 3.205 Scientific or other relevant facts. In connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of the preparation designated "Geo-Mineral", or any other preparation of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name, disseminating, etc., any advertisements by means of the United States mails, or in commerce, or by any means to induce, etc., directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, etc., of said preparation, which advertisements represent, directly or by implication (a) that said preparation, when used as directed, is a competent or effective treatment for, or will cure, stomach or kidney ailments, bloating, constipation, bowel adhesions, rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, or will relieve the pains of rheumatism or arthritis, or that it has any value in the treatment of such conditions; (b) that said preparation is a competent or effective treatment for, or will cure, headaches, nervousness or dizzy spells, or will restore vitality, energy, or weakened sexual powers, will improve appetite or increase weight, or will enrich or build the blood, or will correct dullness, tiredness, laziness, poor appetite, or a lack of ambition to work or play, of sparkle in the eye, or of mental brilliance, or similar symptoms and conditions, unless such representations be expressly limited to those instances in which the symptoms and conditions to be treated are due solely to iron deficiency resulting from an inadequate intake of iron in the diet, and unless such advertisement discloses that such of the aforesaid symptoms and conditions to which the statements may relate are caused less frequently by anemia due to a simple deficiency of iron in the diet than by other causes and that when such symptoms and conditions are due to other causes this preparation will not be effective in relieving or correcting them; (c) that said preparation does not contain drugs or influences health without the use of drugs; (d) that said preparation contains the same minerals in therapeutic amounts as are found in mineral waters of well-known mineral springs, or that its use will produce the benefits ordinarily ascribed to the use of such mineral waters; (e) that said preparation keeps the colon free from waste matter, or that black stools and apparent impurities in the urine demonstrate the value of respondent's product in eliminating waste; (f) that any percentage or number of persons are suffering from nutritional mineral-iron anemia unless such statement is based on authoritative and reliable medical statistics; or, (g) that said preparation will restore health to all persons who may suffer from ill health: prohibited.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Nicholas Sage trading as Geo-Mineral Company, Docket 5666, June 14, 1950]

In the Matter of Nicholas Sage, Trading as Geo-Mineral Company

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and answer by respondent admitting all the material allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and waiving further intervening procedure and hearings as to the said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That Nicholas Sage, individually and trading under the name of Geo-Mineral Company, or any other name, and his agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other devices, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of the preparation designated "Geo-Mineral", or any other preparation of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Disseminating or causing to be disseminated by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents directly or by implication:

(a) That said preparation, when used as directed, is a competent or effective treatment for, or will cure, stomach or kidney ailments, bloating, constipation, bowel adhesions, rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, or will relieve the pains of rheumatism or arthritis, or that it has any value in the treatment of such conditions.

(b) That said preparation is a competent or effective treatment for, or will cure, headaches, nervousness or dizzy spells, or will restore vitality, energy, or weakened sexual powers, will improve appetite or increase weight, or will enrich or build the blood, or will correct dullness, tiredness, laziness, poor appetite, or a lack of ambition to work or play, of sparkle in the eye, or of mental brilliance, or similar symptoms and conditions, unless such representations be expressly limited to those instances in which the symptoms and conditions to be treated are due solely to iron deficiency resulting from an inadequate intake of iron in the diet, and unless such advertisement discloses that such of the aforesaid symptoms and conditions to which the statements thereof may relate are caused less frequently by anemia due to a simple deficiency of iron in the diet than by other causes and that when such symptoms and conditions are due to other causes this preparation will not be effective in relieving or correcting them.

(c) That said preparation does not contain drugs or influences health without the use of drugs.

(d) That said preparation contains the same minerals in therapeutic amounts as are found in mineral waters of well-known mineral springs, or that its use will produce the benefits ordinarily ascribed to the use of such mineral waters.

(e) That said preparation keeps the colon free from waste matter, or that black stools and apparent impurities in the urine demonstrate the value of respondent's product in eliminating waste.

(f) That any percentage or number of persons are suffering from nutritional mineral-iron anemia unless such statement is based on authoritative and reliable medical statistics.

(g) That said preparation will restore health to all persons who may suffer from ill health.

(2) Disseminating or causing to be disseminated by any means for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of said product in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited in Paragraph (1) hereof.

It is further ordered, That the respondent, Nicholas Sage, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IV—Joint Regulations of the Armed Forces

Subchapter D—Military Renegotiation Regulations

PART 423—DETERMINATION OF RENEGOTIABLE BUSINESS AND COSTS

GENERAL CLASSES OR TYPES OF EXEMPTED CONTRACTS AND SUBCONTRACTS

Amendment 4 to Appendix A to Subpart E of Part 423.

Section 423.354, Appendix A (15 F. R. 170, 2417, 4717, 4942) hereby is amended, by the amendment of the following item:

6. Collateral items—(a) Exemption. All subcontracts for:

(1) The sale, furnishing, or installation, of machinery, equipment or materials used in the processing of an end product or of an article incorporated therein; provided such machinery, equipment, or materials do not become a part of such end product or of an article incorporated therein.

(2) The sale, furnishing, or installation, of machinery used in the processing of other machinery to be used in the processing of an end product or of an article incorporated therein.

(3) The sale, furnishing, or installation of component parts of, or subassemblies for, machinery included in (2) above, and machinery, equipment and materials included in (1) above.

(4) The performance of services directly required for the performance of subcontracts included in (1), (2) and (3) above.

As used herein the phrase "used in processing" has the same meaning as that set forth in § 423.333-3 of the Military Renegotiation Regulations.

(b) Limitations on exemptions. This exemption does not apply to subcontracts subject to the Renegotiation Act of 1948, under contracts entered into on or after October 1, 1950.

This exemption does not apply to subcontracts where the purchaser of such machinery, equipment, or materials, has acquired them for the account of the Government. As used herein the phrase "acquired them for the accounts of the Government" means acquired pursuant to an arrangement between the Government and the purchaser of such machinery, equipment, or materials, whereby title to such machinery, equipment, or materials will, or may, at the option of the Government, vest in the Government.

TITLE 41—PUBLIC CONTRACTS

Chapter III—Committee on Purchases of Blind-Made Products

PART 301—PURCHASES OF BLIND-MADE PRODUCTS

The regulations in this part are revised to read as follows:

Sec.
301.1 Definitions.
301.2 National Industries for the Blind designated.
301.3 Federal Supply Service to coordinate.
301.4 Schedule of Blind-Made Products.
301.5 Purchase procedure.
301.6 Clearances.
301.7 Agencies for the blind; restrictions.
301.8 Reports.

AUTHORITY: §§ 301.1 to 301.8 issued under sec. 2, 52 Stat. 1196; 41 U. S. C. 47.

(a) "Blind" means a person having visual acuity not to exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses; or visual acuity greater than 20/200 but with a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

(b) "Non-profit-making agency for the blind" (hereinafter referred to as "agency for the blind") means any organization operated in the interest of the blind, the net income of which does not inure in whole or in part to the benefit of any shareholder or individual, as established by affidavits filed with National Industries for the Blind.

(c) "Ordering office" means any Executive department, independent establishment, board, commission, bureau, service, or division of the United States, and any corporation, all the stock of which is beneficially owned by the United States.

§ 301.2 National Industries for the Blind designated. National Industries for the Blind (hereinafter referred to as "National Industries") is designated as the agency to facilitate the distribution of orders among the agencies for the blind. National Industries shall maintain a record of all non-profit-making agencies for the blind organized under the laws of the United States or of any State, and statistical data showing their respective quantity production of the commodities specified in the Schedule of Blind-Made Products available for sale to ordering offices, so that the orders may be equitably allocated among such agencies for the blind.

§ 301.3 Federal Supply Service to coordinate. The Federal Supply Service of the General Services Administration is designated, to the extent agreed, to coordinate purchases by ordering offices of the blind-made commodities specified by the Committee on Purchases of Blind-made Products (hereinafter referred to as the "Committee").

§ 301.4 Schedule of Blind-made products. The Committee will issue to ordering offices, through the Federal Supply Service, a Schedule of Blind-made Products (hereinafter referred to as the "Schedule"), setting forth data concerning blind-made commodities to be purchased.

§ 301.5 Purchase procedure. Any ordering office requiring a commodity listed in the Schedule shall notify the Federal Supply Service, which will arrange to furnish the requirement from stock or otherwise under its usual procedure. National Industries shall determine whether any agency for the blind is in a position to produce the requirement and will allocate orders equitably among available agencies for the blind.

§ 301.6 Clearances. (a) The Federal Supply Service may grant clearance to any ordering office to purchase from commercial sources any item listed in the Schedule (1) when necessary to meet emergency requirements, or (2) no agency for the blind is in a position to furnish the requirement.

(b) Any ordering office may purchase from commercial sources any items listed in the Schedule to meet requirements (1) of military necessity which require delivery within two weeks, (2) that are less than a single unit, or (3) that are for use outside continental United States.

§ 301.7 Agencies for the blind; restrictions. (a) No commodity listed in the Schedule shall be delivered by an agency for the blind under this program unless (1) at least 75 percent of the direct labor of production of such commodity, including preparation of material, processing and packing, shall have been performed by the blind in producing the commodity, and (2) such commodity or one involving similar manufacturing processes shall have been produced and sold to any buyer by the particular agency for the blind for at least six months prior to delivery.

(b) Each agency for the blind shall keep on file an eye record card containing information that will establish whether a person employed in the production of commodities listed in the Schedule is blind as defined in § 301.1 (a). Copies of these cards shall also be filed with National Industries.

(c) As a prerequisite to participation in such Government orders, each agency for the blind shall file with National Industries copies of its certificate of incorporation, constitution and bylaws, or other instruments of similar import, showing its authority and permitted activities.

(d) Each agency for the blind participating in such Government orders shall maintain an accounting system, and not less often than once each year shall prepare a financial report and operating statement that accurately reflects its operations. Operating statements shall show as a separate item the amount of wages paid to blind employees. Books and records shall be made available for inspection at any time to representatives of National Industries or the Committee.

(e) No allocation of Government orders shall be made by National Industries to any agency for the blind not operating in accordance with this part.

§ 301.8 Reports. The Federal Supply Service shall submit quarterly to the Committee a report on the operation of the program. National Industries shall submit to the Federal Supply Service such reports on its activities as may be requested.

ROBT. LEFEVRE,
Secretary.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[Docket No. AO-218]

HANDLING OF IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN WYOMING AND WESTERN NEBRASKA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the Counties of Goshen, Laramie, Platte, Albany, Converse, Niobrara, Natrona, Johnson, Sheridan, Washakie, Big Horn, Park, Hot Springs, and Fremont in the State of Wyoming and in the counties of Sioux, Scotts Bluff, Banner, Kimball, Cheyenne, Morrill, Box Butte, Dawes, Sheridan, Garden, Deuel, Keith, and Lincoln in the State of Nebraska, to be effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), hereinafter called the "act." Interested parties may file exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353 South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the tenth day after publication of this recommended decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed marketing order (hereinafter called the "order") were formulated, was held at Torrington, Wyoming, on May 4–6, 1950, pursuant to notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 2141). Such notice set forth a proposed marketing agreement and order which was submitted to the Secretary of Agriculture by growers and shippers of Irish potatoes in Wyoming and Western Nebraska, as represented by the PMA Committees and the potato advisory committees of the respective States, with a petition for a hearing thereon.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing are as follows:

(1) The existence of the right to exercise Federal jurisdiction;

(2) The need of the proposed regulatory program to accomplish the declared objectives of the act;

(3) The identity of the persons and transactions to be regulated;

(4) The definition of the commodity and determination of the smallest regional production area to be affected by the proposed regulatory program;

(5) The specific terms and provisions of the proposed marketing agreement and order necessary and incidental to attain the declared objectives of the act, including, among others, those applicable to:

(a) The establishment, maintenance, composition, powers, duties, and operation of the administrative agency;

(b) The method for limiting shipments of Irish potatoes grown in the production area;

(c) The establishment of minimum standards of quality and maturity;

(d) The handling under special regulations, under certain circumstances, and the procedure applicable thereto, of specified shipments of Irish potatoes grown in the production area;

(e) The relaxation of regulations in hardship cases and the procedure applicable thereto; and

(f) The requirement that all handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area must be in accordance with the provisions of the marketing agreement and order, and that inspection and certification of shipments of such potatoes and the payment of assessments must be accomplished in connection therewith.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the aforementioned material issues, all of which are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing on the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) A substantial percentage of the Irish potatoes grown in the Counties of Goshen, Laramie, Platte, Albany, Converse, Niobrara, Natrona, Johnson, Sheridan, Washakie, Big Horn, Park, Hot Springs, and Freemont in the State of Wyoming and the counties of Sioux, Scotts Bluff, Banner, Kimball, Cheyenne, Morrill, Box Butte, Dawes, Sheridan, Garden, Deuel, Keith, and Lincoln in the State of Nebraska, hereinafter called the "production area", normally enters the current of interstate or foreign commerce, and virtually all of the remainder of such potatoes are consumed as table stock or seed potatoes within the production area, or the States of Nebraska and Wyoming, respectively, or are used for so-called diversionary purposes. The market for potatoes grown in the production area is regional in scope and prices for such potatoes at markets both within and outside the States of Nebraska and Wyoming are closely related to each other and to f. o. b. shipping point prices in the production area. Every movement and sale of such potatoes, whether to a market within or outside of the State of Nebraska or the State of Wyoming affects the price structure for all potatoes grown in the production area.

Such movements and sales of potatoes grown in the production area may be scheduled originally for delivery to markets within the production area, the State of Nebraska, or the State of Wyoming and then be diverted en route to markets outside of the production area, the State of Wyoming, or the State of Nebraska. Conversely, such potatoes, destined originally for market outside of the production area, the State of Wyoming, or the State of Nebraska, may be diverted en route to markets within the production area or the respective States. The movement and sale of such potatoes to markets within the production area, to markets within the States of Nebraska and Wyoming, and to markets outside of the States of Nebraska and Wyoming are, therefore, inextricably intermingled.

It is concluded, therefore, that (i) all transportation and sale (except retail sales) of Irish potatoes grown in the production area are either in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burden, obstruct, or affect such interstate or foreign commerce (hereinafter called "in commerce") and (ii) it is impractical to regulate effectively the transportation and sale of such potatoes without regulating all transportation and sale thereof, except to the extent hereinafter indicated.

(2) Effective January 1, 1950, parity prices for Irish potatoes are to be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1948 and the Agricultural Act of 1949.

Seasonal average farm prices (potatoes grown in the proposed production area) have been below the applicable levels for 17 seasons and above such levels for 4 seasons since 1928. Two of the 4 seasons (1943, 1944) when such prices were above parity were war years. Such prices have been below parity during the 1945-48 seasons, inclusive. The 1949 seasonal average farm price for potatoes grown in the proposed production area is $1.31 per bushel, which is only 76 percent of the applicable parity price for such potatoes.

In view of the seasonal average farm prices for the commercial crops of potatoes in the production area having been below parity in most of the past 21 seasons, the seasonal average farm prices for the 1949 crop of such potatoes having been 26 percent below parity, the indicated 1950 acreage of potatoes in Wyoming and Nebraska being approximately the same as in 1949, and the current level of price support for potatoes, it is anticipated that the seasonal average farm price received by growers in the production area for potatoes produced in 1950 will not exceed the prescribed parity level.

The availability of supplies of Irish potatoes in excess of all market demand therefor tends to decrease the grower's average returns from all of such potatoes. Withholding the poorer grades and undesirable qualities and sizes of such potatoes from such markets tends to equalize market supply and the demand therefor, and tends to increase the growers' average returns for all Irish potatoes. Poor grades, undesirable qualities, and undesirable sizes of Irish potatoes available for sale in wholesale markets sell at appreciable discounts from the sale price of the better grades and desirable qualities and sizes of such potatoes, and the former not only displace the latter to a considerable extent, but the former give poor consumer satisfaction, resulting in an over-all decreased consumption of Irish potatoes. Grade, quality, and size discounts in wholesale prices of Irish potatoes are reflected in similar discounts in growers' returns therefor.

Therefore, it is concluded that a marketing agreement and order is necessary to regulate the transportation and sale of Irish potatoes grown in the production area, to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will tend to establish parity prices for such potatoes. The marketing agreement and order should contain provisions for the establishment and maintenance of such minimum standards of quality and maturity and such grading and inspection requirements for Irish potatoes grown in the production area as will effectuate orderly marketing thereof in the public interest, because, even though prices received by farmers for such potatoes exceed parity, some potatoes of poor quality do not, under any circumstances, represent value to the consumers thereof, and the returns to the farmers therefrom are negligible.

(3) (a) The act authorizes the regulation of such handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce. The marketing agreement and order should regulate such handling solely to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is essential, as a basis for such regulation, that the marketing agreement and order define a "handler" so that persons to be regulated thereunder will have notice thereof.

Common or contract carriers transporting Irish potatoes (grown in the production area and owned by another person) to market are performing a handling function in commerce but such handling should not be regulated under the marketing agreement and order for the reason that such carriers are not responsible for the grade, quality, and size of the commodity so transported, are not responsible for the introduction of such commodity in commerce, and their sole interest in such commodity is to transport it to destinations selected by others for a service charge. The responsibility for the grade, quality, and size of the commodity delivered to such common and contract carriers should be borne by the person or persons responsible for delivering such commodity to such carriers.

Other handling functions with respect to such potatoes, which should be regulated under the marketing agreement and order, are hereinafter considered in connection with a definition of "ship," and the definition of "handler" should be synonymous with "shipper" because regulation of the handler performing any of such functions is necessary under the marketing agreement and order to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Therefore, the term "handler" or "shipper" should be defined to mean any person (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) who ships potatoes.

(b) Processing activities (such as storing, washing, grading, and packing) with respect to Irish potatoes are handling functions in commerce. However, it would be impracticable, if not impossible, to require persons engaged in such activities to meet grade, quality, and size requirements, under regulations issued pursuant to the marketing agreement and order, prior thereto except as hereinafter indicated. Therefore, such handling activities should be exempt from regulation under the marketing agreement and order. Such exemption should be limited to storing, washing, packing, grading, and other preparatory handling functions accomplished in the production area because such activities are customarily accomplished therein. After the grading has been accomplished in connection with such potatoes, the handling activity of transporting them to market should be subject to regulation, under the marketing agreement and order, because the grade, quality, and size of such potatoes are determined by the grading process accomplished prior to such transportation and such transportation in commerce can then be limited, on a practical basis, to such grades, qualities, and sizes of such potatoes as will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Sales of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, in commerce are handling transactions which should be subject to regulation under the marketing agreement and order because such sales are generally made on the basis of grades, qualities, and sizes, or combinations thereof; and because such sales introduce or continue such potatoes in commerce. Therefore, if such sellers fail to meet the requirements of regulations issued under the marketing agreement and order they should be responsible, except as hereinafter indicated, for such introduction or continuation of the potatoes in commerce. However, if any person sells potatoes to a recognized packer in the production area on a field run, cellar run, or grade-out basis, for storing, or market preparation, therein, such sale by the producer should not constitute a handling transaction in commerce, subject to regulation. Under such state of facts, the sale to the recognized packer does not place the potatoes in commerce and the customary contemplation of the parties is that, prior to their introduction in commerce, the potatoes will be prepared as aforesaid for market. Similarly, the transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area for storing such commodity therein should not constitute a handling transaction in commerce subject to regulation. It is necessary to restrict the scope of this producer-packer sale to packers operating processing facilities in the production area because such restriction conforms to customary practice therein.

However, if a producer of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, sells such potatoes grown by him to an itinerant trucker, or any other person, for transportation to market without prior processing, such potatoes are thereby placed in commerce at the time of such sale and the producer, under such circumstances, is the first handler of such potatoes. It may be assumed, under such circumstances, that the producer intended that the potatoes would be placed in commerce at the time of such sale and, therefore, he should be held responsible for any failure of the commodity so sold to meet such grade, quality, and size requirements as might be in effect under the marketing agreement and order at the time of such sale.

Irish potatoes grown in the production area and consigned or otherwise placed in commerce should be considered in the same category as potatoes sold in commerce because the former activities are merely different methods of selling potatoes. Such potatoes should also meet the minimum grade, quality, and size requirements in effect under the marketing agreement and order at the time they are so introduced into commerce to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The consignor or individual otherwise placing such potatoes in commerce should, therefore, be subject to regulation.

Irish potatoes grown in the production area are frequently transported, sold, or otherwise placed or continued in commerce by more than one person. Each of such persons is responsible for introducing or continuing such potatoes in commerce and, therefore, each of such persons should be required to conduct such handling activities in accordance with applicable grade, quality, and size regulations, under the marketing agreement and order to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is concluded, therefore, that "ship" should be defined in the marketing agreement and order to include and be applicable to all of the handling functions which must be subject to regulation to effectuate the declared policy of the act, that such definitions should be synonymous with "handle", and that "ship" should mean to transport, sell, or in any way to place potatoes in the current of commerce within the production area, or between the production area and any point outside thereof: Provided, That the definition of "ship" or "handle" shall not include or be applicable to the sale or transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area for storing therein, or the sale or transportation within the production area of potatoes to a recognized packer for the purpose of having such potatoes prepared therein for market.

(4) (a) It is necessary to define the commodity to be regulated by the marketing agreement and order, so that persons handling such commodity will know that their handling activities relevant thereto are subject to regulation thereunder. The act authorizes marketing agreements and orders applicable to potatoes, or to any regional or market classification thereof. Irish potatoes of all varieties grown in the production area is a regional classification of potatoes and regulation of the handling thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is concluded, therefore, that "potatoes" should be defined to mean all varieties of Irish potatoes grown in the production area.

(b) A definition of "production area" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to specify and delineate the area in which potatoes must be grown before the handling thereof is subject to regulation. The proposed production area, set forth in the notice of hearing, included designated counties in the State of Nebraska and all of the State of Wyoming. Certain counties of Wyoming should, however, be excluded from the production area because no commercial potato production exists therein. These are the counties of Teton, Sublette, Lincoln, Uinta, Sweetwater, Carbon, Campbell, Weston, and Crook. The area comprising Yellowstone National Park in Wyoming should be excluded for the same reason. The remainder of the State of Wyoming, which should be designated as a part of the production area, comprises a contiguous area and one in which the conditions and methods of producing and marketing potatoes are reasonably similar. It would be impractical to exclude any of this Wyoming territory from the production area because the most important potato producing areas in Wyoming lie along the Wyoming-Nebraska border and adjacent to important potato producing areas in Nebraska. Also, the producing and marketing conditions and methods throughout the entire composite area are similar.

In addition, it is a customary practice whereby potatoes purchased in Wyoming are moved into Nebraska for processing. Such potatoes produced in Wyoming are of the same varieties as are produced in the Nebraska portion of the production area and it would be impossible to determine in a given case whether such potatoes were produced in Wyoming or in Nebraska. Therefore, if either the Wyoming portion, or the Nebraska portion, or any subdivision thereof, were excluded from the production area, enforcement and operation of a marketing agreement and order in the remaining portion would be unreasonably difficult and impractical.

Such differences in production and marketing conditions and methods as do exist within the production area as hereafter defined are not of such magnitude as should justify, on the basis of reasons stated herein, the exclusion of any portion of the production area from regulation under the marketing agreement and order. The same or similar varieties of potatoes are grown throughout the production area and potatoes from each part thereof compete in markets both within and outside the area during each season. Therefore, the production area, hereinafter defined, constitutes the smallest practicable regional production area.

(5) It is necessary to define the terms hereinafter set forth, so that their applicability and meaning may be established and to preclude the necessity for redefining them when they are later used in the marketing agreement and order. The definitions of Secretary, act, person, producer, and varieties, as set forth in the notice of hearing, were not in controversy at the hearing. These terms are generally understood by members of the potato industry in the production area and the use of such terms in the marketing agreement and order is essential as the basic framework thereof.

A definition of "fiscal year" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to establish the beginning and end of an operating period. The establishment of such period, which should comprise a full twelve months, is necessary for businesslike administration of the marketing agreement and order and is desirable as a basis for establishing the terms of office of committee members and alternates. The date marking the end of one fiscal year and the beginning of the next should fall at a time of relative inactivity in the marketing of the potato crop and should allow sufficient time for the committee to organize and to be prepared to function prior to the start of the new marketing season. Marketing of such crop extends from about September 15 of each year to about May 1 of the following year. June 1 is a time of minimum activity in the marketing of the potato crop grown in the production area and such date is approximately three months prior to the beginning of the harvest season. Such date is, therefore, an appropriate time for the conclusion of one fiscal year and the beginning of the next. Fiscal year should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

Definitions of "Administrative Committee," and "marketing committee" are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to identify the administrative bodies which are to act as the agencies of the Secretary. Such committees are authorized by the act, and the definition thereof, as hereinafter set forth, minimizes the use of words in the marketing agreement and order.

Definitions of "seed potatoes" and "table stock potatoes," are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order because regulation is provided, under certain circumstances, differently for each. Special regulation for seed potatoes is justified because such potatoes are produced for a specialized use and the requirements of the seed market differ, in some respects, from that of the table stock market. For example, potatoes of small size are ordinarily discounted in the table stock market but may bring a premium in the seed market. The term "seed potatoes" should be defined to include such potatoes as are certified, tagged or otherwise appropriately identified by the official seed certifying agency of the State of Nebraska or Wyoming, or such other seed certifying agency as the Secretary may recognize. Table stock potatoes should be defined as all potatoes other than seed potatoes. The sum total of the table stock and seed potatoes so defined will equal "potatoes," otherwise defined in the marketing agreement and order.

The definition of "pack" should include consumer packs which are prepared for ultimate sale by the retailer to the consumer in the original container. The definition also should include wholesale packs from which potatoes are normally dumped into bulk display bins at the retail store. In practice, the distinction between the two types of packs rests on the capacity of the container. While consumer packs for such potatoes are not commonly in use, nevertheless there is a growing interest in these types of packs. These usually consist of 5, 10, and 15 pound bags, while wholesale packs consist of 50 and 100 pound bags. The demarcation between consumer and wholesale packs should be drawn at a specified net weight content rather than by naming the individual container which should fall in the respective category. The possible introduction of containers differing in size from those now in use makes the latter approach impractical. This definition is intended to permit the administrative committee to describe various packs and to establish distinctions among packs upon the basis of weight, as aforesaid, so that different regulations may be established for such different packs. Pack should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

Definitions of "grade" and "size" are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to enable all persons affected thereby to determine the requirements thereof and to interpret specifically and intelligently regulations issued in such terms. Grade and size, the essential terms in which regulations may be issued, should be defined as comprehending the equivalents of the meanings assigned to these terms in the official standards for potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, or to amendment or modification or variation of such standards. Regulations under the marketing agreement and order can then use such terms (grade and size) with the constant meaning assigned thereto in such standards, or amendment of such terms as may be effected through amendment of such standards, or such modification or variation of such terms as may be required at the time of regulation and spelled out in the regulation. Official inspectors are qualified to certify to the grade and size of potatoes, grown in the proposed production area, in terms of any one of the aforesaid standards, or amendments, modifications, or variations thereof.

A definition of "export" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order because different regulations thereunder are authorized for export shipments than for domestic shipments. Export markets have certain requirements which differ from the domestic market and special regulations are, therefore, justified. Export should be defined to include all shipments of potatoes outside of the continental United States.

Definitions of "district" and "subdistrict" are incorporated in the proposed marketing agreement and order to delineate the geographical divisions of the production area for the purpose of electing nominees for membership on the marketing committees and for apportioning representation on the Administrative Committee. The production and marketing problems within each of the districts and subdistricts hereinafter established are similar and selection of committee members on such basis will afford equitable representation to all producers and handlers in the production area.

District and subdistrict should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

(a) The marketing agreement and order should provide for the selection by the Secretary of an administrative committee, called the Wyoming-Western Nebraska Potato Committee and of a marketing committee for each district of the production area. Establishment of these committees is desirable and necessary to aid the Secretary in carrying out the declared policy of the act and such committees are authorized by the act.

Marketing committees for specific portions of the production area, with authority to recommend grade, size, and quality regulations for the portion in which it operates, will provide a basis for representation on such committees whereby potato producers affected by such regulations can have fair and equitable representation. The selection and establishment of an administrative committee from among marketing committee membership provides a central agency to carry out service functions and to coordinate the activities of the marketing committees.

Provision should be made for an alternate for each member of the committees because circumstances may arise when it is impossible for a member or members, to attend particular meetings of the committees and where positions are vacant because of death, resignation, or for other reasons. In such situations it is necessary and desirable for the respective alternate to act in lieu of the member, so that there will be no interruption of committee operations and to assure that committee activities will be representative of producer and handler thinking in all districts and subdistricts of the production area. Such alternates should have the same qualifications as the members if the alternates are to represent the same industry interests as such members.

An administrative committee of six members, each of whom should be a member of a marketing committee, will be of sufficient size to permit it to operate in an efficient manner and to give all producers and handlers in the production area adequate representation in the conduct of administrative committee business.

Two 9-member marketing committees, each composed of 6 producers and 3 handlers, will provide potato growers and handlers in each district adequate and equitable representation on the marketing committees for such districts.

Producer members and alternates of a marketing committee selected to represent a subdistrict of the production area should be producers (or officers or employees thereof) in such subdistrict. Handler members and alternates of a marketing committee to represent handlers should be handlers (or officers or employees thereof) in such district. Persons with such qualifications will be intimately acquainted with the particular problems of producing and marketing potatoes grown in the subdistrict represented, in the case of producer members, and in the district represented, in the case of handler members, and for these reasons can be expected to present accurately the views, problems, and economic conditions of producers and handlers in such subdistricts and districts of the production area with respect to marketing committee actions.

A nomination procedure is provided in the marketing agreement and order to assure the Secretary that the names of appropriate prospective members and alternates of the committees will be brought to his attention. The nomination of prospective producer members and alternates of marketing committees by producers at meetings in the respective subdistricts and of prospective handler members and alternates by handlers at meetings in the respective districts is a practical method of providing the Secretary with names of such members and alternates. As soon as practical after a marketing committee organizes and begins operating during the term for which selected, such committee should meet for the purpose of nominating prospective successor producer members and handler members to serve on the administrative committee. Such nominees should be from among the members, including the respective alternates, of the marketing committee and reflect the aforesaid representation. The nomination by each marketing committee of prospective administrative committee members and alternates to represent each district is an appropriate means of providing the Secretary with the names of such members and alternates. Such procedure will insure that the Secretary has available a list of nominees whose qualifications have been reviewed by and acted upon by members of the industry.

The Secretary may appropriately select initial marketing committee members and alternates from nominations made by producers, handlers or groups thereof. However, the administrative committee, the Wyoming-Western Nebraska Potato Committee, does not come into existence until selection by the Secretary of the initial members thereof; therefore, the marketing agreement and order should provide for the selection by the Secretary of said initial committees in the absence of nominations. Similarly, there should be authority for the Secretary to select the respective memberships of the marketing committees in the absence of nominations made in the aforesaid manner.

Nomination meetings for the purpose of nominating succeeding members of the marketing committees and their alternates should be held or caused to be held by the administrative committee prior to April 1 of each year. Such date is approximately sixty days prior to the end of the fiscal year. By holding, or causing to be held, nomination meetings prior to such date, the administrative committee would have adequate time to prepare and submit nominee lists to the Secretary in time for the Secretary to select the members and alternates of marketing committees to take office at the beginning of the new fiscal year, and, in the event a selectee declines to serve, for the Secretary to make another appointment.

At least two nominees should be designated for each position as member, and each position as alternate member, on the committees so that the Secretary will have a choice in making his selection and, in the event a selectee declines to serve, so that he will have the names of other prospective members or alternates from which to make another appointment.

Nominee lists should be supplied to the Secretary in the manner and form prescribed by him to establish administrative uniformity in the handling of such matters. Such nominations for positions on the marketing committees should be presented to the Secretary at least forty-five days prior to the end of the fiscal year so that the selection and qualification of marketing committee members and alternates for the new term of office which begins with the new fiscal year may be made prior to such date.

Except to the extent hereinafter indicated, each producer should be limited to one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, or representatives, in designating nominees for producer members and alternates of marketing committees regardless of the number of subdistricts in which he produces potatoes. Voting on any other basis would not provide for equitable representation. If a producer could cast more than one vote by reason of operating in more than one subdistrict, such producer would have an advantage in selecting nominees over producers operating in only one subdistrict. The producer who operates in more than one subdistrict should be required to elect the subdistrict in which he will vote for nominees for producer committee members and alternates. The one-vote limitation applies to each producer position to be filled at a nomination meeting. Each producer is allowed one vote for each such producer position as a marketing committee member and each such producer position as a marketing committee alternate to be filled at a nomination meeting.

Similar voting limitations and requirements (on a district basis, rather than a subdistrict basis) should be applied to handler participation in nominating handler committee members and alternates on marketing committees, for reasons similar to the application of such limitations and requirements to producer nominations of producer committee members and alternates. However, to maintain the distinctive handler and producer representative viewpoints of marketing committee members, each person who is a handler and also a producer should be required to elect the capacity in which he will participate in program activities.

In order that there will be administrative agencies in existence at all times to administer the marketing agreement and order, the Secretary should be allowed to select administrative and marketing committee members and alternates without regard to nominations if the committees, for any reason, fail to carry out the nomination procedures prescribed herein. Such selection, however, should be on the basis of the representation provided in the marketing agreement and order to insure that the entire production area is fairly and adequately represented.

Each person selected by the Secretary as a committee member or alternate should qualify by filing with the Secretary a written acceptance of willingness and intention to serve in such capacity, so that the Secretary will have a means of determining if he intends to serve. This is sound operating procedure and is necessary and desirable to avoid delays in the composition of the committee. For this same reason, each member and alternate should file his acceptance within a definite time period after receiving notice of his selection. The ten-day period prescribed is reasonable for qualification and will not unduly retard composition of the committee.

Provision is made for the Secretary to fill any committee vacancies in order to maintain the committees in continuous operation. The marketing agreement and order provides several alternative procedures which may be followed by the Secretary in making such selections. The administrative flexibility thus prescribed is desirable so that the Secretary will not be forestalled in making such selections and so that he may choose the most practical of the alternative means of obtaining the names of qualified persons to fill such vacancies.

The term of office of administrative and marketing committee members and alternates, except for initial members and alternates, should be for two years. A two-year term is desirable so that members and alternates will have adequate time to familiarize themselves with the operation of the program and thus be in a position to render the most effective service in assisting the Secretary in carrying out the declared policy of the act. A term of two years is also the minimum term that can be established if provision is to be made for staggered terms of office. A term of more than two years should not be established since producers and handlers should have an opportunity to vote for a change in their representation at more frequent intervals.

Provision is made in the marketing agreement and order for staggered terms of office of administrative and marketing committee members and alternates. Under this provision, approximately one-half of the administrative committee and each marketing committee in office at the end of a fiscal year will continue in office through the next fiscal year. The establishment of such staggered terms will promote administration of the program in the most effective and efficient manner. By having staggered terms of office, the new members and alternates selected to serve during a fiscal year will benefit from the guidance of the experienced members who carry over. This provision for continuation in office of experienced members will help insure continuity in the policies and procedures relating to the administration of the marketing agreement and order. Such continuity is an essential ingredient in the successful administration of the marketing agreement and order.

To facilitate the establishment of staggered terms of office, the marketing agreement and order provide that the terms of office of a majority of the members and alternates of the initial administrative committee and marketing committees shall be for one year. Such provision is fair and equitable and will permit the establishment, on a practical basis, of committees with the members and alternates thereon holding office for staggered terms.

A quorum of the administrative committee should consist of four members and four concurring votes should be necessary for passing any motion or approving any action of the administrative committee. A quorum of a marketing committee should consist of five members and five concurring votes should be necessary for passing any motion or approving any action of such marketing committee. These requirements are reasonable and are necessary to insure that any action of the committees reflects a majority of the views presented.

Only members present at an assembled meeting of a committee, and alternate members acting for members, should be entitled to vote. This requirement will encourage greater attendance at meetings and will promote fuller discussion of committee actions. Provision is made for meetings of the committees by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication, to meet practical situations where rapid decision with respect to committee actions is necessary. Such emergency situations occur quite frequently in the marketing of potatoes grown in the production area. Any votes cast at such meetings should be promptly confirmed in writing to provide a record of the action taken.

The apportionment and selection of producer members and alternate members of the marketing committee by subdistricts in the manner set forth in the marketing agreement and order will provide fair and equitable representation of all producers in the production area. The representation provided gives weight, on as fair and reasonable a basis as possible, to the various factors, such as acreage, number of producers, size of district and subdistrict, and variation in producing and marketing conditions, necessary to establish assurance of a fair and equitable representation of all portions of the production area on the committee.

Compensation at not to exceed the rate prescribed herein will offset, to some extent, the losses which such members and alternates will sustain through committee service.

Administrative and marketing committee members and alternates should be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred when acting on committee business and should be compensated at a rate of not to exceed $10.00 per day, or portion thereof, for such service. Since such members and alternates will be serving in the interest of the potato industry in the production area, they should not be required to bear such reasonable expenses as they incur in attending to committee business.

The powers of the committees, as set forth in the notice of hearing, should be granted to the committees because such powers are authorized by the act and are essential to the committees in order for them to discharge their responsibilities under the marketing agreement and order.

The administrative committee should perform each and all of the duties set forth in the notice of hearing because such duties are necessary and essential to the accomplishment of the declared policy of the act and for the administrative committee to discharge its obligations to the Secretary. These duties are similar to duties given to other administrative committees under other marketing agreement and order programs. The marketing committees should be assigned each and all of the duties set forth in the marketing agreement and order to assist the administrative committee and the Secretary in operating the program and in carrying out the declared policy of the act.

(b) The declared policy of the act is to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for potatoes, among other commodities, as will tend to establish parity prices for such potatoes. The regulation of shipments of potatoes by grade, size, or quality, authorized in the marketing agreement and order, provides a means of carrying out such policy.

The procedures which are outlined in the marketing agreement and order for the development and institution of marketing policies relating to grade, size, or quality regulations provide a practical basis for the committees to obtain appropriate and adequate information regarding marketing problems. In turn, members of the industry are also provided an appropriate and adequate means of being informed regarding the policies and regulations the committees recommend and, if issued, the regulations that are effective. The factors which the committees should take into consideration in developing marketing policies are the ones commonly or usually taken into account by growers and handlers in marketing potatoes.

In order that the Secretary may most effectively carry out his responsibilities in connection with the marketing agreement and order, it is provided that each marketing committee should prepare and submit to the Secretary a report on its proposed policy, or amendments thereto, for the marketing of potatoes produced in the district served by such committee during each fiscal year. Further provision should be made for each marketing committee to make available the contents of such reports to producers and handlers in the production area, to the administrative committee, and to the Secretary.

In developing a proposed policy for the marketing of potatoes it is provided that the committees shall investigate enumerated relevant factors of supply and demand for potatoes. This requirement is necessary so that the marketing committees will be in the best position to adopt sound and practical recommendations for regulation and to advise the Secretary with respect to such supply and demand conditions. Each marketing committee will be well qualified to determine marketing conditions for potatoes produced in the district which it serves and to recommend specific regulations which will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The limitation of shipments of the poorer grades, qualities, and less desirable sizes of potatoes grown in the production area will tend to increase the prices of the more desirable grades, qualities, and sizes, and to increase the returns to producers therefrom. Less desirable sizes include not only small potatoes (other than seed potatoes) but also excessively large potatoes. Such limitation of shipments will also help to improve the long-run demand for and competitive position of potatoes grown in the production area.

It is a necessary and desirable exercise of the authority granted by the act for each marketing committee to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, grade, size, or quality regulations for any or all portions of the production area, and different grade, size, or quality regulations for different packs, for different time periods within the shipping season, for different varieties, or any combination of the foregoing, all with respect to potatoes grown in the district served by such committee. Such administrative flexability is needed in the marketing agreement and order to effectuate the declared policy of the act through the issuance of appropriate regulations adapted to different and changing circumstances encountered in the marketing of potatoes.

Authority to issue different regulations applicable to different portions of the production area is necessary because a particular portion or portions of such area may have adverse growing conditions which cause an abnormally high percentage of the potatoes grown therein to fall within restricted grades, sizes, or qualities. To meet the administrative problems that would arise from a situation of this kind and to provide fair and equitable regulation of all shipments of potatoes grown in the production area, it would be appropriate to establish a less restrictive regulation applicable to such affected portion or portions of the area.

Supply and demand conditions for potatoes are subject to frequent and substantial changes during the course of a particular marketing season. For this reason, it is absolutely essential that the marketing committees have authority to recommend different regulations at any time during the season in order to carry out the declared policy of the act.

Different regulations should be authorized for different varieties of potatoes because varieties differ in particular characteristics such as shape and in susceptibility to certain defects. For these reasons, an appropriate grade and size regulation for one variety may not be appropriate for another. Moreover, a new variety may be introduced in the area which should be regulated differently than the varieties now being grown.

It is necessary to provide for different regulations, under appropriate circumstances, for different packs of potatoes to improve and maintain consumer acceptance for potatoes grown in the production area. For example, it may be desirable to establish different regulations for consumer packs than for wholesale packs. Consumer packs of potatoes require different size composition than wholesale packs; authority should be provided, therefore, to establish regulations with respect to minimum or maximum sizes of potatoes, or both, differently for consumer packs than for wholesale packs. Consumer acceptance of potatoes is more adversely affected by inferior grades and undesirable sizes in consumer packs than in wholesale packs. In the case of consumer packs, the consumer accepts the package relatively "sight unseen" and does not have an adequate opportunity to make a selection of individual potatoes. The consumer, however, can make the desired selection from bulk displays made up by dumping the contents of wholesale packs into a bin. Consumers demand a better and more uniform grade, size, and quality of potatoes in consumer packs than in wholesale packs and failure to maintain such grade, size, and quality in consumer packs will disproportionately decrease the total returns of growers of potatoes in the production area.

The Secretary, upon the recommendation of a marketing committee, or other available information, should be authorized to modify, suspend, or terminate grade, size, or quality regulations with respect to shipments of potatoes, grown in the district served by such committee, outside of the normal commercial markets for table stock potatoes. Each marketing committee should be well qualified, because of the experience and knowledge of individual members, to recommend such modifications, suspensions, or terminations as will be in the best interests of the potato industry in the district which it serves and which will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Potatoes which otherwise could not be marketed under the regulations would tend to increase the total returns of potato growers in the production area if shipped to the noncompetitive outlets hereinafter set forth.

In the notice of hearing provision was made to treat shipments of potatoes for grading or storing within the production area as a special shipment to be subject to modified regulation; or with respect to which regulations could be suspended or terminated. Inasmuch as the sale or transportation of potatoes prior to storage or the grading thereof is excluded from the definition of ship there is no occasion or need to permit special treatment of such shipments.

The nature of the demand for seed potatoes differs from the demand for table stock in that small sizes are preferred for seed, whereas the same sizes are discounted in the table stock market. However, certain characteristics which constitute grade defects in table stock potatoes do not necessarily detract from the value of seed potatoes. It is desirable, in order to promote more orderly marketing conditions for potatoes, to authorize the committee to recommend, and the Secretary to modify, grade, size, or quality regulations with respect to seed potatoes, or to suspend or terminate regulations relating to such seed shipments.

Although export outlets are not now an important factor in the demand for potatoes grown in the production area, they may assume greater importance in the future. In the event any export markets offer premium prices for certain grades, sizes, or qualities of potatoes which usually sell at a discount in the domestic market, it would be desirable that authority be provided for each marketing committee to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, modifications, suspensions, or terminations of regulations applicable to export shipments. Such shipments to export would tend to increase returns to producers in the production area and result in added increment to the value of the crop, thereby tending to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Substantial shipments of potatoes to the Federal Government have been made in recent years in carrying out price support obligations administered by the Secretary. It is necessary, therefore, to authorize the committee to recommend and the Secretary to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations to facilitate such shipments, which will increase grower returns from potatoes grown in the production area and thereby tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The marketing committees should be authorized to recommend and the Secretary to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations with respect to potatoes shipped for manufacture or conversion into specified products because such shipments reduce the supply of such potatoes available for shipment to the table stock market and, therefore, such shipments would tend to increase the total value of the entire crop of potatoes. The marketing committees should be given authority to recommend which shipments should be classed as being for manufacture or for conversion into specified products because committee members are in an advantageous position to know whether and when such end products constitute outlets that are not competitive with table stock potatoes. It is concluded that the marketing committees should have authority to recommend and the Secretary to specify such products because some products compete on a basis virtually equal to table stock potatoes and, further, because new end products may be developed from time to time, some of which may, and some of which may not, be competitive with table stock potatoes. Shipments of potatoes to potato chip or french fry plants should not be included thereunder and made subject to modification, suspension, or termination of regulations because such products, i. e., potato chips and french fried potatoes, compete on a basis virtually equal to table stock potatoes.

The marketing committees should be authorized to recommend that shipments of potatoes for livestock feed, or for other specified purposes, should not be regulated, or to recommend modification or suspension of regulations governing such shipments. Livestock feed provides an outlet for potatoes that is not competitive with the table stock market. When such outlet is available it will tend to promote objectives sought under regulation to exempt shipments for this purpose from grade, size, and quality regulations. The marketing committees should be authorized to recommend that shipments of potatoes for a particular purpose or type of utilization should not be regulated, or to recommend modification or suspension of regulations with respect to such shipments, when it is found that such shipments are not competitive with table stock shipments in commerce. The Secretary, on the basis of such recommendations, or other available information, should be authorized to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations with respect thereto, when such action will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The aforesaid authorizations for the modification, suspension, or termination of regulations with respect to shipments of potatoes for each enumerated special purpose, should permit the modification, suspension, or termination of one or more regulatory provision and the simultaneous retention of other regulatory provisions, because such shipments may require expenditures of administrative funds to police and they may compete, to some extent, with shipments of potatoes for table stock purposes.

The administrative difficulties of regulating small shipments, under some circumstances, may make it uneconomical, undesirable, and impractical to attempt to do so under the marketing agreement and order. Under such circumstances, which can be readily determined by each marketing committee, regulation of such small shipments would not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is concluded that the marketing committees should be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, the minimum quantities which should not be subject to any or all regulations issued under the marketing agreement and order in any or all portions of the production area served by such committees. It is desirable to permit the maintenance of one or more regulatory requirements, while relieving such minimum quantities from other regulatory requirements. It may be desirable, for example, to waive the inspection requirement on small shipments but require that handlers pay assessments or comply with grade, size, and quality regulations with respect to such shipments. This provision provides authority to arrange flexible operation of the marketing agreement and order to meet the local situation in the most practical way.

Such authority will promote more orderly marketing and prevent the imposition of undue burdens upon handlers making such small shipments.

The requirement that the Secretary shall notify the marketing committees, and the administrative committee, of any regulations, or of any modifications, suspensions, or terminations of regulations, is appropriate and necessary to enable such committees to be informed of such actions. The administrative committee's obligation to give reasonable notice to growers and handlers, with the assistance of the marketing committees, of regulations issued by the secretary is appropriate and necessary for proper and efficient administration of the marketing agreement and order and to apprise persons subject thereto of the contents of such regulations so that they may govern themselves accordingly.

Authority should be provided for the administrative committee to recommend, and the Secretary to prescribe, adequate safeguards to prevent potatoes, which may be exempted as aforesaid, from being placed, or continuing, in commerce contrary to the provisions of this program. Such safeguards, among others, may require inspection to provide the committee with an accurate record of the grade, size, and quality of such shipments of potatoes. In order to maintain appropriate identification of such shipments of potatoes, the administrative committee should be authorized to issue Certificates of Privilege to handlers thereof and to require that such handlers obtain such certificates on all such shipments. Certificates of Privilege should be issued in accordance with rules and regulations established by the Secretary, on the basis of administrative committee recommendations, or other available information, so that the issuance of such certificates may be handled in an orderly and efficient manner.

The administrative committee also should be authorized to deny or rescind Certificates of Privilege when such action is necessary to prevent abuse of the privileges conferred thereby. The administrative committee should be authorized to take such rescinding or denial action upon evidence satisfactory to the committee that a handler to whom a Certificate of Privilege has been issued has handled potatoes contrary to the provisions thereof. Action by the committee denying a handler such certificates should be in terms of a specified time period. Handlers affected by the aforesaid rescinding or denial action should have the right of appeal to the committee for reconsideration.

The Secretary should have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any safeguards prescribed or any Certificates of Privilege issued by the administrative committee in order that the Secretary may retain all rights necessary to carry out the declared policy of the act. The Secretary should give prompt notice to the committee of any action taken by him in connection therewith and the committee should currently notify all persons affected by the indicated action.

The adminstrative committee should maintain detailed records relevant to Certificates of Privilege and should submit, when requested to do so, reports thereon to the Secretary to supply pertinent information requisite for him to discharge his duties under the act and the marketing agreement and order.

(c) Each marketing committee should be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, such minimum standards of quality and maturity and such grading and inspection requirements during any and all periods of marketing when potato prices are above parity, as will be in the public interest. Some potatoes are of such defective quality that they do not give consumer satisfaction at any time because of the great waste and undue amount of time involved in their preparation. The cost of such potatoes to the consumer per edible unit is frequently greater than the cost per edible unit of potatoes of better quality. Limitation of shipment of such potatoes would be in the interest of both consumers and of the potato industry in the production area. Continued shipments of low quality ad immature potatoes may result in a permanent reduction in demand for potatoes grown in the production area.

(d) Provision is made in the marketing agreement and order for inspection by the Federal Inspection Service of all shipments of potatoes grown in the production area, except as hereinafter indicated. Inspection certificates issued by this service are a common and usual means of specifying the grade, size, and quality of potatoes and are generally used and recognized in the production area. Such certifioates constitute prima facie evidence of the grade, size, and quality of the commodity to which they apply and they are accepted in court as such evidence. It is necessary to provide the handler, the committees, or any other interested party with a means of determining whether a shipment, or shipments, of potatoes complies with the requirements of any particular grade, size, and quality regulation which may be in effect under the marketing agreement and order. Inspection certificates provide such a means.

The Federal Inspection Service can provide reasonably prompt inspection at all points within the production area at a reasonable fee if inspection is requested at a reasonable time prior to the anticipated sale or transportation of the commodity to be inspected. Effective regulation of the handling of potatoes grown in the production area requires that the grade, size, and quality of each shipment thereof be authoritatively established based upon an unrestricted inspection of each such shipment. Accordingly, the marketing agreement and order should provide that no handler shall ship potatoes unless, prior thereto, such shipment was inspected by the aforesaid Service. In the event the Federal Inspection Service is unable to provide the aforesaid inspection service, there should be authority for the Secretary to designate an inspection agency that is properly qualified to make the inspection. This is merely a precautionary measure to assure the availability of an inspection service at all times.

Although shipments of potatoes grown in the production area should meet the minimum grade, size, and quality requirements in effect at the time of such shipments, to tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, the inspection and certification requirements are primarily an administrative device, essential and necessary for the administration of the marketing agreement and order, to enable the committees, and other interested parties, to ascertain the grade, size, and quality of the potatoes involved in such shipments.

Copies of inspection certificates issued pursuant to the requirements of the marketing agreement and order should be supplied to the administrative committee promptly, so that it may promptly discharge its administrative responsibilities thereunder. In instances where potatoes previously inspected are regraded, resorted, or in any other way subjected to further preparation for market in the production area, such potatoes should be and are required to be inspected and a copy of the inspection certificate should be furnished to the administrative committee because such further preparation for market destroys the validity of the original inspection certificate as evidence of the grade, size, and quality of the potatoes involved. All of the aforesaid requirements are necessary for proper administration and enforcement of the provisions of the marketing agreement and order.

(f) Certain hazards are incidental to the production of potatoes grown in the production area which are beyond the control or reasonable expectation of the producer of such potatoes. Because of these circumstances and to prevent undue hardship among producers with respect to any regulations which may be issued under the marketing agreement and order, the committee should be authorized to issue exemption certificates to producers to permit each producer to handle or cause to be handled his equitable proportion of all potatoes shipped from the production area if the grade, size, or quality of his potatoes have been adversely affected by conditions beyond reasonable expectation. In determining such equitable proportion, the committee should be authorized to estimate the average percentage of production which has been and will be shipped by all producers in the producer's immediate area of production under a given regulation (which will be such equitable proportion). For such purpose, the committee will need a representative sample of the grade, size, and quality composition of the total crop in such area, a part of which, at any given time during the shipping season, may have been harvested and marketed and another part unharvested.

Similar hazards are prevalent in the handling of potatoes grown in the production area and equitable treatment of each handler, under the marketing agreement and order, requires that he be permitted to handle as large a proportion of his storage holdings of ungraded potatoes (acquired during or immediately following the digging season) as the average proportion of ungraded storage holdings handled by all handlers in an applicant-handler's immediate shipping area, if the grade, size, or quality of such applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by conditions beyond the applicant's control and by conditions beyond reasonable expectation. Restricting the aforesaid exemptions to cases involving conditions beyond the producer's and handler's control, respectively, and to conditions beyond reasonable expectation, is necessary to preclude the granting of such hardship exemptions where the producers and handlers could have avoided the condition responsible for their hardships.

The administrative committee, by reason of its knowledge of the conditions and problems applicable to the production and handling of potatoes grown in the production area and the information which it will have available in each case, will be well qualified to judge each producer's or handler's application in a fair and equitable manner and to fix the quantity of exempted potatoes which each such applicant may handle or cause to be handled.

The provisions contained in the notice of hearing relevant to the procedure to be followed in issuing exemption certificates, in transferring such certificates, in investigating exemption claims, in appealing exemption claim determinations, and in recording and reporting exemption claim determinations to the Secretary, are necessary to the orderly and equitable operation of the marketing agreement and order and they should, therefore, be incorporated in the marketing agreement and order.

Provision should be made for the Secretary to modify, change, alter, or rescind the procedure established for granting of exemptions, and any exemptions granted pursuant to such procedure. This is necessary to guard against inequities in the granting of exemptions and to preclude the issuance of exemption certificates in unjustifiable cases.

(f) The operation of the committees and the marketing agreement and order require funds for the payment of necessary administrative expenses. The administrative committee is the logical agency to recommend what expenses are reasonable, necessary, and appropriate for operation of the program. It is also necessary that assessments be levied on the handlers to meet such expenses since no other source of funds is authorized under the act for defraying such expenses. The administrative committee should be required, each year, to prepare and submit to the Secretary a budget showing estimated expenses of operating the program and a proposed rate of assessment. This is desirable in order that the Secretary may have the best possible information on probable expenses of the committees and the proper rate of assessment to be levied to meet such expenses.

Assessments should be levied against each handler who first ships potatoes, herein called the first handler, to establish an appropriate basis for each handler paying his pro rata share of necessary administrative expenses. Each first handler is required to pay assessments to the administrative committee, at its request, to preclude multiple assessments in connection with individual shipments of potatoes. Each first handler's pro rata share of such expenses should be to the percentage of such expenses equal to the percentage his total season's first handling of potatoes subject to regulation is of the total season's first handling of potatoes subject to regulation by all first handlers. The Secretary, upon the basis of the administrative committee's recommendation, or other available information, should fix a rate of assessment per given unit of shipment which first handlers must pay as an equitable share of the expenses of administering the program.

The Secretary should be authorized to increase the rate of assessment which first handlers should pay if he finds, during or after the fiscal year, that the then current rate of assessment is insufficient to cover expenses. Such increased rate should apply to all assessable potatoes handled during that fiscal year to preclude inequities among handlers.

Revenues collected through assessments in excess of expenses for any fiscal year should, at the end of such fiscal year, be credited pro rata to each contributing handler's account, or, upon demand, refunded to any handler.

The administrative committee should be authorized to maintain, with the approval of the Secretary, suits in its own name, or in the name of its members, against any handler for collection of such handler's pro rata share of the expenses. Such authority is contained in the act.

The administrative committee should be permitted to make such expenditures during a fiscal year as are authorized and are necessary for effective administration and proper functioning of the marketing agreement and order program, within the limitations of the budget submitted by the administrative committee and approved by the Secretary for such year.

Any member or alternate of the administrative committee or a marketing committee responsible for or having in his custody any of the property, funds, records, or any other possessions of any such committees, should be required to transfer it to his successor or to such person as may be designated by the Secretary, and to execute such instruments as may be necessary to effect such transfers. The committees, and such members and alternates, should be required to give an accounting for all receipts and disbursements and for all property of such committees whenever requested by the Secretary and whenever, in the case of members and alternates, they cease to be such members or alternates. These transfer and accounting requirements represent sound business procedure and are necessary in order that there will be an unbroken succession in committee possessions.

(g) For proper and efficient administration of the marketing agreement and order, the administrative committee and the marketing committees needs information on potatoes with respect to supplies, movement, prices, and sundry other relevant factors which are best obtainable from handlers. The administrative committee should be authorized to request, with the approval of the Secretary, and every handler should be required to furnish to the committee upon request, with the approval of the Secretary, such information as may be required for the committee to exercise its powers and perform its duties under the marketing agreement and order.

The Secretary should retain the right to modify, change, alter or rescind any requests by the administrative committee for information in order to protect handlers from unreasonable requests for reports.

(h) The provisions of §§ 917.8 through 917.20, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 15, 1950 (15 F. R. 2141) are common to marketing agreements and orders now operating. Each of such sections sets forth certain rights, obligations, privileges, or procedures which are necessary and appropriate for the effective operation of the marketing agreement and order. These provisions are incidental to, and not inconsistent with, section 8c (6) and (7) of the act, and are necessary to effectuate the other provisions of the marketing agreement and order and to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The substance of such provisions, therefore, should be included in the marketing agreement and order. The requirement that termination of the program at the end of a fiscal year be announced at least 30 days prior to such time will afford producers and handlers sufficient time to plan for the next marketing season.

General findings. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The order, as hereinafter set forth,, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) Such order regulates the handling of potatoes grown in the production area in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a proposed marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(3) The said order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistent with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of the production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) The said order prescribes, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of the production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to the differences in the production and marketing of potatoes grown in the said area;

(5) All handling of potatoes, as defined in said order, is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Interested parties were allowed until June 7, 1950, to file briefs with respect to findings of facts and conclusions based on evidence introduced at the hearing. No brief was filed, hence, no ruling is necessary.

Recommended marketing agreement and order. The following marketing agreement and order are recommended as the detailed means by which the aforesaid conclusions may be carried out.

DEFINITIONS

§ 917.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any officer, or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture, who is, or may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 917.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051).

§ 917.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any organized group or business unit.

§ 917.4 Production area. "Production area" means all territory included within the counties of Goshen, Laramie, Platte, Albany, Converse, Niobrara, Natrona, Johnson, Sheridan, Washakie, Big Horn, Park, Hot Springs, and Fremont in Wyoming and the counties of Sioux, Scotts Bluff, Banner, Kimball, Cheyenne, Morrill, Box Butte, Dawes, Sheridan, Garden, Deuel, Keith, and Lincoln in Nebraska.

§ 917.5 Potatoes. "Potatoes" means all varieties of Irish potatoes grown within the production area.

§ 917.6 Handler; shipper. "Handler" is synonymous with "shipper" and means any person (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) who ships potatoes.

§ 917.7 Ship; handle. "Ship" or "handle" means to transport, sell, or in any other way to place potatoes in the current of commerce within the production area, or between the production area and any point outside thereof: Provided, That the definition of "ship" or "handle" shall not include or be applicable to the sale or transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area for storing therein, or the sale or transportation within the production area of potatoes to a recognized packer for the purpose of having such potatoes prepared therein for market.

§ 917.8 Producer. "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of potatoes for market.

§ 917.9 Fiscal year. "Fiscal year" means the period beginning on June 1 of each year and ending on the last day of May following.

§ 917.10 Administrative committee; marketing committee. "Administrative committee" means the Wyoming-Western Nebraska Committee established pursuant to § 917.22 (a); and "marketing committee" means each of the district marketing committees established pursuant to § 917.22 (b).

§ 917.11 Varieties. "Varieties" means and includes all classifications or subdivisions of Irish potatoes according to those definitive characteristics now or hereafter recognized by the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 917.12 Seed potatoes. "Seed potatoes" means and includes all potatoes officially certified and tagged, marked, or otherwise appropriately identified, under the supervision of the official seed potato certifying agency of the respective State or such other seed certification agencies as the Secretary may designate.

§ 917.14 Pack. "Pack" means a unit of potatoes contained in a bag, crate, or other type of container and falling within specific weight limits recommended by the administrative committee and approved by the Secretary.

§ 917.15 Grade. "Grade" means any one of the officially established grades of potatoes, and "size" means any one of the officially established sizes of potatoes, as defined and set forth in:

(a) The United States Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon; or

(b) The United States Consumer Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (12 F. R. 7281), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon.

§ 917.16 Export. "Export" means shipments of potatoes beyond the boundaries of continental United States.

§ 917.17 District, and subdistrict. "District" means each of the districts of the production area established pursuant to § 917.26; and "subdistrict" means each of the subdistricts established pursuant to the same section.

COMMITTEE

§ 917.22 Establishment—(a) Administrative Committee. The Wyoming-Western Nebraska Potato Committee consisting of six members, four of whom shall be producers and two of whom shall be handlers, is hereby established. All of such members shall be members of a marketing committee under this subpart.

(b) Marketing committees. Marketing committees are hereby established as follows:

(1) District No. 1 Potato Marketing Committee. This committee shall consist of nine members, six of whom shall be producers and three of whom shall be handlers.

(2) District No. 2 Potato Marketing Committee. This committee shall consist of nine members, six of whom shall be producers and three of whom shall be handlers.

§ 917.23 Committee members and alternates. For each member of each committee there shall be an alternate who shall have the same qualifications as the member. Each person selected as a marketing committee member or alternate to represent producers in a subdistrict shall be an individual who is a producer or officer or employee of a producer in such subdistrict. Each person selected as a marketing committee member or alternate to represent handlers in a district shall be an individual who is a handler or officer or employee of a handler in such district.

§ 917.24 Term of office. (a) The respective terms of office of administrative committee members and alternates and marketing committee members and alternates shall be two fiscal years: Provided, That the term of office of a majority of the initial members and respective alternates of each committee shall be one fiscal year. Each member and alternate shall continue to serve until the respective successor is selected and has qualified.

(b) Administrative and marketing committee members and alternates shall serve during the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified, or during that portion thereof beginning on the date on which they qualify.

§ 917.25 Selection—(a) Administrative committee. The Secretary shall select the members and alternates of the Wyoming-Western Nebraska Potato Committee as follows: Two producer members and alternates and one handler member and alternate from each marketing committee established under this subpart.

(b) Marketing committee. The Secretary shall select marketing committee members and alternates as follows: For District No. 1 Potato Marketing Committee, four producer members and alternates from subdistrict 1 A, two producer members and alternates from subdistrict 1 B, and three handler members from District No. 1; and for District No. 2 Potato Marketing Committee, four producer members and alternates from subdistrict 2 A, two producer members and alternates from subdistrict 2 B, and three handler members from District No. 2. The aforesaid districts and subdistricts are established pursuant to § 917.26.

§ 917.26 Districts and subdistricts. As a basis for selecting marketing committee members, the following districts and subdistricts of the production area are hereby established:

Districts	Subdistrict	State and counties
District No. 1	1A	Converse, Niobrara, Platte, Goshen and Laramie Counties in Wyoming.
	1B	All the remaining counties in Wyoming within the production area not included in subdistrict 1A.
District No. 2	2A, 2B	Scotts Bluff County in Nebraska. All the remaining counties in Nebraska within the production area not included in subdistrict 2A.

§ 917.27 Nomination. The Secretary may select the members of the administrative committee and the marketing committees and their respective alternates from nominations which may be made in the following manner:

(a) Nominations for members of the administrative committee and their respective alternates to represent a district may be submitted by the marketing committee serving such district. At least two nominees from among the membership on such marketing committee shall be designated for each position to be filled on the administrative committee. Nominations for administrative committee members and their respective alternates shall be supplied to the Secretary in such manner and form as he may prescribe, as soon as practical after the respective marketing committee organizes and begins operating during the term for which selected.

(b) Nominations for initial producer members of each marketing committee and their respective alternates may be submitted by producers, or groups thereof, and such nominations may be by virtue of elections conducted by such producers. Nominations for initial handler members of each marketing committee and their respective alternates may be submitted by handlers, or groups thereof, and such nominations may be by virtue of elections conducted by such handlers.

(c) In order to provide nominations for successor members and alternate members on a marketing committee:

(1) The Wyoming-Western Nebraska Potato Committee shall hold or cause to be held 60 days prior to the end of each fiscal year, after the effective date of this subpart, a meeting or meetings of producers and handlers, respectively, in the district served by the committee;

(2) At each such meeting at least two nominees shall be designated for each position as member and for each position as alternate member on the marketing committee which is vacant or which is to become vacant at the end of the then current fiscal year;

(3) Nominations for marketing committee members and alternate members shall be supplied to the Secretary in such manner and form as he may prescribe, not later than 45 days prior to the end of such fiscal year;

(4) Only producers may participate in designating nominees for producer members and their alternates and only handlers may participate in designating nominees for handler members and their alternates;

(5) Each person who is both a handler and a producer may vote either as a handler or as a producer and shall elect the group in which he votes; and

(6) Regardless of the number of subdistricts in which a person is a producer, such person is entitled to cast only one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives, in designating nominees for each producer member position and each producer alternate member position to be filled on such committee: Provided, That in the event a person is a producer in more than one subdistrict, such person shall elect the subdistrict within which he will participate as aforesaid in designating nominees.

§ 917.28 Failure to nominate. If nominations are not made within the time and in the manner specified by the Secretary pursuant to § 917.27, the Secretary may, without regard to nominations, select administrative committee, and marketing committee, members and alternates, which selection shall be on the basis of the representation provided in this subpart.

§ 917.29 Acceptance. Any person selected as a member or as an alternate member on any committee shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary within ten days after being notified of such selection.

§ 917.30 Vacancies. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a member or as an alternate member to qualify, or in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any qualified member or alternate, a successor for his unexpired term may be selected by the Secretary from nominations made in the manner specified in § 917.27, or the Secretary may select such committee member or alternate from previously unselected nominees on the applicable current nominee list. If the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within 30 days after such vacancy occurs, such vacancy may be filled without regard to nominations, which selection shall be made on the basis of the representation provided in this subpart.

§ 917.31 Alternate members. An alternate member of any committee shall act in the place and stead of the member for whom he is an alternate, during such member's absence, or inability to act. In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, his alternate shall act for him until a successor of such member is selected and has qualified.

§ 917.32 Procedure. (a) Four members of the Wyoming-Western Nebraska Potato Committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of the administrative committee and a like number of concurring votes shall be necessary to pass any motion or approve any committee action.

(b) Five members of a marketing committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such committee and a like number of concurring votes shall be necessary to pass any motion or approve any action of such committee.

(c) Committee meetings may be conducted by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication and any vote cast at such a meeting shall be confirmed promptly in writing: Provided, That if an assembled meeting is held, all votes shall be cast in person.

§ 917.33 Expenses and compensation. Committee members and alternates shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties and in the exercise of their powers under this part, and shall receive compensation at a rate to be determined by the administrative committee, which rate shall not exceed $10.00 for each day, or portion thereof, spent in attending to committee business.

§ 917.34 Powers. The Wyoming-Western Nebraska Potato Committee and each of the marketing committees shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this part in accordance with its terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this part;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the provisions of this part; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this part.

§ 917.35 Duties—(a) Administrative committee. It shall be the duty of the Wyoming-Western Nebraska Potato Committee:

(1) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer or handler;

(2) To select, from among its membership, a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary, and subcommittees of committee members, and to adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable;

(3) To appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries and define the duties of each such person;

(4) To investigate, from time to time, and to assemble data on the growing, harvesting, shipping, and marketing conditions with respect to potatoes, and to engage in such research and service activities which relate to the handling or marketing of potatoes as may be approved by the Secretary;

(5) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(6) To keep minutes, books, and records which clearly reflect all of the acts and transactions of the administrative committee and such minutes, books, and records shall be subject to examination at any time by the Secretary or his authorized agent or representative;

(7) At the beginning of each fiscal year, to submit to the Secretary a budget of its expenses and assessments for such fiscal year, together with a report thereon;

(8) To recommend the rate of assessment to cover the expenses set forth in the budget;

(9) To cause the books of the administrative committee to be audited by a competent accountant at least once each fiscal year, and at such other time as such committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request. The report of such audit shall show the receipt and expenditure of funds collected pursuant to this part; a copy of each such report shall be furnished to the Secretary and a copy of each such report shall be made available at the principal office of such committee for inspection by producers and handlers; and

(10) To consult, cooperate and exchange information when deemed desirable by the administrative committee with other potato administrative committees and other individuals or agencies in connection with all proper activities and objectives of such committee under this part.

(b) Marketing committees. It shall be the duty of each marketing committee:

(1) To nominate members and alternates for the Wyoming-Western Nebraska Potato Committee;

(2) To investigate, from time to time, and to assemble data on the growing, harvesting, shipping, and marketing conditions with respect to potatoes;

(3) To make recommendations pursuant to § 917.52 for the issuance of regulations to be applicable to shipments from the district served by the respective committee;

(4) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer or handler;

(5) To select, from among its membership, a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary and to select subcommittees of committee members;

(6) To adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable; and

(7) To keep minutes, books, and records which clearly reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and such minutes, books, and records shall be subject to examination at any time by the Secretary or his authorized agent or representative.

EXPENSES, ASSESSMENTS, AND BUDGETS

§ 917.40 Budget. The administrative committee shall prepare a budget for each fiscal year showing its anticipated expenses and a proposed rate of assessment to cover such expenses. The administrative committee shall also transmit a report accompanying the budget showing the basis for its calculation of expenses and the proposed rate of assessment.

§ 917.41 Expenses. The administrative committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary, upon the basis of the aforesaid budget, or on the basis of other available information, finds may be necessary and appropriate during each fiscal year.

§ 917.42 Rate of assessment. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying on handlers of assessments which shall be at a rate fixed by the Secretary on the basis of the administrative committee's recommendation or other available information. Each handler who first ships potatoes shall pay assessments to the administrative committee, upon demand, which assessments shall be such handler's pro rata share of the expenses which will be appropriately incurred by such committee during each fiscal year. Such handler's share of such expenses shall be proportionate to the ratio between the total quantity of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof, during the applicable fiscal year, and the total quantity of potatoes handled by all handlers as the first handlers thereof, during the same fiscal year.

§ 917.43 Increasing rate of assessment. Upon recommendation of the administrative committee or upon a later finding relative to such committee's expenses or revenue, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to cover expenses which shall be appropriately incurred. Such increase shall be applicable to all potatoes handled during the given fiscal year.

§ 917.44 Accounting. All funds received by the administrative committee pursuant to any provision of this part shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part and shall be accounted for in the following manner:

(a) The Secretary may at any time require the administrative committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements; and

(b) Whenever any person ceases to be an administrative or marketing committee member or alternate, he shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his hands, together with all books and records in his possession, to his successor in office or to such person as the Secretary may designate, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor or in such designated person the right to all the property, funds, or claims vested in such member or alternate.

§ 917.45 Collection of funds. The administrative committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, maintain in its own name or in the name of its members, a suit against any handler for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of its expenses.

§ 917.46 Refunds. If, at the end of a fiscal year, it shall appear that assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund of the excess assessments shall be credited with such refund against the operations of the following fiscal year, unless he demands payment thereof, in which event such proportionate refund shall be paid to him.

REGULATION

§ 917.50 Marketing policy preparation. (a) At the beginning of each marketing season the administrative committee and the marketing committees shall hold a joint meeting to consider a proposed policy for the marketing of potatoes grown in the respective districts during such season. In developing such marketing policy the committees shall investigate relevant supply and demand conditions for potatoes and in such investigations shall give appropriate consideration to the following:

(1) Market prices for potatoes, including prices by grade, size, and quality in different packs;

(2) Supply of potatoes, by grade, size, and quality in the production area and in other production areas;

(3) The trend and level of consumer income; and

(4) Other relevant factors.

(b) Following such joint consideration of marketing policy, each marketing committee shall adopt a proposed policy for the marketing of potatoes grown in its district and prepare a report thereon.

§ 917.51 Marketing policy report. (a) Each marketing committee shall submit to the Secretary a report setting forth the aforesaid marketing policy, and a copy of such report shall be made available to the administrative committee. Each committee with the assistance of the administrative committee also shall notify producers and handlers of the contents of such reports.

(b) In the event it becomes advisable for a marketing committee to deviate from its marketing policy, because of changed supply and demand conditions, the administrative committee and the marketing committees shall formulate a new marketing policy in accordance with the manner previously outlined. Such marketing committee also shall submit a report thereon to the Secretary, also to the administrative committee, and notify, with the assistance of the administrative committee, producers and handlers of such revised or amended marketing policy.

§ 917.52 Recommendation for regulations; committee recommendations. Each marketing committee shall recommend regulation, for the district which it serves, to the Secretary whenever it finds that such regulation, as provided in § 917.53, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Each marketing committee also may recommend modification, suspension, or termination of any regulation in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes, grown in such district, pursuant to § 917.54.

§ 917.53 Issuance of regulations. The Secretary shall limit the shipment of potatoes whenever he finds from the recommendations and information submitted by any marketing committee, or from other available information, that such regulation would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Such limitation may:

(a) Regulate, in any or all portions of the production area, the shipment of particular grades, sizes, or qualities of any or all varieties of potatoes during any period; or

(b) Regulate the shipment of particular grades, sizes, or qualities of potatoes differently, for different varieties, for different portions of the production area, for different packs, or any combination of the foregoing during any period; or

(c) Regulate the shipment of potatoes by establishing, and maintaining in effect in terms of grades, sizes, or both, minimum standards of quality or maturity, or both.

§ 917.54 Modification, suspension, or termination. The Secretary shall modify, suspend, or terminate regulations issued pursuant to §§ 917.42, 917.53, or 917.65, or any combination thereof, in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for one or more of the following purposes, whenever he finds, upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by any marketing committee for the district served by such committee, or from other available information, that such action will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act:

(a) For seed;

(b) For export;

(c) For distribution by the Federal Government;

(d) For manufacture or conversion into specified products;

(e) For livestock feed; and

(f) For other purposes which may be specified.

§ 917.55 Minimum quantity regulation. Each marketing committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish for any or all portions of the production area, served by such committee, minimum quantities below which shipments will be free from regulations issued or in effect pursuant to §§ 917.42, 917.43, 917.53, or 917.65 or any combinations thereof.

§ 917.56 Notification of regulation. The Secretary shall notify the administrative committee and marketing committees of each regulation issued, and modification, suspension, or termination thereof. The administrative committee with the assistance of the marketing committees shall give reasonable notice thereof to producers and handlers.

§ 917.57 Safeguards. (a) The administrative committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe adequate safeguards to prevent shipments pursuant to § 917.54 from entering channels of trade for other than the specific purpose authorized therefor, and rules governing the issuance and the contents of Certificates of Privilege if such certificates are prescribed as safeguards by such committee. Such safeguards may include requirements that:

(1) Handlers shall file applications with the administrative committee to ship potatoes pursuant to § 917.54;

(2) Handlers shall obtain inspection provided by § 917.65 or pay the aforesaid pro rata share of expenses, or both, in connection with potato shipments effected under the provisions of § 917.54; and

(3) Handlers shall obtain Certificates of Privilege from the administrative committee for shipments of potatoes effected or to be effected under the provisions of § 917.54.

(b) The administrative committee may rescind or deny Certificates of Privilege to any shipper if proof is obtained that potatoes shipped by him for the purposes stated in § 917.54 were handled contrary to the requirements applicable thereto.

(c) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any safeguards prescribed and any certificates issued by the administrative committee pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(d) The administrative committee shall make reports to the Secretary, as requested, showing the number of applications for such certificates, the quantity of potatoes covered by such applications, the number of such applications denied and certificates granted, the quantity of potatoes shipped under duly issued certificates, and such other information as may be requested.

INSPECTION

§ 917.65 Inspection and certification. During any period in which shipments of potatoes are regulated pursuant to the provisions of §§ 917.42, 917.43, or 917.53, no handler shall ship potatoes unless, prior thereto, such shipment was inspected by an authorized representative of the Federal Inspection Service or such other inspection service as the Secretary shall designate. Each handler procuring inspection pursuant to this section shall make arrangements with the inspecting agency to forward promptly to the administrative committee a copy of the inspection certificate: Provided, That the regrading, resorting, repacking, or other further preparation of inspected potatoes for market shall invalidate prior inspection thereon and subsequent shipment of such potatoes after regrading, resorting, repacking, or other preparation for market shall not be effected unless, prior thereto, such shipment is inspected as provided in this section.

EXEMPTIONS

§ 917.70 Procedure. The administrative committee may adopt, subject to approval of the Secretary, the procedures pursuant to which certificates of exemption will be issued to producers and to handlers.

§ 917.71 Granting exemptions. (a) Such committee may issue certificates of exemption to any producer who applies for such exemption and furnishes adequate evidence to the committee that, by reason of a regulation issued pursuant to § 917.53, he will be prevented from handling, or causing to be handled, as large a proportion of his production as the average proportion of production handled, or caused to be handled, during the entire season (or such portion thereof as may be determined by the committee) by all producers in said applicant's immediate area of production and that the grade, size, and quality, or either thereof, of the applicant's potatoes, has been adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's control and by acts beyond his reasonable expectation. Each such certificate shall permit the producer to handle, or cause to be handled, the amount of potatoes specified thereon. Such certificate shall be transferred with such potatoes at time of transportation or sale.

(b) Such committee may issue certificates of exemption to any handler who applies for such exemption and furnishes adequate evidence to the committee that, by reason of a regulation issued pursuant to § 917.53, he will be prevented from handling as large a proportion of his storage holdings of ungraded potatoes, acquired during or immediately following the digging season, as the average proportion of ungraded storage holdings (acquired as aforesaid) handled by all handlers in said applicant's immediate shipping area, and that the grade, size, and quality, or either thereof of the applicant's potatoes, has been adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's control and by acts beyond his reasonable expectation. Each such certificate shall permit the handler to handle the amount of potatoes specified thereon. Such certificate shall be transferred with such potatoes at time of transportation or sale.

(c) The committee shall be permitted, at any time, to make a thorough investigation of any producer's or handler's claim pertaining to exemptions.

§ 917.72 Appeal. If any applicant for exemption certificates is dissatisfied with the determination by the committee with respect to his application, said applicant may file an appeal with the committee. Such an appeal must be taken promptly after the determination by the committee from which the appeal is taken. Each applicant filing an appeal shall furnish evidence satisfactory to the committee for a determination on the appeal. The committee shall thereupon reconsider the application, examine all available evidence, and make a final determination concerning the application. The committee shall notify the appellant of the final determination and shall furnish the Secretary with a copy of the appeal and a statement of considerations involved in making the final determination.

§ 917.73 Records and reports of exemptions. (a) The administrative committee shall maintain records of all applications submitted for exemption certificates, of all exemption certificates issued, of the respective quantity of potatoes covered by each such exemption certificates, of the amount of potatoes shipped under exemption certificates, and of appeals submitted for reconsideration of applications, and such additional information as may be requested by the Secretary. Periodic reports on such records shall be compiled and issued by the administrative committee upon request of the Secretary.

(b) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any procedure and any exemptions granted pursuant to § 917.70, 917.71, or 917.72, or any combination thereof.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 917.80 Reports. Upon the request of the administrative committee, with approval of the Secretary, every handler shall furnish to such committee, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, such information as will enable the administrative committee and the marketing committees to exercise their powers and perform their duties under this part. The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, or rescind any requests for reports made pursuant to this section.

§ 917.81 Compliance. Except as provided in this part, no handler shall ship potatoes, the shipment of which has been prohibited by the Secretary in accordance with provisions of this part, and no handler shall ship potatoes except in conformity to the provisions of this part.

§ 917.82 Right of the Secretary. The members of the administrative committee (including successors and alternates) and any agent or employee appointed or employed by such committee, and the members of the marketing committees (including successors and alternates) shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination or other act of each such committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time. Upon such disapproval, the disapproved action shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 917.84 Termination. (a) The Secretary may, at any time, terminate the provisions of this subpart by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which he may determine.

(b) The Secretary may terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions of this subpart whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart at the end of any fiscal year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of producers who, during the preceding fiscal year, have been engaged in the production for market of potatoes: Provided, That such majority has, during such year, produced for market more than fifty percent of the volume of such potatoes produced for market; but such termination shall be effective only if announced at least 30 days prior to the end of the then current fiscal year.

(d) The provisions of this subpart shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

(e) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this agreement at the end of any fiscal year, upon the written request of handlers signatory to this agreement who submit evidence satisfactory to the Secretary that they handled not less than sixty-seven percent of the total volume of potatoes handled by the signatory handlers during the preceding fiscal year; but such termination shall be effective only if announced at least 30 days prior to the end of the then current fiscal year.[1]

§ 917.85 Proceedings after termination. (a) Upon the termination of the provisions of this subpart, the then functioning members of the administrative committee shall continue as trustees, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of such committee and the marketing committees, of all the funds and property then in the possession of or under control of such committees, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination. Action by said trusteeship shall require the concurrence of a majority of the said trustees.

(b) The said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the aforesaid committees and of the trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall upon request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the committee or the trustees pursuant to this subpart.

(c) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations imposed in this part.

§ 917.86 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart, or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendments to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this subpart or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart or of any regulations issued under this subpart, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violation.

§ 917.87 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon the termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 917.88 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the Government, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 917.89 Derogation. Nothing contained in this part is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any powers granted, by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 917.90 Personal liability. No member or alternate of the administrative committee or any marketing committee, or any employee or agent of the administrative committee, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate, employee, or agent, except for acts of dishonesty.

§ 917.91 Separability. If any provision of this subpart is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this subpart, or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing, shall not be affected thereby.

§ 917.92 Amendments. Amendments to this subpart hereto may be proposed, from time to time, by the administrative committee, or by any marketing committee, or by the Secretary.

§ 917.93 Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts and when one counterpart is signed by the Secretary, all such counterparts shall constitute, when taken together, one and the same instrument as if all signatures were contained in one original.[1]

§ 917.94 Additional parties. After the effective date of this agreement, any handler who has not previously executed this agreement may become a party hereto if a counterpart hereof is executed by him and delivered to the Secretary. This agreement shall take effect as to such new contracting part at the time such counterpart is delivered to the Secretary, and benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement shall then be effective as to such new contracting party.[1]

§ 917.95 Order with marketing agreement. Each signatory handler favors and approves the issuance of an order, by the Secretary, regulating the handling of potatoes in the same manner as is provided in this agreement; and each signatory handler hereby requests the Secretary to issue, pursuant to the act, such an order.[1]

HANDLING OF MILK IN THE NASHVILLE, TENN., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT, AND TO THE ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. not later than the close of business the 10th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, was conducted at Nashville, Tennessee, on April 6, 1950, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on March 30, 1950 (15 F. R. 1875).

The material issue of record related to a change in the provisions with respect to the fall production incentive plan.

Findings and conclusions. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found and concluded that the provisions of the present order with respect to the fall production incentive plan should not be changed in the manner proposed.

Presently the order provides that in the computation of the uniform price a sum of money equal to 45 cents per hundredweight of milk received from producers during April, May, and June of each year will be retained in the producer-settlement fund. One-third of this fund is added to the money otherwise payable to producers for milk received from them during each of the following months of September, October, and November.

The purpose of the plan is to encourage a more even distribution seasonally of the annual deliveries of milk to the market. A more even seasonal pattern of milk production is desirable because sales of milk in fluid form do not vary greatly from season to season (although there are considerable daily fluctuations) while the production of milk for this market, on the other hand, has had a pronounced seasonal variation. The result has been that more than ample supplies have been available during the spring months while shortages have occurred in the fall months. The plan tends to achieve its end by reducing prices to producers in the season of ample production and increasing prices in the season of shortages.

The fall production incentive plan was made effective in this market in 1948 and the first deductions and payments under it were made in 1949. Following the institution of the plan it appears that a greater tendency developed for farmers to enter the market just before and during the short production season of the year and to leave the market just before and during the flush production season of the year. Of the new producers coming on the market in 1948, 27 percent came on during the last six months while 78 percent came on during this period in 1949. Of those producers leaving the market in 1948, 15 percent left in April, May, and June, while 34 percent left during these months in 1949.

The plan was criticized on the grounds that farmers who came on the market just before and during the short season of the year shared in the proceeds of the fund which had been deducted in the previous flush season of the year. These criticisms do not take into account, however, the essential purpose of the level of production incentive plan which is to provide more milk for the market in the short season and somewhat less milk than would otherwise be the case in the flush season. Consequently, the acquisition of new producers before and during the short season aids in providing an adequate supply of milk during the season when it is most needed and the departure of producers before and during the flush season aids in reducing the unwieldy surpluses which occur at that time of the year.

The fall production incentive plan has been in operation for a comparatively short time. The market has not received from producers more milk during the three fall months than is needed to fulfill the requirements for Class I milk and Class II milk. Time is necessary upon which to determine whether the plan is obtaining the desired goal. If later results show that it is not, further study should be made of its weaknesses and of the possible use of some other plan which might accomplish better the end sought.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of Nashville Milk Producers, Inc., and on behalf of the handlers in the market.

The briefs contained statements of fact, proposed findings and conclusions, and arguments with respect to the provisions of the proposed amendment. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with the evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that the findings and conclusions proposed in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings or to reach such conclusions is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this recommended decision.

Filed at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of August 1950.

Assistant Administrator.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Office of Industry and Commerce

[Case No. 89]

ARTHUR HARRIS ET AL.

ORDER SUSPENDING LICENSE PRIVILEGES

In the matter of: Arthur Harris, Southern International Corporation, Melvin Shipping Corporation, Melvin Kornbluth, 11 Broadway, New York, N. Y., respondents.

This proceeding was begun by the mailing of a charging letter to the above-named respondents by the Office of International Trade under date of October 31, 1949, wherein respondents were charged with having made twelve specified exportations of canned meats during the period of May through August 1949, in violation of the export control regulations and, except for respondent Kornbluth, also in violation of an outstanding order issued by the Office of International Trade suspending the export license privileges of respondent Harris and others on account of prior violations of such regulations, and thus with having violated the Export Control Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 7).

An oral hearing having been requested by respondents, such hearing was held in New York City on January 5 and 6, 1950, before the Compliance Commissioner. Respondents as well as the Office of International Trade were represented by counsel and presented both oral and documentary evidence. After such hearing, the administration of export controls was transferred by order of the Secretary of Commerce from the Office of International Trade to the Office of Industry and Commerce, with the consequence that this proceeding was similarly transferred. Thereafter, all evidentiary material presented at the hearing having been carefully reviewed by the Compliance Commissioner, he filed his report under date of July 17, 1950.

It appears from the record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner that on April 1, 1949, after findings of violation of the export control regulations on the part of respondent Harris and certain corporations which he owned and controlled, an order was issued by the Office of International Trade denying them the privilege of making exportations under validated licenses for a period of six months and the privilege of making exportations under general licenses for a period of two months; that such order was expressly made applicable not only to Harris personally but also to any other business organization with which he might be or become related by ownership or control or in which he might hold or secure a position of responsibility; that such order was thereafter, on April 8, 1949, modified so as to permit a newly-organized corporation, respondent Southern International Corporation, with Harris as its employee, to make exportations of the products of United Packers, Inc., a Chicago concern formerly represented by Harris, but that such modification was made dependent upon compliance with certain stated conditions among which were the independent ownership and control of Southern International Corporation by one Joseph Weinstein of Brooklyn, New York, and the personal signing of all of such corporation's export declarations by an official of United Packers, Inc.

It further appears from the record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner that ten of the twelve shipments involved in the charges were made to Canada, a country to which export controls do not apply, and consequently could not and did not constitute violations of either the outstanding suspension order or the export control regulations; that one of the two remaining shipments was a general license shipment made after said suspension order had expired insofar as it related to shipments under general license; that the other one of such two shipments was made in violation of the suspension order in that it was made pursuant to an export declaration not signed by an official of United Packers, Inc., but only by a representative of Southern International Corporation; and that both of such two shipments were made in violation of the export control regulations in that they were made by Southern International Corporation as forwarding agent for United Packers, Inc., without any power of attorney so authorizing having been filed with the Collector of Customs either as part of the declarations or as a separate document, but pursuant to export declarations containing purported powers of attorney falsely represented as having been executed by an official of United Packers, Inc., whereas in fact such official's name had been signed by respondent Kornbluth.

It further appears from the record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner that respondents had actual authority to execute such declarations and make such shipments as forwarding agents for United Packers, Inc., and consequently that the violations were not only limited in number but involved no intentional fraud; that such violations, nevertheless, were committed in negligent if not indifferent disregard for the regulations and the suspension order and thus represented irresponsible failure of Harris to control his employees so as to assure compliance with the restrictions imposed upon him; and that not only he, but also Kornbluth, Melvin Shipping Corporation (an inactive corporation owned and controlled by Harris and Kornbluth), and Southern International Corporation, must be held accountable for such violations.

The Compliance Commissioner has accordingly found that respondents have violated the laws and regulations relating to export control and has recommended that all outstanding export licenses issued to or held by them be revoked and ordered returned for cancellation; that their export license privileges insofar as concerns shipment of any Positive List commodities be suspended for six months; and that such suspension be made applicable also to any enterprise which they own or control or in which they hold a position of responsibility involving the preparation, filing or use of export control documents.

The findings and recommendations of the Compliance Commissioner have been carefully considered, together with the record in this proceeding, and it appears that such findings are supported by the evidence and that such recommendations are reasonable and should be adopted.

Now, therefore, it is ordered as follows:

(1) All outstanding export licenses issued to or held by respondents or any of them are hereby revoked and shall be forthwith returned to the Office of Industry and Commerce for cancellation.

(2) Respondents and each of them are hereby denied, for a period of six months from the date of this order, the privilege of obtaining or using or participating directly or indirectly in the obtaining or using of export licenses, including general as well as validated licenses, for shipment from the United States to any destination of any commodities included in the Positive List as promulgated by the Office of Industry and Commerce and as such Positive List may from time to time be constituted.

(3) Such denial of export license privileges shall extend not only to the named respondents but also to any person, trade name, firm, corporation or other business organization with which they or any of them may be now or hereafter related by ownership, control or otherwise or with which they may hold or obtain a position of responsibility involving the preparation, filing or use of any export control documents.

Issued this 7th day of August 1950.

Issuance Officer.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1409]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

AUGUST 4, 1950.

On June 5, 1950, Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Shreveport, Louisiana, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the sale and delivery to its existing customers west of its Compressor Station No. 20, of additional volumes of natural gas, all as more fully described in such application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant has requested that this application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) for non-contested proceedings, and this proceeding appears to be a proper one for disposition under the aforesaid rule, provided no request to be heard, protest or petition raising an issue of substance having been filed within the prescribed time subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 22, 1950 (15 F. R. 4034–4035).

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a public hearing be held on September 1, 1950, at 9:45 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812–677]

AXE-HOUGHTON FUND, INC., ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 7th day of August A. D. 1950.

In the matter of Axe-Houghton Fund, Inc., Axe-Houghton Fund B, Inc., Republic Investors Fund, Inc., and Leffler Corporation; File No. 812–677.

Notice is hereby given that Axe-Houghton Fund, Inc., Axe-Houghton Fund B, Inc. and Republic Investors Fund, Inc. (hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Fund" or "Funds", as the case may be), registered investment companies, and Leffler Corporation, the principal underwriter for all three Funds, have filed an application pursuant to section 6 (c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 22 (d) of the act, the offering of shares of the Funds at reduced public offering prices based on quantity purchases of shares of one or more of the three Funds, under the different circumstances hereinafter described.

Each of the Funds is an open-end investment company and E. W. Axe & Co., Inc. is the investment adviser and manager of all three.

The application states that Axe-Houghton Fund, Inc., and Axe-Houghton Fund B, Inc. are both normally classified as balanced funds, but their portfolio holdings are substantially different, and they differ in their investment objectives; the primary investment objective of Axe-Houghton Fund, Inc. is capital appreciation, whereas continuity of income is given greater emphasis in the case of Axe-Houghton Fund B, Inc.; Republic Investors Fund, Inc. is a leverage company with bank borrowings and preferred stock outstanding in addition to common stock; its primary investment objective is long-term capital appreciation, but the leverage of senior securities makes it a more speculative investment than would otherwise be the case.

The offering price of the shares of each of the three Funds is equal to the net asset value per share plus a percentage selling commission. Quantity discounts, resulting in decreased selling commissions, are presently available with respect to individual purchases of $25,000 or more of the shares of each of the individual Funds. In each case, the selling commission is reduced to 6 percent on purchases of $25,000 or more, 4 percent on purchases of $50,000 or more, 2 percent on purchases of $100,000 or more.

It is now proposed to extend these quantity discounts to purchases of shares of any one or more of the three Funds so that a quantity discount will be available for concurrent purchases of shares of one or more of the Funds for issue (1) in one name, (2) in the name of the same trustee or other fiduciary for one or more accounts, or (3) in the

Vesting Order 13908, dated October 4, 1949, as amended, is hereby further amended by the addition thereto of the following:

Claimant, Claim No., Notice of Intention To Return Published, and Property

Ernst Ludwig Hermann Schmidt, Hamburg, Germany, Z 29,000, March 15, 1950, Vol. 15, No. 51, Page 1705: Any and all property.

All determinations contained in the aforesaid Vesting Order, as amended, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on August 8, 1950.

name of members of the same immediate family. The schedule of selling commissions in such cases will be as follows: 6 percent if the aggregate selling price is $25,000 or more, 4 percent if the aggregate selling price is $50,000 or more, 2 percent if the aggregate selling price is $100,000, and 1 percent if the aggregate selling price is $250,000 or more.

The application further states that it has been the experience of the Funds and Leffler Corporation that persons contemplating a sizeable purchase of investment company shares seek to diversify their holdings in several Funds with different portfolios and differing investment objectives and that the proposed schedule of quantity discounts will permit such an investor to obtain the diversification he seeks without sacrificing the advantage of the quantity discount presently available only for purchases of shares of a single Fund.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the Washington, D. C., office of the Commission for a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law therein asserted.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application, in whole or in part and upon such conditions as the Commission may deem necessary or appropriate, may be issued by the Commission at any time on or after August 17, 1950, unless a hearing upon the application is ordered by the Commission as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested person may, not later than August 15, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., submit to the Commission in writing his views or any additional facts bearing upon this application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or request in writing that the Commission order a hearing to be held thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

ELECTRIC BOND AND SHARE CO. ET AL.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER APPROVING PLAN, AS AMENDED

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of August A. D. 1950.

Electric Bond and Share Company ("Bond and Share"), a registered holding company, having heretofore filed a plan pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, designated as Plan II-B, in which Bond and Share proposed that no further payments be made to the holders of the certificates issued with respect to the $5 and $6 Preferred Stock of Bond and Share; and

The Commission, in its Order dated June 19, 1950, and its Findings and Opinion dated July 28, 1950 (Holding Company Act Release No. 9980), having held that the provisions of said Plan proposing no further payment to the holders of the certificates issued with respect to the $5 Preferred Stock are fair and equitable, and having held that the provisions of said plan proposing no further payment to the holders of the certificates issued with respect to the $6 Preferred Stock are unfair and inequitable, and that fairness requires that Bond and Share pay to the latter holders the sum of $10 per share of $6 Preferred Stock, together with compensation for the delay in receiving such payment at the rate of 5.45 percent per annum from March 6, 1947, to the date of payment of said $10 per share; and

Bond and Share and certain holders of the certificates issued with respect to the $5 Preferred Stock of Bond and Share having filed petitions for rehearing, and the Commission by order dated August 4, 1950, having denied said petitions; and

Bond and Share having thereafter on August 4, 1950, filed with the Commission an amendment to Plan II-B conforming said Plan to the determinations of the Commission as set forth in its Order dated June 19, 1950, and its Findings and Opinion dated July 28, 1950, Bond and Share reserving to itself the right to object to and seek review of that portion of said Findings and Opinion and Order requiring further payment to the holders of the certificates issued with respect to the $6 Preferred Stock; and

Said amendment further providing that upon the expiration of six years following the effective date of Plan II-B, any cash funds not claimed by the holders of the certificates issued with respect to the $6 Preferred Stock shall revert to Bond and Share free and clear of all claims of such holders; and

Bond and Share in said amendment having requested the Commission, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Act, to apply to the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of Plan II-B, as amended; and

The Commission having considered the provisions of said amendment in the light of its Order of June 19, 1950, and its Findings and Opinion of July 28, 1950, and findings that Plan II-B, as amended, is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby and necessary and appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act;

It is ordered, That Plan II-B, as amended, be and hereby is approved;

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, reserved with respect to the reasonableness, appropriate allocation, and payment of all fees, expenses, and other remuneration in connection with Plan II-B, as amended.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and it hereby is, reserved to entertain such further proceedings, to make such supplemental findings and orders, and to take such further action as the Commission may deem appropriate in connection with Plan II-B, as amended, the transactions incident thereto and the consummation thereof, and to take such further action as the Commission may deem necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act.

By the Commission.

ELECTRIC BOND AND SHARE CO. ET AL.

ORDER DENYING PETITIONS FOR REHEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of August A. D. 1950.

Electric Bond and Share Company ("Bond and Share"), having filed a petition requesting a rehearing with respect to the Commission's Order dated June 19, 1950, and Findings and Opinion dated July 28, 1950, issued in connection with Plan II-B, filed by Bond and Share pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and requesting the Commission to vacate and set aside said order of June 19, 1950 insofar as it relates to the payment to the holders of the certificates issued to the $6 preferred stockholders of Bond and Share of an additional amount of $10 per share plus compensation for delay in payment thereof; and Certain holders of the certificates issued with respect to the $5 Preferred Stock of Bond and Share having also filed a petition requesting rehearing; and

The Commission having duly considered the aforesaid petition and the grounds set forth therein, and it appearing that said petitions raise no matters of substance not previously considered by the Commission:

It is ordered, That said petitions be, and they hereby are, in all respects denied.

By the Commission.

VOLUME 15 NUMBER 156

Washington, Saturday, August 12, 1950

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

NATIONAL EMPLOY THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED WEEK, 1950

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the experience of an increasing number of employers has proved that physically handicapped workers, when placed in jobs suited to their abilities, can make a substantial contribution to the economic well-being of our country; and

WHEREAS the present need for maximum production requires the utilization of all our human resources; and

WHEREAS physically handicapped men and women should have an equal opportunity with others to earn a livelihood; and

WHEREAS the Congress, by a joint resolution approved August 11, 1945 (59 Stat. 530), has designated the first week in October of each year as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week and has requested the President to issue a suitable proclamation each year, with a view to enlisting national interest in the employment of these men and women;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon the people of the United States to observe the week beginning October 1, 1950, as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, and to cooperate with the President's Committee on National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, and with the corresponding Governors' committees in the several States and Territories, in carrying out the purposes of the joint resolution of Congress. I also request the Governors of States, the mayors of cities, and other public officials, as well as employers and leaders of labor, agricultural, veterans', women's, civic, and religious organizations and all other interested groups representative of our national life, to observe the week by endeavoring to enlist the widest possible public interest in additional employment opportunities for the physically handicapped.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 9th day of August in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] fifty, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-fifth.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

By the President:

DEAN ACHESON,

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10150

CREATING AN EMERGENCY BOARD TO INVESTIGATE DISPUTES BETWEEN THE ATLANTIC & EAST CAROLINA RAILWAY COMPANY AND OTHER CARRIERS, AND CERTAIN OF THEIR EMPLOYEES

WHEREAS disputes exist between the Atlantic & East Carolina Railway Company and certain other carriers designated in list A attached hereto and made a part hereof, and certain of their employees represented by the sixteen cooperating non-operating labor organizations designated in list B attached hereto and made a part hereof; and

WHEREAS these disputes have not heretofore been adjusted under the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, as amended; and

WHEREAS these disputes, in the judgment of the National Mediation Board, threaten substantially to interrupt interstate commerce to a degree such as to deprive the country of essential transportation service:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, as amended (45 U. S. C. 160), I hereby create a board of three members, to be appointed by me, to investigate the said disputes.

Each of the carriers involved shall be given independent consideration in such investigation, and the said labor organizations shall be permitted to function as a unit in proceedings before the board.

No member of the said board shall be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of railway employees or any carrier.

The board shall report its findings to the President with respect to the said disputes within thirty days from the date of this order. The board may, to the extent it deems necessary or desirable, make separate and independent findings with respect to each of the carriers involved.

As provided by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, as amended, from this date and for thirty days after the board has made its report to the President, no change, except by agreement, shall be made by any of the carriers involved or their employees in the conditions out of which the said disputes arose.

SUBPART B—HONEY EXPORT PROGRAM (MARKETING SEASON 1950)

RATE OF PAYMENT AND MINIMUM GRADE AND INSPECTION

1. Section 524.136 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 524.136 Rate of payment. The rate of payment applicable to U. S. Grade B honey exported in accordance with the terms and conditions contained herein shall be the lowest of the following: (a) 4.5 cents per pound, (b) 50 percent of the sales price (computed before deduction of such payment) as determined by the Director, basis free alongside ship United States ports of exportation except that if shipment from the nearest U. S. port from which honey is customarily shipped would result in a lower rate payable under this program, the honey shall be deemed to have been shipped from such nearest port, or (c) 50 percent of the domestic market price of the honey at the time of sale and place of delivery in the United States, as determined by the Director.

If the moisture content of the honey is in excess of 18.6 percent but not in excess of 20.0 percent, the specified rate of payment shall be reduced by one-hundredth (0.01) cent per pound for each one-tenth (0.10) of one percent by which the moisture content is in excess of 18.6 percent but not in excess of 20.0 percent.

2. Paragraph 2 of § 524.138 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 524.138 Minimum grade and inspection. United States Department of Agriculture may, in its discretion, waive compliance on the part of the applicant with regard to the place of inspection specified above. To be effective such waiver must be in writing and signed by the Director.

Effective date. This amendment shall be effective at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., on the date of issuance as shown below, except that the amendment to paragraph 2 of § 524.138 shall be effective at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., July 14, 1950.

PART 669—VEGETABLES, FRESH

SUBPART—GENERAL VEGETABLE PURCHASE PROGRAM (FISCAL YEAR 1951)

TOPPED BEETS

§ 669.5 Topped beets (fiscal year 1951). In order to encourage the domestic consumption of topped beets by diverting them from the normal channels of trade and commerce in accordance with section 32, Public Law 320, 74th Congress, approved August 24, 1935, as amended, topped beets will be purchased during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1951, in instances where surpluses exist or appear to be developing, and subject to limitations imposed by the capacity of available outlets to utilize supplies without waste and by the amount of funds available for such purchases. Generally, purchases will be made only in areas where acreage has not been unduly expanded without regard to available facilities and outlets. Grades and other specifications, and purchase prices will be contained in purchase announcements which will be issued to cover particular purchase operations. Information as to such purchase operations may be obtained by writing to the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Lemon Reg. 343]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

§ 953.450 Lemon Regulation 343.—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 14 F. R. 3612), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified in this section was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on August 9, 1950; such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., Aug. 13, 1950, and ending at 12: 01 a..m., P. s. t., Aug. 20, 1950, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 250 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2" and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of August 1950.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 3-3]

PART 3—AIRPLANE AIRWORTHINESS; NORMAL, UTILITY, ACROBATIC, AND RESTRICTED-PURPOSE CATEGORIES

RESTRICTED PURPOSE CATEGORY AIRPLANES

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 7th day of August 1950.

Currently effective Part 3 establishes a restricted purpose category and authorizes the issuance of type and airworthiness certificates in such category for aircraft shown to comply with the airworthiness requirements of the normal, utility, or acrobatic categories of Part 3 which are not rendered inapplicable by the nature of the special purpose involved, and if the aircraft are operated in accordance with limitations which provide a level of safety equivalent to that contemplated for aircraft of the normal, utility, or acrobatic categories.

In view of the provisions of Part 8, adopted concurrently with this amendment,[1] which establish the standards with which compliance shall be demonstrated for the issuance of type and airworthiness certificates for aircraft intended to be operated for agricultural, industrial, or other special purposes and delineate operating limitations applicable to such aircraft, the Board considers it necessary to delete from Part 3 all reference to restricted purpose airplane certification. Thus, the type and airworthiness certification of airplanes intended to be used for special purposes shall be accomplished in accordance with the provisions of Part 8.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 3 as follows, effective October 11, 1950:

1. By deleting § 3.6 (a) (4).

2. By amending § 3.11 to read as follows:

[1] See F. R. Doc. 50-7069, infra.

§ 3.11 Airworthiness certificates. (a) In order to become eligible for an airworthiness certificate, an airplane must be shown to comply with the requirements contained in this part for at least one category.

(b) An airplane manufactured in accordance with a type certificate (see §§ 3.15 through 3.19) and conforming with the type design will become eligible for an airworthiness certificate when, upon inspection of the airplane, the Administrator determines that it so conforms and that the airplane is in a condition for safe operation. For each newly manufactured airplane this determination shall include a flight check by the applicant.

3. By adding a new § 3.12 to read as follows:

§ 3.12 Experimental certificates. An airplane shall become eligible for an experimental certificate when the applicant presents satisfactory evidence that the airplane is to be flown for experimental purposes and the Administrator finds it may, with appropriate restrictions, be operated for that purpose in a manner which does not endanger the general public. Airplanes used in racing and exhibition flying may be issued experimental certificates under the terms of this section. The applicant shall submit sufficient data, such as photographs, to identify the airplane satisfactorily and, upon inspection of the airplane, any pertinent information found necessary by the Administrator to safeguard the general public.

4. By amending the title of § 3.16 to read as follows: "§ 3.16 Data required for type certification."

5. By amending the title of § 3.17 to read as follows: "§ 3.17 Inspection and tests for type certification."

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009; 62 Stat. 1216, 49 U. S. C. 551, 553)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

PART 6—ROTORCRAFT AIRWORTHINESS

RESTRICTED PURPOSE CATEGORY ROTORCRAFT

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 7th day of August 1950.

Currently effective Part 6 establishes standards for the type and airworthiness certification of rotorcraft in the restricted category. In view of the provisions of Part 8, Aircraft airworthiness; restricted category, adopted concurrently with this amendment,[1] which establish standards for the type and airworthiness certification of aircraft intended to be operated for agricultural, industrial, or other special purposes and which delineate the operating limitations applicable to such aircraft, the Board considers it necessary to delete from Part 6 all reference to certification in the restricted category. Thus, the type and airworthiness certification of rotorcraft intended to be used for a special purpose shall be accomplished in accordance with the provisions of Part 8.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 6 effective October 11, 1950:

1. By amending the titles of §§ 6.2 (a) and 6.2 (b) to read as follows:

§ 6.2 Type certificate. • • •

(a) Data required for type certification. • • •

(b) Inspection and tests for type certification. • • •

2. By amending § 6.3 to read as follows:

§ 6.3 Airworthiness certificates. (a) A rotorcraft manufactured in accordance with a type certificate (see § 6.2) and conforming to the type design shall become eligible for an airworthiness certificate when, upon inspection of the rotorcraft, the Administrator finds that it so conforms and that it is in a condition for safe operation. For each newly manufactured rotorcraft this finding shall include a flight check by the applicant.

(b) A rotorcraft shall become eligible for an experimental certificate when the applicant presents satisfactory evidence that the rotorcraft is to be flown for experimental purposes and the Administrator finds that it may, with appropriate restrictions, be operated for that purpose in a manner which does not endanger the general public. Rotorcraft used in racing and exhibition flying may be issued experimental certificates under the terms of this section. The applicant shall submit sufficient data, such as photographs, to identify the rotorcraft satisfactorily and, upon inspection of the rotorcraft, any pertinent information found necessary by the Administrator to safeguard the general public.

PART 8—AIRCRAFT AIRWORTHINESS; RESTRICTED CATEGORY

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 7th day of August 1950.

Currently effective airworthiness parts and Part 43 of the Civil Air Regulations provide for the type and airworthiness certification of aircraft built or modified for special purposes, such as crop dusting, seeding, spraying, and other special purposes. In accordance with current requirements the Administrator may waive such of the basic airworthiness requirements as are rendered inappropriate by the special purposes involved, but he is required to prescribe operating limitations to insure that the operation will have "an equivalent level of safety" to that of an aircraft operating under an airworthiness certificate for an aircraft category other than restricted. The procedure by which compliance is shown with the restricted category is essentially the same as that required for certification in other airworthiness categories.

We have been advised that the existing requirements, which were designed primarily to establish an appropriate level of safety for passenger-carrying aircraft, have imposed an unnecessary economic burden and are unduly restrictive for the manufacture and operation of aircraft intended for use in rural, sparsely settled areas outside the usual lanes of air transportation and in which no passengers are to be carried for hire. For such restricted operations where public safety is not endangered it appears unreasonable to require the same level of safety as that required for passenger-carrying aircraft. Therefore, a basic change in Part 8 from current practice has been the elimination of the "equivalent level of safety" provision from the requirements for restricted category aircraft.

In addition, the part establishes new standards for the issuance of type certificates for the restricted category, for modifications of existing type certificates, and for issuance of airworthiness certificates for aircraft intended to be operated for special purposes and for operating limitations to be applicable to such aircraft. It also simplifies the procedure of showing compliance with the restricted category requirements and provides for the tailoring of the operating limitations to the particular purpose for which certification is sought. This part authorizes the Administrator to waive or modify any of the airworthiness requirements of the Civil Air Regulations, either for initial or continued airworthiness, for the standard (passenger-carrying) aircraft categories which he finds inappropriate for the special purpose for which the aircraft is to be used, including individual design requirements, requirements for flight testing, and submittal of engineering data and drawings. In the case of aircraft built for type certification in the restricted category, engineering data, reports and flight tests will be required but in a greatly simplified manner as compared to the requirements for the passenger-carrying categories. However, it should be noted that nothing in this part is intended to contravene the statutory requirement that the Administrator find that the aircraft is "of proper design, material, specification, construction, and performance for safe operation" before issuing a type certificate. (Sec. 603, 52 Stat. 1009, 49 U. S. C. 553)

A civil aircraft which has previously been type certificated and subsequently modified for a special purpose may be issued a modified type certificate, and a military aircraft which has been manufactured according to the requirements of, and accepted for use by, a military service of the United States and subsequently modified for a special purpose may be issued a type certificate, when upon inspection the Administrator finds that the modification has been made in accordance with good aeronautical practice and that no feature or characteristic of the aircraft would render it unsafe when operated in accordance with the prescribed limitations. Engineering data, reports, or flight tests would not be required by the provisions of this part, except in cases where the inspection discloses a possible unsafe feature or characteristic.

Provision is further made whereby an aircraft may be issued an airworthiness certificate in the restricted category and in any one or more of the airworthiness categories prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations, if the applicant shows compliance with the requirements for each category when in the configuration for that category and if the aircraft can be converted from one category to another by the addition or removal of equipment by simple mechanical means. Under such circumstances the Administrator will specify appropriate operating limitations for each category and will specify the approved changes necessary to convert and reconvert the aircraft from one category to another.

This part is intended to provide the greatest possible flexibility of administration and to place the minimum possible burden consistent with public safety on the applicant for a certificate in the restricted category. While it is anticipated that it will be necessary to supplement this part with administrative policies and manual material, it is intended that such material be directly related to existing airworthiness standards and not take the form of independent administrative rules to be applied in lieu of the basic regulations.

It will be noted that the Board is currently considering a revision of Parts 1 and 2, and it is contemplated that some of the material contained in this part will be included in that revision.

Concurrently with the adoption of this part all reference to requirements for certification in the restricted category and to the operating limitations for aircraft so certificated, presently contained in Parts 3, 6, and 43 of the Civil Air Regulations, are being deleted from those parts.[1]

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this new part, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates a new Part 8 of the Civil Air Regulations to read as follows, effective October 11, 1950:

Sec.
8.0 Applicability of this part.
8.1 Definitions.
8.10 Eligibility for type certificate.
8.20 Eligibility for airworthiness certificate.
8.21 Multiple airworthiness certification.
8.30 Operating limitations; Administrator's authority to prescribe.

[1] See F. R. Docs. 50-7071, 50-7070, supra, and 50-7073, infra.

Sec.
8.31 Area operating limitations.
8.32 Economic operating limitations.
8.33 Passengers prohibited during special purpose operations.
8.34 Separate operating limitations for multiple airworthiness certification.

AUTHORITY: §§ 8.0 to 8.34 issued under sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009, 62 Stat. 1216, 49 U. S. C. 551, 553.

§ 8.0 Applicability of this part. This part establishes standards for the issuance of type and airworthiness certificates for aircraft in the restricted category which are intended to be operated for agricultural, industrial, or other special purposes. This part also establishes operating limitations applicable to such aircraft.

(1) Administrator. The Administrator is the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

(2) Applicant. An applicant is a person or persons applying for approval of an aircraft or any part thereof.

(3) Approved. Approved, when used alone or as modifying terms such as means, devices, specifications, etc., shall mean approved by the Administrator.

(4) Authorized representative of the Administartor. An authorized representative of the Administrator shall mean any employee of the Civil Aeronautics Administration or any private person, authorized by the Administrator to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by the provisions of this part.

§ 8.10 Eligibility for type certificate. (a) Any aircraft of the following classifications shall be issued a type certificate in the restricted category, if the Administrator finds that no feature or characteristic of the aircraft renders it unsafe when operated in accordance with the limitations prescribed for its intended use:

(1) An aircraft type which has not previously been type certificated but which is shown by the applicant to comply with all of the airworthiness requirements of any other aircraft category prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations, except those requirements which the Administrator finds inappropriate for the special purpose for which the aircraft is to be used; or

(2) An aircraft type which has been manufactured in accordance with the requirements of, and accepted for use by, a United States military service and subsequently modified for a special purpose, whether or not such aircraft has been issued a type certificate under the provisions of Part 9 of the Civil Air Regulations.

(b) A modification of a type certificate may be issued to an applicant for an aircraft which has been previously type certificated in another category and then modified for a special purpose when, upon inspection, the Administrator finds that the modifications conform to a good aeronautical practice and that no feature or characteristic of the aircraft renders it unsafe when operated in accordance with the limitations prescribed for its intended use.

§ 8.20 Eligibility for airworthiness certificate. An aircraft shall be issued an airworthiness certificate in the restricted category if it complies with all of the following provisions:

(a) The aircraft is type certificated under the provisions of § 8.10 (a), or modified under the provisions of § 8.10 (b);

(b) The aircraft has been inspected by the Administrator and found by him to be in a good state of preservation and repair and in a condition for safe operation; and

(c) The Administrator has prescribed operating limitations for the aircraft in accordance with § 8.30.

§ 8.21 Multiple airworthiness certification. (a) An aircraft shall be issued an airworthiness certificate in the restricted category and in any one or more of the other airworthiness categories prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations, if the applicant shows compliance with the requirements for each category when the aircraft is in the configuration for that category and if the aircraft can be converted from one category to another by removal or addition of equipment by simple mechanical means.

(b) Any aircraft certificated in the restricted and any other category shall be inspected and approved by an authorized representative of the Administrator, or by a certificated mechanic with an appropriate airframe rating, to determine airworthiness each time the aircraft is converted from the restricted category to another category for the carriage of passengers for compensation or hire, unless the Administrator finds this unnecessary for safety in a particular case.

§ 8.30 Operating limitations; Administrator's authority to prescribe. In addition to the operating limitations set forth in §§ 8.31 through 8.34, the Administrator shall prescribe such operating limitations and restrictions as he finds necessary for safe operation of the aircraft and for the protection of the public.[1]

§ 8.31 Area operating limitations. Special purpose operations in restricted category aircraft shall not be conducted over densely populated areas, in congested air lanes, or in the vicinity of busy airports where passenger transport operations are being conducted, unless the Administrator finds it in the public interest to allow operations in such areas, in which case he shall prescribe specific operating limitations to provide the highest degree of public safety compatible with the type of operation involved.

§ 8.32 Economic operating limitations. Persons and cargo shall not be carried for compensation or hire in restricted category aircraft. For purposes of this section crop dusting, seeding, and other similar specialized operations, including the carriage of materials necessary for such operations, shall not be considered as the carriage of persons or cargo for compensation or hire.

§ 8.33 Passengers prohibited during special purpose operations. Persons, other than the minimum crew necessary for the purpose involved, shall not be carried during special purpose operations in restricted category aircraft.

§ 8.34 Separate operating limitations for multiple airworthiness certification. In case of multiple airworthiness certification under the provisions of § 8.21, the Administrator shall establish separate operating limitations for each category and shall specify the approved changes necessary to convert and reconvert the aircraft from one category to another.

PART 43—GENERAL OPERATION RULES

PRIVATE PILOT PRIVILEGES

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 7th day of August 1950.

Section 43.60 of the Civil Air Regulations currently states that a "private pilot shall not pilot aircraft for hire" and the explanatory note thereto states that the rule "permits sharing the expenses of a flight or piloting aircraft in furtherance of a business when the flight is made solely for the personal transportation of the pilot." We have been advised that this rule has been difficult to interpret, and in many instances it has unduly restricted the operations of private pilots.

This amendment, together with the illustrative interpretations discussed below, is considered to be appropriate to broaden the privileges of a private pilot.

The following interpretations are illustrative of the application of the amendment:

1. A private pilot may share the actual operating expenses incurred during a flight. The fact that one or more passengers contribute to the actual operating expenses of a flight is not considered the carriage of persons for compensation or hire.

2. A private pilot salesman may pilot an aircraft in the course of his employment. This would not be a violation of the regulation because the flight would be merely incidental to the pilot's business of selling. He may also carry samples of merchandise in the aircraft.

3. An airline official in New York, having a private pilot rating, wishes to use a company aircraft placed at his disposal to fly to Washingtoin in order to check the operations of the Washington office. He may do so, and also carry with him friends or other employees of the airline, provided no charge is made. Such a flight is considered merely incidental to the pilot's employment and does not involve the carriage of persons for compensation or hire.

4. The owner of a plantation or farm, holding a private pilot rating, may crop dust or seed his own land. This type of operation is incidental to the pilot's principal business of farming. He may also crop dust or seed the land of another, provided he does not do so for compensation or hire.

5. Private pilots may ferry aircraft, provided the flight is not for compensation or hire.

6. The holder of a private pilot rating engaged in selling real estate may pilot an aircraft carrying a prospective purchaser for the purpose of showing such purchaser land which is offered for sale. The flight in this instance is merely incidental to the pilot's business as a real estate operator.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 43 of the Civil Air Regulations effective September 11, 1950:

By amending § 43.60 to read as follows:

§ 43.60 Private pilot. A private pilot shall not pilot aircraft for compensation or hire; except that he may pilot aircraft in connection with any business or employment, if the flight is merely incidental thereto and does not involve the carriage of persons or property for compensation or hire, and an aircraft salesman holding a private pilot rating may demonstrate aircraft in flight to a prospective purchaser if he has at least 200 hours of flight time credited in accordance with the provisions of Part 43.

PART 43—GENERAL OPERATION RULES

AIRCRAFT IDENTIFICATION MARKS AND AIRCRAFT AIRWORTHINESS; RESTRICTED CATEGORY

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 7th day of August 1950.

Currently effective Part 43 requires that aircraft registered for the first time after December 31, 1948, and all aircraft operated after December 31, 1950, shall display identification marks consisting of the Roman capital letter "N" denoting U. S. registration followed by the registration number. Thus, the Roman capital letter denoting the airworthiness classification, which presently may follow the Roman capital letter "N" on aircraft originally registered on or before December 31, 1948, must be removed after December 31, 1950.

The Board has recently been advised by several individual aircraft owners and industry associations that a considerable number of aircraft which currently display an identification mark containing an airworthiness symbol will not require recovering or refinishing prior to December 31, 1950, and these groups have requested that the established deadline date be postponed until it is necessary to recover or refinish such aircraft to the extent that the identification mark must be reapplied.

It will be noted that the adoption of the current requirement was necessitated by the fact that the increasing number of aircraft being registered required the assignment of identification marks employing at least six digits, and that sufficient space on the aircraft was not available if the letter denoting the airworthiness classification was also used as part of the number. Thus, it can be seen that the basic purpose of this amendment was to effect better administration of the registration of aircraft particularly with respect to newly registered aircraft. Therefore, we see no cogent reason why the deadline date for older aircraft may not be postponed until such aircraft are recovered or refinished to an extent requiring reapplication of the identification mark.

However, in view of the fact that aircraft operated in foreign or overseas air commerce with identification marks which do not comply with the current requirements would, after December 31, 1950, be in violation of the provisions of Annex 7 to the Convention on International Civil Aviation (Aircraft Nationality and Registration Marks), this amendment postpones the effective date of the current requirements only with respect to aircraft operated within the continental limits of the United States.

In addition, this amendment deletes from Part 43 current provisions establishing airworthiness requirements and operating limitations for restricted category aircraft. This action is necessary in view of the provisions of Part 8, Aircraft Airworthiness Restricted Category, which is being promulgated concurrently with this amendment,[1] and which establish the standards for the type and airworthiness certification for aircraft used for special purposes and delineate appropriate operating limitations for such aircraft.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 43 effective October 11, 1950:

By amending §§ 43.10 (c) (2) and 43.10 (c) (6) to read as follows:

§ 43.10 Certificates and identification marks. • • •

(c) Identification marks. • • •

(2) NR. Roman capital letters NR followed by the registration number shall be displayed on restricted category aircraft. The word "restricted" shall be prominently displayed near each entrance to the cockpit or cabin of a restricted category aircraft. • • •

(6) Alternate identification marks. (i) Aircraft registered for the first time after December 31, 1948, shall display identification marks consisting of the Roman capital letter "N", denoting United States registration, followed by the registration number. Other aircraft which display identification marks containing an airworthiness symbol "O", "R", "X", or "L" and which are operated solely within the continental limits of the United States may display such identification marks until the first time such aircraft are recovered or refinished to an extent necessitating the reapplication of the identification mark. Thereafter, such aircraft, and after December 31, 1950, all aircraft of United States registry operated outside of the continental limits of the United States, shall display identification marks consisting of the Roman capital letter "N", denoting United States registration, followed by the registration number.

(ii) When an identification mark including only the Roman capital letter "N" and the registration number is utilized, those aircraft having other than a standard airworthiness certificate shall display the appropriate airworthiness classification as prescribed in Parts 3, 4a, 4b, 6, 8, and 9 on the aircraft in a manner and form prescribed by the Administrator. Those aircraft having a standard airworthiness certificate need not display the airworthiness classification designation.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency

PART 25—DRESSINGS FOR FOODS

MAYONNAISE, FRENCH DRESSING, AND SALAD DRESSING; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

In the matter of fixing and establishing definitions and standards of identity for mayonnaise, french dressing, and related salad dressings:

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371), and upon the basis of substantial evidence received at the hearing duly held pursuant to the notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 15, 1947 (12 F. R. 6767), and upon consideration of the exceptions filed to the tentative order issued by the Federal Security Administrator on November 5, 1949 (14 F. R. 6720), which exceptions are allowed in part and rejected in part, as appears from notations on the exceptions which are on file with the Hearing Clerk, Federal Security Agency, Room 5109, Federal Security Building, Fourth Street and Independence Avenue, S. W., Washington, D. C., and as is apparent from the detailed findings below, the following order is promulgated:

Findings of fact.[1] 1. Dressings for salads constitute a class of foods the members of which characteristically contain a fat ingredient, an acidifying ingredient, and seasoning ingredients. Three members of this class of foods, commonly known as mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing, are distributed commercially in large quantities as ready-prepared dressings. In cookbooks it is the conventional practice for the term "salad dressing" to be used as a generic designation for an entire class of foods which are to be made as dressings for salads, but in the commercial distribution of ready-prepared dressings it is the common and usual practice for the term "salad dressing" to be used as the specific name of the emulsified semisolid dressing similar to mayonnaise but differentiated therefrom by its content of other ingredients, particularly a cooked or partly cooked starchy paste. (R. 12–17, 26–27, 30, 38–39, 56, 59–60, 70–71, 73, 94, 111, 126–128, 133, 144–147, 158–159, 244, 366–371, 375, 425, 446–450, 550, 682, 735–737, 1304, 1863–1864, 1896–1897)

2. The fat in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing is one or a blend of two or more edible vegetable oils, such as the refined oils prepared from the seeds of cotton, corn, soya beans, peanuts, sesame, and sunflowers. In addition to the foregoing refined oils prepared from seeds, olive oil, which is not a refined oil, has been used in preparing dressings for salads in the home. Since it is not refined, olive oil is unsuitable for use in dressings the keeping quality of which is of importance, and its use in commercial dressings is relatively insignificant. The record does not show a need for any special requirements regulating its use. (R. 14, 17, 18, 34, 67, 110–111, 137, 140, 148–149, 426–430, 454, 478, 653, 666–667, 687–688, 695–696, 714–715, 725, 726, 1317–1318)

3. It was proposed that the definitions and standards of identity for mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing should designate ascorbic acid as an optional ingredient because of its properties as a reducing agent. The evidence does not establish that ascorbic acid is effective to retard deterioration in the quality of the edible vegetable oils used in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing. (R. 457, 475–476, 683, 1381; Ex. 6)

4. There was testimony that the oils used in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing, particularly cottonseed oil, cause some consumers to suffer allergic reactions from the food, and that the interest of consumers would be promoted by having the definitions and standards of identity for these foods require label declaration of the oils used. In opposition to this, other allergists testified that allergic reactions to cottonseed oil and the other oils used in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing are extremely rare. Representatives of manufacturers testified that considerable difficulty would be encountered in complying with a requirement that the oils used be named on labels because the frequent changes in the oils used would necessitate frequent changes of labels and the use of separate storage tanks, feed lines, pumps, etc., to avoid unintentional blending. The evidence does not justify at this time a requirement for label declaration of the oils used. (R. 58–59, 66–67, 137–138, 150, 165–221, 247–312, 327–331, 429, 606–610, 675, 695, 699, 726–729, 979–1031, 1044–1141, 1146–1162, 1164–1211, 1212–1232, 1267–1301, 1313–1315, 1361–1362, 1402–1405; Ex. 17, 36, 37, 59)

5. Mineral oil is not a suitable ingredient for use in mayonnaise, french dressing, or salad dressing. (R. 45–47, 125–126, 133, 150, 159, 461).

6. The acidifying agents most widely used in dressings for salads are the various vinegars such as distilled vinegar, wine vinegar, cider vinegar, sugar vinegar, and malt vinegar. Blends of such vinegars are also used. The evidence does not establish a need for the definitions and standards of identity for mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing to require acidyfying ingredients to be named on labels. The manufacturers of these dressings, in order to reduce their tartness, often dilute the vinegar or blend of vinegars with water. The evidence indicates that in the case of mayonnaise there is no necessity for diluting the vinegar or blend of vinegars to an acid content, calculated as ascetic acid, below 2½ percent by weight. The proportion of the aqueous phase in french dressing and salad dressing is, generally speaking, considerably greater than the proportion of the aqueous phase in mayonnaise, and for this reason a requirement that the dilution of the vinegar or blend be restricted to not less than 2½ percent as acetic acid by weight would in some cases result in objectionably tart french dressing or salad dressing. (R. 19–20, 35, 36, 40, 69, 84–85, 94, 119–124, 140–141, 175–177, 190, 254, 335–337, 396–398, 424, 426, 430–431, 434, 436–437, 440–443, 444–445, 450, 452, 457–459, 496, 549, 581–582, 658–661, 669–670, 675–676, 1037, 1305–1306, 1315–1316, 1320, 1322, 1325, 1327A, 1330–1331, 1334, 1344–1345, 1351, 1353–1354, 1433; Ex. 2, 3, 4)

7. Lemon juice has been used as an acidifying ingredient in dressings for salads. In commercial practice lemon juice is most often used together with a vinegar or a blend of vinegars. In addition to the fresh juice from lemons, frozen juice or such juice in canned, concentrated, or dried form is also satisfactory. In order that the tartness may be reduced, water is frequently used. In the case of mayonnaise there is no necessity for the dilution with water to exceed that which is permitted for vinegar or blends of vinegar used in mayonnaise (see finding 6). Lime juice may be used interchangeably with lemon juice. (R. 19–20, 69, 84–85, 94, 142–144, 176–177, 190, 435, 440–443, 661–662, 670, 673, 678–679, 750, 1305, 1306, 1316, 1340, 1363–1364, 1569, 1573; Ex. 38, 41)

8. Besides the vinegar or diluted vinegar which manufacturers use in the commercial production of mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing, some manufacturers use citric acid as an additional acidifying ingredient. Citric acid is not suitable for replacing all the vinegar. It is reasonable to specify in the definitions and standards of identity for mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing that when citric acid is used it shall not exceed 25 percent by weight of the acids of the vinegar or diluted vinegar calculated as acetic acid. (R. 235, 435–437, 480–487, 683–685, 701–702, 717–718, 1348, 1376–1377, 1569, 1603)

9. Citric acid as such is rarely if ever used in the home in preparing dressings. In order for consumers to be informed of the presence in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing of this unexpected optional acidifying ingredient, the labels for such dressings should reveal that citric acid was added. A suitable and informative label statement for this purpose is "citric acid added" or "with added citric acid." (R. 235, 400, 436–437)

10. Other acidifying agents that were mentioned as having been used by some manufacturers are tartaric acid and lactic acid. These acids are not used in mayonnaise, french dressing, or salad dressing as prepared in the home. Tartaric acid is not digested. The evidence does not establish that tartaric acid and lactic acid should be designated as optional acidifying ingredients for mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing. (R. 235–238, 398–402, 412–413, 435–437, 480–482, 485–487, 683–685, 701–702, 713, 717–718, 1348, 1376, 1377, 1569, 1603)

11. Optional ingredients commonly used in dressings for salads include salt, sweetening agents, spices, and other taste-imparting ingredients. Sweetening agents used are sugar, dextrose, corn sirup, invert sugar sirup, nondiastatic maltose sirup, glucose sirup, and honey. These ingredients are suitable for use in mayonnaise, french dressing, or salad dressing, either in sirup form or in dried form. Other ingredients used in dressings for salads to impart their characteristic tastes to the dressings are onions, garlic, horseradish, and celery. These tastes can be conveniently imparted to mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing by using onions, garlic, horseradish, or celery in powdered form or in the form of expressed juice. Experimental use of monosodium glutamate demonstrated it to be a suitable taste-imparting ingredient. Worcestershire sauce and soy sauce are sometimes used as seasoning ingredients in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing. The record does not disclose the composition of these products. Other sauces of unknown composition are also used. (R. 16–17, 30, 31, 67, 69, 74, 77–80, 88–89, 124–125, 128, 131, 146, 201–202, 224, 226, 313–314, 389, 396–397, 449, 454–455, 459, 467, 519, 600–602, 609, 612, 644–645, 662–663, 673–674, 689–690, 710–711, 857–866, 1307, 1321, 1329, 1339, 1346, 1352–1353, 1358; Ex. 15, 16)

12. The large number of flavoring and seasoning substances suitable for use in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing makes it impracticable to list them by name as optional ingredients. Any suitable, harmless food seasoning or flavoring (other than imitations) is a reasonable class designation to describe seasoning and flavoring ingredients in addition to spices. (R. 31, 128, 146, 1321, 1359)

13. The spices mustard, paprika, and pepper are commonly used as seasoning ingredients in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing, and other spices and spice oils and spice extracts are also sometimes used. Formulas for mayonnaise and salad dressing call for the use of egg-yolk-containing ingredients (see finding 15) which impart their characteristic egg-yolk color to the dressing. In these dressings the use of turmeric or saffron is apt to deceive consumers because the yellow color imparted by these spices causes the dressing to appear to contain more egg yolk than it actually contains. For this reason no turmeric, saffron, or any spice oil or spice extract or other seasoning or flavoring ingredient which imparts to the dressing a color simulating the color imparted by egg yolk should be included in the optional ingredients for mayonnaise or salad dressing. (R. 16–17, 25–26, 31, 45, 107–108, 112, 128, 131, 146, 156, 230–233, 317–319, 371, 410, 437–439, 457, 471, 489, 567–572, 581, 585, 590, 663–664, 691–693, 702–705, 744, 1308, 1330)

14. To reduce the amount of oxygen in contact with dressings for salads, some manufacturers have performed the mixing and packing operations in an atmosphere in which a part or all of the air has been replaced by carbon dioxide or nitrogen. Carbon dioxide and nitrogen are relatively inert gases, and no harmful effect occurs from the mixing and packing of mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing in an atmosphere in which air is replaced in whole or in part by these gases. (R. 426, 1383, 1457)

15. Mayonnaise is an emulsified, semisolid food. The only emulsifying agent used in producing the emulsion is an egg-yolk-containing ingredient. Egg-yolk-containing ingredients which are suitable are liquid egg yolks, frozen egg yolks, liquid whole eggs, frozen whole eggs, or any one or more of these with liquid egg white or frozen egg white. Egg yolks frozen with added salt or sugar or both are also suitable for use in mayonnaise, but it is unnecessary to specify these an optional egg-yolk-containing ingredients because salt and sugar are recognized optional seasoning ingredients for mayonnaise, and the identity of the finished food is the same, whether the salt or sugar is added directly in making the mayonnaise or indirectly as a constituent of the egg-yolk-containing ingredient used. There was testimony that the dried egg-yolk-containing products now available are not generally suitable, from the point of view of flavor, odor, and other characteristics, for use in mayonnaise. Although there was an expression of hope that more suitable dried forms of egg-yolk products may be developed in the future, the record does not furnish a basis for describing dried egg-yolk-containing products suitable for use in mayonnaise. (R. 16–19, 25–27, 73, 94, 108–109, 111, 112, 156–157, 369, 420–422, 425–426, 431–433, 443–444, 468–470, 479–480, 527, 579, 665, 680–681, 729–731, 742–749, 1309–1312, 1332; Ex. 2, 10)

16. Specifying in the definition and standard of identity for mayonnaise that the dressing is emulsified and that an egg-yolk-containing ingredient is the sole emulsifying agent used makes it unnecessary to specify a numerical minimum level for egg yolk. (R. 21–22, 112–116, 147, 233, 321–326, 414, 431–434, 468–469, 475, 493, 673, 694, 731, 739–742, 1310–1311; Ex. 2)

17. Mayonnaise is generally recognized by consumers as a salad dressing containing a relatively high proportion of vegetable oil, and it is reasonable to require that mayonnaise contain not less than 65 percent, by weight of edible vegetable oil. (R. 21–25, 60–61, 109–111, 126–127, 321–324, 422, 430–431, 671, 718, 1309; Ex. 2, 10)

18. Commercially prepared mayonnaise is usually distributed with labels bearing the name "mayonnaise," but sometimes it has been distributed with labels bearing the name "mayonnaise dressing" and to a lesser extent with labels bearing the name "mayonnaise salad dressing." The commercially prepared dressing which looks like mayonnaise but which contains a starchy paste (see findings 1 and 27) is distributed with labels bearing the name "salad dressing." The distribution of mayonnaise labeled "mayonnaise salad dressing" would tend to cause purchasers to confuse the dressing containing starchy paste with mayonnaise. Consequently, in specifying the name of the food in the definition and standard of identity for mayonnaise it will promote fair dealing to specify only the names "mayonnaise" and "mayonnaise dressing," and not the name "mayonnaise salad dressing." (R. 13–16, 26–27, 38, 56, 59–60, 70–73, 125, 144–146, 158, 372, 443, 446–450, 550, 1304–1305)

19. French dressing as prepared in the home has usually been in liquid form which, upon standing, separates into an oil layer and an aqueous layer. Commercial french dressing is prepared in two forms, a separable liquid form similar to home-made french dressing and a viscous fluid form in which the vegetable oil is so dispersed in the acidifying ingredient by the use of an emulsifying agent that the dressing does not separate into layers. (R. 29, 31, 128–130, 241–242, 346, 394, 457–459, 514, 608)

20. A number of emulsifying ingredients are suitable for use in french dressing and also in salad dressing. Among these ingredients are gum acacia, carob bean gum, guar gum, gum karaya, and gum tragacanth. Alternative names for gum acacia and carob bean gum are gum arabic and locust bean gum, respectively. The name "vegetable gum" is also applicable to gum acacia, carob bean gum, guar gum, gum karaya, and gum tragacanth. Ingredients other than these vegetable gums which are suitable for use in french dressing and salad dressing are extract of Irish moss, pectin, propylene glycol ester of alginic acid, and sodium carboxymethylcellulose. There was testimony that in acid foods such as salad dressing algin (sodium alginate) does not give results as good as are given by propylene glycol ester of alginic acid. Sometimes mixtures of emulsifying ingredients are used. The quantity of emulsifying ingredient used in french dressing varies somewhat among different manufacturers, but in general the emulsifying ingredient constitutes from one-fourth of 1 percent to three-fourths of 1 percent of the weight of the french dressing. Proper emulsification of french dressing can be readily achieved when the emulsifying ingredients do not constitute more than 0.75 percent of the weight of the finished french dressing. (R. 31, 41, 130, 133–135, 136–137, 157, 316, 386, 387, 453, 457–459, 514, 675, 769–770, 792, 795–796, 805–811, 819–822, 826–830, 835–848, 854, 940–951; Ex. 7, 8, 9, 13)

21. To a limited extent, egg-yolk-containing ingredients (see finding 15) have been used for their emulsifying properties in french dressing. The proportion of the egg-yolk-containing ingredient has been so restricted that the finished french dressing is fluid and does not simulate mayonnaise in consistency. In order to avoid the consumer confusion that would result from french dressing emulsified with so much egg-yolk-containing ingredient that it would be liable to be mistaken for mayonnaise, such ingredient is restricted, so that the weight of its egg-yolk solids is not more than 0.75 percent of the weight of the finished french dressing. (R. 31, 83–84, 131, 133–135, 345, 385, 459, 514, 675, 1323; Ex. 4)

22. There was testimony recommending that, in addition to specifying the emulsifying ingredients named in finding 20, the definitions and standards of identity for french dressing and salad dressing should specify two classes of emulsifiers to be described as "partial esters of fat-forming fatty acids and mono- and dianhydrides of the hexitols, mannitol and sorbitol, and polyoxyethylene derivatives thereof" and "partial esters of fat-forming fatty acids and polyoxypropylene mannitol." It is not possible from the evidence of record to establish the bounds of the classes so described. No physical constants were suggested as proper limiting specifications. The record lists a score of trade-name articles cited as examples of products encompassed by the recommended class descriptions. Although chemical terms are associated with these trade names in the record, the chemical terms used are in a number of instances not specific designations but instead are designations which in turn are capable of encompassing a number of chemical entities. In addition to the trade-name products enumerated in the record, the recommended class descriptions would incorporate an incalculable number of inadequately investigated and even undiscovered chemicals to be included in the definitions and standards of identity for french dressing and salad dressing as optional emulsifying ingredients. Toxicological studies have been undertaken on some of the products encompassed by the recommended class descriptions. The scientists who presented the results of their toxicological investigations testified that they had not completed their two-year chronic-toxicity studies. Preliminary work in the manufacturer's laboratory indicated that members of the classes encompassed by the general descriptions had value in stabilizing emulsion-type french dressing and salad dressing. Samples were given to a manufacturer of salad dressing to work with in the laboratory. There was testimony that the work was insufficient to yield conclusive results, but was promising. The record does not show which particular members of the general classes were evaluated in either of these laboratories. It would not be in the interest of consumers for the definitions and standards of identity for french dressing and salad dressing to specify optional emulsifying ingredients by such general descriptions as to include broad classes of chemicals that have neither been used in the home nor used to any substantial extent in the commercial production of french dressing or salad dressing, and of which classes only a limited number of members have been investigated for their toxicological properties. The evidence does not furnish a basis for specifically designating which among the products encompassed by the recommended general descriptions are suitable emulsifying ingredients for french dressing and salad dressing. (R. 877–940, 1323–1324, 1332, 1348, 1356, 1622–1727, 1728–1761, 1761–1770, 1771–1778, 1785–1787; Ex. 18–35, 42–58)

23. Except for egg-yolk-containing ingredients, emulsifiers are not customarily used in making french dressing or salad dressing in the home. In order for consumers to be informed when such unexpected ingredients are contained in ready-prepared dressings which they purchase, the labels of such dressings should declare the presence of the emulsifying ingredient. A statement on the label which is reasonably informative to purchasers is "-------- added" or "with added --------," the blank being filled in with the common name of the emulsifying ingredient or mixture used; or, alternatively, with the words "algin derivative," if propylene glycol ester of alginic acid is used; or with the words "vegetable gum" if any one of the vegetable gums gum acacia, carob bean gum, guar gum, gum karaya, or gum tragacanth is used; or with the words "vegetable gums" if two or more such vegetable gums are used. If french dressing or salad dressing contains citric acid and an emulsifying ingredient as specified in finding 20, the consumer's interest in learning that these ingredients are contained in the dressing will be satisfactorily served if the label statements are combined, as for example, "with added citric acid and sodium carboxymethylcellulose." (R. 131, 133–137, 346, 385–386, 1342–1344)

24. Testimony was given to support recognition of the use in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing of a class of optional ingredients called "harmless suitable antioxidants," on the ground that such substances are needed to retard the development of rancidity in the oil ingredient. The number of substances, most of which are chemicals, that may be classified as antioxidants is very large. It is well known that many antioxidants are toxic. Evidence was not submitted to show which, if any, of the substances that are regarded as suitable for use have been demonstrated by adequate testing to be harmless. While a determination of the suitability of such substances from the standpoint of their effect in delaying rancidity and their lack of adverse effect on color, odor, and flavor is not unusually difficult and might properly be left to individual manufacturers of these dressings, a determination that any such substance is harmless involves highly complex, difficult, and time-consuming investigations, the adequacy of which requires evaluation by experts in pharmacology, medicine, and related sciences who are trained and experienced in making such investigations. An error in deciding that a substance is harmless is so likely to result in impairment of public health that the procedure whereby such decisions are reached should be surrounded by careful safeguards. It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to provide for the use of antioxidants as optional ingredients in mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing in such general terms as "harmless suitable antioxidants." Before such use of any such substance is recognized, evidence should be included in the record showing that such substance has been adequately tested by experts qualified by scientific training and experience to evaluate the toxicity of the substance, and that such tests demonstrate that such substance is neither poisonous nor deleterious. (R. 435–436, 483, 487, 685, 696–699, 1361, 1377, 1381–1386, 1387–1391, 1431–1432, 1445–1466, 1477–1478, 1526–1533, 1540–1545, 1548–1553, 1557–1564)

25. Historically, french dressing was approximately half oil and half acidifying ingredient. Commercial french dressing has had a tendency to contain less than 50 percent vegetable oil, and the emulsified form has frequently been made to contain less vegetable oil than the separable form. Purchasers are unable to estimate by inspection the proportion of oil in emulsified french dressing. In order to prevent the reduction of the proportion of oil in commercial french dressing to unreasonably low levels it is necessary to establish a minimum limit for the percentage of oil in french dressing. A reasonable minimum limit for oil in french dressing is 35 percent. (R. 30, 32–35, 41–44, 128–130, 132–133, 241–244, 386, 458, 512, 608, 640–642, 674, 700–701, 1322, 1427–1472; Ex. 3, 10, 40)

26. In addition to the optional ingredients set forth in findings 11, 12, and 13, tomato paste, tomato puree, catsup, and sherry wine are sometimes used in the preparation of french dressing, and each of these is suitable for such use. (R. 31, 128, 131, 315–316, 457–459, 609, 674)

27. Salad dressing is an emulsified semisolid food which contains a cooked or partly cooked starchy paste in addition to edible vegetable oil, acidifying ingredient, and egg-yolk-containing ingredient. In preparing salad dressing, the starchy paste is made up separately by heating a food starch, such as properly prepared cornstarch, arrowroot starch, or potato starch, or a flour, such as wheat flour, rye flour, or tapico flour, with water or diluted vinegar. Sometimes mixtures of the starchy ingredients are used and sometimes other ingredients of the salad dressing being prepared, such as the acidifying ingredient, salt, and sweetening agents, are added to the starchy paste. (R. 38–41, 56, 69–71, 73, 82, 86, 101, 144–147, 158, 239–240, 366, 372, 376–379, 383, 405–409, 444–445, 450–452, 496–497, 512, 520–521, 544, 549, 564–567, 594, 676, 716, 1243–1261, 1262, 1327A, 1913; Ex. 10)

28. In the preparation of salad dressing an egg-yolk-containing ingredient (see finding 15) is used. One or any mixture of the emulsifying ingredients designated in finding 20 may be used to aid in stabilizing the emulsion. When such an ingredient or mixture is used for this purpose the quantity need not exceed 0.75 percent by weight of the finished dressing. (R. 38, 41, 56, 134, 154–158, 376, 381, 395–396, 450–453, 490–491, 494–497, 743, 820–822, 846, 949–951, 1332; Ex. 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 13)

29. Egg-yolk-containing ingredients are not the sole emulsifying ingredients that may be used in salad dressing, and in order to guarantee that salad dressing contains sufficient egg-yolk-containing material to meet with consumer expectations, it is necessary to establish a minimum limit for the egg-yolk-containing ingredient. A minimum quantity of 4 percent by weight of liquid egg yolks or a quantity of other egg-yolk-containing ingredient equivalent in its egg-yolk-solids content to 4 percent by weight of liquid egg yolks is a reasonable minimum limit for the egg-yolk-containing ingredient of salad dressing. (R. 41–44, 113, 115–116, 154–157, 381–382, 414, 432, 455–456, 490–492, 557, 583, 591–597, 645, 1332; Ex. 4, 10)

30. Salad dressing as made by different manufacturers, and different brands of salad dressing as made by a single manufacturer, vary in the percentage of vegetable oil which they contain from about 50 percent down to as low as 20 percent, and in some instances even lower. Low-oil salad dressing is often differentiated in the trade by such terms as "cheap" or "second grade" or "competitive grade." As the percentage of vegetable oil in salad dressings is lowered, the characteristics of the starchy-paste ingredient in the dressing become more apparent. The line of demarcation between reasonably satisfactory salad dressing and salad dressing which is objectionable because of predominating starchy characteristics is not clearly fixed, but when salad dressing has less than about 30 percent vegetable oil it has a starchy flavor which is not characteristic of salad dressing. It is reasonable to fix the minimum level for vegetable oil in salad dressing at 30 percent by weight of the finished dressing. (R. 41–45, 54, 150–157, 243–244, 366–367, 372, 382, 393, 454–455, 505–508, 544–549, 560–561, 609, 644–645, 676, 705–711, 717–720, 731–735, 742, 1331, 1912; Ex. 4, 10)

31. In addition to mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing, a number of other related dressings for salads are referred to in the record. There was testimony concerning a kind of sauce for use on sea food, meats, and similar dishes which has been labeled "Old Style Sauce." The evidence concerning this product indicates that it resembles salad dressing but is more fluid, and contains more mustard and horseradish than are generally used in salad dressing. There was testimony concerning foods made by mixing substantial portions of chili sauce or other tomato products, or chopped vegetables, or chopped pickles with a base consisting of mayonnaise or salad dressing. These mixtures are clearly distinguishable from mayonnaise or salad dressing both in appearance and taste, and have been labeled with names such as russian dressing, Thousand Island dressing, sandwich spread, and tartar sauce. The evidence in the record is not sufficient to establish definitions and standards of identity for any of these related dressings other than mayonnaise; french dressing, and salad dressing. (R. 73–74, 146, 152–154, 158–159, 377–384, 387–392, 459–460, 512, 563, 605, 610–614, 637–640, 646–652, 1346, 1827–1914; Ex. 11, 12, 40, 41)

32. There was no satisfactory evidence showing that it would promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to permit milk, milk solids, nonfat dry milk solids, or cream as optional ingredients in salad dressing. These dairy ingredients are used frequently in the home preparation of the broad class of foods described by the generic term "salad dressing," but they are very unusual ingredients in the commercially prepared food commonly known as "salad dressing." Only one firm has added these ingredients to commercial "salad dressing." The additions are said to improve the flavor, physical appearance or texture, and nutritive value of salad dressing. No substantial evidence was presented to prove the 4 percent to 5 percent of table cream and the 1 percent of nonfat dry milk solids now in use by the firm have a noticeable effect on the flavor of the salad dressing. Evidence that a commercially prepared food of that kind, the composition of which has varied from time to time, has been successfully marketed does not prove that flavor is improved. On the contrary, cream and milk are mild and bland in flavor while some of the constituents of salad dressing, particularly vinegar and the condiments, are characterized by much stronger flavors. In the presence of the stronger flavored ingredients, small amounts of cream and milk will not affect the flavor of the salad dressing to any significant extent. The only evidence of record from taste panel testing reveals that cream in much greater amounts than used by the proponent of its optional use in salad dressing, even when used to the extent of 40 percent of the food, is not noticeable in the finished salad dressing. There was no substantial evidence that the small amounts of nonfat dry milk solids and table cream proposed would improve the texture and physical characteristics of the salad dressing, nor was there evidence as to what special precautions would have to be taken to prevent spoilage of the dairy ingredients during the normal shelf life of the food. It is claimed that the substitution of milk and cream for water in salad dressing would improve its nutritive properties. But the fact that milk and cream are more nutritious than water does not solve the problem. The small amounts of extra fat, protein, amino acids, minerals, and other nutrients that would be added to the daily diet through the use of 4 percent to 5 percent of cream and 1 percent of nonfat dry milk solids in replacement of like amounts of water in salad dressing are insignificant. The proponents of the use of these optional ingredients did not attempt to show that any significant nutritive improvement of the diet would be made through the optional use of nonfat dry milk solids and table cream in salad dressing in the amounts proposed. Adding milk and cream to salad dressing would provide a basis for labeling and advertising claims as to the virtues of these ingredients in the abstract. A truthful statement on a label that cream, milk, or nonfat dry milk solids had been added as an ingredient of salad dressing would be misleading when applied to salad dressing containing only 4 percent to 5 percent of table cream diluted by 1 percent of nonfat dry milk solids because it would not furnish the pertinent information that the small amounts added were insufficient to affect the taste and insignificant from a nutritional standpoint. Thus, to permit the dairy ingredients as optional for use in salad dressing would promote misleading labeling claims with no accompany consumer benefits in terms of product improvement. (R. 81–82, 152–154, 387–388, 575–579, 1567–1568, 1570, 1573, 1574–1581, 1584, 1592, 1601, 1604–1610, 1612, 1617, 1827, 1831–1844, 1863–1865, 1880–1888, 1892, 1896, 1899, 1901, 1903, 1905, 1908–1909, 1912)

33. The commercial salad dressing with table cream and nonfat dry milk solids added is sold as "Cream Wipt Salad Dressing." Only one such product is on the market. When cream is used in a salad dressing prepared in the home the food customarily is called cream salad dressing. Consumers have a right to expect a food designated as cream salad dressing to contain a very substantial amount of cream. Only rarely do cream salad dressings contain vegetable oil as well as cream. Cookbooks describe and give directions for preparing cream salad dressings, and the directions call for cream, or milk and cream, in such quantities that milk fat contributes at least 50 percent of the total fat in the cream salad dressing. No recipes were found or offered in evidence in which as little as 4 percent to 5 percent of table cream was used in home preparation of cream salad dressing. Each of the recipes referred to in the evidence requires a substantially greater amount of cream. This high milk fat content is one of the essential identity characteristics. Cream salad dressing is not now prepared commercially, the evidence does not show that it would have keeping qualities to make the preparation and sale commercially feasible, and there is no need for a standard of identity for it. (R. 387, 575, 1576, 1579, 1580–1581, 1584, 1587, 1599, 1608, 1617, 1831–1842, 1844, 1846, 1878, 1880–1884, 1903, 1905; Ex. 38–41)

Conclusion. Upon consideration of the entire record and the foregoing findings of fact it is concluded that the promulgation of the following definitions and standards of identity for mayonnaise, french dressing, and salad dressing will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers.

Chapter I is amended by adding the following new part:

Sec.
25.1 Mayonnaise, mayonnaise dressing; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
25.2 French dressing; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
25.3 Salad dressing; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.

AUTHORITY: §§ 25.1 to 25.3 issued under sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U. S. C. 371. Interpret or apply sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046; 21 U. S. C. 341.

§ 25.1 Mayonnaise, mayonnaise dressing; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Mayonnaise, mayonnaise dressing, is the emulsified semisolid food prepared from edible vegetable oil, one or both of the acidifying ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and one or more of the egg-yolk-containing ingredients specified in paragraph (c) of this section. It may be seasoned or flavored with one or more of the following ingredients:

(1) Salt.

(2) Sugar, dextrose, corn sirup, invert sugar sirup, nondiastatic maltose sirup, glucose sirup, honey. The foregoing sweetening ingredients may be used in sirup or dried form.

(3) Mustard, paprika, other spice, or any spice oil or spice extract, except that no turmeric or saffron is used and no spice oil or spice extract is used which imparts to the mayonnaise a color simulating the color imparted by egg yolk.

(4) Monosodium glutamate.

(5) Any suitable, harmless food seasoning or flavoring (other than imitations), provided it does not impart to the mayonnaise a color simulating the color imparted by egg yolk.

Mayonnaise may be mixed and packed in an atmosphere in which air is replaced in whole or in part by carbon dioxide or nitrogen. Mayonnaise contains not less than 65 percent by weight of vegetable oil.

(b) The acidifying ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Any vinegar or any vinegar diluted with water to an acidity, calculated as acetic acid, of not less than 2½ percent by weight, or any such vinegar or diluted vinegar mixed with the additional optional acidifying ingredient citric acid, but in any such mixture the weight of citric acid is not greater than 25 percent of the weight of the acids of the vinegar or diluted vinegar calculated as acetic acid. For the purpose of this paragraph, any blend of two or more vinegars is considered to be a vinegar.

(2) Lemon juice or lime juice or both or any such juice in frozen, canned, concentrated, or dried form, or any one or more of these diluted with water to an acidity, calculated as citric acid, of not less than 2½ percent by weight.

(c) The egg-yolk-containing ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are: liquid egg yolks, frozen egg yolks, liquid whole eggs, frozen whole eggs, or any one or more of the foregoing with liquid egg white or frozen egg white.

(d) (1) When the additional optional acidifying ingredient as provided in paragraph (b) (1) of this section is used, the label shall bear the statement "Citric acid added" or "With added citric acid."

(2) Wherever the name "Mayonnaise" or "Mayonnaise Dressing" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statements herein specified, showing the optional ingredients present, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 25.2 French dressing; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) French dressing is the separable liquid food or the emulsified viscous fluid food prepared from edible vegetable oil and one or both of the acidifying ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section. It may be seasoned or flavored with one or more of the following ingredients:

(1) Salt.

(2) Sugar, dextrose, corn sirup, invert sugar sirup, nondiastatic maltose sirup, glucose sirup, honey. The foregoing sweetening ingredients may be used in sirup or dried form.

(3) Mustard, paprika, other spice, or spice oil or spice extract.

(4) Monosodium glutamate.

(5) Any suitable, harmless food seasoning or flavoring (other than imitations).

(6) Tomato paste, tomato puree, catsup, sherry wine.

French dressing may be emulsified. Subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed, one or both of the optional emulsifying ingredients specified in paragraph (c) (1) and (2) of this section may be added. French dressing may be mixed and packed in an atmosphere in which air is replaced in whole or in part by carbon dioxide or nitrogen. French dressing contains not less than 35 percent by weight of vegetable oil.

(b) The acidifying ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Any vinegar or any vinegar diluted with water, or any such vinegar or diluted vinegar mixed with the additional optional acidifying ingredient citric acid, but in any such mixture the weight of citric acid is not greater than 25 percent of the weight of the acids of the vinegar or diluted vinegar calculated as acetic acid. For the purpose of this paragraph, any blend of two or more vinegars is considered to be a vinegar.

(2) Lemon juice or lime juice or both or any such juice in frozen, canned, concentrated, or dried form, or any one or more of these diluted with water.

(c) The optional emulsifying ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Gum acacia (also called gum arabic), carob bean gum (also called locust bean gum), guar gum, gum karaya, gum tragacanth, extract of Irish moss, pectin, propylene glycol ester of alginic acid, sodium carboxymethylcellulose, or any mixture of two or more of these.

(2) Liquid egg yolks, frozen egg yolks, liquid whole eggs, frozen whole eggs, or any one or more of these with liquid egg white or frozen egg white. For the purpose of this paragraph, the quantity of egg-yolk-containing ingredient is calculated as the weight of the egg-yolk solids contained therein.

The quantity of any such emulsifying ingredient or mixture used amounts to not more than 0.75 percent by weight of the finished french dressing.

(d) (1) When the additional optional acidifying ingredient as provided in paragraph (b) (1) of this section is used, the label shall bear the statement "Citric acid added" or "With added citric acid." When an optional emulsifying ingredient as provided in paragraph (c) (1) of this section is used, the label shall bear the statement "---------- added" or "With added ----------," the blank being filled in with the common name or names of the emulsifying ingredient or mixture of emulsifying ingredients used, as specified in paragraph (c) (1) of this section; or, alternatively, with the words "algin derivative," if propylene glycol ester of alginic acid is used; or with the words "vegetable gum" if any one of the vegetable gums, gum acacia, carob bean gum, guar gum, gum karaya, or gum tragacanth, is used; or with the words "vegetable gums" if two or more such vegetable gums are used. Label statements specified in this paragraph for declaring the presence of optional ingredients may be combined, as for example, "With added citric acid and sodium carboxymethylcellulose."

(2) Wherever the name "French Dressing" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statements herein specified, showing the optional ingredients present, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 25.3 Salad dressing; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Salad dressing is the emulsified semi-solid food prepared from edible vegetable oil, one or both of the acidifying ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section, one or more of the egg-yolk-containing ingredients specified in paragraph (c) of this section, and a cooked or partly cooked starchy paste prepared with a food starch, tapioca flour, wheat flour, rye flour, or any two or more of these. In the preparation of such starchy paste water may be added. Salad dressing may be seasoned or flavored with one or more of the following ingredients:

(1) Salt.

(2) Sugar, dextrose, corn sirup, invert sugar sirup, nondiastatic maltose sirup, glucose sirup, honey. The foregoing sweetening ingredients may be used in sirup or dried form.

(3) Mustard, paprika, other spice, or any spice oil or spice extract, except that no turmeric or saffron is used and no spice oil or spice extract is used which imparts to the salad dressing a color simulating the color imparted by egg yolk.

(4) Monosodium glutamate.

(5) Any suitable, harmless food seasoning or flavoring (other than imitations), provided it does not impart to the salad dressing a color simulating the color imparted by egg yolk.

Subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed, one or more of the optional emulsifying ingredients specified in paragraph (d) of this section may be added. Salad dressing may be mixed and packed in an atmosphere in which air is replaced in whole or in part by carbon dioxide or nitrogen. Salad dressing contains not less than 30 percent by weight of vegetable oil and not less egg-yolk-containing ingredient than is equivalent in egg-yolk solids content to 4 percent by weight of liquid egg yolks.

(b) The acidifying ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(2) Lemon juice or lime juice or both or any such juice in frozen, canned, concentrated, or dried form, or any one or more of these diluted with water.

(d) The optional emulsifying ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are: gum acacia (also called gum arabic), carob bean gum (also called locust bean gum), guar gum, gum karaya, gum tragacanth, extract of Irish moss, pectin, propylene glycol ester of alginic acid, sodium carboxymethylcellulose, or any mixture of two or more of these. The quantity used of any such emulsifying ingredient or mixture amounts to not more than 0.75 percent by weight of the finished salad dressing.

(e) (1) When the additional optional acidifying ingredient as provided in paragraph (b) (1) of this section is used, the label shall bear the statement "Citric acid added" or "With added citric acid." When an optional emulsifying ingredient as provided in paragraph (d) of this section is used, the label shall bear the statement "---------- added" or "With added ----------," the blank being filled in with the common name or names of the emulsifying ingredient or mixture of emulsifying ingredients used, as specified in paragraph (d) of this section; or, alternatively, with the words "algin derivative," if propylene glycol ester of alginic acid is used; or with the words "vegetable gum" if any one of the vegetable gums, gum acacia, carob bean gum, guar gum, gum karaya, or gum tragacanth, is used; or with the words "vegetable gums," if two or more such vegetable gums are used. Label statements specified in this paragraph for declaring the presence of optional ingredients may be combined, as for example, "with added citric acid and sodium carboxymethylcellulose."

(2) Wherever the name "Salad Dressing" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statements herein specified, showing the optional ingredients present, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

Effective date. The regulations hereby promulgated shall become effective on the ninetieth day following the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: August 8, 1950.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—Management of Wildlife Conservation Areas

PART 34—SOUTHEASTERN REGION

SUBPART—BLACKBEARD ISLAND NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, GEORGIA

FISHING

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observation and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service, it has been determined that public fishing and the use of boats in certain waters of the Blackbeard Island National Wildlife Refuge, can be permitted in certain seasons without interfering with the primary purpose of the Refuge.

Inasmuch as the following regulations are relaxations of the present prohibition against fishing and the use of boats on the Refuge, the notice and public rule-making procedure required by the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) are hereby found to be impracticable, and the effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act does not apply.

Effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, §§ 34.17 to 34.20, inclusive, are added.

Sec.
34.17 Fishing permitted.
34.18 State fishing laws.
34.19 Use of boats.
34.20 Special fishing restrictions.

AUTHORITY: §§ 34.17 to 34.20 issued under sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1224; 16 U. S. C. 715i.

§ 34.17 Fishing permitted. Non-commercial fishing is permitted during the daylight hours in all the waters of the Blackbeard Island National Wildlife Refuge, Georgia, during the period from April 1 to October 15, inclusive, of each year, in accordance with the provisions of the regulations in Parts 18 and 21 of this chapter, and subject to the conditions, restrictions, and requirements of §§ 34.18 to 34.20, inclusive.

§ 34.18 State fishing laws. All persons must comply with all of the State fishing laws and regulations, and must have on their person and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer whatever license is required by such laws and regulations, which license shall serve as a Federal permit for non-commercial or sport fishing in the waters of the Refuge that are open to fishing.

§ 34.19 Use of boats. Persons may use boats (except motor boats), canoes, or floating devices for fishing only on the waters of the Refuge, and must place such boats, canoes, or floating devices on the waters only at such point or points as may be designated by posting by the officer in charge. The use of motor boats, either inboard or outboard, is prohibited on all waters of the Refuge except for official purposes.

§ 34.20 Special fishing restrictions. Fishing from dikes, dams, and water control structures, and the building of fires on such dikes or dams are prohibited. Fishing must be by hook, line, rod and reel only. The use of set lines, nets, seines, traps, or similar devices is prohibited. The use of live minnows for bait is prohibited.

Dated: August 8, 1950.

LAWS OF MORE COMMON APPLICATION PERTAINING TO THE WAREHOUSING AND BOTTLING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS IN BOND[1]

5 U. S. C. 22 DEPARTMENTAL REGULATIONS. The head of each department is authorized to prescribe regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the government of his department, the conduct of its officers and clerks, the distribution and performance of its business, and the custody, use, and preservation of the records, papers, and property appertaining to it.

26 U. S. C. 1650 WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES. In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following table, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of Title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 shall be the rates set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

Section	Description of tax	Old rate	War tax rate
2800 (a) (1)	Distilled spirits	$6 per gallon.	$9 per gallon.

26 U. S. C. 2800 TAX—(a) Rate—(1) Distilled spirits generally. There shall be levied and collected on all distilled spirits in bond or produced in or imported into the United States an internal revenue tax at the rate of $6.00 on each proof gallon or wine gallon when below proof and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon, to be paid by the distiller or importer when withdrawn from bond.

(A) Payment of tax as to domestic spirits. The tax on distilled spirits produced in the United States, to be paid upon withdrawal from bond, and the tax on rectified spirits produced in the United States, shall be paid by stamp, under such rules and regulations, permits, bonds, records, and returns, and with the use of such tax-stamp machines or other devices and apparatus, including but not limited to storage, gauging, and bottling tanks and pipe lines, as the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary shall prescribe.

(B) Penalties. Whoever manufactures, procures, possesses, uses, or tampers with a tax-stamp machine which may be required under this section with intent to evade the internal-revenue tax imposed upon distilled spirits and rectified spirits, and whoever, with intent to defraud, makes, alters, simulates, or counterfeits any stamp of the character imprinted by such stamp machines, or who procures, possessed, uses, or sells any forged, altered, counterfeited, or simulated tax stamp, or any plate, die, or device intended for use in forging, altering, counterfeiting, or simulating any such stamps, or who otherwise violates the provisions of this section, or the regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall pay a penalty of $5,000 and shall be fined not more than $10,000 or be imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both, and any machine, device, equipment, or materials used in violation of this section shall be forfeited to the United States and after condemnation shall be destroyed. But this provision shall not exclude any other penalty or forfeiture provided by law.

(5) Blending of beverage brandies. Fruit brandies distilled from the same kind of fruit at not more than one hundred and seventy degrees proof may, for the sole purpose of perfecting such brandies according to commercial standards, be mixed or blended with each other, or with any such mixture or blend, by the distiller thereof in any internal revenue bonded warehouse operated by him exclusively for the storage of brandy or wine spirits, and the provisions of this section and of sections 2800 (a) (5) and 3254 (g) relating to rectification or other internal revenue laws of the United States shall not be held to apply to or prohibit such mixing or blending, and brandies so mixed or blended may be packaged, stored, transported, transferred in bond, withdrawn from bond tax-paid or tax-free, or be otherwise disposed of, in the same manner as such brandies not so mixed or blended: Provided, That, in addition to the tax imposed by this chapter on the production of distilled spirits, there shall be paid a tax of 30 cents as to each proof gallon (and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof gallon) of brandy so mixed or blended (except when withdrawn tax-free and accounted for or when lost and allowance is made therefor), such tax to be paid by rectified spirits stamps affixed to the packages at the time of withdrawal. The Commissioner, under rules and regulations to be by him prescribed with the approval of the Secretary, upon the presentation of proof to his satisfaction of the loss by leakage, evaporation, theft, or otherwise of fruit brandies so blended or mixed, not occurring as the result of any negligence, connivance, collusion, or fraud on the part of the warehouseman or his agents, is hereby authorized to remit or refund the taxes assessed or paid upon such lost brandies: Provided, however, That such remission or refund shall be allowed only to the extent that the warehouseman is not indemnified or recompensed for such tax, and that losses of fruit brandies occurring prior to any such mixing or blending shall be allowable in accordance with section 2901. The term "distiller" as used herein shall include any one or more distillers associated as members of any farm cooperative, or any one or more distillers affiliated within the meaning of section 17 (a) (5) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, or any fruit distiller for whose account, recorded with the district supervisor at the time of production, the brandy to be blended was produced. The Commissioner may, with the approval of the Secretary, make such rules or regulations as he may deem necessary to carry these provisions into effect.

26 U. S. C. 2802 STAMPS FOR DISTILLED SPIRITS. • • •

(b) Accountability—(1) Other stamps. All stamps relating to distilled spirits, other than the tax-paid stamps, shall be charged to collectors; and the books containing such stamps may be intrusted by any collector to the storekeeper-gauger of the district, who shall make a daily report to the collector of all such stamps used by him and for whom used; and when all the stamps contained in any such book have been issued, the storekeeper-gauger of the district shall return the book to the collector, with all the marginal stubs therein. Except as provided in section 2878 (b), all export stamps issued to collectors shall be charged to them as representing the value of 10 cents for each stamp and they shall collect the amount due for such stamps at the rate of 10 cents for each stamp issued in such manner and at such time as the Commissioner may prescribe, and the Commissioner may, in his discretion, make assessment therefor.

• • • • • •

26 U. S. C. 2804 DETENTION OF CASKS OR PACKAGES ON SUSPENSION—(a) Power of Revenue Officer. It shall be lawful for any internal revenue officer to detain any cask or package containing, or supposed to contain, distilled spirits, when he has reason to believe that the tax imposed by law upon the same has not been paid, or that the same is being removed in violation of law; and every such cask or package may be held by him at a safe place until it shall be determined whether the property so detained is liable by law to be proceeded against for forfeiture; but such summary detention shall not continue in any case longer than forty-eight hours without process of law or intervention of the officer to whom such detention is to be reported.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2806 PENALTIES AND FORFEITURES—(a) Creation of fictitious proof—(1) Penalty. Every person who adds or causes to be added any ingredient or substance to any distilled spirits before the tax is paid thereon, for the purpose of creating a fictitious proof, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 for each cask or package so adulterated, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than two years; and

(2) Forfeiture. Every such cask or package, with its contents, shall be forfeited to the United States.

(b) Unlawful affixing, canceling, or issue of stamps by officer—(1) Penalty. Whenever any revenue officer affixes or cancels, or causes or permits to be affixed or canceled, any stamp relating to distilled spirits provided for by law, in any other manner or in any other place, or issues the same to any other person than as provided by law, or by regulation made in pursuance thereof, or knowingly affixes, or permits to be affixed, any such stamp to any cask or package of spirits of which the whole or any part has been distilled, rectified, compounded, removed, or sold, in violation of law, or which has in any manner escaped payment of tax due thereon, he shall, for every such offense, be fined not less than $500 nor more than $3,000, and be imprisoned for not less than six months nor more than three years.

(2) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

(d) Forfeiture of distilled spirits in unstamped casks or packages. All distilled spirits found in any cask or package containing five gallons or more, without having thereon each mark and stamp required therefor by law, shall be forfeited to the United States.

(e) Evasion of tax, penalty.—Whenever any person evades, or attempts to evade, the payment of the tax on any distilled spirits, in any manner whatever, he shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the tax so evaded or attempted to be evaded.

26 U. S. C. 2808 INSTRUMENTS TO PREVENT AND DETECT FRAUD—(a) Power of the Commissioner. For the prevention and detection of frauds by distillers of spirits, the Commissioner may prescribe for use such hydrometers, saccharometers, weighing and gauging instruments, or other means for ascertaining the quantity, gravity, and producing capacity of any mash, wort, or beer used, or to be used, in the production of distilled spirits, and the strength and quantity of spirits subject to tax, as he may deem necessary; and he may prescribe rules and regulations to secure a uniform and correct system of inspection, weighing, marking, and gauging of spirits.

26 U. S. C. 2810 REGISTRY OF STILLS—(a) Requirement. Every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still or distilling apparatus set up, shall register the same with the collector of the district in which it is, by subscribing and filing with him duplicate statements, in writing, setting forth the particular place where such still or distilling apparatus is set up, the kind of still and its cubic contents, the owner thereof, his place of residence, and the purpose for which said still or distilling apparatus has been or is intended to be used; one of which statements shall be retained and preserved by the collector, and the other transmitted by him to the Commissioner. Stills and distilling apparatus shall be registered immediately upon their being set up.

Every still or distilling apparatus not so registered, together with all personal property in the possession or custody, of under the control of such person, and found in the building, or in any yard or inclosure connected with the building in which the same may be set up, shall be forfeited.

And every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still or distilling apparatus set up which is not so registered, shall pay a penalty of $500, and shall be fined not less than $100, nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned for not less than one month, nor more than two years.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2829 INSTALLATION OF METERS, TANKS, AND OTHER APPARATUS—(a) Power of the Commissioner. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, is authorized to require at distilleries, breweries, rectifying houses, and wherever else in his judgment such action may be deemed advisable, the installation of meters, tanks, pipes, or any other apparatus for the purpose of protecting the revenue, and such meters, tanks, and pipes and all necessary labor incident thereto shall be at the expense of the person on whose premises the installation is required. Any such person refusing or neglecting to install such apparatus when so required by the Commissioner shall not be permitted to conduct business on such premises.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2857 BOOKS OF RECTIFIERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS—(a) Requirements. Every rectifier and every wholesale liquor dealer who sells, or offers for sale, distilled spirits in quantities of five wine-gallons or more to the same person at the same time shall keep daily, at his place of business covered by his special tax stamp, a record of distilled spirits received and disposed of by him, and shall render under oath correct transcripts and summaries of such records: Provided, That the Commissioner may in his discretion require such record to be kept at the place where the spirits are actually received and sent out. The records shall be kept and the transcripts shall be rendered in such form, and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

The records required to be kept under the provisions of this section and regulations issued pusuant thereto, shall be preserved for a period of four years, and during such period shall be available during business hours for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by the Commissioner or any internal revenue officer.

Every rectifier and wholesale liquor dealer who refuses or neglects to keep such records in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, or to make entries therein, or cancels, alters, or obliterates any entry therein (except for the purpose of correcting errors) or destroys any part of such records, or any entry therein, or makes any false entry therein, or hinders or obstructs any internal revenue officer from inspecting such records or taking any abstracts therefrom, or neglects or refuses to preserve or produce such records as required by this chapter or by regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall pay a penalty of $100 and, on conviction, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than three years.

Every rectifier and wholesale liquor dealer who refuses or neglects to render transcripts or summaries in the form required by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $100 for each such neglect or refusal.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2866 EFFACEMENT OF STAMPS AND BRANDS ON EMPTIED PACKAGES. Every person who empties or draws off, or causes to be emptied or drawn off, any distilled spirits from a cask or package, bearing any mark, brand, or stamp, required by law, shall at the time of emptying such cask or package, efface and obliterate said mark, stamp, or brand. Every such cask or package from which said mark, brand, or stamp is not effaced and obliterated as herein required, shall be forfeited to the United States, and may be seized by any officer of internal revenue, wherever found. And every railroad company or other transportation company, or person who receives or transports, or has in possession with intent to transport, or with intent to cause or procure to be transported, any such empty cask or package, or any part thereof, having thereon any brand, mark, or stamp, required by law to be placed on any cask or package containing distilled spirits, shall forfeit $300 for each such cask or package, or any part thereof, so received or transported, or had in possession with the intent aforesaid; and every boat, railroad car, cart, dray, wagon, or other vehicle, and all horses and other animals used in carrying or transporting the same, shall be forfeited to the United States. Every person who fails to efface and obliterate said mark, stamp, or brand, at the time of emptying such cask or package, or who receives any such cask or package, or any part thereof, with the intent aforesaid, or who transports the same, or knowingly aids or assists therein, or who removes any stamp provided by law from any cask or package containing, or which had contained, distilled spirits, without defacing and destroying the same at the time of such removal, or who aids or assists therein, or who has in his possession any such stamp so removed as aforesaid, or has in his possession any canceled stamp, or any stamp which has been used, or which purports to have been used, upon any cask or package of distilled spirits, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $10,000, and imprisoned not less than one year nor more than five years.

26 U. S. C. 2870 PROHIBITED HOURS FOR REMOVAL OF SPIRITS. No person shall remove any distilled spirits at any other time than after sun-rising and before sun-setting in any cask or package containing more than ten gallons from any premises or building in which the same may have been distilled, redistilled, rectified, compounded, manufactured, or stored; and every person who violates this provision shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each cask, barrel, or package of spirits so removed; and said spirits, together with any vessel containing the same, and any horse, cart, boat, or other conveyance used in the removal thereof, shall be forfeited to the United States.

26 U. S. C. 2871 REGULATION OF TRAFFIC IN CONTAINERS OF DISTILLED SPIRITS. Whenever in his judgment such action is necessary to protect the revenue, the Secretary is authorized, by the regulations prescribed by him, and permits issued thereunder if required by him (1) to regulate the size, branding, marking, sale, resale, possession, use, and re-use of containers (of a capacity of less than five wine-gallons) designed or intended for use for the sale at retail of distilled spirits (within the meaning of such term as it is used in section 2803) for other than industrial use, and (2) to require, of persons manufacturing, dealing in, or using any such containers, the submission to such inspection, the keeping of such records, and the filing of such reports as may be deemed by him reasonably necessary in connection therewith. Whoever willfully violates the provisions of any regulation prescribed, or the terms or conditions of any permit issued, pursuant to the authorization contained in this section, and any officer, director, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violation, shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $1,000 or be imprisoned for not more than two years, or both; and, notwithstanding any criminal conviction, the containers involved in such violation shall be forfeited to the United States, and may be seized and condemned by like proceedings as those provided by law for forfeitures, seizures, and condemnations for violations of the internal-revenue laws, and any such containers so seized and condemned shall be destroyed and not sold. Any requirements imposed under this section shall be in addition to any other requirements imposed by, or pursuant to, law, and shall apply as well to persons not liable for tax under the internal-revenue laws as to persons so liable.

26 U. S. C. 2872 ESTABLISHMENT AND CONTROL. The Commissioner is authorized, in his discretion, and upon the execution of such bonds as he may prescribe, to establish warehouses, to be known and designated as internal revenue bonded warehouses, to be used exclusively for the storage of spirits distilled at a registered distillery, each of which warehouses shall be in charge of a storekeeper-gauger. Every such warehouse shall be under the control of the District Supervisor of the Alcohol Tax Unit district in which such warehouse is located, and shall be in the joint custody of the storekeeper-gauger and proprietor thereof, and kept securely locked, and shall at no time be unlocked or opened or remain open except in the presence of such storekeeper-gauger or other person who may be designated to act for him. No dwelling house shall be used for such a warehouse, and no door, window, or other opening shall be made or permitted in the walls of such warehouse leading into a distillery. Such warehouses shall be under such further regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

26 U. S. C. 2873 REGULATIONS FOR ESTABLISHMENT, MAINTENANCE, AND SUPERVISION. The establishment, construction, maintenance, and supervision of internal revenue bonded warehouses shall be under such regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe.

26 U. S. C. 2874 DISCONTINUANCE OF WAREHOUSE AND TRANSFER OF MERCHANDISE—(a) Authorization. Whenever, in the opinion of the Commissioner, any internal revenue bonded warehouse is unsafe or unfit for use, of the merchandise therein is liable to loss or great wastage, he may in either such case discontinue such warehouse and require the merchandise therein to be transferred to such other warehouse as he may designate, and within such time as he may prescribe. Such transfer shall be made under the supervision of the collector, or of such other officer as may be designated by the Commissioner, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the owner of the merchandise. Whenever the owner of such merchandise fails to make such transfer within the time prescribed, or to pay the just and proper expense of such transfer, as ascertained and determined by the Commissioner, such merchandise may be seized and sold by the collector in the same manner as goods are sold upon distraint for taxes, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the payment of the taxes due thereon and the cost and expenses of such sale and removal, and the balance paid over to the owner of such merchandise.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2875 EXEMPTION FROM PROVISIONS OF LAW DISTINGUISHING BETWEEN CLASSES OF WAREHOUSES. Internal revenue bonded warehouses established under authority of law shall be exempt from the provisions of those sections of law which, prior to June 26, 1936, have made distinctions between distillery bonded warehouses, general bonded warehouses, and special bonded warehouses, as to (1) kind of spirits to be stored therein; (2) ownership or production of distilled spirits to be stored therein; (3) ownership or proprietorship of such warehouses; (4) location and construction of such bonded warehouses; (5) entry of distilled spirits therein; (6) withdrawal of distilled spirits therefrom; (7) transfers of distilled spirits to or from one or more of such classes of bonded warehouses; or (8) any other matter; it being hereby declared to be the purpose to establish the internal revenue bonded warehouse as the sole type and kind of bonded warehouse under the internal revenue laws for the storage of spirits distilled at a registered distillery on which the tax has not been paid.

26 U. S. C. 2876. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH WAREHOUSING AND REMOVAL REQUIREMENTS. In case any distilled spirits removed from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for deposit in another internal revenue bonded warehouse shall fail to be so deposited or if any distilled spirits deposited in any internal revenue bonded warehouse shall be taken therefrom, for export or otherwise, without full compliance with the provisions of this part, and with the requirements of any regulations made thereunder, and with the terms of any bond given on such removal, or if any distilled spirits which have been deposited in an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall be found elsewhere, not having been removed therefrom according to law, any person who shall be guilty of such failure, or any person who shall in any manner violate any provision of this part shall be subject, on conviction, to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, or to imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than three years for every such failure or violation; and the spirits as to which such failure or violation, or unlawful removal shall take place shall be forfeited to the United States.

26 U. S. C. 2878. DRAWINGS, GAUGING, AND MARKING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS—(a) General rule. Except as provided in section 2883, all distilled spirits shall be drawn from receiving cisterns into casks or packages and thereupon shall be gauged, proved, and marked by a storekeeper-gauger, and immediately removed into an internal revenue bonded warehouse. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, is hereby empowered to prescribe all necessary regulations relating to the drawing off, gauging, and packaging of distilled spirits; the marking, branding, numbering, and stamping of such packages; and the transfer and transportation to, and the storage of such spirits in, internal revenue bonded warehouses.

(b) In wooden packages containing metallic cans for export. Under the application of the distiller and under such regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, distilled spirits may be drawn into wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans, which cans shall each have a capacity of not less than five gallons, wine measure. Such packages shall be filled and used only for exportation from the United States. And there shall be charged for each of said packages or cases for the expense of providing and affixing stamps, 5 cents.

(e) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2879 DEPOSITS OF SPIRITS IN WAREHOUSES—(a) Entry for deposit. The distillers of all spirits removed to an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall enter the same for deposit in such warehouse, under such regulations as the Commissioner may prescribe. Said entry shall be in such form as the Commissioner shall prescribe.

(b) Time for payment of the tax. The tax on all distilled spirits hereafter entered for deposit in internal revenue bonded warehouses shall be due and payable before and at the time the same are withdrawn therefrom and within eight years from the date of the original entry for deposit therein; and warehousing bonds hereafter taken under the provisions of the internal revenue laws shall be conditioned for the payment of the tax on the spirits as specified in the entry before withdrawal from the internal revenue bonded warehouse, and within eight years from the date of said entry.

(c) Bond required. The Commissioner shall prescribe the form and penal sums of bonds covering distilled spirits in internal revenue bonded warehouses and in transit to and between such warehouses: Provided, That the penal sums of such bonds covering distilled spirits shall not exceed in the aggregate $200,000 for each such warehouse.

(d) Renewal of bond. A new bond shall be required in case of the death, insolvency, or removal of the surety or sureties, and may be required in any other contingency affecting its validity or impairing its efficiency, at the discretion of the Commissioner. And in case the warehouseman fails or refuses to give the bond required, or to renew the same, or neglects to immediately withdraw the spirits and pay the tax thereon, or if he neglects to withdraw any bonded spirits and pay the tax thereon before the expiration of the time limited in the bond, the collector shall proceed to collect the tax by distraint, issuing his warrant of distraint for the amount of tax found to be due, as ascertained by him from the report of the storekeeper-gauger if no bond was given, or from the terms of the bond if a bond was given. But this provision shall not exclude any other remedy or proceeding provided by law.

(e) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2880 WITHDRAWAL FROM WAREHOUSE AND COLLECTION OF TAX ON SPIRITS SUBJECT TO EXCESSIVE LEAKAGE—(a) Power of the Commissioner. If it shall appear at any time that there has been a loss of distilled spirits from any cask or other package deposited in an internal revenue bonded warehouse, other than the loss provided for in section 2901 (b), which, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is excessive, he may instruct the district supervisor of the district in which the loss has occurred to require the withdrawal from warehouse of such distilled spirits, and direct the collector to collect the tax accrued upon the original quantity of distilled spirits entered into the warehouse in such cask or package, notwithstanding that the time specified in any bond given for the withdrawal of the spirits entered into warehouse in such cask or package has not expired. If the said tax is not paid on demand, the collector shall report the amount due upon his next monthly list, and it shall be assessed and collected as other taxes are assessed and collected.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2881 WITHDRAWAL OF SPIRITS FROM WAREHOUSE ON ORIGINAL GAUGE—(a) Regulations. Under such regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, packages of distilled spirits drawn from receiving cisterns and deposited in internal revenue bonded warehouses may be withdrawn therefrom on the original gauge where the same have remained in such warehouse for a period not exceeding thirty days from the date of deposit.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2882 ENTRY FOR WITHDRAWAL FROM WAREHOUSE—(a) Authorization. Any distilled spirits may, on payment of the tax thereon, be withdrawn from warehouse on application to the collector of the district in charge of such warehouse, on making a withdrawal entry in duplicate and in the following form:

ENTRY FOR WITHDRAWAL OF DISTILLED SPIRITS FROM WAREHOUSE TAX PAID

Entry of distilled spirits to be withdrawn, on payment of the tax, from internal revenue bonded warehouse number ------, situated in the ------ district of --------, by -------, deposited on the ---- day of -------, anno Domini --------, by --------, in said warehouse.

And the entry shall specify the whole number of casks or packages, with the marks and serial numbers thereon, the number of proof gallons and taxable gallons, and the amount of the tax on the distilled spirits contained in them at the time they were deposited in the internal revenue bonded warehouse; and said entry shall also specify the number of proof gallons, and taxable gallons contained in said casks or packages at the time application shall be made for the withdrawal thereof; and on payment of the tax the collector shall issue his order to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse for the delivery. One of said entries shall be filed in the office of the collector, and the other transmitted by him to the Commissioner.

26 U. S. C. 2883 TRANSFER OF SPIRITS AT REGISTERED DISTILLERIES—(a) Requirements. Subject to the provisions of existing law, spirits of one hundred and sixty degrees of proof or more produced at registered distilleries, including registered fruit distilleries (such registered distilleries and registered fruit distilleries being referred to hereafter as "distillery" or "distilleries"), may be transferred by means of pipe lines from receiving cisterns in the distillery direct to storage tanks in the internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the bonded premises where produced or located contiguous thereto, and be warehoused in such storage tanks, or they may be withdrawn from the receiving cisterns, without, or after reduction in proof, into approved containers and transferred to any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage therein, or they may be tax-paid in such approved containers in the cistern rooms of distilleries without being entered into an internal revenue bonded warehouse. Such spirits may be drawn into approved containers from storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse. Spirits of one hundred and sixty degrees of proof, or more, may be transferred in bond in tank cars from cistern rooms of distilleries or from storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse and be deposited in storage tanks in any internal revenue bonded warehouse. Such spirits in tanks in internal revenue bonded warehouses distilled at or above one hundred and ninety degrees of proof may be reduced to not less than one hundred and eleven degrees prior to being drawn into packages. Such spirits, upon tax payment, may be withdrawn in approved containers, including pipe lines to contiguous premises, for use for beverage purposes only. Except as provided in subsection (c) hereof and section 2916, such spirits may not be withdrawn for denaturation.

(b) Transfer of fortifying spirits. Fortifying spirits of one hundred and sixty degrees of proof or more may be transferred by pipe line from registered fruit distilleries and receiving cisterns in such distilleries to the fortification rooms of contiguous wineries or to storage tanks in the internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises where the spirits were produced, or from such storage tanks to the fortification rooms of contiguous wineries.

(c) Transfer of rum for denaturation. Rum of not less than one hundred and fifty degrees of proof may be transferred by pipe line for denaturation from receiving cisterns in the cistern room of any distillery to a denaturing bonded warehouse on the distillery premises or to storage tanks situated in the internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises, or from such storage tanks to a denaturing bonded warehouse on the distillery premises.

(d) Transfer of gin. Gin of any proof may be transferred in bond by means of pipe lines from receiving cisterns in distilleries direct to storage tanks in the internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the bonded premises where produced, or located contiguous thereto, and be warehoused in such storage tanks. Such gin may, upon tax payment, be transferred by pipe line to a contiguous tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant.

(e) Redistillation of spirits. Distilled spirits of any proof may be transferred from a distillery or an internal revenue bonded warehouse to any distillery for redistillation upon a showing of the need therefor: Provided, That only spirits of one hundred and sixty degrees of proof or more may be transferred by pipe line to a distillery for redistillation from storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on such distillery premises or located contiguous thereto: Provided further, That spirits of any proof may be transferred by pipe line for redistillation from receiving tanks in a distillery to a contiguous distillery. Upon removal of distilled spirits to any distillery for redistillation, the consignee distiller shall assume the liability for the payment of the tax on the spirits from the time they leave the internal revenue bonded warehouse or distillery, and the tax liability on the producing distiller or the internal revenue bonded warehouseman, and the liens on the premises of the producing distiller shall cease, and the tax and liens shall become the liability of the consignee distiller: Provided further, That upon redistillation the redistilled spirits shall be treated the same as if the spirits had been originally produced by the redistiller and all prior obligations as to taxes and liens shall be superseded. Sections 2800 (a) (5) and 3250 (f) (1) shall not apply to the redistillation of spirits removed under the provisions of this section.

(f) Regulations. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, is hereby empowered to prescribe all necessary regulations relating to the drawing off, transferring, gaging, storing, redistillation, and transportation of the spirits; the records to be kept and returns to be made; the size and kind of containers to be used; the marking, branding, numbering, and stamping of such containers; and the kind of bond and the penal sum thereof.

(g) Effect on other laws. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as restricting or limiting the provisions of other sections of the internal-revenue laws relating to internal revenue bonded warehouses, distilleries, and bonded wineries.

(h) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2884 GAUGING, STAMPING, AND BRANDING SPIRITS REMOVED FROM WAREHOUSE—(a) Requirement. Except as may otherwise be required under section 2800 (a) (1) (A), whenever an application is received for the removal from any internal revenue bonded warehouse of any cask or package of distilled spirits on which the tax has been paid, the storekeeper-gauger shall gauge and inspect the same, and shall, before such cask or package has left the warehouse, place upon such package such marks, brands, and stamps as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall by regulations prescribe, which marks, brands, and stamps shall be erased when such cask or package is emptied.

The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may, by regulations, from time to time, require any distiller, at his expense and under the immediate personal supervision of a storekeeper-gauger, to do such marking and branding and such mechanical labor pertaining to gauging required under this section as the Commissioner deems proper and determines may be done without danger to the revenue.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2885 EXPORTATION OF SPIRITS WITHDRAWN FROM WAREHOUSES—(a) Entries, bonds, and bills of lading. Distilled spirits may be withdrawn from internal revenue bonded warehouses, at the instance of the owner of the spirits, for exportation in the original casks or packages, without the payment of tax, under such regulations, and after making such entries and executing and filing with the collector of the district from which the removal is to be made such bonds and bills of lading, and giving such other additional security as may be prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, and bonds given under this section shall be canceled under such regulations as the Secretary shall prescribe. The bonds required to be given for the exportation of distilled spirits shall be canceled upon the presentation of satisfactory proof and certificates that said distilled spirits have been landed at the port of destination named in the bill of lading, or upon satisfactory proof that after shipment the same were lost at sea without fault or neglect of the owner or shipper hereof.

(b) Marks, stamps, and permits. All distilled spirits intended for export, as aforesaid, before being removed from the internal revenue bonded warehouse, shall be marked as the Commissioner may prescribe, and shall have affixed to each cask an engraved stamp indicative of such intention, to be provided and furnished by the several collectors as in the case of other stamps, and to be charged to them and accounted for in the same manner, and for the expense attending the providing and affixing such stamps 10 cents for each package so stamped shall be paid to the collector on making the entry for such transportation. When the owner of the spirits shall have made the proper entries, filed the bonds, and otherwise complied with all the requirements of the law and regulations as herein provided, the collector shall issue to him a permit for the removal and transportation of said spirits to the collector of the port from which the same are to be exported, accurately describing the spirits to be shipped, the amount of tax thereon, the State and district from which the same is to be shipped, the name of the distiller by whom distilled, the port to which the same are to be transported, the name of the collector of the port to whom the spirits are to be consigned, and the routes over which they are to be sent to the port of shipment. Such shipments shall be made over bonded routes whenever practicable. The collector of the port shall receive such spirits, and permit the exportation thereof, under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed for the exportation of spirits upon which the tax has been paid.

(d) Penalties and forfeitures—(1) Fraudulent claim for drawback. And every person who fraudulently claims, or seeks, or obtains an allowance of drawback on any distilled spirits, or fraudulently claims any greater allowance or drawback than the tax actually paid thereon, shall forfeit and pay to the Government of the United States triple the amount wrongfully and fraudulently sought to be obtained, and shall be imprisoned not more than ten years; and every owner, agent or master of any vessel or other person who knowingly aids or abets in the fraudulent collection or fraudulent attempts to collect any drawback upon, or knowingly aids or permits any fraudulent change in the spirits so shipped, shall be fined not exceeding $5,000 and imprisoned not more than one year, and the ship or vessel on board of which such shipment was made, or pretended to be made shall be forfeited to the United States, whether a conviction of the master or owner be had or otherwise, and proceedings may be had in admiralty by libel for such forfeiture.

(2) Unlawful relanding. Every person who intentionally relands within the jurisdiction of the United States any distilled spirits which have been shipped for exportation under the provisions of this chapter, or who receives such relanded distilled spirits, and every person who aids or abets in such relanding or receiving of such spirits, shall be fined not exceeding $5,000 and imprisoned not more than three years; and all distilled spirits so relanded, together with the vessel from which the same were relanded within the jurisdiction of the United States, and all boats, vehicles, horses, or other animals used in relanding and removing such distilled spirits, shall be forfeited to the United States.

(e) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2886 TRANSPORTATION BOND ON WITHDRAWAL OF SPIRITS FOR EXPORT.—(a) Requirements. Whenever the owner or owners of distilled spirits shall desire to withdraw the same from any internal revenue bonded warehouse for exportation, such owner or owners may at their option, in lieu of executing an export bond as provided by law, give a transportation bond with sureties satisfactory to the collector of internal revenue and under such rules and regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, conditioned for the due delivery thereof on board ship at a port of exportation to be named therein, and for the due performance on the part of the exporter or owner at the port of export of all the requirements in regard to notice of export, entry, and the giving of bond hereinafter specified; and in such case, on arrival of the spirits at the port of export, the exporter or owner at that port shall immediately notify the collector of the port of the fact, setting forth his intention to export the same, and the name of the vessel upon which the same are to be laden, and the port to which they are intended to be exported. He shall, after the quantity of spirits has been determined by the gauger and inspector, file with the collector of the port an export-entry verified by his oath or affirmation. He shall also give bond to the United States, with at least two sureties, satisfactory to the collector of customs, conditioned that the principal named in said bond will export the spirits as specified in said entry port designated in said entry, or to some other port without the jurisdiction of the United States.

And upon the lading of such spirits, the collector of the port, after proper bonds for the exportation of the same have been completed by the exporter or owner at the port of shipment thereof, shall transmit to the collector of internal revenue of the district from which the said spirits were withdrawn for exportation, a clearance certificate and a detailed report of the gauger, which report shall show the capacity of each cask in wine gallons, and the contents thereof in proof gallons, and taxable gallons. Upon receipt of the certificate and report, and upon payment of tax on deficiency, if any, the collector of internal revenue shall cancel the transportation bond. The bond required to be given for the landing at a foreign port of distilled spirits shall be canceled upon the presentation of satisfactory proof and certificates that said distilled spirits have been landed at the port of destination named in the bill of lading or any other port without the jurisdiction of the United States or upon satisfactory proof that after shipment the same were lost at sea without fault or neglect of the owner or shipper thereof. And whenever a distiller of spirits in bond shall desire to change the packages in which the same is contained, in order to export them, the Commissioner shall be authorized, under regulations to be prescribed by him, and upon the execution of proper bonds with sufficient sureties, to permit the withdrawal of so much spirits from bond and in new packages as the distiller shall desire to export as aforesaid.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2888 TRANSFER OF SPIRITS INTO TANK CARS FOR EXPORT—(a) Requirement. Under such regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, alcohol or other distilled spirits of a proof strength of not less than one hundred and eighty degrees intended for export free of tax may be drawn from receiving cisterns at any distillery, or from storage tanks in any internal revenue bonded warehouse, for transfer to tanks or tank cars for export from the United States, and all provisions of law relating to the exportation of distilled spirits not inconsistent herewith shall apply to spirits removed for export under the provisions of this section.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2891 WITHDRAWAL OF DISTILLED SPIRITS TO MANUFACTURING BONDED WAREHOUSE.—(a) Authorization. Under such regulations and requirements as to stamps, bonds, and other security as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner, any manufacturer of medicines, preparations, compositions, perfumeries, cosmetics, cordials, and other liquors, for export, manufacturing the same in a duly constituted manufacturing warehouse, shall be authorized to withdraw, in original packages, from any internal revenue bonded warehouse, so much distilled spirits as he may require for the said purpose, without the payment of the internal revenue tax thereon.

(c) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2900 DATE OF WITHDRAWAL—(a) General rule. All distilled spirits entered prior to July 26, 1936, for deposit in a distillery, general, or special bonded warehouse, or after such date entered for deposit in an internal revenue bonded warehouse, shall be withdrawn therefrom within eight years from the date of original entry therein, except as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Exception. Distilled spirits which on July 26, 1936, are eight years of age, or older, and which are in bonded warehouses, may remain therein after such date; but no allowance for loss by leakage or evaporation shall be made in the case of such spirits with respect to any period after such date: Provided, That loss allowances for such spirits for the period prior to July 26, 1936, shall be made pursuant to the provisions of the Act of February 6, 1925, c. 143, 43 Stat. 808.

26 U. S. C. 2901 LOSS ALLOWANCES—(a) Extent. No tax shall be collected in respect of distilled spirits lost or destroyed while in bond, except that such tax shall be collected—

(1) Theft. In the case of loss by theft unless the Commissioner shall find that the theft occurred without connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the distiller, warehouseman, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees of any of them; and

(2) Voluntary destruction. In the case of voluntary destruction unless the distilled spirits were unfit for use for beverage purposes and the distiller, warehouseman, or other person responsible for the tax, obtained the written permission of the Commissioner for such destruction in each case.

(b) Proof of loss. In any case in which spirits are lost or destroyed, whether by theft or otherwise, the Commissioner may require the distiller or warehouseman or other person responsible for the tax to file a claim for relief from the tax and submit proof as to the cause of such loss. In every case where it appears that the loss was by theft, the burden shall be upon the distiller or warehouseman or other person responsible for the tax to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such loss did not occur as the result of connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the distiller, warehouseman, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees of any of them.

(c) Refund of tax. When, in any case where the tax would not be collectible by virtue of subsection (a), but such tax has been paid, the Commissioner shall refund such tax. Nothing in section 2901 as hereby amended, or as heretofore amended, shall be construed to authorize refund of the tax where the loss occurred after the tax was paid.

(d) Insurance coverage. The abatement or refund of taxes provided for by subsections (a) and (c) in the case of loss of distilled spirits by theft shall only be allowed to the extent that the claimant is not indemnified against or recompensed for such loss.

(e) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2903 BOTTLING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS IN BOND—(a) Requirements. Whenever any distilled spirits deposited in the internal revenue bonded warehouse have been duly entered for withdrawal for bottling in bond before tax payment or for export in bond, such spirits shall be dumped, gaged, bottled, packed, and cased in the manner which the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall by regulations prescribe. The bottling of distilled spirits in bond shall be conducted in a separate portion of such warehouse which shall be set apart and used exclusively for that purpose. For convenience in such process any number of packages of spirits of the same kind, differing only in proof, but produced at the same distillery by the same distiller, may be mingled together in a cistern provided for that purpose, but nothing herein shall authorize or permit any mingling of different products, or of the same products of different distilling seasons, or the addition or subtraction of any substance or material or the application of any method or process to alter or change in any way the original condition or character of the product except as herein authorized. The tax on the distilled spirits bottled in bond shall be paid upon the actual quantity of spirits withdrawn from bond except as otherwise provided in section 2901 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Stamps for bottles. Every bottle when filled shall have affixed thereto and passing over the mouth of the same a stamp denoting the quantity of distilled spirits contained therein and evidencing the bottling in bond of such spirits under the provisions of this section and sections 2904 to 2909, inclusive, and of regulations prescribed hereunder.

(c) Stamp regulations. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe (a) regulations with respect to the time and manner of applying for, issuing, affixing, and destroying stamps required by this section, the form and denominations of such stamps, applications for purchase of the stamps, proof that applicants are entitled to such stamps, and the method of accounting for receipts from the sale of such stamps, and (b) such other regulations as the Commissioner shall deem necessary for the enforcement of this section and sections 2904 to 2909, inclusive.

(d) Stamp supply. Such stamps shall be issued by the Commissioner to each collector, upon his requisition in such numbers as may be necessary in his district, and, upon compliance with the provisions of this section and sections 2904 to 2909, inclusive, and regulations issued hereunder shall be sold by collectors to persons entitled thereto, at a price of 1 cent for each stamp, except that in the case of stamps for containers of less than one-half pint, the price shall be one-quarter of 1 cent for each stamp.

(e) Unused stamps; exchange, refund, etc. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under regulations prescribed by him and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, may redeem or make allowance for any unused case stamp, with all coupon strip stamps attached thereto, issued under section 1 of the Act entitled "An Act to allow the bottling of distilled spirits in bond", approved March 3, 1897 (29 Stat. 626), or under said section 1, as variously amended, and may redeem or make allowance for unused strip stamps issued for bottles of distilled spirits bottled in bond under said section 1, as amended by the Act of July 9, 1937 (50 Stat. 487), or under subsection (d) of this section, by exchanging them for strip stamps for bottled-in-bond spirits, or by refunding moneys received therefor: Provided, That stamps may be exchanged or the value thereof refunded only in quantities of the value of $5 or more: And provided further, That no claim under this subsection for redemption or allowance in respect of case or strip stamps shall be allowed unless presented within two years after the date on which such case or strip stamps were lawfully issued. There are hereby authorized to be appropriated annually, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary to carry out this provision.

(f) Marks, brands, and stamps for cases. And there shall be plainly burned, embossed, or printed on the side of each case, to be known as the Government side, such marks, brands, and stamps to denote the bottling in bond of the whisky packed therein as the Commissioner may by regulations prescribe.

(g) Trade-marks. And no trade-marks shall be put upon any bottle unless the real name of the actual bona fide distiller, or the name of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association in whose name the spirits were produced and warehoused, shall also be placed conspicuously on said bottle.

(h) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2904 REGULATIONS GOVERNING BOTTLING IN BOND—(a) Requirements. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may, by regulations, prescribe the mode of separating and securing the additional warehouse, or portion of the warehouse required in section 2903 to be set apart, the manner in which the business of bottling spirits in bond shall be carried on, the notices, bonds, and returns to be given and accounts and records to be kept by the persons conducting such business, the mode and time of inspection of such spirits, the accounts and records to be kept and returns made by the Government officers, and all such other matters and things, as in his discretion, he may deem requisite for a secure and orderly supervision of said business; and he may also, with the approval of the Secretary, prescribe and issue the stamps required.

The distiller may, in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger, remove by straining through cloth, felt, or other like material any charcoal, sediment, or other like substance found therein, and may whenever necessary reduce such spirits as are withdrawn for bottling purposes by the addition of pure water only to 100 per centum proof for spirits for domestic use, or to not less than 80 per centum proof for spirits for export purposes, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary; but no spirits (except gin for export) shall be bottled in bond until they have remained in bond in wooden containers for at least four years from the date of original gauge as to fruit brandy, or original entry as to all other spirits: Provided, That nothing in this subchapter shall authorize the labeling of spirits in bottles contrary to the provisions of regulations issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, 49 Stat. 977 (U. S. C., Title 27, c. 8), or any amendment thereof.

26 U. S. C. 2905 EXPORTATION OF SPIRITS BOTTLED IN BOND. All distilled spirits intended for export under the provisions of sections 2903 to 2909, inclusive, shall be inspected, bottled, cased, weighed, marked, labeled, stamped, or sealed in such manner and at such time as the Commissioner may prescribe; and the said Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may provide such regulations for the transportation, entry, reinspection, and lading of such spirits for export as may from time to time be deemed necessary; and all provisions of law relating to the exportation of distilled spirits in bond, so far as applicable, and all penalties therein imposed, are extended and made applicable to distilled spirits bottled for export under the provisions of said sections, but no drawback shall be allowed or paid upon any spirits bottled under the provisions of said sections.

26 U. S. C. 2908 REUSE OF STAMPS OR BOTTLES, TAMPERING, AND UNLAWFUL REMOVAL. Any person who shall reuse any stamp provided under sections 2903 to 2909, inclusive, after the same shall have been once affixed to a bottle as provided therein, or who shall reuse a bottle for the purpose of containing distilled spirits which has once been filled and stamped under the provisions of said sections without removing and destroying the stamp so previously affixed to such bottle, or who shall, contrary to the provisions of said sections or of the regulations issued thereunder remove or cause to be removed from any bonded warehouse any distilled spirits inspected or bottled under the provisions of said sections or who shall bottle or case any such spirits in violation of said sections or of any regulation issued thereunder, or who shall, during the transportation and before the exportation of any such spirits, open or cause to be opened any case or bottle containing such spirits, or who shall willfully remove, change, or deface any stamp, brand, label, or seal affixed to any such case or to any bottle contained therein, shall for each such offense be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and be imprisoned not more than two years, in the discretion of the court, and such spirits shall be forfeited to the United States.

26 U. S. C. 2909 PUNISHMENT FOR COUNTERFEITING STAMPS. Every person who, with intent to defraud, falsely makes, forges, alters, or counterfeits any stamp made or used under any provision of sections 2903 to 2909, inclusive, or who uses, sells, or has in his possession any such forged, altered, or counterfeited stamp, or any plate or die used or which may be used in the manufacture thereof, or who shall make, use, sell, or have in his possession any paper in imitation of the paper used in the manufacture of any stamp required by said sections, shall on conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 and by imprisonment at hard labor not exceeding five years.

26 U. S. C. 2910 BOTTLING GIN IN BOND FOR EXPORT—(a) Requirement. Distilled spirits known commercially as gin of not less than 80 per centum proof may at any time within eight years after entry in bond at any distillery be bottled in bond at such distillery for export without the payment of tax, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

26 U. S. C. 2912 FORFEITURE OF SPIRITS UNLAWFULLY REMOVED FROM DISTILLERY OR WAREHOUSE. All distilled spirits found elsewhere than in a distillery or internal revenue bonded warehouse, not having been removed therefrom according to law, shall be forfeited to the United States.

26 U. S. C. 2913 PENALTY FOR UNLAWFUL REMOVAL OR CONCEALMENT OF SPIRITS. Whenever any person removes, or aids or abets in the removal of, any distilled spirits on which the tax has not been paid, to a place other than the internal revenue bonded warehouse provided by law, or conceals or aids in the concealment of any spirits so removed, or removes, or aids or abets in the removal of, any distilled spirits from any such warehouse authorized by law, in any manner other than is provided by law, or conceals or aids in the concealment of any spirits so removed, he shall be liable to a penalty of double the tax imposed on such distilled spirits so removed or concealed, and shall be fined not less than $200 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than three years.

26 U. S. C. 2914 PENALTY ON OFFICER IN CHARGE OF WAREHOUSE FOR UNLAWFUL REMOVAL OF SPIRITS—(a) Offense. Whenever any storekeeper-gauger or other person in the employment of the United States, having charge of a bonded warehouse, removes or allows to be removed therefrom any cask or other package, or removes or allows to be removed any part of the contents of any cask or package deposited therein, otherwise than as provided by law, he shall be immediately dismissed from office or employment, and be fined not less than $500 nor more than $2,000, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than two years.

26 U. S. C. 2915 STOREKEEPER-GAUGER'S WAREHOUSE BOOK—(a) Requirements. Every storekeeper-gauger shall keep a warehouse book, which shall at all times be opened to the examination of any revenue officer, and shall enter therein an account of all articles deposited in the warehouse to which he is assigned, indicating in each case the date of deposit, by whom manufactured or produced, the number and description of the packages and contents, the quantities therein, the marks and serial numbers thereon, and by whom gauged, inspected, or weighed, and if distilled spirits, the number of proof gallons, and of taxable gallons; and before delivering any article from the warehouse he shall enter in said book the date of the permit or order of the collector for the delivery of such articles, the number and description of the packages, the marks and serial numbers thereon, the date of delivery, to whom delivered, and for what purpose, which purpose shall be specified in the permit or order for delivery; and in case of delivery of any distilled spirits the number of proof gallons, and of taxable gallons, shall also be stated; and such further particulars shall be entered in the warehouse books as may be prescribed or found necessary for the identification of the packages, to insure the correct delivery thereof and proper accountability therefor.

And every storekeeper-gauger shall furnish daily to the collector of the district a return of all articles received in and delivered from the warehouse during the day preceding that on which the return is made, and mail at the same time a copy thereof to the Commissioner, and shall, on the first Monday of every month, make a report in duplicate of the number of packages of all articles, with the respective descriptions thereof, as above provided, which remained in the warehouse at the date of his last report, of all articles received therein and delivered therefrom during the preceding month, and of articles remaining therein at the end of said month. He shall deliver one of these reports to the collector having control of the warehouse, to be recorded and filed in his office, and transmit one to the Commissioner, to be recorded and filed in his office.

(b) TRANSFER OF DUTIES. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 3031 TAX ON BRANDY OR SPIRITS USED IN FORTIFICATION—(a) Withdrawal of spirits for fortification. Under such regulations and official supervision and upon the giving of such notices and entries as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, any producer of wines defined under the provisions of this subchapter may withdraw from any fruit distillery or internal revenue bonded warehouse grape brandy (hereafter in this section included in the term "brandy"), or wine spirits, for the fortification of such wines on the premises where actually made, and any producer of citrus-fruit wines, peach wines, cherry wines, berry wines, apricot wines, prune wines, plum wines, pear wines, pawpaw wines, papaya wines, pinepple wines, cantaloup wines, or apple wines (hereafter in this section included in the term "wines") may similarly withdraw citrus-fruit brandy, peach brandy, cherry brandy, berry brandy, apricot brandy, prune brandy, plum brandy, pear brandy, pawpaw brandy, papaya brandy, pineapple brandy, cantaloup brandy, or apple brandy (hereafter in this section included in the term "brandy") for the fortification of wines as set forth in section 3032, Internal Revenue Code, on the premises where actually made.

26 U. S. C. 3033 WITHDRAWAL OF WINE SPIRITS—(a) Regulations. Under such regulations and official supervision, and upon the execution of such entries and the giving of such bonds, bills of lading, and other security as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe, any producer of pure sweet wines as defined by section 3036 (a) may withdraw wine spirits from any internal revenue bonded warehouse in original packages * * *.

sioner and any of his assistants, agents, or employees, and upon any other officer, employee, or agent of the Treasury Department, any of the rights, privileges, powers, duties, and protection conferred or imposed upon the Secretary, or any officer or employee of the Treasury Department, by any law now or hereafter in force relating to the taxation, exportation, transportation, manufacture, possession, or use of, or traffic in, distilled spirits, wine, fermented liquors, or denatured alcohol.

26 U. S. C. 3171 RECORDS, STATEMENTS, AND RETURNS—(a) Requirements. Every person liable to any tax imposed by this chapter, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations, as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may from time to time prescribe.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 3172 DISCRETIONARY METHOD FOR COLLECTING TAX—(a) Power of Commissioner. Whether or not the method of collecting any tax imposed by this chapter is specifically provided herein, any such tax may, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, be collected by stamp, coupon, serial-numbered ticket, or such other reasonable device or method as may be necessary or helpful in securing a complete and prompt collection of the tax. All administrative and penalty provisions of subchapters A, B, and C of chapter 11, in so far as applicable, shall apply to the collection of any tax which the Commissioner determines or prescribes shall be collected in such manner.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 3173 PENALTIES AND FORFEITURES—(a) Removal or transportation of liquors or wines under improper brands. Whenever any person ships, transports, or removes any spiritous or fermented liquors or wines, under any other than the proper name or brand known to the trade as designating the kind and quality of the contents of the casks or packages containing the same, or causes such act to be done, he shall forfeit said liquors or wines, and casks or packages, and be subject to pay a fine of $500.

(b) Other violations. (1) Any person required to pay, or to collect, account for and pay over any tax on distilled spirits, wines, or fermented malt liquors, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return or supply any information for the purposes of the computation, assessment or collection of any such tax, who fails to pay, collect, or truly account for and pay over any such tax, make any such return or supply any such information at the time or times required by law or regulation shall in addition to other penalties provided by law be subject to a penalty of not more than $1,000.

(2) Any person who willfully refuses to pay, collect, or truly account for and pay over any such tax, make such return or supply such information at the time or times required by law or regulation, or who willfully attempts in any manner to evade such tax shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and in addition to other penalties provided by law shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(3) Any person who willfully refuses to pay, collect, or truly account for any pay over any such tax shall in addition to other penalties provided by law be liable to a penalty of the amount of the tax evaded, or not paid, collected, or accounted for and paid over, to be assessed and collected in the same manner as taxes are assessed and collected: Provided, however, That no penalty shall be assessed under this paragraph for any offense for which a penalty may be assessed under authority of section 3612, or of section 2801 (f) or 3043, or for any offense for which a penalty has been recovered under section 2806 (e).

(4) The term "person" as used in this subsection includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

26 U. S. C. 3175 OTHER LAWS APPLICABLE. All administrative, special, or stamp provisions of law, including the law relating to the assessment of taxes, so far as applicable, shall be extended to and made a part of this chapter.

26 U. S. C. 3176 RULES AND REGULATIONS—(a) Power of Commissioner. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this chapter.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 3250 TAX—(a) Wholesale dealers in liquors—(1) In general. Wholesale dealers in liquors shall pay a special tax of $110.

(4) Distillers selling at wholesale. No distiller who has given the required bond and who sells only distilled spirits of his own production at the place of manufacture, or at the place of storage in bond, in the original packages to which the tax-paid stamps are affixed, shall be required to pay the special tax of a wholesale dealer in liquors on account of such sales.

26 U. S. C. 3254 DEFINITIONS. * * *

(b) Wholesale dealer in liquors. Except as otherwise provided, every person who sells, or offers for sale, foreign or domestic distilled spirits, wines, or malt liquors in quantities of five wine-gallons or more to the same person at the same time, shall be regarded as a wholesale dealer in liquors: Provided, That the Commissioner may, by regulations, with the approval of the Secretary, provide for the issuance of a stamp denoting payment of such special tax as a "wholesale dealer in wines" or a "wholesale dealer in wines and malt liquors" if, as the case may be, wines only, or wines and malt liquors only, are sold by a wholesale dealer in liquors.

26 U. S. C. 3300 ESTABLISHMENT AND ALTERATION—(a) Authorization. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish and, from time to time, alter or change the form, style, character, material, and device of any stamp, mark, or label used under any provision of the laws relating to internal revenue.

(b) Application of penalty and forfeiture provisions. All pains, penalties, fines, and forfeitures provided by law relating to internal revenue stamps shall apply to and have full force and effect in relation to any and all stamps so established by the Commissioner.

26 U. S. C. 3351 SHIPMENTS FROM THE UNITED STATES—(c) Tax imposed in Virgin Islands. There shall be levied, collected, and paid in the Virgin Islands upon articles imported from the United States, a tax equal to the internal revenue tax imposed in such islands upon like articles there manufactured.

(b) Exemption from tax imposed in the United States. Such articles going into such islands from the United States shall be exempt from payment of any tax imposed by the internal revenue laws of the United States.

26 U. S. C. 3361 SHIPMENTS FROM THE UNITED STATES—(a) Tax imposed in Puerto Rico. All articles of merchandise of United States manufacture coming into Puerto Rico shall be entered at the port of entry upon payment of a tax equal in rate and amount to the internal revenue tax imposed in Puerto Rico upon the like articles of Puerto Rican manufacture.

(b) Exemption from tax imposed in the United States. Articles, goods, wares, or merchandise going into Puerto Rico, Guam, and American Samoa from the United States shall be exempted from the payment of any tax imposed by the internal revenue laws of the United States.

26 U. S. C. 3601 ENTRY OF PREMISES FOR EXAMINATION OF TAXABLE OBJECTS—(a) Authority—(1) Entry during day. Any collector, deputy collector, internal revenue agent, or inspector may enter, in the daytime, any building or place where any articles or objects subject to tax are made, produced, or kept, within his district, so far as it may be necessary for the purpose of examining said articles or objects.

(2) Entry at night. When such premises are open at night, such officers may enter them while so open, in the performance of their official duties.

(b) Penalty for refusal to permit entry or examination. Any owner of such building or place, or person having the agency or superintendence of the same, who refuses to admit such officer, or to suffer him to examine such article or articles, shall for every such refusal, forfeit $500.

(c) Other penalties. If any person shall—

(1) Forcible obstruction or hindrance to officers. Forcibly obstruct or hinder any collector, deputy collector, internal revenue agent, or inspector, in the execution of any power and authority vested in him by law, or

(2) Forcible rescue of seized property. Forcibly rescue or cause to be rescued any property, articles, or objects after the same shall have been seized by him, or shall attempt or endeavor so to do, the person so offending, excepting in cases otherwise provided for, shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of $500, or double the value of the property so rescued, or be imprisoned for a term not exceeding two years, at the discretion of the court.

26 U. S. C. 3640 ASSESSMENT AUTHORITY. The Commissioner is authorized and required to make the inquiries, determinations, and assessments of all taxes and penalties imposed by this title, or accruing under any former internal revenue law, where such taxes have not been duly paid by stamp at the time and in the manner provided by law.

26 U. S. C. 3809 VERIFICATION OF RETURNS; PENALTIES OF PERJURY—(a) Penalties. Any person who willfully makes and subscribes any return, statement, or other document, which contains or is verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, and which he does not believe to be true and correct as to every material matter, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

(b) Signature presumed correct. The fact that an individual's name is signed to a return, statement, or other document filed shall be prima facie evidence for all purposes that the return, statement, or other document was actually signed by him.

(c) Verification in lieu of oath. The Commissioner, under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary, may require that any return, statement, or other document required to be filed under any provision of the internal revenue laws shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, and such declaration shall be in lieu of any oath otherwise required.

26 U. S. C. 4041 ISSUE OF INSTRUCTIONS, REGULATIONS, AND FORMS—(a) In general. The Secretary shall prescribe forms of entries, oaths, bonds, and other papers, and rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, to be used under and in the execution and enforcement of the various provisions of the internal revenue laws; and he shall give such directions to collectors and prescribe such rules and forms to be observed by them as may be necessary for the proper execution of the law.

(b) Receipt of United States securities. For authority of the Secretary to issue instructions and regulations governing the receipt by collectors and others of United States securities, see R. S. 251 (U. S. C., title 31, sec. 427).

19 U. S. C. 1309; 46 Stat. 690 as amended. SUPPLIES FOR CERTAIN VESSELS AND AIRCRAFT (WITHDRAWAL FREE OF TAX) (Sec. 309 (a), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended). Exemption from customs duties and internal-revenue tax. Articles of foreign or domestic manufacture or production may, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, be withdrawn from bonded warehouses, bonded manufacturing warehouses, or continuous customs custody elsewhere than in a bonded warehouse free of duty or internal-revenue tax, or from any internal revenue bonded warehouse, from any brewery, or from any winery premises or bonded premises for the storage of wine, free of internal revenue tax for supplies (not including equipment) of vessels of war, in ports of the United States, of any nation which may reciprocate such privilege toward the vessels of war of the United States in its ports, or for supplies (not including equipment) of vessels employed in the fisheries or in the whaling business, or actually engaged in foreign trade or trade between the Atlantic and Pacific ports of the United States or between the United States and any of its possessions, or for supplies (not including equipment) of aircraft registered in the United States and actually engaged in foreign trade or trade between the United States and any of its possessions, or for supplies (including equipment), maintenance, or repair of aircraft registered in any foreign country and actually engaged in foreign trade or trade between the United States and any of its possessions, where such trade by foreign aircraft is permitted. (As amended by Sec. 3, Act of July 22, 1941 (Public Law 187, 77th Congress).)

(d) Reciprocal privileges. The privileges granted by this section and section 1317 of this title in respect of aircraft registered in a foreign country shall be allowed only if the Secretary of the Treasury shall have been advised by the Secretary of Commerce that he has found that such foreign country allows, or will allow, substantially reciprocal privileges in respect of aircraft registered in the United States. If the Secretary of Commerce shall advise the Secretary of the Treasury that he has found that a foreign country has discontinued, or will discontinue, the allowance of such privileges, the privileges granted by this section and such section 1317 shall not apply thereafter in respect of aircraft registered in that foreign country.

19 U. S. C. 1311; 46 Stat. 691 as amended BONDED MANUFACTURING WAREHOUSES (WITHDRAWAL FREE OF TAX) (Sec. 311, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. All articles manufactured in whole or in part of imported materials, or of materials subject to internal-revenue tax, and intended for exportation without being charged with duty, and without having an internal-revenue stamp affixed thereto, shall, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, in order to be so manufactured and exported, be made and manufactured in bonded warehouses similar to those known and designated in Treasury Regulations as bonded warehouses, class six: Provided, That the manufacturer of such articles shall first give satisfactory bonds for the faithful observance of all the provisions of law and of such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided further, That the manufacture of distilled spirits from grain, starch, molasses, or sugar, including all dilutions or mixture of them or either of them, shall not be permitted in such manufacturing warehouses.

Any materials used in the manufacture of such goods, and any packages, coverings, vessels, brands, and labels used in putting up the same may, under the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, be conveyed without the payment of revenue tax or duty into any bonded manufacturing warehouse, and imported goods may, under the aforesaid regulations, be transferred without the exaction of duty from any bonded warehouse into any bonded manufacturing warehouse; but this privilege shall not be held to apply to implements, machinery, or apparatus to be used in the construction or repair of any bonded manufacturing warehouse or for the prosecution of the business carried on therein.

* * * * *

Distilled spirits and wines which are rectified in bonded manufacturing warehouses, class six, and distilled spirits which are reduced in proof and bottled in such warehouses, shall be deemed to have been manufactured within the meaning of this section, and may be withdrawn as hereinbefore provided, and likewise for shipment in bond to Puerto Rico, subject to the provisions of this section, and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, there to be withdrawn for consumption or be rewarehoused and subsequently withdrawn for consumption: Provided, That upon withdrawal in Puerto Rico for consumption, the duties imposed by the customs laws of the United States shall be collected on all imported merchandise (in its condition as imported) and imported containers used in the manufacture and putting up of such spirits and wines in such warehouses: Provided further, That no internal-revenue tax shall be imposed on distilled spirits and wines rectified in class six warehouses if such distilled spirits and wines are exported or shipped in accordance with the provisions of this section, and that no person rectifying distilled spirits or wines in such warehouses shall be subject by reason of such rectification to the payment of special tax as a rectifier.

SUBPART A—SCOPE OF REGULATIONS

§ 185.1 Warehousing and withdrawal of spirits. These regulations, "Regulations 10, Warehousing of Distilled Spirits" (26 CFR Part 185), contain the procedural and substantive requirements relative to the warehousing of distilled spirits (other than alcohol), and the bottling in bond, tax payment and withdrawal thereof from internal revenue bonded warehouses. The regulations cover the location, construction, equipment, qualifying documents; requirements governing changes in name, proprietorship, premises and equipment, and in the title to the warehouse property; action by the district supervisor and Commissioner; control, custody, and supervision of the warehouse; deposit of spirits in warehouse; losses of spirits in warehouse or in transit thereto; withdrawal of distilled spirits from warehouse for taxpaid or tax-free purposes; bottling of spirits in bond; alternate operations of bottling-in-bond department as taxpaid bottling house; transfers in bond between internal revenue bonded warehouses; exportation and shipment of distilled spirits; and records and reports of distilled spirits deposited, stored, bottled in bond, and withdrawn from internal revenue bonded warehouses.

§ 185.14 Distilled spirits. "Distilled spirits" shall mean that substance produced by the distillation of fermented grain, molasses, fruit, or other materials, commonly known as spirits, whisky, brandy, rum, gin, etc., but shall not include alcohol.

§ 185.15 Distiller. "Distiller" shall mean the proprietor of a registered distillery or fruit distillery.

§ 185.16 Distilling season and bottling season. "Distilling season" and "bottling season" shall mean and be designated as spring or fall, and the spring season shall include the months from January to June, inclusive, and the fall season the months from July to December, inclusive.

§ 185.21 Gallon. "Gallon" or "wine gallon" shall mean a United States gallon of liquid measure equivalent to the volume of 231 cubic inches.

§ 185.22 In bond. "In bond," as applied to distilled spirits shall mean untaxpaid distilled spirits possessed under bond on the premises of an internal revenue bonded warehouse, or in transit to such premises from another internal revenue bonded warehouse or from a registered distillery or fruit distillery, or while in transit in other circumstances prior to delivery of the spirits to an authorized consignee.

§ 185.24 Inclusive language. Words in the plural shall include the singular, and vice versa, and words in the masculine gender shall include females, associations, copartnerships, and corporations.

§ 185.25 Internal revenue bonded warehouse. "Internal revenue bonded warehouse" shall mean a bonded warehouse established or operated under the provisions of this part for the storage of distilled spirits (other than alcohol) on which the tax has not been paid.

§ 185.28 Person, proprietor, or warehouseman. "Person," "proprietor" or "warehouseman" shall include natural persons, associations, copartnerships, and corporations.

§ 185.30 Proof gallon. "Proof gallon" shall mean the alcoholic equivalent of a United States gallon at 60 degrees Fahrenheit, containng 50 per cent of ethyl alcohol by volume.

§ 185.31 Proof spirits. "Proof spirits" shall mean that alcoholic liquor which contains 50 per cent of ethyl alcohol by volume at 60 degrees Fahrenheit and which has a specific gravity of 0.93418 in air at 60 degrees Fahrenheit referred to water at 60 degrees Fahrenheit as unity.

§ 185.37 Tank truck. "Tank truck" shall mean a tank truck conforming to the requirements of this part.

§ 185.38 Tax gallon. "Tax gallon" is the unit of distilled spirits upon which the rate of tax prescribed by law is imposed. When spirits are 100 degrees or more of proof, the tax rate is imposed on the proof gallon. When spirits are less than 100 degrees of proof, it is imposed on the wine gallon.

§ 185.39 U. S. C. "U. S. C." shall mean the United States Code.

Subpart C—Location and Construction

§ 185.50 Location restrictions. Internal revenue bonded warehouses may not be located in any dwelling house, and if under the same roof or in the same building in which is located a rectifying plant or taxpaid bottling house, the two premises must not have means of communication with each other within the building: Provided, That where an internal revenue bonded warehouse has heretofore been established in the same building with a rectifying plant or a taxpaid bottling house with interior communication between the two premises, it may continue to operate in such location if the revenue will not be jeopardized thereby: Provided further, That when the bottling-in-bond department is operated temporarily as a taxpaid bottling house, communication between the two premises within the building may continue. Internal revenue bonded warehouses other than those situated upon or contiguous to the premises of a distillery shall be located in important cities or at important shipping points or other places where need for the establishment of the warehouse is clearly shown, as provided in § 185.155. The location must be such that adequate transportation facilities will be available.

§ 185.51 Warehouse buildings. The buildings or rooms constituting an internal revenue bonded warehouse must be securely constructed of brick, stone, wood, concrete, or other substantial material, and must be completely separated from contiguous buildings or rooms by solid, unbroken walls or partitions of substantial construction: Provided, That necessary openings may be permitted in such walls or partitions for the passage of approved pipe lines and conduits, as provided in § 185.71, and where a bottling-in-bond department is provided and adjoins the storage portion of the warehouse not more than two doors may be permitted in the wall or partition separating such bottling department from the storage portion of the warehouse, subject to the provisions of § 185.72, or where the warehouse is located on the premises of a fruit distillery and is contiguous to the distilling building or room and operated by the proprietor of the distillery, a door may be permitted in the wall or partition separating the warehouse from such building or room, as provided in the regulations governing the production of brandy (26 CFR Part 184). No door, window, or similar opening shall be made or permitted in the walls of a bonded warehouse leading into a distillery or into any other room or building, except as provided in this section. Where warehouse buildings are located on the premises of a registered distillery, the walls or partitions separating such warehouse buildings from contiguous buildings not located on the distillery premises must extend from the ground to the roof in a direct vertical line. The foundations, floors, walls, and roofs, and the doors, windows, and other openings of warehouse buildings shall be constructed and such doors, windows, and other openings shall be protected and secured as hereinafter provided. The design and construction of the warehouse must be such as to insure economical supervision by Government officers.

§ 185.52 Capacity of warehouse. Internal revenue bonded warehouses, other than those situated on or contiguous to distillery premises and operated by the distiller (not including lessee distillers), must have a capacity commensurate with the prospective needs of the area or locality in which they are situated and sufficient for not less than 5,000 barrels, including any equivalent thereof in tank or case storage capacity, or any combination of barrel, tank or case storage facilities. Where the distiller has a warehouse on or contiguous to the distillery premises, and desires to establish a second warehouse, the capacity of such second warehouse must likewise be not less than 5,000 barrels or the equivalent thereof in tank or case storage capacity, except that where the second warehouse is to be established on premises contiguous to, or near, the first warehouse and the necessity for the establishment thereof is due to lack of storage space in the first warehouse and it is impracticable to expand the same, such minimum storage requirements shall not be applicable: Provided, That where a second warehouse is to be established by a distiller on premises which are neither contiguous to nor near the first warehouse and it is impracticable to have a warehouse of 5,000 barrels or more capacity in the locality, and the necessity for the establishment thereof is shown, the Commissioner may authorize the establishment of such warehouse.

§ 185.53 Means of ingress and egress. The doors of an internal revenue bonded warehouse must lead into a public street or into the yard connected with the warehouse, or into the distillery yard if the warehouse is located on or contiguous to a distillery premises: Provided, That where the warehouse consists of a room or floor of a building, the door thereof may open into an elevator shaft or common passageway partitioned off from other businesses and leading either directly or through another elevator shaft or similar passageway to the street or yard: Provided further, That where the warehouse is located on the premises of a fruit distillery and is contiguous to the distilling building or room and is operated by the proprietor of the distillery, a door may be permitted in the wall separating the warehouse from the distillery, as provided in Regulations 5 (26 CFR Part 184). Where the door of the warehouse opens into a common passageway, as provided in this section, the partitions forming the common passageway shall be substantially constructed of solid materials or expanded metal or woven wire of not less than 9 gauge nor more than 2-inch mesh, and shall extend from the floor to the ceiling or roof, but doors may be provided therein if they do not permit interior communication with a rectifying plant or taxpaid bottling house in the same building. Common passageways must be used exclusively as means of communication.

§ 185.54 Foundations. The foundations of warehouse buildings must be constructed of stone, brick, or concrete or other equally substantial material, extending into the ground. These provisions respecting the foundations shall not, however, be applicable where the warehouse consists of a room or rooms situated above the first floor of the building.

§ 185.55 Floors. The warehouse buildings must have suitable ground floors constructed of wood, concrete, brick, or other equally substantial material. If the warehouse consists of a room or floor situated above the ground or first floor of the building, the first warehouse floor must be so constructed.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.56 Walls. The walls of warehouse buildings or rooms must be securely and substantially constructed. If wood, corrugated iron, or tin is used, the same must be applied over solid sheathing for the first 12 feet of height. Where substantial sheet metal is used, and the sheets are welded together in such a manner as to constitute a solid wall, sheathing, if used, may be applied in any manner desired.

§ 185.57 Roofs. The roofs of warehouse buildings must be securely and substantially constructed. Where corrugated iron or tin is used, the same must be applied over sheathing spaced not greater than 12 inches from board to board. Where substantial sheet metal is used, and the sheets are welded together in such manner as to constitute a solid roof, sheathing, if used, may be applied in any manner desired.

§ 185.58 Doors. The warehouse must have no more doors than are necessary for the proper and convenient conduct of the business. The outside doors and any inside doors on which Government locks are required must be securely constructed of heavy timber or iron or other equally substantial material. The hinges of the doors must be secured by roundheaded or carriage bolts, nutted and riveted or battered on the inside. Hinges that cannot be thus secured must be inaccessible from the outside and so attached that they cannot be removed when the door is closed. The outside doors, and inside doors on which Government locks are required, must be equipped with hasp and staple securely fastened on the inside so that they may be secured with Government locks. The entrance door must be secured on the outside with a Government seal lock. The entrance door to the bottling-in-bond department must also be secured on the outside with a Government seal lock. All other doors required to be locked must be secured on the inside with a Government lock and a cross bar in the middle of the door. Where there are double doors, one of them at least must be provided with substantial bolts at both the top and the bottom. These bolts must be so arranged as to plunge into substantial fastenings or holes in the middle of the upper and lower ends of the frame when the door is closed. Folding doors of wood or metal, vertical or horizontal sliding doors of wood or metal, and metal doors of the roller blind type, must be provided with substantial cross bars, or bolts that plunge into the upper and lower ends or the sides of the door frame, so placed as to make the door rigid and secure, unless the doors operate in grooves or tracks that make them secure.

§ 185.59 Windows. The windows of the buildings or rooms constituting the warehouse must be constructed and secured as outlined in §§ 185.60 to 185.67.

§ 185.60 Windows within 12 feet of ground, etc. All windows located within 12 feet of the ground, or within 12 feet (a) above a fire escape (except as provided in § 185.61), (b) above a roof, set back, or balcony within 12 feet of the ground, (c) above a roof or balcony of an adjoining building, or (d) of a roof, window, or other opening of an opposite building, must conform to the following requirements:

(1) Wood sash. Windows consisting of plain or wire glass panes set in wood sash must be protected by iron bars and solid shutters;

(2) Steel sash. Windows consisting of wire glass panes not larger than 6 by 10 inches, set in metal sash must be protected by iron bars;

(3) Detention type. Windows may be of the detention type, consisting of solid steel frame, sash, and grille (over the ventilating portion), combined in one unit and erected in one piece, equipped with wire glass panes not larger than 6 by 10 inches.

§ 185.61 Opening onto fire escape. Windows opening onto a fire escape shall be protected by solid metal shutters, securely hinged and equipped with facilities for locking on the inside with a Government lock. Iron bars will not be required on such windows.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.62 Extension of requirements. The Commissioner or district supervisor may require any other windows to be protected by iron bars or shutters, or both, when deemed necessary to safeguard the spirits.

§ 185.63 Windows more than 12 feet from ground. All windows more than 12 feet from the ground and not subject to the provisions of §§ 185.60 and 185.61 must be securely constructed and so arranged and equipped that they may be securely fastened on the inside.

§ 185.64 Set in casement. All windows must be securely set into the window casement in such a manner as to prevent removal.

§ 185.65 Sash locks. All window sashes must be provided with sash locks or other suitable fasteners.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.66 Shutters. The shutters must be solid and substantially constructed of metal or wood, and must be fastened inside of the room or building and so secured that they cannot be opened from the outside.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.67 Iron bars. The iron bars must be not less than three-fourths of an inch in diameter, placed perpendicularly in the windows or walls, not more than 5 inches apart from center to center, and reinforced by iron cross bars not more than 36 inches apart. All bars and cross bars must be securely fastened to the window frames or embedded in the walls in such a manner as to prevent their removal and to afford proper security.

§ 185.68 Skylights, monitors, penthouses, etc. Skylights, monitors, penthouses, and similar openings will be regarded as windows and treated as such, except that shutters will not be required.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.69 Ventilators. Small openings in outside walls of warehouse buildings and in the ground floors and the roofs thereof for ventilation or heating purposes will be permitted, provided they are protected by substantial metal gratings not lighter than No. 6 gauge and having openings not larger than one-half inch, securely attached to or embedded in the floor, wall, or roof. Where such openings are larger than 6 by 6 inches they shall be further protected by iron bars. Such openings will not be permitted in the walls or floors which separate the storage portion of the warehouse from contiguous rooms or buildings.

§ 185.70 Drains. Openings in floors (except floors separating the warehouse from other premises) will be permitted for drainage or sewage, provided they are permanently connected to the sewer system and protected in the same manner as ventilators.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.71 Other openings. Necessary openings may be permitted in the walls, partitions, ceilings, or floors of warehouse buildings or rooms for the passage of approved steam, water, electric, sewer, or similar lines and spirits lines.

§ 185.72 Bottling-in-bond department. Where the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse desires to bottle distilled spirits in bond he must set apart a portion of the warehouse for such purpose. Such portion of the warehouse shall be known as the bottling-in-bond department and shall be used exclusively for the purpose of bottling distilled spirits (other than alcohol) in bond for domestic use or for exportation in accordance with this part. The building or room comprising the department must be so constructed and equipped as to be suitable for the bottling of distilled spirits in bond and to insure efficient and economical supervision by Government officers. No door, window, or other opening into another room or building will be permitted: Provided, That necessary openings may be permitted in the walls, floors, ceiling, or partitions separating the bottling-in-bond department from the storage portion of the warehouse for the passage of approved steam, water, electric, sewer, or similar lines and for the passage of approved pipe lines for the conveyance of spirits from gauging tanks located in the warehouse: And provided further, That not more than two doors may be permitted in the wall or partition separating the bottling-in-bond department from the storage portion of the warehouse, to be used exclusively for the purpose of transferring spirits to the bottling-in-bond department and return of the bottled product for storage. Communicating doors must be equipped for locking with Government locks on the storage side of the warehouse and must be kept locked except while actually being used for the transfer of spirits. If the bottling-in-bond department is temporarily eliminated from the premises, the communicating doors will be closed and kept locked on the storage side of the warehouse. If the bottling-in-bond department is permanently eliminated from the premises in order that it may be operated as a tax-paid bottling house, or for any other purpose, the doors in the wall separating such rooms or building from the warehouse must be eliminated and the openings permanently boarded or bricked up in such manner as to provide a solid unbroken wall.

§ 185.73 Bottling-in-bond department having more than one bottling room. Two or more contiguous bottling rooms with separate bottling equipment for each room may be provided, and each such bottling room may, in accordance with the limitations set out in § 185.904, be operated simultaneously with, and independent of, the other bottling rooms. A bottling-in-bond department having more than one bottling room, as herein provided, will be regarded as a single bottling-in-bond department. A "bottling room" shall consist of a complete set of bottling equipment separated from another such set by a partition constructed of expanded metal or woven wire of not less than 9 gauge nor more than 2-inch mesh, and which shall extend from the floor to the ceiling or roof or to a height of not less than 12 feet. A door or other necessary opening will be permitted in such partitions at such point as will permit adequate supervision of the spirits being bottled in the different rooms. Such rooms shall be designated alphabetically, such as "Bottling Room A," "Bottling Room B," etc.

§ 185.74 Quick-aging room. Where spirits are to be quick-aged in an internal revenue bonded warehouse by the introduction of a steam pipe or other heating device into the package, a separate room or building to be used exclusively for such purpose should be provided, with separate means of ingress and egress conforming to § 185.53. If a separate building is provided, the construction thereof must conform to the requirements of §§ 185.51 to 185.71. Where spirits are to be quick-aged by the general application of heat within the warehouse, the proprietor must provide a suitable, separate room which shall not be exposed or subjected to excessive heat for the use of Government officers in performing their duties in connection with the receipt and withdrawal of spirits. A sign must be placed over the entrance door of the quick-aging room bearing the words "Quick-Aging Room."

§ 185.75 Gauging room. A separate building, room, or section of the warehouse must be provided for gauging spirits, the construction of which must conform to the requirements of §§ 185.51–185.71. Each gauging room must be of sufficient dimensions to permit the work of gauging and related operations to be accomplished efficiently and expeditiously, and shall be provided with necessary office facilities for use of the Government officer in preparing gauge reports; scales for weighing individual packages; and facilities for marking, branding and stamping individual packages. Gauging rooms must be well heated, ventilated, and equipped with permanently installed lighting facilities, properly spaced throughout the room or building, and of sufficient intensity for the efficient performance of gauging duties and supervision of all activities in the gauging room without the aid of auxiliary or outside lights. A sign must be placed over the entrance door of the room or building bearing the words "Gauging Room." Where gauging tanks are provided the construction and installation thereof must conform to the requirements of § 185.112, and the number and capacity of such tanks shall be commensurate with the type and volume of operations conducted.

§ 185.76 Brandy-blending department—(a) Construction. Where brandies are to be mixed or blended in an internal revenue bonded warehouse, under the provisions of section 2801 (e) (5), I. R. C., for the sole purpose of perfecting such brandies according to commercial standards, a separate room or building, constituting a part of the internal revenue bonded warehouse, must be provided for that purpose. Such room or building shall be known as the brandy-blending department and must be constructed in accordance with the provisions of §§ 185.51 to 185.71. The brandy-blending department must be completely separated from contiguous rooms or buildings by solid unbroken partitions and floors of substantial construction. Such partitions shall extend from the ground to the roof or from the floor to the ceiling, if a room is used, and if the brandy-blending department is under the same roof, or in the same building in which is located a rectifying plant, or taxpaid bottling house, the two premises must not have any means of communication with each other within the building. No door, window, or other opening into another room or building of the warehouse will be permitted: Provided, That not more than two doors may be permitted in the wall or partition separating the brandy-blending department from the storage portion of the warehouse to be used exclusively for the purpose of transferring brandy between the brandy-blending department and the storage portion of the warehouse. The communicating doors must be equipped for locking with Government locks on the storage side of the warehouse and must be kept locked except while brandy is being transferred between the brandy-blending department and the storage portion of the warehouse.

(b) Equipment. The brandy-blending department must be equipped with a requisite number of suitable tanks in which to blend brandies, scales for weighing packages, facilities for dumping packages, facilities for filling, marking and branding packages, and a desk and cabinet for use of the Government officer. The room or building must be well lighted, heated, and of sufficient dimensions to permit the work of dumping, filling, gauging, marking, and branding packages efficiently and expeditiously.

(c) Lighting facilities. Lighting facilities must be permanently installed and spaced throughout the room or building to permit supervision of the entire premises and must be of sufficient power to permit efficient performance of gauging duties without the aid of auxiliary lights or outside light.

(d) Sign. A sign, bearing the words "Brandy-Blending Department," shall be placed over the entrance door of the room or building.

(e) Other uses of department. Where brandy-blending operations have been discontinued and all brandies have been removed from the brandy-blending department the locks on the doors connecting the brandy-blending department with the storage portion of the warehouse may be removed and the brandy-blending department used for any other authorized warehouse purpose as provided in § 185.459.

§ 185.77 Other rooms. Where a bottling-in-bond department is established, separate rooms may be provided therein for the dumping, reducing, and bottling of distilled spirits. Such rooms shall be appropriately designated, such as "Dumping Room," "Reducing Room," "Bottling Room," etc.

§ 185.78 Empty package storeroom. If empty packages (barrels) are to be stored on the warehouse premises, a separate room or building must be provided for such purpose. If a separate room is provided within the warehouse and such room has interior doors communicating with the storage portion of the warehouse, such doors must be equipped for locking with Government locks on the warehouse side and be kept locked at all times except when in actual use and the construction of the walls must meet requirements of § 185.56. If the room has an outside entrance door, such door must be equipped for locking with a Government lock. The room or building provided for the storage of empty packages may be used for general cooperage purposes. A sign bearing the words "Empty Package Storeroom" must be placed over the entrance door of the empty package storeroom.

§ 185.79 Empty container storeroom. If empty cases, bottles, and other bottling supplies are kept or stored on the warehouse premises, a separate room or building may be provided for such purpose. Such room or building shall not have any means of interior communication with any other room or building comprising the storage portion of the bonded warehouse. If a separate room or building is not provided for the storage of such supplies, they must be stored in the bottling-in-bond department and kept completely segregated and so stored as not to interfere with proper supervision of the bottling-in-bond department.

§ 185.80 Government office. The proprietor shall provide and maintain on the warehouse premises for the exclusive use of Government officers, a securely constructed, well-lighted, heated, and ventilated office of suitable dimensions: Provided, That where the proprietor operates a distillery on the same or contiguous premises or a bonded winery on contiguous premises, and a Government office conforming to the requirements specified herein is provided on the distillery or winery premises, and such office is so located as to be suitable for the use of Government officers assigned to the warehouse, a separate Government office need not be provided on the warehouse premises. The Government office shall be equipped with toilet and lavatory facilities, unless such facilities, suitably located, are provided elsewhere on the premises, and with desks, chairs, file cases, and such other furniture as may be necessary for the keeping of Government records and the preparation of reports. The door of the Government office shall be equipped with a cylinder type lock and a sufficient number of keys therefor shall be furnished the district supervisor for the use of Government officers. Where deemed necessary to afford adequate security to Government property, the district supervisor may require the windows of the Government office to be protected by shutters or iron bars and the door to be so equipped that it may be securely fastened with a Government lock. A sign must be placed over the entrance door bearing the words "Government Office." Unless the Government office is located immediately adjacent to the bottling-in-bond department, the proprietor must provide either a separate office or desks, chairs, file cases, and such other furniture as may be necessary for the keeping of Government records and the preparation of reports in a suitable and well-lighted space in the bottling-in-bond department. If the bottling-in-bond department is not properly heated during inclement weather, such office facilities must be located in a well-lighted, heated, and ventilated room. Such facilities shall be subject to approval by the district supervisor.

§ 185.81 Government room, vault or cabinet. There shall be provided in the Government office a metal cabinet of adequate strength and size, or a securely constructed room or vault suitably equipped for locking with a Government seal lock, for use in safeguarding the keys to Government locks, seals, and other Government property and stamps in the custody of Government officers. Each such room, vault or cabinet shall be subject to approval by the district supervisor. Unless the Government office is located immediately adjacent to the bottling-in-bond department, similar facilities must also be provided in such department.

§ 185.82 Off-premises export storage room. If the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse located at a port of exportation intends to store, pending release for direct exportation or use as supplies on vessels or aircraft, taxpaid distilled spirits or wines bottled or packaged especially for export with benefit of drawback under the provisions of Regulations 11 (26 CFR Part 189), Regulations 15 (26 CFR Part 190) and Regulations 28 (26 CFR Part 176), a separate room for the storage of such products exclusively must be provided off the bonded premises. The room must be contiguous to the bonded premises and be constructed of substantial, solid materials. All windows, doors or other openings must be so constructed that they may be securely locked or fastened from the inside, except the entrance door which must be so constructed that it may be securely locked from the outside of the room with a Government seal lock. A sign must be placed over the entrance door of the room bearing the words "Off-Premises Export Storage Room." The deposit of distilled spirits and wines in such room, and the withdrawal thereof, shall be effected in accordance with provisions of Regulations 28 (26 CFR Part 176).

Subpart D—Sign

§ 185.100 Posting of sign. The proprietor shall place and keep conspicuously on the outside and at the front of the warehouse where it can be plainly seen, a sign exhibiting in plain and legible letters painted in oil colors or gilded, not less than 3 inches in height, and of a proper and proportionate width, the name of the proprietor and the words "Internal Revenue Bonded Warehouse," followed by the registry number of the warehouse. If the warehouse consists of two or more buildings the required sign will be placed over the entrance of each building, and there shall also be shown on such sign the alphabetical designation of the building. If a bottling-in-bond department is maintained, the proprietor shall also place and keep conspicuously on the outside and at the front of the department, or over the front entrance thereto, where it can be plainly seen, a sign exhibiting in plain and legible letters, the words "Bottling-in-Bond Department."

Subpart E—Fences or Walls and Gates

§ 185.105 Construction. The proprietor may erect around the warehouse premises a fence or wall, but a suitable number of gates or doors therein must be provided; and if such fence or wall is to be solid and over five feet in height, specific approval for the erection or maintenance thereof must be obtained from the district supervisor.

§ 185.106 Keys to gates. The proprietor shall furnish the district supervisor as many keys to the gates or doors of the fence or wall around the warehouse as may be required from time to time, in order to render the warehouse readily accessible to Government officers.

SUBPART F—EQUIPMENT

§ 185.110 Scales. The proprietor of the warehouse must provide suitable and accurate scales for the weighing of packages of distilled spirits. The beams or dials of such scales must indicate weight in one-half pound graduations. The beams or dials of tank scales must be graduated to enable readings to be made as follows: to nearest one-half pound for scales having a capacity not to exceed 2,000 pounds; to the nearest 1 pound for scales having a capacity of over 2,000 pounds, but not exceeding 6,000 pounds; to the nearest 2 pounds for scales having a capacity over 6,000 pounds, but not exceeding 20,000 pounds; to the nearest 5 pounds for scales having a capacity over 20,000 pounds, but not exceeding 50,000 pounds; and to the nearest 10 pounds for scales having a capacity over 50,000 pounds. Except in the case of scales having a capacity of 2,000 pounds or less, where spirits are to be gauged for taxpayment, not less than twenty percent of the total capacity of the gauging tank scale may be entered into the tank for gauging for determination of the tax; Provided, That lots of spirits weighing 1,000 pounds or less must be weighed on scales having one-half pound graduations.

§ 185.111 General requirements for tanks. All tanks used as receptacles for spirits shall be constructed of metal or other suitable material, shall be stationary, and shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated, and will have plainly and legibly painted thereon an appropriate designation indicating the use thereof, followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. Where such tanks are of irregular dimensions the warehouseman shall furnish to the district supervisor a table, in duplicate, showing the capacity of the tank for each inch of depth. The district supervisor will retain one copy of the table and forward the other to the storekeeper-gauger who will retain the same in the Government office. All tanks must be so constructed as to permit proper examination thereof, and so arranged as to leave an open space of not less than three feet between the top and the roof or floor above. Manheads, inlets, and outlets of the tanks and all openings whereby access may be had to the spirits must be provided with facilities for locking with Government locks or otherwise securely fastened and sealed. Where tanks are equipped with manholes or valves in the top which are required to be locked with Government locks, suitable walks or landings with steps or stairways leading thereto and providing ready access to such manholes or valves must be constructed. Valves must be provided in the pipe connections and be so arranged as to control completely the flow of spirits both into and out of such tanks and so constructed that they may be locked with Government locks. The pipe connections of such valves must be brazed, welded, or otherwise secured in such a manner that they cannot be detached or altered without showing evidence of tampering. Tanks used as receptacles for spirits may be permanently connected with pipe lines for the conveyance thereto of air and water, but the water pipe line must be affixed to the top of the tank and may not extend into the tank. Such air and water pipe lines must be equipped with a control valve which may be locked with a Government lock. Pipes used for the conveyance of air must also be equipped with a check valve located near the point of entry to the tank in order to effectively prevent any abstraction of spirits from the tank. Other pipe lines, except those used for the conveyance of spirits, may not be permanently connected with such tanks. Tanks used for gauging shall be mounted on accurate scales.

§ 185.112 Gauging tank. The proprietor must provide in a warehouse building one or more gauging tanks, constructed in accordance with the provisions of § 185.111, where distilled spirits are to be received by pipe line or by tank car for deposit in storage tanks in the warehouse, or where distilled spirits deposited in storage tanks are to be withdrawn therefrom for removal by pipe line or in tank cars, or tank trucks where authorized by this part, or where distilled spirits stored in packages are to be dumped for bulk gauging: Provided, That no gauging tank need be installed on the warehouse premises for gauging (a) distilled spirits received by pipe line which have been gauged in the distillery cistern room (b) fortifying spirits which are to be transferred by pipe line from storage tanks direct to a gauging tank in the fortifying room of a contiguous winery and gauged therein under the provisions of § 185.864, (c) rum of 150 degrees of proof or more which is to be transferred by pipe line from storage tanks direct to a gauging tank in a denaturing bonded warehouse on the same premises and gauged therein under the provisions of § 185.883, or (d) spirits of 160 degrees of proof or more for redistillation which are to be transferred by pipe line from a storage tank direct to a gauging tank in a distillery on the same or contiguous premises under the provisions of § 185.725. Where a storage tank is mounted on scales, the entire contents of the tank may be removed at one time, and deposits may be made therein on the basis of the scale readings of such tank, without it being necessary to first run such spirits into a gauging tank. A suitable board shall be provided on each gauging tank for the attachment of the gauge report or certificate of taxpayment. If distilled spirits are to be dumped from packages for bulk gauging, the gauging tank must be located in the gauging room.

§ 185.113 Test weights. The proprietor shall provide a set of ten 50-pound cast-iron test weights, which shall be certified by the National Bureau of Standards or State departments of weights and measures as conforming to class "C" requirements of the National Bureau of Standards. If the proprietor has provided such test weights at another plant operated by him on the same or contiguous premises, he need not provide a separate set of weights for the warehouse. All test weights shall be placed under the control and in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger in charge, who shall keep them under Government lock when not in use.

§ 185.114 Testing gauging and storage tank scales—(a) Not over 500 gallons. Scales used for weighing spirits in lots of not over 500 gallons will be tested from time to time under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger by means of test weights provided in accordance with § 185.113. Such scales will be tested by placing the prescribed test weights on the scales and checking the weight registered on the beam of the scales. The test weights will then be removed without disturbing the beam and the gauging tank filled with spirits or water to the same weight, whereupon the test weights will again be placed upon the scales, the spirits or water being retained in the tank and the weight registered on the beam checked. This operation will then be continued until the scales have been checked in 500-pound ranges at all weights for which the scales are used.

(b) Over 500 gallons. Proprietors will have scales used for weighing spirits in larger lots tested and their accuracy certified by State, county, or city departments of weights and measures or by a responsible scale company at intervals of not more than six months. Officers will see that the proprietors have the scales of gauging tanks, used for weighing distilled spirits in lots of more than 500 gallons, tested and their accuracy certified by State, county, or city departments of weights and measures or by a responsible scale company at intervals of not more than 6 months. Officers will also check, at least once a month, the gallonage represented to be on the scale against the gallonage indicated by a volumetric determination of the contents of the tank. Such volumetric determination will be made by (1) accurately ascertaining the proof and the temperature of the distilled spirits and the depth of the liquid in the tank by means of a steel tape, (2) multiplying the depth in inches by the capacity of the tank for 1 inch of depth, and (3) correcting the volume to 60 degrees Fahrenheit in accordance with table No. 7 of the Gauging Manual (26 CFR Part 186). The corrected gallons thus determined will be compared with the gallons represented by the reading of the beam of the scale. Unless the volumetric check is within 0.5 percent of the quantity shown to be in the tank, the Government officer will take appropriate steps to have the accuracy of the scales verified. In addition to the volumetric check described, officers will, as frequently as conditions indicate the necessity therefor, test weighing tank scales of large capacity in the manner prescribed for smaller capacity gauging tank scales, except that such tests on large capacity gauging tank scales may be made when they contain considerable quantities of liquid. In this case the beam will be carefully balanced, and test weights will be added to the load, one at a time, until the range of 500 pounds is checked. At any time an officer finds a scale to be inaccurate, he will require the proprietor to have such scale adjusted and its accuracy certified.

§ 185.115 Accuracy of scales. In addition to the volumetric check described, officers will, as frequently as conditions indicate the necessity therefor, test weighing tank scales of large capacity in the manner prescribed for smaller capacity weighing tank scales, except that such tests on large capacity weighing tank scales may be made when they contain considerable quantities of liquid. In this case the beam will be carefully balanced, and test weights will be added to the load, one at a time, until the range of 500 pounds is checked. At any time an officer finds a scale to be inaccurate, he will require the proprietor to have such scale adjusted and its accuracy certified by a State, county, or city department of weights and measures or by a responsible scale company.

§ 185.116 Storage tanks. A sufficient number of storage tanks constructed in accordance with the requirements of § 185.111 must be provided in the warehouse to permit the expeditious deposit of spirits within the limitations of section 185.372.

§ 185.117 Storage tanks outside warehouse building. The district supervisor may approve permanent storage tanks not located within a room or building as an addition to an internal revenue bonded warehouse: Provided, That such tanks are constructed, equipped, and enclosed as required in this section. The tank, or tanks, shall be of substantial metal construction and shall be erected on a solid concrete base or foundation. Each storage tank shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon, or on a plate securely attached thereto, the words "Storage Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. The inlet and outlet pipe connections of each storage tank must be fitted with valves so constructed that they can be secured with Government locks, and any other openings in such tanks must also be so constructed that they can be closed and locked. The tanks shall be completely enclosed by a brick, concrete, or stone wall, at least 12 inches thick and extending not less than 3 feet above, and 3 feet below, the ground. A fence at least 12 feet in height, constructed of not less than No. 6 gauge, nor more than 2-inch mesh, expanded metal or woven wire, with at least three rows of barbed wire superimposed on the top thereof, shall be permanently affixed on the wall. The fence posts shall be substantially constructed of iron or steel and shall be solidly embedded in the wall. A suitable gate in such fence shall be provided, which gate shall be of the same construction as the fence, and shall be equipped with hasp and staple for the reception of a Government seal lock. The storage tanks shall be connected with approved gauging tanks in the internal revenue bonded warehouse building by permanent and continuous pipe lines constructed in accordance with § 185.123, and so arranged as to be exposed to view throughout their entire lengths. All valves, unions, flanges, and other detachable connections in the pipe lines and openings in the tanks must be so secured, by brazing, welding, fastening and sealing, or locking with Government locks, as to effectually prevent disconnection and access to the spirits. The Commissioner or district supervisor may require, in any case in which he deems it necessary, either the installation of electric flood lights for lighting the tank enclosure, or the maintenance of watchman's services, or both, or other protective measures or devices.

§ 185.118 Brandy-blending tanks. Brandy-blending tanks shall be constructed, installed and equipped in the manner prescribed in § 185.111 for the construction, installation and equipment of storage tanks. Each such tank shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon, or on a plate securely attached thereto, the words "Brandy-Blending Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons.

§ 185.119 Tanks in bottling-in-bond department. Where a bottling-in-bond department is established, the proprietor must provide one or more bottling tanks. Spirits may be dumped and reduced in bottling tanks, or the proprietor may provide dumping tanks, reducing tanks, or combination dumping and reducing tanks. All tanks must be constructed, equipped and designated in accordance with the requirements of § 185.111. Each bottling, reducing, or dumping tank must also be equipped with a suitable board for the attachment of Form 1515. Such tanks may be mounted on scales.

§ 185.120 Gravity tanks. The proprietor may, if necessary, install a small gravity tank between the bottling tanks and bottling machine, for the purpose of maintaining a constant head pressure or to afford a gravity flow to the bottling machine. Such tank must be so arranged that it can be filled only through the bottling tanks by a continuous, permanent, pipe line, and shall be permanently connected with the bottling machine by a permanent pipe line, equipped with a valve for locking with a Government lock: Provided, That where the bottling tanks are mounted on scales or the construction of the bottling machine is such that the connections therewith must be flexible, the respective pipe lines may be connected with the outlets of the bottling tanks, or with the bottling machine, as the case may be, by short, detachable hose connections. Where the pipe line is connected with the outlets of the bottling tanks or the bottling machine by such detachable hose connections, the ends of such pipe lines on which the hose connections are made must be equipped with valves for locking with Government locks, or secured and sealed in such a manner that the hose connections may not be detached without showing evidence of having been detached or tampered with. The capacity of the gravity tank shall be no larger than necessary, and the manhead shall be equipped for locking with a Government lock. Gravity tanks must be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the contents will be correctly indicated, and each such tank shall have plainly and legibly marked thereon the words "Gravity Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons.

§ 185.121 Accumulation tanks. Where the proprietor removes distilled spirits from the bottling line in the bottling-in-bond department which contain sediment or foreign matter, or which otherwise require refiltering or rebottling, he may install suitable accumulation tanks in the bottling-in-bond department for the accumulation of such spirits. Each such tank shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words "Accumulation tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. The distilled spirits so accumulated must be returned to the bottling system for refiltering and bottling with the same batch of spirits except as provided in § 185.917. The return of the spirits to the bottling system must be under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 185.122 Distilled water tanks. If the proprietor produces distilled water on the warehouse premises, or receives the same by pipe line from a distillery on the same or contiguous premises, distilled water tanks shall be provided and so located that their contents may be readily inspected by Government officers. Each such tank shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the actual contents will be indicated, and shall have plainly and legibly marked thereon the words "Distilled Water Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons.

§ 185.123 Water stills. Water stills may be provided, and if so, there must be a clear space of not less than 1 foot around them. Every such still must have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words "Water Still," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. Water stills shall be connected with distilled water tanks by continuous, permanent pipe lines.

§ 185.124 Pipe lines. Pipe lines for the conveyance of spirits in the warehouse, or to and from tank car loading areas, or other establishments on the same or contiguous premises, shall be of a fixed and permanent character, constructed of metal or other suitable material affording necessary protection, and so arranged as to be exposed to view in their entirety. All valves, unions, flanges, and other detachable connections in such pipe lines must be so secured by brazing, welding, fastening, and sealing, or locking with Government locks, as to effectually prevent disconnection and access to the spirits. The connections of such pipe lines with tanks, or dump troughs shall be secured in like manner: Provided, That pipe lines may be connected with tanks mounted on scales by means of flexible metal hose with the ends brazed or welded to the inlet or outlet of the tank and to the pipe line, or by means of short, detachable hose connections if the end of the pipe line is fitted with a valve so constructed that it may be secured with a Government lock. The pipe line may likewise be connected with tank cars by short detachable hose connections. Except as provided in § 185.579, a separate pipe line must be installed to each plant to which transfer of distilled spirits by pipe line is authorized, or for the loading or unloading of tank cars: Provided, That the Commissioner may approve a single pipe line where proper manifold connections, affording adequate control of the transfer of spirits to each establishment, are provided in the pipe line. Such pipe lines may be connected only to the tanks to or from which transfer of spirits is authorized except, where two or more tanks are used for the same purpose, manifold connections may be used. Manifold connections must be equipped with valves which may be secured with Government locks and so arranged as to permit complete control of spirits into or out of each tank. There shall be painted on each pipe line extending to and from a manifold a legend showing the kind and serial number of the tank or the type and registry number of the contiguous establishment with which the pipe line is connected. Where there are separate pipe lines leading directly from a tank to a tank car loading zone or an establishment on the same or contiguous premises, a legend indicating the use of such pipe line or the type and registry number of the contiguous establishment shall be painted thereon. Facilities for loading tank trucks with tax-paid distilled spirits must conform to the requirements of this section concerning facilities for loading tank cars. Pipe lines must be so arranged as to permit complete drainage or emptying thereof after each transfer of spirits. Pipe lines used for conveying the following substances shall be kept painted in the colors indicated, and other pipe lines may not be painted in these colors:

Distilled spirits	Black.
Water	White.
Steam	Aluminum.
Air	Orange.
Refrigerants	Purple.

§ 185.125 Preparation for sealing. Where flanges, unions, valves and other detachable connections in the pipe lines are not secured by welding or brazing, and are not to be secured by Government locks, they must be prepared by the proprietor for sealing with "cap" seals. Flanges, unions, and valves will be prepared for sealing, in accordance with the following instructions:

(a) Sealing flanges. Flanges may be prepared for sealing by one of the following methods:

(1) By applying a "castle" nut with a hole drilled through the bolt, so the sealing wire may be passed through like a cotter pin, two such nuts being applied to each flange, opposite each other, unless the flange is secured with an uneven number of bolts, in which case three such nuts will be applied at approximately equal distances apart;

(2) By drilling a small hole through both nut and bolt, two such bolts and nuts being drilled for each flange, opposite each other, unless the flange is secured with an uneven number of bolts, in which case three such bolts and nuts applied at approximately equal distances apart must be drilled for sealing; or

(3) By drilling a hole through the corner of the head of the bolt and one through the corner of the nut so that the two will be sealed together, two such bolts and nuts being drilled for each flange, opposite each other, unless the flange is secured with an uneven number of bolts, in which case three such nuts will be applied at approximately equal distances apart.

(b) Sealing unions. Unions will be prepared for sealing by inclosing the same in a metal box with holes for the sealing wire.

(c) Sealing valves. Small gate and globe valves may be prepared for sealing by inclosing the packing nut and hood with a metal band or strap drawn tightly around the flange and fitted for reception of the sealing wire, or by drilling a hole in the packing nut so that sealing wire may be passed through and drawn around the pipe and sealed. Where valves have large flanges, such flanges may be sealed in the same manner as other flanges.

§ 185.126 Securing pipe lines. Pipe lines shall be so secured at points of entering or passing from the warehouse as to prevent any communication with the warehouse at such points, except by transit through the pipe line when the valve is open. The storage tank connections in the pipe line from the distillery shall be fitted at the inlet of each such tank with a valve which can be secured with a Government lock, and such connections must be so arranged as to control completely the flow of spirits separately into each tank. Each pipeline not directly connected with a storage tank shall be fitted at the end inside the warehouse with a valve so constructed that it may be locked. No pipeline may be used until it has been inspected and the district supervisor has approved the same.

§ 185.127 Hydrometers. Proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses will obtain hydrometer sets for their own use in determining the proof of spirits.

§ 185.128 Details of construction and equipment. Where details of construction and equipment are not covered by the provisions in this part, such construction and equipment must afford the same degree of security and protection to the spirits in the warehouse as is intended by the construction and equipment specifications prescribed in this part. The Commissioner may approve details of construction and equipment in lieu of those specified in this part where it is shown that it is impracticable to conform to the prescribed specifications, and the proposed construction and equipment will afford as much security and protection as the construction and equipment prescribed. Where it is proposed to substitute construction and equipment for that for which specifications are prescribed, or where any doubt prevails in regard to the security and protection which will be afforded by construction and equipment not covered by the provisions in this part, approval of the Commissioner should be first obtained.

§ 185.129 Warehouses heretofore established. Internal revenue bonded warehouses heretofore established may continue to operate if the present construction and equipment afford adequate security and protection to the revenue. The Commissioner or district supervisor may at any time require the proprietor to make changes in construction and equipment conforming to the provisions in this part, if deemed necessary to safeguard the revenue or to permit more economical and efficient supervision by Government officers. All warehouses hereafter established and changes in existing warehouses must be in conformance with the provisions in this part.

SUBPART G—QUALIFYING DOCUMENTS

§ 185.150 Application, Form 27–D. Every person desiring to establish an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall file application therefor on Form 27–D, in triplicate, with the district supervisor. Except as provided in § 185.156, in the case of amended and supplemental applications, all information indicated by the lines on the form and the instructions printed thereon, or issued in respect thereto, and in this part shall be furnished. Applications on Form 27–D must be signed in accordance with the instructions printed on the form and sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths: Provided, That if the form officially prescribed for such application contains therein a provision for verification by a written declaration that such application is made under the penalties of perjury, such application shall be verified by the execution of such declaration, and such declaration shall be in lieu of any oath required herein for verification. Such applications must be numbered serially, commencing with number 1 and continuing in regular sequence for all applications thereafter filed, whether amended or supplemental. All data, written statements, affidavits, and other documents submitted in support of the application shall be deemed to be a part thereof.

§ 185.151 Permit required. Under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and the regulations issued pursuant thereto (27 CFR Part 1), any person, except an agency of a State or political subdivision thereto, or any officer or employee of any such agency, intending to engage in the business of bottling distilled spirits, is required to procure a permit therefor.

(Sec. 3, 49 Stat. 978, 27 U. S. C. 203)

§ 185.152 Title to premises. The applicant's title to, or interest in, the warehouse premises shall be shown on Form 27–D. If the applicant is the owner of the premises, the amounts of all mortgages or other encumbrances thereon, and the names of the holders thereof, shall be stated. If the warehouse is occupied under a lease, the name of the owner, the name of the lessor, the length of the term and the date of its expiration, shall be stated.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.153 Description of premises. The application shall contain a complete description of the building or room constituting the warehouse, including the height, width, and length, the materials of which constructed, the means of ingress and egress, and the manner of securing windows and doors and other openings. If the warehouse consists of an entire building, the number of stories and the height of each story shall be given. If the warehouse consists of a room or floor of a building, an exact description of the building in which the room or floor is situated and its precise location therein shall be given. If the warehouse consists of separate buildings, the same shall be designated alphabetically, as "Building A," "Building B," etc., and each shall be described separately and the capacity, in barrels, cases, or tanks of each given. Each floor of each building shall be described separately, unless the dimensions and construction of all floors are identical and are used for the same purpose. If a bottling-in-bond room or a brandy-blending department is provided, it will be separately described as to location, construction and security. The designated serial number and capacity of each tank and other apparatus, and the daily bottling capacity in gallons shall also be stated. A separate description of each quick-aging room or gauging room shall be given. The Government office shall be separately described in the application, the location, construction and equipment thereof being shown. Pipe lines for transfer of distilled spirits to or from other establishments on the same or contiguous premises shall be described and names of proprietors and registry numbers of contiguous establishments to or from which transfers of spirits will be made shall be given.

§ 185.154 Capacity. The total capacity in barrels, exclusive of storage tanks, of all buildings or units constituting the warehouse shall be stated on Form 27–D. The capacity of the warehouse must conform to the applicable requirements specified in § 185.52.

§ 185.155 Necessity for establishment. A statement in detail respecting the necessity for the establishment of the warehouse must be furnished in the application, unless the warehouse is to be operated by the distiller (not including lessee distillers) on or contiguous to his distillery premises. This statement must show the approximate quantity of spirits that will be received, stored, and withdrawn annually, the probable number of depositors of spirits, the approximate number of dealers to be served with spirits withdrawn from the warehouse, whether spirits will be bottled, either in bond or commercially, together with any other data indicating the prospective volume of business at the warehouse. The applicant in such case shall submit with the application sworn statements from distillers respecting their intention to deposit spirits in the warehouse, and showing the initial deposit and the estimated quantity and frequency of subsequent deposits. Certified copies of contracts for the storage of spirits in the warehouse, in the event of its establishment, will be submitted in support of the application in such case. The transportation facilities available shall be completely described in the application, except where the warehouse is an original warehouse to be operated by the distiller on or contiguous to the distillery premises. If the warehouse is a second warehouse which the distiller desires to have established contiguous to, or near, such original warehouse on account of lack of storage space in the original warehouse and inability to expand the same, such fact must be established, but data respecting the number of depositors, dealers to be served, and transportation facilities, and statements and contracts of other depositing distillers, need not be submitted.

§ 185.156 Amended and supplemental application. Amended and supplemental applications on Form 27–D may be executed in skeleton form, except as to the items amended or supplemented. All other items which are correctly set forth in prior applications, and in which there has been no change since the last preceding application, may be incorporated in the amended or supplemental application by reference to the respective application previously filed in which the item is fully and correctly set forth. Such incorporation by reference shall be made by entering for each such item in the space provided therefor the statement "No change since filing Form 27–D, Serial No. ——" (the number being inserted), followed by the date of the form. The Commissioner or the district supervisor, at any time in his discretion, may require the filing of a complete application on Form 27–D. Every proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse located at a port of exportation and desiring to establish an off-premises export storage room, as authorized by § 185.82, shall file a supplemental application therefor on Form 27–D, giving the location and description of the room.

§ 185.157 Corporate documents. There must be submitted with, and made a part of, the original or initial application on Form 27–D, by a corporation desiring the establishment of an internal revenue bonded warehouse, properly certified copies, in triplicate, of the following documents:

(a) Articles of incorporation and any amended articles of incorporation.

(b) Certificate of incorporation.

(c) Certificate authorizing the corporation to operate in State where warehouse is located, if other than that in which incorporated.

(d) Extracts of minutes of meetings of stockholders, showing election of directors.

(e) By-laws.

(f) Extracts of the minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors, showing the election of officers.

(g) Extracts of the minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors, authorizing certain officers or other persons to sign for the corporation.

(i) List of stockholders, as provided in § 185.158.

§ 185.158 List of stockholders. In the case of corporations and similar legal entities, there must be submitted with Form 27–D at the commencement of business, and annually thereafter on May 1, a list of the names and addresses of all stockholders and other persons interested in the corporation or other legal entity, and the amount and nature of the stockholding or other interest of each, whether such interest appears in the name of the interested party or in the name of another for him: Provided, That where more than 100 persons are interested in the corporation or other legal entity as stockholders or otherwise, there need be furnished only the names and addresses and the amounts and nature of the stockholding or other interest of the 100 persons having the largest ownership or other interest of each of the respective classes of stock or other interest, except where more complete information shall be specifically required by the Commissioner or the district supervisor: Provided further, That where there has been no change in the list of stockholders and other persons interested in the corporation or other legal entity, the proprietor may furnish, in lieu of the annual list, a certified statement, in triplicate, to that effect. Where a corporation operates two or more internal revenue bonded warehouses or other plants situated in the same supervisory district, or wholly owns one or more subsidiaries operating such warehouses or other plants so situated, and in connection with qualifying for the operation of one of such warehouses or plants, files a list of stockholders and other persons interested as prescribed in this section, the filing of an additional list for each warehouse will not be required, provided that in lieu of such additional list there is submitted a certificate, in triplicate, definitely identifying the corporation and plant with whose application or notice the list of stockholders and other persons interested is filed, and giving the date of filing thereof.

§ 185.159 Affidavit. In the case of a corporation there must be submitted with each list of stockholders an affidavit, in triplicate, executed by an officer of the corporation authorized so to do, showing the number of shares in each class of stock or other evidence of ownership, such as voting trust certificates authorized and outstanding, the par value thereof and the voting rights of the respective owners or holders, and certifying to the correctness of the list of stockholders, or the statement authorized to be furnished with the application in lieu of such list. In the case of an individual owner or copartnership, there must be submitted with Form 27–D at the commencement of business, and annually thereafter on May 1, an affidavit, in triplicate, giving the name of every person interested or to be interested in the warehouse, whether such interest appears in the name of the interested party or in the name of another for him.

§ 185.160 Articles of copartnership or association. In the case of a copartnership or association, a certified copy, in triplicate, of the articles of copartnership or association, if any, shall be submitted with, and constitute a part of, the application, Form 27–D.

§ 185.161 Trade name certificate. Where the applicant is to do business under a firm or trade name, there must be submitted with and made a part of the application, Form 27–D, certified copies, in triplicate, of the certificate or other document filed with or issued by State officials under the laws of the State to cover the transaction of business under such firm or trade name. If no such certificate or other document is required by the laws of the State to be filed with or issued by State officials to cover the transaction of business under a firm or trade name, the applicant shall furnish a statement, in triplicate, to that effect.

§ 185.162 Power of attorney, Form 1534. If the application or other qualifying documents are signed by an attorney in fact for an individual, copartnership, association, or corporation, or by one of the members for a copartnership or association, or in the case of a corporation, by an officer or other person not authorized to sign by the corporate documents described in § 185.157, such application or other qualifying documents must be supported by a duly authenticated copy of the power of attorney conferring authority upon the person signing the document to execute the same. Such powers of attorney will be executed on Form 1534, in triplicate, and submitted to the district supervisor.

§ 185.163 Execution of power of attorney. Where the principal giving the power of attorney is an individual, it must be executed by him in person, and not by an agent. In the case of a copartnership or association, powers of attorney authorizing one or more of the members, or another person, to execute documents on behalf of the copartnership or association must be executed by all of the members constituting the copartnership or association. However, if one or more members less than the whole number constituting the copartnership or association have been delegated the authority to appoint agents or attorneys in fact, the power of attorney may be executed by such member or members, provided it is supported by a duly authenticated copy, in triplicate, of the document conferring authority upon the member or members to execute the same. Where, in the case of a corporation, powers of attorney are executed by an officer thereof, such documents must be supported by triplicate copies of the authorization of such officer so to do, certified by the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation, under the corporate seal, if any, to be true copies.

§ 185.164 Duration of power of attorney. Powers of attorney authorizing the execution of documents on behalf of a person engaged, or intending to engage, in the business of an internal revenue bonded warehouseman shall continue in effect until written notice, in triplicate, of the revocation of such authority is received by the district supervisor, unless terminated by operation of law.

§ 185.165 Transportation and warehousing bond, Form 1571. Every person desiring to establish an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall, upon filing his application, Form 27–D, execute bond on Form 1571, in triplicate in conformity with the provisions of Subpart H of this part, and file the same with the district supervisor. The penal sum of such bond shall be not less than the amount of internal revenue tax at the rate prescribed by law on the quantity of distilled spirits that will be stored in such warehouse and in transit thereto at any one time, including distilled spirits bottled for export, plus the amount of additional tax at the rate of 30 cents a proof gallon attaching to brandy blended under the provisions of section 2801 (e) (5), I. R. C., that will be on hand or in transit to the warehouse at any one time: Provided, That the maximum penal sum of such bond shall not exceed $200,000 for each such warehouse. Proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses desiring to blend brandies under the provisions of section 2801 (e) (5), I. R. C., and having on file Form 1571, revised December 1941 or revised prior to such time, shall file consent of surety on Form 1533 to cover the blending of brandies and the additional tax liability.

§ 185.166 Plat and plans. Every person desiring to establish an internal revenue bonded warehouse must submit to the district supervisor with his application, Form 27–D, an accurate plat of the warehouse premises and accurate plans of the buildings, apparatus and equipment, in triplicate, conforming to the requirements of Subpart I of this part.

§ 185.167 Additional information. The Commissioner or the district supervisor may at any time, in his discretion, require the proprietor to furnish such additional information as he may deem necessary.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.168 Instruments and papers. The terms, conditions, and instructions contained in instruments and papers required to be furnished by law or regulations are hereby made a part of the provisions in this part as fully and to the same extent as if incorporated in this part.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.169 Registry of stills, Form 26. If a water still is set up in the bottling-in-bond department, the proprietor must register it with the district supervisor for the district in which the still is located, on Form 26, immediately it is set up. The Form 26 shall be executed, in triplicate, in accordance with the columns, lines, and instructions on the form.

Subpart H—Bonds and Consents of Surety

§ 185.191 Corporate surety. Bonds may be given with corporate surety authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury to become surety on Federal bonds, subject to the limitations prescribed by the Secretary in Treasury Department Form 356, Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits, Section of Surety Bonds, which is issued semiannually, and subject to such amendatory circulars as may be issued from time to time.

§ 185.192 Two or more corporate sureties. A bond executed by two or more corporate sureties shall be the joint and several liability of the principal and the sureties: Provided, That each corporate surety may limit its liability in terms upon the face of the bond in a definite, specified amount, which amount shall not exceed the limitations prescribed for such corporate surety by the Secretary, as set forth in Treasury Department Form 356. When the sureties so limit their liability, the aggregate of such limited liabilities must equal the required penal sum of the bond.

§ 185.193 Powers of attorney. Powers of attorney and other evidence of appointment of agents and officers executing bonds on behalf of corporate sureties are required to be filed with, and passed upon by, the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits, Section of Surety Bonds, Treasury Department. Such powers and other evidence of appointment need not be filed with, or submitted to, district supervisors.

§ 185.194 Individual sureties. Bonds may be given with individual sureties, of which there must be not less than two, each of whom must qualify by executing Form 33, in triplicate. Individual sureties must be citizens of the United States and reside in the State in which the business of the principal is to be conducted. No person will be accepted as an individual surety in a State in which he is not authorized to become a surety.

§ 185.195 Ownership of real property. Each individual surety must own unencumbered real property, in fee simple, the appraised value of which, over and above any exemptions from execution allowed by the laws of the State, is equal to the penal sum of the bond. Such real property must be located within the State where the business of the principal is to be conducted.

§ 185.196 Description of real property. The real property must be described in the surety's affidavit, Form 33, with all of the formalities required in conveyances of real estate by the laws of the State in which it is situated.

§ 185.197 Execution of Form 33. The surety's affidavit on Form 33 shall contain all of the information required by this part and the instructions printed on the form. The form shall be subscribed and sworn to before an officer duly authorized to administer oaths, and one copy thereof shall be attached to each copy of the bond to which it relates.

§ 185.198 Certificate of title. There must be submitted with the surety's affidavit, Form 33, a certificate of title, in triplicate, showing that the surety has good title, free of encumbrances, to the realty described in the form.

§ 185.199 Appraisal. There will also be submitted with Form 33 an appraisal, in triplicate, by two or more competent persons designated by the district supervisor for the purpose, showing separately the value of the land and buildings, and a full and clear statement of the method employed by them in determining their valuation. The appraisal shall be at the expense of the principal on the bond, unless it is made by Government officers.

§ 185.200 Investigation. The district supervisor will cause an investigation to be made of all the facts stated in the surety's affidavit on Form 33 and supporting documents, and shall forward one copy of the report of such investigation to the Commissioner with the bond and accompanying Form 33.

§ 185.201 Requalification. The Commissioner or district supervisor may at any time, in his discretion, require the requalification of individual sureties on Form 33.

§ 185.202 Interest in business. The surety, whether individual or corporate, must have no interest whatever in the business covered by the bond.

§ 185.203 Deposit of collateral. Bonds or notes of the United States, or other obligations which are unconditionally guaranteed as to both interest and principal by the United States, may be pledged and deposited by principals as collateral security in lieu of individual or corporate sureties. District supervisors on receiving such bonds or notes, or other obligations, pledged and deposited by principals as collateral security in lieu of surety, shall deposit such securities in accordance with the requirements of Department Circular No. 154, revised (31 CFR Part 225).

§ 185.204 Consents of surety. Consents of surety to a change in the terms of a bond must be executed on Form 1533, in as many copies as are required of the bond which they affect, by the principal and all sureties with the same formality and proof of authority to execute as are required for the execution of bonds. Form 1533 will be used by obligors on collateral bonds as well as those on surety bonds. The Form 1533 must properly identify the bond affected thereby and state specifically and precisely what is covered by the extended terms thereof. If the surety is a corporation, the consent may be executed by an agent or attorney in fact duly authorized so to do by power of attorney filed by the surety with the appropriate district supervisor, or the consent may be executed by the home office officials of such corporate surety; except that, in cases where the saving of time is an element, the consent may be executed by an agent or attorney in fact where the home office officials, by specific direction, order its execution. A copy of such specific direction should be attached to each copy of such consent.

§ 185.205 Approval required. No individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association intending to commence business as the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall commence such business until the required transportation and warehousing bond, Form 1571, has been approved.

§ 185.206 Authority to approve. District supervisors are authorized to approve all bonds and consents of surety required by this part.

§ 185.207 Additional or strengthening bonds. In all cases where the penal sum of the bond on file and in effect is not sufficient, computed as prescribed by law and this part, the principal may give an additional or strengthening bond in a sufficient penal sum, provided the surety thereon is the same as on the bond already on file and in effect; otherwise a new bond covering the entire liability will be required. As such additional or strengthening bonds are filed to increase the bond liability of the principal and the surety, they are in no sense substitute bonds, and the district supervisor will refuse to approve any additional or strengthening bond where any notation is made thereon intended, or which may be construed, as a release of any former bond, or as limiting the amount of either bond to less than its full penal sum. Additional or strengthening bonds must show the current date of execution and the effective date in the blank spaces provided therefor. Such bonds must have marked thereon, by the obligors at the time of execution, "Additional Bond," or "Strengthening Bond."

§ 185.208 New bond. A new bond may be required at any time in the discretion of the Commissioner or district supervisor. A new bond shall be required immediately in the case of the death or insolvency of an individual surety, or the insolvency of a corporate surety. Executors, administrators, assignees, receivers, trustees, or other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity, continuing or liquidating the business of the principal, must execute and file a new bond or obtain the consent of the surety or sureties on the existing bond or bonds. When, in the opinion of the Commissioner or the district supervisor, the interests of the Government demand it, or in any case where the security of the bond becomes impaired in whole or in part for any reason whatever, the principal will be required to give a new bond. Where a bond is found to be not acceptable, the principal shall be required to file immediately a new and satisfactory bond, or discontinue business forthwith.

§ 185.209 Superseding bond. Where a new bond is submitted by the principal to supersede a bond or bonds then in effect, and such superseding bond has been approved, notice of termination of the superseded bond may be issued as provided in Subpart Q of this part. Superseding bonds must show the current date of execution and the date they are to be effective, and each such bond shall have marked thereon, by the obligors at the time of execution, "Superseding Bond."

SUBPART I—PLATS AND PLANS

§ 185.220 Plat and plans required. Every person intending to engage in business as the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse must, as provided in § 185.166, file an accurate plat and accurate plans of the warehouse premises, apparatus, and equipment, in triplicate, with the district supervisor.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.221 Preparation. Every plat and plan shall be drawn to scale, and each sheet thereof shall bear a distinctive title and the complete name and address of the proprietor, enabling ready identification. The cardinal points of the compass must appear on each sheet, except those of elevational plans. The minimum scale of any plat will not be less than 1/50 inch per foot. Each sheet of the original plat and plans shall be numbered, the first sheet being designated number 1, and the other sheets numbered in consecutive order. Plats and plans shall be submitted on sheets of tracing cloth, opaque cloth, or sensitized linen. The dimensions of plats and plans shall be 15 by 20 inches, outside measurement, with a clear margin of at least 1 inch on each side of the drawing, lettering, and writing. Plats and plans may be original drawings, or reproductions made by the "ditto process," or by blue or brown line lithoprint, if such reproductions are clear and distinct.

§ 185.222 Depiction of warehouse premises. Plats must show the outer boundaries of the warehouse premises by courses and distances, in feet and inches, in a color contrasting with those used for other drawings on the plat, and the point of beginning with respect to its distance and bearings from some near and well-known landmark must be shown. The plat must also contain an accurate depiction of the building, or buildings, comprising the premises, and any driveways, public highway, or railroad right-of-way adjacent thereto, or connecting therewith. The depiction of the premises on the plat should agree with the description thereof in the application, Form 27–D. If the premises are separated by a public highway or railroad right-of-way, and the tracts of land comprising the premises, or parts thereof, abut on such highway or right-of-way opposite each other, the different tracts will be depicted separately by courses and distances, in feet and inches, and outlined in a color contrasting with those used for other drawings on the plat. If two or more buildings are to be used, they must be shown in their relative positions and the alphabetical designation of each indicated. If the warehouse consists of a room or floor of a building, an outline of the building, the precise location, and the dimensions of the room or floor, and the means of ingress from and egress to a public street or yard, shall be shown. All first floor exterior doors of each building will be shown on the plat. Except as provided in § 185.228, all pipelines leading to or from the premises, the purpose for which used, and the points of origin and termination, will be indicated on the plat.

§ 185.223 Contiguous premises. Where a distillery, or rectifying plant, or tax-paid bottling house, or other premises on which liquors are manufactured, stored, or sold, is contiguous to the warehouse premises the plat must show the relative location of the warehouse and such contiguous premises, and all pipelines, if any, and other connections between them. The outlines of such contiguous premises and the warehouse premises must be shown in contrasting colors.

§ 185.224 Floor plans. The plans shall include a floor plan of each floor of each building, or, where the warehouse consists of less than the entire building, each floor comprising the warehouse, showing the general dimensions of the rooms and floors, and the location of all doors, windows, and other openings, and how such openings are protected. If the construction of all floors in a single building is identical, a typical floor plan may be filed in lieu of a separate plan for each floor. All storage tanks, gauging tanks, and other tanks used in connection with the receipt, storage, gauging, withdrawal, or bottling of distilled spirits, must be shown in their exact location on the floor plans, and their designated use, serial numbers and capacity indicated. Other equipment of a permanent nature and all areas occupied by racks intended for storage of packages shall be shown. Pipe lines may also be shown, if desired.

§ 185.225 Elevational flow diagrams. Elevational flow diagrams (plans) shall be submitted covering the flow of spirits from the time of receipt on the premises, the deposit in storage tanks or gauging tanks, and the removal therefrom. Such diagrams shall clearly depict all equipment in its relative operating sequence, and elevation by floors, with all connecting pipe lines, valves, flanges, measuring devices, and attachments for Government locks. The elevation by floors on the diagrams may be indicated by horizontal lines representing floor levels. All major equipment, such as storage tanks and gauging tanks, must be identified on these plans as to number and use. The elevational flow diagram must be so drawn that all fixed pipe lines, except those indicated by § 185.228, may be readily traced from beginning to end: Provided, That pipe lines leading to and from other buildings on the same or contiguous premises may be designated as to point of origin or termination. The direction of the flow of the spirits through the pipe lines must be indicated on the flow diagram by arrows. Where another business is to be conducted within the same buildings, the district supervisor may require elevational plans of such buildings.

§ 185.226 Colors for pipe lines. Pipe lines must be shown on the plans in the colors in which they are required to be painted, as follows:

Black	Distilled spirits.
White	Water.
Aluminum	Steam.
Orange	Air.
Purple	Refrigerants.

§ 185.227 Location of valves, flanges, locks, etc. All valves, flanges, and other connections in pipe lines must be properly indicated on the plans: Provided, That where flanges, unions, or other connections in pipe lines are brazed, welded, or otherwise permanently secured in such a manner as to constitute a continuous, single pipe line, the location of such flanges, unions, or other connections, and the manner of securing the same, need not be shown on the plans. The location of all Government locks required to secure the apparatus and equipment, and the doors of rooms and buildings, must be indicated on the plans by the symbol "GL" at the points where the locks are to be attached.

§ 185.228 Pipelines exempted. Approved public or private utility service lines, such as sewers, electric or gas conduits or pipes, and approved sprinkler, refrigeration, or heating systems which have no connection with equipment used for spirits, need not be shown on the plans: Provided, That the point of entry to the bonded premises shall be indicated on the plans.

§ 185.229 Certificate of accuracy. The plat and plans shall bear a certificate of accuracy in the lower right hand corner of each sheet, signed by the proprietor, the draftsman, and the district supervisor, substantially in the following form:

(Address)

Approved ---
(Date)

(District supervisor)

Accuracy certified by:

(Name and capacity—for the proprietor)

(Draftsman)

--- 19---. Sheet No.---

IRBW No. ---

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

§ 185.230 Revised plats and plans. The sheets of revised plats and plans shall bear the same number as the sheets superseded, but will be given a new date. Any additional plats and plans shall be given a new number in consecutive order, or will be otherwise numbered and lettered in such manner as will permit the filing of the plats and plans in proper sequence.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2873)

SUBPART J—REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING CHANGES IN NAME, PROPRIETORSHIP, CONTROL, LOCATION, PREMISES AND EQUIPMENT, AND IN THE TITLE TO THE WAREHOUSE PROPERTY

§ 185.240 Change in name. Where there is a change in the individual, firm, or corporate name of the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse, he must comply with the following requirements:

(a) Amended application, Form 27–D. Submit to the district supervisor an amended application on Form 27–D, in triplicate, covering the new name, which application must be approved before operations may be commenced under the new name.

(b) Amended permit. If engaged in the business of warehousing and bottling distilled spirits, and if other than an agency of a State or political subdivision thereof, or an officer or employee of any such agency, procure from the district supervisor an amended basic permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act authorizing the warehousing and bottling of distilled spirits under the new name.

(c) Amended articles of incorporation, etc. In the case of a corporation, submit to the district supervisor certified copies, in triplicate, of the amended articles of incorporation and the amended certificate of incorporation issued under the laws of the State in which incorporated covering the change in the corporate name. If the operations are conducted in a State other than the State in which incorporated, there must also be submitted to the district supervisor certified copies, in triplicate, of the amended certificate issued under the laws of the State in which the operations are conducted, authorizing the corporation to operate under its new name in such State. If other documents than those specified are required under the laws of the State to effect a change in the name of the corporation, certified copies, in triplicate, of such documents must be submitted with the application, Form 27–D, in lieu of those specified.

(d) Amended articles of copartnership or association. If the proprietor of the warehouse is a copartnership or association, submit to the district supervisor certified copies, in triplicate, of the amended articles of copartnership or of association, if any.

(e) Trade name certificate. In the case of a change in the firm or trade name, submit to the district supervisor certified copies, in triplicate, of the certificate or other document filed with or issued by State officials under the laws of the State to cover the transaction of business under such firm or trade name. If no such certificate or other document is required by the laws of the State to be filed with or issued by any State official to cover the transaction of business under a firm or trade name, the proprietor shall furnish a statement, in triplicate, to that effect.

(f) Sign. Change the warehouse sign to conform to the provisions of § 185.100.

(g) Records. Upon approval of the documents covering the change in name, note on the records for the current month the change in name.

CHANGE IN PROPRIETORSHIP

§ 185.241 Discontinuance. Where there is to be a change in the proprietorship of an internal revenue bonded warehouse the outgoing proprietor must comply with the requirements outlined in §§ 185.242 to 185.245.

§ 185.242 Application, Form 27–D. The outgoing proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse must submit to the district supervisor Form 27–D, in triplicate, stating thereon the purpose to be "Transfer of business to ---," (Successor) and giving the date of the proposed transfer.

§ 185.243 Transfer of spirits. Upon qualification of the successor, the outgoing proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse must transfer the spirits in the warehouse to him pursuant to application of the successor on Form 236.

§ 185.244 Records. Upon transfer of the business to the successor, the outgoing proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse must complete Form 52C and file with the district supervisor a final report on such form in accordance with Subpart WW of this part. A notation of the transfer of the business to the successor will be made on such final report.

§ 185.245 Disposition of stamps. The outgoing proprietor may not transfer any domestic or export strip stamps to his successor. The stamps must be disposed of as provided in § 185.287.

(53 Stat. 342 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2903)

§ 185.246 Qualification of successor. Where there is to be a change in the proprietorship of an internal revenue bonded warehouse, the successor must comply with the requirements outlined in §§ 185.247 to 185.253.

§ 185.247 Nonfiduciary successor. If the change in proprietorship is brought about otherwise than by operation of law, as by the appointment of an administrator, executor, receiver, trustee, assignee, or other fiduciary, the successor must qualify in the same manner as the proprietor of a new warehouse, except that he may adopt the plat and plans of his predecessor, as provided in § 185.250.

§ 185.248 Fiduciary. If the successor is an administrator, executor, receiver, trustee, assignee, or other fiduciary, and intends to receive spirits, or to possess or dispose of spirits on hand in the warehouse, he must comply with the provisions of Subpart G of this part to the extent that such provisions are applicable, except that in lieu of filing new transportation and warehousing bonds, and new plat and plans, the fiduciary may furnish consents of surety extending the terms of his predecessor's bonds and adopt the plat and plans of such predecessor. The fiduciary must also furnish certified copies, in triplicate, of the order of the court, or other pertinent documents, showing his qualification as such fiduciary. The effective date of the qualifying documents filed by a fiduciary should be the same as the date of the court order, or the date specified therein for him to assume control.

§ 185.249 Consent of surety. The consents of surety extending the terms of the predecessor's bonds to cover operation of the warehouse by a fiduciary, must conform to the requirements of § 185.204 and be executed by both the fiduciary and the surety.

§ 185.250 Adoption of plat and plans. The plat and plans of the warehouse may be adopted by a successor where they correctly describe and depict the warehouse premises and the buildings, apparatus and equipment thereon, to be taken over by the successor. The adoption by a successor of the plat and plans of his predecessor shall be in the form of a certificate, in triplicate, in which shall be set forth the name of the predecessor, the address and registry number of the warehouse, a description of the warehouse premises or in lieu thereof reference to the successor's Form 27–D describing such premises, the number of each sheet comprising each plat and plan covered by such certificate, and a statement that the warehouse premises and the buildings, apparatus, and equipment thereon are clearly described and depicted on such plat and plans.

§ 185.251 Sign. The successor, if other than a fiduciary temporarily operating the warehouse, must change the warehouse sign to conform to the requirements of § 185.100.

§ 185.252 Transfer application, Form 236. The successor must submit to the district supervisor application on Form 236, in quadruplicate, for the transfer to him of the spirits in the warehouse on the effective date of the change in proprietorship.

§ 185.253 Commencement of operations. The successor may not commence operations until the required qualifying documents have been approved.

§ 185.254 Completion of bottling-in-bond operations required. When a succession or actual change takes place in the proprietorship of an internal revenue bonded warehouse in which a bottling-in-bond department is being operated, other than a change brought about by operation of law, as by the appointment of an administrator, executor, assignee, receiver, trustee, debtor in possession in bankruptcy proceedings, or other fiduciary, the bottling of spirits must, except as hereinafter provided, be completely finished by the person or persons who have been carrying on the business, and all spirits removed from the bottling-in-bond department before the business shall be undertaken or begun by the succeeding proprietor. Where a change of proprietorship has been brought about by operation of law, the administrator, executor, assignee, receiver, trustee, debtor in possession in bankruptcy proceedings, or other fiduciary, may not commence or complete operations until the required qualifying documents have been filed and approved.

§ 185.255 Completion of operations by fiduciary. If an administrator, executor, assignee, receiver, trustee, debtor in possession in bankruptcy proceedings, or other fiduciary, succeeds to the business while spirits are in the process of bottling, and he qualifies to conduct the business as required by this part, he shall make appropriate notation of his succession on each Form 1515, and upon completion of the bottling, he shall complete the execution of the forms and otherwise proceed as specified in this part. The storekeeper-gauger will make similar notation of such succession on Form 1513 and Form 1606.

§ 185.256 Changes in partnership. The withdrawal of one or more members of a partnership, or the taking in of a new partner, whether active or silent, shall constitute a change in proprietorship. Likewise, the bankruptcy or adjudicated insolvency of one or more of the copartners results in a dissolution of the copartnership and consequently a change in proprietorship. Where such a change in proprietorship of the warehouse occurs, the successor must qualify in the same manner as the proprietor of a new warehouse, except that the successor may adopt the plat and plans of his predecessor, in the manner prescribed by § 185.250.

§ 185.257 Changes in stockholders, officers, and directors of corporation. The sale or transfer of the capital stock of a corporation operating an internal revenue bonded warehouse does not constitute a change in proprietorship of the warehouse. However, where the sale or transfer of capital stock results in a change in the control or management of the business, or where there is any change in the officers or directors, the proprietor must give notice thereof, in triplicate, to the district supervisor within 24 hours of such change. Mere changes in stockholders of the corporation not constituting a change in control need not be so reported. The district supervisor must, in the case of changes in officers or directors, be furnished extracts, in triplicate, of the minutes of the meetings showing such changes.

§ 185.258 Reincorporation. Where a corporation operating an internal revenue bonded warehouse is reorganized and a new charter or certificate of incorporation is secured, the new corporation must qualify in the same manner as the proprietor of the new warehouse, except that the new corporation may adopt the plat and plans of the predecessor, in the manner prescribed by § 185.250.

§ 185.259 Change in location. Where there is to be a change in the location of the warehouse premises, the proprietor must comply with all applicable provisions of this part, except that in lieu of the filing of a new transportation and warehousing bond, Form 1571, the proprietor may furnish consent of surety, Form 1533, in accordance with § 185.204, extending the terms of such bond given for the former location to cover operation of the warehouse at the new location.

§ 185.260 Changes in premises. Where the premises are to be extended or curtailed, the proprietor must file with the district supervisor an amended application, Form 27–D, and an amended plat of the premises as extended or curtailed, except as herein specifically authorized in the case of alternate operations of the bottling department. If the plans are affected by the extension or curtailment, they must also be amended. The additional premises covered by an extension may not be used for bonded warehouse purposes, and the portion of the warehouse premises to be excluded by curtailment may not be used for other than warehouse purposes prior to approval of the application, Form 27–D, plat, and plans, if required, filed in connection therewith. Where an internal revenue bonded warehouse contains a bottling-in-bond department, and the documents required by this part governing the alternate operation of a bottling house as a bottling-in-bond department and a taxpaid bottling house, are filed, and no change in proprietorship is involved, the filing of additional applications, Form 27–D, covering changes in the temporary status thereof from time to time, will not be required. Where a warehouse building on distillery premises, on which a lien for taxes has attached under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., is demolished or altered, the provisions of Regulations 4 and 5 (26 CFR Parts 183 and 184), relative to the filing of indemnity bonds, will be followed.

§ 185.261 Changes in construction and use. Where a change is to be made in the construction of a room or building not involving an extension or curtailment of the warehouse premises, or where a change is to be made in the use of any portion of such premises, the proprietor shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes. Upon approval of the application, the changes will be made under the supervision of a Government officer. The completed changes will be reflected in the next amended application, Form 27–D, and amended plans filed by the warehouseman, unless the district supervisor requires the immediate filing of an amended application and amended plans.

§ 185.262 Changes in equipment. Where changes are to be made in the apparatus and equipment of the warehouse, the proprietor shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes: Provided, That emergency repairs may be made under the supervision of the Government officer without prior approval of the district supervisor. Where such emergency repairs are made the proprietor shall file immediately a report thereof, in triplicate, with the district supervisor. Changes covered by an approved application will also be made under the supervision of a Government officer. Upon completion of any changes made under his supervision, the Government officer will submit a report, in triplicate, of the changes to the district supervisor. Where changes in equipment are made in internal revenue bonded warehouses located on distillery premises and a lien for taxes has attached to such equipment under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., the provisions of Regulations 4 and 5 (26 CFR Parts 183 and 184) relative to the filing of indemnity bonds will be followed.

§ 185.263 Amended application and plans covering changes in equipment. Upon completion of changes in equipment which materially affect the accuracy of the Form 27–D or plans, the proprietor must file an amended application and amended plans. Where an amended application and amended plans are not filed immediately upon completion of minor changes in equipment (such as general repairs, changes in pipe lines, or the addition or removal of a tank), the proprietor must include such changes in the next amended application and plans filed by him: Provided, That the Commissioner or the district supervisor may, at any time in his discretion, require the immediate filing of an amended application and plans covering any change in equipment.

§ 185.264 Change of title. Whenever there is a change in the proprietor's title to, or interest in, the warehouse premises, or in the terms of his occupancy of such premises, he must file amended application, Form 27–D, covering such change.

SUBPART K—REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING ALTERNATE OPERATIONS OF BOTTLING-IN-BOND DEPARTMENT AS TAXPAID BOTTLING HOUSE

§ 185.270 Basic qualifications required. The bottling-in-bond department of an internal revenue bonded warehouse may be operated alternately for bottling distilled spirits in bond, and bottling distilled spirits after removal from bond in accordance with Regulations 11 (26 CFR Part 189): Provided, That such operation as a taxpaid bottling house does not involve the storage or retention of taxpaid spirits on distillery or warehouse premises. The basic qualifications for the establishment of a taxpaid bottling house shall be in accordance with Part 189 of this chapter, and where the bonded warehouse is located on the premises of a registered distillery or fruit distillery, it is also necessary to follow provisions of Regulations 4 (26 CFR Part 183) or Regulations 5 (26 CFR Part 184), respectively, relative to the filing of amended notice on Form 27–A or $27\frac{1}{2}$, plat and other documents. Where it is proposed to operate an established bottling-in-bond department temporarily as a taxpaid bottling house, it will be necessary to file (a) qualifying documents curtailing the bonded premises to exclude the bottling department, (b) qualifying documents establishing the taxpaid bottling house, and (c) a blanket consent of surety, Form 1533, by the principal and surety, extending the terms of bond, Form 1571, to cover the alternate use of the bottling-in-bond department as a taxpaid bottling house. Such blanket consent may be executed in the following form:

To continue in effect the said bond, notwithstanding the exclusion of the bottling-in-bond department from time to time for use temporarily as a taxpaid bottling house, in accordance with Notice, Form 404, filed by the principal.

The basic qualifying documents having once been filed by the proprietor and approved by the district supervisor, the operating status of the bottling department, that is, for bottling in bond or temporarily for taxpaid bottling, shall be approved by the district supervisor on Form 404, in accordance with § 185.272.

§ 185.271 Approval required before resumption. When it is desired to resume operations of the bottling-in-bond department following the suspension of operations as a taxpaid bottling house, authority therefor must be obtained from the district supervisor on Form 404 before actual resumption of operations.

§ 185.272 Suspension procedure. Where the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse desires to suspend operations of his bottling-in-bond department in order that it may be operated temporarily as a taxpaid bottling house, he must complete the bottling of all spirits, and remove such bottled spirits from the bottling-in-bond department, and upon suspension of the bottling-in-bond department, comply with the following requirements:

(a) Notice, Form 404. File with the district supervisor, Form 404, in triplicate, for authority to suspend bottling-in-bond operations and to use the premises temporarily as a taxpaid bottling house. The form shall be executed in accordance with the instructions printed thereon, and disposed of in accordance with § 185.520.

(b) Communicating doors to be closed. Close and lock, and keep locked, the communicating doors (if any) between the bottling-in-bond department and the storage portion of the warehouse, in accordance with § 185.72.

(c) Locking of outside doors. During the period the bottling house is operated as a taxpaid bottling house, the outside doors of the bottling house shall be locked at night with a Government lock.

§ 185.273 Resumption procedure. Where the premises have been operated temporarily as a taxpaid bottling house and the proprietor desires to resume operations thereof as a bottling-in-bond department of the internal revenue bonded warehouse, he must comply with the following requirements:

(a) Notice, Form 404. File with the district supervisor, Form 404, in triplicate, for authority to suspend taxpaid bottling house operations and resume bottling-in-bond operations. The form shall be executed in accordance with instructions printed thereon, and disposed of in accordance with § 185.317.

(b) Completion of bottling. Complete all bottling of spirits, and remove such spirits from the taxpaid bottling house prior to suspension of operations.

SUBPART L—REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING THE BOTTLING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS UNDER A TRADE NAME

§ 185.280 General. The proprietor must bottle distilled spirits in bond under his real name or the trade name in which the warehouse is operated: Provided, That if the proprietor is also a distiller and has produced and warehoused spirits under a trade name, he may, under such trade name, bottle such spirits, and spirits produced by other distillers, upon compliance with the following requirements:

(a) Application, Form 27–D. Submit to the district supervisor an amended application on Form 27–D, in triplicate, reciting therein the trade name or names, which application must be approved before the spirits may be bottled under such trade name or names.

(b) Permit. The bottler must file an application for amendment of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act basic permit to authorize the bottling and labeling of distilled spirits under the trade name.

(c) Notice, Form 404. Upon approval of the application on Form 27–D, submit Form 404, in triplicate, to the district supervisor, as provided in § 185.936.

SUBPART M—DISCONTINUANCE OF BOTTLING-IN-BOND DEPARTMENT

§ 185.285 Disposition of spirits. Upon permanent discontinuance of a bottling-in-bond department, and prior to the filing of notice thereof on Form 27–D, as prescribed in § 185.288, and Form 404, all spirits on hand must be lawfully removed from the department.

(53 Stat. 343; 26 U. S. C. 2904)

§ 185.286 Disposition of indicia bottles. If there are any indicia bottles on hand, the same will be inventoried by the storekeeper-gauger or other officer designated for the purpose by the district supervisor. The disposition of such bottles will be in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175).

§ 185.287 Disposition of bottled in bond stamps. All unused bottled in bond stamps, if any, belonging to the proprietor at the time of permanent discontinuance of business will be inventoried by denomination, serial number, and quantity, by the storekeeper-gauger or other officer designated by the district supervisor to perform such duty. The officer will deliver such stamps to the proprietor and take his receipt therefor, in duplicate. When delivering the stamps the officer will advise the proprietor that the value of the stamps, if in quantities of the value of $5 or more, may be refunded: Provided, That a claim for such refund on Form 843, establishing the lawful issuance and ownership of the stamps, is filed with the collector of internal revenue who issued the stamps within two years after the date on which such stamps were lawfully issued or that such unused stamps may be destroyed in the presence of a Government officer, and the proprietor thereby relieved from further accountability for the stamps. If the stamps are not surrendered to the collector for refund of their value or are not destroyed, the proprietor must account for the stamps each month by rendering Form 96, properly modified, to the district supervisor. The officer shall make a notation on the receipt as to the disposition made or to be made of the stamps. One copy of the receipt will be delivered to the proprietor and the original will be delivered to the district supervisor. The storekeeper-gauger will make appropriate notation on Form 1606 of the disposition made of the bottled in bond stamps (if any) on hand at the time of permanent discontinuance of business by the proprietor.

§ 185.288 Notice, Form 27–D. When all spirits, indicia bottles, and strip stamps have been lawfully disposed of, the proprietor shall file Form 27–D, in triplicate, with the district supervisor, stating the purpose of the filing thereof to be "Permanent discontinuance of bottling-in-bond department." The district supervisor will forward the original of Form 27–D to the Commissioner, with a copy of the report of the Government officer, reflecting compliance with the provisions of this part.

§ 185.289 Notice, Form 404. The proprietor must submit with the Form 27–D required by § 185.288, notice on Form 404, in triplicate, stating the purpose of the filing thereof to be "Permanent discontinuance of bottling-in-bond department."

(53 Stat. 343; 26 U. S. C. 2904)

SUBPART N—DISCONTINUANCE OF WAREHOUSE

§ 185.295 Discontinuance by Commissioner. Whenever, in the opinion of the Commissioner, any internal revenue bonded warehouse is unsafe or unfit for use, or the spirits therein are liable to loss or great wastage, he may discontinue such warehouse and require the spirits therein to be transferred to such other warehouse as he may designate, and within such time as he may prescribe. Such transfer shall be made under the supervision of the district supervisor, or of such other officer as may be designated by the Commissioner, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the owner of the spirits. Whenever the owner of the spirits fails to make such transfer within the time prescribed, or pay the just and proper expense of such transfer, as ascertained and determined by the Commissioner, such spirits may be seized and sold by the collector in the same manner as goods are sold upon distraint for taxes, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the payment of the taxes due thereon and the cost and expense of such sale and removal, and the balance paid over to the owner of the spirits.

§ 185.296 Discontinuance by proprietor. If the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse desires to discontinue the warehouse after all spirits deposited therein have been lawfully removed therefrom, he will file Form 27–D, in triplicate, with the district supervisor, stating therein the purpose of the form to be "Discontinuance of warehouse," and giving the date the discontinuance is to be effective. The proprietor will furnish in connection with such form a statement as to whether there are any spirits in transit to the warehouse and whether there are any outstanding approved applications, Form 236, for the transfer to the warehouse of spirits which have not yet been released from the distillery or bonded warehouse from which they were to be withdrawn, and will secure the return of all such applications to the district supervisor for cancellation.

SUBPART O—ACTION BY DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

ORIGINAL ESTABLISHMENT

§ 185.300 Examination of qualifying documents. Upon receipt of application, plat, plans, transportation and warehousing bond, and other documents required by this part of persons desiring to establish an internal revenue bonded warehouse, the district supervisor will examine the same to determine whether they have been properly executed and whether they reflect compliance with the requirements of the law and this part. Where any required document has not been filed, or where errors or discrepancies are found in those filed, or where the documents filed do not reflect compliance with this part, action thereon will be held in abeyance until the omission, or error or discrepancy, has been rectified, and there has been full compliance with all requirements.

§ 185.301 Inspection of premises. Where the required documents have been filed in proper form, the district supervisor will assign an inspector to examine the premises, buildings, apparatus, and equipment, to determine whether they conform to the description thereof in the application, plat, and plans, and whether the construction and measures of protection afforded meet the requirements of the law and regulations in this part. The inspector will observe particularly the manner in which the buildings or rooms constituting the warehouse are separated from each other and from other premises, means of communication, ingress and egress, adequacy of protection afforded windows, doors, and other openings, construction of apparatus and equipment, and the suitability of the gauging facilities and of the Government office. Where the inspection discloses minor irregularities in the qualifying documents or in the construction, the inspector will at the time of the discovery of such irregularities direct the attention of the proprietor to the same in order that the proprietor may correct the defects before completion of the inspection. Upon completion of the inspection, a report thereof will be submitted to the district supervisor.

§ 185.302 Examination of tanks. The district supervisor will, in every case, require an officer to examine carefully each tank to see that it is constructed in strict compliance with this part. The officer will test the accuracy of the scales or measuring devices required to be provided for the tanks, and if it is found that the same are not strictly accurate, or if any portion of the equipment does not conform to the requirements of this part, he will not recommend approval of the tanks until the proper changes are made.

§ 185.304 Approval of tanks. When the officer who is required to examine the tanks is satisfied that the same and the attachments thereto are properly constructed, and that the scales or measuring devices are accurate, he will so report to the district supervisor, in writing, and will securely attach to each bottling tank a certificate on Form 244. No tank or attachment thereto shall be used until the same has been approved and, in the case of a bottling tank, a certificate has been attached.

§ 185.305 Report of inspection. The report of inspection shall describe separately all irregularities and discrepancies found during the course of inspection, and shall include a complete statement describing all unusual or special conditions. The construction of the ground or first floor of the warehouse, including the materials used, shall be described, and particularly whether the construction is such as would permit removal and replacement of portions of the floor without detection. Where irregularities are corrected during the inspection, the report will indicate the corrections so made. The report need not set out in detail each description as set forth in the application, plat and plans. The description of buildings and equipment in the report should be general and brief. However, construction, equipment, signs, etc., which are not in conformity with law and the regulations in this part will be completely described. If there are any pipe lines or other connections or openings between the warehouse premises and other premises, the same shall be described in detail. There shall also be included in the report information as to whether the methods of storage to be employed are such as will permit ready inspection and examination of packages and other containers of spirits, and where the warehouse is not situated on or contiguous to distillery premises, all pertinent facts respecting suitability of location and adequacy of the capacity and transportation facilities will be set forth.

§ 185.306 Inaccurate documents. Where the district supervisor's examination, or the inspector's report, discloses discrepancies in the qualifying documents, the inaccurate or incomplete documents will be returned to the proprietor for correction. A record will be kept of all bonds so returned.

§ 185.307 Defective construction. Where it is found that the construction of the warehouse or its equipment does not conform to the requirements of the law and this part, the district supervisor will inform the proprietor concerning the defects, and further action will be held in abeyance pending correction thereof.

§ 185.308 Law violation record. Before approving any application for the establishment of an internal revenue bonded warehouse, the district supervisor will make such inquiry or investigation as may be deemed necessary to ascertain whether the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association submitting the same, or any person owning, controlling, or actively participating in the management of the business, has been convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction of (a) any fraudulent noncompliance with any provision of any law of the United States if such provision related to internal-revenue or customs taxation of distilled spirits, wines, or fermented malt liquors, or if such an offense shall have been compromised with the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association upon payment of penalties or otherwise, or (b) any felony under a law of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or the United States, prohibiting the manufacture, sale, importation, or transportation of distilled spirits, wine, fermented malt liquors or other intoxicating liquor. Where record is found of the conviction or compromise of such offense, the district supervisor may disapprove the application upon the basis of his findings: Provided, That if an application is disapproved the applicant may appeal to the Commissioner.

§ 185.309 Other causes for disapproval. The district supervisor will not approve any application for the establishment of an internal revenue bonded warehouse unless (a) the capacity of the warehouse is commensurate with the prospective needs of the area or locality in which it is situated and in any event not less than 5,000 barrels, less any equivalent thereof in tank or case storage, (b) the location is suitable, (c) the transportation facilities are adequate, (d) the design and construction of the warehouse are such as to insure economical supervision by Government officers, and (e) the prospective volume of spirits that will be received, stored, withdrawn, and bottled at the warehouse is sufficient to warrant the establishment of the warehouse and the expense of Government supervision: Provided, That these provisions shall not be applicable where the warehouse is an original warehouse to be operated by the distiller (not including lessee distillers) on or contiguous to the distillery premises, or is a second warehouse which the distiller desires to operate on premises contiguous to or near such original warehouse on account of lack of storage space in the original warehouse and the impracticability of expanding such warehouse. In any case where the warehouse has a bottling-in-bond department and the applicant is not entitled to a permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, the district supervisor will, upon disapproval of the permit application, return all copies of the qualifying documents to the applicant without action thereon or reference to the Commissioner.

§ 185.310 Approval of qualifying documents. The district supervisor is authorized to approve all applications (except by the United States or governmental agency thereof), bonds, consents of surety, and other qualifying documents required by this part. If the district supervisor finds, upon examination of the inspection report and the qualifying documents, that the person seeking to establish an internal revenue bonded warehouse has complied in all respects with the requirements of the law and this part, and that the application and other qualifying documents may properly be approved under §§ 185.308 and 185.309, he will assign a registry number in accordance with § 185.311, note his approval on all copies of the application, the transportation and warehousing bond, and on all copies of the plat and plans, and shall dispose of the qualifying documents and inspectors' reports in accordance with § 185.313. If the warehouse has a bottling-in-bond department, the issuance of a permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act should be withheld pending approval of the application, bond, and other qualifying documents required by the internal revenue laws and this part.

§ 185.311 Registry numbers. Internal revenue bonded warehouses will be numbered serially in the order of their establishment. A separate series will be used for each State. Registry numbers heretofore assigned will be retained and new warehouses will be assigned numbers in sequence thereto. Registry numbers previously assigned to discontinued warehouses will not be reassigned to other warehouses. The same registry number will be continued whenever there is a change of proprietorship.

§ 185.312 Disapproval of qualifying documents. If the district supervisor finds that the applicant has not complied in all respects with the requirements of the law and this part, or that the application should be disapproved pursuant to § 185.308 or § 185.309, he will note his disapproval on the application, and will dispose of all qualifying documents in accordance with § 185.313.

§ 185.313 Disposition of qualifying documents. When the district supervisor approves the qualifying documents, he will forward to the applicant one copy of the documents with the original of the basic permit issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, forward to the Commissioner the originals of the qualifying documents and a copy of the basic permit issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, together with copies of inspection reports, and retain one copy of the qualifying documents for the file of the applicant. If the qualifying documents are disapproved, the district supervisor shall return to the applicant by registered mail one copy of the disapproved application, together with all copies of the qualifying documents, and all copies of the bond without action thereon. The district supervisor shall forward one copy of the disapproved application to the Commissioner and will advise him fully respecting the disapproval thereof. He shall retain the remaining papers in his file. If the applicant is not entitled to a basic permit, the district supervisor will, upon disapproval of the application therefor, return all copies of the qualifying documents to the applicant without action thereon.

§ 185.314 Notice of penal sum of bond. The district supervisor will inform the storekeeper-gauger in charge of each internal revenue bonded warehouse in his district of the penal sum of the approved transportation and warehousing bond. The district supervisor will advise the storekeeper-gauger currently of any change in the penal sum of such bond.

CHANGES SUBSEQUENT TO ORIGINAL ESTABLISHMENT

§ 185.315 Procedure applicable. The provisions of §§ 185.300 to 185.314 respecting the action required of district supervisors in connection with the original establishment of internal revenue bonded warehouses will be followed, to the extent applicable, where there is a change in the name of the proprietor, or in the proprietorship, location, premises, construction, apparatus, and equipment of the warehouse, or in the title to the warehouse property, or where consents of surety or superseding or additional bonds are submitted: Provided, That where the premises are extended or curtailed to provide for alternate operation of the bottling-in-bond department as a taxpaid bottling house, the procedure prescribed in §§ 185.270 to 185.272 will be followed.

§ 185.316 Application covering changes. Where an application covering changes in warehouse buildings or apparatus or equipment is approved by the district supervisor, he will retain one copy of the application and forward one copy to the proprietor and one copy to the Commissioner, and when reports covering changes in apparatus and equipment are received from Government officers in accordance with § 185.262, he will retain one copy and promptly forward one copy to the Commissioner. Similar disposition will be made of reports received from the proprietor covering emergency repairs of apparatus and equipment.

§ 185.317 Inspection. Upon receipt of Form 27–D for the discontinuance of an internal revenue bonded warehouse, accompanied by a statement of the proprietor showing that there are no spirits in transit to the warehouse and no outstanding approved applications, Form 236, for the transfer of spirits to the warehouse, the district supervisor will cause an inspection to be made of the warehouse and the storekeeper-gauger's records to determine whether all spirits deposited in the warehouse have been withdrawn and properly accounted for. Likewise, where the warehouse is to be discontinued by the Commissioner, as provided in § 185.295, and all spirits in transit to the warehouse have been received and all spirits deposited therein have been removed, the district supervisor will cause an inspection of the storekeeper-gauger's records to be made to determine whether all spirits deposited in the warehouse have been properly accounted for.

§ 185.318 Removal of Government property. When all spirits have been withdrawn from an internal revenue bonded warehouse which is to be discontinued, the district supervisor will cause the removal from the warehouse of all Government locks, keys, seals, gauging instruments, records, and other Government property. The property specified will be forwarded to the office of the district supervisor as surplus property, unless the district supervisor should deem the transfer of the property, or a part thereof, to some other plant under his jurisdiction to be advisable and proper, in which event he will direct such disposition to be made thereof. Entry Forms 1520, 1619, and 1620 covering the deposit of spirits in the warehouse will be so stored that they may be referred to when necessary.

§ 185.319 Storekeeper-gauger's report. Upon completion of the inspection of the warehouse and Government records and the removal of Government property, the storekeeper-gauger or other Government officer charged with such duty will submit a report to the district supervisor.

§ 185.320 District supervisor's report. If the district supervisor finds, upon receipt of the report from the storekeeper-gauger or other Government officer, that all spirits deposited in the warehouse have been withdrawn and properly accounted for, he will note his approval on all copies of Form 27–D and forward the original, together with a copy of the Government officer's report, to the Commissioner and return a copy to the warehouseman. Where discontinuance of the warehouse was ordered by the Commissioner, the district supervisor will forward to the Commissioner, a complete report of the removal of the spirits from the warehouse, together with a copy of the Government officer's report of the inspection of the warehouseman's and storekeeper-gauger's records and the removal of the Government property from the warehouse.

SUBPART P—ACTION BY COMMISSIONER

§ 185.330 Review of documents. The Commissioner will review the action of the district supervisor relating to the original establishment of an internal revenue bonded warehouse, or change in the name of the proprietor, or in the proprietorship, location, premises, construction, apparatus, and equipment of the warehouse. If it is found that the action is not in conformity with the requirements of law and the provisions in this part, the Commissioner will advise the district supervisor as to the necessary action to be taken.

SUBPART Q—TERMINATION OF BONDS

§ 185.335 Transportation and warehousing bonds. Transportation and warehousing bonds, Form 1571, may be terminated as to liability (a) for spirits consigned to the internal revenue bonded warehouse after a specified future date, pursuant to application by the surety as provided in § 185.340, (b) for transactions subsequent to the effective date of an approved superseding bond, or (c) for future transactions upon discontinuance of business by the principal after withdrawal of all spirits from the warehouse.

§ 185.336 Direct export bonds. Bonds covering a specific lot of distilled spirits withdrawn for direct export, Form 547, will be terminated by the district supervisor by marking the bond "Canceled," followed by the date of cancellation, upon receipt of evidence of the landing of the spirits in a foreign country or satisfactory proof of loss at sea: Provided, That where there is a deficiency, the bond will not be canceled by the district supervisor until liability for the deficiency has been terminated. Continuing bonds covering spirits withdrawn from time to time for direct exportation, Form 657, will be similarly terminated by the district supervisor when no further withdrawals are to be made thereunder: Provided, That the account kept with the bond in accordance with § 185.793 shows that there are no outstanding charges.

§ 185.337 Transportation for export bonds. Bonds covering a specific lot of distilled spirits withdrawn for transportation for export, Form 548, will be terminated by the district supervisor by marking the bond "Canceled," followed by the date of cancellation, upon receipt of Form 206 from the collector of customs showing the clearance of the spirits: Provided, That where there is a loss in transit, the bond will not be canceled until the liability for the loss has been terminated. Continuing bonds for distilled spirits withdrawn from time to time for transportation for export, Form 658, will be similarly terminated by the district supervisor where no further withdrawals are to be made thereunder: Provided, That the account kept with the bond in accordance with § 185.793 shows that there are no outstanding charges.

§ 185.338 Bonds covering transportation to manufacturing warehouses. Bonds covering a specific lot of distilled spirits withdrawn for transportation to a customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, Form 643, will be terminated by the district supervisor by marking the bond "Canceled," followed by the date of cancellation, upon receipt from the collector of customs of Form 3923 showing the deposit of the spirits in the customs manufacturing bonded warehouse: Provided, That where there is a loss in transit the bond will not be canceled until the liability for the loss has been terminated. Continuing bonds covering spirits withdrawn from time to time for transportation to customs manufacturing bonded warehouses, Form 1618, will be similarly terminated by the district supervisor where no further withdrawals are to be made thereunder: Provided, That the account kept with the bond in accordance with § 185.828 shows that there are no outstanding charges.

§ 185.339 Bonds covering withdrawals for use of United States. Bonds covering the withdrawal of distilled spirits for the use of the United States, Form 544, may be terminated by the district supervisor upon receipt of a properly executed certificate on Form 545, showing receipt of the spirits by the Government representative to whom the same were delivered: Provided, That where there is a deficiency the bond will not be released until the liability for the deficiency has been terminated.

§ 185.340 Application of the surety for relief from bond. A surety on any bond required by this part may at any time in writing notify the principal and the district supervisor in whose office the bond is on file that he desires, after a date named, which shall be at least 60 days after the date of notification, to be relieved of liability under said bond. The notice shall be executed in triplicate by the surety, who shall deliver one copy to the principal and the other two to the district supervisor, who will retain one copy and transmit the remaining copy to the Commissioner. This notice may not be given by an agent of the surety unless it is accompanied by a power of attorney duly executed by the surety authorizing him to give such notice or by a verified statement that such power of attorney is on file with the Department. The surety must also file with the district supervisor an acknowledgment or other proof of service of such notice on the principal. If the notice is not thereafter in writing withdrawn the rights of the principal as supported by said bond shall be terminated, except as hereinafter provided, on the date named in the notice, and the surety shall be relieved (a) in the case of a transportation and warehousing bond, Form 1571, from liability for spirits transferred or consigned to the internal revenue bonded warehouse wholly subsequent to the date named in the notice, or (b) in the case of direct export bonds, Forms 547 and 657, transportation for export bonds, Forms 548 and 658, bonds covering transportation to customs manufacturing bonded warehouses, Forms 643 and 1618, or bonds for the withdrawal of spirits for the use of the United States, Form 544, from liability for distilled spirits withdrawn for direct exportation, transportation for export, transportation to customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, or for the use of the United States, as the case may be, wholly subsequent to the date named in the notice. If the principal files a valid superseding bond on Form 1571, prior to the date named in the surety's notice, the surety shall also be relieved from liability for spirits on hand or in transit to the internal revenue bonded warehouse on the effective date of the superseding bond. If the principal fails to file a superseding bond, the surety, notwithstanding his release from liability as specified in condition (a) above, shall continue to remain liable under the bond for all spirits on hand or in transit to the internal revenue bonded warehouse on said date, until such spirits have been lawfully disposed of or a new bond has been filed by the principal covering the same. Liability under bonds on Forms 544, 547, 548, 643, 657, 658, and 1618 for spirits removed thereunder prior to the date named in the surety's notice shall continue until such spirits are properly accounted for, regardless of whether the principal files a superseding bond. Where the principal fails to file such superseding bond, the district supervisor will, by letter, notify the surety of such fact and of his continued liability under the bond for spirits on hand or in transit to the internal revenue bonded warehouse on said date. The district supervisor will also at such time notify the principal that no more spirits may be transferred or consigned to the internal revenue bonded warehouse, until a valid bond is filed. The district supervisor will forward a copy of each such letter to the Commissioner.

§ 185.341 Application for notice of termination. Where the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse has filed a proper superseding bond in lieu of a previously filed transportation and warehousing bond, Form 1571, or has discontinued the business of warehousing distilled spirits after withdrawal of all spirits from the warehouse, or where, in the case of direct export bonds, transportation for export bonds, bonds covering transportation to customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, or bonds covering withdrawals of distilled spirits for use of the United States, there has been compliance with the provisions of § 185.336, 185.337, 185.338, or 185.339, as the case may be, and the principal or surety desires to secure notice of the termination of the bond for which the principal no longer has any use, application therefor in writing will be made to the district supervisor. The application will be made in duplicate where it is desired to secure the issuance of notices of the termination of transportation and warehousing bonds.

§ 185.342 Action on application for notice of termination. When an application for the issuance of notice of the termination of a transportation and warehousing bond, as to liability for future transactions, is filed with the district supervisor in accordance with the provisions of § 185.341, the district supervisor will make a complete examination of the records to determine whether there is any liability outstanding against the bond. He will also ascertain from the collector of internal revenue whether there are any outstanding, unpaid assessments or demands for taxes on spirits warehoused or transported, as the case may be, under the bond. If it is found that spirits warehoused or transported, under the bond have not been accounted for, or that outstanding assessments or demands for payment of taxes chargeable against the bond have not been paid or otherwise settled, the district supervisor will disapprove the application, unless the liability is settled. When an application for notice of the termination of a direct export bond, transportation for export bond, or bond covering the transportation of spirits to a customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, or bond covering withdrawals for use of the United States, is filed with the district supervisor, he will examine his records to determine whether the required evidence of foreign landing or loss at sea, or clearance, or deposit in the manufacturing warehouse, or delivery to the Government representative, as the case may be, of the spirits withdrawn under the bond has been filed, and if there were deficiencies, whether liability for the deficiencies has been terminated. Where a bond was previously marked "Canceled," in accordance with § 185.336, 185.337, or 185.338, no further examination of records will be necessary.

§ 185.343 Notice of termination. Upon cancellation of a transportation and warehousing bond, Form 1571, as to liability for future transactions, the district supervisor will execute a notice of termination on Form 1490 where a superseding bond has been approved, or a notice of release on Form 1491 where the principal has discontinued business and removed all the spirits from the warehouse, as the case may be, in quadruplicate (in quintuplicate if there are two sureties), and will forward the original together with one copy of the application to the Commissioner, one copy to each obligor on the bond, and retain one copy on file with the bond to which it relates. Where an application for the issuance of notice of the termination of a direct export bond, transportation for export bond, bond covering transportation to a customs manufacturing warehouse, or bond covering withdrawals for use of the United States, has been filed with the district supervisor, and he has found that there has been compliance with the provisions of § 185.336, 185.337, 185.338, or 185.339, as the case may be, he will issue Form 1491 as provided in this section.

§ 185.344 Release of collateral. The release of collateral pledged and deposited with the United States to support bonds required in this part will be in accordance with the provisions of Department Circular 154, revised (31 CFR Part 225), subject to the conditions governing the issuance of notices on Forms 1490 and 1491 of the termination of such bonds. Upon approval of an application for the issuance of notice of the termination of a transportation and warehousing bond supported by collateral security, the district supervisor will fix the date or dates on which a part or all of the security may be released. In fixing such date, which ordinarily will be not less than six months from the date of determination that there is no outstanding liability against the bond, the district supervisor will satisfy himself that the interests of the Government will not be jeopardized. Collateral pledged and deposited to support a transportation and warehousing bond, will not be released by the district supervisor until liability under the bond has been terminated. At any time prior to the release of such collateral security, the district supervisor may, in his discretion, and for proper cause, further extend the date of release of the security for such additional length of time as in his judgment may be appropriate. Collateral pledged and deposited to support a direct export bond, transportation for export bond, bond covering transportation to customs manufacturing warehouse, or bond covering withdrawals for use of the United States, will ordinarily be released by the district supervisor upon issuance of notice of release of the bond, Form 1491.

SUBPART R—CONTROL, CUSTODY AND SUPERVISION

§ 185.350 Control of warehouse. The law provides that every internal revenue bonded warehouse shall be under the control of the district supervisor of the Alcohol Tax Unit district in which the warehouse is located.

§ 185.351 Assignment of storekeeper-gaugers. When an internal revenue bonded warehouse is established, the district supervisor will assign one or more storekeeper-gaugers to the warehouse. In determining the number of storekeeper-gaugers to be assigned to a bonded warehouse the district supervisor will consider the number and size of the rooms or building comprising the warehouse, the number of packages of spirits to be received and removed daily, whether spirits are to be bottled in bond at such warehouse, whether a taxpaid bottling house is to be operated in connection with the warehouse, and whether the warehouse is located on, or is contiguous or adjacent to, the premises of a distillery.

§ 185.352 Examination of warehouse. Storekeeper-gaugers will, upon assignment to a bonded warehouse, examine the warehouse and its equipment and will determine that the doors, windows, and other openings are properly protected and equipped for locking; that the inlets, outlets, and other necessary openings of all tanks for spirits and valves in pipe lines, if any, are properly equipped for locking; and that all pipe line connections conform to this part. The storekeeper-gauger will apply Government locks and seals wherever the same are required.

§ 185.353 Custody of warehouse. The law provides that each internal revenue bonded warehouse shall be in the charge of a storekeeper-gauger and that every such warehouse shall be in the joint custody of the storekeeper-gauger and the proprietor thereof, and kept securely locked, and shall at no time be unlocked or opened, or remain open, except in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger or other person who may be designated to act for him. The keys to all Government locks shall remain at all times in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger, except that where no storekeeper-gauger is regularly assigned to the warehouse such keys shall remain in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger at the distillery having charge of the warehouse, or in the custody of the district supervisor or other person designated by him. The storekeeper-gauger having custody of the keys will not at any time permit them to go into the possession of any other person, except the district supervisor or an officer authorized by the district supervisor or the Commissioner to receive them.

§ 185.354 Warehouse to be kept locked. The outside doors of the warehouse shall be locked with Government locks and kept locked at all times except when spirits are being entered into or removed from the warehouse or where it is necessary for the proprietor to have access to the warehouse for the purpose of repairing cooperage or other legitimate purposes. The doors of the bottling-in-bond department shall be locked with Government locks and kept locked at all times except when spirits are being bottled or are being entered into or removed therefrom or where it is necessary for the proprietor to have access to the bottling-in-bond department for other legitimate purposes. The bottling-in-bond department must be locked at night in the usual way, regardless of whether spirits are stored therein. If the bottling-in-bond department is used exclusively for bottling distilled spirits in bond, the doors (if any) in the partition or wall separating the bottling-in-bond department from the storage portion of the warehouse must be kept locked on the storage side of the warehouse except while actually being used for the transfer of spirits as provided in § 185.72. All windows and shutters shall be closed and securely fastened by the proprietor when business is finished for the day. The storekeeper-gauger will open and close the Government locks on doors and on any shutters that may be equipped with Government locks. Neither the warehouse nor the bottling-in-bond department therein shall be open on Sunday or at night or at any time other than regular business hours except in cases of emergency and then only with the approval of the district supervisor: Provided, That where the spirits are in imminent danger of loss by fire, flood or other casualty, and it is impracticable to first obtain authorization from the district supervisor for the opening of the warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger may, upon the request of the proprietor, open the warehouse for the purpose of preventing loss of the spirits, but a report thereof must be made immediately, by telephone or telegraph where possible, to the district supervisor: And provided further, That where the spirits are in imminent danger of loss by fire, and it is impracticable to first communicate with the district supervisor or the storekeeper-gauger, city, county, and State fire officers may break open the warehouse for the purpose of preventing loss of the spirits, but a similar report thereof must be made immediately to the district supervisor.

§ 185.355 Admittance of proprietor. The proprietor shall upon request at reasonable times have admittance, in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger, to the warehouse and the spirits deposited therein, and may, in conjunction with the storekeeper-gauger, refuse admittance to any person not a revenue officer. The proprietor may have access to the spirits in bond at any reasonable time in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger for the purpose of repairing cooperage, or to take any necessary measures to prevent waste by leakage or for other legitimate purposes.

§ 185.356 Operations requiring immediate supervision. The immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger is required whenever (a) spirits are entered into or withdrawn from the warehouse; (b) spirits are transferred from one building to another; (c) spirits are bottled in bond; (d) spirits are drawn from tanks into packages or dumped from packages into gauge tanks; (e) a change of package is made for exportation, or to prevent loss by leakage, or for other authorized purposes; (f) samples of spirits are obtained; (g) spirits in distiller's original packages or in tanks are reduced in proof; (h) brandy-blending operations are being conducted; (i) packages of spirits on deposit in an internal revenue bonded warehouse are gauged preparatory to immediate sealing of the bungs and when the bungs of such packages are sealed; (j) otherwise required in this part; or (k) spirits in the warehouse are by reason of circumstances exposed to loss.

Subpart S—Deposit of Spirits in Warehouse

Deposit in Storage Tanks

§ 185.365 In warehouse on distillery premises. Distilled spirits of 160 degrees of proof or more may be received by pipe line or in tank cars from a registered distillery and brandy of any proof may be received by pipe line or in tank cars from a fruit distillery for deposit in storage tanks in the internal revenue bonded warehouse located on distillery premises where produced: Provided, That (a) rum of not less than 150 degrees of proof intended for denaturation may be received by pipe line from a registered distillery for deposit in storage tanks; and (b) gin of any proof may be received by pipe line from a registered distillery and deposited in storage tanks.

§ 185.366 In warehouse contiguous to distillery premises. Distilled spirits (other than spirits designated for fortification or rum designated for denaturation) of 160 degrees of proof or more may be received by pipe line or in tank cars from a registered distillery or a fruit distillery for deposit in storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located contiguous to the distillery premises where produced: Provided, That gin of any proof may be received by pipe line from a registered distillery for deposit in storage tanks.

§ 185.367 In any warehouse. Distilled spirits of 160 degrees of proof or more received in tank cars from a registered distillery or a fruit distillery, or from storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse may be deposited in storage tanks in any internal revenue bonded warehouse.

§ 185.368 Supervision of pipe line transfers. The transfer of spirits by pipe line from the distillery receiving cisterns to storage tanks in a bonded warehouse will be under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the distillery receiving cisterns and the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse, if one is assigned to the warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger supervising the deposit will see that the outlet and all other openings, except the inlet, are closed and locked when spirits are being deposited; that the inlet and all other openings, except the outlet, are closed and locked when spirits are being removed from such tanks; and that the valves in the pipe line are so adjusted by the proprietor as to properly control the flow of spirits. When the spirits have been deposited in the tanks in the bonded warehouse, the inlet will be immediately closed by the proprietor and locked by the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will at such time note the number of the storage tank on the gauge report, Form 1520, covering the deposit of the spirits, and except where such spirits were gauged in the distillery immediately prior to transfer by pipe line, he will make an immediate gauge and prepare a gauge report on Form 1520 covering the deposit of the spirits. The openings of warehouse tanks containing spirits, and the valves in pipe lines leading to and from such tanks, shall be kept closed and locked at all times, except when it is necessary to open such tanks for inspection or gauging purposes, or for transfer of the spirits. Whenever spirits are transferred into or out of warehouse tanks, the storekeeper-gauger will open and close the locks, but it shall be the duty of the proprietor to manipulate the stopcocks or valves controlling the flow of the spirits.

§ 185.369 Tank car transfers for deposit in storage tanks. Where spirits received by tank car are to be deposited in storage tanks in a bonded warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will carefully examine the tank car for evidence of loss and immediately upon transfer into the warehouse he will gauge the spirits and enter the details of gauge on the Form 1520 covering the transfer. The serial number of the storage tank and the quantity deposited therein will be entered on the form. If the spirits are deposited in more than one storage tank, a separate Form 1520 will be prepared covering the deposit in each additional tank. Where the gauge discloses a loss or shortage, he will proceed as required by § 185.486. The storekeeper-gauger will see that the openings of the tanks and valves of the pipe lines are controlled and adjusted as provided in § 185.368 relating to pipe line transfers.

§ 185.370 Custody of keys. The keys to all Government locks on valves in pipelines used for conveying spirits from the distillery receiving cisterns to warehouse storage tanks shall remain at all times in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the distillery receiving cisterns, except that if a storekeeper-gauger is exclusively assigned to the bonded warehouse, such storekeeper-gauger shall have custody of the keys to locks within the warehouse.

§ 185.371 Marking of tanks. When spirits are deposited in warehouse storage tanks the storekeeper-gauger shall plainly and legibly mark on each tank the kind of spirits deposited therein, the date of the entry for deposit, and the proof at which the spirits were distilled ("Distilled 190 Proof or over," or "Distilled between 160 and 190 Proof," as the case may be). Such marks shall be completely erased by the storekeeper-gauger each time the tank is emptied. Where brandy or fruit spirits for the fortification of wine, or rum of not less than 150 degrees of proof for denaturation, or spirits of not less than 180 degrees of proof intended for exportation in tank cars, are transferred into warehouse storage tanks, the warehouseman shall plainly and legibly stencil upon such tanks the words "For Fortification of Wine," "For Denaturation," or "For Exportation," respectively, in addition to the other markings required by this part.

§ 185.372 Prohibited mingling in storage tanks. Spirits which were produced from different materials, or by two or more distillers, or at two or more distilleries, or during different distilling seasons and years, or which differ in kind according to the standards of identity established under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, or which are otherwise heterogeneous, may not be mingled in storage tanks.

(53 Stat. 335 as amended, 391; 26 U. S. C. 2883, 3254; sec. 205, 49 Stat. 981 as amended; 27 U. S. C. 205)

§ 185.373 Limitation on deposits in same tank. When the drawing of spirits from a warehouse gauging tank has begun, no further deposit of spirits therein will be permitted until the tank has been completely emptied. It will not be necessary to empty a warehouse storage tank before making additional deposits of spirits therein, provided the spirits so mingled meet the requirements of § 185.372. However, spirits must not be run into and drawn from the same tank simultaneously. If, in order to utilize a large storage tank, a proprietor desires to transfer the spirits remaining therein to a smaller tank, such transfer may be made upon application to the storekeeper-gauger in charge. The transfer from one storage tank to another must be made under the immediate supervision of a storekeeper-gauger who will note the number of the storage tank on the Form 1520 covering the deposit of the spirits in the warehouse.

Spirits Received in Casks or Other Approved Containers

§ 185.374 From distillery on same or contiguous premises. Where spirits are received in packages for deposit from a distillery on the same or contiguous premises, the packages will be transferred from the distillery cistern room or fruit distillery, as the case may be, to the warehouse under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the cistern room or fruit distillery and the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse.

§ 185.375 From distillery not on the same or contiguous premises or from another warehouse. When spirits are received from a distillery not on the same or contiguous premises or from another internal revenue bonded warehouse for deposit, the storekeeper-gauger will examine and weigh each package and enter the weight on Form 1520 or Form 1619. Where material discrepancies between shipping and receiving weights are found or where containers bear evidence of having sustained loss in transit the storekeeper-gauger will follow the procedure prescribed in § 185.376. The procedure prescribed in § 185.377 will be followed as to spirits received in tank cars.

§ 185.376 Examination of packages. Where packages of spirits are received bearing evidence of having sustained unusual losses in transit, or where material discrepancies are found by the comparison of shipping weight with the weight ascertained at the receiving warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will observe the following procedure:

(a) Examine the condition of the cooperage of each such package.

(b) Make a gauge of each such package and enter in the "Receiving gauge" columns of the Form 1520 or 1619, as the case may be, the gross weight and proof of each package and in the loss column enter the difference in weight between the amount shipped and the amount received. The storekeeper-gauger will also note on the reverse of the Forms 1520 or 1619 the condition of the cooperage and whether in his opinion the loss was occasioned by theft, accident or other determinable cause. In the event the loss sustained from any package appears to have been the result of theft, such package will be detained and reported to the district supervisor in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 185.486.

§ 185.377 Examination of tank car. The storekeeper-gauger will carefully examine each tank car of spirits upon its arrival at the warehouse for evidence of loss and will determine if the seals applied at the shipping premises are intact. Unless the spirits are to be immediately taxpaid on the filling gauge, the spirits will be gauged in a gauging tank or by volumetric measurement in the tank car and reported on Form 1520 covering the transfer. If the spirits are gauged in a gauging tank, they will be immediately returned to the tank car. After gauging, the car will be sealed pending taxpayment or transfer in bond. Where it is determined that the tank car bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, the tank car will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496.

§ 185.378 Examination and deposit of cases. Where spirits bottled in bond are received from another bonded warehouse for deposit, the storekeeper-gauger will carefully examine the shipment upon its arrival and, where the cases bear evidence of having sustained losses, he will note the loss on Form 1620. In the event any of the cases in a shipment bear evidence of loss by theft, such cases will be detained and reported to the district supervisor in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 185.486.

gauger at the receiving warehouse will follow the procedure prescribed by § 185.707 for transfers between warehouses in the same district and § 185.712 for transfers between warehouses in different districts.

SUFFICIENCY OF BOND

§ 185.380 Storekeeper-gauger to be informed. Where spirits are received for deposit from a distillery operated by the proprietor of the warehouse on the same or contiguous premises, and the penal sum of the transportation and warehousing bond is less than the maximum of $200,000, as shown by the record furnished by the district supervisor pursuant to § 185.314, the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse will see that the tax liability on the quantity of spirits deposited in the warehouse, plus the tax liability on the spirits represented by all outstanding approved Forms 236 (§§ 185.694 and 185.709) is within the limits of the penal sum of the bond. Such information shall also be furnished where brandies are blended under the provisions of § 2801 (e) (5), I. R. C. (when the penal sum of the bond is less than the maximum), and the storekeeper-gauger shall see that the penal sum of the bond is sufficient to cover the additional tax of 30 cents a proof gallon on all blended brandy on hand or in transit to the warehouse at any one time as well as the tax under § 2800 (a) (1), I. R. C., on all brandy on hand at any one time.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 185.381 Storekeeper-gauger's copies of deposit forms. All copies of Forms 236, 1520, 1619 and 1620, covering the deposit of spirits in internal revenue bonded warehouses, and all copies of Forms 1685 and 1520 covering the blending of brandy and the return thereof to the storage portion of the warehouse, shall be filed by the storekeeper-gauger as permanent records, in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Subpart UU of this part.

SUBPART T—STORAGE OF DISTILLED SPIRITS IN WAREHOUSE

§ 185.390 Kinds of containers. Distilled spirits may be stored in an internal revenue bonded warehouse:

(a) In the distiller's original packages in which received, including, in the case of spirits intended for temporary storage pending exportation, wooden packages containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each;

(b) In cases, where spirits are bottled in bond;

(c) In casks, barrels, or similar wooden packages, or in drums or similar metal packages, having a capacity of not less than 10 wine gallons each, filled from warehouse storage tanks or into which the contents of the distiller's original packages were transferred in accordance with §§ 185.397 to 185.402;

(d) In storage tanks (1) in any warehouse if the spirits are 160 degrees or more of proof; or (2) in a warehouse located on the premises of the distillery where the spirits were produced and such spirits are rum of not less than 150 degrees of proof received by pipeline and are intended for denaturation; or (3) in a warehouse located on the premises of a fruit distillery where the spirits were produced; or (4) in a warehouse located on or contiguous to the premises of the distillery where the spirits were produced and the spirits are gin of any proof received by pipeline;

METHOD OF STORAGE

§ 185.391 Containers to be accessible. Packages of distilled spirits deposited in an internal revenue bonded warehouse must be stored therein in such a manner that they may be readily inspected and examined by Government officers. Aisles of sufficient width to permit passage for the purpose of inspecting and repairing the cooperage must be provided between rows of barrels. The barrels must not be so superimposed upon each other as to prevent inspection and repair of cooperage or to prevent or interfere with their removal from rows or tires for gauging, repairing cooperage, etc. Cases of spirits must be so stored that they may be readily inventoried. The cases may be stored in stacks or blocks if segregated according to distillers, kinds of spirits, and sizes of bottles, and kept arranged in serial order. Aisles and passageways must be kept open and not be permitted to become blocked by packages or other articles.

§ 185.392 Storage in tank cars. Where spirits are received in tank cars for storage in bond, the spirits may be transferred to warehouse storage tanks provided the spirits are 160 degrees of proof or more. If the spirits are less than 160 degrees of proof, such tank cars must be run within the warehouse and remain therein pending tax payment or further transfer in bond.

§ 185.393 Failure to properly store spirits. Where the proprietor so stores packages of spirits that they cannot be readily inspected, or removed with facility from rows or tiers for gauging, repairing of cooperage, or other proper purposes, or that unnecessary loss is likely to occur from superimposing packages upon each other, or from deterioration of the cooperage due to other causes or where spirits are stored in tanks and such tanks are not kept in good condition so as to preclude unnecessary loss of spirits therefrom, the storekeeper-gauger will make report thereof in writing to the district supervisor, who will require the proprietor to make the necessary correction. The proprietor must take whatever steps are necessary to avoid unnecessary loss or wastage of spirits in the warehouse.

§ 185.394 Facilities for examination. The proprietor shall furnish all assistance, lights, ladders, and other facilities necessary to enable Government officers to examine warehouse premises and equipment and all containers of spirits stored therein.

§ 185.395 Facilities for gauging. The proprietor of the warehouse must provide adequate assistance and facilities to enable the storekeeper-gauger to gauge any packages which, in the officer's opinion, have been tampered with or from which unnecessary loss has occurred.

§ 185.396 Facilities for recoopering. The proprietor must provide suitable facilities for the recoopering of spirits stored in the warehouse. Where a considerable amount of recoopering is done, a separate room to be used exclusively for the purpose should be provided. If a separate room is not provided, the facilities to be used for recoopering spirits must be arranged and the work performed in such a manner as to avoid unnecessary loss or wastage of spirits or impairing the safety of other spirits or rendering the required supervision by the storekeeper-gauger more difficult.

FILLING PACKAGES FROM STORAGE TANKS

§ 185.397 Gauging. Distilled spirits may be drawn into packages from storage tanks in accordance with this part. If the distilled spirits in the tank are found to be other than a whole degree of proof, adjustment to a whole degree must be made by the proprietor before withdrawal into packages. Each package must be gauged by the storekeeper-gauger. Before determining the original tare of packages, the storekeeper-gauger will examine them and will not permit the use of any package which contains or has on its exterior or interior any unauthorized substance which will prevent the correct ascertainment of the tare. The tare of the empty package will be determined and will be marked on the package and recorded on Form 1520. Weights shall be determined in pounds and one-half pounds.

§ 185.398 Reduction in proof. Spirits in warehouse storage tanks which were produced at 190 degrees of proof or more may be reduced in such storage tanks to not less than 111 degrees of proof prior to being drawn into packages. The spirits will be reduced by the proprietor of the bonded warehouse under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. Spirits of less than 160 degrees of proof may not be withdrawn from storage tanks into tank cars for transfer in bond.

§ 185.399 Marking and branding packages filled from storage tanks. The proprietor shall plainly and durably burn, cut, imprint, or stencil on the head of each package filled from a warehouse storage tank, in letters and figures not less than three-fourths inch in height (not less than one-half inch in height for one-half barrels), the name of the distiller or the person in whose name the spirits were produced, the registry number of the distillery, the city or town and State in which the distillery is located, kind of cooperage (as charred, recharred, plain, etc.), serial number of the package, kind of spirits, the date of filling, and in letters and figures not less than one-half inch in height, the proof at which distilled, the original proof gallons, the original proof and tare determined at time of filling, the date of original entry of the spirits for deposit, and the warehouse number and State in which located. This head shall be designated the Government head. The ink used in applying marks and brands shall be of suitable quality to effect durability and legibility and the heads of the packages shall be sufficiently smooth and free from defects to permit the marks and brands to be clearly and distinctly applied. No marks other than those required by this part shall be placed upon the Government head of a package. All marking and branding shall be performed by the proprietor under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. The State and registry number may be combined and abbreviated as "Calif–708." The kind of cooperage may be abbreviated "C" for charred, "REC" for recharred, "P" for plain, "PAR" for paraffined, "G" for glued, and "R" for reused (not recharred). In addition to these marks the letters "PS" (pre-soaked) will follow the letters indicating the kind of cooperage if the barrel has been steamed or water soaked prior to filling. Symbols may be used to designate the proof of distillation, e. g., "D190P" for "Distilled 190 proof or over," "D160–190P" for "Distilled between 160 and 190 proof" and "D160P" for "Distilled not over 160 proof," or in the case of spirits derived from fruit, "D170–190P" for "Distilled between 170 and 190 proof" and "D170P" for "Distilled not over 170 proof." The date of original entry of the spirits for deposit and the warehouse number and State in which located may be abbreviated as "Orig. Ent. 5–19–48" and "I. R. B. W.4–N. Y."

§ 185.400 Report of gauge, Form 1520. The storekeeper-gauger will enter the details of the gauge on Form 1520 and will note on each copy of the form the date of the original entry for deposit and the proof of distillation of the spirits. If the spirits are to be stored in the warehouse in which packaged, an original and two copies of Form 1520 will be prepared, one of which will be forwarded to the district supervisor, one to the warehouseman and the remaining copy retained for file. If the spirits are to be immediately transferred to another warehouse, an original and five copies of Form 1520 will be prepared. In case of packages filled for immediate transfer in bond the forms will be distributed as provided in § 185.706 or 185.711.

§ 185.401 Numbering of packages. All packages filled from warehouse storage or gauging tanks shall be serially numbered, separately from packages filled at the distillery, beginning with number 1, preceded by the letter "T", as T–1, T–2, etc.

§ 185.402 Determining date of original entry. Where distilled spirits are deposited in a warehouse storage tank on different dates, the date of entry for deposit of the spirits first deposited in such tank shall be considered the date of entry for the deposit of the entire contents of the tank, for the purpose of determining the period of storage in bond.

CHANGE OF PACKAGES

§ 185.403 To prevent loss by leakage. When it becomes necessary, in order to prevent loss by leakage or wastage, the contents of a package of spirits stored in a bonded warehouse may be transferred to another package, but such transfer must be made under the supervision of a storekeeper-gauger. The new package must be of the same kind of cooperage, unless the spirits are to be repackaged as provided in § 185.405, and must be given the same serial number, marks and brands (except the tare) as the original package. The storekeeper-gauger will take the tare of the new package and require it to be marked on the package before transfer of the spirits. When such change of package is made the storekeeper-gauger will note the change of package together with the tare of the new package on his copy of Form 1520 or Form 1619 covering deposit of the spirits in the warehouse.

§ 185.404 For exportation. For the purpose of exportation, the contents of an original package may be transferred to one or more new packages, or the contents of two or more original packages may be consolidated into one package, while stored in bond, but such changes of packages must be made under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger and within the limitations and in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Subpart HH of this part.

§ 185.405 To change kind of cooperage. Where it is desired to transfer the spirits from one kind of cooperage to another, as, for example, from a plain or reused package to a charred new package, request for such transfer must be made to the district supervisor by the proprietor of the warehouse in which the spirits are stored and if such request is approved the transfer must be made under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger and in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 185.407.

§ 185.406 Request to district supervisor. The request to the district supervisor for permission to change the kind of cooperage must give the serial number of the package or packages, kind of original cooperage, kind of cooperage desired to be used, name of the distiller, registered number and location (city or town, and State) of the distillery at which the spirits were produced and the reason why the change is desired. If the district supervisor approves the request, he will so notify the proprietor and will direct the transfer to be made under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 185.407 Marking new packages. Each new package will be given the same serial number, marks, and brands (except the tare and kind of cooperage) as the original package, and will contain only spirits from one package. The storekeeper-gauger will take the tare of the new package and require it to be marked on the new package before the transfer, and upon completion of the transfer will prepare and sign a label to be affixed by the proprietor to the head of each new package in the manner herein prescribed for the affixing of tax-paid stamps. The label shall be in the following form:

The spirits contained in this package, serial No. ---------, were transferred to new ---------- barrel under date of ---------- (Kind of cooperage) ---------- by authority of letter dated ---------- The package from which the spirits herein were transferred was a ---------- barrel.
(Kind of cooperage)

---------- (Storekeeper-gauger)

District No. ---------

When such a change of package is made, the storekeeper-gauger will note the tare of the new package on Form 1520 or Form 1619 covering deposit of the spirits and advise the district supervisor that the change has been made. If the new package should be transferred in bond the storekeeper-gauger will make a notation on the transfer Form 1619 showing the date of the change of package and the tare of the new package.

TRADE MARKS AND CAUTION NOTICES

§ 185.408 Must not resemble revenue stamp. No person shall affix or cause to be affixed to or upon any cask or package containing or intended to contain distilled spirits any imitation stamp or other engraved, printed, stamped, or photographed label, device, or token, whether the same be designed as a trade mark, caution notice, caution, or otherwise, and which shall be in the similitude or likeness of or shall have the semblance or general appearance of any internal revenue stamp required by law to be affixed to or upon any cask or package containing distilled spirits.

§ 185.409 Canceling of labels forbidden. The storekeeper-gauger must not apply, or permit the application of, a canceling plate to any caution notice, trade mark, or similar device which may be attached to casks or packages of distilled spirits.

§ 185.410 Placing on Government head forbidden. No marks, brands, caution notices, or other devices whatsoever will be permitted on the Government head of any package, other than the stamps, labels, marks, or brands required or authorized to be affixed by Federal law or this part.

QUICK-AGING OF SPIRITS

§ 185.411 Approval of apparatus and process required. Distilled spirits may be quick-aged by heating during storage in an internal revenue bonded warehouse, provided the apparatus and process are approved by the Commissioner and suitable arrangements are made for operation of the process. The proprietor of a bonded warehouse desiring to quick-age spirits therein shall file application in duplicate with the district supervisor for approval of the process, and must set forth in such application a complete description of the apparatus and process and a brief description of the building, room, or space in which the quick-aging is to be conducted. The district supervisor will forward one copy of the application to the Commissioner with his recommendation. The applicant will be informed through the district supervisor of the Commissioner's action on the application.

§ 185.412 Introducing heating device into package. Where the spirits are to be quick-aged by the introduction of a steam pipe or other heating device into the package, a separate room or building to be used exclusively for the purpose should be provided. If a separate room or building is not provided, the process must be conducted in a separate, designated space in the warehouse suitable for the purpose, and the facilities must be so arranged as to not endanger the safety of other spirits or to require undue supervision by the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 185.413 Heating warehouse. Where spirits are to be quick-aged by the general application of heat within the warehouse the proprietor must provide a suitable, separate room, which shall not be exposed or subjected to excessive heat, for the convenience of Government officers in performing their duties in connection with the receipt and withdrawal of spirits.

PERIOD OF STORAGE IN BOND

§ 185.414 Eight years from date of original entry. Distilled spirits may not remain in warehouse more than eight years from the date of original entry for deposit, except that distilled spirits which on July 26, 1936, were 8 years of age, or older, and which are in a bonded warehouse, may remain therein.

§ 185.415 Calculation of storage period. The period of 1 month is held to run from the date of any month to the day before the same date of the next month, both days inclusive. The 8 years during which spirits may remain in warehouse are held to expire at the close of business on the eighth anniversary of the day next preceding that on which the original entry for deposit was made, or if such day falls on Sunday or a legal holiday, then on the next preceding business day.

§ 185.416 When tax is due and payable. The tax on distilled spirits shall be due and payable before and at the time of withdrawal from the bonded warehouse and within 8 years from the date of original entry for deposit, except that such 8-year limitation shall not be applicable in the case of spirits which on July 26, 1936, were 8 years of age, or older, and which are in bonded warehouses.

§ 185.417 Failure to give bond. In case the proprietor of a bonded warehouse fails or refuses to give bond as required by law and provisions of this part or to renew the same, or neglects to withdraw the spirits or to transfer the same to another bonded warehouse immediately in accordance with law and this part, the spirits will be gauged and the tax thereon will be assessed and collected and the spirits removed from the warehouse in accordance with the procedure prescribed in §§ 185.420–185.422.

EXPIRATION OF 8-YEAR PERIOD

§ 185.418 Examination of records. During June and December of each year the storekeeper-gauger shall examine Forms 1621 to determine whether the 8-year period of storage in bond on any spirits still in the warehouse will expire during the ensuing 6-month period. Where the examination of Forms 1621 shows that there are such spirits still in the warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will ascertain the date of the original entry for deposit thereof from Form 1520 or Form 1619 if the spirits are in packages or other bulk containers, or from Form 1620 if the spirits are in cases, and shall determine the date of the expiration of the 8-year bonded period of all such spirits. The storekeeper-gauger shall make a list of all such packages or cases, showing the date of the expiration of the bonded period of storage of each. Where spirits of different dates of production in the same distilling season are mingled at the time of bottling, or brandies of different dates of production are blended under the provisions of section 2801 (e) (5), I. R. C., the bonded period of storage for such spirits or brandies will begin to run from the date of the original entry for deposit of the oldest spirits or brandies so mingled.

§ 185.419 Notice to proprietor. Upon completion of his examination of the records, the storekeeper-gauger will furnish the proprietor of the warehouse with a copy of the list of containers of spirits on which the bonded period will expire during the 6 months then beginning, and will call his attention to the necessity of withdrawing the spirits before the expiration of the bonded period. The storekeeper-gauger will also submit a copy of the list to the district supervisor. This provision is intended only to protect the interest of the Government. It shall not in any way release the warehouseman of any obligation imposed upon him by law or this part, or assumed under his bond, to withdraw spirits from bond within the time required by law. Whenever the warehouseman fails to withdraw any spirits before the expiration of the 8-year bonded period of storage, the storekeeper-gauger will gauge such spirits and will make report thereof to the district supervisor, as provided in § 185.420.

FAILURE TO REMOVE SPIRITS WITHIN 8-YEAR PERIOD

§ 185.420 Gauge. Where the proprietor fails to file application for the taxpayment or other authorized withdrawal of distilled spirits in packages or tanks prior to expiration of the statutory 8-year period, the storekeeper-gauger will, at the expiration of such period, gauge the spirits, prepare Form 1520, in quintuplicate, and forward four copies thereof to the district supervisor with a letter of transmittal giving the facts. Likewise, where the proprietor fails to file application on Form 1519 for the taxpayment and withdrawal of distilled spirits in cases prior to expiration of the statutory 8-year period, the storekeeper-gauger will, at the expiration of such period, prepare report on Form 1519, in quintuplicate, and forward four copies thereof to the district supervisor with a letter of transmittal giving the facts. The storekeeper-gauger will furnish the proprietor of the warehouse with one copy each of Form 1520 or 1519 and the letter of transmittal, and will retain one copy of the transmittal letter for his files.

§ 185.421 Assessment and collection of tax. The district supervisor will forward all copies of Form 1520 or Form 1519 to the collector with a transmittal letter recommending that an assessment be made. The collector will enter the tax for assessment on his current distilled spirits assessment list. If the proprietor upon receipt of notice and demand fails to pay the tax within the time required by law, the collector shall proceed to collect the same by distraint. Upon collection of the tax on spirits in packages the collector will certify the taxpayment on the four copies of Form 1520, issue taxpaid stamps, enter the serial numbers thereof in the appropriate columns on the four copies of Form 1520, retain one copy of the form, forward three copies of the form to the proprietor with the stamps, and advise the district supervisor that the tax has been paid. The collector will then file an office claim on Form 843 for abatement of the assessment remaining outstanding as the result of the transaction. Upon collection of the tax on spirits in cases the collector will certify the taxpayment on the four copies of Form 1519, retain one copy of the form, forward three copies of the form to the proprietor, and advise the district supervisor that the tax has been paid.

§ 185.422 Removal of spirits. The proprietor shall deliver the three copies of Form 1520 and accompanying tax paid stamps, or the three copies of Form 1519, to the storekeeper-gauger, whereupon the packages will be duly stamped and marked, or the cases duly marked, as the case may be, and removed from the warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger will note the date of removal on the three copies of Form 1520 or Form 1519, retain one copy of the form, deliver one copy to the proprietor, and forward one copy to the district supervisor.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2879)

STAMPING UNDERPROOF SPIRITS SOLD ON DISTRAINT

§ 185.423 Issuance of taxpaid stamps. Where distilled spirits offered for sale on distraint for taxes, where the taxes on such spirits have not been paid, will not, by reason of being below proof, bring a price equal to the tax thereon, but will bring a price equal to or greater than the tax on such spirits if computed only upon the proof gallons contained in the packages, then, and in such case, upon sale being so made, taxpaid stamps to the amount required to stamp such spirits as if the tax thereon were only on the proof gallons may be used by the collector making such sale, without making payment for such stamps so used.

§ 185.424 Affixing stamps. The collector making sale of the spirits must write across the face of each stamp the true number of wine and proof gallons in the package, the amount of tax paid, and the words "Affixed under provisions of Internal Revenue Code, section 2805 (b)," and must affix, or cause to be affixed, the stamp securely to the package.

(53 Stat. 305; 26 U. S. C. 2805)

§ 185.425 Voucher. When underproof spirits are sold pursuant to § 185.423, the collector will prepare an affidavit in duplicate, setting forth fully the facts respecting the sale of the spirits and the issuance and affixation of the stamps, and will forward the original of such affidavit to the Commissioner as a voucher for the allowance of credit for the stamps in his account.

(53 Stat. 305; 26 U. S. C. 2805)

TRANSFER OF SPIRITS BETWEEN BUILDINGS CONSTITUTING SAME WAREHOUSE

§ 185.426 Procedure. Where spirits are to be transferred between buildings of the same warehouse, the warehouseman shall notify the storekeeper-gauger of such intention and the spirits shall be transferred under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. If it is ascertained that any container has been tampered with, a report will be made to the district supervisor in accordance with the applicable provisions of § 185.486.

INSTRUMENTS

§ 185.427 To be removed or locked up when not in use. All instruments, such as bung starters, thiefs, hose, pails, etc., used in a bonded warehouse in gauging spirits or in effecting a change of package or in the taking of authorized samples, which are susceptible of use for removing bungs or otherwise gaining access to or removing the contents of packages, except instruments and vessels kept in the warehouse for fire prevention purposes, shall be removed from the warehouse when not in use or delivered to the storekeeper-gauger to be locked up by him in some secure place.

SUBPART U—BLENDING OF BRANDIES

§ 185.450 Limitations. Fruit brandies distilled from the same kind of fruit at not more than 170 degrees proof may, for the sole purpose of perfecting such brandies according to commercial standards, be mixed or blended with each other, or with any such mixture or blend, by the distiller thereof in any internal revenue bonded warehouse operated by him exclusively for the storage of brandy or wine spirits. The blending must improve (perfect) the brandy according to the approved commercial standard of the blended product. Any blending of brandy of standard quality with brandy of inferior quality for the purpose of stretching or increasing the volume of the standard quality brandy and which results in the manufacture of a product inferior to the standard quality brandy before blending, constitutes rectification and may not be done on internal revenue bonded warehouse premises.

§ 185.451 Distiller. As used in this subpart, the term "distiller" includes any one or more distillers associated as members of any farm cooperative, or any one or more distillers affiliated within the meaning of section 17 (a) (5) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, or any fruit distiller for whose account, recorded with the district supervisor at the time of production, the brandy to be blended was produced.

§ 185.452 Eligibility for blending. For the purpose of determining eligibility for blending, brandy distilled from the same kind of fruit at not more than 170 degrees proof shall be considered distilled by the distiller operating the internal revenue bonded warehouse (a) where it was actually distilled by him, (b) where it was produced by a distiller associated with him as a member of a farm cooperative, (c) where it was produced by a distiller affiliated with him, that is, one of such distillers has control of the other or the distillers are subject to common control, actual or legal, directly or indirectly, whether by stock ownership or otherwise, or (d) where it was produced for his account, provided such production was recorded with the district supervisor at the time of production as required in § 185.453.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.453 Copy of agreement to be filed with district supervisor. When brandy to be blended is produced for the account of the distiller, the distiller at whose warehouse brandies are to be blended shall file with the district supervisor a certified copy of the agreement under which the brandy is to be produced for his account. The agreement shall set forth the name and registry number of the producing distiller, kind, the approximate amount of brandy to be produced, and the approximate time of production, and should clearly show that the producing distiller was engaged to produce brandy for the acccunt of the blending distiller.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.454 Action by district supervisor. Upon receipt of the agreement the district supervisor shall examine it closely. To conform to the law brandy to be blended must actually be produced for the account of the blending distiller. If it appears that the agreement is a contract to produce brandy for the account of the blending distiller and is not merely a contract to sell production, the district supervisor shall notify the storekeeper-gauger assigned to the premises of the producing distiller of the names of the distillers involved and the kind and quantity of brandy to be produced for blending. The storekeeper-gauger will then take action in accordance with the procedure outlined in §§ 185.455 and 185.456.

§ 185.455 Action by storekeeper-gauger. Upon completion of the entry gauge and execution of the Distiller's Entry for Deposit, the storekeeper-gauger shall examine the packages involved and, where the distiller has affixed to a package a tag stating "Produced for the Account of (name of distiller for whom produced)" and the district supervisor has advised the storekeeper-gauger of the agreement to produce for the account of that blending distiller, he shall make a notation on the reverse side of all copies of the Form 1520 stating in effect "Produced for the Account of (name of distiller for whom produced)." If only a portion of the brandy covered by the Form 1520 was produced for the account of the fruit distiller who intends to blend brandy, the storekeeper-gauger shall show the serial numbers of the packages and aggregate proof gallons of brandy so produced. The statement shall be signed by the storekeeper-gauger. In the absence of tags on the containers denoting for whom the brandy was produced, or in the absence of a statement by the district supervisor relative to the agreement under which the brandy was produced, the storekeeper-gauger shall not assume that the brandies were produced for the account of another and shall make no statement relative thereto.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.457 Record to be made by district supervisor. Upon receipt of a copy of Form 1520 showing brandy produced for the account of a blending distiller, the district supervisor shall note on the agreement, or on a suitable index card, the date of production, the serial numbers of the packages, and the aggregate proof gallons covered by the Form 1520.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.458 Notice of commencement. After the brandy-blending department has been duly approved by the district supervisor, the proprietor of the warehouse shall, before beginning blending operations, give notice, in triplicate, to the district supervisor through the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse, of his intention to blend brandies. Upon approval of the notice by the district supervisor, two copies shall be forwarded to the storekeeper-gauger in charge and the original copy shall be retained in his office. The storekeeper-gauger shall deliver one copy to the proprietor, and retain the other copy in the Government office.

§ 185.459 Notice of discontinuance. In the event the proprietor desires to discontinue blending operations, either temporarily or permanently, and to use the space and facilities of the blending department for other duly authorized warehouse purposes, he shall give notice, in triplicate, of discontinuance to the district supervisor through the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse that all brandies have been removed from the brandy-blending department and shall state the purpose or purposes for which he proposes to use the department. The storekeeper-gauger shall inspect the brandy-blending department and if all brandies have been removed therefrom, he shall certify to such fact on each copy of the notice of discontinuance and forward the three copies to the district supervisor. The district supervisor shall examine the notice and if the proposed use stated by the warehouseman is in accordance with law and the provisions of this part he shall endorse his approval on each copy of the notice. Upon approval by the district supervisor, two copies of the notice shall be forwarded to the storekeeper-gauger in charge and the original copy shall be retained in his office. The storekeeper-gauger shall deliver one copy to the proprietor, and the other copy shall be retained by him in the Government office. The storekeeper-gauger shall then remove the locks from the doors to the brandy-blending department. Where brandy-blending tanks are to be used for other purposes, such as the storage of fortifying brandy, the tanks must be temporarily marked to show such use, but the permanent marks on the tanks should not be disturbed. After notice of discontinuance has been approved, and before resuming blending operations, a new notice of commencement must be filed and approved.

APPLICATION TO BLEND

§ 185.460 Brandies not previously blended. When a distiller desires to blend brandies at his warehouse he shall file application on Form 1685, in triplicate, fully describing the brandies to be blended and giving all the information called for by the form. Each form shall be given a serial number beginning with "1" for the 1st day of January of each year and running consecutively thereafter to December 31st, inclusive. The application shall show, as to each kind of brandy not previously blended, the following:

(a) The number of packages;

(b) The serial numbers of the packages;

(c) The kind of brandy as marked on the packages;

(d) The date of original entry for deposit;

(e) Original tax gallons;

(f) Proof of distillation;

(g) The name of the producing distiller, registry number of the distillery and State in which the distillery is located.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.461 Brandies previously blended. When previously blended brandies are to be dumped for blending with other brandies, the distiller shall file application on Form 1685, in triplicate, showing (in respect to such previously blended brandies) the following:

(a) The number of packages;

(b) The serial numbers of the packages;

(c) The kind of brandy as marked on the packages;

(d) Date of original entry of oldest brandy in blend;

(e) Date of original entry of youngest brandy in blend;

(f) Proof gallons marked on the packages;

(g) The name of the blending distiller and registry number of the warehouse in which the blending was done and State in which the warehouse is located;

(h) Date and serial number of the Form 1685 covering each prior blend and the name of the blending distiller, registry number of the warehouse in which the blending was done and State in which the warehouse is located, as shown on each such Form 1685. Where a prior blending was effected in a warehouse in another district, a copy of the Form 1685 covering such blending shall be submitted with the application.

§ 185.462 Blending of different types or productions. Where two or more types of brandy produced from the same kind of fruit (such as grape lees brandy, grape pomace brandy, grape brandy) are to be blended together, the applicant shall state the percentage of each type of brandy to be contained in the resultant blend. Where any brandy to be blended was produced at a distillery operated under a name other than the name of the blending distiller, the application shall show whether such distillery was operated by an associate or by an affiliate, or whether the brandy was produced for the account of the blending distiller. The application shall show the proposed designation of kind for the brandy after blending.

§ 185.463 Evidence of affiliation or association. Where brandy produced by an associate or an affiliate of the blending distiller is to be blended, the blending distiller must file with the district supervisor—documentary evidence establishing such association or affiliation.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.464 Bond coverage. The blending distiller must state, as to the brandy produced by each distiller, whether the producer thereof has filed consent of surety on Form 1533 stipulating that his distiller's bond shall continue to be liable for the tax imposed by section 2800 (a) (1), I. R. C., on such brandy after it has been blended with other brandy. The consent of surety may be prepared to cover a specific lot or lots of brandy, or to cover all brandy produced by the distiller which is blended with other brandy.

§ 185.465 Action by district supervisor. All copies of Form 1685 shall be submitted to the district supervisor for his approval. Upon receipt of the application the district supervisor shall determine whether the proposed designation of kind for the blended brandy conforms to the provisions of section 21, class 4 of Regulations 5, relating to the labeling and advertising of distilled spirits under the provisions of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and shall otherwise determine that the brandies described on the form are eligible for blending pursuant to the provisions of section 2801 (e) (5), I. R. C. The district supervisor shall determine whether, for each distiller of brandy to be blended, there is on file a consent of surety stipulating that the distiller's bond shall continue to be liable for the tax imposed by section 2800 (a) (1), I. R. C., after brandy produced by such distiller has been blended. The district supervisor shall also determine whether documentary evidence has been submitted to establish (a) that the brandy was produced by a distiller associated with the blending distiller as a member of a bona fide farm cooperative or (b) that the brandy was produced by a distiller affiliated (as defined in § 185.451) with the blending distiller or (c) that the brandy was produced by a distiller for the account of the blending distiller and such production was recorded (as required by § 185.453). Where the applicant has not established that the proposed blending will be in accordance with the provisions of this subpart, the district supervisor shall not approve the application and shall return it with a statement showing the reason therefor. If the district supervisor is doubtful whether the proposed designation of kind is correct, or if he is doubtful for other reasons that the application should be approved, the matter should be submitted to the Commissioner for advice. If the application is approved all copies of the Form 1685 should be forwarded by the district supervisor to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the internal revenue bonded warehouse.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.466 Action by the storekeeper-gauger. Upon receipt of the approved application, Form 1685, the storekeeper-gauger shall inspect and gauge the packages and make detailed report of such gauge on Form 1520, in triplicate. Where brandies covered by the application, Form 1685, were produced by different distillers or at different distilleries, separate report of gauge, Form 1520, shall be prepared for the product of each distiller or distillery. The storekeeper-gauger shall, in every instance, note on Forms 1520 the serial number and date of the application, Form 1685. The provisions of §§ 185.480 to 185.496 will be followed as to any packages bearing evidence of tampering or unaccountable loss of contents.

§ 185.467 Verification of Forms 1520. Where the quantity of a type or lot of brandy to be blended with another type or lot of brandy is limited to a maximum percentage, the storekeeper-gauger and the distiller should examine the Forms 1520 covering the regauge of the brandy which is limited to a maximum percentage to determine (before the report of the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1685 is executed) that the quantity of such brandy (calculated on a proof gallon basis) is not in excess of the maximum percentage authorized by the approved application. Where the quantity of a type or lot of brandy regauged exceeds the maximum percentage authorized for blending, the storekeeper-gauger may, at the distiller's request, delete the packages containing such quantities (in no case less than a whole package) from the application and line out the entries on the regauge report and permit the return of the packages to the storage portion of the warehouse. The deletion in the application must be verified by the distiller and initialed by him. Where compliance with the statement of maximum percentage cannot be obtained in this manner, the blending operation should be suspended and the matter submitted to the district supervisor for advice.

§ 185.468 Disposition of Forms 1685. Upon completion of the report as to brandy dumped, blended, and returned to the storage portion of the warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger shall forward one copy of the form and one copy of Form 1520 to the district supervisor, deliver one copy of each form to the proprietor of the warehouse, and file one copy of each form in his office.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.469 Audit by district supervisor. At the time of auditing Forms 1520 and 1685 covering the blending of brandies, the district supervisor shall determine whether the quantities blended were in a proportion which would permit the designation of kind given to the resultant blend.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

BLENDING, GAUGING AND MARKING

§ 185.470 Transfer of brandies to blending tank. Before brandies are transferred to the brandy-blending tank, the storekeeper-gauger shall lock the outlet to the tank, and after all brandies have been transferred to the brandy-blending tank the storekeeper-gauger shall lock the inlet to the tank. The contents of the tank must be thoroughly agitated, the proof determined, and the contents of the tank gauged. The proof so determined shall be considered the proof of the brandy drawn into packages from the tank.

§ 185.471 Disposition of empty packages. Immediately upon being emptied, the packages from which brandies were dumped for blending shall be examined by the storekeeper-gauger for the purpose of determining that all brandies were removed therefrom; that all the marks and brands have been obliterated; and that such packages are removed from the warehouse: Provided, That in the event such packages are to be used as containers for the blended brandies, so many as are required to contain the blended brandies may be retained in the brandy-blending department for that purpose. Such empty packages shall be segregated from any filled packages in the brandy-blending department.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.472 Drawing off brandies. Brandies must be drawn from the brandy-blending tank into packages on or before the third day following the deposit of the same therein. When brandies are to be drawn from the tank the storekeeper-gauger shall see that all valves and openings other than the necessary outlet valve are closed and locked before the brandies are drawn from the tank. The storekeeper-gauger shall open and close the locks, but it shall be the duty of the warehouseman to manipulate the stop-cocks or valves controlling the flow of the spirits. The storekeeper-gauger assigned to the brandy-blending department is required to be present and personally supervise the drawing off of all brandy in the tank, the marking and branding of all packages filled therefrom. He shall also see that all mechanical duties connected with such operations are properly performed as provided in this part.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.475 Marking of packages. Immediately upon filling of the packages, or prior to filling, the blending distiller shall mark upon the head of the package by branding or stenciling the following information:

(a) The kind of brandy as shown on the Form 1685.

(b) The words "Blended By."

(c) The name of the blending distiller.

(d) The registered number of the warehouse, and the State in which the warehouse is located.

(e) The serial number of the package.
(f) The date of filling of the package.
(g) The date of original entry of the oldest brandy in the mixture.
(h) The date of original entry of the youngest brandy in the mixture.
(i) Proof of blended brandy.
(j) Tare of container.
(k) Proof gallon content.

The following is an illustration of the marking of packages:

[Space reserved for withdrawal marks and stamps]

Such marks and brands shall be placed upon the packages in letters and figures not less than three-fourths inch in height or one-half inch in the case of half-barrels. The head of the package bearing these marks shall be known as the "Government head." No marks other than those required by this part shall be placed upon the Government head of such package.

§ 185.476 Losses of blended brandy. Where a loss of blended brandy in bond is found, under the provisions of §§ 185.480 to 185.496, to be subject to the tax imposed on distilled spirits by section 2800 (a) (1), I. R. C., the blended brandy is also subject to the rectification tax of 30 cents a proof gallon under the provisions of section 2801 (e) (5), I. R. C.

§ 185.477 Withdrawal of blended brandies. Brandies mixed or blended in accordance with the provisions of this Subpart may be stored, transported, transferred in bond, withdrawn from bond taxpaid or tax-free, or be otherwise disposed of, in the same manner as such brandies not so mixed or blended. The foregoing should not be construed as meaning that such blended brandies are eligible for bottling in bond.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

SUBPART V—LOSSES OF DISTILLED SPIRITS WHILE IN BOND

§ 135.480 Taxable losses. The law provides that no tax shall be collected in respect of distilled spirits lost or destroyed while in bond, except that such tax shall be collected:

(a) Theft. In the case of loss by theft unless the Commissioner shall find that the theft occurred without connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the distiller, warehouseman, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees of any of them; and

(b) Voluntary destruction. In the case of voluntary destruction unless the distilled spirits were unfit for use for beverage purposes and the warehouseman, or other person responsible for the tax, obtained the written permission of the district supervisor for such destruction in each case.

§ 185.481 Insurance coverage. The remission, abatement or refund of the tax on distilled spirits lost by theft while in bond may be allowed only to the extent that the claimant is not indemnified against or recompensed for such tax.

(53 Stat. 340 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2901)

§ 185.482 Proof of loss. In the case of loss by theft a warehouseman or other person responsible for the tax desiring to be relieved of the tax liability must file a claim and establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the theft occurred without connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the distiller, warehouseman, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees of any of them. In any case in which spirits are lost or destroyed, the warehouseman or other person responsible for the tax shall, upon receipt of a request from the district supervisor, file a claim for relief from the tax and submit proof as to the cause of loss. In any instance where a claim is required, allowance for tax on the loss may only be made pursuant to such claim.

§ 185.483 Losses by theft. Where inspection of any package or container indicates that there may have been theft of distilled spirits therefrom, the storekeeper-gauger or other officer will follow the procedure outlined in § 185.486.

(53 Stat. 340 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2901)

§ 185.484 Unauthorized voluntary destruction. The tax on distilled spirits voluntarily destroyed without authority may not be remitted or refunded. Where distilled spirits stored in bond are unfit for beverage purposes and the warehouseman desires to be relieved of the tax liability thereon, he should make application for authority to destroy the spirits as provided in § 185.511. Where spirits are lost as a result of negligence or failure to exercise due care and diligence on the part of persons having custody of the spirits, as provided in § 185.393, and it appears that the spirits may be subject to additional unnecessary loss, the district supervisor will forward a copy of the inspection gauge and copies of all reports and correspondence with his recommendation to the Commissioner. The Commissioner may require tax payment and removal of such spirits from the warehouse if there is evidence of such willful negligence on the part of the warehouseman to exercise due care and diligence as will constitute unauthorized voluntary destruction.

§ 185.485 Other losses. If, upon gauge for removal, the loss of distilled spirits from any package or container is found to be in excess of what in the storekeeper-gauger's opinion is normal storage or transit loss, and there is evidence that such loss resulted from a cause or causes other than theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction, the condition of the container and the apparent cause of the loss shall be noted by the storekeeper-gauger on the gauge report. However, the container need not be detained. Where a damaged package which has sustained an unusual loss from obvious cause other than theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction is found either upon preparation for, or receipt after, transfer in bond the package will be weighed and proofed and the weight, proof, amount of loss, apparent cause and date will be noted on the Form 1619. Where a damaged package or other container which has sustained an unusual loss from obvious cause other than theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction is found upon warehouse inspection, the proprietor will prepare on Form 1698 an application for the examination and gauge of the package. A similar application will be prepared for any package which is to be recoopered. The details of the gauge, the date, and the apparent cause of the loss will be entered on the form by the storekeeper-gauger and a copy of the form will be securely attached to the container. The new gross weight, date, and the serial number of the Form 1698 will be noted by the storekeeper-gauger on the deposit form. Losses from containers such as tank cars, steel drums or warehouse storage tanks may be considered to be normal when such deficiency does not exceed 1 percent of the quantity entered therein and there are no circumstances indicating tampering or abstraction. A determination regarding the nature and extent of losses from storage tanks will be made each time such tanks are emptied. A separate determination regarding losses from storage tanks will be made on the basis of a physical inventory at the close of each month and losses, if any, noted on Form 1621 in accordance with § 185.1021. Normal losses from wood containers will vary depending upon the type and condition of the cooperage and method and period of storage in each particular case.

§ 185.486 Report of losses. Losses of distilled spirits in bond, other than those which may be attributed to normal storage or transit losses or to obvious defects in the cooperage must be reported to the district supervisor by the warehouseman immediately after the losses are discovered. Where such loss occurs or is ascertained while the storekeeper-gauger is on duty, the warehouseman will report the loss by making an application on Form 1698 for the examination and gauge of the package, and if in the storekeeper-gauger's opinion the loss resulted from theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction, the storekeeper-gauger will immediately make a full report of the loss to the district supervisor in sufficient detail to bring out all known facts and circumstances relating to such loss. The details of the gauge, the date, and the apparent cause of the loss will be entered on the form by the storekeeper-gauger and a copy of the form will be securely attached to the container. The new gross weight, date, and the serial number of the Form 1698 will be noted by the storekeeper-gauger on the deposit form. The storekeeper-gauger will also place a detainer on the package or container: Provided, That where the loss is discovered at the time of a gauge for removal, the warehouseman may elect to admit, on Form 1698, the taxable status of the loss, in which event it is not necessary to file a claim or withhold release of the package if the loss is taxpaid before removal.

§ 185.487 Investigation by district supervisor. The district supervisor will consider the nature and extent of any loss reported by the warehouseman or Government officer and will immediately make such investigation and require such evidence to be submitted as he may deem necessary. If, in the opinion of the district supervisor, the loss resulted from theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction, he will advise the warehouseman by letter (a) the identity of the container; (b) the amount of the loss; (c) the circumstances indicating loss by theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction; (d) that filing of proof of loss and claim for remission of the tax is required; and (e) that notification to the Commissioner of the facts in the case will be withheld for a period not exceeding 15 days to afford the warehouseman opportunity for examination of the container and to submit such statements as may be deemed necessary.

§ 185.488 Filing of claims. Claims for the remission of tax on spirits will be filed promptly with the supervisor of the district in which is located the bonded warehouse at which the loss occurred, or in case of loss in transit, the bonded warehouse to which the spirits were transferred. When loss of spirits in bond under other circumstances occurs, claim should be filed with the supervisor of the district where the bond covering exportation or removal for other purpose is filed.

(53 Stat. 340 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2901)

§ 185.489 Form of claims. Claims for remission of tax on losses of distilled spirits in bond shall be made on letter-size paper, in duplicate, showing the name, address, and capacity of the claimant and setting forth, under oath, the following information:

(a) The name of the distiller who produced the spirits, and the registered number and location of the distillery;

(b) The serial numbers of the packages, cases, or tanks from which the spirits were lost. In the case of tank cars, the car numbers will be stated;

(c) The quantity of spirits lost from each package or other container, and the total quantity of spirits covered by the claim;

(d) The total amount of tax for which the claim is filed;

(e) The date of the loss, or, if such date is not known, the date on which the loss was discovered and the cause and nature thereof, together with all the facts surrounding the loss;

(f) The name of the carrier, if any;

(g) If lost by theft, the facts establishing whether the loss occurred as the result of any negligence, connivance, collusion, or fraud on the part of the distiller, owner, warehouseman, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees of any of them;

(h) If lost by theft, whether the claimant is indemnified or recompensed for the loss, and, if so, the amount and nature of such indemnity or recompense. The actual value of the spirits, less the tax, must be stated explicitly and, where required, certified copies of all policies of insurance or other documents of indemnity covering the spirits must be furnished.

§ 185.490 Supporting documents. Claims for remission of tax on spirits lost while being transferred by carrier shall be supported whenever possible, by a copy of the bill of lading and statements of the agents of the carrier having personal knowledge of the loss. Claims covering losses in the bonded warehouse, or while in bond under other circumstances must be supported by affidavits of persons having personal knowledge of the loss.

§ 185.491 Examination of claim. When a claim for remission of tax is received by the district supervisor he will carefully examine the same to see that all the required information has been furnished and will cause such investigation to be made or require such additional evidence to be submitted as he may deem necessary. Upon completion of his investigation, if any, the district supervisor will forward one copy of the claim and accompanying papers, together with any pertinent reports and documentary evidence to the Commissioner with his recommendation in respect to the allowance or disallowance of the claim.

§ 185.492 Action on claim. If the Commissioner finds that a loss of distilled spirits from a container resulted from unauthorized voluntary destruction, or from theft and the warehouseman or other person responsible for the tax fails to establish that the loss did not occur as a result of connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the distiller, warehouseman, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees of any of them, he may instruct the district supervisor to require the taxpayment and withdrawal of the distilled spirits upon the original quantity entered into the warehouse in such container, notwithstanding that the time specified in any bond given for the withdrawal of the spirits entered into the warehouse in such container has not expired. Upon receipt of notification that a claim has been rejected, and that the distilled spirits must be taxpaid, the warehouseman should file an application on Form 179, or Form 1519 if the distilled spirits are in cases, for the withdrawal of the distilled spirits upon payment of tax. If an application for the taxpayment and withdrawal of the distilled spirits is not made by the warehouseman, the district supervisor will furnish the collector of internal revenue with four copies of Form 1520 covering gauge of the distilled spirits, or Form 1519 if distilled spirits in cases are involved, showing the tax due, with a letter of transmittal requesting that the tax be assessed against the warehouseman. Upon payment of the tax, the procedure prescribed in §§ 185.421 and 185.422 will be followed in respect to the issuance of taxpaid stamps and removal of the spirits from the warehouse.

§ 185.493 Failure to file claim. Where distilled spirits in bond are reported to have been lost and claim for remission of tax is required in accordance with § 185.487 and the required claim is not filed, the district supervisor will report the matter to the Commissioner.

(53 Stat. 340 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2901)

§ 185.494 Remission of tax. If the entire contents of a container are lost and a claim for remission of the tax is allowed, the district supervisor will take credit therefor upon receipt of notice from the Commissioner of the allowance. If the tax is remitted on a portion of the contents of a container still in bond, or if the district supervisor determines that no claim is required, he will so advise the storekeeper-gauger who will remove the detainer from the package and note on the deposit records the date of letter of advice from the district supervisor.

§ 185.495 Records. The proprietor shall furnish the storekeeper-gauger with sufficient file cases for the filing and retention of Forms 1698. The storekeeper-gauger will file all such reports by serial number. The district supervisor will maintain a control account for losses in warehouses and in transit thereto on Form 1691.

§ 185.496 Credit upon withdrawal. At the time of withdrawal of packages and tank cars upon which a claim for remission of tax on losses ascertained prior to September 1, 1950 has been allowed, the proprietor will note in an unused space on Form 1520 the amount of the loss and the date and symbols appearing on the letter in which the loss was allowed. Where cases of distilled spirits are withdrawn this information will be noted on the Form 1519 covering the withdrawal.

§ 185.497 Prior losses. Any claims for remission or refund of the tax on any loss of spirits established prior to September 1, 1950, shall be subject to the provisions of section 2901 of the Internal Revenue Code and this part as they existed prior to that date.

(53 Stat. 340 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2901)

§ 185.498 Losses after taxpayment. Nothing in section 2901 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section

3 of the act of February 21, 1950, or as theretofore amended, or in this part, shall be construed to authorize refund of the tax where the loss occurred after the tax was paid.

(53 Stat. 340 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2901)

SUBPART W—VOLUNTARY DESTRUCTION OF SPIRITS

§ 185.510 General. Distilled spirits stored in an internal revenue bonded warehouse, which are found to be unfit for use for beverage purposes, may be voluntarily destroyed without payment of tax by the warehouseman in accordance with this subpart.

(53 Stat. 340 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2901)

§ 185.511 Application. The warehouseman will make written application to the supervisor of the district in which the warehouse is located for permission to destroy such spirits. The application shall specify the kind and approximate quantity, proof, and proof gallons of such distilled spirits; the name, address, and registered distillery number of the distiller who produced the spirits; the date of production; the serial numbers of the barrels, tanks, or cases in which the spirits are stored, and a statement showing the condition of the spirits which renders them unfit for beverage purposes.

§ 185.512 Inspection and analysis. Upon receipt of such application, the district supervisor will require an inspection to be made of the spirits by the storekeeper-gauger to determine the correctness of the application and to procure a sample for submission to the district chemist for analysis to determine whether the spirits are unfit for beverage purposes. Each sample will consist of one pint, or if deemed advisable, one quart, in the case of barrels and tanks, and one or more bottles representative of each bottling lot. The bottle containing the sample will be labeled in such manner as will readily identify the spirits. The samples will be forwarded to the district chemist at the expense of the warehouseman. The district chemist will analyze the samples and furnish a report of such analysis to the district supervisor. The unused portion of the samples will be retained by the district chemist for further examination, if necessary.

§ 185.513 Action by district supervisor—(a) Unfit for beverage purposes. If the district supervisor finds that the spirits are unfit for beverage purposes, he will authorize such spirits to be destroyed by the warehouseman under the supervision of a storekeeper-gauger.

(b) Fit for beverage purposes. If the district supervisor finds that the spirits are fit for beverage purposes, he will disapprove the application and notify the warehouseman that the spirits have been determined to be fit for beverage purposes and that they may not be destroyed without payment of tax.

§ 185.514 Gauge and destruction. Spirits authorized to be destroyed will be gauged by the storekeeper-gauger and reported for that purpose on Form 1520, in triplicate. Following such gauge the spirits may be destroyed under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger by running the same into a sewer or by other suitable means to preclude their recovery. The storekeeper-gauger will then certify to such destruction and the manner thereof on the Form 1520, return one copy of the form to the warehouseman, retain one copy for his file, and forward one copy to the district supervisor. The applicable provisions of §§ 185.480 to 185.496 will be followed in connection with any package bearing evidence of loss by theft or otherwise.

SUBPART X—TRANSFER OF SPIRITS TO BOTTLING-IN-BOND DEPARTMENT

§ 185.520 Notice of commencement, Form 404. Where a bottling-in-bond department has been approved, the proprietor of the warehouse will, before engaging in the business of bottling spirits, give notice to the district supervisor through the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse on Form 404, in triplicate, of his intention to bottle distilled spirits in bond. All information indicated by the lines on the form and the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto, and as required by this part, shall be furnished. Notices on Form 404 must be signed in accordance with the instructions printed on the form and sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths: Provided, That if the form officially prescribed for such notice contains therein a provision for verification by a written declaration that the notice is made under the penalties of perjury, the notice shall be verified by the execution of such declaration, and the declaration so executed shall be in lieu of the oath required herein for verification. Upon approval of Form 404 by the district supervisor, two copies will be forwarded to the storekeeper-gauger in charge, and the original copy will be retained in his office. The storekeeper-gauger will deliver one copy to the proprietor, and the other copy will be retained by him in the Government office.

§ 185.521 Restrictions. No operations pertaining to (a) transferring of spirits from the storage portion of the warehouse to the bottling-in-bond department, (b) gauging and dumping of spirits for bottling, (c) bottling, or (d) removal or shipping from the bottling-in-bond department shall be carried on during other than regular business hours in which the internal revenue bonded warehouse is operated.

§ 185.522 Procedure. The transfer of distilled spirits to the bottling-in-bond department and the bottling thereof shall be pursuant to application made to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse on Form 1515, in quadruplicate, and in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Subparts NN and RR of this part.

§ 185.523 Mingling in gauging tank of spirits intended for bottling in bond. Only spirits which are eligible for mingling for bottling in bond under the provisions of § 185.901 may be mingled in a warehouse gauging tank for convenience in transfer to the bottling-in-bond department.

(53 Stat. 342 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2903)

SUBPART Y—WITHDRAWALS OF SAMPLES OF DISTILLED SPIRITS

SAMPLES OF BRANDY OR FRUIT SPIRITS

§ 185.530 General. The proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse may withdraw from containers in the warehouse suitable samples of brandy or fruit spirits, which samples shall be tax-free if for laboratory analysis and taxpaid if for any other use.

(53 Stat. 353; 26 U. S. C. 3037)

TAX-FREE SAMPLES OF BRANDY OR FRUIT SPIRITS FOR LABORATORY ANALYSIS

§ 185,531 Number and size. Samples of brandy or fruit spirits for laboratory analysis (including organoleptic examination) must be taken from packages designated as sample packages or from storage tanks. Except upon authority of the district supervisor or the Commissioner, not more than one sample may be removed from any sample package or from the same lot of brandy or fruit spirits in a storage tank in a period of six months. The number of packages that may be designated as sample packages shall be limited, as to each kind of brandy or fruit spirits and each type of cooperage (as designated by the mandatory marks and brands on the packages), to not more than one in each twenty-five packages of any such lot of brandy or fruit spirits of the same entry gauge on storage in the warehouse: Provided, That where less than 25 packages of any such lot of brandy or fruit spirits are on storage, one package in the lot may be designated as a sample package. Samples for organoleptic examination only may not exceed one-half pint. Samples for laboratory analysis may not exceed one pint. Such samples may be withdrawn upon approval by the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the warehouse of a written application filed in accordance with the provisions of §§ 185.536 to 185.538. In any instance where a one-pint sample is found to be an insufficient quantity for laboratory analysis, the district supervisor, upon receipt of a statement showing the necessity for an additional quantity, may authorize the withdrawal of an additional sample, not to exceed one pint, from any designated sample package or storage tank. The withdrawal in excess of these limitations of tax-free samples of brandy or fruit spirits shall not be permitted, unless it is shown that such samples are insufficient for the purpose intended, and the Commissioner authorizes the withdrawal of additional samples.

§ 185.532 Disposition of samples. Tax-free samples must be used solely for laboratory analysis. Such samples may not be furnished to salesmen and dealers for advertising or soliciting purposes. Remnants or residues of tax-free samples taken from the warehouse, remaining after analysis and which are not desired to be retained as laboratory specimens or for further analysis, should be returned to vessels in the distilling system containing similar spirits where the warehouse is on or contiguous to the distillery premises, unless the condition of the remnants or residues is such as to render them unsuitable for such disposition. If such remnants or residues of samples are not returned to the distilling system, they should be destroyed.

TAXPAID SAMPLES OF BRANDY OR FRUIT SPIRITS FOR OTHER THAN LABORATORY ANALYSIS

§ 185.533 Number, size, and use. Samples of brandy or fruit spirits for other than laboratory analysis, subject to payment of tax thereon, must be taken from packages designated as sample packages. Such samples must be used strictly for sample purposes, and the number and size of the samples must be restricted to that necessary for bona fide sample purposes. The number of packages from which such samples are taken must be restricted to the minimum necessary to accomplish the desired purpose. As a rule, it should not be necessary to take samples from more than one or two packages of a given lot of brandy or fruit spirits of the same distillation, kind of cooperage, etc. When the warehouseman desires to procure samples from a given lot of brandy or fruit spirits in warehouse, he will limit the number of packages from which it is desired to take samples to the minimum necessary to procure representative samples of such spirits. Thereafter, if it is desired to procure additional samples from the same lot of spirits, the samples should be taken from the same packages.

SAMPLES OF DISTILLED SPIRITS OTHER THAN BRANDY OR FRUIT SPIRITS

§ 185.534 Limitation on number, size, and use of samples of distilled spirits other than brandy or fruit spirits. Samples of distilled spirits other than brandy or fruit spirits may be taken only for organoleptic examination or analytical purposes from packages designated as sample packages and from storage tanks. Except upon authority of the district supervisor or the Commissioner, not more than one sample may be removed from any sample package or from the same lot of spirits in a storage tank in a period of 6 months. The number of packages that may be designated as sample packages shall be limited, as to each kind of spirits and each type of cooperage (as designated by the mandatory marks and brands on the packages), to not more than one in each 25 packages of any lot of spirits of the same day's production on storage in the warehouse: Provided, That where less than 25 packages of any such lot of spirits are on storage, one package in the lot may be designated as a sample package. Samples for organoleptic examination may not exceed one-half pint from any package or storage tank. Samples for laboratory analysis may not exceed one pint from any package or storage tank. Such samples may be withdrawn upon approval by the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the warehouse of a written application filed in accordance with the provisions of §§ 185.536 to 185.538. In any instance where a one-pint sample is found to be an insufficient quantity for laboratory analysis, the district supervisor, upon receipt of a statement showing the necessity for an additional quantity, may authorize the withdrawal of an additional sample, not to exceed one pint, from any designated sample package or storage tank. The withdrawal of samples in excess of these limitations shall not be authorized unless it is shown that such samples are insufficient for the purpose intended, and the Commissioner authorizes the withdrawal of additional samples.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 185.536 Application for samples for organoleptic examination or laboratory analysis, and tax-paid samples of brandy for other purposes. When the warehouseman desires to procure samples for organoleptic examination, samples not in excess of one pint for laboratory analysis, or tax-paid samples of brandy or fruit spirits for other purposes, he shall make application in triplicate to the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the warehouse. The application shall be given a serial number, beginning with "1" for the first application and running consecutively thereafter. The application shall show (a) the kind of spirits, (b) the name of the distiller, (c) the registered number of the distillery and the State in which located, (d) the serial numbers of the packages or storage tanks from which the samples are to be removed, (e) the dates of entry for deposit, (f) the type of cooperage, (g) if the samples are to be removed from sample packages, the dates the packages were received in the warehouse, (h) whether, in the case of brandy or fruit spirits, the samples are desired for organoleptic examination or laboratory analysis tax free, or for other purposes subject to payment of tax, (i) whether, in the case of spirits other than brandy or fruit spirits, the samples are required for organoleptic examination or for laboratory analysis, (j) the reasons why the samples are desired, and (k) the size of each sample to be taken.

§ 185.538 Application for other samples. Where the warehouseman desires samples in excess of the number or quantities which may be authorized by the storekeeper-gauger or the district supervisor, he shall make application, in quadruplicate, through the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the warehouse, to the Commissioner. The application shall be given a serial number within the series prescribed in § 185.536 and show the information called for in items (a) through (k) of that section.

§ 185.539 Approval of application by the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the warehouse. Upon receipt of an application for the withdrawal of samples in quantities not to exceed one-half pint for organoleptic examination or in quantities not to exceed one pint for laboratory analysis, or for the withdrawal of tax-paid samples of brandy or fruit spirits from any package or storage tank, the storekeeper-gauger shall determine from his records whether, in the case of packages, the designated packages are eligible for sampling or, in the case of spirits in storage tanks, the lot of spirits contained in a tank is eligible for sampling. If he shall find the number and quantities of samples to be taken do not exceed the number and quantities permitted under §§ 185.531, 185.533, or 195.534, as the case may be, he may authorize the withdrawal of the samples. In the case of samples for laboratory analysis, the storekeeper-gauger should assure himself of the propriety of the request. If he finds upon examination of his records that the number or quantities desired are in excess of the number or quantities permitted, he shall write upon each copy of the application a statement disclosing the reasons why the samples may not be removed. The storekeeper-gauger, upon approval or disapproval of the application, shall return one copy to the warehouseman, forward one copy to the district supervisor, and retain the original copy in his office.

gauger shall determine from his records whether an additional sample may be authorized under the limitations of § 185.531 or 185.534, as the case may be. If he finds the additional sample may not be authorized under the limitations, he shall write upon each copy of the application, over his signature, a statement showing the reasons why the sample may not be withdrawn. In such case, he shall return one copy to the proprietor, forward one copy to the district supervisor, and retain the original in his office. If he finds the additional sample may be authorized, he shall note such fact upon the application, over his signature, and shall forward the application to the district supervisor with his recommendation. The district supervisor shall determine from the facts presented whether the additional sample is necessary for the proposed type of laboratory analysis and shall thereupon approve or disapprove the application. He shall retain a copy in his office and return the original and one copy to the storekeeper-gauger at the warehouse, who shall file the original and return the copy to the applicant.

§ 185.541 Approval of application by the Commissioner. Upon receipt of an application to the Commissioner for authorization to withdraw samples, the storekeeper-gauger shall note upon each copy of the application the number and quantities of samples which have been removed from each package and from each lot represented. The storekeeper-gauger shall thereupon forward all copies of the application to the district supervisor, who shall transmit all copies to the Commissioner with his recommendation. Upon approval or disapproval of the application, three copies shall be returned to the district supervisor, who shall retain a copy and return the original and one copy to the storekeeper-gauger at the warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger shall file the original and return the remaining copy to the applicant.

(53 Stat. 353; 26 U. S. C. 3037)

§ 185.543 Label. At the time of the withdrawal of a sample the proprietor shall prepare a label and a copy thereof. The label and copy shall be prepared on paper having approximate dimensions of 3" x 5". The proprietor shall show on the label and on the copy, in the order listed and upon separate lines, the following information:

(a) The word "Sample;"

(b) The serial number of the approved application covering the withdrawal of the spirits;

(c) The kind of spirits;

(d) The serial number of the container from which removed;

(e) The name of the distiller, followed by the registered number of the distillery and the name of the State in which located;

(f) The purpose for which the sample is intended; and, if for laboratory analysis, the name and address of the laboratory or person making the analysis (unless the analysis is to be made by the warehouseman at the warehouse premises, or premises contiguous thereto);

(g) The size of the sample and, in regard to fruit spirits and brandy, the quantity in proof gallons extended to the 4th decimal place (the proof gallon content need not be shown on samples of other spirits);

(h) The name of the warehouseman, followed by the registered number of the warehouse and the name of the State in which located. Upon completion, the label and the copy shall be presented to the storekeeper-gauger, who shall verify the accuracy of the data thereon, date and sign both copies, and supervise the affixing of the label to the sample container. Where the sample is taken from a container of fruit spirits or brandy, the storekeeper-gauger shall write upon the copy of the label a statement showing whether the sample was procured tax-free or subject to payment of tax. The copy of the label shall be filed by the storekeeper-gauger in accordance with the provisions of § 185.544.

§ 185.544 Office record. The proprietor shall furnish sufficient file cases for the filing and retention of sample records. The copies of the labels shall be kept by the storekeeper-gauger as a record of samples removed and shall be filed numerically by package or tank serial number under the name and number of the producing distiller. The record shall be maintained as an active file for each sample package and for each storage tank from which samples are withdrawn, during the period such packages or spirits contained in such storage tanks are on storage in the warehouse. At the time of preparing Form 1520 or Form 1619 covering the removal of a sample package, or upon the emptying of a storage tank from which samples had been taken, the copies of labels covering samples removed from such package or storage tank shall be removed from the active file to an inactive file for storage.

(53 Stat. 353; 26 U. S. C. 3037)

(53 Stat. 353; 26 U. S. C. 3037)

§ 185.547 Report of taxable samples. Each day taxable samples of brandy or fruit spirits are withdrawn the storekeeper-gauger shall enter on Form 1615, in quadruplicate, a record of the taxable samples removed. All information called for by the form shall be furnished. At the end of each month the storekeeper-gauger shall complete the report, retain one copy of the form and deliver the remaining three copies to the warehouseman, who shall forward the three copies to the collector with remittance for the tax due. The collector shall execute his certificate of taxpayment on each copy of the form, retain one copy, and return the remaining two copies to the warehouseman, who will retain one copy and deliver the other copy to the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger shall note the taxpayment on his retained copy and forward the other copy to the district supervisor.

SAMPLES FOR INTERNAL REVENUE BUREAU

§ 185.548 Record. Where samples of distilled spirits are taken periodically from packages in internal revenue bonded warehouses for research purposes by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, the storekeeper-gauger will enter the date and quantity withdrawn on the Form 1520 or Form 1619 covering the deposit of such packages in the warehouse. If the packages are to be taxpaid under the provisions of § 185.492 credit will be allowed for the total quantity of all samples taken from any package for such purposes subsequent to the last official gauge.

SUBPART Z—TAX ON DISTILLED SPIRITS

§ 185.555 Rate of tax. The law imposes a tax on distilled spirits produced in, or imported into, the United States, at the rate prescribed therein, on each proof gallon, or wine gallon when below 100 degrees of proof, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon, to be paid when withdrawn from bond.

§ 185.556 Attachment of tax. Under the law the tax attaches to distilled spirits as soon as such substance comes into existence as such, whether it be subsequently separated as pure or impure spirits, or be immediately, or at any subsequent time, transferred into any other substance, either in the process of original production or by any subsequent process.

SUBPART AA—WITHDRAWAL OF DISTILLED SPIRITS FROM WAREHOUSE

§ 185.560 Kinds of withdrawal. Distilled spirits deposited in an internal revenue bonded warehouse may, as hereinafter provided, be withdrawn: (a) Upon taxpayment; (b) for exportation; (c) for use as supplies on vessels and aircraft; (d) for transfer in bond to another internal revenue bonded warehouse; (e) for transfer in bond to a customs manufacturing bonded warehouse; (f) for transfer to a distillery for redistillation upon a showing of the need therefor; (g) for use of the United States; (h) for denaturation (rum of not less than 150 degrees of proof only); or (i) for use in the fortification of wines (brandy only). Distilled spirits produced at 160 degrees or more of proof under section 2883, I. R. C., may be withdrawn, upon tax payment, for beverage purposes only.

§ 185.562 Preparation of withdrawal reports by proprietor. When distilled spirits are to be withdrawn from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for any of the purposes listed in § 185.560 the warehouseman shall prepare the required withdrawal report on Form 1520, 1619, or 1620, as the case may be, in accordance with the instructions in this part, except as provided in § 185.563. The storekeeper-gauger shall verify such forms.

§ 185.564 Withdrawal on original gauge. Distilled spirits may be withdrawn from an internal revenue bonded warehouse on the original gauge where the same have remained in such warehouse for a period not exceeding 30 days from the date of original gauge.

(53 Stat. 334; 26 U. S. C. 2881)

MARKING, BRANDING AND STAMPING PACKAGES

§ 185.565 Warehouseman to mark and brand packages. The prescribed marks and brands peculiar to individual packages, whether the same are required to be cut, burned, imprinted, or stenciled, shall be placed upon the package by the warehouseman, under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 185.566 Rebranding spirits—grain, spirits—cane, spirits—fruit. Spirits—grain, spirits—cane, spirits—fruit, etc., which were produced at 190 degrees of proof or more and which were entered into a warehouse prior to September 1, 1950, may, prior to withdrawal for tax payment, be rebranded by the warehouseman "Neutral spirits—grain," "Neutral spirits—cane," etc. The new designation must, in any event, be shown on Form 1520.

§ 185.567 Quick-aging. Where whisky is quick-aged, by any process, in packages at any time prior to tax payment, the letters "Q. A." will be burned, cut or stenciled upon the head of the package when such quick-aging is completed.

§ 185.568 Mechanical labor. All mechanical labor pertaining to the gauging of distilled spirits at an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall be performed by the warehouseman.

§ 185.569 Use of scales. The officer will carefully examine the scale to ascertain that the same is in good condition. He shall balance the scales before weighing either empty or filled packages, and will frequently test, by means of test weights provided in accordance with § 185.113, the accuracy of such scales. Where a weighing beam is used the officer will see that during the process of weighing the beam is horizontal, is properly adjusted, and that it balances perfectly with the barrel hooks and counterpoise attached. In case a scale becomes inaccurate for any reason, the storekeeper-gauger will not permit it to be used while it is in such condition.

§ 185.570 Weighing packages. During the process of weighing, the storekeeper-gauger shall personally verify the weight of each package and enter the same in the proper column of the applicable gauge report. Care will be taken at all times to note the correct reading of the scale to the half pound and in case of doubt as to which graduation shall be read, the package will be allowed to preponderate; that is, the graduation denoting the lesser weight will be read.

§ 185.571 Proofing of spirits. The storekeeper-gauger shall personally take the proof of all spirits gauged, and enter the same on the applicable gauge report. The storekeeper-gauger will follow strictly the instructions set forth in the Gauging Manual (26 CFR, Part 186) respecting the proofing of spirits, in order that the proof may be accurately determined. Hydrometers for determining the proof of distilled spirits are supplied by the Government for use of storekeeper-gaugers. The use of other than official hydrometers by storekeeper-gaugers is prohibited.

§ 185.572 Verification of marks and brands. The storekeeper-gauger shall verify the marks and brands required to be placed on packages at the time of withdrawal, by comparison with the gauge sheet, and shall satisfy himself as to the accuracy and correctness of the marks and brands, and stamps (if any).

§ 185.573 Affixing and cancelling stamps. When packages of spirits, including blended brandy, are removed taxpaid or for exportation, the taxpaid, export, or wholesale liquor dealer's stamp, and, in the case of taxpaid blended brandy, the Class B rectified spirits stamps required by section 2801 (e) (5), I. R. C., will be affixed and cancelled by the warehouseman, under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger, in the manner prescribed by § 185.608, prior to removal of any such packages from the warehouse. Certificates of taxpayment covering spirits gauged in bulk in a gauging tank for removal in approved containers including pipelines will be cancelled and disposed of in the manner prescribed by §§ 185.625 and 185.626.

§ 185.574 Stamps, marks, and brands not to be obscured. The stamps, marks, and brands required by law and the provisions of this part to be placed upon casks and packages of distilled spirits are designed to evidence the legal status of the spirits contained therein, and they must not be obscured in any manner or covered by encasing the package bearing the same in another, but must at all times be in such condition as to admit of ready examination by revenue officers.

DRAWING-OFF SPIRITS FROM GAUGING OR STORAGE TANKS

§ 185.575 Supervision. The storekeeper-gauger is required to be present and personally supervise the drawing-off of all spirits from warehouse tanks either into approved containers, including tank cars, or for removal by pipe line. The spirits will be carefully gauged by the storekeeper-gauger and the details entered on report of gauge as hereinafter provided. The outlet of the storage or gauging tank will be immediately closed by the proprietor and locked by the storekeeper-gauger when the desired quantity of spirits has been drawn therefrom. It will be the duty of the storekeeper-gauger to determine that all operations involved in the drawing-off of spirits from gauging or storage tanks, including the dumping of packages into the gauging tank for bulk gauging are properly performed.

§ 185.576 Adjusting proof. The proof of distilled spirits in warehouse storage tanks shall be adjusted to a whole degree of proof prior to filling containers such as tank cars, barrels, or drums. Adjusting the proof to tenths of a degree either above or below the whole degree will not be permitted.

§ 185.577 Use of tank scales. When spirits are to be gauged in a gauging tank, either for deposit in or removal from the warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will balance the scales on which the gauging tank is mounted before the spirits are run into such tank for gauging. The storekeeper-gauger will not permit the use of any scales not tested as required by § 185.114 or which upon testing are found to be inaccurate.

§ 185.578 Gauging tanks. When spirits are to be removed by pipe line they will be run into a properly equipped gauging tank, except that where no gauging tank is provided in the internal revenue bonded warehouse, (a) brandy may be transferred by pipe line from storage tanks direct to a gauging tank in the fortifying room of a contiguous winery (only if warehouse is located on distillery premises where the brandy was produced); (b) rum of 150 degrees of proof or more may be transferred by pipe line from storage tanks direct to a gauging tank in a denaturing bonded warehouse (only if both warehouses are located on the distillery premises); or (c) spirits of 160 degrees of proof or more for redistillation may be transferred by pipe line from storage tanks direct to a gauging tank in a distillery on the same or contiguous premises.

§ 185.579 Pipe line removals. Pipe lines used for the transfer of spirits to qualified establishments on the same or contiguous premises, or to tank cars or tank trucks for shipment, must conform to the requirements of § 185.124, except that the spirits may be transferred into or from a tank car or into a tank truck by means of a hose connection where the same is in full view of the Government officer throughout its entire length. The valves on such pipe lines shall be kept closed and locked at all times, except when necessary to be open for the transfer of spirits. The keys to all locks on the valves of such pipe lines shall remain at all times in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger. Spirits may be transferred by pipe line only under immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

TIME OF REMOVAL OF SPIRITS

§ 185.580 Immediate removal upon tax payment. When distilled spirits have been gauged or regauged for tax payment, the same must be promptly tax paid and removed from the warehouse. Likewise, where spirits are gauged or regauged for withdrawal for other purposes, they must be promptly removed from the warehouse upon approval of the withdrawal papers.

§ 185.581 Restrictions on removal at night. No person shall remove any distilled spirits from any internal revenue bonded warehouse at any other time than after sunrise and before sunset in any cask or package containing more than 10 gallons.

ADDITION OF BURNT SUGAR OR CARAMEL, OR OAK CHIPS, TO PACKAGES

§ 185.582 Addition of oak chips. Where distilled spirits are found to be unmerchantable owing to a deficiency in color, oak chips which have not been treated with any chemical may, under the conditions and limitations prescribed in the regulations governing the production of the distilled spirits, be added to the packages after the spirits have been regauged for tax payment and prior to the purchase and the affixing of the taxpaid stamps. Such packages shall, in addition to all other marks and brands required by this part, be branded with the words "Treated with oak chips."

§ 185.583 Addition of burnt sugar or caramel. Where brandy is found to be unmerchantable owing to a deficiency in color, a small quantity of burnt sugar or caramel may, under the conditions and limitations prescribed in the regulations governing the production of brandy, be added to the packages after the brandy has been regauged for tax payment and prior to the purchase and affixing of the taxpaid stamps. Burnt sugar or caramel may not be so added to any spirits other than brandy. Such packages, in addition to all other marks and brands required by this part, shall be branded with the letters "B. S. A."

DESTRUCTION OF STAMPS, MARKS AND BRANDS

§ 185.584 Upon emptying container. When approved containers of distilled spirits, including tank cars and tank trucks are emptied, all stamps, marks and brands required to be placed thereon must be completely effaced and obliterated, except the portions of stamps and certificates of tax payment required to be submitted to the district supervisor. Labels affixed to tank cars of spirits shipped in bond must be destroyed when such cars are emptied. Certificates of tax payment affixed to tank cars and tank trucks of taxpaid spirits, must, when the tank cars or trucks are emptied, be scalped and the scalped portion of the certificate forwarded by the consignee to the district supervisor, as provided in this part. The remainder of such certificates will be destroyed. Certificates of tax payment covering transfers by pipe lines to contiguous establishments will be forwarded to the district supervisor by the consignor storekeeper-gauger in accordance with provisions of § 185.626.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 185.585 Proprietor's record and report, Form 52C. The proprietor of every internal revenue bonded warehouse shall enter all spirits removed from the warehouse on Form 52C, as provided in Subpart WW of this part.

(53 Stat. 328; 26 U. S. C. 2859)

§ 185.586 Storekeeper-gauger's records. The storekeeper-gauger at an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall enter the date of withdrawal of all packages or other containers, and cases, of spirits removed from the warehouse in an appropriate column of Form 1520, Form 1619, or Form 1620, as the case may be, covering the deposit of the spirits, as provided in Subpart UU of this part. The storekeeper-gauger shall also report the withdrawal of all spirits from the warehouse in his monthly report, Form 1513, and in his summary of deposits and withdrawals, Form 1621, as provided in subparts UU and VV of this part. The storekeeper-gauger shall also enter on Form 1621 the details of the withdrawal of brandy for blending and the return of the blended brandy to the warehouse.

DETERMINATION OF TARE

§ 185.588 Method of determination. When packages of spirits are to be individually gauged for withdrawal from the warehouse, the actual tare of the package will be determined: Provided, That until the close of business December 31, 1950, the average increase in tare may be determined and used to establish the tare at time of withdrawal. Where the average tare method is used, the proprietor will improvise a column on Form 1520, headed "Entry Tare," and will enter therein the tare on entry gauge of each package to be withdrawn.

§ 185.589 Actual tare method. The actual tare of a package to be withdrawn will be determined by weighing the package after the contents thereof have been temporarily removed to a separate container and, in the event the proprietor has elected to rinse the package, after the rinse water has been drained from the package. The storekeeper-gauger will supervise all operations incident to the determination of actual tare, examine each package to see that it is thoroughly drained (of spirits or rinse water) before determining its tare, and see that the spirits are returned to the proper package. The proprietor will furnish all labor necessary for the determination of actual tare.

§ 185.590 Average tare method. This method of determinirg tare may be used only for lots of spirits of the same kind and cooperage warehoused within a period of ten days of each other at proofs not differing more than 10 percent. The average increase in tare for such a lot of spirits will be established by finding the actual tare, as described in § 185.589, for not less than 20 percent of the packages to be gauged for withdrawal, and determining the actual increase in tare for such packages. Where the average tare method is used, however, no rinsing of packages will be permitted. The words "Average tare taken" will be entered conspicuously on Form 1520 by the proprietor and the number of packages to be used as a basis for the determination will be stated thereon as 20 percent, 25 percent, 33⅓ percent, or 50 percent, of those to be withdrawn. The packages to be used for the determination will be selected at random by the storekeeper-gauger. Where application of the percentage to the number of packages to be withdrawn results in a fraction, the fraction will be counted as an additional package. Not less than two packages may be weighed to determine the average increase in tare of any lot of five packages or less. The actual tare found will be entered by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1520 for those packages for which it was determined, and an asterisk (*) will be placed to the left of the serial number of such packages. The actual increase in tare of each such package will be noted in the margin or other unused space of Form 1520 by the storekeeper-gauger, who will add these increases together and divide by the number of packages weighed to determine the average increase in tare to be applied to the other packages of the lot to be withdrawn. If the average increase so found contains a fraction of a pound less than twenty-five hundredths (0.25), it will be dropped; if twenty-five hundredths (0.25) or any intermediate fraction to and including seventy-five hundredths (0.75), it will be called one-half pound; if above seventy-five hundredths (0.75), it will be called 1 pound. The average increase in tare thus ascertained will be regarded as the increase of each of the remaining packages enumerated in the application for withdrawal and will be added to the entry tare of each such package to determine the withdrawal tare.

§ 185.591 Limitations for reused packages. When determining the increase in tare on reused packages selected for the purpose of ascertaining the average, if it is found that the increase in tare varies more than six pounds as between any two packages weighed, average increase in tare will not be allowed on the packages to be regauged, and actual tare must be taken on all such packages.

SUBPART BB—TAXPAID WITHDRAWALS IN PACKAGES

§ 185.600 Application, Form 179. Application for taxpayment and withdrawal of distilled spirits in packages from a bonded warehouse shall be made by the proprietor on Form 179, in quadruplicate. Unless the packages are to be withdrawn on the original gauge, the proprietor will indicate on the form the method of gauge desired, i. e., whether the contents of each package will be determined, or whether all packages of the lot will be dumped in a gauging tank for bulk gauge and subsequent removal by pipeline or in packages under the provisions of §§ 185.620–185.636. If the proprietor elects an individual gauge of each package, he shall also indicate on the Form 179 whether he desires the packages to be rinsed before the spirits are gauged or whether he desires to taxpay without rinsing. If the packages are not rinsed before gauging, recovery of spirits by rinsing of the packages at the time of dumping for bottling or rectification will be precluded. The proprietor's elections as to method of gauge and whether the packages will be rinsed may not be changed once gauging of the spirits has begun. Where the spirits are to be drawn into packages from a storage tank, the proprietor shall state, in addition to other applicable data on the form, the estimated quantity to be withdrawn. Separate applications shall be filed for the withdrawal of spirits from storage tanks. Likewise a separate application shall be filed for each lot of spirits in packages dumped for bulk gauge in a gauging tank in accordance with § 185.620. All copies of the application will be delivered to the storekeeper-gauger at the warehouse.

§ 185.601 Preparation of Form 1520. Except where spirits are to be withdrawn in packages filled from warehouse storage tanks at the time of withdrawal, the proprietor will prepare Form 1520, in quintuplicate, covering the packages shown in the application, Form 179. The proprietor will enter in the heading of the Form 1520 all the information called for and will show as to each package the necessary details of the entry gauge in the columns headed "Serial Nos. of Packages or Tank Cars," "Kind of Spirits," "Original Tax Gallons," "Last Gauge," "Date of Original Entry for Deposit" and if the packages are to be gauged by the average tare method, the entry tare will be shown as provided in § 185.590. If the "Last Gauge" was established by a Form 1698 the serial number of the form will be entered in columns 9 and 10. In the event a regauge is to be made upon withdrawal of packages which have remained in the warehouse for a period not exceeding 30 days from the date of the original gauge the proprietor will note on Form 1520 the reason for requesting a regauge. All copies of the Form 1520 will be delivered to the storekeeper-gauger with the Form 179.

§ 185.602 Gauge and taxpayment in packages. If the spirits to be withdrawn are in packages, the storekeeper-gauger will examine them and where it is determined that any package bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, such package will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. Packages which do not bear evidence of unusual loss, or of tampering, will then be gauged, unless they are to be withdrawn on the original gauge. The storekeeper-gauger will enter on Form 1520 the details of gauge determined by him for each package: Provided, That if the proprietor has elected to rinse the packages and to add any or all of the rinse water to the spirits, the gross weight, tare and proof will be determined after the packages, including char or wood chips, have been rinsed and the rinse water thoroughly mixed with the spirits. As each package is dumped the loose char and wood chips, if any, shall be collected and after rinsing shall either be returned to the package or destroyed as provided in § 185.902. Water of any temperature may be used to rinse the packages. The temperature of the water must be marked on each package in accordance with § 185.609. Where the proprietor does not wish to add any or all of the rinse water to the spirits such rinse water must be poured on the ground or into a sewer in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will in all cases note on the Form 1520 "Rinsed" or "Not Rinsed," as the case may be and enter the remainder of the information required by the form prior to taxpayment. The storekeeper-gauger will execute his report on all copies of Form 179 and deliver them with four copies of Form 1520 to the proprietor who will forward all copies of both forms to the collector of internal revenue with proper remittance for the tax. If the spirits to be taxpaid are in storage tanks and it is intended to taxpay the packages immediately upon the filling gauge, the spirits will, upon receipt of Form 179 be drawn into the designated packages and gauged, marked, and branded in accordance with § 185.399 and serially numbered in accordance with § 185.401. The storekeeper-gauger will prepare Form 1520, in quintuplicate, and enter thereon the details of the gauge and proof of distillation. Four copies of Form 1520, accompanied by all copies of Form 179 with the storekeeper-gauger's report thereon duly executed will be delivered by the storekeeper-gauger to the proprietor of the warehouse, who will enter the details of the gauge in the space provided therefor on Form 179 and then forward all copies of both forms to the collector of internal revenue with proper remittance for the tax.

§ 185.603 Gauge and taxpayment of blended brandy. If the spirits to be withdrawn are brandies blended in accordance with the provisions of section 2801 (c) (5), I. R. C., the storekeeper-gauger shall compute the additional tax at 30 cents per proof gallon on the quantity of spirits in each package at the time of regauge for withdrawal and shall enter in the appropriate column on Form 179 the total amount of tax due under section 2801 (e) (5), I. R. C., in addition to the amount of tax due on the brandy under section 2800 (a) (1), I. R. C.

§ 185.604 Determining tare. The tare of a package to be withdrawn will be determined in accordance with the provisions of §§ 185.588–185.591.

§ 185.605 Issuance of taxpaid stamps. The collector will issue the taxpaid stamps. Each taxpaid stamp shall bear the signature of the collector, who shall write or stamp thereon the date of payment of the tax, name of the proprietor (warehouseman), the number of gallons and tenths of gallons of proof spirits, and the serial number of the cask. Facsimile signatures of collectors may be affixed by the use of hand stamps to the taxpaid stamps, care being taken to use only such ink as will neither fade nor blur. The collector will enter the serial numbers of the stamps in the appropriate spaces on all copies of Form 1520, sign the certificate of taxpayment on all copies of Form 179, retain one copy each of Form 179 and Form 1520, and return the remaining three copies of Form 179 and three copies of Form 1520 to the warehouseman with the stamps.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.607 Removal of spirits. The warehouseman shall deliver all copies of Form 179 and Form 1520, with the taxpaid stamps, to the storekeeper-gauger who will verify the data thereon with his retained copy of Form 1520 and, if no discrepancies are found, he will note the serial numbers of the stamps on the retained copy of Form 1520, and, after affixing his signature or a facsimile thereof, to the stamps, will return them to the warehouseman. The warehouseman will stamp, mark and brand the packages, as provided in §§ 185.608 and 185.609, after which he will remove the spirits immediately. When the spirits have been removed, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his statement of the date of withdrawal on the three copies of Form 179, retain one copy of each Form 179 and Form 1520, deliver one copy of Form 179 and two copies of Form 1520 to the warehouseman, and forward one copy of each to the district supervisor. The warehouseman will send one copy of Form 1520 to the vendee.

§ 185.608 Affixing and cancelling stamps. When packages of distilled spirits are withdrawn from an internal revenue bonded warehouse upon payment of tax (or for exportation) the tax-paid (or export) stamps will be affixed and canceled by the proprietor under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger before the packages are removed from the warehouse. The stamps must be securely affixed to the Government head of the package with a good adhesive to effectively prevent removal without mutilation. The stamp must be canceled immediately after it has been affixed to the package by imprinting five parallel waved lines across the stamp with a stencil, which will be provided by the proprietor. The stamp will be covered with a protective coating of shellac, lacquer varnish, or glue which is sufficiently transparent to permit legibility of the markings on the stamp, except where the packages are to be transferred to contiguous premises and the coating is not required for protecting the legibility of the stamp. Such stamps must remain upon the packages until the spirits therein are emptied or drawn off.

§ 185.609 Marking and branding packages of distilled spirits. Packages of spirits gauged for tax payment must be tax paid and removed from the warehouse promptly. If the spirits are to be removed in packages the stamp must be affixed to the Government head of the packages on the left side and there will be plainly marked in letters and figures of not less than one-half inch in height the serial number of the tax-paid stamp, and the date of tax payment, abbreviated as follows: T. P. S. No. ------; T. P. ------. In addition there will be stenciled on the Government head of each package the information "Rinsed" or "Not Rinsed," as the case may be. Where the package is rinsed, the temperature of the water used for rinsing will be marked on the package, as for example, "Rinsed—115F." The withdrawal markings, except those showing whether the package was rinsed, may be waived by the district supervisor when packages of spirits are to be removed to a tax paid bottling house or rectifying plant in the immediate vicinity of the warehouse for immediate bottling or dumping for rectification.

§ 185.610 Marks and brands illustrated. The following cut illustrates the order and manner in which the marks shall be applied to the head of each package upon filling and upon tax payment. When spirits are transferred to customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, withdrawn for export, for the use of United States, for the fortification of wine or other purposes, the required withdrawal information will be shown in lieu of the taxpayment data shown in the cut:

§ 185.611 Proprietor to furnish required labor and material. Proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses are required to furnish all the help needed to handle the cask or package; to furnish the glue, shellac, or other adhesive, tacks, stenciling material, brushes, stencils, branding or cutting equipment, vessels, and every necessary facility for the preparation of the cask or package to be put upon the market, except the instruments for proofing the spirits. The storekeeper-gauger is authorized to require such materials to be furnished and he will see that the cask or package is in every way complete for marketing when it leaves the warehouse.

SUBPART CC—TAXPAID WITHDRAWALS BY GAUGE TANK

§ 185.620 Application, Form 179. Application for taxpayment of distilled spirits to be dumped from packages or removed from storage tanks or tank cars into a gauging tank for subsequent withdrawal by pipe line to contiguous establishments or in approved containers, including tank cars and tank trucks, shall be made by the proprietor of the warehouse on Form 179, in quadruplicate. Where the spirits to be withdrawn are in packages, the serial numbers and original tax gallons will be stated on Form 179, which will be accompanied by Form 1520, in quintuplicate, prepared by the proprietor in the manner provided in § 185.601. If the spirits are to be removed in a tank car or tank truck, the number thereof, and the name or symbols of the owner, shall also be stated on the Form 179. Where the capacity of a gauging tank is insufficient for the quantity of spirits to be shipped in a tank car or tank truck, the lot of spirits described on Form 179 may be dumped into more than one gauging tank, but a separate Form 1520 must be prepared for each such gauging tank listing the packages to be gauged therein, and the entire quantity to be removed must be taxpaid prior to the transfer of any portion thereof to the tank car or tank truck. If the spirits are to be repackaged after taxpayment and prior to removal from the warehouse, the proprietor will so indicate on the application. Removals by tank car or tank truck of spirits withdrawn from warehouse storage tanks shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Subpart DD of this part. Where the spirits are to be withdrawn from a warehouse storage tank and removed through a gauging tank by pipe line or in packages, the proprietor shall state, in addition to other applicable data, the maximum quantity to be withdrawn. All copies of the application, for any of the types of removals described above, will be delivered to the storekeeper-gauger at the warehouse. Application on Form 179 should cover only homogeneous spirits such as may be mingled in a gauging tank as provided in § 185.621. Spirits may be withdrawn as provided in this section only where pipe lines, or facilities for drawing off spirits from gauging tanks into packages, tank cars, or tank trucks, have been provided and approved. When a warehouseman desires to transfer spirits to a gauging tank, and the inlet thereof is locked, he will request the Government officer to unlock the inlet to the tank to permit the transfer of the spirits thereto. At the time of unlocking the inlet of the gauging tank the Government officer will lock the outlet thereto, which must remain locked until the spirits and rinse water, if any, have been transferred to the gauging tank, the inlet locked and the spirits gauged and taxpaid in accordance with §§ 185.622–185.625.

§ 185.621 Mingling in gauging tank of spirits for taxpayment. Spirits of less than 190 degrees of proof which were produced from different materials, or by two or more distillers, or at two or more distilleries, or which differ in kind according to the standards of identity established under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, or which are otherwise heterogeneous, may not be mingled in a warehouse gauging tank for taxpayment. Examples of spirits which are otherwise heterogeneous are spirits which have been quick-aged and spirits which have not been quick-aged, and spirits which have been stored in different kinds of cooperage. Spirits of the same composition, produced at approximately the same proof by the same distiller at the same distillery, and differing in age (a) not more than 6 months in the case of spirits more than 2 years of age, (b) not more than 60 days in the case of spirits more than 1 year and not more than 2 years of age, or (c) not more than 30 days in the case of spirits 1 year of age or less, and packaged in the same kind of cooperage will be presumed to be homogeneous, and may be mingled in a warehouse gauging tank for convenience in taxpayment. Where it is desired to mingle for convenience in taxpayment spirits falling within more than one of the age categories specified, the difference in age allowable shall be determined according to the age of the youngest spirits. For example, if spirits not more than 1 year of age are mingled with spirits more than 1 year old, the spirits must not vary in age more than 30 days. Spirits of 190 degrees of proof or more distilled from the same class of materials (such as grain) will be presumed to be homogeneous and may be mingled in a gauging tank for convenience in taxpayment.

§ 185.622 Gauge and taxpayment. If the spirits to be withdrawn are in packages, the storekeeper-gauger, upon receipt of the Form 179 and Form 1520, will carefully examine and supervise the weighing of each package and enter the weights on Form 1520. Where it is determined that any package bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, such package will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. When the contents of the packages have been dumped into the gauging tank, the empty packages, including the char and wood chips, if any, will be thoroughly rinsed: Provided, That if the contents of the packages dumped for bulk gauging are to be drawn from the gauging tank for shipment in as many of the original packages as may be required, the packages to be used as shipping containers need not be rinsed if a declaration to that effect has been made by the proprietor prior to the dumping of the spirits, in which event recovery of spirits by rinsing at the time of dumping for bottling or rectification will be precluded. Water of any temperature may be used to rinse the packages. The rinsings will be added to the spirits dumped from the packages into the gauging tank prior to gauging: Provided, That where the proprietor does not wish to add any or all of the rinse water to the spirits in the gauging tank, such rinse water must be poured on the ground or into a sewer in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger. The temperature of water used for rinsing must be marked on the packages used as shipping containers in accordance with § 185.628. Loose char and wood chips, if any, collected from packages, the contents of which have been dumped into bulk gauging tanks after rinsing must be destroyed in accordance with § 185.902 unless added to the packages which are to be used as shipping containers. The tare of any shipping container must include the weight of loose char and wood chips which are placed therein. After the packages have been dumped and rinsed all marks and brands shall be obliterated, except where the packages are to be used for the shipping of spirits dumped therefrom for gauging, in which case only the kind of cooperage, serial number of the package, the word "Filled" and the date of filling need not be obliterated. The spirits in the gauging tank will be adjusted to a whole degree of proof, gauged with an official hydrometer, and the details of the gauge entered by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1520. The storekeeper-gauger will also enter on the Form 1520 the number of the gauging tank. If the spirits to be withdrawn are contained in a storage tank or tank car, they will be drawn into the gauging tank, gauged and reported in the same manner as packages dumped for bulk gauging. Four copies of Form 179 with the storekeeper-gauger's report thereon, duly executed, and four copies of Form 1520 will be delivered by the storekeeper-gauger to the proprietor of the warehouse. One copy of Form 1520 will be retained by the storekeeper-gauger pending taxpayment of the spirits represented thereby.

§ 185.623 Application for certificate of taxpayment, Form 1594. The proprietor will prepare Form 1594 in duplicate if the consignee is located in the same supervisory district, and in triplicate if located in another supervisory district. The form will be properly modified to show taxpayment of the spirits gauged in bulk, the number or numbers of the gauging tanks specified on Forms 1520 and covered by the Form 179, and the method of removal from the gauging tank, i. e., by pipe line, tank car, tank truck, or in packages. All copies of Forms 179, 1520, and 1594, accompanied by proper remittance for the tax, will be forwarded by the proprietor to the collector of internal revenue.

§ 185.624 Certificate of taxpayment, Form 1595. The collector will issue Form 1595, appropriately modified to cover the spirits gauged in bulk, including the number or numbers of the gauging tanks, and will execute his certificate of taxpayment on all copies of Form 179, enter the serial number of the Form 1595 on all copies of Form 1520, and shall fill in all the required data in the blank spaces on the Form 1595, except those provided in the lower left corner for the verification of the storekeeper-gauger, and will date and sign the certificate in the same manner as provided in § 185.605 for taxpaid stamps. The collector will enter on the original and the copy or copies of Form 1594, in the space provided, the serial number, date and amount of the certificate issued. The collector will retain one copy each of Forms 179 and 1520 and the original copy of Form 1594. He will mail or deliver the certificate, Form 1595, and the original and remaining copies of Forms 179 and 1520 to the proprietor or his designated agent in accordance with his request in Form 1594. The collector will send one copy of the application, Form 1594, to the district supervisor. Where the consignee is located in a different supervisory district, the collector will send the remaining copy of Form 1594 to the supervisor of the district in which the consignee is located.

The certificate must be attached to a board on the gauging tank and if the spirits are to be removed by pipe line or in packages it will be cancelled in the same manner as a taxpaid stamp attached to a package. The certificate, Form 1595, shall remain attached to the gauging tank until the spirits covered by the certificate have been removed. If the spirits are to be removed by tank car or tank truck, the subsequent procedure shall be in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.656–185.659.

§ 185.626 Release of spirits from gauging tank. When the certificate of taxpayment has been affixed to the gauging tank, and cancelled when required, the storekeeper-gauger will unlock the outlet valve to permit the removal of the spirits. The removal of spirits from the gauging tank must be under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. If the spirits are transferred by pipe line, the storekeeper-gauger will forward one copy each of Forms 179 and 1520 and the cancelled Form 1595 to the district supervisor, retain one copy each of Forms 179 and 1520 and deliver one copy of Form 179 and two copies of Form 1520 to the warehouseman, who will immediately deliver one copy of Form 1520 to the vendee. If the spirits are to be drawn into packages from the gauging tank for transfer to bottling premises, the procedure prescribed in §§ 185.627–185.636 will be followed and when all spirits have been drawn into packages, the storekeeper-gauger will dispose of Forms 179, 1520, and 1595 in the manner provided in this section for removals by pipe line. If the spirits are to be removed by tank car or tank truck the procedure will be in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.656–185.659.

§ 185.627 Procurement of wholesale liquor dealer's stamps. Where the proprietor desires to transfer taxpaid spirits from a gauging tank into packages for removal to rectifying or bottling premises, application on Form 92, in quadruplicate, will be made to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse for permission to draw the spirits into wholesale liquor dealer's packages. All information indicated by the headings of the various columns and lines on the form, and the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto, and as required by this part, shall be furnished. All copies of the Form 92 will be submitted to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse, who, if he finds after inspection of the spirits and verification of the entries and statements in the application that the spirits are correctly described and have been properly taxpaid, will sign Parts 2 and 3 and return all copies of the form to the warehouseman.

§ 185.628 Refilling, gauging, and marking packages of taxpaid spirits drawn from a gauging tank. Upon receipt from the storekeeper-gauger of Form 92, properly certified and approved, the warehouseman will fill and mark the packages under the supervision of a Government officer. Packages into which the spirits are drawn must be marked and branded in letters and figures not less than one-half inch in height to show the name of the distiller or person in whose name the spirits were produced, the registry number of the distillery, the city or town and State in which the distillery is located, the proof at which distilled, and the kind of spirits, all as shown on the original packages and as illustrated in § 185.610. In addition to the above, the packages will be marked and branded in letters and figures not less than one-half inch in height to show that they are consolidated packages, the kind of cooperage into which the spirits were drawn, the serial number of the package (in accordance with § 185.401), the warehouse number and State in which located, the kind of cooperage in which the spirits were stored and the number of months the youngest spirits in the lot were in storage, the date the spirits were taxpaid, and the serial number of the wholesale liquor dealer stamp. Where spirits are drawn from the gauging tank for shipment in packages from which dumped, the refilled packages will be stenciled "Rinsed" or "Not Rinsed," as the case may be. Where the packages are rinsed, the temperature of the water used for rinsing will also be marked on each package, as for example, "Rinsed—115F." A similar notation will be made on Form 92. The additional information required by this section to be marked on the package may be abbreviated as illustrated in § 185.629. The warehouseman will enter the details of the gauge on each copy of Form 92.

§ 185.629 Marks and brands illustrated. The following cut illustrates the order and manner in which the additional marks and brands required by § 185.628 shall be applied to the head of each package of spirits filled from a gauging tank after bulk gauge and taxpayment in such tank:

§ 185.630 Application for stamps. When the spirits have been packaged and the details of the gauge thereof entered on Form 92 by the warehouseman, he will execute his application in Part 4 of the form for the issuance of wholesale liquor dealer's stamps. The warehouseman will address it to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse and will deliver all copies of the form to that officer.

§ 185.631 Issuance of stamps. Upon receipt of Form 92 with the application in Part 4 duly executed, the storekeeper-gauger in charge will issue a wholesale liquor dealer's stamp, with proper coupons attached, for each package listed on the form. When issuing the stamps, the storekeeper-gauger in charge will enter on each stamp all the information called for except the "Original Proof." The words "Gauge Tank" and the serial number thereof will be entered in the space provided for the serial number of the package from which the wholesale liquor dealer packages were filled. The storekeeper-gauger in charge will enter his signature and title, or a facsimile thereof, in the space provided for the signature of the collector. Where an appreciable number of wholesale liquor dealer's packages will be filled, the warehouseman must provide the storekeeper-gauger in charge with suitable rubber stamps for the insertion of information common to all wholesale liquor dealer stamps to be used by him. The total gallonage for which wholesale liquor dealer's stamps are issued shall in no case exceed that covered by Form 1595, unless due to normal variations in gauge.

§ 185.632 Stamp stub. The storekeeper-gauger in charge shall enter on the stub connected with each stamp data similar to that entered on the stamp, to preserve a perfect record of the detached stamp.

§ 185.633 Wholesale liquor dealer's stamp books. Wholesale liquor dealer's stamps in the required denominations will be furnished by collectors to district supervisors upon request. District supervisors will supply storekeeper-gaugers in charge of bonded warehouses where such stamps are used with sufficient quantities of such stamps as to permit expeditious removal of spirits in wholesale liquor dealer's packages. When all the stamps in a book have been issued, the storekeeper-gauger in charge will return the stub book to the district supervisor.

§ 185.634 Record and report of wholesale liquor dealer's stamps. Storekeeper-gaugers having custody of wholesale liquor dealer's stamps at internal revenue bonded warehouses will keep a record of such stamps received and used on Part 1 of Form 118, properly modified for the purpose, and as required by instructions on the form or as issued in respect thereto. The record will be kept in bound form available for inspection by other Government officers. The storekeeper-gauger will prepare his monthly report on Part 2 of Form 118, properly modified and in duplicate, retain one copy and furnish one copy to the district supervisor.

§ 185.635 Disposition of Form 92. The storekeeper-gauger in charge will enter the serial numbers of the wholesale liquor dealer stamps in the proper column on each Form 92, opposite the description of the package for which the stamp is issued. He will then return two copies of Form 92 to the warehouseman with the stamps, forward one copy of the form to the district supervisor and retain one copy. The retained copy will be placed in a permanent file as authority for issuance of the stamps. The warehouseman will forward one copy of Form 92 to the vendee.

SUBPART DD—TAXPAID WITHDRAWALS IN TANK CARS AND TANK TRUCKS

§ 185.650 Application, Form 179. Application to withdraw spirits from storage tanks for taxpayment and removal in tank cars or tank trucks shall be made by the warehouseman on Form 179, in quadruplicate, as in the case of withdrawals from such tanks for tax payment in packages, except that the application will show that the transportation will be by tank car or tank truck.

§ 185.651 Report of gauge, Form 1520. All copies of Form 179 shall be delivered to the storekeeper-gauger, whereupon the spirits will be run into a gauging tank and gauged for removal. The storekeeper-gauger shall enter the details of the gauge on Form 1520, in quintuplicate. The proof at which the spirits were distilled and the number and name or symbols of the owner of the tank car or tank truck shall, in every instance, be noted by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1520. The storekeeper-gauger will execute his report on each copy of Form 179 and will return all copies thereof, with four copies of Form 1520 attached, to the proprietor, who will enter in the space provided therefor on each copy of Form 179 the description of the spirits gauged.

§ 185.652 Application for certificate of tax payment; Form 1594. The proprietor will forward all copies of Form 179 and Form 1520, with Form 1594, appropriately modified when necessary, in duplicate if the vendee is located in the same supervisory district and in triplicate if the vendee is located in a different supervisory district, accompanied by proper remittance for the tax, to the collector of internal revenue. The collector may, in his discretion, accept uncertified checks in payment of the tax on spirits contained in tank cars or tank trucks where certificates are issued in lieu of stamps.

§ 185.653 Certificate of tax payment, Form 1595. The collector will issue Form 1595, appropriately modified when necessary, enter the serial number of the certificate in the column on all copies of Form 1520 provided for entering the serial numbers of taxpaid stamps, and execute his certificate of taxpayment on Form 179. The collector will fill in all the required data in the blank spaces on the certificate, except those provided in the lower left corner for the verification of the storekeeper-gauger, and date and sign the certificate in the same manner as a tax-paid stamp is required by § 185.605 to be filled in and dated and signed. This certificate is not negotiable and shall not be used on any tank car or tank truck other than the one described therein. The collector will enter on the original and the copy or copies of Form 1594, in the space provided, the serial number, date and amount of the certificate issued. The collector will retain one copy each of Form 179 and Form 1520, and the original copy of Form 1594. He will mail or deliver the certificate (Form 1595) and the original and remaining copies of Form 179 and Form 1520 to the proprietor or his designated agent, in accordance with the vendor's request in Form 1594. The collector will send one copy of the application (Form 1594) to the district supervisor. Where the vendee is located in a different supervisory district, the collector will send the remaining copy of Form 1594 to the supervisor of the district in which the vendee is located.

§ 185.654 Route board. Tank cars and tank trucks used for the transportation of tax-paid distilled spirits must be equipped with a route board at least 10 by 12 inches in size, to which Form 1595 can be attached. Such board shall be of substantial material and shall be affixed permanently and securely to the tank car or tank truck by roundheaded or carriage bolts, nutted and riveted, battered, or welded.

(53 Stat. 335 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 185.655 Bill of lading. The proprietor shall incorporate in the bill of lading a description of Form 1595 as follows:

Form 1595

COLLECTOR'S CERTIFICATE OF TAXPAYMENT OF DISTILLED SPIRITS FOR SHIPMENT IN TANK CARS

Serial No. ------ Owner and No. of car ----
Vendor ---------- Address ----------
Vendee ---------- Address ----------

Where no bill of lading is issued, as in the case of transfer of a tank car between plants by switching arrangment, the warehouseman shall incorporate in Form 1520 such description of Form 1595.

(53 Stat. 335 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 185.656 Storekeeper-gauger's verification. The proprietor shall give the certificate of tax payment (Form 1595), the bill of lading (if any), and all copies of Form 179 and Form 1520, to the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will transcribe the serial number of the certificate, Form 1595, to his retained copy of Form 1520 and will verify the contents of the tank car or tank truck and the description of Form 1595 in the bill of lading or Form 1520, as the case may be, and will determine the security of the route board, and date and sign the certificate in the space provided therefor. The proprietor shall then affix the certificate to the route board in the prcsence of the storekeeper-gauger. The certificate must be securely affixed to the route board with a good adhesive and with a tack in each corner, after which it will be canceled in the same manner as a tax-paid stamp after attachment to a package, and covered with a coating of transparent shellac, varnish, or lacquer, to prevent its easy removal or alteration.

§ 185.657 Release of tank car or tank truck. When the certificate of tax payment has been affixed to the route board and canceled, and the tank car or tank truck sealed by the proprietor, the storekeeper-gauger will return the bill of lading (if any) to the proprietor, release the tank car or tank truck for shipment, and note on all copies of Form 1520 the date of the release of the tank car or tank truck. The storekeeper-gauger will forward one copy of Form 179 and Form 1520 to the district supervisor, retain one copy of each form, and deliver one copy of Form 179 and two copies of Form 1520 to the proprietor, who will forward one copy of Form 1520 to the vendee.

PROCEDURE WHEN TANK CAR OR TANK TRUCK IS EMPTIED

§ 185.658 Scalping certificate. When distilled spirits are received in a tank car or tank truck by the proprietor of a rectifying plant, a taxpaid bottling warehouse, or other vendee authorized to receive taxpaid distilled spirits in tank cars or tank trucks, the vendee shall at the time the car or truck is emptied, scalp the certificate of taxpayment, Form 1595, by cutting out all of that portion of the certificate within the border. The vendee shall then send the scalped portion of the certificate to the supervisor of the district in which the vendee is located, and shall obliterate the remainder of the certificate. If the tank car or tank truck is received without the certificate attached thereto, the vendee shall note such fact on the bill of lading or Form 1520 and immediately notify the district supervisor, who will cause such inquiry to be made respecting the shipment and receipt of the car or truck as he may deem appropriate. Where a tank car or tank truck with the certificate missing is received at a plant where a storekeeper-gauger is assigned, such storekeeper-gauger will furnish a complete report to the district supervisor.

§ 185.659 Vendee's use of Form 1520. The report of gauge, Form 1520, sent to the vendee by the vendor shall be attached to the storage tank in the rectifying plant, taxpaid bottling warehouse, or premises of other vendee authorized to receive the spirits. The proprietor shall enter the date and quantity of removals from the storage tank in the blank space on such Form 1520. The report of gauge shall be kept on the tank until such time as the quantity covered by such report has been withdrawn from the tank. The report shall then be filed by the proprietor, available for inspection by Government officers. If the spirits are transferred directly from the tank car or tank truck into a bottling tank, the vendee shall make a notation to that effect on the Form 1520 and file it. The requirements of this section shall not preclude use of the spirits prior to receipt of Form 1520.

IN TANK CARS RECEIVED IN BOND

§ 185.660 Procedure. Where spirits are received in bond in tank cars at an internal revenue bonded warehouse and tax paid thereat, the procedure prescribed in §§ 185.650 to 185.657 for the tax payment of tank cars of spirits filled from warehouse storage tanks will be followed, except that the spirits in the tank car need not be regauged but may be tax paid on the filling gauge if tax paid within thirty days after filling.

(53 Stat. 298 as amended, 335 as amended, 340 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800, 2883, 2901)

§ 185.661 Report of gauge, Form 1520. Where the spirits in a tank car are tax paid according to the filling gauge the proprietor will make a copy of such gauge in quintuplicate, for use in tax payment.

SUBPART EE—TAX-PAID WITHDRAWALS IN CASES

§ 185.670 Application, Form 1519. Application for tax payment and withdrawal of distilled spirits in cases bottled in bond shall be made by the warehouseman on Form 1519, in triplicate. Each withdrawal will be made on a separate Form 1519, except that two or more withdrawals on the same day of spirits produced by the same distiller at the same distillery may be made on one form. The storekeeper-gauger will inspect the cases to be removed, and if any case bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, such case will be detained by him pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. The warehouseman will cancel the necessary stamps in the exact amount of the tax due in the manner provided by § 185.675. He will then attach the stamps to Form 1519 and submit all copies to the Government officer. The Government officer will complete the cancellation of the stamps as provided by § 185.675 and will execute the certificate on Form 1519 evidencing the receipt and cancellation of stamps for the amount of taxes due.

§ 185.671 Withdrawal of spirits. The spirits will be promptly withdrawn from the warehouse. On the date of withdrawal there will be stenciled on each case the word "Taxpaid," the date when stamps were canceled and surrendered to the storekeeper-gauger in payment of such tax, followed by the name and title of the storekeeper-gauger. Immediately upon withdrawal the storekeeper-gauger will enter on each copy of Form 1519 the date of withdrawal, sign each copy, and forward the copy to which the canceled stamps are attached to the district supervisor, deliver one copy to the warehouseman, and file one copy in his office.

STAMPS

§ 185.672 Denominations; purchase and use. Stamps for the taxpayment of distilled spirits bottled in bond may be purchased in various denominations. The denominations of such stamps are set forth on Form 427–D. Distilled spirits stamps for tax paying distilled spirits bottled in bond should be purchased by proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses where such bottled distilled spirits are stored (or bottled, if immediate removal after bottling is contemplated) from the collector of internal revenue of the district in which the warehouse is located. Stamps may not be purchased by one warehouseman from another, nor may they, except in cases of emergency, be purchased from collectors of other districts. Stamps may be sold only to proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses and only for the payment of tax on distilled spirits bottled in bond. Warehousemen shall not sell or transfer stamps except that they may (a) transfer such stamps to other internal revenue bonded warehouses operated by themselves as provided in § 185.676 pursuant to the prior approval of the district supervisor; or (b) return such stamps for redemption in accordance with § 185.677. Distilled spirits stamps (for distilled spirits bottled in bond) used or unused may not be purchased, sold, or possessed, except as specifically provided by law or regulations.

§ 185.674 Remittance; delivery. All orders for stamps must be accompanied by proper remittance in a sum equal to the value of the stamps. Unless the stamps are called for by the warehouseman or his agent in person, they will be sent to him by ordinary mail, registered mail, or express, at the expense of the warehouseman. When the stamps are not called for in person the warehouseman will specify on Form 427–D the means (ordinary mail, registered mail, or express) by which he desires the stamps sent to him. If the stamps are ordered sent by ordinary mail, the warehouseman shall enclose with his order sufficient postage stamps, or a separate remittance to cover the postage; if the stamps are ordered sent by registered mail, the warehouseman shall include the postage and registry fee and any required registry surcharge, as provided by the postal laws and regulations. If the remittance is other than cash the sum to cover the postage, registry fee, or surcharge must not be included in the remittance covering the cost of the stamps. The local postmaster should be consulted relative to the amount of the registry fee and surcharge required. Stamps forwarded by express will be sent "collect."

§ 185.676 Transfer to other premises. When the internal revenue bonded warehouse is permanently discontinued, or the proprietor has no use for the stamps thereat and the proprietor operates other internal revenue bonded warehouses in which the stamps could be used, he may transfer the stamps to such other premises for use thereat. Permission to so transfer stamps to other premises must be first obtained from the district supervisor. If the warehouse to which the stamps are to be transferred is located in another supervisory district, the district supervisor granting authority to transfer the stamps will advise the district supervisor of the other district so that he may know that the receiving warehouse is entitled to receive the stamps. The latter district supervisor will also inform the Government officer assigned to the receiving warehouse of the authority to receive stamps from other internal revenue bonded warehouses. Record of such transfer of stamps must be made on Form 1697, as provided in § 185.679.

Redemption of stamps—(a) Authorization. The Commissioner, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary, may, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the facts, make allowance for or redeem such of the stamps, issued under authority of law, to denote the payment of any internal revenue tax, as may have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or for which the owner may have no use, or which through mistake may have been improperly or unnecessarily used, or where the rates or duties represented thereby have been excessive in amount, paid in error, or in any manner wrongfully collected.

(b) Method and conditions of allowance. Such allowance or redemption may be made, either by giving other stamps in lieu of the stamps so allowed for or redeemed, or by refunding the amount or value to the owner thereof, deducting therefrom, in case of repayment, the percentage, if any, allowed to the purchaser thereof; but no allowance or redemption shall be made in any case until the stamps so spoiled or rendered useless shall have been returned to the Commissioner, or until satisfactory proof has been made showing the reason why the same cannot be returned; or, if so required by the said Commissioner, when the person presenting the same cannot satisfactorily trace the history of said stamps from their issuance to the presentation of his claim as aforesaid.

(c) Time for filing claims. No claim for the redemption of or allowance for stamps shall be allowed unless presented within four years after the purchase of such stamps from the Government.

(d) Finality of Commissioner's decision. The findings of facts in and the decision of the Commissioner upon the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by this section shall, in the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculation, be final and not subject to revision by any accounting officer.

§ 185.678 Claim to collector. Proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses desiring to have distilled spirits stamps (for distilled spirits bottled in bond) redeemed under the provisions of section 3304, I. R. C., must make claim on Form 843 to the collector of internal revenue. The stamps, for which redemption is claimed, must be attached to the claim, and the number and denominations thereof must be listed on the claim or on a sheet of paper attached thereto. Where the stamps have been destroyed, evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner establishing such destruction must accompany the claim.

§ 185.679 Unredeemable stamps. Distilled spirits stamps (for distilled spirits bottled in bond) may not be redeemed while distilled spirits bottled in bond, on which the stamps can be used in taxpayment, remain on hand and while the bottling-in-bond department of the internal revenue bonded warehouse remains in a qualified status. When an internal revenue bonded warehouse is discontinued and stamps remain on hand, such stamps are not redeemable if the proprietor operates other bonded warehouses at which the stamps could be used. In such cases the stamps will be transferred to the other premises for use thereat. Notation of the transfer must be made on Form 1697 of both premises.

§ 185.680 Stamp record. The proprietor of the internal revenue bonded warehouse shall keep a record on Form 1697 of all distilled spirits stamps (for distilled spirits bottled in bond) received and used at his warehouse. Entries will be made thereon and the report submitted in accordance with the headings of the various lines and columns on the form and the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto and as required by this Part. When such distilled spirits stamps are surrendered for redemption, in accordance with §§ 185.677 and 185.678, or are transferred to, or received from, other internal revenue bonded warehouses operated by the proprietor, as authorized in § 185.676, record thereof must be made on Form 1697, giving the reason for such surrender, transfer, or receipt, the date thereof, and the denominations of the stamps surrendered, transferred, or received, and, in cases of transfer or receipt, the name, registry number, and location of the premises to which the stamps were transferred or from which they were received.

SUBPART FF—TRANSFERS IN BOND BETWEEN INTERNAL REVENUE BONDED WAREHOUSES

§ 185.690 Kinds of containers. Distilled spirits may be transferred in bond from one internal revenue bonded warehouse to another such warehouse (a) in distiller's original packages; (b) in packages to which the contents of such original packages were transferred; (c) in cases where the spirits were bottled in bond; (d) in packages or tank cars filled from warehouse tanks; or (e) in tank cars filled at the distillery.

§ 185.691 Mingling in gauging tank of spirits intended for transfer in bond. Only spirits which are eligible for mingling in a warehouse storage tank (see § 185.372) may be mingled in a warehouse gauging tank preparatory to transfer in bond. Spirits in packages may not be dumped together into gauging tanks preparatory to repackaging for transfer in bond to another internal revenue bonded warehouse.

§ 185.692 Transfers in sealed conveyances. Where a warehouseman desires to transfer packages of distilled spirits in a sealed conveyance, such as a railroad boxcar or a closed van, seals for sealing the conveyance will be furnished and applied by the shipper.

TRANSFERS BETWEEN WAREHOUSES IN SAME DISTRICT

§ 185.693 Application, Form 236. Where the transfer is to be made between warehouses in the same supervisory district, the proprietor of the receiving warehouse shall execute an application for the transfer of spirits on Form 236. The applicant shall enter all applicable data indicated by the form, including the maximum quantity in tax gallons to be transferred in any one truck, railroad car, or other vehicle and the type of conveyance. The name of the carrier shall not be specified on Form 236. The applicant shall prepare an original and five copies of the Form 236 and give them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the receiving warehouse.

§ 185.694 Storekeeper-gauger's certificate of sufficiency of bond. Upon receipt of Form 236 by the storekeeper-gauger in charge, he will compare the penal sum of the bond as stated in the application with his record furnished by the district supervisor pursuant to § 185.314. If the warehouse bond is given in the maximum penal sum of $200,000, he will certify to the sufficiency thereof on Form 236, and return all six copies of the form to the proprietor of the warehouse. If the warehouse bond is given in less than the maximum penal sum, the storekeeper-gauger in charge will determine from his records whether the tax liability on the quantity of distilled spirits represented by the Form 236, plus the quantity of distilled spirits stored in the warehouse, plus the quantity represented by all outstanding approved Forms 236, is within the limits of the penal sum of the transportation and warehousing bond. If so, he will certify to the sufficiency of the bond on Form 236, record such certification in his records, and return all six copies of the form to the proprietor. If the transportation and warehousing bond is not sufficient, he will certify to that fact on Form 236 and return all six copies to the proprietor. Such forms shall be invalid for the transfer of spirits. If the storekeeper-gauger certifies that the bond is sufficient, the proprietor will forward all six copies of the Form 236 to the proprietor of the consignor-warehouse. The proprietor of the consignee-warehouse will be responsible for all outstanding valid Forms 236. If, at any time, he decides not to use one, he will obtain all copies from the consignor and give them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse for cancellation and return to the proprietor of the consignee-warehouse.

last guage (if other than the original). In the case of packages transferred on or before December 31, 1950 the proprietor will enter in Column 8, the heading of which will be amended to read "Entry Tare," the entry tares of the packages. In the case of blended brandies the proprietor shall also show on Form 1619 the date and serial number of the Form 1685 covering the blending of the brandies, the date of the original entry of the oldest brandy in the blend and the date of the original entry of the youngest brandy in the blend. The proprietor shall execute on the six copies of Form 236 a description of the packages to be transferred and will give all copies of Forms 236 and 1619 to the storekeeper-gauger. Upon receipt of the Forms 236 and 1619 the storekeeper-gauger will weigh and examine the packages and where it is determined that any package bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, such package will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. The storekeeper-gauger will enter the shipping gross weights on Form 1619. The quantity to be transferred shall not exceed the maximum stated in the application. Upon withdrawal for transfer to noncontiguous premises, the word "Transferred" followed by the date of transfer, the number of the receiving warehouse, and the State in which such warehouse is located, will be plainly and durably stenciled on the Government head of the package in letters and figures not less than one-half inch in height. These marks may be abbreviated as follows:

TRANS. 8–1–50
I. R. B. W. 4–N. Y.

Forms 236 and 1619 will be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of § 185.706.

§ 185.696 Transfers in cases. When the proprietor desires to transfer cases of distilled spirits bottled in bond, he will prepare an original and five copies of Form 1620 showing thereon all information called for by the form. The proprietor shall execute on the six copies of Form 236 a description of the cases to be transferred and will give all copies of Forms 236 and 1620 to the storekeeper-gauger. Upon receipt of Forms 236 and 1620 the storekeeper-gauger will examine the cases to be transferred. If any case bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, such case will be detained by the storekeeper-gauger pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. Necessary remarks concerning the condition of any particular case at time of shipment should be made on all copies of the Form 1620. The quantity to be transferred shall not exceed the maximum stated in the application. Upon withdrawal for transfer to noncontiguous premises, the word "Transferred" followed by the date of transfer, the number of the receiving warehouse, and the State in which such warehouse is located, will be plainly and durably stenciled or stamped upon the Government side of each case in letters and figures not less than three-eighths inch in height. These marks may be abbreviated as follows:

Trans. 3–29–48
I. R. B. W. 25–N. Y.

Where there is insufficient space on the Government side of the case, these marks may be placed upon another side of the case. Forms 236 and 1620 will be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of § 185.706.

(53 Stat. 332; 26 U. S. C. 2875)

§ 185.697 Transfers in tank cars. When the proprietor desires to transfer spirits in a previously filled tank car, he will prepare an original and five copies of Form 1520, copying the details of the entry Form 1520, except that if the contents of the tank car were previously regauged owing to the evidence of loss of spirits therefrom, the transfer Form 1520 will show both the original contents and the contents shown by the regauge. The proprietor shall execute on the six copies of Form 236 a description of the tank car to be transferred and will deliver all copies of Forms 236 and 1520 to the storekeeper-gauger. Upon receipt of Forms 1520 and 236 the storekeeper-gauger will inspect the car and if it bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, such car will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. Forms 236 and 1520 will be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of § 185.706. The quantity to be transferred shall not exceed the maximum stated in the application.

§ 185.698 Transfers from storage tanks, in packages or tank cars. When the proprietor desires to transfer spirits in packages or tank cars, to be filled from warehouse storage tanks, he will deliver a copy of Form 236 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse and furnish him with a complete description of the spirits. Upon receipt of the Form 236 the spirits designated to be transferred will be drawn into packages, gauged, marked, and branded, or run into a gauging tank, gauged, and conveyed by pipe line into a railroad tank car, constructed and marked as hereinafter provided. The storekeeper-gauger will prepare a report of the gauge on an original and five copies of Form 1520, and note on each copy of the form the proof at which the spirits were distilled. The quantity to be transferred shall not exceed the maximum stated in the application. The storekeeper-gauger in charge will give the copy of Form 236 and the six copies of Form 1520 to the proprietor, who shall, on the same date that the spirits are to be transferred, execute on the six copies of Form 236 the description of the packages or tank cars to be transferred. He shall immediately return all copies of the forms to the storekeeper-gauger in charge. Forms 236 and 1520 will be disposed of in accordance with § 185.706.

(53 Stat. 335 as amended, 391; 26 U. S. C. 2883, 3254; sec. 5, 49 Stat. 981 as amended; 27 U. S. C. 205)

§ 185.700 Marking and construction of tank car. Each tank car used to transport distilled spirits in bond must have permanently and legibly marked or painted thereon its number, capacity in gallons, and the name and symbols of the owner. The dome or manhole covers on the tank car shall be equipped with facilities for sealing with a cap seal when closed, and the outlet valves or other openings to or from the car shall be so constructed that they may be closed and securely fastened on the inside or sealed in like manner. If the car is not so constructed, the storekeeper-gauger will not permit it to be filled.

§ 185.701 Seals. Cap seals, to be furnished by the Government, will be used for sealing the tank car, and such seals will be attached as soon as the car is filled.

(53 Stat. 335 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 185.702 Inspection of tank car. Upon receiving an application, Form 236, for the transfer of spirits in bond in a tank car, the storekeeper-gauger will inspect the tank car to see that the dome may be sealed with a cap seal when closed, and that all other openings to or from the car may be closed and securely fastened on the inside or sealed in like manner. If the car is not so constructed, the officer will not permit it to be filled.

§ 185.703 Filling of tank car. Tank cars must be filled in the immediate presence of the storekeeper-gauger. The pipe line or hose connection to the tank car must be in full view of the officer and must not be connected or used, except in his presence. The proprietor will prepare the car for sealing and the officer will seal the car as soon as it is filled. The officer will enter on Form 1520, covering the gauge of the spirits, the level of the spirits above or below the full mark, and the temperature of the spirits at filling, for example: "Filled two inches above full mark at 80° F."

§ 185.704 Route board. Tank cars used for the transportation of distilled spirits in bond must be equipped with a route board at least 10 by 12 inches in size. Such board shall be of substantial material and shall be affixed permanently and securely to the tank car by roundheaded or carriage bolts, nutted and riveted, battered or welded.

§ 185.705 Label to be attached. When distilled spirits are shipped in bond in a tank car, to noncontiguous premises, a label, dated and signed by the storekeeper-gauger, showing that the spirits are shipped in bond and giving the name, registry number, and location (city or town and State) of both the shipping and receiving warehouses, shall be securely attached to the route board where it may be readily examined by Government officers. The label must be of good quality paper and be protected from damage by a coating of transparent shellac or similar transparent protective material. The label will be attached by the warehouseman under the supervision of the Government officer. The label, which will be furnished by the shipper, will be in substantially the following form:

Shipped in Bond by
JOHN DOE COMPANY
I. R. B. W. No. 55, Boston, Mass.
To
NEW YORK WAREHOUSE COMPANY
I. R. B. W. No. 81, Brooklyn, N. Y.

§ 185.706 Storekeeper-gauger's certificate of removal. Upon removal of the spirits, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his report of inspection or gauge and removal on the six copies of Form 236, and if the spirits are contained in a tank car, he will note on Form 236 the serial numbers of the cap seals used. The storekeeper-gauger will retain one copy of Forms 236 and 1520, 1619, or 1620, as the case may be, furnish one copy of each form to the proprietor of the shipping warehouse, forward one copy of each form to the supervisor and forward three copies of each form to the storekeeper-gauger of the receiving warehouse. Where shipment of packages or cases is made by truck, the three copies each of Forms 236 and 1520, 1619, or 1620, for the storekeeper-gauger at the receiving warehouse, will be sealed in an envelope addressed to such storekeeper-gauger and handed to the person in charge of the truck for delivery to him.

§ 185.707 Storekeeper-gauger's receipt of spirits at warehouse. Upon receipt of the spirits at the receiving warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will examine the shipment and will ascertain and note on Form 1520, 1619 or 1620, as the case may be, losses or discrepancies, as provided in §§ 185.376–185.378. The storekeeper-gauger will weigh (and proof) the spirits as provided in § 185.375. The storekeeper-gauger will execute his certificate of receipt on each copy of Form 236 and if the spirits are contained in a tank car indicate thereon whether the tank car was received with seals intact. He will retain one copy each of Forms 236 and 1520, 1619 or 1620, give one copy of each form to the proprietor of the warehouse and forward one copy of each form to the district supervisor. No withdrawal or transfer in bond of spirits received at the warehouse will be made until the three copies of Form 236 and the three copies of Form 1520, 1619 or 1620, as the case may be, have been received by the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will include on Form 1513 the original tax gallons contained in all packages received regardless of any losses in transit. However, any package lost in transit will not be included on Form 1513 but will be entered by the district supervisor in his account of losses, Form 1691.

TRANSFERS IN BOND BETWEEN INTERNAL REVENUE BONDED WAREHOUSES IN DIFFERENT DISTRICTS

§ 185.708 Application, Form 236. Where the transfer is to be made between bonded warehouses in different supervisory districts, the proprietor of the receiving warehouse shall execute an application for the transfer of the spirits on Form 236. The applicant shall enter all applicable data indicated by the form including the maximum quantity in tax gallons to be transferred in any one truck, railroad car or other vehicle, and the type of conveyance. The name of the carrier shall not be specified on Form 236. The applicant shall prepare an original and six copies of Form 236 and give them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the receiving warehouse.

§ 185.709 Certificate of sufficiency of bond. Upon receipt of Form 236 by the storekeeper-gauger in charge, he will compare the penal sum of the bond as stated in the application with his record furnished by the district supervisor pursuant to § 185.314. If the warehouse bond is given in the maximum penal sum of $200,000, he will certify to the sufficiency thereof on Form 236, and return all seven copies of the form to the proprietor of the warehouse. If the warehouse bond is given in less than the maximum penal sum, the storekeeper-gauger in charge will determine from his records whether the tax liability on the quantity of distilled spirits represented by the Form 236, plus the quantity of distilled spirits stored in the warehouse, plus the quantity represented by all outstanding approved Forms 236, is within the limits of the penal sum of the transportation and warehousing bond. If so, he will certify to the sufficiency of the bond on Form 236, record such certification in his records, and return all seven copies of the form to the proprietor. If the transportation and warehousing bond is not sufficient, he will certify to that fact on Form 236 and return all seven copies to the proprietor. The proprietor will forward all seven copies of the approved Form 236 to the proprietor of the consignor-warehouse. The proprietor of the consignee-warehouse will be responsible for all outstanding approved Forms 236. If, at any time, he decides not to use one, he will obtain all copies from the consignor-warehouseman and give them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse for cancellation and return to the proprietor of the consignee-warehouse.

§ 185.710 Transfers in packages, casks, and tank car. Spirits in original packages, or in packages filled from warehouse storage tanks, will be transferred in accordance with the provisions of § 185.635. Spirits in cases will be transferred in accordance with the provisions of § 185.696. Spirits in a previously filled tank car will be transferred in accordance with the provisions of § 185.697. If spirits to be transferred are in storage tanks, they will be drawn into packages or into a tank car and then transferred in accordance with the provisions of § 185.698. Forms 236 and 1520, 1619 or 1620 will be disposed of in accordance with § 185.711.

§ 185.711 Storekeeper-gauger's certificate of removal. Upon removal of the spirits, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his report of inspection or gauge and removal on the seven copies of Form 236, and if the spirits are contained in a tank car, he will note on Form 236 the serial numbers of the cap seals used. The storekeeper-gauger will retain one copy of Forms 236 and 1520, 1619, or 1620, as the case may be, furnish one copy each of such forms to the proprietor at the shipping warehouse, forward one copy of each form to the supervisor-consignor, and forward four copies of Form 236 and three copies of Form 1520, 1619, or 1620 to the storekeeper-gauger of the receiving warehouse. Where shipment of packages or cases is made by truck, four copies of Form 236 and three copies of Form 1520, 1619, or 1620 for the storekeeper-gauger at the receiving warehouse will be sealed in an envelope addressed to such storekeeper-gauger and handed to the person in charge of the truck for delivery to him.

§ 185.712 Storekeeper-gauger's receipt of spirits at receiving warehouse. Upon receipt of the spirits at the receiving warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will examine the shipment and will ascertain and note on Form 1520, 1619, or 1620, as the case may be, any losses or discrepancies, as provided in §§ 185.376–185.378. The storekeeper-gauger will weigh (and proof) the spirits as provided in § 185.375. The storekeeper-gauger will execute his certificate of receipt on each copy of Form 236, and if the spirits are contained in a tank car indicate thereon whether the tank car was received with seals intact. He will retain one copy each of Forms 236 and 1520, 1619, or 1620, give one copy of each form to the proprietor of the warehouse, and forward two copies of Form 236, one copy of Form 1520, 1619, or 1620, as the case may be, to the supervisor of his district. The district supervisor will retain one copy of Form 236 and the copy of Form 1520, 1619, or 1620 and forward the remaining copy of Form 236 to the supervisor of the district from which the spirits were transferred. No withdrawal or transfer in bond of spirits received at the warehouse will be made until the four copies of Form 236 and the three copies of Form 1520, 1619, or 1620, as the case may be, have been received by the storekeeper-gauger in charge. The storekeeper-gauger will include on Form 1513 the original tax gallons contained in all packages received regardless of any losses in transit. However, any package lost in transit will not be included on Form 1513 but will be entered by the supervisor-consignee in his account of losses, Form 1691.

SUBPART GG—TRANSFERS FOR REDISTILLATION

§ 185.725 General. Distilled spirits of any proof may be transferred in approved containers from an internal revenue bonded warehouse to any distillery for redistillation: Provided, That distilled spirits produced from material other than fruits or their residues may not be transferred to fruit distilleries for redistillation. Spirits of 160 degrees of proof or more may be transferred by pipeline from storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse to a distillery on the same or contiguous premises for redistillation or they may be transferred in tank cars to any distillery for redistillation. The pipeline used for conveyance of spirits for redistillation shall be constructed and protected in accordance with the requirements of § 185.124 and approved for that purpose. Spirits for redistillation may be removed only pursuant to an approved application filed by the distiller in accordance with Regulations 4 (26 CFR Part 183). Upon removal of spirits from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for redistillation, the consignee distiller shall assume the liability for all taxes and liens in respect of such spirits from the time they leave the warehouse premises; and, upon redistillation, the redistilled spirits shall be treated the same as if they were originally produced by the redistiller and all prior obligations as to taxes and liens thereon shall be superseded. The removal of spirits for redistillation shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this subpart.

§ 185.726 Gauge of spirits to be removed for redistillation. Upon receipt of application, Form 236, and the copy of the special application authorizing the removal, the warehouseman, when he desires to make shipment will give a copy of Form 236 to the storekeeper-gauger and furnish him with a complete description of the spirits to be shipped. The storekeeper-gauger will verify the information shown on Form 236 with the corresponding information shown on the application. He will make the inspection and gauge of containers or the bulk gauge for removal by pipeline or in tank cars, as the case may be. If the spirits to be removed for redistillation are in packages the proprietor will prepare Form 1520 in the manner provided in § 185.601. Otherwise the report of gauge will be prepared by the storekeeper-gauger. An original and five copies of Form 1520 will be prepared. Where the inspection or gauge discloses containers bearing evidence of unusual loss of contents that is not satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, the storekeeper-gauger shall immediately notify the district supervisor of all facts in the case and will detain the containers and contents thereof pending receipt of instructions from the district supervisor. The marking of containers and distribution of applications and gauge reports will be made, in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.690–185.712. A copy of the gauge report will be attached to each copy of Form 236. Containers of spirits removed from the warehouse for redistillation must have the required transfer-in-bond markings stenciled thereon, and, in addition, the words "For Redistillation." The storekeeper-gauger will note on all gauge reports covering removal of spirits for redistillation the proof at which the spirits were distilled and the words, "For Redistillation," followed by the serial number and date of approval of the special application authorizing such removal. Spirits may not be removed for redistillation until the proper authorization has been received at the consignor premises and exhibited to the storekeeper-gauger in charge.

§ 185.727 Records. Spirits removed from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for redistillation shall be reported and accounted for by the proprietor in accordance with Subpart WW of this part and by the storekeeper-gauger in accordance with Subparts UU and VV of this part.

SUBPART HH—EXPORTATION OF DISTILLED SPIRITS FREE OF TAX

§ 185.735 General. Distilled spirits may be withdrawn from an internal revenue bonded warehouse, free of tax, for exportation as provided in this subpart. Distilled spirits may be so withdrawn under a direct export bond, in which case the exporter must furnish to the district supervisor evidence of the actual landing of the spirits in a foreign country or proof of loss of the spirits at sea. Distilled spirits may also be withdrawn for exportation under a transportation bond covering the transfer of the spirits from the internal revenue bonded warehouse to the port of export, in which case the exporter must file with the collector of customs at the port of export bond, Form 693, in a penal sum equal to the internal revenue tax on the spirits to be exported, and proof of actual landing of the spirits at the foreign port in accordance with customs regulations. In both cases a certificate showing the actual clearance of the spirits from the port of export will be furnished to the district supervisor by the collector of customs.

§ 185.736 Kinds of containers. Distilled spirits may be removed in bond, free of tax, for export in (a) distiller's original packages, including those the contents of which have been reduced in proof to not less than 90 degrees; (b) new packages filled from distiller's original packages; (c) cases, when bottled in bond for export under the provisions of Subparts NN–QQ of this part; (d) wooden packages each containing two or more metallic cans of a capacity not less than 5 gallons each; (e) in tank cars, in the case of spirits of not less than 180 degrees of proof transferred from the distillery to warehouse storage tanks for that purpose; and (f) in packages containing brandies blended under this part.

§ 185.737 Mingling in gauging tank of spirits intended for exportation. Only spirits which conform to the limitations stated in § 185.765 may be mingled in a warehouse gauging tank preparatory to removal for exportation.

DISTILLER'S ORIGINAL PACKAGES

§ 185.738 Application and entry. Whenever an owner desires to remove distilled spirits from an internal revenue bonded warehouse, either for direct exportation or for transportation for export, in distiller's original packages without reducing the proof of the spirits, or after the spirits have been reduced to not less than 90 degrees of proof, he shall execute application on Form 206, in quintuplicate. All information required by the instructions printed on the form, or issued in respect thereto, and in this part, shall be furnished. Applications on Form 206 must be signed in accordance with the instructions printed on the form and sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths: Provided, That if the form officially prescribed for such application contains therein a provision for verification by a written declaration that such application is made under the penalties of perjury, such application shall be verified by the execution of such declaration, and such declaration shall be in lieu of any oath required herein for verification.

§ 185.739 Method of conveyance. The conveyance to be used in transporting the spirits from the bonded warehouse to the port of export and the name of the carrier or carriers shall be shown in the application whenever possible. If the spirits are shipped on a through bill of lading and all carriers handling the spirits while in transit are not known, the name of the carrier to whom the spirits are to be delivered at the shipping warehouse must be shown.

§ 185.740 Request for regauge. After the application, Form 206, has been fully executed, the owner will deliver all copies to the proprietor of the warehouse who will execute his request for regauge of the spirits. The proprietor will prepare Form 1520, in quintuplicate, in the manner provided in § 185.601 and deliver all copies of Forms 206 and 1520 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse.

§ 185.741 Inspection and regauge. Upon receipt of the Form 1520 and the application the storekeeper-gauger, by reference to his records, will verify the entries in the heading on Form 1520 and details of entry gauge transcribed thereto and shall examine the application and request for regauge. If no discrepancies are found in Form 1520 and Form 206 has been fully executed, the storekeeper-gauger will (unless the packages are to be withdrawn on the original gauge as authorized in § 185.564) inspect and regauge the packages. Any package bearing evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. When the Form 1520 has been completed by the storekeeper-gauger, he will execute his report on each copy of Form 206, and attach a copy of Form 1520 to each copy thereof. He will retain one copy of each form and deliver the remaining four copies of each form to the proprietor of the warehouse, unless the spirits are to be reduced in proof, in which event the forms will be retained by the storekeeper-gauger until the packages have been regauged after reduction.

§ 185.742 Reduction in proof. Upon request of the owner, distilled spirits contained in distiller's original packages may be reduced in proof to not less than 90 degrees for exportation, by the addition of pure water only, after the packages have been regauged as provided in § 185.741. The spirits will be reduced by the proprietor of the bonded warehouse in the presence and under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. Only such addition of water may be made to the body of the spirits in any package as the natural wantage of the package at the time of withdrawal will allow, but in no case shall the spirits be reduced to less than 90 degrees of proof. No introduction of water will be permitted which would require the withdrawal of any portion of the contents of the packages either before or after reduction. Any transfer of spirits from one package to another for the purpose of reduction is forbidden.

§ 185.743 Gauge after reduction. After the spirits in the distiller's original packages have been reduced, the storekeeper-gauger will again gauge the packages and report the details thereof on Form 1520, in quintuplicate. Any unusual loss ascertained by the gauge after reduction must be satisfactorily explained by the proprietor and reported in accordance with the provisions of § 185.486. Each such report of gauge shall have noted thereon the statement "Gauge after reduction," and a copy thereof shall be attached to each copy of Form 206, in addition to the copy of Form 1520 covering the withdrawal gauge. After the spirits have been so reduced and gauged, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his report on all copies of Form 206, retain one copy with Forms 1520 attached, and deliver the four remaining copies to the proprietor of the warehouse. The packages, after reduction, shall be marked as provided in § 185.754.

§ 185.744 Export stamps required. Every package of distilled spirits intended for exportation must have an export stamp affixed thereto at the time of its removal from the bonded warehouse. Such stamps shall be purchased by the proprietor of the warehouse from the collector of internal revenue of the collection district in which the warehouse is located.

§ 185.745 Remittance for export stamps. The proprietor of the bonded warehouse will forward all copies of Form 206, with Form 1520 attached, to the collector, together with remittance in acceptable form for the necessary number of export stamps.

§ 185.746 Action by collector. If the remittance is sufficient to cover the cost of the export stamps, the collector will issue the necessary number of export stamps and note the serial numbers of the export stamps on Form 1520. The collector will retain one copy each of Form 206 and 1520 and send three copies thereof, with the export stamps, to the proprietor of the warehouse.

§ 185.747 Application and bond to district supervisor. The proprietor of the bonded warehouse shall forward to the district supervisor all copies of the receipted Form 206, with Forms 1520 attached, together with a proper bond, executed in accordance with §§ 185.190–185.209 and 185.748–185.752, except that when an approved continuing bond (Form 657 or 658), in a sufficient penal sum, is on file in district supervisor's office, applications covering exportations thereunder need not be accompanied by an export bond.

§ 185.748 Export bonds. Bonds covering the exportation of distilled spirits may be executed by the owner of the spirits in sufficient penal sums, on one of the forms described in § 185.749, § 185.750, § 185.751 or § 185.752, as the case may be.

§ 185.749 Direct export, Form 547. If the bond is intended to cover a specific lot of spirits withdrawn for direct exportation, it shall be executed on Form 547, in triplicate. The penal sum of such bond shall be not less than the tax at the distilled spirits rate on the quantity of spirits contained in the packages to be withdrawn for exportation, as shown by the report of regauge.

§ 185.750 Continuing bond, direct export, Form 657. If distilled spirits are to be withdrawn for direct exportation from time to time on one bond, a continuing bond, Form 657, in triplicate, shall be filed. The penal sum of such bond shall be sufficient to cover the tax at the distilled spirits rate on the maximum quantity of distilled spirits that may remain unaccounted for at any one time, but in no case shall the penal sum be less than $1,000. Distilled spirits withdrawn for exportation under direct export bonds shall remain unaccounted for until satisfactory proof of landing abroad is filed with the district supervisor in accordance with § 185.787 or § 185.791, or until satisfactory proof of loss at sea without fault or neglect of the owner or shipper has been submitted in accordance with § 185.796, and claim for remission of the tax on the spirits so lost has been allowed.

§ 185.751 Transportation for export, Form 548. If the spirits are to be withdrawn for transportation for export and a bond is to be given only for the spirits regauged for that purpose, it shall be executed on Form 548, in triplicate. The penal sum of such bond shall be not less than the tax at the distilled spirits rate on the quantity of spirits regauged for exportation.

§ 185.752 Continuing bond, transportation for export, Form 658. If spirits are to be withdrawn for transportation for export from time to time on one transportation for export bond, a continuing bond, Form 658, in triplicate, shall be executed. The bond will be executed in a penal sum sufficient to cover the tax at the distilled spirits rate on the maximum quantity of distilled spirits that may remain unaccounted for at any time, but in no case shall the penal sum be less than $1,000. Distilled spirits withdrawn for transportation for export shall remain unaccounted for until satisfactory proof of clearance of the spirits from the port of export is filed with the district supervisor in accordance with § 185.784 or § 185.785.

§ 185.753 Approval of bond and application. The district supervisor will examine the bond, and if it is properly executed as provided in Subpart H of this part, and in a sufficient penal sum, computed as prescribed in § 185.749, § 185.750, §185.751, or § 185.752, as the case may be, he shall note his approval thereon, retain one copy, forward one copy to the Commissioner and deliver one copy to the principal. If the owner and the proprietor of the warehouse have complied with the law and this part and the application is complete in all respects, the district supervisor shall execute his permit for removal and transportation of the spirits on all copies of Form 206 and forward them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse.

§ 185.754 Marking, branding, and stamping casks. Upon receipt by the storekeeper-gauger of Form 206 with the permit executed by the district supervisor, the proprietor shall deliver the export stamps to the storekeeper-gauger who shall verify the data thereon with his retained copy of Form 1520, and, if no discrepancies are found, he will affix his signature, or the facsimile thereof, to the stamps and return them to the proprietor who shall proceed to affix and cancel them in the manner provided for the affixing and canceling of taxpaid stamps. The proprietor will cut or brand into the Government head of each package withdrawn for export, in letters and figures not less than one-half inch in height, the date of withdrawal, the proof and tare ascertained at time of withdrawal, the number of the export stamp, and the proof gallon contents as then ascertained. When spirits are withdrawn from a warehouse other than that in which originally deposited, the number of the warehouse and the state in which located will be cut, burned, or stenciled on the head of the package in addition to the original marks placed on the package. The names of the ports from and to which the spirits are to be exported will be marked on the heads of the packages. Where metal packages are used, all of the foregoing marks will be plainly and durably stenciled on the Government head. Such cutting, marking, or branding of export marks on the head will be as follows:

EXPORT

Withdrawn Oct. 30, 1949
I. R. B. W. 4 N. Y.
P. ---------- T. ----------
P. G. ----------
Export Stamp No. 600
[STAMP]
From Brooklyn, N. Y.
To Shanghai, China

(53 Stat. 336, 337; 26 U. S. C. 2885, 2886)

§ 185.755 Release of spirits. After the packages have been properly stamped, marked, and branded, the storekeeper-gauger will release them for delivery to the exporter named in the application. Upon removal of the spirits, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his report of removal on Form 206.

§ 185.757 Delivery directly for customs inspection. Where the spirits are withdrawn from a bonded warehouse located at the port of exportation, the exporter will deliver the shipment directly for customs inspection and supervision of lading. A copy of the export bill of lading shall be procured and filed with the district supervisor for attachment to the copy of Form 206 retained by him.

§ 185.758 Exportation through border port, etc. In case of exportation through a border port to contiguous foreign territory, the bill of lading will cover the transportation of the spirits to their destination, and must show the routing, particularly as to the carrier which will deliver the shipment for customs inspection at the border. The shipment must be consigned in care of the collector of customs or deputy collector of customs at the border port. The exporter shall deliver one copy of the bill of lading to the storekeeper-gauger at the bonded warehouse. In case of transportation of the spirits from a bonded warehouse, located elsewhere than at the port of exportation, for shipment by vessel, the exporter shall furnish a copy of the transportation bill of lading and a copy of the export bill of lading to the district supervisor for attachment to the copy of Form 206 retained by him.

§ 185.759 Disposition of forms. When the packages have been delivered and the exporter has furnished a copy of the bill of lading, the storekeeper-gauger will forward immediately a complete set of the forms (206, 1520, and bill of lading) to the district supervisor, forward one copy each of Forms 206 and 1520 to the collector of customs at the port of exportation, and deliver one copy each of Forms 206 and 1520 to the proprietor for transmittal to the exporter. The exporter will execute his request for customs inspection on Form 206 and file such form with Form 1520 attached with the collector of customs at the port of exportation.

§ 185.760 Records. Packages removed from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for exportation shall be reported and accounted for by the proprietor in accordance with Subpart WW of this part and by the storekeeper-gauger in accordance with Subparts UU and VV of this part.

(53 Stat. 346; 26 U. S. C. 2915)

PACKAGES FILLED FROM DISTILLER'S ORIGINAL PACKAGES

§ 185.761 Application and entry. Whenever an owner desires to transfer distilled spirits from distiller's original packages to new packages for exportation, he shall execute application on Form 206, in quintuplicate, as provided in § 185.738. By the term "new packages" is meant any suitable packages into which the contents of original packages are transferred for exportation.

§ 185.762 Request for regauge. After the application has been fully executed on Form 206, the proprietor will follow the procedure in § 185.740 prescribed for the withdrawal for exportation in distiller's original packages.

§ 185.763 Inspection. The storekeeper-gauger will examine the application and inspect the packages. Packages which do not bear evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, will be released for consolidation or change of package. A gauge tank may be used in consolidating or changing packages for export. Where it is determined that any package bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be explained, or of tampering, such package will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496.

§ 185.764 Change of package. Distilled spirits in distiller's original packages may be transferred from one package to one or more new packages, or the contents, or portions of the contents, of two or more packages may be transferred to one new package. The proprietor of the warehouse must so arrange the contents of the new packages that no residue of spirits will be left in any of the distiller's original packages from which the contents are transferred. The transfer of the contents of the old packages to the new packages shall be made by the proprietor under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 185.765 Mixing of spirits. The contents of two or more original packages may not be transferred to a new package unless the contents of the old packages are of the same kind and quality, and were produced at approximately the same proof by the same distiller at the same distillery on or about the same date and stored in the same kind of cooperage under the same conditions.

§ 185.766 New packages to be gauged. After the transfer of the spirits to new packages has been completed, the storekeeper-gauger will gauge such packages. The details of the gauge will be entered on Form 1520, in quintuplicate. The notation "Filled for export from Packages Nos. ----------" (the serial numbers of the original packages being inserted), shall be made on all copies of Form 1520 to distinguish such form from the Form 1520 prepared by the proprietor. A copy of Form 1520, covering the gauge of the new packages, will be attached to each copy of Form 206, in addition to the copy of Form 1520 prepared by the proprietor.

§ 185.767 Rinsing of packages and obliteration of marks and brands. When the old packages have been emptied, and are not to be used for new consolidated packages, they will be thoroughly rinsed and all marks and brands promptly obliterated. Rinse water not used for reducing the proof of the spirits must be immediately destroyed in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger. If an old package is to be used for a new consolidated package, the old marks and brands shall be obliterated even though the original contents or a portion thereof is allowed to remain in the package, such retention being regarded as constructive transfer of spirits from the old package to the new package.

§ 185.768 Marks on new packages. The new packages shall be marked and branded in accordance with § 185.399 and numbered in accordance with § 185.401.

(53 Stat. 336, 337; 26 U. S. C. 2885, 2886)

§ 185.769 Storekeeper-gauger's report. When the packages have been so marked and branded, the storekeeper-gauger shall execute his report on Form 206, retain one copy of the form, with Forms 1520 attached, and deliver the remaining copies to the proprietor of the warehouse.

§ 185.770 Remittance for export stamps. The proprietor of the warehouse will forward all copies of Form 206, with Forms 1520 attached, to the collector, with remittance for the necessary number of export stamps.

§ 185.771 Action by collector. The collector will issue the necessary number of export stamps, and note the serial numbers of the export stamps on the Form 1520 covering the gauge of the new packages. The collector will retain one copy of each form (206 and 1520) and send three copies thereof, with the export stamps, to the proprietor of the warehouse, in accordance with § 185.746.

§ 185.772 Subsequent procedure. The procedure for filing bond, the stamping, marking, and branding, and removal of the packages, the disposition of the forms, and the recording of the removal, will be the same as that prescribed in §§ 185.747–185.760, for distilled spirits to be exported in distiller's original packages.

EXPORTATION OF BOTTLED DISTILLED SPIRITS

§ 185.773 Application and bond. Whenever it is desired to withdraw bottled distilled spirits from the storage portion of the bonded warehouse or from the bottling-in-bond department, either for direct exportation or for transportation for export, the owner shall execute application on Form 206, in quadruplicate, in accordance with § 185.738. The request for regauge will not be executed. The applicant shall forward all copies of Form 206 to the district supervisor, together with a properly executed export bond in a sufficient penal sum, computed as prescribed in §§ 185.749–185.752, except that the application need not be accompanied by a bond if the applicant has on file with the district supervisor an approved continuing bond (Form 657 or 658) in a sufficient penal sum.

§ 185.774 Approval of bond and application. The district supervisor will examine the bond and if it is properly executed and in a sufficient penal sum to cover the tax on the spirits contained in the cases, he shall note his approval thereon, retain one copy, send one copy to the Commissioner and deliver one copy to the principal. In cases where the exporter has on file a continuing bond executed on a prior date, under which the exportation is to be made, the district supervisor will determine whether such bond is of sufficient penal sum to cover the tax on the spirits specified in the application as well as any spirits previously removed for export thereunder and unaccounted for. If the owner and the proprietor of the warehouse have complied with the law and this part, the district supervisor shall execute his permit for removal and transportation of the spirits on all copies of Form 206 and forward them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse.

§ 185.775 Removal of cases for exportation. Upon receipt of Form 206, approved by the district supervisor, the storekeeper-gauger shall inspect the cases, and if they bear no evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, release the cases for exportation. Any case bearing evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. Upon removal thereof from the bottling-in-bond department or from the storage portion of the warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger shall execute his report of removal on Form 206. The spirits, when released for exportation, must be consigned to the collector of customs at the port of exportation, and must be properly described in the bill of lading by serial numbers, kind, and quantity. The exporter shall deliver two copies of the bill of lading to the storekeeper-gauger. One copy of Form 206 will be retained by the storekeeper-gauger, one copy thereof with a copy of the bill of lading will be forwarded to the district supervisor, one copy with a copy of the bill of lading will be forwarded to the collector of customs at the port of exportation and one copy will be delivered to the proprietor for transmittal to the exporter. The exporter will execute his request for customs inspection on Form 206 and file such form with the collector of customs at the port of exportation.

§ 185.776 Records. Cases of distilled spirits removed from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for export shall be reported and accounted for by the proprietor in accordance with Subpart WW of this part and by the storekeeper-gauger in accordance with Subparts UU and VV of this part.

(53 Stat. 343; 26 U. S. C. 2904)

WOODEN PACKAGES CONTAINING METALLIC CANS

§ 185.777 General. Distilled spirits may be exported in wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans, which cans shall each have a capacity of not less than 5 gallons.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 185.778 Exportation of packages containing metallic cans. Application on Form 206 shall be made promptly by the owner of the spirits for the removal of the packages from the bonded warehouse for exportation. The procedure prescribed in this subpart covering the withdrawal of distiller's original packages shall be applicable to the withdrawal of packages containing metallic cans, except that no regauge will be made in the bonded warehouse prior to the removal of the packages for exportation, and for this reason the request for regauge on Form 206 need not be executed by the proprietor of the warehouse.

PROCEEDINGS AT PORTS OF EXPORT

§ 185.779 Notice to collector of customs of arrival of spirits for exportation. When distilled spirits withdrawn for direct exportation or transportation for exportation arrive at the port of exportation, the exporter or his agent shall execute his request for customs inspection on the Form 206 delivered to him by the proprietor of the warehouse and file such copy together with the attached Form 1520, if any, with the collector of customs. If Form 206 is properly completed and accompanied by Form 1520, when required, the collector of customs shall execute his order, both on the copy of Form 206 received from the exporter and on the copy received from the storekeeper-gauger, directing an inspector of customs or other customs officer to inspect the packages or cases described in Form 206 and Form 1520, if any, and to supervise the scalping and destruction of the export stamps on packages, as provided in § 185.781, and the lading of the spirits. Both copies of Form 206 and Form 1520, if any, shall be delivered to the inspector of customs or other customs officer. In the case of distilled spirits withdrawn for transportation for exportation the exporter shall file an export-entry on Form 691 with the collector of customs after the inspection and lading of the spirits.

§ 185.780 Lighterage or drayage under supervision. Immediately upon the arrival of the spirits at the port of exportation, the exporter or his agent shall notify the collector of the port in order that (a) lighterage and drayage may be done under the collector's supervision, (b) the spirits may be at once inspected and laden on board the vessel, and (c) they may be in continuous customs custody from the time they are delivered from the cars or other conveyances until they leave port on the foreign-bound vessel.

§ 185.781 Bulk containers. Distilled spirits in casks, or in cases containing metallic cans, shall be carefully gauged by a customs officer and a detailed report of such gauge shall be made on Form 696, in duplicate. In preparing the report, the customs officer shall make entries thereon as to each package in accordance with the column headings, and, if there is a material discrepancy as to any package, shall attach to the Form 696 a statement as to the nature and apparent cause of the loss. When the officer has completed his gauge and report as prescribed above, the entire shipment may be laden without detention of packages bearing evidence of loss, unless the circumstances indicate tampering, in which event such packages will be detained pending investigation by the district supervisor, to whom the detention should be immediately reported. A copy of the report of gauge will be attached to each copy of Form 206 and Form 1520, if any, and delivered to the collector of customs, as provided in § 185.783. There shall be cut out of each export stamp that portion upon which is shown the serial number of the stamp, the date of issue, the name of the collector issuing the same, the serial number of the cask or package, the contents in proof gallons, and the name of the internal revenue storekeeper-gauger. The cut-out portions of the export stamps shall then be attached to one copy of Form 206 for delivery to the collector of customs. After the export stamps have been scalped, the portions thereof remaining on each cask or package shall be obliterated.

§ 185.782 Bottled spirits. A customs officer at the port of exportation will in every instance carefully inspect cases containing spirits for the purpose of ascertaining whether the cases bear evidence of tampering or have sustained losses in transit due to breakage. The officer will report on Form 206 any cases as to which a discrepancy is found, giving the serial numbers of the cases, their original contents in proof gallons, and the nature of the discrepancy as to each case. When the officer has completed his inspection and report as prescribed above, the entire shipment may be laden without detention of the deficient cases, unless the circumstances indicate fraud, in which event such cases will be detained pending investigation by the district supervisor, to whom the detention should be immediately reported.

§ 185.783 Return of inspection and lading. After the spirits have been duly laden on board the exporting vessel, car, or truck the customs officer shall execute his report on Form 206 and forward all copies to the collector of customs, together with Forms 1520 and Form 696 in the event the shipment was composed of bulk containers.

§ 185.784 Disposition of forms by collectors of customs. Upon receipt of the duly executed forms, the collector of customs will execute his certificate on Form 206 and will forward the copy of such form bearing the cut-out portions of the export stamps and one copy of Forms 1520 and Form 696, if any, to the district supervisor of the district in which is located the warehouse from which the spirits were removed for exportation.

§ 185.785 Exportation in railroad cars or trucks from port of entry through another port. Where distilled spirits are to be exported by rail or in trucks through a frontier port and it is desired to avoid the delay of customs inspection and gauge at such port, the spirits may be entered for exportation at an interior customs port and inspected and gauged by a customs officer at that port. The inspecting customs officer will supervise the loading of the spirits and seal the car or truck with customs seals and note the car number or license number of the truck, as the case may be, and the serial numbers of the customs seals, if numbered seals are used, in his report on both copies of Form 206 and forward the forms with Forms 1520 attached together with a copy of the bill of lading to be furnished by the exporter to the collector of customs. The collector will forward both copies of Forms 206 and 1520 to the customs officer at the frontier port and retain the bill of lading and the cut-out portions of the export stamps, if any, pending return of Forms 206. If the customs officer at the frontier port finds upon arrival of the car or truck that the seals are intact and there is no evidence of tampering with the contents, he will execute his report on Form 206, and allow the car or truck to proceed to its destination without opening. The officer will then return both copies of the receipted Form 206 with Form 1520 attached to the collector of customs at the port of entry. If, however, the customs officer finds that the seals are not intact or there is evidence of tampering with the contents, he will open the car or truck, inspect and gauge the spirits, and make report of his gauge on Form 696, in duplicate. When the spirits are so inspected and gauged, the customs officer will append to each copy of Form 206 (with Form 1520 attached, if any) a copy of his gauge on Form 696 before forwarding the forms to the collector of customs at the port of entry. Upon receipt of Forms 206 and Forms 1520 and 696, if any, from the customs officer at the frontier port, the collector at the port of entry will execute his certificate on both copies of Form 206, properly modified, and forward one copy of each form and the cut-out portions of export stamps from package (if any) to the district supervisor of the district from which the spirits were withdrawn from the warehouse.

§ 185.786 Subsequent procedure. Where distilled spirits are withdrawn and shipped under an export bond, the requirements of §§ 185.787–185.792, must be observed. Where the spirits are withdrawn under a transportation for export bond, the exporter must file with the collector of customs bond on Form 693 and proof of actual landing of the spirits at the foreign port, as provided in § 185.735.

§ 185.787 Proof of landing. Every owner exporting distilled spirits, free of tax, under an export bond shall file with the district supervisor, within six (6) months from the date of exportation, or such additional time as may be granted under § 185.792, evidence satisfactory to the district supervisor that the distilled spirits described in the application for export have been landed at some port outside the jurisdiction of the United States. The landing certificate must give such description as will readily identify the spirits to which it relates.

Port of ....., ..., 19.....

I, ..., of ....., do hereby certify that the merchandise hereinafter described, shipped by ..... at the port of ....., on board the ..... on or about the ..... day of ....., 19....., has been landed at this port from on board the ..... on or about the ..... day of ....., 19.....

(Title)

§ 185.789 Execution of landing certificate. The landing certificate shall be signed by a revenue officer of the foreign country to which the spirits are exported, unless it is shown that such country has no customs administration, in which event the certificate shall be signed by the consignee or by the vessel's agent at the place of landing and sworn to before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths and having an official seal. Where the certificate offered is in a foreign language, a sworn translation must accompany the certificate.

§ 185.790 Landing certificate may cover several consignments. Where several consignments are made by the same shipper to the same consignee, or to a general agent, on the same date, by the same vessel or other conveyance, and to the same foreign port, such consignments may be covered by one landing certificate, provided each consignment is specifically and separately described in the certificate.

§ 185.791 Collateral evidence of landing. Whenever an owner is unable to procure a landing certificate but is able to establish by collateral evidence the actual exportation of the spirits and their delivery to the foreign consignee, he may file application for relief with the district supervisor holding the export bond. Such application must be under oath and must recite the facts connected with the exportation, the date of withdrawal of the spirits from the internal revenue bonded warehouse for exportation, the name and registry number of the internal revenue bonded warehouse from which withdrawn, the name and registry number of the producing distiller, the serial numbers of the packages or cases, the kind and quantity of spirits, the name of the consignee, and the name of the vessel by and the port to which shipment was made. The application must set forth the reason why a landing certificate cannot be filed and must be supported by such collateral evidence of exportation and delivery to the foreign consignee as the exporter may be able to submit. The application must be submitted to the district supervisor before the expiration of the time specified in § 185.787 for furnishing evidence of landing.

§ 185.792 Extension of time for submitting proof of landing. In case the owner, from causes beyond his control, is unable to furnish the required proof of landing within six months from the date of exportation, he may make application to the district supervisor for an extension of time for the production of such evidence. Such application must state specifically the cause of failure to produce the evidence and be verified under oath. An extension of three months may be granted by the district supervisor, and, if necessary, upon a second application an additional three months may be granted.

§ 185.793 Account with export bonds, Forms 657, 658, 547 and 548. The district supervisor will keep an account on Form 1688, with each continuing export bond on Form 657 or Form 658 and with each specific export bond on Form 547 or Form 548. The account shall show all of the information as indicated in the heading and by the various columns and as required by instructions issued in respect thereto and by this part.

LOSSES

§ 185.794 Loss at sea. Section 2885, I. R. C., provides that the bond required to be given for the exportation of distilled spirits shall be canceled upon presentation of satisfactory proof that, after shipment, the spirits were lost at sea without fault or neglect of the owner or shipper thereof.

§ 185.795 Action by district supervisor. If, upon examination of Forms 206, 696 and 1520 received from the collector of customs, a loss in transit is disclosed, the district supervisor will follow the procedure prescribed by §§ 185.480–185.496 insofar as applicable.

§ 185.796 Proof of loss at sea. When the exporter is unable to furnish proof of landing at a foreign port in consequence of loss at sea, he shall file with the district supervisor with whom he filed the export bond, an application for relief, setting forth fully the cause and extent of the loss, and all the facts and circumstances surrounding the same. Such application must be accompanied by the affidavits of two or more creditable and disinterested persons as to the loss. If the spirits were insured, the exporter shall also file certificates by officers of the insurance company, or board of underwriters, stating whether the insurance has been paid, and, whether to the best of their knowledge and belief the spirits were actually destroyed at sea. When obtainable, affidavits must be furnished by the master and mate of the vessel, detailing the cause and extent of the loss and all of the facts and circumstances surrounding the same. Such proof shall be furnished to the district supervisor within the time specified in § 185.787, for furnishing proof of landing of the spirits in a foreign country. The district supervisor will forward the application and supporting evidence to the Commissioner with his recommendation.

§ 185.797 Filing proof of loss at sea in case of exportation under bond on Form 693. Where the spirits are exported under a bond furnished on Form 693 and the exporter is unable to furnish the required proof of landing at a foreign port in consequence of loss at sea, he will file application for relief and supporting evidence conforming to the provisions of the preceding section with the collector of customs with whom the bond was filed. The collector of customs will forward the application and supporting evidence to the Commissioner of Customs, with his recommendation thereon.

EXPORTATION IN TANK CARS

§ 185.798 Kind of spirits. Under the law, distilled spirits of a proof strength of not less than 180 degrees intended for exportation, free of tax, may be drawn from storage tanks in any internal revenue warehouses, for transfer to tank cars for exportation.

(53 Stat. 339; 26 U. S. C. 2888)

§ 185.799 Procedure applicable. Where it is desired to export distilled spirits in tank cars pursuant to the above provisions of law, the procedure relating to the exportation of distilled spirits in distiller's original packages, in so far as applicable, shall apply. The tank cars must be so constructed that all openings may be securely closed and sealed. An export stamp shall be procured and affixed to the route board of each tank car of spirits intended for exportation in the same manner as an export stamp is affixed to a package of spirits to be exported, and upon inspection of the tank car at the port of exportation such stamp shall be scalped and disposed of in accordance with § 185.781.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 185.800 Certificate of origin. In view of the fact that entry of distilled spirits at ports in certain foreign countries is permitted only upon the filing by the importer of an official certificate showing the origin and age of such spirits, district supervisors with whom export withdrawal entries are filed may, in such cases, furnish the exporter with a certificate showing the origin and age of the spirits described in the entry for withdrawal, so far as may be determined from the marks and brands on the packages or cases containing the spirits. Such certificates shall be furnished in typewritten form on official letterheads.

§ 185.801 Shipment to American possessions. The provisions of this subpart relating to the exportation of distilled spirits, free of tax, to foreign countries and the forms prescribed for use in connection therewith, shall apply to like removals and shipments to Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, and the Panama Canal Zone. Distilled spirits shipped to other possessions of the United States, and to Hawaii and Alaska, must be tax paid before withdrawal from bonded warehouses, unless transferred in bond to an internal revenue bonded warehouse located in one of these territories or possessions.

§ 185.802 Exportation of spirits after expiration of bonded period not permitted. Except as to spirits which were 8 years of age, or older, on July 26, 1936, and remain in warehouse, district supervisors will decline to approve applications for the exportation of distilled spirits which have remained in warehouse after the expiration of the 8-year bonded period prescribed by law. In such cases, the district supervisor will indorse his disapproval across the face of the application and return the disapproved application, together with the bond, to the owner. At the same time the district supervisor will inform the proprietor of the warehouse in which the spirits are stored that the bonded period has expired and demand the immediate tax payment and withdrawal of the spirits.

§ 185.803 Delay in lading at port. If the exporting vessel is not prepared to receive distilled spirits withdrawn for export upon arrival at the port of exportation, the collector of customs may permit such spirits to remain in possession of the carrier for a period not exceeding 15 days. Storage elsewhere for a like cause, and not exceeding the same period, may be approved by the collector of customs. In the event of further delay, the facts will be reported to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who will issue appropriate instructions concerning the disposition of the spirits.

SUBPART II—SUPPLIES FOR CERTAIN VESSELS AND AIRCRAFT

§ 185.815 General. Distilled spirits in packages and in cases which have been bottled in bond for exportation may be withdrawn from internal revenue bonded warehouses free of tax for use as supplies on the following vessels and aircraft:

(a) Vessels of war, in ports of the United States, of any nation which may reciprocate such privilege toward the vessels of war of the United States in its ports;

(b) Vessels employed in the fisheries or in the whaling business, or actually engaged in foreign trade or trade between the Atlantic and Pacific ports of the United States or between the United States and any of its possessions;

(c) Aircraft registered in the United States and actually engaged in foreign trade or trade between the United States and any of its possessions; and

(d) Aircraft registered in any foreign country and actually engaged in foreign trade or trade between the United States and any of its possessions, where such trade by foreign aircraft is permitted, and where the Secretary of the Treasury shall have been advised by the Secretary of Commerce that he has found that such foreign country allows, or will allow, substantially reciprocal privileges in respect of aircraft registered in the United States.

§ 185.816 Procedure. Application to remove distilled spirits in packages and in cases bottled in bond for exportation from internal revenue bonded warehouses for use as supplies on vessels or aircraft will be made on Form 206. The procedure prescribed in §§ 185.738–185.772, as it relates to the withdrawal of packages from internal revenue bonded warehouses for exportation, is hereby made applicable to the withdrawal of packages for use as supplies on vessels or aircraft. The procedure prescribed in §§ 185.773–185.775 relating to the transfer and withdrawal of spirits bottled in bond for exportation, is hereby made applicable to the transfer and withdrawal of bottled spirits free of tax for use as supplies on vessels or aircraft.

§ 185.817 Bond. Distilled spirits which are to be withdrawn from internal revenue bonded warehouses free of tax for use as supplies on vessels or aircraft must be covered by a bond on Form 547 or Form 657. Such bonds will be executed in the same manner as bonds for distilled spirits withdrawn free of tax for exportation, but must be accompanied by consent of surety, Form 1533, specifically stipulating that the terms thereof will cover distilled spirits withdrawn for use as supplies on vessels or aircraft. Exporters who have on file bonds on Form 657 covering the exportation of distilled spirits, and who desire to withdraw spirits free of tax from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for use as supplies on vessels or aircraft, may file a consent of surety containing a similar stipulation, provided such bonds are of sufficient penal sum.

§ 185.818 Export entry. Before the spirits may be laden on the vessel or aircraft, the owner must file Form 206 with the collector of customs. The provisions of §§ 185.779, 185.780, and 185.782–185.784, will be observed insofar as applicable.

§ 185.819 Evidence of use as supplies on vessels and aircraft. If the distilled spirits were laden on board a vessel or aircraft for use as ship's supplies or supplies for aircraft, there must be submitted to the district supervisor, within six months (or such additional extensions of time as may be granted by the district supervisor or the Commissioner), an affidavit of the master or other officer of the vessel or aircraft on which the spirits were laden, having knowledge of the facts, showing that the spirits have been used on board the vessel or aircraft, and that no portion thereof has been unladen in the United States or any of its possessions: Provided, That in the case of any shipment, no affidavit will be required if the amount of tax does not exceed $25.00. In the case of vessels of war, such affidavit will not be required.

§ 185.820 Account with bond, Form 547 or Form 657. The district supervisor will keep an account with each bond, Form 547 or Form 657, similar to that kept for distilled spirits exported free of tax. In cases where exportations free of tax and withdrawals free of tax for use as supplies on vessels or aircraft are made under the same bond, only one account covering both transactions need be kept. Upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the use of the spirits as supplies, the bond will be credited with the quantity so reported.

§ 185.821 Records. Spirits withdrawn for use as supplies on vessels or aircraft shall be reported and accounted for by the proprietor in accordance with Subpart WW of this part and by the storekeeper-gauger in accordance with Subparts UU and VV of this part.

SUBPART JJ—TRANSFER OF DISTILLED SPIRITS TO CUSTOMS MANUFACTURING BONDED WAREHOUSES

§ 185.825 General. Any manufacturer who manufactures medicines, preparations, compositions, perfumeries, cosmetics, and cordials and other liquors, for exportation, at a duly constituted manufacturing bonded warehouse established in accordance with law, may withdraw distilled spirits in distiller's original packages from any internal revenue bonded warehouse, free of tax, for use in the manufacture of such products. The law provides that distilled spirits may be removed from internal revenue bonded warehouses without payment of tax and transported to bonded manufacturing warehouses, class 6, to be rectified, or reduced in proof and bottled, and exported or shipped to Puerto Rico.

§ 185.826 Withdrawal of packages. When any manufacturer, who is the proprietor of a customs manufacturing bonded warehouse, desires to remove distiller's original packages of distilled spirits to such warehouse from an internal revenue bonded warehouse, free of tax, for use in the manufacture of medicines, preparations, compositions, perfumeries, cosmetics, and cordials and other liquors, for exportation, or, in the case of spirits rectified or reduced in proof and bottled, for exportation or shipment to Puerto Rico, he shall execute application, Form 206, in quintuplicate, in accordance with the applicable provisions of § 185.738, indicating thereon that the spirits are to be withdrawn for transfer to a customs manufacturing warehouse. The proprietor of the internal revenue bonded warehouse from which the spirits are to be removed shall execute request on Form 206 for regauge of the packages covered by the application. The provisions of § 185.741, relating to the gauging of distiller's original packages for exportation, shall so far as applicable apply to packages to be removed to customs manufacturing warehouses.

§ 185.827 Bond. The manufacturer shall execute a bond to cover the transportation of the spirits from the internal revenue bonded warehouse from which withdrawn to the customs manufacturing bonded warehouse. If the bond is to cover a specific lot of spirits, it shall be executed on Form 643, in triplicate, and in a penal sum sufficient to cover the tax at the rate prescribed by law on the spirits to be so transported. If it is desired to furnish bond under which spirits may be withdrawn from time to time, it shall be executed on Form 1618, in triplicate, in a penal sum sufficient to cover the tax at the rate prescribed by law on the maximum quantity of spirits which may be outstanding against the bond at any one time. The bond and the application, Form 206, with report of gauge, Form 1520, attached, will be forwarded to the district supervisor who will, upon approval, dispose of the bond and application as provided in § 185.753, in the case of the withdrawal of distilled spirits in distiller's original packages for exportation.

§ 185.828 Account with bonds, Form 1618 and Form 643. The district supervisor will keep an account on Form 1687, with each continuing bond on Form 1618 and with each specific bond on Form 643. The account shall show all information as indicated in the heading and by the various columns and as required by instructions issued in respect thereto and by this part.

§ 185.829 Stamps, marks and brands; disposition of forms. The packages must be stamped, marked and branded in accordance with § 185.754 except that the name of the port to which the spirits are consigned for deposit in a manufacturing warehouse will be substituted for the names of the ports from and to which the spirits are to be exported. Forms will be disposed of in accordance with § 185.759.

§ 185.830 Consignment of spirits. The spirits when withdrawn for shipment must in all cases be consigned to the proprietor of the manufacturing bonded warehouse, in care of the collector of customs of the district in which the warehouse is located.

§ 185.831 Regauge and deposit in customs manufacturing warehouse. Upon receipt of Forms 206 and 1520, the collector of customs will direct the proper officer to inspect and gauge the spirits upon their arrival at the warehouse, and to supervise their deposit therein. The officer will make a report of his gauge on Form 696, in duplicate, scalp the export stamps and attach them to one copy of the form, supervise the deposit of the spirits in the warehouse, execute his certificate on Customs Form 3923, in duplicate, and forward the forms to the collector of customs, who will execute his certificate on Form 3923 and forward one copy of each form with the scalped stamps and one copy each of Form 206 and Form 1520 to the district supervisor of the district from which the spirits were received. If there is a material discrepancy as to any package, the inspecting officer will attach to the Form 696 a statement as to the nature and cause of the loss. When the officer has completed his gauge and report as prescribed above, the entire shipment may be deposited without detention of packages bearing evidence of loss, unless the circumstances indicate tampering, in which event such packages will be detained pending investigation by the district supervisor, to whom the detention should be immediately reported.

§ 185.832 Action by district supervisor. Upon receipt of Forms 3923, 696, 206, and 1520 from the collector of customs, the district supervisor will ascertain whether there has been a loss of spirits from the packages in transit. If such a loss of spirits has occurred, the district supervisor will follow the procedure prescribed in §§ 185.480–185.496, insofar as applicable. If there has been no loss of spirits in transit, the district supervisor will, if the spirits were withdrawn on a continuing bond on Form 1618, make appropriate entries on Form 1687, or, if the withdrawal was made under bond on Form 643, cancel such bond in accordance with the provisions of § 185.338 and make appropriate entries on Form 1687.

SUBPART KK—WITHDRAWAL OF DISTILLED SPIRITS FOR USE OF THE UNITED STATES

§ 185.840 Persons entitled to make withdrawals. Distilled spirits stored in internal revenue bonded warehouses and purchased for the use of the United States may be withdrawn, free of tax, by the head of the department, or the head of the bureau or establishment not under control of any department, for which the spirits are purchased.

§ 185.841 Application, Form 543. The head of the department or independent bureau or establishment, as the case may be, desiring to so withdraw such distilled spirits free of tax will file application on Form 543, signed by himself or another official duly authorized by him. Where the head of a department or independent bureau authorizes another officer to sign the application he will furnish the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with a copy of the order authorizing such officer to sign, or other evidence of the authority conferred upon the officer. The application will be forwarded to the Commissioner.

§ 185.842 Permit, Form 1508. Upon receipt of the application, permit on Form 1508, in quintuplicate, will be issued by the Commissioner and the original and three copies will be forwarded to the Government official by whom the application was signed, who in turn shall detach a copy and forward the original and the two remaining copies to the contractor or warehouseman to whom the spirits are to be delivered for shipment to the designated Government official. Upon approval of the bond, Form 544, pursuant to the provisions of § 185.843, the warehouseman shall furnish the original and the two copies of the Form 1508 to the storekeeper-gauger at the warehouse.

§ 185.843 Bond, Form 544. The contractor or the warehouseman will file with the district supervisor a bond on Form 544, in triplicate, in a penal sum not less than the tax on the spirits to be withdrawn. Upon approval of the bond, the district supervisor will forward one copy to the Commissioner and one copy to the principal, and will retain the remaining copy.

§ 185.844 Form 1520. If the spirits to be withdrawn are in packages, the warehouseman will prepare an original and four copies of Form 1520 in the manner prescribed in § 185.601. The storekeeper-gauger at the warehouse will, upon presentation of the Form 1520 and the original and two copies of the permit, Form 1508, examine the packages and where it is determined that any package bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, such package will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. Packages which do not bear evidence of unusual loss or tampering will then be gauged.

§ 185.845 Form 1519. If the spirits to be withdrawn were previously bottled in bond, the warehouseman will present the original and two copies of the permit, Form 1508, to the storekeeper-gauger together with an application on Form 1519, in quintuplicate, modified to indicate the type of withdrawal, executed by the principal on the bond Form 544, for withdrawal of the spirits. The storekeeper-gauger will inspect the cases and follow the procedure, insofar as applicable, prescribed by § 185.844. If any cases appear to have sustained a loss, the contents shall be examined and the quantity ascertained to have been lost from each case shall be noted on each copy of Form 1519.

§ 185.846 Forwarding of forms. Upon completion of the regauge or inspection, the storekeeper-gauger will forward the original and two copies of the permit, Form 1508, and one copy of Form 1520 or 1519, as the case may be, direct to the district supervisor.

(53 Stat. 403; 26 U. S. C. 3331)

§ 185.847 Supervisor's order to deliver spirits. If the bond has been approved, the district supervisor, upon receipt of the original and two copies of the permit, Form 1508, and the copy of Form 1520 or 1519 from the storekeeper-gauger, will execute his order on Form 1508 directing the storekeeper-gauger to deliver the spirits to the person named in the order, and will forward all copies of the Form 1508 and Form 1520 or Form 1519 to the storekeeper-gauger: Provided, That where inspection of any package or case discloses evidence of tampering or unusual loss as provided in §§ 185.844 or 185.845, the procedure prescribed in §§ 185.480–185.496 will be followed.

§185.848 Delivery of spirits. Upon receipt from the district supervisor of the original and two copies of the Form 1508 and Form 1520 or Form 1519 by the storekeeper-gauger, the spirits will be delivered as provided in the order of the district supervisor, after the containers have been properly marked. The proprietor will cut, brand, or stencil on the Government head of each package withdrawn for the use of the United States, in letters and figures not less than one-half inch in height, the proof and tare ascertained at the time of gauge for withdrawal, the date and purpose of withdrawal, the number of proof gallons as then ascertained, and the storekeeper-gauger's name, title, and district. Cases will have stenciled thereon the words "Use of U. S.," followed by the date of withdrawal. There will also be plainly marked on each package or case, by means of a stencil or securely affixed label, the name, title, and address of the Government official to whom the spirits are to be consigned. When delivery of the spirits has been made, the storekeeper-gauger will note over his signature on Form 1508, in the space provided therefor, the name of the person to whom the spirits were delivered and the date of delivery, and will retain one copy of the Form 1508 and one copy of Form 1520 or Form 1519, deliver one copy of each to the warehouseman, forward one copy of the Form 1520 or Form 1519 to the Government official to whom the spirits are to be delivered at destination, and forward the original of the permit, Form 1508 with Form 1520 or Form 1519 attached, to the district supervisor. If the bond was given by a person other than the warehouseman, a copy of Form 1520 or Form 1519 may be furnished to such person.

§ 185.849 Bill of lading. Where the spirits are transported from the warehouse by a carrier, the person to whom the spirits are delivered for shipment shall furnish a copy of the bill of lading covering transportation of the spirits from the point of shipment to final destination, to the storekeeper-gauger, who will forward the same to the district supervisor with Form 1508 and Form 1520 or Form 1519.

§ 185.850 Certificate, Form 545. Receipts of shipments of spirits withdrawn for use of the United States under this subpart shall be promptly certified to on Form 545, in duplicate, by the official representative of the United States or Governmental agency thereof to whom deliveries of such shipments are made. Where inspection at destination discloses a loss in transit in excess of one proof gallon as to any package, such loss will be noted on each copy of Form 545 by the receiving officer who will also specify the serial number of each such package, the loss ascertained as to each, and whether the condition of the package when received indicated that the loss was due to theft, or to other cause. Similar notations will be made by the receiving official on Form 545 where inspection of shipments of spirits withdrawn in cases reveals any loss in transit.

§ 185.851 Disposition of Form 545. The certificate on Form 545, in duplicate, duly executed by the receiving officer to whom the spirits are delivered and countersigned by the head of the department or independent bureau or establishment in interest, shall be forwarded within 30 days from the date of the withdrawal of the spirits to the district supervisor from whose district the withdrawal was made. The district supervisor will note on Form 545 the quantity of spirits shown by the withdrawal papers to have been withdrawn for shipment. If Form 545 shows a loss of spirits in transit upon which a claim for remission of the tax is required to be filed in accordance with the provisions of § 185.482, the district supervisor will forward a copy of the Form 545 to the Commissioner with the claim and his recommendation, otherwise the district supervisor will forward a copy of the form to the Commissioner and will retain one copy of Form 545.

SUBPART LL—WITHDRAWAL OF BRANDY FOR FORTIFICATION OF WINE

§ 185.855 Kinds of spirits. Brandies made exclusively from grapes, citrus fruits (except lemons and limes), peaches, cherries, berries, apricots, prunes, plums, pears, pawpaws, papayas, pineapples, cantaloups, or apples, or from the products or the residues of such fruits and berries, or from grape wine, citrus fruit wine, peach wine, cherry wine, berry wine, apricot wine, prune wine, plum wine, pear wine, pawpaw wine, papaya wine, pineapple wine, cantaloup wine, or apple wine in the manufacture of which artificial sweetening may have been used under the limitations prescribed in Regulations 7, "Wine" (26 CFR, Part 178), or the fruit pomace residuum of such grape wine, may be withdrawn from internal revenue bonded warehouses for the fortification of wine.

WITHDRAWAL IN PACKAGES

§ 185.856 Application, Form 257. Where it is desired to remove brandy in packages from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for the fortification of wine, application will be made by the winemaker on Form 257. The winemaker shall state in the application the penal sum of the bond, Form 700–A. The same application may not include brandy produced by different distillers, nor two or more lots to be removed from the same bonded warehouse at different times, except where the warehouse is contiguous to the winery as provided in § 185.861. The application shall be filed in triplicate where the winery and the bonded warehouse are in the same supervisory district, and in quadruplicate, where they are in different districts. Where the premises are located in the same supervisory district and the bond of the winemaker is given in the maximum penal sum of $50,000, Form 257, will be submitted to the storekeeper-gauger if one is located at the winery, or at a contiguous fruit distillery or internal revenue bonded warehouse, as the case may be. If no storekeeper-gauger is located at such premises, the application will be submitted at the discretion of the district supervisor, to a designated storekeeper-gauger in the vicinity of the bonded winery. The district supervisor will notify each storekeeper-gauger designated to approve Forms 257 and advise him that the winemaker's bond is given in the maximum penal sum of $50,000. He will notify each winemaker concerned where Forms 257 are to be submitted to a storekeeper-gauger. All other Forms 257, that is, (a) those covering intradistrict removals where the bond of the winemaker is in the maximum penal sum but no storekeeper-gauger has been designated to approve Forms 257, (b) those covering intradistrict removals where the bond of the winemaker is not in the maximum penal sum, and (c) those covering interdistrict removals, will be submitted direct to the supervisor of the district in which the winery is located.

§ 185.857 Action on application, Form 257—(a) By district supervisor. If the application is in order, the quantity of brandy to be withdrawn is not in excess of the applicant's current needs or of the storage capacity of the fortifying room and the bond of the winemaker is sufficient to cover the brandy to be procured, the district supervisor will (1) where the warehouse is in the same district, execute his certificate on the form and send all three copies to the proprietor of the internal revenue bonded warehouse; and (2) where the warehouse is located in another supervisory district, execute his certificate on the form and send all four copies to the supervisor of such district, who will send all four copies to the proprietor of the internal revenue bonded warehouse from which the brandy is to be removed. If a storekeeper-gauger is not located at the internal revenue bonded warehouse, the supervisor of the district in which the warehouse is located will designate a storekeeper-gauger to gauge the brandy. If the application is not in order, the supervisor of the district in which the bonded winery is located will return all copies to the winemaker.

(b) By storekeeper-gauger. Upon receipt of Form 257 by the storekeeper-gauger, he will compare the penal sum of the bond as stated in the application with the statement furnished by the district supervisor pursuant to § 185.856. If the bond of the winemaker is given in the maximum penal sum of $50,000, the application is in proper order, and the quantity of brandy to be withdrawn is not in excess of the applicant's current needs or of the storage capacity of the fortifying room, he will certify to the sufficiency thereof on Form 257. He will send all copies of Form 257 to the proprietor of the internal revenue bonded warehouse from which the brandy is to be removed. If the application is not in order he will return all copies to the winemaker.

§ 185.858 Gauge of brandy. The proprietor, upon receipt of Form 257, will execute his description of the brandy to be gauged on all copies of the form and will, if the brandy to be removed is in previously filled packages, prepare Form 1520 in the manner prescribed in § 185.601. The proprietor will prepare four copies of the report of gauge, Form 1520, where the brandy is to be removed at one time to the fortifying room of a contiguous winery, five copies in all other instances where brandy is to be removed to a winery located in the same supervisor district, and six copies where the winery is located in another district. He will refer the forms to the storekeeper-gauger assigned to the warehouse or to the storekeeper-gauger designated by the district supervisor pursuant to § 185.857, as the case may be. Where the certificate of sufficiency of the winemaker's bond was executed by a storekeeper-gauger and no storekeeper-gauger is assigned to the warehouse, the proprietor will request the district supervisor to designate one to gauge and release the brandy. The storekeeper-gauger will, by reference to his records, verify the entries in the heading of Form 1520 and the details of the entry gauge transcribed thereto. The storekeeper-gauger will examine the packages and where it is determined that any package bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, such package will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. If the packages were previously filled, they will be regauged unless withdrawn on the original gauge as provided in § 185.564. The proprietor will cut, brand or stencil on the Government head in letters and figures not less than one-half inch in height, the proof and tare ascertained at the time of withdrawal, the date of withdrawal, and where the winery is not contiguous, the words "For Fortification of Wine". He will attach one copy of Form 1520 to each copy of Form 257 and will note on the extra copies of Form 1520 the name, registry number, and address of the winery to which the brandy is to be shipped. No greater quantity of brandy may be gauged or withdrawn than stated in the application. If the brandy to be removed is contained in storage tanks, the designated packages, after they have been filled and gauged, will be marked and branded in accordance with § 185.399, serially numbered in accordance with § 185.401, and in addition will have placed thereon the markings required in this section. In such cases, Form 1520 will be prepared and completed by the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 185.859 Warehouse and winery on contiguous premises. Where the warehouse and winery are located on contiguous premises, and the storekeeper-gauger at the warehouse is charged with supervising the deposit of the brandy in the fortifying room, he will, upon deposit of the brandy, execute his certificates of gauge and removal and receipt on all copies of Form 257, retain one copy, with Form 1520 attached, at the warehouse and one copy at the winery, and forward one copy to the district supervisor. The extra copy of Form 1520 will be delivered to the warehouseman.

§ 185.860 Warehouse and winery not on contiguous premises. Where the warehouse and winery are not located on contiguous premises, and the storekeeper-gauger at the warehouse is not charged with supervising the deposit of the brandy in the fortifying room of the winery, he will, upon removal of the brandy, execute his certificate of gauge and removal on all copies of Form 257, retain one copy with a copy of Form 1520 attached, and immediately forward the remaining copies (two or three, as the case may be), with a copy of Form 1520 attached to each, to the winemaker. The storekeeper-gauger will forward one of the extra copies of Form 1520 to the district supervisor and will deliver one copy to the warehouseman. When the brandy is received at the winery the officer detailed to duty thereat will examine the packages, supervise their deposit in the fortifying room, and complete and dispose of the forms in accordance with the provisions of Regulations 7 (26 CFR, Part 178).

§ 185.861 Gauging officer's certificate of monthly deposits in contiguous wineries. If the warehouse and winery are located on contiguous premises and brandy is to be transferred to the winery from time to time during the month under the supervision of a storekeeper-gauger, the winemaker's application on Form 257 may cover all brandy to be transferred to the winery during the month. If the storekeeper-gauger gauging the brandy supervises its transfer to and deposit in the fortifying room, he will certify to the deposit on each copy of Form 1520 as the brandy is deposited, attach one copy thereof to each copy of Form 257, forward one of the extra copies of Form 1520 to the district supervisor, and deliver one copy to the warehouseman. At the close of the month the storekeeper-gauger will execute his certificate of gauge and removal and receipt on Form 257, retain one copy thereof, with a copy of each Form 1520 attached, at the warehouse as a permanent record, and one copy, similarly completed, at the winery for the same purpose, and forward the other copy to the district supervisor.

WITHDRAWAL BY PIPE LINE

§ 185.863 Application, Form 257. Where it is desired to transfer brandy by pipeline from warehouse tanks to the fortifying rooms of wineries on contiguous premises, application will be made by the winemaker on Form 257, in triplicate, in the same manner as when brandy is to be transferred in packages, as prescribed in § 185.856. The district supervisor or the storekeeper-gauger, as the case may be, will execute his certificate on the form as prescribed in § 185.857, the warehouseman will indicate the brandy to be gauged, as prescribed in § 185.858, and the storekeeper-gauger designated to gauge the brandy will make his report of gauge and execute his certificate of gauge and removal and receipt and complete and dispose of Forms 257 and Forms 1520, as prescribed in the case of removal in packages. Notation of transfer by pipeline will be made by the storekeeper-gauger on each Form 1520.

§ 185.864 Gauge of brandy. The brandy will be gauged in gauging tanks in the warehouse and run directly from such tanks to fortifying tanks or brandy storage tanks in the fortifying room of the winery, except that where no gauging tank is provided in the warehouse, the brandy may be gauged in a gauging tank in the fortifying room, in which case the brandy will be run direct from the storage tanks in the warehouse to the gauging tank in the fortifying room.

§ 185.865 Fortifying room not having gauging tank. Where a gauging tank is not provided in the fortifying room, the brandy may be transferred thereto by pipeline only for immediate use, and only in such quantities as are necessary to fortify a given lot of wine. In such cases the wine to be fortified will be run into the fortifying tank and the required quantity of brandy to fortify the wine will be gauged in the warehouse and run directly into the fortifying tank containing the wine.

§ 185.866 Deposit in locked tanks. The pipeline must empty into a closed tank which will be locked with a Government lock while brandy is being discharged therein or remains therein. Where the brandy is run directly by pipeline into a fortifying tank such tank must be fitted with a locked cover. If, however, the gauging tank is located in the fortifying room, it is not necessary that the fortifying tank be fitted with a locked cover.

§ 185.867 Supervision. The brandy will be transferred under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. The officer supervising the deposit of brandy in the fortifying room of the winery will see that the pipeline is properly connected by the proprietor with the tank into which the brandy is to be transferred before the valve permitting the flow of brandy to such tank is opened. The storekeeper-gauger will also see that the valves controlling the flow of brandy into or out of tanks are locked with Government locks at all times, except when necessary to be open for the transfer of brandy. The keys will remain in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger, or, if no storekeeper-gauger is assigned to the warehouse or distillery, in the custody of the district supervisor or other officer designated by him. The officer will also see that no pipeline is used for the transfer of brandy unless it has been inspected and has been approved by the district supervisor.

WITHDRAWAL IN TANK CARS

§ 185.868 Application, Form 257. Where it is desired to withdraw brandy from warehouse tanks for removal in tank cars to the fortifying room of a winery, application will be made by the winemaker on Form 257, in the same manner as when brandy is removed in packages, as prescribed in § 185.856 for withdrawal of packages. The district supervisor or the storekeeper-gauger, as the case may be, will execute his certificate on the form as prescribed in § 185.857, the warehouseman will indicate the brandy to be gauged as prescribed in § 185.858, and the storekeeper-gauger designated to gauge the brandy will make his report of gauge and execute his certificate of gauge and removal and dispose of Forms 257 and Forms 1520 as prescribed in the case of removal in packages. The storekeeper-gauger must note the kind of brandy on Form 1520. The winemaker will state on his application that the brandy is to be transported by tank car.

§ 185.869 Tank car requirements. Tank cars used to transport brandy for the fortification of wine must be constructed, marked, inspected, filled, and sealed in the same manner as tank cars used to transport distilled spirits in bond, as provided in § 185.700.

(53 Stat. 348 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 3031)

§ 185.870 Notation on Form 1520. When the tank car is shipped the storekeeper-gauger will enter on Form 1520 covering the gauge of brandy the name of the owner and the serial number of the car, the serial numbers of the cap seals, the destination, and the date of shipment; for example: "Withdrawn in U. P. tank car No. 1643, cap seal No. 36437, for transfer to Winery No. 46, Los Angeles, Calif., for fortification of wine. Billed out 3:30 p. m. September 10, 1938."

(53 Stat. 348 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 3031)

§ 185.871 Label to be attached. When brandy is shipped in a tank car to a winery for fortification of wine, a label, dated and signed by the storekeeper-gauger, showing that the brandy is shipped in bond for fortification, and giving the name, registry number, and location (city or town and State) of the warehouse from which shipped and the winery to which shipped, shall be securely attached to the route board of the car, where it may be readily examined by Government officers. The label must be of good quality paper and be protected from damage by a coating of transparent shellac or similar transparent protective material. The label will be attached by the warehouseman under the supervision of the Government officer. The label, which will be furnished by the warehouseman, will be in substantially the following form:

Shipped in bond by
CALIFORNIA GRAPE COMPANY
I. R. B. W. No. 80, St. Helena, Calif., 14th Dist.
to
WESTERN WINE COMPANY
B. W. No. 50, Santa Rosa, Calif., 14th Dist.
For fortification of wine

---------- ----------
(Date) (Storekeeper-gauger)

This label will be scraped and obliterated immediately the tank car is emptied.

(53 Stat. 348 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 3031)

§ 185.872 Deposit of brandy in fortifying room. The examination of the tank car upon arrival at the winery, the unloading thereof, the gauging of the brandy unloaded, the preparation of the report of gauge, Form 1520, and the completion and disposition of Form 257 and Form 1520 by the storekeeper-gauger supervising the deposit of brandy in the fortifying room, will be in accordance with the provisions of Regulations 7 (26 CFR, Part 178).

(53 Stat. 348 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 3031)

SUBPART MM—WITHDRAWAL OF RUM FOR DENATURATION

§ 185.880 General. Rum of not less than 150 degrees proof may be withdrawn from an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises, free of tax, for denaturation:

(a) By pipeline from warehouse storage tanks through gauging tanks to storage or mixing tanks in a denaturing bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises; or

(b) In original packages for transfer to a denaturing bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises where produced.

§ 185.881 Application, Form 573. When the proprietor of a distillery denaturing bonded warehouse desires to withdraw from an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the same distillery premises rum of not less than 150 degrees of proof for denaturation, he will file application therefor with the storekeeper-gauger in charge on Form 573, in triplicate. Where the rum to be transferred is in packages, such application will be accompanied by Form 1520, in triplicate, prepared in the manner prescribed in § 185.601. Where the rum is to be transferred from warehouse storage tanks to the denaturing bonded warehouse by pipe line, the applicant shall specify on Form 573 the maximum number of tax gallons to be so transferred.

§ 185.882 Sufficiency of bond. Where the bond covering operation of a denaturing bonded warehouse is given in less than the maximum penal sum of $100,000, the district supervisor will inform the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the penal sum of the bond, and the storekeeper-gauger will see that the quantity of spirits transferred to the denaturing bonded warehouse is within the limits of the bond.

§ 185.883 Report of gauge, Form 1520. Upon receipt of the Form 1520 the storekeeper-gauger will verify by reference to his records, the entries in the heading thereof and the details of the entry gauge transcribed thereto. If the rum described in the application is in packages, a careful gauge thereof will be made, except that rum in original packages may be transferred to the denaturing bonded warehouse on the original gauge if such transfer is made within 30 days of the date of the original entry for deposit. Where packages of rum are transferred to the denaturing bonded warehouse on the original gauge the proprietor will copy the details of such gauge on Form 1520. When rum for denaturation is transferred in packages, a careful inspection of such packages will be made prior to transfer, and where evidence of tampering or unusual loss is found the provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496, relative to losses of distilled spirits in bond will be followed. If the rum described in the application, Form 573, is to be transferred from warehouse storage tanks, it will be run into a gauging tank and carefully gauged except that where no gauging tank is provided in the warehouse, the rum may be gauged in a gauging tank in the denaturing bonded warehouse, in which case the rum shall be run direct from the storage tanks in the warehouse to the gauging tanks in the denaturing bonded warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger will prepare Form 1520, in triplicate, and enter the details of the gauge thereon.

§ 185.884 Transfer of rum. Upon completion of gauge, the storekeeper-gauger will permit the rum to be transferred. The proprietor will, under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger and before removal, stencil upon the head of each package, in letters large enough to be easily read, "For Denaturation," and the date of removal. Details of the gauge need not be cut or stenciled on the package.

(53 Stat. 355; 26 U. S. C. 3070)

§ 185.885 Supervision of transfers. All transfers of rum from the internal revenue bonded warehouse to the denaturing bonded warehouse will be made under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. Where rum is so transferred by pipeline, the storekeeper-gauger supervising the deposit of the rum in a storage or mixing tank in the denaturing bonded warehouse will see that the outlet and all other openings of such tank, except the inlet, are closed and locked and that the valves in the pipeline are so adjusted by the proprietor as to control the flow of spirits into the tank, before the outlet of the warehouse storage tank from which the rum is to be transferred is unlocked. When the rum has been deposited in the tank in the denaturing bonded warehouse the inlet of such tank and the outlet of the storage tank in the internal revenue bonded warehouse will be immediately closed by the proprietor and locked by the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will not permit the transfer of rum from the internal revenue bonded warehouse to the denaturing bonded warehouse by pipeline unless the use of such pipeline has been approved in accordance with the provisions of this part.

§ 185.886 Disposition of Forms 573 and 1520. Upon the transfer of the rum, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his certificate of gauge and transfer on each copy of Form 573, retain one copy of Form 573 with Form 1520 attached, deliver one copy of each to the warehouseman, and forward one copy of each to the district supervisor.

(53 Stat. 355; 26 U. S. C. 3070)

SUBPART NN—BOTTLING-IN-BOND DEPARTMENT

SPIRITS TO BE BOTTLED FOR DOMESTIC PURPOSES

§ 185.890 Spirits which may be bottled for domestic purposes. Distilled spirits which have remained in bond in wooden containers for at least four years from the date of original entry, or, in the case of fruit brandy, four years from the date of original gauge, may be bottled in bond before tax payment at a proof of 100 degrees for domestic use. Reduction to the necessary degree of proof may be effected by the addition of pure water only. In determining the eligibility of spirits for bottling in bond for domestic purposes, whisky, brandy, rum, and other distilled spirits (other than gin) must have been stored continuously for at least four years in charred, recharred, plain, used, or reused wooden cooperage so that the spirits have been in contact with the wood surface for the purpose of obtaining color or bringing about chemical changes which age and mature the spirits. Spirits (other than gin) which have been stored in wooden cooperage coated or lined with paraffin, or other substances, may not be bottled in bond. Gin to be bottled for domestic purposes must have been stored continuously for at least 4 years in wooden cooperage coated or lined with paraffin, or other substance, which will preclude contact of the spirits with the wood surface and prevent the absorption of wood color and flavor.

§ 185.891 Application. Application for bottling distilled spirits in bond for domestic purposes will be made to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse on Form 1515, in quadruplicate, which will be accompanied by Form 1520, in triplicate, prepared by the proprietor in the manner provided in § 185.601. Upon receipt of the application and the Form 1520 the storekeeper-gauger will satisfy himself that the spirits are eligible for bottling in bond and will inspect and weigh the packages. Where it is determined that any package bears evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, such package will be detained pending further investigation in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 185.480–185.496. The Form 1515 may be amended to show deletion of any such package. The packages may be inspected and weighed in either the storage portion or the bottling-in-bond department of the warehouse. Where inspection of a package in the bottling-in-bond department discloses evidence of unusual loss that cannot be satisfactorily explained, or of tampering, the package must be returned immediately to the storage portion of the warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger will enter the weight of each package on Form 1520.

§ 185.892 Gauge. If the spirits are to be transferred to the bottling-in-bond department by pipe line, the packages will be dumped in the bulk gauge tank in the warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger will make his gauge of the spirits, report the details thereof on Form 1520 prepared by the proprietor, and complete his report on Form 1515. The storekeeper-gauger will also enter on Form 1520 the number of the gauging tank. If the spirits are to be removed in packages to the bottling-in-bond department, the storekeeper-gauger in the warehouse will complete his certificate of removal for bottling on Form 1515. When the spirits have been released for transfer to a bottling-in-bond department, all copies of the application and the Form 1520 will be furnished to the storekeeper-gauger assigned to the bottling-in-bond department in order that such officer may inspect the spirits prior to the bottling thereof. If the spirits are received in the bottling-in-bond department in packages, they will be dumped for bulk gauging in dumping and reducing or in bottling tanks. The storekeeper-gauger will make his gauge, either by weight or by volume, and will report the gauge on Forms 1520 and 1515 in the same manner as if the spirits had been gauged in the warehouse. He will at that time return the original of the Form 1520 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse. When the bottling is completed, the storekeeper-gauger will enter the details of the cases on Form 1515, forward one copy, with the Form 1520 attached, to the district supervisor, deliver one copy of each form to the proprietor, return one copy of Form 1515 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse, and file the remaining copy of Form 1515 in the bottling-in-bond department. Spirits taxpaid from the bottling department shall be considered as constructively returned to the storage portion of the warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger shall account for, as deposited, on Forms 1621 and 1513, all spirits bottled. Prior to the removal of cases of distilled spirits from the bottling-in-bond department, the storekeeper-gauger will prepare Form 1620, in triplicate. One copy of the form will be forwarded to the district supervisor, one copy will be given to the warehouseman, and the remaining copy will be filed as a permanent record as provided in § 185.1022.

BOTTLING FOR EXPORTATION

§ 185.893 Application and request for regauge. Whenever an owner desires to remove distiller's original packages of distilled spirits from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for bottling in bond for exportation, he shall execute Form 1515, in quadruplicate. After the application on Form 1515 has been fully executed, the owner will deliver all copies thereof to the proprietor of the warehouse, who will execute his request for gauge of the spirits. The proprietor will prepare Form 1520, in triplicate, in the manner prescribed in § 185.601 and will deliver all copies of Forms 1515 and 1520 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse. The requirements as to eligibility of distilled spirits to be bottled in bond for export and the mingling of such spirits for convenience in bottling are the same as those prescribed in §§ 185.890 and 185.901 for spirits bottled for domestic purposes, except that such spirits may be reduced by the addition of pure water only to not less than 80 degrees of proof, and gin may at any time within eight years after entry in bond be bottled in bond for export.

§ 185.894 Regauge of spirits. Upon receipt of Forms 1515 and 1520 the storekeeper-gauger will, by reference to his records, verify the entries in the heading of Form 1520 and the details of the entry gauge transcribed thereto and will examine the application and request for gauge. If no discrepancies are found in the Form 1520 and the Form 1515 has been fully executed, and the spirits are eligible for bottling in bond for export, the procedure prescribed in §§ 185.891 and 185.892 will be followed.

§ 185.895 Bottling for exportation. The spirits will be bottled, stamped, cased and marked in accordance with the provisions of subparts OO, PP and QQ of this part after which the spirits may be returned to the storage portion of the warehouse pending withdrawal for exportation or may be removed for immediate exportation after the filing and approval of Form 206 and proper bond, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 185.773 to 185.775. If the spirits are returned to the storage portion of the warehouse they need not be kept in a separate room or building, but shall be kept separate and apart from all other distilled spirits stored in the warehouse. Spirits removed from the bottling department for immediate exportation shall be considered as constructively returned to the storage portion of the warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger shall account for, as deposited, on Forms 1621 and 1513, all spirits bottled. Prior to the removal of cases of spirits from the bottling-in-bond department, the storekeeper-gauger will prepare Form 1620, in triplicate. One copy of the form will be forwarded to the district supervisor, one copy will be given to the warehouseman, and the remaining copy will be filed as a permanent record as provided in § 185.1022.

SUBPART OO—DUMPING, REDUCING AND BOTTLING

§ 185.900 Prompt dumping of spirits required. Spirits which have been gauged in a warehouse gauging tank for bottling in bond must be immediately transferred by pipeline and deposited in proper tanks in the bottling-in-bond department of the warehouse. Packages of spirits removed from the storage portion of the warehouse for bottling in bond must be immediately transferred to the bottling-in-bond department and their contents promptly dumped and gauged.

§ 185.901 Mingling of spirits. Under the law distilled spirits of the same kind, differing only in proof, produced at the same distillery by the same distiller under the same name or style and during the same distilling season and year, may be mingled together in the gauging, dumping, reducing, or bottling tank for convenience in bottling. Spirits which differ in kind may not be mingled together. Spirits which have been subjected to a quick-aging process may not be mingled with spirits which have not been quick-aged and are not homogeneous, nor may spirits which have been stored in different kinds of cooperage or under different conditions and are of different composition or character be mingled together. The law authorizes only the mingling together, for convenience in bottling, of spirits of the same kind, which differ only in proof, and prohibits the mingling of different products. Spirits mingled together in bottling must therefore be homogeneous: Provided, That spirits contained in packages if marked and branded as prescribed by the Gauging Manual (26 CFR, Part 186) (in effect at the time of production of the spirits) and which otherwise conform to the requirements set forth in this section will be considered to be homogeneous for mingling and bottling in bond.

§ 185.902 Rinsing of barrels. When spirits are dumped for bottling in bond, either in the warehouse gauging room or the bottling-in-bond department, the barrels and any char or wood chips contained therein must be thoroughly rinsed. The rinse water should be used to make any necessary reduction in the proof of the spirits dumped from the barrels. Any rinse water remaining after such reduction should be poured upon the ground or into a sewer; it may not be mixed with spirits dumped from other packages.

(a) Disposition of char and chips. Char and wood chips dumped from packages must be burned on the warehouse premises, or, if such burning is not practicable due to fire regulations, or to other valid reason, the char or chips must be treated with kerosene before removal thereof from the premises. Where kerosene is used, it must be sprayed or sprinkled on the materials, using not less than 1 gallon of kerosene to each 100 pounds of materials, in such manner as to preclude the abstraction of potable spirits from any part of the materials after removal from the premises. This will be effected by stirring or agitating the materials while the kerosene is being applied. Such burning or treating of materials must be done under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. The district supervisor may authorize any other disposition of the materials that will effectively prevent recovery of spirits therefrom.

§ 185.903 Destruction of marks and brands. When packages of spirits are dumped for bottling, all marks and brands which such packages are required by law to bear, must be completely effaced and obliterated. This should be done immediately upon the completion of the dumping, draining, and rinsing of the packages, and the packages must be immediately removed from the bottling-in-bond department or the gauging room.

§ 185.904 Spirits in process of bottling. The bottling of two or more lots of spirits at the same time in the same bottling room will not be permitted unless two or more complete bottling units are installed and bottling operations are so conducted as to prevent any commingling of different lots of spirits in process of bottling: Provided, That where one lot of spirits is in the process of bottling, another lot, or lots, may be dumped and reduced and held in locked tanks until the process of bottling of the first lot has been completed. The process of bottling will be regarded as complete for the purpose of this section when the bottled spirits have been placed in the cases and the cases closed: Provided further, That the proprietor shall not dump more spirits than can be bottled expeditiously.

§ 185.905 Storage of spirits. The bottling-in-bond department may not be used for the storage of distilled spirits in tanks or otherwise.

§ 185.906 Bottling conducted under supervision. The entire operation of bottling spirits in bond will be performed by the proprietor of the warehouse under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger shall determine the proof of the spirits in the tank after reduction and thorough mingling by the proprietor, and prior to release for bottling, and make appropriate entries on Form 1515. Before filling bottles, the proof of spirits for domestic use shall be adjusted to 100 degrees. The proof of spirits for export purposes may be reduced to not less than 80 degrees. Adjusting the proof to tenths of a degree, either above or below the whole or complete degree, will not be permitted: Provided, That when spirits are being prepared for bottling in bond for exportation and are to be bottled and labeled in tenths of a degree of proof, such as 86.8, the proof of the spirits shall be adjusted to such tenths of a degree of proof. The proof in each instance shall be verified as to accuracy by the Government officer. While the storekeeper-gauger is charged with the duty of requiring compliance with the provisions of the law and regulations by the persons engaged in the various operations of bottling the spirits, his failure in any instance will not relieve the proprietor of the warehouse from responsibility.

§ 185.907 No substance to be added or subtracted. No material or substance of any kind other than pure water may be added to distilled spirits during the process of bottling in bond, nor may any substance or material be subtracted from the spirits: Provided, That charcoal, sediment, or other like substances may be removed from the spirits by straining them through cloth, felt, or other like material. No method or process may be applied to alter or change in any way the original condition or character of the spirits, except as authorized by law.

§ 185.908 Permissible filtration. Filtering which consists of merely removing foreign substances, such as particles of char, wood, dirt, or other extraneous, solid matter, that have got into the spirits since manufacture, and which does not change the original character of the spirits through removal of congeneric substances, or change the composition of the spirits, may be done in the bottling-in-bond department, since such filtering does not constitute rectification.

§ 185.909 Use of filter aids. Filter aids may be used only when they do not change the original character or composition of the spirits, either by the abstraction of any essential constituent or the addition of any substance. When filter aids are used, the district supervisor will cause samples of the spirits to be taken at infrequent intervals, before and after the use of the filter aids, for analysis to determine whether the use of such materials has resulted in a change in the original character or composition of the spirits.

§ 185.910 Prohibited filtration. Any filtering of distilled spirits which purifies or refines the same constitutes rectification and may be done only at a rectifying plant. The filtering out of cloudiness in whisky, gin, or other spirits, other than that due to the presence of finely pulverized or agglutinated charcoal or other extraneous, solid matter in suspension, which results in the removal of terpenes or congeneric substances from the spirits and changes their original composition, constitutes rectification.

§ 185.911 Separate Form 1515 for each lot. If the spirits are dumped from packages or received by pipeline in a dumping, reducing, or dumping and reducing tank, Form 1515 for each lot will be attached to such tank, and when the spirits are transferred therefrom to the bottling tank, this form will be attached to the bottling tank where it must remain until bottling of the spirits has been completed. If the spirits are removed directly into the bottling tank, this form will be attached to such tank and will remain thereon until the bottling of the spirits has been completed. The spirits must be bottled expeditiously.

§ 185.912 Bottling tank to be used. All distilled spirits to be bottled in bond must be transferred to an approved bottling tank. Prior to the transfer of the spirits to the bottling tank, and the opening of the inlet to the bottling tank, the storekeeper-gauger will lock the outlet to the tank, which must remain locked until the spirits have been transferred to the bottling tank, at which time the inlet will be locked, the proof and quantity of spirits in the bottling tank verified, and appropriate entry made on Form 1515. The inlet of the bottling tank will remain locked until all spirits within the tank have been bottled and the outlet has been locked. Whenever spirits are to be drawn from bottling tanks or transferred into or out of other tanks secured with Government locks, the storekeeper-gauger will open and close the locks but it shall be the duty of the proprietor to manipulate the stopcocks or valves controlling the flow of the spirits.

(a) Unauthorized bottling forbidden. Spirits may not be bottled from any vessel, tank, or receptacle, other than a designated and approved bottling tank, nor may spirits be bottled except under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger as required herein.

§ 185.913 Spirits remaining in tanks overnight. Dumping, reducing, dumping and reducing, or bottling tanks, may not be used for the storage of spirits. If spirits are held in the bottling-in-bond department overnight, the tanks in which such spirits are contained must be locked by the storekeeper-gauger. At the conclusion of the process of drawing the spirits from the dumping, reducing, or dumping and reducing tank, to the bottling tank or tanks, the latter must be securely locked, as well as the inlets and outlets thereto, and so remain until the spirits are to be drawn off into bottles, which shall be done as promptly as possible.

§ 185.914 Removal of spirits bottled for domestic purposes. Upon completion of bottling, the filled bottles, with labels and strip stamps properly affixed, must be placed in cases marked in accordance with Subpart PP of this part, and the filled cases then sealed, after which such cases must be immediately tax paid and removed, removed for any authorized tax-free purpose, or returned to the storage portion of the bonded warehouse: Provided, That the district supervisor may authorize the proprietor to remove to the storage portion of the warehouse, pending the receipt of orders involving affixing of brand labels or State stamps, cases temporarily secured by adhesive cloth tape or reinforced paper tape. The affixing of the bottled-in-bond strip stamps, the caution notices, and mandatory (Government) label information required by the regulations issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 CFR, Part 5) will be performed at the time of bottling and before the goods are returned to the storage portion of the warehouse. However, if all of the mandatory information required by regulations issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act appears on the brand label in lieu of a separate label, the brand label must be affixed to the bottles before the goods are returned to the storage portion of the warehouse: Provided further, When orders are received for the spirits in cases temporarily sealed as provided herein, the cases must be returned to the bottling-in-bond department for affixing the brand label, or the State stamp, or both. Such returned spirits must be kept apart from other spirits in the bottling-in-bond department until the work of attaching the brand label, or State stamp, or both, and permanent sealing of the cases has been completed.

§ 185.915 Losses or gains in bottling. The loss or gain for each lot of distilled spirits bottled in bond (domestic or export) shall be entered by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1515. Where the bottling of any particular lot of spirits results in a loss or gain of 2 percent or more of the quantity of spirits gauged in the bottling tank, or where there is evidence of theft, the storekeeper-gauger will initiate an immediate investigation to determine the cause of the discrepancy and prepare a letter report, in triplicate, setting forth in detail all facts and circumstances in each case and will forward two copies of the report to the district supervisor with the gauge and bottling reports covering the lot of spirits in question.

REMNANT CASES

§ 185.916 Remnant cases of domestic spirits. Where there is less than a case of bottled spirits remaining from a lot of spirits bottled, the remnant will be placed in a case constructed in the same manner as the cases described in § 185.951. The remnant case will be given the serial number of the last full case containing spirits in the same lot, followed by the letter "R", thus: "100–R" or "161–R". If the next lot of spirits dumped for bottling is of the same kind, produced by the same distiller, under the same name, at the same distillery during the same year and distilling season, the remnant case may be held in the bottling-in-bond department and used for filling a complete case, or the contents may be dumped into the bottling tank and mingled with such other spirits for bottling in bond for domestic purposes. Otherwise, the remnant case will be removed with the other cases from the bottling-in-bond department and appropriate entry made in the record. Such remnant case may be taxpaid for domestic consumption, or returned to the bottling-in-bond department when the next lot of spirits of the same kind, produced by the same distiller, under the same name, at the same distillery during the same year and distilling season is dumped for bottling and (a) the bottles used for filling a complete case, or (b) the contents dumped into the bottling tank and mingled with such other spirits for bottling in bond for domestic purposes. In all cases when a remnant is disposed of as heretofore provided, notation will be made on Forms 1515 and 1620 showing the disposition of such remnant.

§ 185.917 Remnants of low-proof spirits. Remnants of spirits resulting from overflow in filling bottles, and spirits which have deteriorated in proof by evaporation or repacking of filters, may be returned, under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger, to the dumping, reducing, dumping and reducing tank, or bottling tank, containing the same or another lot of spirits of the same kind, produced by the same distiller, under the same name, at the same distillery during the same distilling season and year. Distilled spirits so returned to the dumping, reducing, dumping and reducing, or bottling tank will be reported on Form 1515.

§ 185.918 Remnants of distilled spirits bottled in bond for exportation. Where there is less than a case of bottled spirits remaining from a lot of spirits bottled in bond for exportation, the remnant will be placed in a case which must be marked and branded as prescribed by this part for marking cases of spirits bottled in bond for exportation, except as to the date of withdrawal and the names of the ports. If the next lot of spirits dumped for bottling in bond for exportation, or for domestic purposes, is of the same kind, produced by the same distiller, under the same name, at the same distillery during the same year and distilling season, the remnant case may be held in the bottling-in-bond department and used for filling a complete case, or the contents, even though differing in proof, may be dumped into the bottling tank and mingled with such other spirits for bottling in bond for exportation, or for domestic purposes. Otherwise, the remnant case will be removed with the other cases from the bottling-in-bond department to the storage portion of the warehouse and appropriate entry made in the record. Such remnant case may be taxpaid for domestic consumption or may be returned from the storage portion of the bonded warehouse to the bottling-in-bond department when the next lot of spirits of the same kind, produced by the same distiller, under the same name, at the same distillery during the same year and distilling season is dumped for bottling in bond for exportation or for domestic purposes and the bottles used for filling a complete case or the contents, even though differing in proof, dumped into the bottling tank and mingled with such other spirits for bottling in bond for export or for domestic purposes.

(53 Stat. 298 as amended, 303 as amended, 331, 342 as amended, 343; 26 U. S. C. 2800, 2803, 2871, 2903, 2904; 49 Stat. 1965, 27 U. S. C. 205)

§ 185.919 Indicia bottles. Liquor bottles conforming to § 185.924 must be used in the event the remnant is to be returned to the storage portion of the warehouse for taxpayment or for subsequent disposition as bottled-in-bond spirits for domestic consumption.

(53 Stat. 331; 26 U. S. C. 2871)

§ 185.920 Labels, stamps, marks, and brands. The bottles must be properly labeled. Where export remnants are used for filling a complete case of spirits bottled in bond for domestic consumption, the export strip stamps must be replaced by the domestic bottled-in-bond stamps. Where export remnants are taxpaid, the export stamps on the bottles must be replaced by red strip stamps, purchased pursuant to Form 428, unless the spirits are 100 degrees of proof and have remained in wooden containers as required by this part for at least four years from the date of original gauge as to fruit brandy, or original entry as to other spirits, in which event they may be stamped with domestic bottled-in-bond stamps. The removal of the export stamps and the affixing of the red strip stamps or the domestic bottled-in-bond stamps, as the case may be, will be under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. Remnant cases must be marked and branded as required by Regulations 11 (26 CFR, Part 189) governing the bottling of tax-paid spirits or the provisions of this part governing the bottling of spirits in bond for domestic purposes, as the case may be.

§ 185.921 Records. In all cases where a remnant is disposed of as heretofore provided, notation will be made on Forms 1515 and 1620, showing the disposition made of such remnant.

§ 185.922 Taxpayment of remnant cases bottled for exportation. The tax will be paid on remnant cases removed for domestic consumption pursuant to application on Form 1519, properly modified for the purpose. Such remnants will be removed from the premises immediately upon taxpayment.

§ 185.923 Remnant cases of spirits bottled in bond for exportation returned to bottling-in-bond department. When remnant cases of spirits bottled in bond for exportation are to be returned to the bottling-in-bond department from the storage portion of the warehouse for use in filling a complete case, they will be included in the application, Form 1515, covering the withdrawal of bulk containers for bottling for exportation.

BOTTLES AND LABELS

§ 185.924 Liquor bottles. The proprietor must comply with the provisions of Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175), respecting the use of properly marked liquor bottles. Spirits may be bottled in bond for domestic purposes in the following-sized bottles and no others: 1 quart, ⅘ quart, 1 pint, ½ pint, ⅛ pint, 1/10 pint, and, in the case of brandy, 1/16 pint. Bottles must be filled as nearly as possible to conform to the amount stated on the stamp, label or bottle, to be contained therein, but in no event may the amount of spirits contained in any bottle, due to the lack of uniformity of the bottles, vary more than 2 percent from the amount stated to be contained therein and, further, in such case there shall be substantially as many bottles overfilled as there are bottles underfilled for each lot of spirits bottled as reported on Form 1515.

§ 185.925 Bottles for exportation. Distilled spirits may be bottled in bond for exportation in the following-sized bottles and no others: 1 quart, ⅘ quart, 1 pint, ½ pint, and less than ½ pint. Bottles of less than ½ pint capacity may be of the size desired. Liquor bottles as defined in Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175) may be used but will not be required in bottling distilled spirits in bond for exportation.

§ 185.926 Labels for distilled spirits for domestic consumption. The labels used on bottles of distilled spirits for domestic consumption must be covered by a "Certificate of Approval of Labels of Domestically Bottled Distilled Spirits," or a "Certificate of Exemption from Label Approval for Distilled Spirits," as required by regulations issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 CFR, Part 5). Labels covered by a certificate of exemption from label approval affixed to bottles of a capacity of ½ pint or more but not exceeding 1 gallon, in which distilled spirits are packaged for sale at retail, must conform to the provisions of Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175).

§ 185.927 Certificate to be exhibited. All bottlers of distilled spirits are required to exhibit certificates of label approval, or certificates of exemption from label approval, upon demand to any internal revenue officer. Internal revenue officers will call upon the proprietor to exhibit the required certificates of label approval or certificates of exemption from label approval. The original certificate or duplicate original issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act must be exhibited to the officer. Photostatic copies are not acceptable for this purpose.

§ 185.928 Comparison of labels with contents of bottling tank. Before releasing spirits from bottling tanks for bottling, the Government officer will require the proprietor to submit to him the label he proposes to use for the spirits in the bottling tank, together with the certificate of label approval or the certificate of label exemption, as the case may be, and he will compare such label with the label affixed to such certificate to see that they agree in every respect except for the differences allowed by the certificate. He will then compare such label with Form 1515 to determine whether the label to be used corresponds in every respect with the spirits in the bottling tank, including age, class and type, and proof. In making this determination he will take into consideration the kind of spirits, the proof of distillation, the kind of cooperage in which the spirits were stored, and whether the spirits were treated with oak chips, etc., as disclosed by the marks and brands on the packages and entered on Form 1515. If the label and spirits agree in every respect, the Government officer will attach the label securely to the copy of Form 1515 to be attached to the bottling tank and release the spirits for bottling. If the label and spirits do not agree in every respect, the Government officer will withhold the release of the spirits for bottling until the proprietor submits to him a label and a certificate of label approval or exemption, as the case may be, correctly describing the spirits to be bottled.

§ 185.929 Additional label requirements. Officers assigned to bottling-in-bond departments of internal revenue bonded warehouses will also see that all labels affixed to containers of distilled spirits subject to the provisions of Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175) conform to the requirements of such regulations. The methods prescribed in § 185.928 will be followed in making such determinations.

§ 185.930 Tests of bottled spirits. Officers assigned to bottling-in-bond departments will, at frequent, irregular intervals during the process of bottling, test and examine the bottled spirits to determine (a) whether the label attached is identical with the label verified by the Government officer under § 185.928; (b) whether the bottled spirits agree in proof with the data on the label and stamp; and (c) whether the quantity agrees with the data on the label, stamp or bottle, subject to the limitation prescribed by §§ 185.924 and 185.925. The test as to quantity will be made (a) by the utilization of a glass graduate standardized at 60 degrees Fahrenheit to be provided by the proprietor or (b) by weighing a given number of empty bottles and reweighing the same bottles after filling. If the contents do not agree as to quantity (subject to the limitation of §§ 185.924 and 185.925) or as to proof (subject to a normal drop in proof occurring during bottling operations not to exceed three-tenths of a degree) with the respective data on the label, stamp or bottle, the Government officer will withhold release of the bottled spirits and require the proprietor to rebottle, recondition (where permissible), or relabel the spirits in such manner that the label will correctly describe the contents. However, the proof at the beginning of the bottling operations shall always be set exactly as provided in § 185.906.

§ 185.931 Proprietor's responsibility. Notwithstanding that Government officers assigned to bottling-in-bond departments of internal revenue bonded warehouses are required to verify labeling data, full responsibility rests upon the proprietor to see that the labeling of all spirits bottled at his plant is in conformity with the requirements of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and regulations issued thereunder, and Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175).

§ 185.932 Labeling of distilled spirits bottled for exportation. All bottles containing distilled spirits bottled in bond for exportation shall have securely affixed thereto a label showing the following information:

(a) Kind of spirits;

(b) Name of actual bona fide distiller, or the name of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association in whose name the spirits were produced and warehoused;

(c) The registry number of the distillery and State in which produced;

(d) Proof of the spirits;

(e) The words "Bottled in Bond for Export;"

(f) The name or trade name of proprietor of the warehouse (if desired);

(g) The registry number of the internal revenue bonded warehouse and State in which bottled.

§ 185.933 Caution notice. Every person bottling distilled spirits in bond, except for export, shall attach to each bottle filled by him a caution notice reading as follows:

This bottle has been filled and stamped under the provisions of sections 2903–2909, inclusive, Internal Revenue Code. Any person who shall reuse the stamp affixed to this bottle or remove the contents of this bottle without so destroying the stamp affixed thereto as to prevent reuse, or who shall sell this bottle, or reuse it for distilled spirits, will be liable to the penalties prescribed by law.

This notice shall be of convenient size for attachment to the bottle, shall be printed in plain, legible characters, with a border in a color contrasting with the color of the label, and shall be securely attached to the bottle. The type used in printing caution labels shall not be less than 6 point when used on bottles of 1 pint or more. When spirits are bottled for exportation, the proprietor may attach the caution notice to the bottles if he so desires.

§ 185.934 Trade marks and distiller's name. The label which contains the trade-mark or special name which the owner may see fit to give to his spirits, or some additional label equally conspicuous, shall be affixed to such bottles of spirits for domestic purposes, and shall bear the real name of the actual bona fide distiller or the name of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association in whose name the spirits were produced and warehoused, and the registry number of the distillery and State in which produced; the registry number of the warehouse and State in which bottled; and the name or trade-name of the proprietor of the warehouse (if desired). In addition thereto the labels must conform to the provisions of regulations issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 CFR Part 5), and Regulations 13 (26 CFR Part 175) except when bottled for exportation.

(49 Stat. 1965, 27 U. S. C. 205)

BOTTLING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS UNDER AN APPROVED TRADE NAME

§ 185.935 Qualification of proprietor. Whenever the proprietor desires to bottle or label distilled spirits under a trade name, he must procure approval of such name in the manner prescribed by § 185.280 prior to bottling or labeling spirits under such name.

§ 185.936 Notice, Form 404. Upon approval by the Commissioner of the names under which distilled spirits will be bottled, such names may be used by the proprietor, provided notice of intention to use such name or names is given to the district supervisor on Form 404, in triplicate. The storekeeper-gauger will not authorize the bottling of spirits under a name or names which have not been approved pursuant to the filing of Forms 27–D and 404.

§ 185.937 Bottling. Before bottling distilled spirits in bond under an approved trade name, the proprietor will execute Form 1515, in quintuplicate, in accordance with § 185.891, and show in the appropriate place on the form the name under which the spirits are to be bottled.

§ 185.938 Marking, branding, stamping, and labeling. The spirits will be marked, branded, stamped, and labeled as prescribed by the provisions of Subparts PP and QQ of this part.

(53 Stat. 342 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2903)

SUBPART PP—MARKS AND BRANDS AND CONSTRUCTION OF CASES

§ 185.940 Capacity of cases. Spirits bottled in bond for domestic use shall be packed in cases as follows: 12 bottles or 16 bottles containing 1 quart each; 12 bottles, 15 bottles, or 16 bottles containing ⅘ quart each; 24 bottles containing 1 pint each; 48 bottles containing ½ pint each; 192 bottles containing ⅛ pint each; 240 bottles containing 1/10 pint each; and (brandy only) 384 bottles containing 1/16 pint each. Spirits bottled in bond for exportation shall be packed in cases to contain not less than 2.0 gallons nor more than 5.0 gallons each.

§ 185.941 Serial numbers. Each case of distilled spirits filled in the bottling-in-bond department must be numbered serially beginning with No. 1 for the first case filled: Provided, That the series in current use at existing bottling-in-bond departments will be continued. Where there is a change in the individual, firm, or corporate name, or in the trade name or style, of the proprietor, the series in use at the time of such change will be continued, but a new series will be commenced where there is a change of proprietorship of the warehouse. Where spirits are bottled in more than one bottling room at the same time, the spirits bottled and cased in each bottling room should not be numbered until near the close of the day, in order that the cases may be numbered in their proper consecutive order in the regular series in use at the warehouse. The series of numbers in use for numbering cases containing spirits bottled for domestic consumption will be continued in numbering cases containing spirits bottled in bond for exportation. Remnant cases will be given the serial number of the last full case containing spirits in the same bottling lot followed by the letter "R," thus: "100R," or "161R."

§ 185.942 New or separate series. The serial numbers of the cases filled shall run consecutively and shall not be broken in any manner except that whenever the number 1,000,000 is reached, the proprietor may, if he so desires, begin a new series, commencing with No. 1 as originally. Cases may be serially numbered either before or after filling.

§ 185.943 Marks and brands on cases for domestic spirits. Each case of distilled spirits bottled in bond for domestic consumption shall have plainly burned, embossed, printed, or stenciled on the Government side thereof, in letters and figures not less than one-half of an inch in height, in addition to the serial number, the registry number and State in which the warehouse at which the spirits are bottled is located, and the quantity and proof of the spirits. There shall also be plainly burned, embossed, printed, or stenciled on the Government side of each case, in letters not less than one-half of an inch in height, the kind of spirits, such as "Rye Whisky," "Rum," "Gin," etc., the real name of the actual bona fide distiller or of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association in whose name the spirits were produced and warehoused, the registry number and location (city or town and State) of the distillery at which the spirits were produced, and the season and year of production and bottling. The word "Inspected," followed by the date of inspection, shall also be marked on each case in letters and figures not less than one-fourth of an inch in height. Where the spirits are tax paid and removed directly from the bottling-in-bond department, the words "Tax paid," in letters not less than one-half inch in height, and the date the stamps were canceled and surrendered, and the name of the storekeeper-gauger supervising the removal of the spirits from the bottling-in-bond department, and his title, in letters and figures not less than one-fourth inch in height, shall be marked on the Government side of the case. All marks on cases, which are embossed, printed, or stenciled, must be made with a permanent ink in a color distinctly in contrast to the color used as a background. No marks, brands, labels, caution notices, or other devices whatever, other than those required by law and this part will be permitted on the Government side of the case.

§ 185.944 Illustration of marks. The required marks will be placed on the cases containing spirits for domestic purposes in the following manner and order:

§ 185.945 Marking cases for spirits bottled for exportation. The Government side of cases used for packaging distilled spirits bottled in bond for exportation shall be marked (insofar as applicable) as provided in § 185.943 for distilled spirits bottled in bond for domestic consumption, and in addition thereto, the number and capacity of the bottles contained therein, the words "For Export from U. S. A.," the name of the domestic port from which, and the name of the foreign port to which, the spirits are to be shipped shall be plainly burned, embossed, printed, or stenciled thereon, in letters and figures of not less than one-half inch in height. The name and title of the storekeeper-gauger supervising the removal for exportation, and the word "Withdrawn," followed by the date of withdrawal for exportation, shall also be marked on each case in letters and figures not less than one-fourth of an inch in height. If the cases are embossed, printed, or stenciled, a permanent ink shall be used as prescribed in § 185.943.

§185.946 Illustration of marks. The marks and brands will be placed on the cases containing spirits for exportation in the following manner and order:

§ 185.947 Verification of marks and brands. The storekeeper-gauger will verify the marks and brands on cases with the reports, and shall satisfy himself of the accuracy and correctness of the marks and brands.

§ 185.948 Preservation of marks and brands. The marks, brands, and serial numbers required by this part to be placed on cases shall not be removed therefrom, or obscured or obliterated, before the contents thereof have been removed.

§ 185.949 Obscurity of marks and brands. The marks and brands required by law and regulations to be applied to cases of distilled spirits bottled in bond are designed to evidence the legal status of the spirits contained therein, and they must not be obscured in any manner or covered by incasing the package bearing the same in another, but must at all times be in such condition as to admit of ready examination by Government officers.

§ 185.950 Imitation stamps, labels, trade marks, or caution notices. Any person who affixes or causes to be affixed to any package containing distilled spirits any imitation stamp, or other label, device, or document, either designed as a trade mark, or caution notice, and which shall be in the similitude or likeness of or which has the semblance or general appearance of any internal revenue stamp required by law to be affixed to or upon any packages containing spirits, is liable to severe penalties, and, in addition, the package with its contents shall be forfeited to the United States.

§ 185.951 Cases. Distilled spirits bottled in bond may be placed in cases constructed of wood, fiberboard, or other material provided such cases are so constructed as to afford protection against breakage or theft during storage or transfer in bond. Cases constructed of wood shall have the outer surface of the Government side or end made of dressed lumber.

SUBPART QQ—BOTTLING IN BOND STRIP STAMPS

§ 185.960 Strip stamps. The proprietor must affix over the mouth of each bottle of distilled spirits a domestic strip stamp, or export strip stamp, as the case may be, in accordance with §§ 185.977–185.979.

(53 Stat. 342 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2903)

§ 185.961 Stamp denominations. Domestic bottled in bond strip stamps will be provided in the following denominations and in no other: 1 quart, ⅘ quart, 1 pint, ½ pint, and less than ½ pint. Stamps of less than ½ pint denomination will be used on bottles of the following sizes: ⅛ pint, 1/10 pint, and 1/16 pint.

(53 Stat. 342 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2903)

§ 185.962 Number of stamps in a sheet. Stamps of all denominations will be issued 50 in a sheet. Requisitions for stamps by proprietors of warehouses must be made for full sheets. Stamps less than a full sheet may not be sold by collectors to proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses.

(53 Stat. 342 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2903)

§ 185.963 Requisition, Form 403. Proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses may purchase domestic bottled in bond strip stamps in anticipation of their reasonable and current needs. Requisition for such stamps will be made on Form 403, in triplicate.

(53 Stat. 342 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2903)

§ 185.964 Approval of requisition. The proprietor will submit all copies of the requisition, Form 403, to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse for approval, who will indicate his approval by signing each copy of the form. Before approving the requisition, the storekeeper-gauger will see that it is properly executed and will satisfy himself that the number of stamps for which requisition is made is necessary for the reasonable and anticipated current needs of the proprietor. Upon approval of the form, the approving officer will return all copies to the proprietor.

§ 185.965 Purchase of stamps. Strip stamps will be purchased by the proprietor from the collector of the district in which the warehouse is located. Stamps may not be purchased by one proprietor from another, nor may they, except in cases of emergency, be purchased from collectors of other districts. The proprietor will forward all copies of the approved Form 403 received from the approving officer to the collector with remittance for the stamps. The collector will sell to the proprietor of the warehouse strip stamps at a price of 1 cent for each stamp, except that in the case of stamps for containers of less than one-half pint, the price shall be one-quarter of 1 cent for each stamp. The collector will enter the serial numbers of the stamps issued and stamp the date of sale on all copies of Form 403. The collector will retain one copy and immediately forward the original copy to the district supervisor, and forward one copy (by mail) to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse. The collector will, in every case, forward the stamps to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse, in care of the proprietor. The proprietor will retain the package intact and deliver it unopened to the storekeeper-gauger who will immediately place the stamps in the Government room, vault, or cabinet.

§ 185.966 Remittance. All orders for stamps must be accompanied by remittance in the proper form. If the order is to be sent by registered mail, there should be attached sufficient postage stamps, or a separate remittance, to pay postage and registry fee and any required registry surcharge as provided by the postal laws and regulations. Under no circumstances should the sum to cover postage, registry fee or surcharge, be included in the remittance covering the cost of stamps. The local postmaster should be consulted relative to the amount of registry fee and surcharge required. Stamps may also be forwarded by express at the expense of the proprietor in accordance with § 185.967.

§ 185.967 Shipment of stamps. Where the stamps are to be shipped, the collector will forward the stamps to the storekeeper-gauger named on the Form 403 by registered mail or express. The expense of forwarding the stamps will be borne by the proprietor. The collector may furnish the stamps directly to the proprietor for immediate delivery to the storekeeper-gauger in accordance with § 185.965. The storekeeper-gauger will enter on Form 1606 all bottled in bond stamps received from the collector. All stamps in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger will be kept by him in the Government room, vault, or cabinet.

§ 185.968 Original overprinting of stamps. Bottled in bond strip stamps must be overprinted, such overprinting to be in the blank spaces provided therefor. At such time as the proprietor of the warehouse desires to have stamps overprinted and cut, the storekeeper-gauger will deliver the stamps to him. The overprinting of stamps may be done by the proprietor, or by a designated commercial printer approved by the district supervisor. In overprinting strip stamps the proprietor should exercise the utmost care to see that the name of the producing distiller of the spirits is precisely the same as that shown in the notice filed by the distiller and is in agreement with the marks and brands on the packages of distilled spirits to be bottled in bond: Provided, That where the word "company," "corporation," or "incorporated," is a part of the name of the actual bona fide distiller of the spirits, or of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association, in whose name the spirits were produced and warehoused, the abbreviation of such word may be used. Overprinting will be done in red ink with not less than 8-point type. The season and year when the spirits were produced, and the season and year when bottled, will be overprinted in the blank spaces on the end of the stamp bearing the serial number: Provided, That in the case of stamps of "Less than ½ pint" denomination, which do not have serial numbers, the season and year when produced, and the season and year when bottled, will be placed on the right-hand end of the stamp. In the blank space on the other end of the stamp will be placed the name of the actual bona fide distiller, or the name of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association, in whose name the spirits were produced and warehoused. Overprinting of the stamp will be in the following form:

§ 185.969 Second overprinting of stamps. Strip stamps for distilled spirits bottled in bond, which the proprietor cannot use in the season or year for which they were overprinted, or on which an error was made in overprinting the season or year of production or bottling, may be again overprinted. The season or year when "produced" or when "bottled," or both, overprinted on the stamps may be obliterated and the desired seasons or years of production and bottling substituted. One overprinting only will be permitted after the original or first overprinting. The name of the distiller or any data other than the season and year of production or bottling, may not be changed after the original or first over-printing.

§ 185.970 Cutting of stamps. The storekeeper-gauger may, upon request, permit the proprietor to cut all, or any quantity, of stamps in advance of his needs. The stamps will be cut under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger and returned to him in the same numerical sequence. Each separate package of cut bottled in bond strip stamps must be marked with the quantity of such stamps in the package and the first and last numbers.

§ 185.971 Delivery of stamps to storekeeper-gauger. When the stamps have been overprinted or cut, the proprietor will deliver them to the storekeeper-gauger, who will determine whether the correct number has been returned, and place them in the Government room, vault, or cabinet.

§ 185.972 Exchange and redemption of stamps. Unused bottled in bond strip stamps issued under section 2903 of the Internal Revenue Code, in quantities of the value of $5 or more, may be exchanged for bottled in bond strip stamps, of equal value and in any prescribed denomination, or the value thereof may be refunded, provided a claim for such exchange or refund, establishing the lawful issuance and ownership of the stamps, is filed with the collector of internal revenue who issued the stamps within two years after the date on which such stamps were lawfully issued: Provided, however, That the value of unused stamps which have been destroyed may be refunded upon the filing of a claim as provided herein with proof to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of the destruction of the stamps. Claims for exchange of stamps will be filed on Form 1579 and claims for refund of the value of stamps on Form 843, in accordance with procedure prescribed by the Commissioner. Appropriate notation will be made on Form 1606 by the storekeeper-gauger of bottled in bond stamps destroyed, exchanged, or surrendered for refund of the value thereof.

§ 185.973 Record, Form 96. Where the bottled in bond stamps are returned to the proprietor for filing a claim for exchange or redemption, the proprietor shall account for such stamps on Form 96 until the exchange or redemption has been effected. Appropriate modification of the form to specify bottled in bond stamps shall be made. The form will be prepared and disposed of in accordance with the applicable instructions thereon relating to "Other persons assigned custody of stamps."

(53 Stat. 342 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2903)

§ 185.974 Proprietor's application, Form 1515. All distilled spirits of each particular lot transferred to a bottling tank should be immediately drawn off into bottles of the decired size or sizes, as provided in this part. Application for domestic strip stamps will be made by the proprietor on Form 1515 at the time of execution of his application to bottle in bond pursuant to § 185.891. The applicant should request the estimated number of strip stamps necessary to bottle the quantity of spirits contained in the packages.

§ 185.975 Stamps issued in serial order. All bottled in bond strip stamps will be issued by the storekeeper-gauger to the proprietor in proper serial order, starting with the lowest serial number of the stamps of the denominations desired on hand at the time of issuance. The proprietor will not, however, be required to affix bottled in bond strip stamps in serial order. If, after filling the cases, there remain bottles less than the number necessary to constitute a full case, such bottles must be stamped and placed in a case conforming to the requirements of this part.

§ 185.976 Storekeeper-gauger's responsibility. Storekeeper-gaugers who have custody of bottled in bond strip stamps will be held strictly responsible for the proper control and accounting of all stamps received, issued, used, and on hand. They shall determine whether the number of stamps requisitioned is needed; that those issued are properly affixed to bottles of spirits; that all stamps issued to the proprietor and not used are returned to them; and that a proper accounting is made of all stamps reported mutilated.

§ 185.977 Manner of affixing stamps. The stamps must be securely affixed to the bottles with the use of a good adhesive. The adhesive used must be in proper liquid condition, and care must be taken to cover the entire back of the stamp with the adhesive, and to press the whole surface of the stamp firmly against the surface of the bottle sufficiently long to cause the entire surface of the stamp to adhere securely to the bottle. The stamp must pass over the mouth of the bottle, extending an approximately equal distance on two sides of the bottle. The stamp must be affixed in such a manner that upon opening the bottle a portion of the stamp will be left attached thereto until emptied.

§ 185.978 Concealing or obscuring stamps. No part of the stamp shall be concealed or obscured by any label or other covering, except that a cup may be placed over the opening of the bottle, or the bottle may be placed in a carton, as hereinafter provided. Seals made of cellulose or other material which are shrunk or otherwise fitted over the necks of the bottles and cover the stamps must be sufficiently transparent to permit the stamps to be plainly seen and the data thereon easily read. No cup or cap may be placed over the opening of a bottle and cover the stamp, unless such cup or cap is transparent, or is so placed on the bottle that it may be readily removed at any time without injury to the stamp, and the arrangement is such that the ends of the stamp will be plainly visible when the cap or cup is in place. Cartons or other coverings of bottles of distilled spirits are permitted, if so made that they may be opened and closed without being torn or broken. Sealed cartons or other coverings may not be used unless transparent, or unless openings therein permit the data on the stamp and the indicia and penalty clause required by Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175) on the bottle to be plainly seen and read.

§ 185.979 Affixing stamp over cup or cap. The stamp may be affixed over a cup or cap placed over the opening of the bottle, provided the arrangement is such that the stamp will be torn apart or destroyed when the cup or cap is unscrewed or removed or destroyed. Where it is desired to affix the stamp over a removable cup or cap, the cup or cap must be securely screwed or fastened over the opening of the bottle, and must be of such size and construction that the stamp will pass over the top and extend beyond the cup or cap for such length that each end of the stamp may be securely affixed to the surface of the bottle. The stamp must be securely affixed with a strong adhesive to both the cup or cap and the bottle. Where it is desired to affix the stamp over a cap or seal made of cellulose or other similar adhesive material which is so shrunk or otherwise fitted over the neck of the bottle as to be unremovable without being destroyed, and is of such size and construction that the stamp will not extend beyond such cap or seal to permit each end to be affixed to the surface of the bottle, it will not be necessary for the ends of the stamp to be affixed to the surface of the bottle, provided the cap or seal is affixed to the bottle in such manner that when the bottle is opened the stamp will be torn apart and a portion of the cap or seal and stamp will remain attached to the bottle. In any case where there is doubt as to the propriety of the use of any cup or cap, the bottle and cup or cap should be submitted to the district supervisor for a ruling thereon.

§ 185.980 Requisitions for export stamps. Export strip stamps will be provided in the following denominations and in no other: 1 quart, ⅘ quart, 1 pint, ½ pint, and less than ½ pint. The provisions of §§ 185.961 to 185.972, relative to requisitions for purchase, shipment, the overprinting of domestic strip stamps (except that in overprinting export strip stamps the proof at which the spirits are to be bottled will be printed on the stamps in addition to the other required data), and the exchange and redemption of stamps, will, insofar as applicable, apply to export strip stamps. Export strip stamps must be securely affixed to the bottles in the same manner as strip stamps are required to be affixed to spirits bottled in bond for domestic consumption. The provisions of §§ 185.977 to 185.979, respecting the affixing of strip stamps, and the use of cups, caps, and seals, and cartons, on bottles so stamped shall apply to spirits bottled for exportation.

§ 185.981 Application, Form 1515. Application for export strip stamps will be made by the proprietor on Form 1515 at the time of execution of his application to bottle in bond pursuant to § 185.893. The applicant should request the estimated number of strip stamps necessary to bottle the quantity of spirits contained in the packages.

(53 Stat. 344; 26 U. S. C. 2905)

RECORD AND REPORT OF STRIP STAMPS

§ 185.982 Record, Form 1606. Storekeeper-gaugers assigned to supervise operations in the bottling-in-bond department will make a record and report of strip stamps received and used on Parts I and II of Form 1606, in accordance with the provisions of § 185.1033.

(53 Stat. 344; 26 U. S. C. 2905)

§ 185.983 Removal prohibited. Strip stamps which have been affixed to bottles of distilled spirits shall not be removed therefrom, except in the process of destruction when the bottles are opened; and such stamps, used or unused, may not be purchased, sold or possessed, except as specifically provided by law or regulations.

SUBPART RR—REBOTTLING, RELABELING, AND RESTAMPING OF BOTTLED SPIRITS

§ 185.990 Permission must be obtained. Warehousemen desiring to rebottle, relabel, or restamp spirits bottled in bond will make application to the supervisor of the district in which the work is to be performed. The application will state specifically the reasons why such is necessary, giving the serial numbers of the cases, the name of the distiller producing the spirits, the registry number of the distillery and State in which produced, season and year of production, the name of the original bottler, the registry number of the warehouse and State in which bottled, season and year of original bottling, and whether the spirits have been continuously in the possession of the applicant. If the spirits were originally bottled by a distiller or warehouseman other than the applicant, the application must be accompanied by a statement from the original bottler consenting to the reconditioning thereof by the applicant. Warehousemen and supervisors will bear in mind that the rebottling, relabeling, or restamping of bottled in bond spirits may be done only when necessary to render the spirits merchantable. The work must be done at such time and in such manner as will require no unnecessary supervision, or assignment of additional officers for that purpose.

§ 185.991 Examination of spirits. Upon receipt of such application, the district supervisor will have the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the warehouse, or an inspector, examine the condition of the spirits and verify the data contained in the application. The officer will make a full report of his inspection to the district supervisor.

§ 185.992 Action on application. If the district supervisor finds that the reconditioning, rebottling, relabeling, or restamping of the spirits is necessary, he will approve the application. Cases of tax-paid bottled in bond spirits, which have left the premises of the warehouseman, may be rebottled, restamped, or relabeled, provided the district supervisor is satisfied, upon investigation, that the spirits have not been tampered with in any manner, and are of the required proof for bottled in bond spirits. Where tax-paid bottled in bond spirits have left the premises of the warehouseman, and investigation discloses that the spirits have been tampered with, or where the district supervisor is doubtful as to the proper action to be taken, rebottling, relabeling, or restamping should not be authorized until the matter has been referred to the Commissioner for consideration and advice.

§ 185.993 New strip stamps required. Whenever bottled distilled spirits are dumped for rebottling, the strip stamps on the bottles must be destroyed at the time of dumping, and new strip stamps must be affixed to the bottles in which the spirits are rebottled. The new stamps will bear the same data as to seasons and years when produced and bottled, the name of the distiller or the name of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association, in whose name the spirits were produced and warehoused. The registered distillery number, and the number and district of the warehouse at which originally bottled will not be printed on new stamps where stamps of prior issues bearing such data are affixed to the bottles.

§ 185.994 Indicia bottles. The bottles must bear the indicia, and conform to the standards of fill, required by this Part and by Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175). The reconditioned spirits may be rebottled in the same bottles from which removed if such bottles containing the spirits originally conform to the requirements of Regulations 13 and bear the proper indicia and have not been sold to the consumer or opened, and the use of such bottles is authorized by the district supervisor in accordance with the said regulations.

§ 185.995 Relabeling. If the spirits are to be relabeled, the new label to be used must be covered by an appropriate certificate of label approval or a certificate of exemption from label approval issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act. If the new label is covered by a certificate of exemption from label approval, it must conform to the requirements of Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175). Authorization to relabel spirits which have left the possession of the original bottler must be obtained by the proprietor of the warehouse who is to do the relabeling from the district supervisor in accordance with § 185.990.

§ 185.996 Supervision required. All rebottling, relabeling, and restamping of spirits must be conducted in a bottling-in-bond department under the supervision of a storekeeper-gauger: Provided, That the district supervisor may authorize the relabeling or restamping of spirits in an internal revenue bonded warehouse not having a bottling-in-bond department where space and facilities for such activities are available. Spirits of two or more distillers, or spirits produced at different distilleries, or produced under two or more trade names by the same distiller, or of different seasons' or years' production or bottling, may not be reconditioned at the same time, and rebottling operations may not be conducted at a time when other spirits are in the process of bottling except where two or more complete bottling units are installed as provided in § 185.904.

§ 185.997 Filtering. Warehousemen may remove by straining through cloth, felt, or other like material, any charcoal, sediment, or other like substances found in the spirits. In the process of rebottling, the spirits may not be subjected to any treatment deemed to be rectification as defined in Regulations 15 (26 CFR, Part 190).

§ 185.998 Records and reports. Application will be made on Form 1515, properly modified, for the removal of bottled spirits from the storage portion of the internal revenue bonded warehouse for rebottling or restamping and for strip stamps to cover the quantity of spirits to be rebottled or restamped. Untaxpaid spirits which are rebottled will be acounted for in the same manner as spirits originally entered for bottling in bond. Untaxpaid spirits which are to be restamped or relabeled only will not be acounted for on Form 1621 or 1513 nor in the case of relabeling on Form 1515. Taxpaid spirits which are rebottled, relabeled or restamped will not be accounted for on the records except that application on Form 1515 will be made when such spirits are to be rebottled or restamped in accordance with this part, and the form will be properly modified to show that the spirits to be rebottled or restamped are taxpaid.

SUBPART SS—SALES OF DISTILLED SPIRITS BY PROPRIETORS OF BONDED WAREHOUSES

§ 185.1010 Bulk containers. Under the regulations issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 CFR, Part 3), proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses may sell or dispose of distilled spirits in bulk, i. e., in containers having a capacity in excess of 1 gallon, (a) to distillers and proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses, industrial alcohol plants and industrial alcohol bonded warehouses (holding a permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act), including those operating taxpaid bottling houses; (b) to proprietors of class 8 customs bonded warehouses (imported spirits only); (c) to rectifiers; (d) to winemakers (brandy or alcohol) for fortification of wine; (e) to any agency of the United States, or of any State or political subdivision thereof; (f) for export; (g) on warehouse receipts, conforming to the regulations issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, for distilled spirits in internal revenue bonded warehouses; and (h) for industrial use in accordance with the regulations issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 CFR, Part 2), as follows: For experimental purposes, and for use in the manufacture (1) of medicinal, pharmaceutical, or antiseptic products, including prescriptions compounded by retail druggists; (2) of toilet products; (3) of flavoring extracts, sirups, or food products; or (4) of scientific, chemical, mechanical, or industrial products, provided such products are unfit for beverage use. Distilled spirits distilled at 160 degrees of proof or more may, however, upon taxpayment be withdrawn for beverage purposes only. Under the regulations issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 CFR, Part 3) warehousemen may not sell in bulk for industrial use other distilled spirits (except neutral spirits—fruit or alcohol) unless such spirits are shipped or delivered directly to the industrial user thereof.

§ 185.1011 Retail containers. Except as provided in § 185.1010, proprietors of bonded warehouses may sell or dispose of distilled spirits only in containers having a capacity of 1 gallon or less. All such containers having a capacity of ½ pint or more must conform to the requirements of Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175).

SUBPART TT—SPECIAL (OCCUPATIONAL) TAXES

§ 185.1015 Wholesale and retail liquor dealer. Proprietors of bonded warehouses who sell distilled spirits must file returns on Form 11, and pay special (occupational) taxes as wholesale liquor dealer or retail liquor dealer, or both, in accordance with the law and regulations governing the payment of such special taxes unless they are qualified as distillers and sell only distilled spirits of their own production at the place of manufacture, or the place of storage in bond, in the original packages to which the tax-paid stamps are affixed, as provided in § 185.1017.

§ 185.1016 Warehouse receipts covering distilled spirits. Since the sale of warehouse receipts for distilled spirits is equivalent to the sale of distilled spirits, every proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse who sells, or offers for sale, warehouse receipts for distilled spirits stored in internal revenue bonded warehouses, or elsewhere, incurs liability to special tax as a dealer in liquors at the place where such warehouse receipts are sold or offered for sale, and must file return and pay occupational tax as provided in § 185.1015. Sellers of warehouse receipts must also possess a wholesaler's basic permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(53 Stat. 388 as amended, 391 as amended, 394; 26 U. S. C. 3250, 3254, 3270, 3271, 3272; 49 Stat. 978 as amended, 27 U. S. C. 203)

§ 185.1017 Exemption of distiller. No distiller who has given the required bond and who sells only distilled spirits of his own production at the place of manufacture, or at the place of storage in bond, in the original packages, to which the tax-paid stamps are affixed, shall be required to pay the special tax of a wholesale dealer in liquors on account of such sales. This provision does not exempt distillers from the payment of special taxes for sales of distilled spirits of their own production in bond (by warehouse receipt or otherwise), or in cases or containers other than the original packages, or for exportation, fortification of wine, use of the United States, etc., without attachment of tax-paid stamps to the original packages, nor does it exempt them from liability for special taxes where distilled spirits produced by other distillers are sold by them. This exemption does not apply to the sale of brandies blended and packaged by a distiller in an internal revenue bonded warehouse.

§ 185.1018 Exemption from special tax as a rectifier. Proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses who blend brandies under the provisions of section 2801 (e) (5) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be required to pay special tax as rectifiers.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

SUBPART UU—STOREKEEPER-GAUGER'S FILES AND RECORDS

§ 185.1020 Summary of deposits and withdrawals, Form 1621. The storekeeper-gauger in charge of each internal revenue bonded warehouse shall keep a summary on Form 1621 of the spirits entered into, withdrawn from, and remaining in warehouse. Entries shall be made as indicated by the headings of the columns and lines on the form and in accordance with instructions issued by the Commissioner. Daily entries need not be made in the column "Balance in Warehouse," but the account shall be balanced and posted monthly, or at the end of each page if transactions are sufficiently numerous to fill more than one page per month. In the case of packages of blended brandies, the registry number of the warehouse where such packages were filled shall be substituted for the registry number of the distillery. The records shall be arranged alphabetically by States (a) numerically by distilleries according to registry number within each State and (b) in case of blended brandies, numerically by internal revenue bonded warehouses according to registry number within each State. Separate sheets shall be used for each kind of spirits (including blended brandies) and for each season's production, and for packages, cases, storage tanks, tank cars, and packages of blended brandies. A summary account for each producer showing for packages, cases, storage tanks, and tank cars the total deposits and withdrawals by kind of spirits shall be maintained. Warehouse summary accounts showing for packages, cases, storage tanks, and tank cars the total deposits and withdrawals by kinds of spirits and the total deposits and withdrawals of all kinds of spirits should be maintained. This record shall also be used by storekeeper-gaugers in connection with the preparation of the monthly report on Form 1513.

§ 185.1021 Storage tank account. In addition to the accounts required by § 185.1020, the storekeeper-gauger shall maintain a separate account of each warehouse storage tank on Form 1621, and will report all deposits, withdrawals, and quantities of spirits remaining in such tanks in monthly report, Form 1513, as provided in § 185.1030. Stocks of spirits remaining on hand in storage tanks, by kind and season of production, will be determined by physical inventory at the close of each month. Losses from each storage tank will be determined at the time of monthly physical inventories or at such time during the month that a tank is emptied, and losses, if any, entered on Form 1621 and monthly report, Form 1513. Losses sustained from a storage tank which do not exceed 1 percent of the total quantity contained in such tank during the month, provided there are no circumstances indicating that any of the spirits were lost by theft or unauthorized voluntary destruction, may be considered as normal storage losses, otherwise such losses shall be investigated and reported in accordance with the procedure prescribed by §§ 185.480 to 185.496.

§ 185.1022 Files and records covering deposits. The storekeeper-gauger's copy of all Forms 1520, covering the deposit in warehouse of spirits received from distilleries; Forms 1619 and 1620, covering spirits received from other warehouses; Forms 1520, covering packages filled from storage tanks and retained in the warehouse; Forms 1520, covering packages filled from brandy-blending tanks; and Forms 1620, covering cases of bottled in bond spirits returned to the storage portion of the warehouse, shall be filed as permanent records, in the office of the storekeeper-gauger. Before filing such forms, the storekeeper-gauger shall make appropriate entries covering the receipt of the spirits in his summary of deposits and withdrawals, Form 1621. The storekeeper-gauger shall enter the date of deposit of the spirits in the warehouse at the bottom of each form. Forms 1520 and 1619 shall be filed under the name of the producing distiller (or warehouseman in the case of blended brandies) and arranged in chronological order according to date of deposit and in sequence by serial numbers of the packages where possible. Forms 1620 shall be filed similarly in a separate binder. Separate files shall be maintained for storage tanks and for packages filled from storage tanks and retained in the warehouse and for packages filled from brandy-blending tanks. Where two or more lots of spirits are deposited in the same storage tank, the Forms 1520 covering such deposits shall be kept together and identifying notations shall be made on each form showing that they collectively represent the spirits deposited in the tank within any one distilling season. The date of deposit of the spirits shall be entered at the bottom of each Form 236 covering spirits received in bond from other premises; at the bottom of each Form 1515 covering spirits bottled in bond and returned to the warehouse; and at the bottom of each Form 1685 covering brandy blended in brandy-blending tanks and returned to the warehouse, and such forms shall be filed separately by form number in chronological order.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.1023 Files and records covering withdrawals. When spirits are to be withdrawn, the storekeeper-gauger shall, upon presentation of the proper withdrawal form by the proprietor, secure from his file the Form 1520, 1619, or 1620, covering the deposit of the spirits, including blended brandy returned to the storage portion of the warehouse from the brandy-blending department, and shall verify the details of entry gauge transcribed to the withdrawal form. The storekeeper-gauger shall at that time enclose by red line blocking on the entry Form 1520, 1619, or 1620, the packages or cases to be withdrawn and shall, above a diagonal red line drawn through the block, enter the current date. Upon withdrawal of the spirits, the storekeeper-gauger shall indicate below the diagonal red line within the block on the entry Form 1520, 1619, or 1620, the number of packages withdrawn and the date and purpose of the withdrawal and in the margin of the form, immediately adjacent to the block, the total original tax gallons of the packages or cases withdrawn. He shall also make the necessary entries covering the withdrawal on Form 1621, and shall enter the date of withdrawal at the bottom of the retained copies of the withdrawal forms and applications. When, at the time of entering this information on the entry Form 1520, 1619, or 1620, examination of the form discloses that all the packages or cases covered by the form have been removed, the storekeeper-gauger shall compare the totals of the spirits entered for deposit with the totals of the spirits withdrawn for the purpose of determining the existence of any errors in transactions involving items covered by the particular form. When a storage tank is emptied the storekeeper-gauger shall note in red on the Forms 1520 covering the spirits deposited therein during any one distilling season, the date the tank was emptied and remove the Forms 1520 to an inactive file.

§ 185.1024 Retention of records. Each Form 1520, 1619, or 1620, covering the deposit of the spirits shall be retained in the active binder until all spirits covered by the form have been withdrawn, at which time such form shall be removed and filed in the same order in an inactive file. Each binder shall be appropriately marked to show the kind of forms it contains and the period covered thereby. The binders for packages received from the distillery on the same or contiguous premises, packages filled from storage tanks, packages of blended brandy filled in the brandy-blending department, and cases bottled at the warehouse shall also have shown thereon the serial numbers of the packages or cases. Where a change in proprietorship of the warehouse occurs, the files of all deposit and withdrawal forms shall be retained and continued in connection with the transactions of the successor.

(53 Stat. 300 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2801)

§ 185.1025 Withdrawals from storage tanks. When spirits warehoused in storage tanks are withdrawn therefrom, either for immediate withdrawal from warehouse or for storage in packages in the warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will note on Form 1621, covering the tank from which withdrawn, the date and the quantity withdrawn. Where the spirits are drawn into packages for storage in the warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will enter the deposit of the packages on Form 1621 and note the date of deposit at the bottom of Form 1520, covering the gauge of the packages. Where the spirits are drawn into packages or tank cars for withdrawal from warehouse, the storekeeper-gauger will note the date of withdrawal at the bottom of the retained copies of the withdrawal forms and applications.

§ 185.1026 Filing of withdrawal forms and applications. The copies of the reports of the withdrawal gauge, Form 1520, the reports of removal for transfer in bond, Form 1619 or 1620, or the application for tax payment and withdrawal of bottled in bond spirits, Form 1519, as the case may be, retained by the storekeeper-gauger, shall be filed separately by form number in chronological order, according to the date of withdrawal noted on the bottom of the forms. The storekeeper-gauger's copies of withdrawal applications, Forms 179, 206, 236, 257, 573, 1515, and 1685, and of permit, Form 1508, will be filed separately by form number, in chronological order, in the same manner as the withdrawal forms. The withdrawal reports and applications for each month shall be separated in the file by proper markers and each file shall be appropriately marked to show the kind of forms contained therein and the period covered thereby.

SUBPART VV—STOREKEEPER-GAUGER'S REPORTS

§ 185.1030 Storekeeper-gauger's daily report. The storekeeper-gauger will prepare a daily report, Form 1699, in duplicate. Entries will be made in accordance with the headings of the columns and lines on the form and in accordance with instructions issued in respect thereto. The original shall be submitted to the district supervisor with the forms covering the daily transactions at the warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger will retain the duplicate in the Government office.

§ 185.1031 Preparation of monthly report. The storekeeper-gauger in charge of every internal revenue bonded warehouse shall prepare a monthly report on Form 1513, in duplicate, of all distilled spirits deposited in, withdrawn from, and remaining in the warehouse. All information indicated by the headings of the columns and lines and the instructions printed on the form and required by this part or issued pursuant thereto shall be entered on the form. The report shall be kept in bound form available for inspection by Government officers.

§ 185.1032 Filing monthly report. The storekeeper-gauger will forward the original of the monthly report to the district supervisor on or before the 5th day of the month succeeding that for which rendered.

§ 185.1033 Record, Form 1606. At the close of the month storekeeper-gaugers assigned to the bottling-in-bond department of an internal revenue bonded warehouse will make a record and report of strip stamps received and used on Parts I and II of Form 1606.

(a) Part I. One copy of Part I of the form will be prepared each month, using a separate page for each denomination of stamps. A separate record marked "Export" on Form 1606 (Part I) of the number of each denomination of export strip stamps received, turned over to the proprietor for overprinting and returned to him, the number used during the month, and the number on hand at the beginning and close of the month will be kept. Part I will be retained in the Government office in bound form available for inspection by succeeding storekeeper-gaugers or other Government officers.

(b) Part II. Storekeeper-gaugers will prepare Part II of Form 1606, in triplicate, each month. A separate report on Part II, in triplicate, marked "Export" will be rendered for export strip stamps. A complete summary of all stamps received and disposed of must be made in accordance with the headings of the columns and the titles of the lines. One copy of Part II will be retained on the premises in bound form available for inspection by succeeding storekeeper-gaugers or other Government officers. On or before the 5th day of the month succeeding that for which the report is rendered the storekeeper-gauger will furnish one copy to the proprietor of the warehouse and forward one copy to the district supervisor.

(c) Transfer of storekeeper-gaugers. In the event a storekeeper-gauger having custody of stamps is relieved of such custody of strip stamps at any time between the first and last day of the month because of transfer or for any other reason, he will sign Part I of Form 1606 for the period of the month during which the stamps were in his custody. The storekeeper-gauger having custody of the stamps at the close of the month will render a summary report to the district supervisor.

(d) Inventory. Whenever a storekeeper-gauger having custody of stamps is relieved of such custody, the succeeding storekeeper-gauger will inventory the stamps turned over to him by his predecessor. Any overage or shortage of stamps disclosed by the inventory will be reported in the respective accounts of the summary with an explanatory statement noted thereon.

SUBPART WW—RECORDS AND REPORTS OF PROPRIETOR

§ 185.1040 Record of removals from warehouse, Form 52C. Every proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall keep a daily record on Form 52C, of all bulk and bottled in bond distilled spirits removed from the warehouse. Entries will be made as indicated by the headings of the columns and lines and as required by the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto and by this part.

§ 185.1041 Record of sales at tax-paid premises, Form 52E. Every proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse, who maintains tax-paid premises at which tax-paid distilled spirits are received, stored, and sold in bulk, shall keep Form 52E, of all spirits, both bulk and bottled, received and disposed of at his tax-paid premises: Provided, That, if such proprietor so desires, he may keep Form 52E for bulk spirits only and Record 52, for bottled spirits only. Where only bottled distilled spirits are received, stored and sold at such tax-paid premises, the proprietor shall keep Record 52 of all such spirits received and disposed of at his tax-paid premises. By tax-paid premises is meant the "tax paid" or "free" warehouse or room maintained in conjunction with the internal revenue bonded warehouse, or premises maintained at other locations for the receipt, storage and disposition of tax-paid spirits. Separate records must be kept at each of such premises.

(53 Stat. 327 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2857)

§ 185.1042 Record of warehouse receipts to be kept by warehouseman. Every proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse who sells, or offers for sale, distilled spirits by warehouse receipts shall keep a separate record, and render a monthly transcript, of all purchases and sales of warehouse receipts on Form 52F. There need not be entered on Form 52F transactions in warehouse receipts not involving the purchase or sale of distilled spirits, such as the issuance by the warehouseman of warehouse receipts covering the deposit or bottling of spirits in his warehouse or the receipt of warehouse receipts surrendered for the bottling of the spirits in bond or their transfer in bond to another warehouse. Entries on Form 52F shall be made as indicated by the headings of the columns and lines of the form and in accordance with the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto and as required by this subpart. The provisions of § 185.1044 with respect to the time of making entries, and of § 185.1049 with respect to forms to be provided by users, are hereby made applicable to Form 52F. The provisions of § 185.1045 with respect to a separate record of serial numbers of cases are hereby made applicable to Form 52F with respect to serial numbers of packages and cases purchased or sold by warehouse receipts. The monthly transcript on Form 52F shall be forwarded to the district supervisor on or before the 10th day of the succeeding month. The physical removal of distilled spirits from the internal revenue bonded warehouse shall continue to be reported on Form 52C in accordance with the provisions of § 185.1040. The physical receipt and disposition of distilled spirits at taxpaid premises shall continue to be reported on Form 52–E or Record 52, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of § 185.1041.

§ 185.1043 Place where Form 52F shall be kept. Every proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall keep Form 52F at the place of business where warehouse receipts are sold or offered for sale.

§ 185.1044 Time of making entries. Daily entries shall be made on Record 52 and Forms 52C and 52E, as indicated by the headings of the various columns and in accordance with instructions printed on the forms before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur. Where the proprietor of tax-paid premises defers the making of entries to the next business day, he shall maintain a separate record, such as invoices, of the removals of distilled spirits showing the removal data required to be entered on Record 52 or Form 52E, and appropriate memoranda of other transactions required to be entered on such records for the purpose of correctly making the entries. Where the making of the entries on Form 52C is deferred to the next business day, the proprietor of the internal revenue bonded warehouse shall maintain appropriate memoranda for the purpose of making the entries correctly.

§ 185.1045 Separate record of serial numbers of cases. Serial numbers of cases of distilled spirits disposed of need not be entered on Record 52 or Form 52E, provided the proprietor keeps in his place of business a separate record, approved by the district supervisor, showing such serial numbers, with necessary identifying data, including the date of removal and the name and address of the consignee. Such separate record may be kept in book form (including loose-leaf books) or may consist of commercial papers, such as invoices or bills. Such books, invoices, and bills shall be preserved for a period of four years and in such a manner that the required information may be ascertained readily therefrom, and during such period, shall be available during business hours for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by internal revenue officers. Entries shall be made on such separate approved record before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur. Where the making of the entries is deferred to the next business day, appropriate memoranda shall be maintained for the purpose of making the entries correctly. The proprietor, whose separate record has been approved by the district supervisor, shall make a notation in the column for reporting serial numbers, as follows: "Serial numbers shown on commercial records per authority, dated ----------."

§ 185.1046 Reports. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the proprietor shall file, daily, full and complete transcripts of Record 52 and Forms 52C and 52E (Parts 1 and 2) on Forms 52A, 52B, 52C and 52E (Parts 1 and 2) with the district supervisor, by delivering or mailing them to such officer on the date the transactions entered therein occurred or before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occurred: Provided, That in any case in which the district supervisor shall direct, the transcripts shall be so filed with the investigator in charge instead of with the district supervisor. The transcripts shall bear the following certification signed by the person or officer authorized to execute Form 338, 52C, or 52E:

I hereby certify that these transcripts, consisting of ------ pages, disclose all the transactions which occurred during the period covered thereby, and that each entry is correct.

If in any case the district supervisor shall so authorize, the transcripts, in lieu of being filed daily, may be filed with him on or before the 10th day of the month succeeding the month in which the transactions in distilled spirits occurred. In such event, transactions will be entered on Record 52, Form 52C and Form 52E in accordance with the provisions of § 185.1044. Monthly summary reports on Form 338 (where Record 52 is kept) and Form 52E (Part 3) shall be prepared in duplicate, one copy of which will be retained on file and the original forwarded to the district supervisor on or before the 10th day of the month succeeding the month in which the transactions in distilled spirits occurred. The proprietor shall also file a monthly report on Part 2 of Form 52C, in duplicate, with the district supervisor on or before the 10th day of the succeeding month. Records kept on Record 52 and Forms 52C and 52E shall be preserved for a period of 4 years, and during such period shall be available during business hours for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by the Commissioner or any internal revenue officer.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

§ 185.1047 Payment of tax, bottling charge, etc., by third party. The proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall report, on Form 52C, when Record 52 is kept, on Part 2 and on transcript, Form 52B, and when Form 52E is kept, on Part 2, the name and address of each consignee, in the column now designated "Name." In the column now designated "Address," there will be reported the name and address of the person, firm or corporation paying (by advancement or reimbursement) either tax, bottling charge, brokerage fee, handling charge, or clearance fee, indicating which are included. The heading of both columns will be amended accordingly.

§ 185.1048 Order by third party to ship or deliver distilled spirits. Where the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse ships or delivers distilled spirits to a consignee on the order of another wholesale liquor dealer, detailed records of the transactions shall be kept (a) on Form 52C by the proprietor of the internal revenue bonded warehouse making the shipment or delivery, (b) on Record 52 by the wholesale liquor dealer giving the order, and (c) on Record 52 by the consignee if he is a wholesale liquor dealer. For example, assuming that the proprietor of internal revenue bonded warehouse (A) ships or delivers the distilled spirits to consignee (C) on the order of wholesale dealer (B), entries will be made on the prescribed forms as follows:

(1) The proprietor of the internal revenue bonded warehouse (A) will show in his Form 52C the name and address of wholesale dealer (B) who ordered the distilled spirits, as well as the name and address of consignee (C), the person to whom the distilled spirits are actually shipped or delivered;

(2) Wholesale dealer (B) will show in his Record 52 that the distilled spirits were purchased from warehouseman (A), giving both the name and address of (A), and will at the same time make an entry showing that the distilled spirits were shipped or delivered by (A) to consignee (C) giving the name and address of (C); and

(3) Consignee (C), if a wholesale liquor dealer, will show in his Record 52 that the distilled spirits were purchased from wholesale dealer (B) and received by him from the proprietor of internal revenue bonded warehouse (A), giving name and address of both. A copy of Form 52C and transcripts of Record 52 on Forms 52A and 52B, required to be filed with the district supervisor, will similarly show the details of such transactions. Where the proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse keeps Record 52, or Form 52E, and is a party to transactions similar to those described in this section, he shall make similar entries of such transactions in Record 52, or Form 52E, as the case may be; and the transcripts on Forms 52A and 52B, or Form 52E, respectively, required to be filed with the district supervisor, will likewise show the details of the transactions.

§ 185.1049 Forms to be provided by users. Record 52, and Forms 52A, 52B, 52C, 52E, 52F, and 338, will be provided by users at their own expense, but must be in the form prescribed by the Commissioner: Provided, That with the approval of the Commissioner, they may be modified to adapt their use to tabulating or other mechanical equipment: Provided further, That where the form is printed in book form, including loose-leaf books, the instructions may be printed on the cover or the flyleaf of the book instead of on the individual form.

§ 185.1050 Record and report of transactions at off-premises export storage room. Every proprietor of an internal revenue bonded warehouse who maintains an off-premises export storage room at which tax-paid distilled spirits and wines bottled or packaged especially for export are held pending exportation or use as supplies on vessels or aircraft shall keep a record of all such products received and disposed of. The transactions shall be recorded on the date on which they occur and a summary made at the end of the month. A transcript of the record shall be prepared and forwarded to the district supervisor on or before the 10th day of the succeeding month. Form 52E shall be used, upon modification of the title of the form and headings of the columns to serve the purpose, in preparing such record and report.

SUBPART XX—DISTRICT SUPERVISOR'S ANNUAL REPORT OF SPIRITS IN WAREHOUSE

§ 185.1055 Form 332. Each district supervisor shall render an annual report on Form 332, by kind, seasons, and years of production, of distilled spirits in internal revenue bonded warehouses at the close of the fiscal year (June 30), for each State within his district. In the case of blended brandy the season and year of the oldest brandy in the blend shall be considered the season and year of the blended brandy. The entries shall be made as indicated by the headings of the columns and lines and in accordance with the instructions printed on the form. Form 332 shall be prepared in duplicate and one copy shall be forwarded to the Commissioner not later than July 31 of each year. The remaining copy shall be retained by the district supervisor.

SUBPART YY—CONCERNING LOCKS AND SEALS

§ 185.1060 General. Except as otherwise provided in this part, the Commissioner will furnish, at the expense of the United States, all Government locks and seals to be used at internal revenue bonded warehouses. District supervisors will see that internal revenue bonded warehouses in their respective districts are fully equipped with locks in good condition, and that the necessary seals are provided for seal locks. District supervisors will bear in mind that Government locks are required on all doors in the warehouse, including the bottling-in-bond department; on all shutters opening onto fire escapes; on all openings in storage, gauging and bottling tanks, and on the control valves of pipe lines which convey spirits to and from tanks; and on the ends of pipe lines used to convey spirits to and from the warehouse.

§ 185.1061 Seal locks. Seal locks will be used on the entrance door of the bonded warehouse; on the entrance doors of the bottling-in-bond rooms; on the door of the Government room, vault, or cabinet; and on such other places where the use of seal locks is required by this part or deemed necessary by the district supervisor.

§ 185.1062 Plain locks. Plain locks will be used at all other places in the bonded warehouse where locks are required by the provisions of this part.

§ 185.1063 Custody of locks, keys, and seals. Storekeeper-gaugers are strictly prohibited from entrusting locks, keys, or seals in their charge to any person other than an internal revenue officer entitled to receive them, and under no circumstances will they permit locks to remain open, whether hanging by the shackle or otherwise.

§ 185.1064 Cap seals. All unions, flanges, and other connections in pipelines installed for the entry of spirits into warehouse tanks and the withdrawal of spirits from such tanks, which connections are not welded or brazed or otherwise secured, must be securely connected and sealed with seals approved by the Commissioner. A special type of seal, serially numbered, has been approved for such use. This seal has, for the purpose of identification, been designated a "Cap" seal.

§ 185.1065 Breaking of sealed connections prohibited. Sealed connections must not be broken by the proprietor for any reason, except in cases of emergency and then only after notifying the storekeeper-gauger in charge or the district supervisor. Where the proprietor desires to make changes in the equipment involving the breaking of a sealed connection he will follow the procedure prescribed in § 185.262.

§ 185.1066 Removal of cap seals. Except as provided in § 185.1065, cap seals which have been affixed will be removed only by a storekeeper-gauger or some other officer designated for the purpose by the district supervisor. The officer will destroy all removed cap seals in a manner sufficient to prevent their reuse.

SUBPART ZZ—SAFEGUARDING GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

§ 185.1070 Storage in Government room, vault, or cabinet. Government seals, locks not in use, the Government officer's records, other Government property when not in use, and the proprietor's supply of strip stamps, shall be kept in a Government room, vault, or cabinet which shall be locked with a Government seal lock, the key to which at all times shall remain in the possession of the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger must not leave the room, vault, or cabinet open except in his immediate presence, nor give the key thereof to anyone except another Government officer authorized to receive it. Where it is necessary to open the room, vault, or cabinet at various times during the day, the lock will not be seal-locked until the close of business.

Effective date. These regulations shall be effective as of September 1, 1950.

[SEAL] GEO. J. SCHOENEMAN,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: August 7, 1950.

THOMAS J. LYNCH,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 975]

[Docket No. AO 179-A6]

HANDLING OF MILK IN CLEVELAND, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED ORDER AMENDING THE ORDER AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Cleveland, Ohio, on February 13-15, 1950, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on January 25, 1950 (15 F. R. 489).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Acting Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on June 15, 1950, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of filing such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 3965).

Within the period reserved for filing exceptions, exceptions were submitted on behalf of the Milk Producers Federation of Cleveland, the Milk Market Survey Committee, the Northwestern Cooperative Sales Association of Toledo, Smith Dairy Products Company of Orrville, the Wayne Co-operative Milk Producers, Inc. of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Dorset Co-operative Milk Company of Dorset, the Central Ohio Co-operative Milk Producers, Inc., of Columbus and the Akron Milk Producers, Inc. of Akron. These exceptions have been considered and to the extent to which the findings and conclusions of this decision are at variance with the exceptions, such exceptions are hereby overruled. The hearing record has been re-studied in connection with exceptions taken to the recommended decision to make no changes in producer location differentials. It is concluded that the record is inadequate to support such revision of the order as would tend to result in a correction of unsatisfactory competitive conditions testified to. Additional hearing testimony is considered necessary to provide a record of all facts pertinent to the issue before final conclusions on this subject may be reached.

The material issues and the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision (F. R. Doc. 50-5301, 15 F. R. 3965) are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues and the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full herein.

Determination of representative period. The month of May 1950 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of an order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area in the manner set forth in the attached amending order is approved or favored by producers who during such period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in such marketing order, as amended, and as proposed to be further amended.

Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, Marketing Area," and "Order Amending the Order, As Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended by the attached order which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of August 1950.

[SEAL] C. J. McCORMICK,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 975.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Cleveland, Ohio, on February 13–15, 1950, upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

ORDER RELATIVE TO HANDLING

It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 975.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 975.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or such other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 975.3 Department of Agriculture. "Department of Agriculture" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in § 975.60.

§ 975.4 Market administrator. "Market administrator" means the agency described in § 975.20.

§ 975.5 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 975.6 Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area. "Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area" hereinafter called the "marketing area," means all territory, including but not being limited to all municipal corporations, within Cuyahoga County, the township of Willoughby in Lake County, and the townships of Liverpool, Brunswick, Hinckley, York, Granger, Medina, Lafayette and Montville in Medina County; all in the State of Ohio.

§ 975.7 Handler. "Handler" means any person who: (a) Operates a pool plant; or (b) operates a nonpool plant and either directly or indirectly disposes of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drinks; (1) on a route extending into the marketing area; or (2) to a pool plant described under § 975.30 which receives less than 50 percent of such plant's total receipts of skim milk and butterfat from producers or from other pool plants.

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

§ 975.8 Producer. "Producer" means any person with respect to milk produced by him having the approval of the health authority of any community in the marketing area for consumption as fluid milk in such community which milk is moved directly from his farm to:

(a) A pool plant (1) out of which a route is operated in such community, or (2) furnishing milk to another pool plant out of which a route is operated in such community (but not including milk diverted from a nonpool plant for the account of such plant);

(b) A nonpool plant within April, May, June, or July for the account of a pool plant by diversion from a pool plant. Milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the pool plant for whose account it was diverted; or

(c) A pool plant for the account of another pool plant by diversion from the latter pool plant. Milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the pool plant for whose account it was diverted.

§ 975.9 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association which the Secretary determines, after application by the association;

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 975.10 Nonhandler. "Nonhandler" means any person not a handler who operates a nonpool plant.

§ 975.11 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who:

(a) Produces milk but receives no milk from dairy farmers; and

(b) Operates a route extending into the marketing area.

§ 975.12 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means a plant designated pursuant to § 975.30.

§ 975.13 Nonpool plant. "Nonpool plant" means any milk manufacturing or processing plant not a pool plant.

§ 975.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat received at any pool plant other than from producers or other pool plants and all skim milk and butterfat received at a pool plant from any other pool plant in excess of the total amount received at the latter pool plant from producers.

§ 975.15 Route. "Route" means a delivery (including a sale from a plant store) of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drink in fluid form to a wholesale or retail stop(s), including any eating place where such items are disposed of for consumption on or off the premises, other than a pool plant(s) or nonpool plant(s).

§ 975.16 Delivery period. "Delivery period" means the calendar month or the total portion thereof during which this order is in effect.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 975.20 Designation. The agency for the administration hereof shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 975.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this order:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 975.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this order, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 975.86:

(1) The cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees,

(2) His own compensation, and

(3) All other expenses, except those incurred under § 975.87, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for herein, and, upon request by the Secretary surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly announce, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who within 10 days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to § 975.40, or (2) payments pursuant to §§ 975.80, 975.84, 975.86, 975.87, or 975.88;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(h) Upon request, supply on or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period to each cooperative association not a handler with respect to producers whose membership in such cooperative association has been verified by the market administrator, a record of the pounds of milk received by each handler from member producers and the class utilization of such milk. For the purpose of this report such member milk shall be prorated to each class in the proportions that the total receipts of milk from producers by such handler were classified in each class;

(i) Audit all reports and payments by each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or nonhandler upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends;

(j) Publicly announce, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the prices determined for each delivery period as follows:

(1) On or before the 6th day of such delivery period the minimum prices for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk computed pursuant to §§ 975.61 and 975.62;

(2) On or before the 6th day after the end of such delivery period the minimum prices for skim milk and butterfat in Class III milk computed pursuant to § 975.63; and

(3) On or before the 14th day after the end of such delivery period the uniform price computed pursuant to § 975.73 and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 975.82; and

(k) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

POOL PLANT

§ 975.30 Designation. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 975.31 and 975.32, a pool plant means any of the following plants, except a bottling plant operated by a producer-handler:

(a) A bottling plant which is:

(1) Located inside the marketing area and out of which a route is operated; or

(2) Located outside the marketing area with 10 percent or more of the aggregate weight of the skim milk and butterfat contained in its total route disposition of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, and flavored milk drink in fluid form on routes operated wholly or partially within the marketing area.

(b) A plant having approval of the appropriate health authority in the marketing area to supply milk to a pool plant described in paragraph (a) of this section and appearing on a list prepared and publicly announced by the market administrator for each delivery period not later than the 14th day after the end of such delivery period by posting in a conspicuous place in his office. Such list shall include:

(1) The following plants:

Location of plant (Feb. 1, 1946)	Operator of plant on Feb. 1, 1946
Ashland, Ohio	Cleveland Dairy Products Co. (Echo Dairy).

Prospect, Ohio	Do.
Rome, Ohio	Do.
Wellington, Ohio	Do.
Lodi, Ohio	United Dairy Co.
Wooster, Ohio	Wooster Farm Dairies Co.
Cleveland, Ohio	Milk Producers Federation of Cleveland; and

(2) A plant which either was a pool plant on August 31, 1948, or has become a pool plant pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) A plant having approval of the appropriate health authority in the marketing area to do so which has, within the delivery period of January, February, or March, and within each of the five consecutive preceding delivery periods, furnished milk to a pool plant described in paragraph (a) of this section in an amount equal to 50 percent or more of its entire receipts of milk from dairy farmers during each such delivery period.

§ 975.31 Replacement. A plant which replaces a pool plant shall acquire immediately the pool plant status of the replaced plant if the operator thereof shows to the satisfaction of the market administrator that 50 percent or more of the dairy farmers delivering milk to it previously had been producers at the pool plant so replaced.

§ 975.32 Disqualification. A plant shall be disqualified as a pool plant under either of the following circumstances:

(a) Upon prior written request for disqualification made by the plant operator; such disqualification to be effective at the beginning of the first delivery period (following the market administrator's receipt of such request) within which no milk was furnished by such plant to a pool plant described in § 975.30 (a); or

(b) If such plant furnished to a pool plant described in § 975.30 (a) less than 10 percent of its dairy farm supply of milk in any month except April, May, June, or July and less than 50 percent of such supply during more than one of the months of October, November, December, and January: Provided, That upon receipt by the market administrator prior to the delivery period of a written request made by the handler, all pool plants operated by such handler shall be considered, for such delivery period, as one plant for the purpose of meeting the minimum percentage requirements of this paragraph: And provided further, That this paragraph shall not apply to the plant of the Milk Producers Federation of Cleveland.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 975.40 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 8th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator with respect to milk received from producers, other source milk received at a pool plant, skim milk and butterfat received in any form at a pool plant or at a nonpool plant from a pool plant, skim milk and butterfat received in any form at a nonpool plant engaged in the manufacture of ice cream or ice cream mix which is operated by such handler and is located within the marketing area, and all skim milk and butterfat received in any form from all sources at a nonpool plant referred to in § 975.7 (b), in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(a) The quantities of butterfat and quantities of skim milk contained in (or used in the production of) such receipts, and their sources;

(b) The utilization of such receipts; and

(c) Such other information with respect to such receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 975.41 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such times and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

(b) On or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler who received milk from producers shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for the delivery period, which shall show:

(1) The pounds of milk, and the percentage of butterfat contained therein, received from each producer;

(2) The amount and date of payment to each producer (or to a cooperative association not a handler which is authorized to collect payment for the milk of such producer); and

(3) The nature and amount of each deduction or charge involved in the payments referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

§ 975.42 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain, and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of all of his operations, including those of his nonpool plants in which any milk is received from a pool plant or of his nonpool plants located within the marketing area in which ice cream or ice cream mix is manufactured, and such facilities as, in the opinion of the market administrator, are necessary to verify reports or to ascertain the correct information with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to § 975.40 or § 975.41 (a);

(b) The pounds of skim milk and butter fat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and each milk product on hand at the beginning and at the end of each delivery period;

(c) The weights and tests for butterfat and for other contents of all milk and milk products handled; and

(d) Payments to producers and to cooperative associations.

§ 975.43 Retention of records. All books and records required under this order to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain, except that all such books and records pertaining to transactions before August 1, 1949, shall be retained until October 1, 1949: Provided, That if, within such three-year period or before October 1, 1949, whichever is applicable, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are not longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 975.50 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. Skim milk and butterfat contained in milk, skim milk, and cream, or used to produce milk products, received from all sources by each handler at his (a) pool plant(s) and (b) nonpool plant(s) engaged in the manufacture of ice cream or ice cream mix and located within the marketing area, shall be classified separately (as skim milk or butterfat) pursuant to the following provisions of this section.

§ 975.51 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 975.53 and 975.54, skim milk and butterfat described in § 975.50 shall be classified by the market administrator on the basis of the following classes of utilization:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat:

(1) Disposed of in fluid form as milk; skim milk or buttermilk (except for livestock feed); flavored milk or flavored milk drinks; or eggnog;

(2) Transferred as any item included in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph from a pool plant to the plant of a producer-handler, or transferred as any such item to a nonpool plant located more than 265 miles from the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator.

(3) Accounted for as any item not listed under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph or as Class II milk or Class III milk; or

(4) Such shrinkage on milk received from producers computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 975.52 which is in excess of 2 percent of such receipts.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce sweet or sour cream; any milk product not specified in Class I milk or Class III milk and containing 8 percent or more of butterfat; ice cream, imitation ice cream, and other frozen desserts and mixes for such products (liquid or powdered); or cottage cheese.

(c) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(1) Used to produce butter; butter oil; cheese (except cottage cheese); bulk condensed skim milk or whole milk (sweetened or unsweetened); evaporated or condensed milk (or skim milk) in hermetically sealed cans; casein; nonfat dry milk solids, dry whole milk; condensed or dry buttermilk; whey; powdered malted milk; lactose; and skim milk or buttermilk disposed of for livestock feed;

(2) In actual shrinkage of milk received from producers computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 975.52 but not in excess of 2 percent of such receipts; and

(3) In actual shrinkage of other source milk computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 975.52.

§ 975.52 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall determine the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in milk received from producers and in other source milk received in the following manner: Provided, That milk of producers transferred by a handler to another handler and received at the latter's pool plant, or nonpool plant engaged in the manufacture of ice cream or ice cream mix and located within the marketing area, without first having been received for purposes of weighing and testing in the transferring handler's pool plant shall be included in the receipts at such plant of the second handler for the purpose of computing his plant shrinkage and shall be excluded from the receipts at the pool plant of the transferring handler in computing his plant shrinkage.

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, by (1) combining the shrinkage thereof for all pool plants operated by the handler, and (2) combining in a separate sum the shrinkage thereof for all nonpool plants operated by him to which any skim milk or butterfat has been transferred from any of his pool plants;

(b) Prorate the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) of this section, in such nonpool plants between (1) skim milk or butterfat, respectively, transferred from any of his pool plants, and (2) skim milk or butterfat, respectively, received from all other sources;

(c) Add to the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section, the shrinkage on skim milk or butterfat, respectively, transferred from the handler's pool plant(s) to his nonpool plant(s) computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section; and

(d) Prorate the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section between that in milk received from producers and in other source milk at his pool plants, after deducting from the total receipts therein the receipts from pool plants other than his own.

§ 975.53 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat transferred from a pool plant shall be classified as follows:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred as any item listed in paragraph (a) (1) of § 975.51, and as Class II milk if transferred as cream, to the pool plant of another handler, unless utilization in another class is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 8th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer was made: Provided, That if either or both pool plants have received other source milk, such transfers shall be classified by the market administrator at both plants so as to return the highest-valued class utilization to milk of producers: Provided further, That if transfers are made from a pool plant to more than one other pool plant any other source milk involved in such transfers shall be prorated by the market administrator among the transferee pool plants on the basis of the percentage which the other source milk transferred bears to the total quantity of transfers made pursuant to this subparagraph from the transferor plant.

(b) As Class I milk if transferred as any item listed in paragraph (a) (1) of § 975.51 and as Class II milk if transferred as cream, to a nonpool plant (except a plant described in paragraph (a) (2) of § 975.51), unless (1) other utilization is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both the transferring handler and the receiver on or before the 8th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer was made, (2) the receiver maintains books and records showing utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available to the market administrator for audit, and (3) such receiving plant had actually used not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk or butterfat in the use indicated in such statement: Provided, That if such nonpool plant had not actually used an equivalent amount of skim milk or butterfat in such indicated use, the remaining pounds shall be classified in the next lower-priced available class of utilization as if the classes of utilization set forth in § 975.51 were applicable to such nonpool plants; or

(c) As Class I milk if transferred as bulk milk and as Class II milk if transferred as bulk cream to (1) a manufacturer of soup, candy or bakery products for use in such manufacturing operations, or (2) any retail establishment which disposes of milk in fluid form.

§ 975.54 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be classified as Class I milk unless the handler who first received such skim milk or butterfat proves to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat classified (except that classified pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) of § 975.51) in one class shall be reclassified if used or reused by such handler or by another handler in another class: Provided, That skim milk and butterfat used to produce cream may be reclassified to Class III milk if such cream is disposed of to a nonhandler and used by such nonhandler in the manufacture of butter and the receiver complies with the requirements of paragraph (b) (2) and (3) (except the proviso) of § 975.53.

§ 975.55 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each delivery period the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the delivery period report submitted by each handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk for such handler.

§ 975.56 Allocation of butterfat classified. The pounds of butterfat remaining after making the following computations shall be the pounds in each class allocated to milk received from producers:

(a) Subtract from the total pounds of butterfat in Class III milk (other than butterfat in butter), the pounds of butterfat shrinkage allowed pursuant to paragraph (c) (2) of § 975.51;

(b) For the delivery periods of October, November, December, and January, subtract from the pounds of butterfat in Class I milk, the smaller of the following:

(1) The pounds, if any, by which the butterfat in milk received from producers and pool plants is less than 110 percent of the pounds of butterfat in such handler's milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk and flavored milk drink classified as Class I milk (exclusive of any reconstituted skim milk) pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of § 975.51, not including such Class I milk transferred to pool plants or to nonpool plants; or

(2) The pounds of butterfat in other source milk received.

(c) Subtract from the pounds of butterfat in other source milk, the pounds deducted pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section;

(d) Subtract from the pounds of butterfat remaining in each class, after making the deduction pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, in series beginning with the lowest-priced utilization, the pounds of butterfat remaining in other source milk after making the deduction pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section;

(e) Subtract from the remaining pounds of butterfat in each class the pounds of butterfat received from other handlers in such classes pursuant to § 975.53; and

(f) Add to the remaining pounds of butterfat in Class III milk (other than butterfat in butter), the pounds subtracted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section; or if the remaining pounds of butterfat in all classes exceed the pounds of butterfat in milk received from producers, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of butterfat in each class in series beginning with the lowest-priced utilization.

§ 975.57 Allocation of skim milk classified. Allocate the pounds of skim milk in each class to milk received from producers in a manner similar to that prescribed for butterfat in § 975.56.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 975.60 Basic formula price. The basic formula price per hundredweight of milk to be used in determining the Class I milk price for each delivery period, pursuant to § 975.61, shall be the highest of the prices per hundredweight of milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content computed by the market administrator pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section.

(a) The average of the basic (or field) prices ascertained to have been paid per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator by the Department of Agriculture or by the companies indicated below:

Company and Location
Borden Co., Black Creek, Wis.
Borden Co., Greenville, Wis.
Borden Co., Mt. Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., Berlin, Wis.
Carnation Co., Jefferson, Wis.
Carnation Co., Chilton, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight resulting from the following formula:

(1) Multiply by 6 the average of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter for the delivery period as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the Chicago market.

(2) Add an amount equal to 2.4 times the simple average as published by the Department of Agriculture of the prices determined per pound of "Cheddars" on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wis., for the trading days that fall within the delivery period.

(3) Divide by 7 and to the resulting amount add 30 percent; and then multiply by 3.5.

(c) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus amounts pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the average price of butter as computed in paragraph (b) (1) of this section, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent of the resulting amount, and then multiply by 3.5; and

(2) From the simple average of the weighted averages of the carlot prices per pound of spray and roller process nonfat dry milk solids in barrels for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the delivery period by the Department of Agriculture, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5 and then multiply by 0.965.

§ 975.61 Class I milk prices. The respective minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler, f. o. b. his plant, for skim milk and butterfat in milk received from producers or from a pool plant of a cooperative association, during the delivery period, which is classified as Class I milk, shall be as follows as computed by the market administrator:

(a) Add to the basic formula price the following amount for the delivery period indicated:

Delivery period:	Amount
May and June	$0.85
March, April, July, August	1.00
January, February, September, October, November, December	1.15

(b) The price of butterfat shall be the amount obtained in paragraph (a) of this section multiplied by 20: Provided, That in no event shall the price of butterfat pursuant to this subparagraph be less than the price of butterfat computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of § 975.62.

(c) The price of skim milk shall be computed by (1) multiplying the price of butterfat pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section by 0.035; (2) subtracting such amount from the amount obtained in paragraph (a) of this section; (3) dividing such net amount by 0.965; and (4) rounding off to the nearest full cent.

§ 975.62 Class II milk prices. The respective minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler, f. o. b. his plant, for skim milk and butterfat in milk received from producers or from a pool plant of a cooperative association, during the delivery period, which is classified as Class II milk, shall be as follows as computed by the market administrator:

(a) The price of butterfat shall be the average price of butter as computed pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of § 975.60 multiplied by 125: Provided, That the price per hundredweight of butterfat used to produce ice cream or ice cream mix shall be the Class III price for butterfat.

(b) The price of skim milk shall be the simple average (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of the carlot prices per pound of spray process nonfat dry milk solids in barrels for human consumption at Chicago for the weeks ending within the delivery period as reported by the Department of Agriculture, less 5.5 cents, multiplied by 6.5.

§ 975.63 Class III milk prices. The respective minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler, f. o. b. his plant for skim milk and butterfat in milk received from producers or from a pool plant of a cooperative association during the delivery period, which is classified as Class III milk, shall be as follows, as computed by the market administrator:

(a) The price per hundredweight of butterfat shall be the average price of butter as computed pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of § 975.60 multiplied by 120: Provided, That the price per hundredweight of butterfat used to produce butter or contained in shrinkage pursuant to paragraph (c) (2) of § 975.51 shall be such price less $5.00.

(b) The price per hundredweight of skim milk shall be the weighted average of the carlot prices per pound of roller process nonfat dry milk solids in barrels for human consumption f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area as published for the delivery period by the Department of Agriculture less 5.5 cents, multiplied by 8.5: Provided, That the price of skim milk used to produce evaporated or condensed milk (or skim milk) in hermetically sealed cans shall be determined by (1) subtracting 8 cents from the price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of § 975.60 and then subtracting an amount computed by multiplying by 0.035 the price of butterfat computed prior to the proviso in paragraph (a) of this section, and (2) dividing the result so obtained by 0.965.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 975.70 Computation of pool value for each handler operating a pool plant. Subject to the location adjustment provided by § 975.71, the pool value for each delivery period for each handler operating a pool plant shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying by the applicable prices for skim milk and butterfat in each class pursuant to §§ 975.61, 975.62 and 975.63 the skim milk and butterfat in milk received from producers according to their classification pursuant to §§ 975.56 and 975.57, and adding together the resulting amounts: Provided, That if such handler, after subtracting all receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, other than in milk received from producers has a utilization of skim milk or butterfat greater than has been accounted for in milk received from producers, there shall be added a further amount equal to the quantity of such excess of skim milk or butterfat multiplied by the applicable prices: And provided also, That such handler shall be credited at the difference between the applicable class prices for skim milk and butterfat and the highest of the Class III prices for skim milk and butterfat, respectively, with respect to milk or cream disposed of in fluid form during April, May, June, or July, to a manufacturer of soup, candy, or bakery products for use in such manufacturing operations.

§ 975.71 Location adjustments to handlers. With respect to the actual weight of (a) milk, cream, or any other item named in Class I milk and Class II milk which is moved directly to the marketing area from a pool plant located outside the marketing area, and (b) Class I milk and Class II milk disposed of outside the marketing area from a pool plant so located, there shall be deducted, in the computation of the handler's pool value, the following amount per hundredweight thereof applicable for the location of such plant by shortest highway distance from the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, such distance to be determined by the market administrator:

Mileage zone	Cents per hundredweight
Not more than 30 miles	0
More than 30 miles but not more than 45 miles	15
More than 45 miles but not more than 60 miles	17
More than 60 miles but not more than 75 miles	19
More than 75 miles but not more than 90 miles	21
Within each 15-mile zone thereafter an additional 1 cent.

Provided, That such adjustment shall be limited to an amount of milk, cream, or other item so moved which could be derived from the milk received from producers at such plant.

§ 975.72 Obligation to the producer-settlement fund for certain handlers operating nonpool plants. (a) For each delivery period the obligation to the producer-settlement fund for each handler (except a producer-handler) who operates a nonpool plant out of which a route is operated which extends into the marketing area, shall be computed by the market administrator by multiplying by the respective prices for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat disposed of as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drink within such delivery period on each such route, and subtracting therefrom an amount computed by multiplying such volume of skim milk and butterfat by the higher of the prices for skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class III milk.

(b) For each delivery period, the obligation to the producer-settlement fund for each handler who operates a nonpool plant and supplies milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drink to a plant designated as a pool plant pursuant to paragraph (a) of §975.30, which latter plant received within such delivery period less than 50 percent of its total receipts of skim milk and butterfat from producers or from other pool plants, shall be computed by the market administrator by multiplying by the difference between the respective prices for skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk and Class III milk, the amount of such receipts from such nonpool plant which are Class I milk at the receiving pool plant.

§ 975.73 Computation of uniform price. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute the "uniform price" per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. the marketing area, received from producers by:

(a) Combining into one total the pool values computed under § 975.70 for all handlers who reported pursuant to § 975.40 for such delivery period, except those in default in payments required pursuant to § 975.84 for the preceding delivery period;

(b) Adding an amount representing the monies received in payment of obligations computed under § 975.72;

(c) Adding the aggregate of the values of all allowable location adjustments computed at the maximum rates for the appropriate zones as set forth in § 975.81;

(d) Adding an amount representing not less than one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(e) Subtracting, if the weighted average butterfat test of all milk received from producers represented by the values included in paragraph (a) of this section is greater than 3.5 percent or adding, if the weighted average butterfat test of such milk is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the total hundredweight of butterfat represented by the variance of such weighted average butterfat test from 3.5 percent, by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 975.82 multiplied by 1,000;

(f) Dividing by the hundredweight of milk received from producers represented by the values included in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(g) Subtracting not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents.

§ 975.74 Notification. The market administrator shall notify:

(a) On or before the 14th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler who operates a pool plant of:

(1) The amounts and pool values of his skim milk and butterfat in each class and the totals of such amounts and values;

(2) The uniform price;

(3) The amount due such handler from the producer-settlement fund or the amount to be paid by such handler to the producer-settlement fund, as the case may be; and

(4) The totals of the minimum amounts to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 975.80, 975.84, 975.86, 975.87, 975.88 and 975.89.

(b) On or before the 14th day after the end of each delivery period each handler described in § 975.7 (b) of:

(1) The pounds of his skim milk and butterfat in milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, and flavored milk drink subject to the provisions of this section; and

(2) The amount due the producer-settlement fund from each such handler.

PAYMENTS

§ 975.80 Time and method of payment. (a) Except as provided by paragraph (b) of this section, on or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler (except a cooperative association) shall pay each producer for milk received from him within such delivery period, not less than an amount of money computed by multiplying the total pounds of such milk by the uniform price, less the location adjustment pursuant to § 975.81 and adjusted by the butterfat differential pursuant to § 975.82: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such delivery period pursuant to § 975.85 he may reduce such payments uniformly per hundredweight for all producers, by an amount not in excess of the per hundredweight reduction in payment from the market administrator; however, the handler shall make such balance of payment to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator.

(b) On or before the 19th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay a cooperative association not a handler, with respect to milk of producers for which it has received written authorization to collect payment, a total amount not less than the sum of the individual amounts otherwise payable to such producers pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay a cooperative association which is a handler, with respect to skim milk and butterfat received by him from a pool plant operated by such cooperative association, not less than an amount computed by multiplying the minimum prices for skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in each class, subject to the applicable location adjustment provided by § 975.71, by the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in each class pursuant to §§ 975.56 and 975.57.

§ 975.81 Location adjustments to producers. In making payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80 a handler may deduct, with respect to all milk received from producers at a plant located outside the marketing area, not more than the following respective amount per hundredweight of milk applicable for the location of such plant by shortest highway distance from the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, such distance to be determined by the market administrator:

Mileage zone	Cents per hundredweight
Not more than 30 miles	0
More than 30 miles but not more than 45 miles	15
More than 45 miles but not more than 60 miles	17
More than 60 miles but not more than 75 miles	19
More than 75 miles but not more than 90 miles	21
Within each 15-mile zone thereafter an additional 1 cent.

§ 975.82 Butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80 there shall be added to or subtracted from, the uniform price per hundredweight, for each one-tenth of 1 percent of such butterfat content in milk above or below 3.5 percent, as the case may be, a butterfat differential computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Multiply the hundredweight of butterfat in each class computed pursuant to § 975.56 by the applicable minimum price for butterfat in such class computed pursuant to §§ 975.61, 975.62 and 975.63;

(b) Add into one total the butterfat values obtained in paragraph (a) of this section and divide such total by the total hundredweight of butterfat in all classes computed pursuant to § 975.56 to determine a weighted average price for butterfat;

(c) Subtract from the weighted average price per hundredweight of butterfat computed in paragraph (b) of this section a weighted average price per hundredweight of skim milk computed as follows:

(1) Multiply the hundredweight of skim milk computed in each class pursuant to § 975.57 by the respective minimum price for skim milk in such class computed pursuant to §§ 975.61, 975.62 and 975.63; and

(2) Add into one total the skim milk values so obtained for all classes and divide such total by the total hundredweight of skim milk in all classes computed pursuant to § 975.57; and

(d) Divide by 1,000 the price of butterfat resulting pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section and round off to the nearest tenth of a cent.

§ 975.83 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund, known as the "producer-settlement fund," into which he shall deposit all payments made pursuant to § 975.84 and out of which he shall make all payments pursuant to § 975.85.

§ 975.84 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler:

(a) Whose pool value is required to be computed pursuant to § 975.70, shall pay to the market administrator the amount by which such pool value for such delivery period is greater than the total minimum amount required to be paid by him pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80; and

(b) Whose obligation is required to be computed pursuant to § 975.72, shall pay to the market administrator such obligation for such delivery period.

§ 975.85 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler the amount by which such handler's pool value pursuant to § 975.70 is less than the total minimum amount required to be paid by him pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80, less any unpaid obligations of such handler to the market administrator pursuant to §§ 975.84, 975.86, 975.87, or 975.89. Provided, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments to all such handlers pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds become available.

§ 975.86 Expense of administration. As his prorata share of the expense incurred pursuant to paragraph (d) of § 975.22, each handler shall pay the market administrator on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period, three cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, to be announced by the market administrator on or before the 14th day after the end of such delivery period, with respect to all receipts within the delivery period, of milk from producers at pool plants (including such handler's own production), of other source milk at pool plants, except that used in the manufacture of ice cream or ice cream mix, and of other source milk on which payment is required pursuant to § 975.72: Provided, That such payment shall not be made with respect to any milk subject to a payment required under the provision for expense of administration of any other Federal milk marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act for any fluid milk marketing area.

§ 975.87 Marketing services. Except as set forth in § 975.88 each handler in making payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80, with respect to all milk received from each producer (except milk of such handler's own production) at a plant, not operated by a cooperative association of which such producer is a member, shall deduct four cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, to be announced by the market administrator on or before the 14th day after the end of each delivery period; and, on or before the 16th day after the end of such delivery period, shall pay such deductions to the market administrator. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator to verify weights, samples, and tests of the milk of such producers and to provide such producers with market information; such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator, or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

§ 975.88 Cooperative association. In the case of producers whose milk is received at a plant, not operated by a cooperative association of which such producers are members, and for whom a cooperative association is actually performing the services described in § 975.87, as determined by the market administrator, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deductions specified in § 975.87, such deductions from payments required pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 975.80 as may be authorized by such producers, and pay such deductions on or before the 16th day after the end of each delivery period to the cooperative association rendering such services of which such producers are members.

§ 975.89 Adjustment of accounts—(a) Payments. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts discloses adjustments to be made, for any reason, which result in monies due (1) the market administrator from such handler, (2) such handler from the market administrator, or (3) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any such amount due; and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payment set forth in the provision under which such error occurred, following the 5th day after such notice.

(b) Overdue accounts. Any unpaid obligation of a handler or of the market administrator pursuant to §§ 975.84, 975.85, 975.86, 975.87, 975.88 or 975.89 (a) shall be increased one-half of one percent on the first day of the calendar month next following the due date of such obligation and, on the first day of each calendar month thereafter until such obligation is paid.

§ 975.90 Application of provisions—(a) Exempt milk. Milk received at a plant of a handler, the handling of which the Secretary determines to be subject to the pricing and payment provisions of any other Federal milk marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act for any fluid milk marketing area shall not be subject to the pricing and payment provisions hereof.

(b) Milk caused to be delivered by cooperative associations. Milk referred to herein as received from producers by a handler shall include milk of producers caused to be delivered to such handler by a cooperative association which is not a handler and which is authorized to collect payment for such milk.

§ 975.91 Effective time. The provisions hereof, or of any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 975.92 Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall, whenever he finds that this order, or any provision thereof, obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, terminate or suspend the operation of this order or any such provision thereof.

§ 975.93 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this order, there are any obligations thereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 975.94 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions hereof, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 975.95 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

§ 975.96 Separability of provisions. If any provision hereof, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision, and of the remaining provisions hereof, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

§ 975.97 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this order for the payment of money irrespective of when such obligation arose, except an obligation involved in an action instituted before August 1, 1949, under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or before a court.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this order shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers; the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this order, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this order to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this order to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this order shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN EASTERN SOUTH DAKOTA PRODUCTION AREA

NOTICE OF PROPOSED BUDGET AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture is considering the approval of the budget of expenses and rate of assessment which are hereinafter set forth and were recommended by the South Dakota Potato Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 103 and Order No. 79 (7 CFR 979.1 et seq.) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the Eastern South Dakota production area, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051).

Consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are filed in triplicate with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days following publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposals are as follows:

§ 979.203 Budget of expenses and rate of assessment. (1) The expense necessary to be incurred by the South Dakota Potato Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 103 and Order No. 79, to enable such committee to carry out its functions pursuant to provisions of the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1951, will amount to $2,500;

(2) The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler who first ships potatoes shall be one-half cent per hundredweight of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof during said fiscal year; and

(3) Terms used herein shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 103 and Order No. 79.

MILITARY PRIORITY FOR PUBLIC HOUSING

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO SECRETARIES OF ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE

Public Law 475 provides that, upon the transfer of certain temporary and permanent housing projects by the Housing and Home Finance Agency, military personnel and persons engaged in national defense or mobilization activities shall be afforded certain limited priority of assignment and occupancy.

Section 601 (d) (1) provides that "* * * if the transferee is a State political subdivision, local housing authority, or local public agency, it will, in filling vacancies in housing transferred under subsection 601 (b) hereof, give such preferences to military personnel and persons engaged in national defense or mobilization activities as the Secretary of Defense or his designee prescribes to such transferee."

Section 606 (c) (2) provides that military personnel "as designated by the Secretary of Defense or his designee," who are ineligible for continued occupancy under the provisions of the United States Housing Act of 1937, shall not be subject to removal from permanent type defense housing until 18 months after the date of the transfer of the project to a local housing authority.

Section 606 (c) (6) provides that "for one year after the date of conveyance of a project, the public housing agency shall, to the extent permitted by law, give such preferences, by allocation or otherwise, to military personnel as the Secretary of Defense or his designee prescribes to the public housing agency."

The authorities vested in the Secretary of Defense under the above provisions of Public Law 475 are hereby delegated to the Secretaries of the Army, Navy and the Air Force for exercise on behalf of their respective Departments.

LOUIS JOHNSON,
Secretary of Defense.

1949 CROP LOAN COTTON

NOTICE OF POOLING

Notice is hereby given that all 1949 crop upland and American-Egyptian cotton securing loans under Commodity Credit Corporation's 1949 cotton loan programs which are still outstanding on October 1, 1950, will be pooled for the borrowers' accounts on that date, as provided in the loan agreements under which the loans were made. Prior to October 1, 1950, producers may request that their notes be forwarded to local banks for repayment of the loans by using the Producer's Redemption Requests, or the producers may sell their equities in the cotton by using the Producer's Equity Transfers, on their copies of the Producer's Loan Statements.

After the cotton is pooled, borrowers will not be entitled to sell their equities in the cotton or to arrange to repay their loans. No payment will be made to borrowers at the time their cotton is pooled. On final liquidation of the cotton in each pool, the net proceeds, if any, after deduction of all advances, interest, and charges—including storage, insurance and handling charges—will be distributed among the borrowers whose cotton was placed in the pool, in proportion to the amounts of the loans made to the borrowers on such cotton.

Issued this 8th day of August 1950.

AMERICAN HAWAIIAN STEAMSHIP CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON APPLICATIONS TO EXTEND BAREBOAT CHARTER AGREEMENTS

American Hawaiian Steamship Company, Luckenbach Steamship Co., Pacific Atlantic Steamship Co., and Pope & Talbot, Inc.

Pursuant to section 3, Public Law 591, 81st Congress, notice is hereby given that an informal public hearing will be held in Room 4823, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C. on August 31, 1950, at 10 o'clock a. m., e. d. s. t., before Examiner C. W. Robinson, upon the applications of the above-named parties to extend their bareboat charter agreements with respect to Government-owned war-built dry-cargo vessels.

The purpose of the hearing is to receive evidence with respect to whether continuance of the services under which such vessels are now chartered is required in the public interest and such services will not be adequately served without such extension, and with respect to the availability of privately-owned American-flag vessels on reasonable conditions and at reasonable rates for such services.

All persons having an interest in such applications will be given an opportunity to be heard if present.

The parties may have oral argument before the examiner immediately following the close of the hearing in lieu of briefs, and the examiner will issue a recommended decision. Parties may have 15 days within which to file exceptions to or memoranda in support of the examiner's recommended decision, but the Board reserves the right to determine whether oral argument on exceptions will be granted or whether briefs in connection therewith will be received.

Dated: August 10, 1950.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 7, 1950.

Take notice that on August 4, 1950, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act, by Florida Power Corporation, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida and doing business in said State, with its principal business office at St. Petersburg, Florida, seeking an order authorizing the issuance of additional promissory notes in the aggregate amount of $1,700,000 to the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company, and The Florida National Bank, St. Petersburg, Florida, for the purpose of obtaining construction funds, said loans to be payable not to exceed 120 days from authorization thereof at an interest rate to be hereafter determined; all as more fully appears in the application on file with the Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 25th of August 1950, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. [Docket No. G-1452]

TEXAS GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 7, 1950.

Take notice that on July 31, 1950, Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Owensboro, Kentucky, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of the following described facilities:

1. A sales meter station on its main line system at a point in Ross Township, Butler County, Ohio, near the town of Venice, Ohio.

2. A sales meter station on its main line system in Clear Creek Township, Warren County, Ohio, near Station No. 16 of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, and at the same point a sales lateral line approximately 1,050 feet in length extending from the main 26" pipeline of Applicant to said sales meter station, thence connecting with the pipeline facilities of The Ohio Fuel Gas Company.

3. The sale of up to 5,000 Mcf per day of natural gas to The Ohio Fuel Gas Company.

Applicant calls attention to the fact that the design of the sales meter station and the 1,050-foot lateral requested to be installed in Clear Creek Township, Ohio, are of sufficient size to handle approximately 100,000 Mcf daily, whereas the sale to The Ohio Fuel Gas Company for which authority is here sought is for only 5,000 Mcf. It says that it contemplates using such excess capacity sometime in the near future to supply The Ohio Fuel Gas Company with some 94,000 Mcf of gas per day which that company has requested Applicant to deliver, beginning November 1, 1951; that, in the meantime such facilities will serve as Applicant's only direct connection with the pipeline facilities of The Ohio Fuel Gas Company, through which emergency deliveries could be made if required.

Deliveries of gas to The Ohio Fuel Gas Company in the full contract quantity of up to 5,000 Mcf per day through the proposed facilities are expected to begin on or about November 1, 1950.

The total estimated cost of the construction of the facilities for which application is made approximates $32,080.89, which Applicant will finance from cash on hand.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) before the 25th day of August 1950. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

GEORGIA NATURAL GAS CO.

AUGUST 7, 1950.

Take notice that Georgia Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Georgia corporation, P. O. Box 1203, Albany, Georgia, filed on July 27, 1950, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain transmission pipeline facilities hereinafter described, and for an order pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, directing Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern Natural) to provide and sell to Applicant an adequate supply of natural gas.

Applicant proposes to construct approximately 335 miles of 8⅝-inch, 6⅝-inch and 4½-inch pipeline and laterals extending southerly from a point of connection with the pipe line of Southern Natural near Phenix City, Alabama to Tallahassee, Florida, serving, among other communities, the Cities of Americus, Albany, Camilla, Pelham, Cordele, Moultrie, Bainbridge, Thomasville, Quitman, Valdosta, in Georgia, and the City of Tallahassee, Florida; with estimated maximum day sales of 30,000 Mcf.

The estimated cost of the proposed facilities is $5,100,000 to be financed by the issuance of first mortagage pipeline bonds and capital stock.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 25th day of August 1950. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

TENNESSEE GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

AUGUST 7, 1950.

Take notice that Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, address, Houston, Texas, filed on July 31, 1950, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of a sales meter station at a point on its main transmission pipeline in Chautauqua County, New York, for the sale of natural gas to the Republic Light, Heat and Power Company, Inc.

Applicant proposes, by means of the said facilities to sell natural gas to Republic Light, Heat and Power Company, Inc., under a contract providing for a contracted demand quantity of 600 Mcf per day, to be resold in the communities of Mayville, Westfield, and Chautauqua, New York, which are presently being served with natural gas by Republic Light, Heat and Power Company, Inc. It is expected that the gas to be delivered by means of the proposed facilities will be taken at an annual average load factor of 75 percent.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 25th day of August 1950. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of August A. D. 1950.

The Columbia Gas System, Inc. ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, The Ohio Fuel Gas Company ("Ohio Fuel"), having filed a joint declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to the provisions of sections 7 and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rules U-43 and U-45 promulgated thereunder, with respect to the following proposed transaction:

Columbia and its subsidiary, Ohio Fuel, propose to enter into a supplemental interest agreement whereby Columbia will agree to accept an amount as the interest on the 3¼ percent notes of Ohio Fuel which it presently holds or may hereafter hold, so that the average interest paid by Ohio Fuel on all its debt obligations, consisting of 6 percent and 3¼ percent notes, held by Columbia will not exceed 3¼ percent.

Said joint declaration having been duly filed and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said joint declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to said joint declaration as amended that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the said joint declaration as amended be permitted to become effective:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act that the said joint declaration as amended, be, and hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 910—FRESH PEAS AND CAULIFLOWER GROWN IN THE COUNTIES OF ALAMOSA, RIO GRANDE, CONEJOS, COSTILLA AND SAGUACHE IN COLORADO

DETERMINATION RELATIVE TO EXPENSES AND FIXING OF RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1951 FISCAL YEAR

On July 22, 1950, notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 4719) regarding the expenses and the fixing of the rate of assessment for the 1951 fiscal year under Marketing Agreement No. 67, as amended, and Order No. 10 as amended (7 CFR Part 910), regulating the handling of fresh peas and cauliflower grown in the Counties of Alamosa, Rio Grande, Conejos, Costilla, and Saguache in the State of Colorado. This regulatory program is effective pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice which were submitted by the Administrative Committee (established pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order), it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 910.204 Expenses and rate of assessment for the 1951 fiscal year. (a) The expenses necessary to be incurred by the Administrative Committee, established pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, for the maintenance and functioning of such committee during the fiscal year beginning June 1, 1950, and ending May 31, 1951, both dates inclusive, will amount to $2,355.00.

(b) The rate of assessment to be paid, in accordance with the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order by each handler who first handles fresh peas or cauliflower shall be: (1) $1.50 per straight car of peas or cauliflower or per mixed car of peas and cauliflower, or the equivalent thereof, and (2) when less than a carload lot is shipped, one-half cent ($0.005) per bushel of peas or per crate of cauliflower or the respective equivalent quantities thereof, but in no event shall the assessment be in excess of $1.50 on a shipment of peas or cauliflower less than a carload lot, or mixed shipment thereof less than a carload lot; and the aforesaid rate of assessment is hereby fixed as each handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.

(c) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that: (1) The aforesaid rate of assessment is applicable, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, to all fresh peas and cauliflower handled during the fiscal year beginning June 1, 1950; (2) shipments of both peas and cauli-

§ 973.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this part amending the order, as amended, effective not later than August 16, 1950. Any delay beyond August 16, 1950, in the effective date of this part, amending the said order, as amended, will seriously disrupt the orderly marketing of milk for the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area. The changes effected by this part, amending the order, as amended, do not require of persons affected, substantial or extensive preparation prior to the effective date. In view of the foregoing it is hereby found that good cause exists for making this part effective August 16, 1950 (see sec. 4 (c) Administrative Procedure Act 5 U. S. C. 1003 (c)).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping the milk covered by this part, amending the order as amended, which is marketed within the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area) refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this part amending the order, as amended, is the only practicable means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area:

(3) The issuance of this part amending the order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers, who, during the determined representative period (May 1950) were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area; and

(4) The provision of this part amending the order providing for the payment to all producers delivering milk to the same handler of uniform prices for all milk delivered by them is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers, who, during the determined representative period (May 1950) were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area.

ORDER RELATIVE TO HANDLING

It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

§ 973.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

§ 973.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any officer or employee of the United States who is authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 973.3 Department of Agriculture. "Department of Agriculture" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency as may be authorized to perform the price reporting functions of the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 973.4 Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area. "Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area" hereinafter called the "marketing area" means the territory within the corporate limits of the cities of Minneapolis, Robbinsdale, and Wayzata in Hennepin County; Columbia Heights in Anoka County; St. Paul and White Bear in Ramsey County; West St. Paul and South St. Paul in Dakota County; together with the following townships and all villages therein: Brooklyn, Crystal, St. Anthony, Golden Valley, St. Louis Park, Orono, Excelsior, Minnetonka, Edina, Bloomington, and Richfield in Hennepin County; Fridley in Anoka County; Mounds View, Rose, White Bear, and New Canada in Ramsey County; Grant, Oakdale, Woodbury, Cottage Grove, and Newport in Washington County; and Mendota, West St. Paul, and Inver Grove in Dakota County; all in the State of Minnesota.

§ 973.5 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means any milk processing plant during any delivery period within which skim milk or butterfat (a) is disposed of as Class I milk from such plant on wholesale or retail routes (including plant stores) within the marketing area, (b) is transferred as Class I milk from such plant to a plant described in paragraph (a) of this section unless such transfer is made only during the months of August to November, inclusive, or (c) is transferred as Class I milk from such plant to a plant described in paragraph (b) of this section unless such transfer is made only during the months of August to November, inclusive. Any such plant shall continue to be a "pool plant" during any delivery period in which skim milk or butterfat is transferred as Class I milk from such plant to another pool plant until August 1 of the year following that in which such transfer was last made.

§ 973.6 Nonpool plant. "Nonpool plant" means any milk processing plant during any delivery period when such plant does not meet the requirements set forth in § 973.5. Any such plant shall become a "pool plant" during any delivery period within which it meets the requirements set forth in § 973.5.

§ 973.7 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 973.8 Producer. "Producer" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a handler, who produces milk which is received directly from such person's farm at a pool plant.

§ 973.9 Handler. "Handler" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a producer, in his capacity as the operator of a pool plant.

§ 973.10 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who is both a producer and a handler and who receives no milk directly from the farms of other producers: Provided, That the maintenance, care, and management of the dairy animals and other resources necessary to produce the milk, and the processing, packaging, and distribution of the milk are the personal enterprise and the personal risk of such person.

§ 973.11 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association of producers which the Secretary determines to be qualified pursuant to the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act", and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing of milk or its products for the producers thereof.

§ 973.12 Market administrator. "Market administrator" means the person designated pursuant to § 973.20 as the agency for the administration of this part.

§ 973.13 Delivery period. "Delivery period" means a calendar month or the portion thereof during which this part is in effect.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 973.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator who shall be a person selected by the Secretary. Such person shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 973.21 Powers. The market administrator shall:

(a) Administer the terms and provisions of this part;

(b) Receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the terms and provisions of this part;

(c) Recommend to the Secretary amendments to this part; and

(d) Make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this part.

§ 973.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 973.90, the cost of his bond, his own compensation, and all other expenses necessarily incurred in the maintenance and functioning of his office, except as provided by § 973.91;

(c) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part and surrender the same to his successor or to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(d) Unless otherwise directed by the Secretary publicly disclose within 30 days after such nonperformance becomes known to the market administrator, the name of any person who, within 20 days after the date on which he is required to perform such acts, has not (1) made reports pursuant to § 973.30 or (2) made payments pursuant to §§ 973.80 and 973.83; and may at any time thereafter so disclose any such name if authorized by the Secretary;

(e) Verify each handler's records and payments by inspection of such handler's records and the records of any other person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk or butterfat for such handler depends; and

(f) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information concerning the operations under this part as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 973.30 Delivery period of reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 8th day of each delivery period, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator with respect to all skim milk and butterfat, except that in nonfluid milk products, disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging, received by him at each pool plant during the preceding delivery period in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and the quantities of butterfat contained in (or used in the production of) receipts from producers (including his own production), producer-handlers, pool plants and nonpool plants, and the sources thereof;

(b) The utilization of all skim milk or butterfat disposed of;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat on hand at the beginning and end of each delivery period; and

(d) Such other information with respect to all such receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 973.31 Reports of producer-handlers. Each producer-handler shall report to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 973.32 Reports as to producers. Each handler, upon the request of the market administrator, shall, on or before the 25th day of each delivery period, submit to the market administrator such handler's producer payroll for the preceding delivery period which shall show for each producer (a) the total pounds of milk delivered with the average butterfat test thereof, and (b) the net amount of such handler's payments to such producer or to a cooperative association together with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

§ 973.33 Records and facilities. Each handler shall permit the market administrator to make such examinations of his operations, equipment, and facilities as the market administrator deems necessary and he shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as the market administrator deems necessary to verify or to establish the correct data with respect to (a) the receipts and utilization in whatever form of all skim milk and butterfat received, including nonfluid milk products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging; (b) the weights and tests for butterfat and for other content of all skim milk or butterfat handled, (c) payments to producers and cooperative associations, and (d) the pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and each milk product on hand at the beginning and at the end of each delivery period.

§ 973.34 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month to which such books and records pertain, except that all such books and records pertaining to transactions before August 1, 1946, shall be retained until October 1, 1949: Provided, That if, within such three-year period or before October 1, 1949, whichever is applicable, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 973.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat, except that in nonfluid milk products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging, received by a handler during each delivery period, shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 973.41 to 973.45.

§ 973.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 973.42 and 973.43, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat disposed of for consumption in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks (except flavored milk and flavored milk drinks in hermetically sealed containers), cream (sweet or sour including a mixture of cream and milk or skim milk containing less butterfat than the legal standard for cream), eggnog, aerated cream, ready whipped cream, and mixes for toppings and uses similar to those of whipped cream, and all skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk disposed of as animal feed and all skim milk and butterfat used to produce a milk product other than those specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 973.42 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat purchased or received by a handler shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first received such skim milk and butterfat proves to the market administrator that it should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk and butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 973.43 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of by a handler by transfer shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream to another handler (other than a producer-handler), unless utilization in Class II is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 8th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer occurred, but in no event shall the amount classified in either class exceed the total use in such class by the transferee handler: Provided, That, if either or both handlers have received skim milk or butterfat from a nonpool plant, the skim milk or butterfat transferred from a pool plant shall be classified at both plants so as to return the highest class utilization to milk of producers.

(b) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream to a producer-handler.

(c) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream to a nonpool plant located less than 100 miles from the marketing area unless (1) the handler claims other classification on the basis of utilization mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both the handler and the person who received such milk, on or before the 8th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer occurred, (2) the nonpool plant maintains records showing the receipt and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant which are made available to the market administrator for the purpose of verification, and (3) such nonpool plant had actually used not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat in the use indicated in such statement: Provided, That if verification of such records discloses that an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat had not been used in such indicated utilization, the remaining pounds shall be classified in the remaining class.

(d) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk or skim milk and as Class II milk if transferred in the form of cream to a nonpool plant located more than 100 miles from the marketing area.

§ 973.44 Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period the market administrator shall correct mathematical and other obvious errors in the delivery period report submitted by each handler and shall compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk and Class II milk for each handler.

§ 973.45 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After computing the classification of all skim milk and butterfat received by a handler, the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner: (1) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk received from nonpool plants: Provided, That if the receipts from nonpool plants are greater than the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I; (2) subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class, respectively, the pounds of skim milk received from other pool plants in accordance with its classification as determined pursuant to § 973.43 (a); (3) if the total pounds of skim milk remaining in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk received from producers, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from Class II: Provided, That if the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II are less than the amount to be subtracted, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from Class I.

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine, respectively, the weighted average butterfat content of the milk received from producers and allocated to Class I milk and Class II milk pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 973.50 Class prices. Each handler shall, subject to the provisions of §§ 973.52 and 973.53, pay at the time and in the manner set forth in § 973.80 not less than the prices set forth in this paragraph per hundredweight of milk received during each delivery period at such handler's plant.

(a) For Class I milk. The price shall be the basic price determined pursuant to § 973.51 plus 50 cents during the delivery periods of January to June, inclusive; plus 70 cents during the delivery periods of July and December; plus 85 cents during the delivery periods of August to November, inclusive.

(b) For Class II milk. The price shall be that determined by the market administrator as follows: (1) Multiply by 4.24 the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period in which such milk was received; (2) multiply by 8.2 the average price of spray process nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption, in carlots f. o. b. manufacturing plants as reported for the Chicago area by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which the milk was received; (3) add into one sum the amounts obtained in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph and (4) subtract 65 cents therefrom.

§ 973.51 Basic prices. The basic price to be used in determining the price per hundredweight of Class I milk shall be the price for Class II milk computed pursuant to § 973.50 (b) or that derived from either of the formulas set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, whichever is the highest.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices ascertained to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices are reported to the market administrator by the listed companies or by the Department of Agriculture;

Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) (1) Multiply the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York for said delivery period as reported by the Department of Agriculture by six (6); (2) add 2.4 times the weekly prevailing price of "Cheddars" during said delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin, as reported by the Department of Agriculture; (3) divide the resulting sum by seven (7); (4) add 30 percent thereof; and (5) multiply the resulting sum by 3.5.

§ 973.52 Location differential to handlers. With respect to milk purchased or received at a pool plant located more than 15 miles from the Minnesota Transfer Viaduct over University Avenue in St. Paul and which is classified as Class I milk, the price per hundredweight computed pursuant to § 973.50 (a) shall be reduced one cent for each full mile that such plant is more than 15 miles distant from such viaduct. Such deduction shall be based on the shortest highway distance from such pool plant as determined by the market administrator.

For purposes of this section the milk which is classified as Class I milk during each delivery period shall be considered to have been first that which was received from producers at such handler's pool plants located within the marketing area, and then that milk which was received from producers at such handler's other pool plants located nearest to the marketing area.

§ 973.53 Butterfat differentials to handlers. (a) If the average butterfat content of the milk disposed of by any handler as Class I milk is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to the Class I price per hundredweight computed pursuant to § 973.50 (a) for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such Class I milk is above 3.5 percent or shall be subtracted for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such Class I milk is below 3.5 percent an amount computed by the market administrator as follows: To the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period add 25 percent and divide the sum obtained by 10.

(b) If the average butterfat content of the milk disposed of by any handler as Class II milk is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to the Class II price per hundredweight computed pursuant to § 973.50 (b) for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such Class II milk is above 3.5 percent or shall be subtracted for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such Class II milk is below 3.5 percent an amount computed by the market administrator as follows: To the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period add 21.14 percent and divide the sum obtained by 10.

§ 973.54 Emergency price provision. Whenever the provisions hereof require the market administrator to use a specific price (or prices) for milk or for any milk product for the purpose of determining class prices or for any other purpose, the market administrator shall add to the specified price the amount of any subsidy or other similar payment being made by any Federal agency in connection with the milk or product associated with the price specified: Provided, That if for any reason the price specified is not reported or published as indicated the market administrator shall use the applicable maximum uniform price established by regulations of any Federal agency plus the amount of any such subsidy or other similar payment: And provided further, That if the specified price is not reported or published and there is no applicable maximum uniform price, or if the specified price is not reported or published and the Secretary determines that the market price is below the applicable maximum uniform price, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 973.60 Application to producer-handlers. Sections 973.40 to 973.46, 973.50 to 973.54, 973.70 to 973.78, 973.80 to 973.84, and 973.90 to 973.92 shall not apply to the handling of milk by producer-handlers.

§ 973.61 Producer-handlers. Handlers shall furnish to the market administrator for his verification, subject to review by the Secretary, evidence of their qualifications as producer-handlers pursuant to § 973.10, as of the effective date of this part, and they shall furnish evidence of subsequent changes made in the manner of producing or distributing milk that affect their qualifications as producer-handlers; such verification by the market administrator shall be made within 15 days of the receipt of the evidence and shall be retroactive to the effective date of this part in cases verified within 45 days of such effective date and shall be effective retroactively to the first day of the delivery period during which verification is made in subsequent cases.

§ 973.62 Sales of milk by a producer-handler. A producer-handler who sells or disposes of skim milk or butterfat in bulk in the form of whole milk to another handler or producer-handler shall be considered a producer with respect to such skim milk or butterfat.

§ 973.63 Handlers who receive milk from two groups of producers. In the case of a handler who is required by any health authority in the marketing area to separate his producers into two groups and to receive and handle separately the milk received from each group, the market administrator shall compute a uniform price for each group of producers in the manner provided in § 973.71, if the handler files separate reports for each group, and the milk is handled in such a manner and the records of the handler are so kept that the market administrator can verify the utilization of the milk received from each group.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICES TO PRODUCERS

§ 973.70 Computation of the value of milk received from producers. The value of the milk received directly from producers' farms during each delivery period by each handler shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of milk in each class by the applicable class price and adding together the resulting amounts: Provided, That if any skim milk has been subtracted pursuant to § 973.45 (a) (3), or if any butterfat has been similarly subtracted, there shall be added to the above value an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of skim milk and butterfat so subtracted by the applicable class prices.

§ 973.71 Computation of the uniform price for each handler. The market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight for milk purchased or received directly from producers' farms during the delivery period by each handler as follows:

(a) To the value computed pursuant to § 973.70 add an amount equal to the total value of the location differentials computed pursuant to § 973.82.

(b) From the sum obtained in paragraph (a) of this section subtract, if the average butterfat content of all milk received by such handler directly from producers' farms is more than 3.5 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed as follows: Multiply the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 973.81 and multiply the result by the total hundredweight of milk received directly from producers' farms.

(c) Adjust the resulting sum by an amount representing the fraction used in adjusting the uniform price for the previous delivery period to the nearest cent.

(d) Divide the result by the total hundredweight of milk received directly from producers' farms.

(e) Adjust the resulting figure to the nearest cent. This shall be known as the uniform price per hundredweight for each handler for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content delivered to the marketing area.

§ 973.72 Announcement of class prices. On or before the 6th day after the end of the delivery period the market administrator shall mail to all handlers and make public announcement of the class prices computed pursuant to § 973.50 and the butterfat differentials computed pursuant to § 973.53 and § 973.81.

§ 973.73 Announcement of uniform prices. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall notify each handler and make public announcement of the uniform prices computed pursuant to § 973.71.

PAYMENTS FOR MILK

§ 973.80 Time and method of payment. Each handler shall make payment as follows:

(a) On or before the 20th day after the end of the delivery period in which the milk was received, to each producer for milk not caused to be delivered directly from such producers' farms to such handler by a cooperative association, at not less than the uniform price computed pursuant to § 973.71, subject to the differentials set forth in §§ 973.81 and 973.82.

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of the delivery period in which the milk was received, to a cooperative association for milk which it caused to be delivered directly from producers' farms to such handler and for which such cooperative association collects payment, a total amount equal to not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, and less the amount of the payment made pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section.

(c) On or before the 10th day after the end of the delivery period in which the skim milk or butterfat was received, to a cooperative association for skim milk or butterfat purchased or received from such cooperative association at not less than the class prices computed pursuant to § 973.50, subject to the differentials set forth in §§ 973.52 and 973.53, and less the amount of the payment made pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) On or before the 20th day of the delivery period in which such skim milk and butterfat was received, to a cooperative association, if it so requests, for skim milk and butterfat which was purchased or received from such cooperative association and for skim milk and butterfat which such cooperative association caused to be delivered directly from producers' farms to the plant of such handler during the first 15 days of such delivery period at the approximate value of such skim milk or butterfat.

§ 973.81 Butterfat differential to producers. If, during the delivery period, any handler has purchased or received from any producer, milk having an average butterfat content other than 3.5 percent, such handler in making the payment prescribed in § 973.80 (a) and (b) shall add to the uniform price per hundredweight payable to such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the butterfat content in milk is above 3.5 percent not less than, or shall deduct from the uniform price per hundredweight for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the butterfat content in milk is below 3.5 percent not more than an amount computed by the market administrator as follows: To the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period, add 20 percent and divide the resulting sum by ten (10).

§ 973.82 Location differential to producers. In making payment pursuant to § 973.80 (a) and (b) for milk received from producers at a pool plant located more than 15 miles from the Minnesota Transfer Viaduct over University Avenue in St. Paul, each handler shall deduct from the uniform price payable to such producers an amount equal to one cent per hundredweight for each full mile that the plant where such milk was received is more than 15 miles distant from such viaduct.

§ 973.83 Correction of errors in payments to producers. Errors in making any of the payments prescribed in § 973.80 shall be corrected not later than the date for making payments next following the determination of such errors. Any correction affecting all producers delivering to any handler during the period in which such error occurred shall be corrected in such manner as the market administrator shall determine to be equitable, either by (a) adjustment of the account of each individual producer who delivered during such period on the basis of a recomputation of the price of such handler, or (b) by addition or subtraction of the amount of such correction to or from the value of all milk received by such handler in the delivery period during which such error was determined, computed as set forth in § 973.70.

§ 973.84 Statement to producers. In making the payments required by this section, each handler shall furnish each producer with a supporting statement in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show:

(a) The delivery period and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(b) The total pounds and the average butterfat content of the milk delivered by the producer;

(c) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to the producer is required under the provisions of §§ 973.80 and 973.83;

(d) The rate which is used in making the payment if such rate is other than the applicable minimum;

(e) The amount or the rate per hundredweight of each deduction claimed by the handler, including any deduction claimed under § 973.91, together with a description of the respective deductions; and

(f) The net amount of payment to the producer.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 973.90 Expense of administration. As his prorata share of the expense of administration of this part each handler, with respect to all milk purchased or received directly from producers' farms (including such handler's own production) and which is disposed of as Class I milk during the delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 18th day after the end of such delivery period, 2 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe.

§ 973.91 Marketing services.—(a) Deductions for marketing services. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section each handler in making payments to producers (other than himself) pursuant to § 973.80 shall make a deduction of 2 cents per hundredweight or such lesser deduction as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to all milk purchased or received directly from producers' farms during the delivery period and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 18th day after the end of such delivery period. Such money shall be expended by the market administrator for market information to, and for the verification of weights, sampling, and testing of milk purchased or received from said producers.

(b) Producers' cooperative associations. In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act" is actually performing, as determined by the Secretary, the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, no such deduction shall be made.

§ 973.92 Termination of obligation. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this order for the payment of money irrespective of when such obligation arose except an obligation involved in an action instituted before August 1, 1949, under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or before a court.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to the following information: (1) The amount of the obligation; (2) the month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and (3) if the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market adminstrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 9c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

§ 973.93 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, AND TERMINATION

§ 973.100 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 973.101.

§ 973.101 Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall suspend or terminate any or all of the provisions of this part, whenever he finds that it obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall, in any event terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 973.102 Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all of the provisions of this part, there are any obligations arising under this part, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate shall:

(a) Continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary;

(b) From time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all funds or property on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and

(c) If so directed by the Secretary execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

§ 973.103 Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control together with claims for any funds which are unpaid at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this part, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of August 1950 to be effective on and after the 16th day of August 1950.

[SEAL] C. J. McCORMICK,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 998—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN NEW JERSEY

EXEMPTION CERTIFICATES AND SAFEGUARDS

A notice of proposed rule-making regarding rules and regulations for the issuance of exemption certificates and the establishment of safeguards, to be made effective under Marketing Agreement No. 116 and Order No. 98 (15 F. R. 1925, 2036) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in New Jersey, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 4521). This regulatory program is effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051). After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the rules and regulations set forth in the aforesaid notice, which rules and regulations were adopted and submitted for approval by the New Jersey Potato Marketing Committee, established pursuant to said market agreement and order, the following rules and regulations are hereby approved.

It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give 30-day notice of the effective date of this subpart in that (a) shipments of potatoes from the production area are now being made and have been taking place since the beginning of harvest for the 1950 crop year; (b) more orderly marketing in the public interest than would otherwise prevail will be promoted by effectuating the rules and regulations hereinafter set forth on and after the effective date of this subpart; (c) compliance with the rules and regulations will require no preparation on the part of producers and handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date of this subpart; (d) notice has been given of the proposed rules and regulations by publication thereof as required by law (15 F. R. 4521); and (e) the rules and regulations should be approved upon publication of this subpart in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

998.102 Area determinations.
998.103 Exemption certificates.
998.104 Safeguards for special purpose shipments.

AUTHORITY: §§ 998.101 to 998.104 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c.

§ 998.101 Definitions. For the purpose of §§ 998.101 to 998.104, inclusive, "agreement" means Marketing Agreement No. 116 and "order" means Order No. 98 (15 F. R. 1925, 2036), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in New Jersey, and the terms used in such sections shall have the same meanings as set forth in said agreement and order.

§ 998.102 Area determinations. The committee determines, pursuant to § 998.68, that:

(a) "Immediate production area" means each one of the districts established pursuant to § 998.11; and

(b) "Immediate shipping area" means each one of the districts established pursuant to § 998.11.

§ 998.103 Exemption certificates—(a) Application. Any producer or handler applying for exemption from regulations issued pursuant to § 998.51, shall file such application with the committee, or its duly designated agent, for such purpose on forms to be furnished by the committee.

Each application shall state (i) the name and address of the applicant for exemption, (ii) the grade, size, and quality regulations from which exemption is requested, and (iii) facts demonstrating that the potatoes, for which exemption is requested, were adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's reasonable expectation and control. In addition, applications shall set forth such additional information as the committee may find necessary in making determinations with respect thereto, including, without limitation thereto, the information required on producer applications by subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph, and the information required on handler applications by subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph:

(1) The location of the farm or farms on which potatoes, for which exemption is requested, were produced, the location where such potatoes are to be processed, and the loading point from which such potatoes are to be shipped if the exemption is granted;

(2) The applicant's acreage of potatoes, by varieties, for the production season in which the application is filed, the total hundredweight of such potatoes harvested on the date of the application, and the total hundredweight of such harvested potatoes which have been disposed of;

(3) The acreage of potatoes which the applicant will harvest subsequent to the date of such application, the estimate total yield therefrom, the estimated percentage thereof which can be handled under regulations in effect at the time of such harvest, and the reasons why the remainder of such unharvested potatoes cannot be handled under such regulations;

(4) The quantity (by grade, size, and variety) of potatoes acquired by the applicant and stored during and immediately following the digging season, together with a statement as to the reasons why the specified quantity of such potatoes remaining in storage cannot be handled under regulations in effect on and subsequent to the date of the application;

(5) The quantity (by grade, size, and variety) of potatoes acquired by the applicant and stored during and immediately following the digging season, which were handled prior to the date of the application.

(b) Issuance. (1) The committee shall give prompt consideration to all statements and facts relating to each application for exemption and, pursuant to the applicable terms of the marketing agreement and order, a determination shall be made as to whether or not the application is approved. The determination, if approving the application, shall be evidenced by the issuance of a certificate of exemption pursuant to § 998.68: Provided, That subcertificates of exemption may be issued, at the request of an applicant, where the total quantity of potatoes authorized to be handled under exemption will be handled in more than one shipment. If the applicant's request for exemption is denied, he shall be so notified in writing.

(2) Each exemption certificate issued pursuant to this subpart shall be on a form duly approved by the committee and signed by an authorized representative of the committee. Each exemption certificate shall be issued in triplicate, with the original and one copy delivered to the person receiving the exemption, and one copy retained for the committee's records. Each such certificate shall contain the name and address of the recipient; the location and quantity of all potatoes authorized to be shipped under the exemption certificate; and the exceptions from the grade and size regulations which will be permitted in the exempted shipments.

(c) Transfer of certificates. Certificates or subcertificates of exemption shall be transferred with each lot of potatoes handled. The transferor of such certificates shall notify the committee within seven days following such transfer, stating the name and address of the person to whom the potatoes were sold or delivered, the quantity sold or delivered, date of the transaction, and such other information as may be requested by the committee.

(d) Appeals. If any applicant is dissatisfied with the determination of the committee regarding an application for an exemption certificate, or any duly issued exemption certificate, an appeal by such applicant may be taken to the committee pursuant to § 998.69.

§ 998.104 Safeguards for special purpose shipments—(a) Application for Certificates of Privilege. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of § 998.55 and when shipments of potatoes for the following purposes are subject to regulation pursuant to § 998.52, all handlers desiring to make shipments of potatoes for seed, for export, for manufacture or conversion into specified products, or for livestock feed, shall first apply to the committee for and obtain a Certificate or Certificates of Privilege permitting the proposed shipments.

(2) Applications for Certificates of Privilege shall be made on forms furnished by the committee. Each application shall contain the name and address of the handler, the quantity of potatoes to be shipped, the grades and sizes of potatoes to be shipped, name of consignee, destination, proof of contract, and such other information as the committee may require in safeguarding against the entry of such potatoes into trade channels other than those for which the Certificate or Certificates of Privilege were granted.

(b) Shipments of seed potatoes. Each handler of seed potatoes, when the handling of seed potatoes is subject to regulation pursuant to § 998.52, shall handle such potatoes only after procuring a Certificate of Privilege and supplying an official seed potato certification application to such seed potatoes, to the committee; such certification shall contain the name and address of the handler, car or truck number, quantity handled, variety, and destination.

(c) Commercial shipments other than seed potatoes. Each handler shipping potatoes for any purpose set forth in paragraph (a) of this section (other than seed) shall supply the committee with a report thereon showing the name and address of the shipper, car or truck number, Federal-State Inspection Certificate number (if such inspection is required by regulation at time of such shipment), loading point, destination, and consignee.

(d) The committee may rescind a Certificate or Certificates of Privilege issued to a handler pursuant to this subpart, or deny a Certificate or Certificates of Privilege to a handler, upon proof satisfactory to the committee that such handler has handled potatoes contrary to the provisions of this section. Such committee action denying a Certificate or Certificates of Privilege shall apply to and not exceed a reasonable period of time as determined by the committee. Any handler who has been denied a Certificate of Privilege or who has had a Certificate of Privilege rescinded, may appeal to the committee for reconsideration. Such appeal shall be in writing.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of August 1950, to be effective upon the publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency

PART 146—CERTIFICATION OF BATCHES OF ANTIBIOTIC AND ANTIBIOTIC-CONTAINING DRUGS

PENICILLIN TABLETS WITH SULFONAMIDES

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of section 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040, 1055, as amended by 59 Stat. 463, 61 Stat. 11, 63 Stat. 409; 21 U. S. C. and Sup., 357), the regulations for certification of batches of antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR 146.1 et seq., and 1949 Supp., as amended, 15 F. R. 1073, 4976) are amended as indicated below:

1. In § 146.27 Penicillin tablets, paragraph (a) Standards of identity, etc., first sentence, is amended to read as follows: "Penicillin tablets are tablets composed of sodium penicillin, calcium penicillin, potassium penicillin, or procaine penicillin, with or without two or more suitable sulfonamides and with or without the addition of one or more suitable and harmless buffer substances, diluents, binders, lubricants, colorings, and flavorings."

2. In § 146.27, subparagraph (1) of paragraph (c) Labeling is amended by renumbering subdivisions (iii) and (iv) as (iv) and (v), respectively, and by inserting the following new subdivision (iii) between subdivision (ii) and renumbered subdivision (iv):

(iii) If the batch contains sulfonamides, the name and quantity of each such sulfonamide used in making the batch;

3. In § 146.27, paragraph (c) is amended by renumbering subparagraph (3) as (4) and by inserting the following new subparagraph (3) between subparagraph (2) and renumbered subparagraph (4):

(3) On the label and labeling, if sulfonamides are present, after the name "Penicillin tablets," wherever it appears, the words "with sulfonamides," in juxtaposition with such name.

4. In § 146.27, subparagraph (3) (iii) of paragraph (d) Request for certification; samples, is amended to read as follows:

(iii) In case of an initial request, each other substance used in making the batch; one package of each, containing approximately 5 gm., and if the batch or any part thereof is to be packaged in combination with an aqueous vehicle, or when any change is made in the composition of such vehicle, five packages of the vehicle included in the combination.

This order, which provides for the certification of penicillin tablets that contain two or more sulfonamides, shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the affected industry will be benefited by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order and would be contrary to public interest, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry and since it would be against public interest to delay the effective date of the aforesaid amendments.

LAWS OF MORE COMMON APPLICATION PERTAINING TO THE PRODUCTION OF DISTILLED SPIRITS (OTHER THAN ALCOHOL) AND THE REMOVAL THEREOF FROM THE DISTILLERY [1]

5 U. S. C. 22 DEPARTMENTAL REGULATIONS. The head of each department is authorized to prescribe regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the government of his department, the conduct of its officers and clerks, the distribution and performance of its business, and the custody, use, and preservation of the records, papers, and property appertaining to it.

26 U. S. C. 1650 WAR TAX RATES OF CERTAIN MISCELLANEOUS TAXES. In lieu of the rates of tax specified in such of the sections of this title as are set forth in the following table, the rates applicable with respect to the period beginning with the effective date of Title III of the Revenue Act of 1943 shall be the rates set forth under the heading "War Tax Rate":

Section	Description of tax	Old rate	War tax rate
2800(a) (1).	Distilled spirits.	$6 per gallon.	$9 per gallon.

26 U. S. C. 2800 TAX—(a) Rate.—(1) Distilled spirits generally. There shall be levied and collected on all distilled spirits in bond or produced in or imported into the United States an internal revenue tax at the rate of $6.00 on each proof gallon or wine gallon when below proof and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon, to be paid by the distiller or importer when withdrawn from bond.

(A) Payment of tax as to domestic spirits. The tax on distilled spirits produced in the United States, to be paid upon withdrawal from bond, and the tax on rectified spirits produced in the United States, shall be paid by stamp, under such rules and regulations, permits, bonds, records, and returns, and with the use of such tax-stamp machines or other devices and apparatus, including but not limited to storage, gaging, and bottling tanks and pipe lines, as the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary shall prescribe.

(B) Penalties. Whoever manufactures, procures, possesses, uses, or tampers with a tax-stamp machine which[1] may be required under this section with intent to evade the internal-revenue tax imposed upon distilled spirits and rectified spirits, and whoever, with intent to defraud, makes, alters, simulates, or counterfeits any stamp of the character imprinted by such stamp machines, or who procures, possesses, uses, or sells any forged, altered, counterfeited, or simulated tax stamp, or any plate, die, or device intended for use in forging, altering, counterfeiting, or simulating any such stamps, or who otherwise violates the provisions of this section, or the regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall pay a penalty of $5,000 and shall be fined not more than $10,000 or be imprisoned not more than five years, or both, and any machine, device, equipment, or materials used in violation of this section shall be forfeited to the United States and after condemnation shall be destroyed. But this provision shall not exclude any other penalty or forfeiture provided by law.

(2) Products of distillation containing distilled spirits. All products of distillation, by whatever name known, which contain distilled spirits or alcohol, on which the tax imposed by law has not been paid, shall be considered and taxed as distilled spirits.

(c) Time of attachment. The tax shall attach to distilled spirits, spirits, alcohol or alcoholic spirit, within the meaning of subsection (b) of section 2809 as soon as this substance is in existence as such, whether it be subsequently separated as pure or impure spirit, or be immediately, or at any subsequent time, transferred into any other substance, either in the process of original production or by any subsequent process.

(d) Persons liable. Every proprietor or possessor of, and every person in any manner interested in the use of, any still, distillery, or distilling apparatus, shall be jointly and severally liable for the taxes imposed by law on the distilled spirits produced therefrom.

(e) Lien—(1) Property subject to. The tax shall be a first lien on the spirits distilled, the distillery used for distilling the same, the stills, vessels, fixtures, and tools therein, the lot or tract of land whereon the said distillery is situated, and on any building thereon from the time said spirits are in existence as such until (except as provided in paragraph (3)), the said tax is paid.

(2) Exception during term of bonds. No lien shall attach to any lot or tract of land, distillery, building, or distilling apparatus, under the provisions of this subsection, by reason of distilling done during any period included within the term of any bond taken under the provisions of section 2815 (b) (1) (C).

(3) Extinguishment. Any lien under paragraph (1) on any land or any building thereon shall be held to be extinguished, if (1) such land and building are no longer used for distillery purposes, and (2) there is no outstanding liability for taxes or penalties imposed by law on the distilled spirits produced therein, and (3) no litigation is pending in respect of any such tax or penalty.

(4) Certificate of discharge. Any person claiming any interest in any such land or building may apply to the collector for a duly acknowledged certificate to the effect that such lien is discharged and, if the Commissioner determines that any such lien is extinguished, the collector shall issue such certificate, and any such certificate may be recorded.

• • • • • •

• • • • • •

26 U. S. C. 2808 PENALTIES AND FORFEITURES—(a) Creation of fictitious proof—(1) Penalty. Every person who adds or causes to be added any ingredient or substance to any distilled spirits before the tax is paid thereon, for the purpose of creating a fictitious proof, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 for each cask or package so adulterated, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than two years; and

(2) Forfeiture. Every such cask or package, with its contents, shall be forfeited to the United States.

(b) Unlawful affixing, canceling, or issue of stamps by officer—(1) Penalty. Whenever any revenue officer affixes or cancels, or causes or permits to be affixed or canceled, any stamp relating to distilled spirits provided for by law, in any other manner or in any other place, or issues the same to any other person than as provided by law, or by regulation made in pursuance thereof, or knowingly affixes, or permits to be affixed, any such stamp to any cask or package of spirits of which the whole or any part has been distilled, rectified, compounded, removed, or sold, in violation of law, or which has in any manner escaped payment of tax due thereon, he shall, for every such offense, be fined not less than $500 nor more than $3,000, and be imprisoned for not less than six months nor more than three years.

(2) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

(c) Forfeiture of tax-paid distilled spirits remaining on distillery premises. No distilled spirits on which the tax has been paid shall be stored or allowed to remain on any distillery premises under the penalty of a forfeiture of all spirits so found.

(d) Forfeiture of distilled spirits in unstamped casks or packages. All distilled spirits found in any cask or package containing five gallons or more, without having thereon each mark and stamp required therefor by law, shall be forfeited to the United States.

(e) Evasion of tax, penalty.—Whenever any person evades, or attempts to evade, the payment of the tax on any distilled spirits, in any manner whatever, he shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the tax so evaded or attempted to be evaded.

(f) Tax fraud by distiller. Whenever any person engaged in carrying on the business of a distiller defrauds or attempts to defraud the United States of the tax on the spirits distilled by him, or of any part thereof, he—

(1) Forfeiture. Shall forfeit the distillery and distilling apparatus used by him, and all distilled spirits and all raw materials for the production of distilled spirits found in the distillery and on the distillery premises, and—

(2) Penalty. Shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years.

No discontinuance or nolle prosequi of any prosecution under this subsection shall be allowed without the permission in writing of the Attorney General.

(g) Offenses not specifically covered. If any distiller, rectifier, or wholesale liquor dealer, shall knowingly or wilfully omit, neglect or refuse to do or cause to be done any of the things required by law in the carrying on or conducting of his business, or shall do anything by this title prohibited, if there be no specific penalty or punishment imposed by any other section of this title for the neglecting, omitting or refusing to do, or for the doing or causing to be done the thing required or prohibited, he shall pay a penalty of $1,000; and all distilled spirits or liquors owned by him or in which he has any interest as owner, shall be forfeited to the United States.

26 U. S. C. 2808 INSTRUMENTS TO PREVENT AND DETECT FRAUD—(a) Power of the commissioner. For the prevention and detection of frauds by distillers of spirits, the Commissioner may prescribe for use such hydrometers, saccharometers, weighing and gauging instruments, or other means for ascertaining the quantity, gravity, and producing capacity of any mash, wort, or beer used, or to be used, in the production of distilled spirits, and the strength and quantity of spirits subject to tax, as he may deem necessary; and he may prescribe rules and regulations to secure a uniform and correct system of inspection, weighing, marking, and gauging of spirits.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2809 DEFINITIONS—(a) Distiller. Every person who produces distilled spirits, or who brews or makes mash, wort, or wash, fit for distillation or for the production of spirits, or who, by any process of evaporization, separates alcoholic spirit from any fermented substance or who, making or keeping mash, wort, or wash, has also in his possession or use a still, shall be regarded as a distiller.

(b) Distilled spirits—(1) General definition. Distilled spirits, spirits, alcohol, and alcoholic spirits within the true intent and meaning of this chapter, is that substance known as ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, or spirit of wine, which is commonly produced by the fermentation of grain, starch, molasses, or sugar, including all dilutions and mixtures of this substance.

(c) Proof spirits. Proof spirits shall be held to be that alcoholic liquor which contains one-half its volume of alcohol of a specific gravity of seven thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine ten-thousandths (0.7939) at sixty degrees Fahrenheit.

26 U. S. C. 2810 REGISTRY OF STILLS—(a) Requirement. Every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still or distilling apparatus set up, shall register the same with the collector of the district in which it is, by subscribing and filing with him duplicate statements, in writing, setting forth the particular place where such still or distilling apparatus is set up, the kind of still and its cubic contents, the owner thereof, his place of residence, and the purpose for which said still or distilling apparatus has been or is intended to be used; one of which statements shall be retained and preserved by the collector, and the other transmitted by him to the Commissioner. Stills and distilling apparatus shall be registered immediately upon their being set up.

Every still or distilling apparatus not so registered, together with all personal property in the possession or custody, or under the control of such person, and found in the building, or in any yard or inclosure connected with the building in which the same may be set up, shall be forfeited.

And every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still or distilling apparatus set up which is not so registered, shall pay a penalty of $500, and shall be fined not less than $100, nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned for not less than one month, nor more than two years.

Stills and distilling apparatus set up at refineries for the refining of crude petroleum or the production of petroleum products and not used in the manufacture of distilled spirits are not required to be registered under this section.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2812 NOTICE OF BUSINESS OF DISTILLER OR RECTIFIER—(a) Requirements. Every person engaged in, or intending to be engaged in, the business of a distiller or rectifier, shall give notice in writing, subscribed by him, to the collector of the district wherein such business is to be carried on, stating his name and residence, and if a company or firm, the name and residence of each member thereof, the name and residence of every person interested or to be interested in the business, the precise place where said business is to be carried on, and whether of distilling or rectifying; and if such business is carried on in a city, the residence and place of business shall be indicated by the name of the street and number of the building. In case of a distiller, the notice shall also state the kind of stills and the cubic contents thereof, the number and kind of boilers, the number of mash tubs and fermenting tubs, the cubic contents of each tub, the number of receiving cisterns, the cubic contents of each cistern, • • • the estimated quantity of distilled spirits which the apparatus is capable of distilling every twenty-four hours, a particular description of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, and of the buildings thereon, including their size, material, and construction; and that said distillery premises are not within six hundred feet (or the distance permitted by the Secretary pursuant to law), in a direct line, of any premises authorized to be used for rectifying or refining distilled spirits by any process.

In case of any change in the location, form, capacity, ownership, agency, superintendency, or in the persons interested in the business of such distillery or rectifying establishment, • • • notice thereof, in writing, shall be given to the said collector or proper deputy collector, of the district within twenty-four hours after such change; and any deputy collector receiving such notice shall immediately transmit the same to the collector of the district. Every notice required by this section shall be in such form, and shall contain such additional particulars, as the Commissioner may, from time to time, prescribe.

Every person who fails or refuses to give such notice shall pay a penalty of $1,000, and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $2,000; and every person who gives a false or fraudulent notice shall, in addition to such penalty or fine, be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2814 DISTILLER'S BOND—(a) Form and approval—(1) In general. Every person intending to commence or to continue the business of a distiller shall, on filing with the collector his notice of such intention, and before proceeding with such business, and on the 1st day of May of each succeeding year, execute a bond in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, conditioned that he shall faithfully comply with all the provisions of law relating to the duties and business of distillers, and shall pay all penalties incurred or fines imposed on him for a violation of any of the said provisions; and that he shall not suffer the lot or tract of land on which the distillery stands, or any part thereof, or any of the distilling apparatus, to be incumbered by mortgage, judgment, or other lien, during the time in which he shall carry on said business. Said bond shall be with at least two sureties, approved by the collector of the district, and for a penal sum not less than the amount of tax on the spirits that can be distilled in his distillery during a period of fifteen days. But in no case shall the bond exceed the sum of $100,000.

The collector may refuse to approve said bond when, in his judgment, the situation of the distillery is such as would enable the distiller to defraud the United States; and in case of such refusal the distiller may appeal to the Commissioner, whose decision in the matter shall be final. A new bond shall be required in case of the death, insolvency, or removal of either of the sureties, and may be required in any other contingency at the discretion of the collector or Commissioner.

Every person who fails or refuses to give the bond hereinbefore required, or to renew the same, or who gives any false, forged, or fraudulent bond, shall forfeit the distillery, distilling apparatus, and all real estate and premises connected therewith, and shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

(2) When exempt from survey requirements. Whenever, under authority of law, the Secretary shall relieve a distiller from the survey requirements of section 2817, he may likewise by regulation fix the penal sum of the distiller's bond, but in no case shall the amount of the minimum bond be less than $5,000 nor the amount of the maximum bond greater than $100,000.

(b) Cross references. • • •

(2) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2815 CONDITIONS OF APPROVAL OF DISTILLER'S BOND—(a) General. No collector shall approve the bond of any distiller until all the requirements of the law and all regulations made by the Commissioner in relation to distilleries, in pursuance thereof, have been complied with.

Every collector who violates this provision shall forfeit and pay $2,000, and be dismissed from office.

(b) Ownership of land or consent of owner—(1) Requirements. No bond of a distiller shall be approved unless—

(A) The distiller is the owner in fee, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, or other lien, of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated; or

(B) The distiller files with the officer designated for the purpose by the Commissioner, in connection with his notice, the written consent of the owner of the fee, and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, or other person having a lien thereon, duly acknowledged, that the premises may be used for the purpose of distilling spirits, subject to the provisions of law, and expressly stipulating that the lien of the United States for taxes and penalties shall have priority of such mortgage, judgment, or other encumbrance, and that in the case of the forfeiture of the distillery premises, or any part thereof, the title to the same shall vest in the United States, discharged from such mortgage, judgment, or other encumbrance; or, if consent as required under this paragraph cannot be obtained,

(C) The distiller, with the approval of the Commissioner, files with the officer designated by the Commissioner a bond, approved by the Commissioner, in the penal sum equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus. Such value shall be determined, and such bond shall be executed, in such form and with such sureties, and filed with the officer designated by the Commissioner, under such regulations as the Secretary shall prescribe.

(D) In case of any distillery sold at judicial or other sale in favor of the United States, a bond may be taken at the discretion of the Commissioner, in lieu of the written consent required by this section, and the person giving such bond may be allowed to operate such distillery during the existence of the right of redemption from such sale on complying with all the other provisions of law.

tiller, rectifier, brewer, or winemaker, shall commence or continue the business of a distiller, rectifier, brewer, or winemaker until all bonds in respect of such a business, required by any provision of law, have been approved by the Commissioner or such other officer of the Bureau of Internal Revenue as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may designate.

(d) Disapproval. The Commissioner or the designated officer may disapprove any such bond or bonds if the individual, firm, partnership, corporation or association giving the same, or owning, controlling, or actively participating in the management of the business of the individual or firm, partnership, corporation, or association giving the same, shall have been previously convicted, in a court of competent jurisdiction, of (1) any fraudulent noncompliance with any provision of any law of the United States if such provision related to internal revenue or customs taxation of distilled spirits, wines, or fermented malt liquors, or if such an offense shall have been compromised with the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association upon payment of penalties or otherwise, or (2) any felony under a law of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or the United States, prohibiting the manufacture, sale, importation, or transportation of distilled spirits, wine, fermented malt liquor, or other intoxicating liquor.

(e) Appeal from disapproval. In case the disapproval is by any officer other than the Commissioner, the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association giving the bond may appeal from such disapproval to the Commissioner. The disapproval of the Commissioner in any matter under this section shall be final.

(f) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2816 PLAN OF DISTILLERY—(a) Requirements. Except as provided in section 2824 (a), every distiller and person intending to engage in the business of a distiller shall, previous to the approval of his bond, cause to be made, under the direction of the collector of the district, an accurate plan and description, in triplicate, of the distillery and distilling apparatus, distinctly showing the location of every still, boiler, doubler, worm tub, and receiving cistern, the course and construction of all fixed pipes used or to be used in the distillery, and of every branch and every cock or joint thereof, and of every valve therein, together with every place, vessel, tub, or utensil from and to which any such pipe leads, or with which it communicates; also the number and location and cubic contents of every still, mash tub, and fermenting tub, the cubic contents of every receiving cistern, and the color of each fixed pipe, as required in this chapter. One copy of said plan and description shall be kept displayed in some conspicuous place in the distillery, and two copies shall be furnished to the collector of the district, one of which shall be kept by him, and the other transmitted to the Commissioner. The accuracy of every such plan and description shall be verified by the collector, the draughtsman, and the distiller; and no alteration shall be made in such distillery without the consent, in writing, of the collector. Any alteration so made shall be shown on the original, or by a supplemental plan and description, and a reference thereto noted on the original, as the collector may direct; and any supplemental plan and description shall be executed and preserved in the same manner as the original.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2817 SURVEY OF DISTILLERY—(a) Requirements. • • •

(b) Waiver of requirements. The Secretary in the case of any distillery may, under regulations, waive such of the requirements of this section as he determines may be waived without danger to the revenue. Whenever the Secretary, by authority of this subsection, waives any or all of the requirements of this section, he may, by regulation, relieve the distiller from such requirements of sections 2840 (a), 2846 (a), 2847 (a), 2849, 2850 (a), and 2851 (a), and of such other provisions of law relating or incidental to survey requirements, as the Secretary determines may be waived without danger to the revenue.

(2) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2818 NOTICE OF MANUFACTURE OF AND PERMIT TO SET UP STILL—(a) Requirement. Any person who manufactures any still, boiler, or other vessel to be used for the purpose of distilling, shall, before the same is removed from the place of manufacture, notify in writing the collector of the district in which such still, boiler, or other vessel is to be used or set up, by whom it is to be used, its capacity, and the time when the same is to be removed from the place of manufacture; and no such still, boiler, or other vessel shall be set up without the permit in writing of the said collector for that purpose; and

(b) Penalty for seting up still without permit. Any person who sets up any such still, boiler, or other vessel, without first obtaining a permit from the said collector of the district in which such still, boiler, or other vessel is intended to be used, or who fails to give such notice, shall pay in either case the sum of $500, and shall forfeit the distilling apparatus thus removed or set up in violation of law.

(c) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2819 PREMISES PROHIBITED FOR DISTILLING. No person shall use any still, boiler, or other vessel, for the purpose of distilling, in any dwelling house, or in any shed, yard, or inclosure connected with any dwelling house, or on board of any vessel or boat, or in any building, or on any premises where beer, lager beer, ale, porter, or other fermented liquors, vinegar, or ether, are manufactured or produced, or where sugars or sirups are refined, or where liquors of any description are retailed, or where any other business is carried on; or within six hundred feet in a direct line of any premises authorized to be used for rectifying, except that the Secretary is authorized to permit such use for distilling on premises at such lesser distance than six hundred feet as he prescribes, in any case in which he deems that such permission may be granted without danger to the revenue; and every person who does any of the acts prohibited by this section, or aids or assists therein, or causes or procures the same to be done, shall be fined $1,000 and imprisoned for not less than six months nor more than two years, in the discretion of the court, for each such offense: Provided, That saleratus may be manufactured, or meal or flour ground from grain, in any building or on any premises where spirits are distilled; but such meal or flour shall be used only for distillation on the premises: Provided further, That any boiler used in generating steam or heating water to be used in any distillery, may be located in any other building or on any other premises to be connected with such still or boiling tubs, by suitable pipes or other apparatus, or the steam from such boiler in the distillery may be conveyed to other premises to be used for manufacturing or other purposes.

26 U. S. C. 2820 RECEIVING CISTERNS IN DISTILLERIES—(a) Requirements. Except as provided in section 2824, the owner, agent, or superintendent of any distillery established as hereinbefore provided, shall erect, in a room or building to be provided and used for that purpose, and for no other, and to be constructed in the manner to be prescribed by the Commissioner, two or more receiving cisterns, each to be at least of sufficient capacity to hold all the spirits distilled during the day of twenty-four hours, into which shall be conveyed all the spirits produced in said distillery; and each of said cisterns shall be so constructed as to leave an open space of at least three feet between the top thereof and the floor or roof above, and of not less than eighteen inches between the bottom thereof and the floor below, and shall be so situated that the officer can pass around the same, and shall be connected with the outlet of the worm or condenser by suitable pipes or other apparatus, so constructed as always to be exposed to the view of the officer, and so connected and constructed as to prevent the abstraction of spirits while passing from the outlet of the worm or condenser back to the still or doubler, or forward to the receiving cistern. Such cisterns and the room in which they are contained shall be in charge and under the lock and seal of the storekeeper-gauger designated for that duty; and all locks and seals required by law shall be provided by the Commissioner, at the expense of the United States; and the keys shall be in charge of the collector or such storekeeper-gauger as he may designate. On the third day after the spirits are conveyed into such cistern they shall be drawn off into casks, under the supervision of such storekeeper-gauger and be removed directly to the distillery warehouse; but on special application to the collector by the owner, agent, or superintendent of any distillery, the spirits may be drawn off from said cisterns, under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger, at any time previous to the third day.

Whenever, under authority of law, the Secretary shall relieve a distiller from the survey requirements, he may, by regulation, require the distiller to provide such receiving cisterns, tanks, or such other equipment as the Secretary shall deem proper in order to protect the revenue.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2821 PENALTY FOR BREAKING LOCKS OR GAINING ACCESS TO CISTERN ROOM OR BUILDING. Every person who destroys, breaks, injures, or tampers with any lock or seal which may be placed on any cistern room or building by the duly authorized officers of the revenue, or opens said lock or seal, or the door to said cistern room or building, or in any manner gains access to the contents therein, in the absence of the proper officer, shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than one year nor more than three years.

26 U. S. C. 2822 REQUIREMENTS AS TO FURNACES, TUBS, DOUBLERS, WORM TANKS, AND FIXED PIPES—(a) Requirements. The door of the furnace of every still or boiler used in any distillery shall be so constructed that it may be securely fastened and locked. The fermenting tubs shall be so placed as to be easily accessible to any revenue officer, and each tub shall have distinctly painted thereon in oil colors its cubic contents in gallons and the number of the tub. There shall be a clear space of not less than one foot around every wood still, and not less than two feet around every doubler and worm tank. The doubler and worm tanks shall be elevated not less than one foot from the floor; and every fixed pipe to be used by the distiller, except for conveyance of water, or of spent mash or beer only, shall be so fixed and placed as to be capable of being examined by the officer for the whole of its length or course, and shall be painted, and kept painted, as follows, that is to say: every pipe for the conveyance of mash or beer shall be painted of a red color; every pipe for the conveyance of low-wines back into the still or doubler shall be painted blue; every pipe for the conveyance of spirits shall be painted black, and every pipe for the conveyance of water shall be painted white. Whenever any fixed pipe is used by any distiller which is not painted or kept painted as herein directed, or which is painted otherwise than as herein directed, he shall forfeit the sum of $1,000.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2823 CHANGES IN APPARATUS AND FASTENINGS—(a) Power of Commissioner. The Commissioner is authorized to order and require such changes of or additions to distilling apparatus, connecting pipes, pumps, or cisterns, or any machinery connected with or used in or on the distillery premises, or may require to be put on any of the stills, tubs, cisterns, pipes, or other vessels, such fastenings, locks, or seals as he may deem necessary.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2826 KEEPING DISTILLERY ACCESSIBLE—(a) Requirements. No fence or wall of a height greater than five feet shall be erected or maintained around the premises of any distillery, so as to prevent easy and immediate access to such distillery, but the Secretary may authorize the construction and maintenance of a fence or wall of such greater height than five feet as he shall prescribe in any case in which in his opinion such higher fence or wall is necessary to give adequate protection from trespassers. And every distiller shall furnish to the collector of the district as many keys of the gates and doors of the distillery as may be required by the collector, from time to time, for any revenue officer or other person who may be authorized to make survey or inspection of the premises, or of the contents thereof; and said distillery shall be kept always accessible to any officer or other person having any such key. Every person who violates any of the provisions of this subsection by negligence or refusal, or otherwise, shall pay a penalty of $500.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2827 ENTRY AND EXAMINATION OF DISTILLERY—(a) Power of revenue officers. It shall be lawful for any revenue officer at all times, as well by night as by day, to enter into any distillery or building or place used for the business of distilling, or used in connection therewith for storage or other purposes, and to examine, gauge, measure, and take an account of every still or other vessel or utensil of any kind, and of all low-wines, and of the quantity and gravity of all mash, wort, or beer, and of all yeast, or other compositions for exciting or producing fermentation in any mash or beer, of all spirits and of all materials for making or distilling spirits, which may be in any such distillery or premises, or in possession of the distiller.

And whenever any internal revenue officer, or any person called by him to his aid, is hindered, obstructed, or prevented by any distiller or by any workman, or other person acting for such distiller, or in his employ, from entering into any such distillery or building or place as aforesaid; or any such officer is by the distiller, or his workman, or any person in his employ, prevented or hindered from, or opposed, or obstructed, or molested in the performance of his duty under the internal revenue laws, in any respect, the distiller shall forfeit the sum of not exceeding $1,000.

And whenever any officer, having demanded admittance into a distillery or distillery premises, and having declared his name and office, is not admitted into such distillery, or premises by the distiller or other person having charge thereof, it shall be lawful for such officer at all times, as well by night as by day, to break open by force any of the doors or windows, or to break through any of the walls of such distillery or premises necessary to be broken open or through, to enable him to enter the said distillery or premises; and the distiller shall forfeit the sum of not exceeding $1,000.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2828 DISTILLERS AND RECTIFIERS TO FURNISH FACILITIES AND GIVE ASSISTANCE FOR EXAMINATION OF PREMISES—(a) Power of revenue officers. On the demand of any internal revenue officer or agent, every distiller or rectifier shall furnish strong, safe, and convenient ladders of sufficient length to enable the officer or agent to examine and gauge any vessel or utensil in such distillery or premises; and shall, at all times when required, supply all assistance, lights, ladders, tools, staging, or other things necessary for inspecting the premises, stock, tools, and apparatus belonging to such person, and shall open all doors, and open for examination all boxes, packages, and all casks, barrels, and other vessels not under the control of the revenue officer in charge, under a penalty of $500 for every refusal or neglect so to do.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2829 INSTALLATION OF METERS, TANKS, AND OTHER APPARATUS—(a) Power of the Commissioner. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, is authorized to require at distilleries, breweries, rectifying houses, and wherever else in his judgment such action may be deemed advisable, the installation of meters, tanks, pipes, or any other apparatus for the purpose of protecting the revenue, and such meters, tanks, and pipes and all necessary labor incident thereto shall be at the expense of the person on whose premises the installation is required. Any such person refusing or neglecting to install such apparatus when so required by the Commissioner shall not be permitted to conduct business on such premises.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2830 OFFICER'S AUTHORITY TO BREAK UP GROUNDS OR WALLS—(a) Power of revenue agent. It shall be lawful for any revenue officer, and any person acting in his aid, to break up the ground on any part of a distillery, or premises of a distiller or rectifier, or any ground adjoining or near to such distillery or premises, or any wall or partition thereof, or belonging thereto, or other place, to search for any pipe, cock, private conveyance, or utensil; and, upon finding any such pipe or conveyance leading therefrom or thereto, to break up any ground, house, wall, or other place through or into which such pipe or other conveyance leads, and to break or cut away such pipe or other conveyance, and turn any cock, or to examine whether such pipe or other conveyance conveys or conceals any mash, wort, or beer, or other liquor, which may be used for the distillation of low-wines or spirits, from the sight or view of the officer, so as to prevent or hinder him from taking a true account thereof.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2831 SIGNS OF DISTILLERS, RECTIFIERS, AND WHOLESALE LIQUOR DEALERS. Every person engaged in distilling or rectifying spirits, and every wholesale liquor dealer, shall place and keep conspicuously on the outside of the place of such business a sign, exhibiting in plain and legible letters, not less than three inches in length, painted in oil-colors or gilded, and of a proper and proportionate width, the name or firm of the distiller, rectifier, or wholesale dealer, with the words: "Registered distillery," "rectifier of spirits," or "wholesale liquor dealer," as the case may be. Every person who violates the foregoing provision by negligence or refusal, or otherwise, shall pay a penalty of $500.

And every person, other than a rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer who has paid the special tax, or a distiller who has given bond as required by law, who puts up or keeps up the sign required by this section, or any sign indicating that he may lawfully carry on the business of a distiller, rectifier, or wholesale liquor dealer, shall forfeit and pay $1,000, and shall be imprisoned not less than one month nor more than six months. And every person who works in any distillery, rectifying establishment, or wholesale liquor store, on which no sign is placed and kept, as hereinbefore provided; and every person who knowingly receives at, carries or conveys any distilled spirits to or from, any such distillery, rectifying establishment, warehouse, or store, or who knowingly carries and deliveries any grain, molasses, or other raw material to any distillery on which such sign is not placed and kept, shall forfeit all horses, carts, drays, wagons, or other vehicle or animal used in carrying or conveying such property aforesaid, and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or be imprisoned not less than one month nor more than six months.

26 U. S. C. 2832 CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO CARRYING ON BUSINESS OF DISTILLING. It shall not be lawful for any distiller to commence the business of distilling, until he has given the bond required by law, and complied with the provisions of law relating to the registration • • • of distilleries, and the arrangement and construction of distilleries and the premises connected therewith; nor shall it be lawful for any person to engage in the business of distilling on any premises distant less than six hundred feet in a direct line from any premises used for rectifying; nor shall the processes of distillation and rectification both be carried on within the distance of six hundred feet in a direct line; except that the Secretary is authorized to permit such business of distilling or process of distillation to be carried on at such lesser distance than six hundred feet as he prescribes, in any case in which he deems that such permission may be granted without danger to the revenue.

26 U. S. C. 2833 DISTILLING WITHOUT GIVING BOND—(a) Penalty and forfeiture. Any person who shall carry on the business of a distiller without having given bond as required by law, or who shall engage in or carry on the business of a distiller with intent to defraud the United States of the tax on the spirits distilled by him, or any part thereof, shall, for every such offense, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000 and imprisoned for not less than thirty days nor more than two years. And all distilled spirits or wines, and all stills or other apparatus, fit or intended to be used for the distillation or rectification of spirits, or for the compounding of liquors, owned by such person, wherever found, and all distilled spirits or wines and personal property found in the distillery or in any building, room, yard, or inclosure connected therewith, and used with or constituting a part of the premises, and all the right, title, and interest of such person in the lot or tract of land on which such distillery is situated, and all right, title, and interest therein of every person who knowingly has suffered or permitted the business of a distiller to be there carried on, or has connived at the same; and all personal property owned by or in possession of any person who has permitted or suffered any building, yard, or inclosure, or any part thereof, to be used for purposes of ingress or egress to or from such distillery, which shall be found in any such building, yard, or inclosure, and all the right, title, and interest of every person in any premises used for ingress or egress to or from such distillery, who has knowingly suffered or permitted such premises to be used for such ingress or egress, shall be forfeited to the United States.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2834 MASH, WORT, AND VINEGAR; VINEGAR FACTORIES. No mash, wort, or wash, fit for distillation or for the production of spirits or alcohol, shall be made or fermented in any building or on any premises other than a distillery duly authorized according to law; and no mash, wort, or wash so made and fermented shall be sold or removed from any distillery before being distilled; and no person, other than an authorized distiller, shall, by distillation, or by any other process, separate the alcoholic spirits from any fermented mash, wort, or wash; and no person shall use spirits or alcohol in manufacturing vinegar or any other article, or in any process of manufacture whatever, unless the spirits or alcohol so used shall have been produced in an authorized distillery and (except in the case of vinegar) the tax thereon paid. Every person who violates any provision of this section shall be fined for each offense not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to fermented liquors, or to fermented liquids used for the manufacture of vinegar exclusively. • • •

Nor shall any vinegar factory, for the manufacture of vinegar as aforesaid, be permitted, except as provided in section 2835, within six hundred feet of any distillery or rectifying house. But it shall be lawful for manufacturers of vinegar to separate, by a vaporizing process, the alcoholic property from the mash produced by them, and condense the same by introducing it into the water or other liquid used in making vinegar.

• • • • • •

26 U. S. C. 2835 VINEGAR FACTORIES OPERATED PRIOR TO MARCH 1, 1879—(a) Regulations. Any vinegar factory for the manufacture of vinegar, established and operated as a vinegar factory prior to March 1, 1879, may be operated for the manufacture of vinegar by the use of alcoholic vapor within such distance less than six hundred feet of any distillery or rectifying house under such regulations as the Commissioner may prescribe with the approval of the Secretary.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2836 PROHIBITED HOURS FOR DISTILLING. Except as provided in section 2837, no malt, corn, grain, or other material shall be mashed, nor any mash, wort, or beer brewed or made, nor any still used by a distiller, at any time between the hour of eleven in the afternoon of any Saturday and the hour of one in the forenoon of the next succeeding Monday; and every person who violates the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000.

26 U. S. C. 2838 PENALTY FOR USING MATERIAL OR REMOVING SPIRITS IN ABSENCE OF STOREKEEPER-GAUGER. Every distiller or person employed in any distillery who, in the absence of the storekeeper-gauger, or person designated to act as storekeeper-gauger, uses, or causes or permits to be used, any material for the purpose of making mash, wort, or beer, or for the production of spirits, or removes any spirits, shall forfeit and pay double the amount of taxes on the spirits so produced, distilled, or removed, and in addition thereto be liable to a penalty of $1,000.

26 U. S. C. 2839 DRAWING OFF WATER AND CLEANSING WORM TUBS—(a) Requirements. Whenever any officer or internal revenue agent requires the water contained in any worm tub in a distillery, at any time when the still is not at work, to be drawn off, and the tub and worm cleansed, the water shall forthwith be drawn off and the tub and worm cleansed by the distiller, or his workmen, accordingly; and the water shall be kept and continued out of such worm tub for the period of two hours, or until the officer or agent has finished his examination thereof. For any refusal or neglect to comply with any provision of this section, the distiller shall forfeit the sum of not exceeding $1,000; and it shall be lawful for the officer or agent to draw off such water, or any portion of it, and to keep the same drawn off for so long a time as he shall think necessary.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2841 DISTILLER'S BOOKS—(a) Entries—(1) Requirements. Every person who makes or distills spirits, or owns any still, boiler, or other vessel used for the purpose of distilling spirits or who has such still, boiler, or other vessel so used under his superintendence, either as agent or owner, or who uses any such still, boiler, or other vessel, shall keep a record, in the form and manner prescribed by the Commissioner, of the receipt on the distillery premises, and the use thereon, of materials intended for use in the distillation of spirits, and of the number of gallons of spirits distilled, the number of gallons placed in the warehouse, and the proof thereof, the number of gallons sold or removed with the proof thereof, and the name, place of business and residence of the person to whom sold.

(2) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

(b) Preservation and inspection. The books of every distiller hereinbefore required shall always be kept at the distillery and be always open to the inspection of any revenue officer, and, when filled up, shall be preserved by the distiller for a period of not less than two years thereafter, and whenever required shall be produced for the inspection of any revenue officer.

(c) Penalty and forfeiture—(1) Omitting entries or making false entries. Whenever any false entry is made in, or any entry required to be made is omitted from, either of the said books mentioned in the two preceding subsections, with intent to defraud or to conceal from the revenue officers any fact or particular required to be stated and entered in either of said books, or to mislead in reference thereto; or any distiller as aforesaid omits or refuses to provide either of said books, or cancels, obliterates, or destroys any part of either of such books, or any entry therein, with intent to defraud, or permits the same to be done, or such books, or either of them, are not produced when required by any revenue officer, the distillery, distilling apparatus, and the lot or tract of land on which it stands, and all personal property on said premises used in the business there carried on, shall be forfeited to the United States. And every person who makes such false entry, or omits to make any entry hereinbefore required to be made, with intent aforesaid, or who causes or procures the same to be done, or fraudulently cancels, obliterates, or destroys any part of said books, or any entry therein, or willfully fails to produce such books, or either of them, shall be fined not less than $500, nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months, nor more than two years.

(2) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2842 PENALTY FOR USING FALSE WEIGHTS AND MEASURES. Every person who knowingly uses any false weights or measures in ascertaining, weighing, or measuring the quantities of grain, meal, or vegetable materials, molasses, beer, or other substances to be used for distillation, shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than one year nor more than three years.

26 U. S. C. 2843 PENALTY FOR USING UNREGISTERED MATERIALS. Any person who uses any molasses, beer, or other substance, whether fermented on the premises or elsewhere, for the purpose of producing spirits, before an account of the same is registered in the proper book provided for that purpose, shall forfeit and pay the sum of $1,000 for each offense so committed.

26 U. S. C. 2844 MONTHLY PRODUCTION RETURN OF DISTILLER—(a) Requirement. On the 1st day of each month, or within five days thereafter, every distiller shall render to the collector of the district an account in duplicate, taken from his books, stating the quantity and kind of materials used for the production of spirits each day, and the number of proof gallons of spirits produced and placed in warehouse. And the distiller or the principal manager of the distillery shall make and subscribe the following oath, to be attached to said return:

"I, _____, distiller (or principal manager, as the case may be) of the distillery at _____, do solemnly swear that, since the date of the last return of the business of said distillery, dated _____ day of _____ to _____ day of _____, both inclusive, there was produced in said distillery, and withdrawn and placed in warehouse, the number of proof gallons of spirits; and there were actually mashed and used in said distillery, and consumed in the production of spirits therein, the several quantities of grain, sugar, molasses, and other materials respectively hereinbefore specified, and no more."

One of the said duplicate returns shall be transmitted by the collector to the Commissioner.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2846 ASSESSMENT FOR DEFICIENCIES IN PRODUCTION AND EXCESS OF MATERIAL USED—(a) Power of Commissioner. On the receipt of the distiller's return in each month, the Commissioner shall inquire and determine whether the distiller has accounted for all the grain or molasses used, and all the spirits produced by him in the preceding month. • • • If the Commissioner finds that the distiller has not accounted for all the spirits produced by him, he shall, from all the evidence he can obtain, determine what quantity of spirits was actually produced by such distiller, and an assessment shall be made for the difference between the quantity reported and the quantity shown to have been actually produced, at the rate of tax imposed by law for every proof gallon. • • • All assessments made under this section shall be a lien on all distilled spirits on the distillery premises, the distillery used for distilling the same, the stills, vessels, fixtures, and tools therein, the tract of land whereon the said distillery is located, and any building thereon from the time such assessment is made until the same shall have been paid.

(b) Cross references—• • •

(2) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2850 SUSPENSION AND RESUMPTION OF DISTILLING—(a) Requirements. Any distiller desiring to suspend work in his distillery may give notice in writing to the collector of the district, stating when he will suspend work; and on the day mentioned in said notice said collector or one of his deputies shall, at the expense of the distiller, proceed to fasten securely the door of every furnace of every still or boiler in said distillery, by locks and otherwise, and shall adopt such other means as the Commissioner may prescribe to prevent the lighting of any fire in such furnace or under such stills or boilers. The locks and seals, and other materials required for such purpose, shall be furnished to the collector by the Commissioner, to be duly accounted for by said collector. Such notice by any distiller, and the action taken by the collector in pursuance thereof, shall be immediately transmitted to the Commissioner. No distiller, after having given such notice, shall, after the time stated therein, carry on the business of a distiller on said premises until he gives another notice in writing to said collector, stating the time when he will resume work; and at the time so stated for resuming work the collector or one of his deputies shall attend at the distillery to remove said locks and other fastenings; and thereupon, and not before, work may be resumed in said distillery, which fact shall be immediately reported to the collector of the district, and by him transmitted to the Commissioner.

Every distiller who, after the time fixed in said notice declaring his intention to suspend work, carries on the business of a distiller on said premises, or has mash, wort, or beer in his distillery, or on any premises connected therewith or has in his possession or under his control any mash, wort, or beer, with intent to distill the same on said premises, shall incur the forfeitures and be subject to the same punishment as provided for persons who carry on the business of a distiller without having given the bonds required by law.

But nothing in this section shall be held to apply to suspensions caused by unavoidable accident; and the Commissioner shall prescribe regulations to govern such cases of involuntary suspension.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2851 REDUCTION OF PRODUCING CAPACITY OF DISTILLERY—(a) Requirements. Whenever any distiller desires to reduce the producing capacity of his distillery, he shall give notice of such intention, in writing, to the collector, stating the quantity of spirits which he desires thereafter to manufacture or produce every twenty-four hours • • •

And every person who breaks, injures, or in any manner tampers with any lock, seal, or other fastening applied to any furnace, still, • • • or other vessel, in pursuance of the provisions of law, or who opens or attempts to open any door, • • • or other vessel, which is locked or sealed, or otherwise closed or fastened as herein provided, or who uses any furnace, still • • • or other vessel, which is so locked, sealed, or fastened, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than three years.

Every rectifier and wholesale liquor dealer who refuses or neglects to render transcripts or summaries in the form required by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $100 for each such neglect or refusal.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2857 BOOKS OF RECTIFIERS AND WHOLESALER DEALERS — (a) Requirements. Every rectifier and every wholesale liquor dealer who sells, or offers for sale, distilled spirits in quantities of five wine-gallons or more to the same person at the same time shall keep daily, at his place of business covered by his special tax stamp, a record of distilled spirits received and disposed of by him, and shall render under oath correct transcripts and summaries of such records: Provided, That the Commissioner may in his discretion require such record to be kept at the place where the spirits are actually received and sent out. The records shall be kept and the transcripts shall be rendered in such form, and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

The records required to be kept under the provisions of this section and regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall be preserved for a period of four years, and during such period shall be available during business hours for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by the Commissioner or any internal revenue officer.

Every rectifier and wholesale liquor dealer who refuses or neglects to keep such records in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, or to make entries therein, or cancels, alters, or obliterates any entry therein (except for the purpose of correcting errors) or destroys any part of such records, or any entry therein, or makes any false entry therein, or hinders or obstructs any internal revenue officer from inspecting such records or taking any abstracts therefrom, or neglects or refuses to preserve or produce such records as required by this chapter or by regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall pay a penalty of $100 and, on conviction, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than three years.

Every distiller who refuses or neglects to keep such records in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, or to make entries therein, or cancels, alters, or obliterates any entry therein (except for the purpose of correcting errors) or destroys any part of such records, or any entry therein, or makes any false entry therein, or hinders or obstructs any internal revenue officer from inspecting such records or taking any abstracts therefrom, or neglects or refuses to preserve or produce such records as required by this chapter or by regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall pay a penalty of $100 and, on conviction, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than three years.

Every distiller who refuses or neglects to render the transcripts or summaries in the form as required by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $100 for each such neglect or refusal.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2859 BOOKS OF DISTILLERS AS WHOLESALE DEALERS—(a) Requirement. Every distiller shall keep daily a record of distilled spirits of his own production disposed of by him, and shall render under oath correct transcripts and summaries of such records. The records shall be kept and the transcripts shall be rendered in such form, and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

The records required to be kept under the provisions of this section and regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall be preserved for a period of four years, and during such period shall at all times be available, during business hours, for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by the Commissioner or any internal revenue officer.

Every distiller who refuses or neglects to keep such records in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, or to make entries therein, or cancels, alters, or obliterates any entry therein (except for the purpose of correcting errors) or destroys any part of such records, or any entry therein, or makes any false entry therein, or hinders or obstructs any internal revenue officer from inspecting such records or taking any abstracts therefrom, or neglects or refuses to preserve or produce such records as required by this chapter or by regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall pay a penalty of $100 and, on conviction, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than three years.

Every distiller who refuses or neglects to render the transcripts or summaries in the form as required by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $100 for each such neglect or refusal.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2866 EFFACEMENT OF STAMPS AND BRANDS ON EMPTIED PACKAGES. Every person who empties or draws off, or causes to be emptied or drawn off, any distilled spirits from a cask or package bearing any mark, brand, or stamp, required by law, shall at the time of emptying such cask or package, efface and obliterate said mark, stamp, or brand. Every such cask or package from which said mark, brand, or stamp is not effaced and obliterated as herein required, shall be forfeited to the United States, and may be seized by any officer of internal revenue, wherever found. And every railroad company or other transportation company, or person who receives or transports, or has in possession with intent to transport, or with intent to cause or procure to be transported, any such empty cask or package, or any part thereof, having thereon any brand, mark, or stamp, required by law to be placed on any cask or package containing distilled spirits, shall forfeit $300 for each such cask or package, or any part thereof, so received or transported, or had in possession with the intent aforesaid; and every boat, railroad car, cart, dray, wagon, or other vehicle, and all horses and other animals used in carrying or transporting the same, shall be forfeited to the United States. Every person who fails to efface and obliterate said mark, stamp, or brand, at the time of emptying such cask or package, or who receives any such cask or package, or any part thereof, with the intent aforesaid, or who transports the same, or knowingly aids or assists therein, or who removes any stamp provided by law from any cask or package containing, or which had contained, distilled spirits, without defacing and destroying the same at the time of such removal, or who aids or assists therein, or who has in his possession any such stamp so removed as aforesaid, or has in his possession any canceled stamp, or any stamp which has been used, or which purports to have been used, upon any cask or package of distilled spirits, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $10,000, and imprisoned not less than one year nor more than five years.

26 U. S. C. 2870 PROHIBITED HOURS FOR REMOVAL OF SPIRITS. No person shall remove any distilled spirits at any other time than after sun-rising and before sun-setting in any cask or package containing more than ten gallons from any premises or building in which the same may have been distilled, redistilled, rectified, compounded, manufactured, or stored; and every person who violates this provision shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each cask, barrel, or package of spirits so removed; and said spirits, together with any vessel containing the same, and any horse, cart, boat, or other conveyance used in the removal thereof, shall be forfeited to the United States.

26 U. S. C. 2877 STOREKEEPER-GAUGER'S RECORDS—(a) Requirement. The storekeeper-gauger assigned to any distillery shall, in addition to all other duties required to be performed by him, keep such records and submit such reports as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall, by regulations, prescribe.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2878 DRAWING, GAUGING, AND MARKING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS—(a) General rule. Except as provided in section 2883, all distilled spirits shall be drawn from receiving cisterns into casks or packages and thereupon shall be gauged, proved, and marked by a storekeeper-gauger, and immediately removed into an internal revenue bonded warehouse. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, is hereby empowered to prescribe all necessary regulations relating to the drawing off, gauging, and packaging of distilled spirits; the marking, branding, numbering, and stamping of such packages; and the transfer and transportation to, and the storage of such spirits in, internal revenue bonded warehouses.

(b) In wooden packages containing metallic cans for export. Upon the application of the distiller and under such regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, distilled spirits may be drawn into wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans, which cans shall each have a capacity of not less than five gallons, wine measure. Such packages shall be filled and used only for exportation from the United States. And there shall be charged for each of said packages or cases for the expense of providing and affixing stamps, 5 cents.

(c) Standards of fill. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may, by regulations, prescribe the standards of fill of casks or packages of distilled spirits at each distillery.

(d) Marking and branding by distiller. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may, by regulations, from time to time, require a distiller, at his expense and under the immediate personal supervision of a storekeeper-gauger, to do such marking and branding and such mechanical labor pertaining to gauging required under this section as the Commissioner deems proper and determines may be done without danger to the revenue.

(e) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2879 DEPOSITS OF SPIRITS IN WAREHOUSES—(a) Entry for deposit. The distillers of all spirits removed to an internal revenue bonded warehouse shall enter the same for deposit in such warehouse, under such regulations as the Commissioner may prescribe. Said entry shall be in such form as the Commissioner shall prescribe.

• • • • •

26 U. S. C. 2883 TRANSFER OF SPIRITS AT REGISTERED DISTILLERIES—(a) Requirements. Subject to the provisions of existing law, spirits of one hundred and sixty degrees of proof or more produced at registered distilleries, including registered fruit distilleries (such registered distilleries and registered fruit distilleries being referred to hereafter as "distillery" or "distilleries"), may be transferred by means of pipe lines from receiving cisterns in the distillery direct to storage tanks in the internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the bonded premises where produced or located contiguous thereto, and be warehoused in such storage tanks, or they may be withdrawn from the receiving cisterns, without, or after reduction in proof, into approved containers and transferred to any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage therein, or they may be tax-paid in such approved containers in the cistern rooms of distilleries without being entered into an internal revenue bonded warehouse. Such spirits may be drawn into approved containers from storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse. Spirits of one hundred and sixty degrees of proof, or more, may be transferred in bond in tank cars from cistern rooms of distilleries or from storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse and be deposited in storage tanks in any internal revenue bonded warehouse. Such spirits in tanks in internal revenue bonded warehouses distilled at or above one hundred and ninety degrees of proof may be reduced to not less than one hundred and eleven degrees prior to being drawn into packages. Such spirits, upon tax payment, may be withdrawn in approved containers, including pipe lines to contiguous premises, for use for beverage purposes only. Except as provided in subsection (c) hereof and section 2916, such spirits may not be withdrawn for denaturation.

(c) Transfer of rum for denaturation. Rum of not less than one hundred and fifty degrees of proof may be transferred by pipe line for denaturation from receiving cisterns in the cistern room of any distillery to a denaturing bonded warehouse on the distillery premises or to storage tanks situated in the internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises, or from such storage tanks to a denaturing bonded warehouse on the distillery premises.

(d) Transfer of gin. Gin of any proof may be transferred in bond by means of pipe lines from receiving cisterns in distilleries direct to storage tanks in the internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the bonded premises where produced, or located contiguous thereto, and be warehoused in such storage tanks. Such gin may, upon tax payment, be transferred by pipe line to a contiguous tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant.

(e) Redistillation of spirits. Distilled spirits of any proof may be transferred from a distillery or an internal revenue bonded warehouse to any distillery for redistillation upon a showing of the need therefor: Provided, That only spirits of one hundred and sixty degrees of proof or more may be transferred by pipe line to a distillery for redistillation from storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on such distillery premises or located contiguous thereto: Provided further, That spirits of any proof may be transferred by pipe line for redistillation from receiving tanks in a distillery to a contiguous distillery. Upon removal of distilled spirits to any distillery for redistillation, the consignee distiller shall assume the liability for the payment of the tax on the spirits from the time they leave the internal revenue bonded warehouse or distillery, and the tax liability on the producing distiller or the internal revenue bonded warehouseman, and the liens on the premises of the producing distiller shall cease, and the tax and liens shall become the liability of the consignee distiller: Provided further, That upon redistillation the redistilled spirits shall be treated the same as if the spirits had been originally produced by the redistiller and all prior obligations as to taxes and liens shall be superseded. Sections 2800 (a) (5) and 3250 (f) (1) shall not apply to the redistillation of spirits removed under the provisions of this section.

(f) Regulations. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, is hereby empowered to prescribe all necessary regulations relating to the drawing off, transferring, gauging, storing, redistillation, and transportation of the spirits; the records to be kept and returns to be made; the size and kind of containers to be used; the marking, branding, numbering, and stamping of such containers; and the kind of bond and the penal sum thereof.

(g) Effect on other laws. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as restricting or limiting the provisions of other sections of the internal-revenue laws relating to internal revenue bonded warehouses, distilleries, and bonded wineries.

(h) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2885 EXPORTATION OF SPIRITS WITHDRAWN FROM WAREHOUSES—(a) Entries, bonds, and bills of lading. Distilled spirits may be withdrawn from internal revenue bonded warehouses, at the instance of the owner of the spirits, for exportation in the original casks or packages, without the payment of tax, under such regulations, and after making such entries and executing and filing with the collector of the district from which the removal is to be made such bonds and bills of lading, and giving such other additional security as may be prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, and bonds given under this section shall be canceled under such regulations as the Secretary shall prescribe. The bonds required to be given for the exportation of distilled spirits shall be canceled upon the presentation of satisfactory proof and certificates that said distilled spirits have been landed at the port of destination named in the bill of lading, or upon satisfactory proof that after shipment the same were lost at sea without fault or neglect of the owner or shipper hereof.

(b) Marks, stamps, and permits. All distilled spirits intended for export, as aforesaid, before being removed from the internal revenue bonded warehouse, shall be marked as the Commissioner may prescribe, and shall have affixed to each cask an engraved stamp indicative of such intention, to be provided and furnished by the several collectors as in the case of other stamps, and to be charged to them and accounted for in the same manner, and for the expense attending the providing and affixing such stamps 10 cents for each package so stamped shall be paid to the collector on making the entry for such transportation. When the owner of the spirits shall have made the proper entries, filed the bonds, and otherwise complied with all the requirements of the law and regulations as herein provided, the collector shall issue to him a permit for the removal and transportation of said spirits to the collector of the port from which the same are to be exported, accurately describing the spirits to be shipped, the amount of tax thereon, the State and district from which the same is to be shipped, the name of the distiller by whom distilled, the port to which the same are to be transported, the name of the collector of the port to whom the spirits are to be consigned, and the routes over which they are to be sent to the port of shipment. Such shipments shall be made over bonded routes whenever practicable. The collector of the port shall receive such spirits, and permit the exportation thereof, under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed for the exportation of spirits upon which the tax has been paid.

(c) Metallic cans in wooden packages. For authority of distiller to draw distilled spirits into wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans, for exportation only, see section 2878 (b).

(d) Penalties and forfeitures. • • •

(2) Unlawful relanding. Every person who intentionally relands within the jurisdiction of the United States any distilled spirits which have been shipped for exportation under the provisions of this chapter, or who receives such relanded distilled spirits, and every person who aids or abets in such relanding or receiving of such spirits, shall be fined not exceeding $5,000 and imprisoned not more than three years; and all distilled spirits so relanded, together with the vessel from which the same were relanded within the jurisdiction of the United States, and all boats, vehicles, horses, or other animals used in relanding and removing such distilled spirits, shall be forfeited to the United States.

(e) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2888 TRANSFER OF SPIRITS INTO TANK CARS FOR EXPORT—(a) Requirement. Under such regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, alcohol or other distilled spirits of a proof strength of not less than one hundred and eighty degrees intended for export free of tax may be drawn from receiving cisterns at any distillery, or from storage tanks in any internal revenue bonded warehouse, for transfer to tanks or tank cars for export from the United States, and all provisions of law relating to the exportation of distilled spirits not inconsistent herewith shall apply to spirits removed for export under the provisions of this section.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 2901 LOSS ALLOWANCES—(a) Extent. No tax shall be collected in respect of distilled spirits lost or destroyed while in bond, except that such tax shall be collected—

(1) Theft. In the case of loss by theft unless the Commissioner shall find that the theft occurred without connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the distiller, warehouseman, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees of any of them; and

(2) Voluntary destruction. In the case of voluntary destruction unless the distilled spirits were unfit for use for beverage purposes and the distiller, warehouseman, or other person responsible for the tax, obtained the written permission of the Commissioner for such destruction in each case.

(b) Proof of loss. In any case in which spirits are lost or destroyed, whether by theft or otherwise, the Commissioner may require the distiller or warehouseman or other person responsible for the tax to file a claim for relief from the tax and submit proof as to the cause of such loss. In every case where it appears that the loss was by theft, the burden shall be upon the distiller or warehouseman or other person responsible for the tax to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such loss did not occur as the result of connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the distiller, warehouseman, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees of any of them.

(c) Refund of tax. When, in any case where the tax would not be collectible by virtue of subsection (a), but such tax has been paid, the Commissioner shall refund such tax. Nothing in section 2901 as hereby amended, or as heretofore amended, shall be construed to authorize refund of the tax where the loss occurred after the tax was paid.

(d) Insurance coverage. The abatement or refund of taxes provided for by subsections (a) and (c) in the case of loss of distilled spirits by theft shall only be allowed to the extent that the claimant is not indemnified against or recompensed for such loss.

(e) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

• • • • •

26 U. S. C. 2916 REMOVAL FOR DENATURATION OR DESTRUCTION OF DISTILLATES CONTAINING ALDEHYDES OR FUSEL OIL—(a) Power of Commissioner. Under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, distillers may collect, in locked tanks, distillates containing one-half of 1 per centum or more of aldehydes or 1 per centum or more of fusel oil (heads and tails) removed in the course of distillation. The distillates so collected may, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, be removed from such distillery for denaturation or be destroyed in the manner prescribed by the Commissioner, under the supervision of an internal revenue officer to be designated by the Commissioner, and when so denatured or destroyed shall not be subject to the tax imposed by law upon distilled spirits. • • •

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 3170 TRANSFER AND DELEGATION OF POWERS. The Secretary is authorized to confer and impose upon the Commissioner and any of his assistants, agents, or employees, and upon any other officer, employee, or agent of the Treasury Department, any of the rights, privileges, powers, duties, and protection conferred or imposed upon the Secretary, or any officer or employee of the Treasury Department, by any law now or hereafter in force relating to the taxation, exportation, transportation, manufacture, possession, or use of, or traffic in, distilled spirits, wine, fermented liquors, or denatured alcohol.

26 U. S. C. 3171 RECORDS, STATEMENTS, AND RETURNS—(a) Requirements. Every person liable to any tax imposed by this chapter, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations, as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may from time to time prescribe.

(b) TRANSFER OF DUTIES. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 3173 PENALTIES AND FORFEITURES—(a) Removal or transportation of liquors or wines under improper brands. Whenever any person ships, transports or removes any spirituous or fermented liquors or wines, under any other than the proper name or brand known to the trade as designating the kind and quality of the contents of the casks or packages containing the same, or causes such act to be done, he shall forfeit said liquors or wines, and casks or packages, and be subject to pay a fine of $500.

(b) Other violations. (1) Any person required to pay, or to collect, account for and pay over any tax on distilled spirits, wines, or fermented malt liquors, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return or supply any information for the purposes of the computation, assessment or collection of any such tax, who fails to pay, collect, or truly account for and pay over any such tax, make any such return or supply any such information at the time or times required by law or regulation shall in addition to other penalties provided by law be subject to a penalty of not more than $1,000.

(2) Any person who willfully refuses to pay, collect, or truly account for and pay over any such tax, make such return or supply such information at the time or times required by law or regulation, or who willfully attempts in any manner to evade such tax shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and in addition to other penalties provided by law shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(3) Any person who willfully refuses to pay, collect, or truly account for and pay over any such tax shall in addition to other penalties provided by law be liable to a penalty of the amount of the tax evaded, or not paid, collected, or accounted for and paid over, to be assessed and collected in the same manner as taxes are assessed and collected: Provided, however, That no penalty shall be assessed under this paragraph for any offense for which a penalty may be assessed under authority of section 3612, or of section 2801 (f) or 3043, or for any offense for which a penalty has been recovered under section 2806 (e).

(4) The term "person" as used in this subsection includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

26 U. S. C. 3175 OTHER LAWS APPLICABLE. All administrative, special, or stamp provisions of law, including the law relating to the assessment of taxes, so far as applicable, shall be extended to and made a part of this chapter.

26 U. S. C. 3176 RULES AND REGULATIONS—(a) Power of Commissioner. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this chapter.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 3180 DISTILLERIES ERECTED PRIOR TO JULY 20 1868—(a) Requirements. In any case where the owner of a distillery or distilling apparatus, erected prior to July 20, 1868, has only an estate for a term of years or other estate less than fee-simple in the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the evidence of title to which shall have been duly recorded prior to that date; or in like case, where the lease or other evidence of title is held but was not required by the laws of the State to be recorded in order to be valid at the time of its execution; or in any case of such prior erection where the title was then, and has continued to be, in litigation; or in any case of such prior erection where such owner is possessed of the fee, but encumbered with a mortgage executed and duly recorded prior to July 20, 1868, and not due, or in any case of such prior erection where the fee is held by a femme-covert, minor, person of unsound mind, or other person incapable of giving consent, as required in section 2815 (b) (1) (B), the value of such lot or tract of land, together with the building and distilling apparatus, shall be appraised in the manner to be prescribed by the Commissioner pursuant to section 2815 (b) (1) (C); and the officer designated by the Commissioner may, at the discretion of the Commissioner, be authorized to accept, in lieu of the said written consent, the bond of such distiller, in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe, with not less than two personal sureties or one corporate surety, conditioned that in case the distillery, distilling apparatus, or any part thereof, shall by final judgment be forfeited for the violation of any of the provisions of law, the obligors shall pay the amount stated in said bond. Said sureties shall be residents of the collection district or county, or of an adjoining county in the same State in which the distillery is situated, and owners of unencumbered real estate in said district or county, or adjoining county, equal to such appraised value, and the penal sum of said bond shall be equal to the appraised value of said lot or tract of land together with the buildings and distilling apparatus.

(b) Bond. The officer designated by the Commissioner may at any time, at the discretion of the Commissioner, accept such bond as is authorized to be given by the distiller in lieu of the written consent of the owner of the fee in the case of a distillery erected prior to July 20, 1868, notwithstanding such distillery has since then been increased by the addition of land or buildings adjacent or contiguous thereto, not owned by the distiller himself in fee; such bond to be for and in respect of such addition only, if the distillery be one which the distiller owns in fee or in respect to which he has procured the written consent of the owner of the fee or other encumbrance, otherwise to be for and in respect of the entire distillery as increased by such addition.

(c) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 3250 TAX—(a) Wholesale dealers in liquors—(1) In general. Wholesale dealers in liquors shall pay a special tax of $110.

• • • • •

(4) Distillers selling at wholesale. No distiller who has given the required bond and who sells only distilled spirits of his own production at the place of manufacture, or at the place of storage in bond, in the original packages to which the taxpaid stamps are affixed, shall be required to pay the special tax of a wholesale dealer in liquors on account of such sales.

• • • • •

(b) Wholesale dealer in liquors. Except as otherwise provided, every person who sells, or offers for sale, foreign or domestic distilled spirits, wines, or malt liquors in quantities of five wine-gallons or more to the same person at the same time, shall be regarded as a wholesale dealer in liquors: Provided, That the Commissioner may, by regulations, with the approval of the Secretary, provide for the issuance of a stamp denoting payment of such special tax as a "wholesale dealer in wines" or a "wholesale dealer in wines and malt liquors" if, as the case may be, wines only, or wines and malt liquors only, are sold by a wholesale dealer in liquors.

(g) Rectifier. Every person who rectifies, purifies, or refines distilled spirits or wines by any process other than by original and continuous distillation from mash, wort, or wash, through continuous closed vessels and pipes, until the manufacture thereof is complete, and every wholesale or retail liquor dealer who has in his possession any still or leach tub, or who keeps any other apparatus for the purpose of refining in any manner distilled spirits, and every person who, without rectifying, purifying, or refining distilled spirits, shall, by mixing such spirits, wine, or other liquor with any material, manufacture any spurious, imitation, or compound liquors for sale, under the name of whisky, brandy, gin, rum, wine, spirits, cordials, or wine bitters, or any other name, shall be regarded as a rectifier, and as being engaged in the business of rectifying: Provided, That nothing in this subsection or section 3250 (f) (1) shall be held to prohibit the purifying or refining of spirits in the course of original and continuous distillation through any material which will not remain incorporated with such spirits when the manufacture thereof is complete.

(h) Manufacturer of stills. Any person who manufactures any still or worm to be used in distilling shall be deemed a manufacturer of stills.

26 U. S. C. 3270 REGISTRATION—(a) Requirements. Every person engaged in any trade or business on which a special tax is imposed by law shall register with the collector of the district his name or style, place of residence, trade or business, and the place where such trade or business is to be carried on. In case of a firm or company, the names of the several persons constituting the same, and the places of residence, shall be so registered.

* * * * *

26 U. S. C. 3271 PAYMENT OF TAX—(a) Condition precedent to doing business. No person shall be engaged in or carry on any trade or business mentioned in this chapter until he has paid a special tax therefor in the manner provided in this chapter.

(b) Due date. All special taxes shall become due on the 1st day of July in each year, or on commencing any trade or business on which such tax is imposed. In the former case the tax shall be reckoned for one year, and in the latter case it shall be reckoned proportionately, from the 1st day of the month in which the liability to a special tax commenced, to and including the 30th day of June following.

(c) How paid—(1) Stamp. All special taxes imposed by law, including the tax on stills or worms, shall be paid by stamps denoting the tax.

(2) Assessment. For authority of Commissioner to make assessments where the special taxes have not been duly paid by stamp, at the time and in the manner provided by law, see section 3640.

26 U. S. C. 3272 RETURNS—(a) Time for filing. It shall be the duty of the special taxpayers to render their returns with remittances to the collector at such times within the calendar month in which the special tax liability commenced as shall enable him to receive such returns, duly signed and verified, together with the remittances, not later than the last day of the month, except in cases of sickness or absence, as provided for in section 3634.

(b) Transfer of duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents in case of narcotics and liquor, see subchapter D of chapter 23 and section 3170.

(c) Penalties. For penalties imposed for failure to file returns or for making false or fraudulent returns, see section 3612.

26 U. S. C. 3300 ESTABLISHMENT AND ALTERATION—(a) Authorization. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish and, from time to time, alter or change the form, style, character, material, and device of any stamp, mark, or label used under any provision of the laws relating to internal revenue.

(b) Application of penalty and forfeiture provisions. All pains, penalties, fines, and forfeitures provided by law relating to internal revenue stamps shall apply to and have full force and effect in relation to any and all stamps so established by the Commissioner.

26 U. S. C. 3301 ATTACHMENT AND CANCELLATION—(a) General authority to prescribe methods and instruments. The stamps referred to in the preceding section shall be attached, protected, removed, canceled, obliterated, and destroyed, in such manner and by such instruments or other means as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary may prescribe; and he is authorized and empowered to make, with the approval of the Secretary, all needful regulations relating thereto.

26 U. S. C. 3656 PAYMENT BY CHECK AND MONEY ORDERS—(a) Certified, cashiers', and treasurers' checks and money orders—(1) Authority to receive. It shall be lawful for collectors to receive for internal revenue taxes or in payment of stamps to be used in payment of internal revenue taxes certified, cashiers', and treasurers' checks drawn on National and State banks and trust companies, and United States postal, bank, express, and telegraph money orders, during such time and under such regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

(2) Discharge of liability—(A) Check duly paid. No person who may be indebted to the United States on account of internal revenue taxes or stamps used or to be used in payment of internal revenue taxes who shall have tendered a certified, cashier's, or treasurer's check or money order as provisional payment therefor, in accordance with the terms of this subsection, shall be released from the obligation to make ultimate payment thereof until such certified, cashier's or treasurer's check or money order so received has been duly paid.

(B) Check unpaid. If any such check or money order so received is not duly paid, the United States shall, in addition to its right to exact payment from the party originally indebted therefor, have a lien for the amount of such check upon all the assets of the bank on which drawn or for the amount of such money order upon all the assets of the issuer thereof; and such amount shall be paid out of its assets in preference to any or all other claims whatsoever against said bank or issuer except the necessary costs and expenses of administration and the reimbursement of the United States for the amount expended in the redemption of the circulating notes of such bank.

(b) Other checks—(1) Authority to receive. Collectors may receive checks in addition to those specified in subsection (a) in payment of taxes other than those payable by stamp during such time and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe.

(2) Ultimate liability. If a check so received is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn the person by whom such check has been tendered shall remain liable for the payment of the tax and for all legal penalties and additions to the same extent as if such check had not been tendered.

26 U. S. C. 3791 RULES AND REGULATIONS—(a) Authorization—(1) In general. Except as provided in section 1928 (a), Cotton Futures, section 2599, Marihuana, section 2559, Narcotics, section 3176, Liquor, and section 1805, Silver, the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this title.

(2) In case of change in law. The Commissioner may make all such regulations, not otherwise provided for, as may have become necessary by reason of any alteration of law in relation to internal revenue.

(b) Retroactivity of regulations or rulings. The Secretary, or the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe the extent, if any, to which any ruling, regulation, or Treasury Decision, relating to the internal revenue laws, shall be applied without retroactive effect.

26 U. S. C. 3809 VERIFICATION OF RETURNS; PENALTIES OF PERJURY—(a) Penalties. Any person who willfully makes and subscribes any return, statement, or other document, which contains or is verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, and which he does not believe to be true and correct as to every material matter, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

(b) Signature presumed correct. The fact that an individual's name is signed to a return, statement, or other document filed shall be prima facie evidence for all purposes that the return, statement, or other document was actually signed by him.

(c) Verification in lieu of oath. The Commissioner, under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary, may require that any return, statement, or other document required to be filed under any provision of the internal revenue laws shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, and such declaration shall be in lieu of any oath otherwise required.

26 U. S. C. 4017 DAILY GAUGING RETURN—(a) Requirement. Every storekeeper-gauger shall, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner, make a daily return to the collector of his district giving a true account in detail of all articles gauged and proved or inspected by him, and for whom, and the number and kind of stamps used by him.

(b) Transfer of powers and duties. For transfer of powers and duties of Commissioner and his agents, in respect to liquor, see section 3170.

26 U. S. C. 4041 ISSUE OF INSTRUCTIONS, REGULATIONS, AND FORMS—(a) In general. The Secretary shall prescribe forms of entries, oaths, bonds, and other papers, and rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, to be used under and in the execution and enforcement of the various provisions of the internal revenue laws; and he shall give such directions to collectors and prescribe such rules and forms to be observed by them as may be necessary for the proper execution of the law.

(b) Receipt of United States securities. For authority of the Secretary to issue instructions and regulations governing the receipt by collectors and others of United States securities, see R. S. 251 (U. S. C., Title 31, section 427).

SUBPART A—SCOPE OF REGULATIONS

§ 183.1 Production and removal of distilled spirits. These regulations "Regulations 4, Production of Distilled Spirits" (26 CFR Part 183), contain the procedural and substantive requirements relative to the production of distilled spirits and the removal thereof from the distillery. The regulations cover the location, construction, equipment, action by the district supervisor and Commissioner; control and supervision of the distillery, production and removal of distilled spirits; and concern the sale, shipment, losses, records and reports, of distilled spirits.

SUBPART B—DEFINITIONS

§ 183.5 Meaning of terms. As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meanings ascribed in this subpart.

§ 183.6 Approved containers. "Approved containers" shall mean casks, barrels, or similar wooden packages or drums or similar metal packages having a capacity of not less than 10 gallons each, provided that for the withdrawal of samples for laboratory analysis, "approved containers" shall mean any container of less than 10 gallons capacity. The term "approved containers" shall also mean railroad tank cars, tank trucks, and pipe lines where specifically stated in this part.

§ 183.7 Beer. "Beer" shall mean the fermented mash of grain, molasses, or other materials produced for distillation.

§ 183.8 Brandy. "Brandy" shall mean the distillate obtained from the materials specified in section 2825, I. R. C., or from other fruits authorized by the Commissioner, and from the products and residues of such materials, and shall include neutral spirits—fruit and spirits—fruit, except where otherwise indicated, but shall not include distillates containing one-half of 1 percent or more of aldehydes or 1 percent or more of fusel oil.

§ 183.9 Collector. "Collector" shall mean Collector of Internal Revenue.

§ 183.10 Commissioner. "Commissioner" shall mean the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

§ 183.11 Distilled spirits. "Distilled spirits" shall mean that substance produced by the distillation of fermented grain, molasses, or other materials, commonly known as spirits, whisky, rum, gin, brandy, etc., but shall not include alcohol.

§ 183.12 Distiller. "Distiller" shall mean the proprietor of the distillery.

§ 183.13 Distillery. "Distillery" shall mean that part of the distillery premises described in the distiller's notice, Form 27–A, where the distilled spirits are produced.

§ 183.14 Distillery premises. "Distillery premises" shall mean the lot or tract of land described in the distiller's notice, Form 27–A, and the distillery and other buildings and fixtures situated on and constituting a part of such lot or tract of land.

§ 183.15 District supervisor or supervisor. "District supervisor" or "supervisor" shall mean the person having charge of a supervisory district of the Alcohol Tax Unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

§ 183.16 Fruit distillery. "Fruit distillery" or "registered fruit distillery" shall mean a distillery established or operated under the regulations (26 CFR Part 184) governing the production of brandy under the exemptions from law provided pursuant to section 2825, I. R. C.

§ 183.17 Gallon. "Gallon" or "wine gallon" shall mean a United States gallon of liquid measure equivalent to the volume of 231 cubic inches.

§ 183.18 Heads and tails. "Heads" and "tails" shall mean distillates containing one-half of 1 percent or more of aldehydes or 1 percent or more of fusel oil.

§ 183.19 Including. The word "including" shall not be deemed to exclude things other than those enumerated which are in the same general class.

§ 183.20 Inclusive language. Words in the plural form shall include the singular, and vice versa, and words in the masculine gender shall include females, associations, copartnerships, and corporations.

§ 183.21 I. R. C. "I. R. C." shall mean the Internal Revenue Code.

§ 183.22 Laboratory analysis. "Laboratory analysis," shall mean the determination of the composition of distilled spirits by chemical, physical, or organoleptic examination.

§ 183.23 Person, proprietor, or distiller. "Person," "proprietor," or "distiller," shall include natural persons, associations, copartnerships, and corporations.

§ 183.24 Proof. "Proof," shall mean the ethyl alcohol content of a liquid at 60° Fahrenheit, stated as twice the percent of ethyl alcohol by volume.

§ 183.26 Proof gallon. "Proof gallon," shall mean the alcoholic equivalent of a United States gallon at 60° Fahrenheit, containing 50 percent of ethyl alcohol by volume.

§ 183.27 Proof spirits. "Proof spirits," shall mean that alcoholic liquor which contains 50 percent of ethyl alcohol by volume at 60° Fahrenheit and which has a specific gravity of 0.93418 in air at 60° Fahrenheit referred to water at 60° Fahrenheit as unity.

§ 183.28 Registered distillery. "Registered distillery," shall mean a distillery established or operated under this part.

§ 183.29 Secretary. "Secretary," shall mean the Secretary of the Treasury.

§ 183.30 Slop or spent beer. "Slop," or "spent beer," shall mean the residue that is left after distillation of the beer or fermented mash.

§ 183.31 Spirits. "Spirits," shall mean distilled spirits as defined in this subpart.

§ 183.32 Tank car: "Tank car," shall mean a railroad tank car conforming to the requirements of this part.

§ 183.33 Tax gallon. "Tax gallon" is the unit of distilled spirits upon which the rate of tax prescribed by law is imposed. When spirits are 100 degrees of proof or more, the tax rate is imposed on the proof gallon. When spirits are less than 100 degrees of proof, it is imposed on the wine-gallon.

§ 183.34 U. S. C. "U. S. C." shall mean the United States Code.

SUBPART C—LOCATION

§ 183.40 Restrictions. Distilleries may not be located in any dwelling house or in any shed, yard, or enclosure connected with any dwelling house, or on board any vessel or boat, or in any building or on any premises where beer, lager beer, ale, porter, or other fermented liquors, vinegar, or ether is manufactured or produced, or where sugars or sirups are refined, or where liquors of any description are retailed, or where any other business is carried on, or within 600 feet in a direct line of a vinegar factory using the vaporizing process, or, except as provided by this part, within 600 feet in a direct line of any premises authorized to be used for rectifying: Provided, That saleratus may be manufactured, or meal or flour ground from grain on the distillery premises, but such meal or flour must be used only for distillation on such premises.

§ 183.41 Within 600 feet of rectifying plant. No distiller shall carry on the business of distilling spirits at a distance of less than 600 feet in a direct line from a rectifying plant, except when he has been so authorized by the district supervisor. The district supervisor may grant such authority when he is of the opinion that the revenue will not be endangered thereby.

§ 183.42 Special application. A person desiring to operate a distillery within 600 feet of a rectifying plant shall file a special application, in triplicate, for such privilege, with the district supervisor. The application shall state the locations of the distillery and the rectifying plant, the distance between the premises, the name of the proprietor of the rectifying plant, a description of any connecting pipe lines, the reason for locating the distillery within 600 feet of the rectifying plant, and any additional information which the district supervisor may require. The district supervisor will take action on such application in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.291.

§ 183.43 Changes requiring approval. Where there is to be a change in the distance between a distillery and a rectifying plant located within 600 feet of each other as a result of the extension or curtailment, or other change of either premises, a new special application, in triplicate, must be filed with the district supervisor by the proprietor of the premises which is to be extended or curtailed. Where a change occurs in the proprietorship of a distillery or rectifying plant located within 600 feet of each other, the new proprietor shall file with the district supervisor a new special application, in triplicate. Unless the distillery premises are extended or curtailed as the result of such change, the change may be reflected in the next amended or annual notice, Form 27–A, and plat, filed by the distiller. Such new special application shall be considered and disposed of in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.291.

SUBPART D—CONSTRUCTION

§ 183.50 Distillery buildings. The distillery buildings must be securely constructed of brick, stone, wood, concrete, or other substantial material and must be completely separated from contiguous buildings not on the distillery premises by unbroken partitions of substantial construction extending from the ground to the roof in a direct vertical line: Provided, That where the furnace or boiler used for generating steam or heating water for use in the distillery is located off the distillery premises, or where steam is to be conveyed from a boiler in the distillery to other premises for manufacturing or other purposes, or where distilling material or fuel is to be received by chute or pipe line, or where distilled spirits, distilled water, etc., is to be removed from the distillery by pipe line, in accordance with law and this part, necessary openings for the passage of the required pipe lines or chutes may be permitted in the walls or partitions separating the distillery from the adjoining premises: And provided further, That necessary openings for the passage of approved water, electric, sewer, or similar lines may likewise be permitted in such walls or partitions. The foundations, floors, walls, and roofs, and the doors, windows, and other openings of distillery buildings shall be constructed, and such doors, windows, and other openings shall be protected and secured, as provided in this subpart.

§ 183.51 Foundations. The foundations of the distillery buildings shall be constructed of stone, brick, or concrete, or other equally substantial material, extending into the ground.

§ 183.52 Floors. The distillery buildings must have suitable floors constructed of wood, concrete, brick, or other equally substantial material. If the floor of the cistern room or building is constructed of wood, the boards must be fitted together by tongue and groove, or laid double with the second layer crossing the first at an angle of more than 20 degrees, and securely nailed and fastened.

§ 183.53 Walls. The outside walls of distillery buildings must be securely and substantially constructed. The ceiling and walls inside of the cistern room must be cased with matched tongue and groove boards, unless the use of other material affording equal protection from access without detection is approved by the Commissioner.

§ 183.54 Roofs. The roofs of distillery buildings must be securely and substantially constructed.

§ 183.55 Doors. The outside doors of the distillery buildings must be securely and substantially constructed and equipped, so that they may be securely locked. In addition, the doors of cistern rooms, rectifying rooms, and other rooms required to be locked by § 183.737, must comply with the following requirements: The outside doors, and those on which Government locks are required, must be securely constructed of heavy timber or iron, or other equally substantial material. The hinges must be secured by roundheaded or carriage bolts, nutted, and riveted or battered on the inside. Hinges that cannot be thus secured must be inaccessible from the outside, and so attached that they cannot be removed when the doors are closed. The outside doors, and those on which Government locks are required, must be equipped with hasp and staple securely fastened on the inside, so that they may be securely locked. The doors secured from the inside must be provided with a cross bar in the middle of the door, and strong and suitable attachments for the reception of locks. Where there are double doors, one of them, at least, must be provided with substantial bolts at both the top and the bottom. These bolts must be so arranged as to plunge into substantial fastenings or holes in the middle of the upper and lower ends of the frame when the door is closed. Folding doors of wood or metal, vertical or horizontal sliding doors of wood or metal, and metal doors of the roller blind type, must be provided with substantial cross bars, or bolts that plunge into the upper and lower ends, or the sides of the door frame, so placed as to make the door rigid and secure, unless the doors operate in grooves or tracks that make them secure.

§ 183.56 Windows in cistern and rectifying rooms. The windows in the cistern room and redistilling or rectifying room must be constructed and secured as follows:

(a) Within 12 feet of ground, etc. All windows located within 12 feet of the ground, or within 12 feet (1) above a fire escape (except as provided in paragraph (b)), (2) above a roof, setback, or balcony within 12 feet of the ground, (3) above a roof or balcony of an adjoining building, or (4) of a roof, window, or other opening of an opposite building, must conform to the following requirements:

(i) Wood sash. Windows consisting of plain or wire glass panes set in wood sash must be protected by iron bars and solid shutters;

(ii) Steel sash. Windows consisting of wire glass panes not larger than 6 by 10 inches, set in metal sash must be protected by iron bars;

(iii) Detention type. Windows may be of the detention type, consisting of solid steel frame, sash, and grille (over the ventilating portion), combined in one unit and erected in one piece, equipped with wire glass panes not larger than 6 by 10 inches.

(b) Opening onto fire escape. Windows opening onto a fire escape shall be protected by solid metal shutters, securely hinged and equipped with facilities for locking on the inside with a Government lock. Iron bars will not be required on such windows.

(c) Extension of requirements. The Commissioner or district supervisor may require any other windows in the cistern and rectifying rooms to be protected by iron bars or shutters, or both, when deemed necessary to safeguard the spirits.

(d) More than 12 feet from ground. All windows more than 12 feet from the ground and not subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section must be securely constructed and so arranged and equipped that they may be securely fastened on the inside.

(e) Set in casement. All windows must be securely set into the window casement in such a manner as to prevent ready removal.

(f) Sash locks. All window sashes must be provided with sash locks or other suitable fasteners.

(g) Shutters. The shutters must be solid and substantially constructed of metal or wood, and must be fastened inside of the room or building and so secured that they cannot be opened from the outside.

(h) Iron bars. The iron bars must be not less than three-fourths of an inch in diameter, placed perpendicularly in the windows or walls, not more than 5 inches apart from center to center, and reinforced by iron cross bars not more than 36 inches apart. All bars and cross bars must be securely fastened to the window frames or embedded in the walls in such a manner as to prevent their removal and to afford proper security.

§ 183.57 Other windows. Other windows of distillery buildings must be securely constructed and so arranged and equipped that they may be securely locked and fastened on the inside.

§ 183.58 Skylights, monitors, penthouses, etc. Skylights; monitors, penthouses, and similar openings will be regarded as windows and treated as such, except that shutters will not be required.

§ 183.59 Ventilators. Small openings in outside walls of distillery buildings, and in the ground floors and the roofs thereof, for ventilation or heating purposes, will be permitted, provided they are protected by substantial metal gratings not lighter than No. 6 gauge and having openings not larger than one-half inch, securely attached to or embedded in the floor, wall, or roof. Where such openings in the walls, floors, and roofs of cistern rooms are larger than 6 by 6 inches, they shall be further protected by iron bars. Such openings will not be permitted in walls which separate the distillery from contiguous premises.

§ 183.60 Drains. Openings in floors will be permitted for drainage or sewage, provided they are permanently connected to the sewer system and protected in the same manner as ventilators.

§ 183.61 Meal room. If meal is to be stored on the distillery premises, the distiller must provide for the purpose a suitable room constructed in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 183.50–183.60, except that where substantially constructed bins of sufficient capacity, all openings of which may be closed and secured with Government locks, are installed for the storage of meal, a separate meal room need not be provided. All doors of the meal room must be equipped for locking on the inside except the entrance door, which must be equipped for locking on the outside with a Government lock. Windows and similar openings, if any, must be so equipped that they may be closed and securely fastened on the inside. Hoppers, chutes, conveyors, pipes, or openings in the walls, floor, or ceiling of the meal room used for the conveyance of meal from the meal room to the mash tubs, must be so constructed that they may be closed within the meal room and locked with Government locks: Provided, That where a hopper extends through the floor of the meal room, the outlet thereof may be locked outside of the meal room, if the hopper is securely covered and the inlet thereof is locked within the meal room.

§ 183.62 Granary. If the granary is located on the distillery premises it must be so constructed that the doors and other openings thereof may be closed and securely fastened on the inside, except the entrance door, which will be equipped for locking on the outside with a Government lock. If the granary is not situated on the distillery premises, but adjoins the distillery, the granary must be separated from the distillery on a direct vertical line by a solid and unbroken wall of substantial construction, except that an opening sufficient for the passage of grain chutes or pipe lines will be permitted in such wall. Such chutes or pipe lines shall be equipped with facilities for locking with Government locks at a suitable place on the distillery premises.

§ 183.63 Fermenting room or building. The distiller must provide on the distillery premises a fermenting room or building in which shall be located the fermenting tubs or tanks: Provided, That where closed tanks are used they need not be located in a room or building. Where a fermenting room is provided, it may be located in the distilling building and have direct communication with other portions of such building. If carbon dioxide is recovered, the necessary purifiers, scrubbers, and wash-water receiving tanks should be located in the fermenting room or building or in an adjoining room or building.

§ 183.64 Rectifying room. Where distilled spirits are rectified, purified, or refined in the course of original and continuous distillation, and the apparatus or equipment used for the purpose is such that it cannot be securely locked, the distiller must provide a suitable rectifying room or building in which shall be located such apparatus and equipment. Suitable tanks must be provided therein for the reception of spirits to be so treated. The rectifying room or building shall be constructed in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 183.50–183.60. No door, window, or other opening (except necessary openings for approved pipe lines) leading from the rectifying room into any other building, except the distilling building, will be permitted. Each door must be equipped with a substantial hasp and staple for the reception of a Government lock. A sign will be placed over the door of the rectifying room bearing the words "Rectifying Room."

§ 183.65 Cistern room. The distiller must provide a cistern room or building, in which shall be located the receiving cisterns. The cistern room or building must be constructed in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 183.50–183.60. No door, window, or other opening (except necessary openings for approved pipe lines) leading into the distillery or into any other room or building will be permitted. The doors and other openings must lead into the yard connected with the distillery. All doors of the cistern room or building shall be equipped for locking on the inside with Government locks, except the entrance door, which shall be equipped for locking on the outside with a Government seal lock. The cistern room must be well lighted and of sufficient size to permit the weighing, marking, and branding of the spirits to be done conveniently, and to accommodate the necessary equipment, including a desk and chairs for the use of Government officers in preparing their reports. A sign must be placed over the entrance door of the cistern room bearing the words "Cistern Room." Where more than one cistern room is provided, each such room will be given an alphabetical designation as "A," "B," etc.

§ 183.66 Temporary storage room. Where spirits, after being drawn from the receiving cisterns into packages, are to be temporarily retained on the distillery premises pending tax-payment or removal for deposit in an internal revenue bonded warehouse off the distillery premises, as authorized by § 183.516, the distiller must provide a separate room in the cistern room for the temporary storage of such packages. The construction of such temporary storage room must conform to the provisions of this part governing the construction of the cistern room. The entrance door of the storage room shall open into the other part of the cistern room and be so constructed that it may be securely locked with a Government lock. Where another door is provided, it must lead into the yard connected with the distillery and be so constructed that it may be securely locked on the inside with a Government lock, and will be used for the removal of spirits temporarily stored in the room. If such other door is not provided, spirits may not be removed from the temporary storage room through the other portion of the cistern room while packages are being filled therein.

§ 183.67 Empty container storeroom. If empty packages are to be stored on the distillery premises a separate room or building must be provided for such purpose. Such room or building shall not have any means of interior communication with any other room or building used in connection with the production or storage of distilled spirits. This room or building may be used for general cooperage purposes.

§ 183.68 Government office. The distiller shall provide and maintain on the distillery premises, for the exclusive use of Government officers, a securely constructed, well-lighted, heated, and ventilated office of suitable dimensions. The Government office shall be equipped with toilet and lavatory facilities, and with a suitable number of desks, chairs, file cases, and such other furniture as may be necessary for the keeping of records and the preparation of reports. The Government office shall also be provided with running water, tables, and shelves for use in connection with the testing of beer and slop, unless suitable laboratory facilities are available to Government officers elsewhere on the premises. The door of the Government office shall be equipped with a cylinder type lock and a sufficient number of keys therefor shall be furnished the district supervisor for the use of Government officers. Where deemed necessary to afford adequate security to Government property, the district supervisor may require the windows of the Government office to be protected by shutters or iron bars, and the door to be so equipped that it may be securely fastened with a Government lock. A sign bearing the words "Government Office" must be placed over the entrance door.

§ 183.69 Government cabinet. There shall be provided in the Government office a metal cabinet of adequate strength and size, suitably equipped for locking with a Government seal lock, for use in safeguarding Government locks, keys, seals, and other Government property, and stamps in the custody of Government officers. Each such cabinet shall be subject to approval by the district supervisor.

SUBPART E—SIGN

§ 183.80 Posting of sign. The distiller shall place and keep conspicuously on the outside and at the front of the distillery where it can be plainly seen, a sign exhibiting in plain and legible letters, painted in oil colors or gilded, not less than three inches in height and of a proper and proportionate width, the name of the distiller and the words "Registered Distillery," followed by the registered number of the distillery.

(53 Stat. 318; 26 U. S. C. 2831)

SUBPART F—FENCES OR WALLS AND GATES

§ 183.85 Construction. No fence or wall of a height greater than 5 feet shall be erected or maintained around the premises of any distillery, except that the district supervisor may authorize the construction and maintenance of a fence or wall of a height greater than 5 feet around the distillery in any case in which, in his opinion, such higher fence or wall is necessary to give adequate protection from trespassers.

§ 183.86 Special application. Where the distiller desires to construct or maintain a fence or wall of a greater height than 5 feet around the distillery, he shall file with the district supervisor a special application therefor, in triplicate, giving a complete description of the fence or wall, including information as to materials, construction, height, and number of gates, and stating the reasons for the construction or maintenance of such fence or wall. The district supervisor will take action on such special application in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.292.

§ 183.87 Keys to gates. The distiller shall furnish the district supervisor as many keys to the gates or doors of the fence or wall around the distillery as may be required from time to time, in order to render the distillery readily accessible to Government officers.

SUBPART G—EQUIPMENT

§ 183.90 Laboratory apparatus. The distiller shall provide for the use of the Government officers a Kjeldahl or other distilling unit of sufficient capacity to distill samples of beer and slop, a Juerst, Lefco, or other approved ebulliometer, and other laboratory apparatus and equipment necessary for determining the alcoholic content of the beer and slop. The distilling unit shall be installed in a suitable location approved by the district supervisor. Where the distiller maintains a laboratory which, in the opinion of the district supervisor, is properly equipped for making such tests, the distiller may make such facilities available to Government officers in lieu of providing additional apparatus and equipment.

§ 183.91 Scales. The distiller must provide in the cistern room suitable and accurate scales for weighing packages of distilled spirits. The distiller must also provide on the distillery premises suitable and accurate scales for the weighing of grain and other non-liquid distilling materials received and used: Provided, That where the distiller receives shipments of materials by rail or motor carrier, the shipper's weights appearing on the bill of lading or invoice may be recorded as the amount received, and in such cases, track or truck scales for weighing materials received need not be furnished. Beams or dials of scales used to weigh packages must indicate weight in half-pound graduations.

§ 183.92 Weighing tanks. Where distilled spirits are to be removed from the cistern room by pipe line for any authorized purpose as provided by this part, the distiller must provide in the cistern room one or more suitable weighing tanks constructed in accordance with the provisions of § 183.93 unless the receiving cisterns are mounted on scales, or unless such removals are limited to transfer of spirits to a weighing tank on the same or contiguous premises as provided by § 183.517. Where heads and tails are to be removed in tank cars for denaturation, the distiller must provide in the distilling building a suitable weighing tank of like construction; except that such weighing tank will not be necessary in the distillery building where suitable weighing tanks are provided in the cistern room and heads and tails are to be conveyed by fixed pipe lines, constructed in accordance with § 183.111, from the heads and tails tanks to the cistern room weighing tanks and gauged therein. The beams or dials of tank scales must be graduated to enable readings to be made as follows: to the nearest one-half pound for scales having a capacity not to exceed 2,000 pounds; to the nearest 1 pound for scales having a capacity of over 2,000 pounds, but not exceeding 6,000 pounds; to the nearest 2 pounds for scales having a capacity over 6,000 pounds, but not exceeding 20,000 pounds; to the nearest 5 pounds for scales having a capacity over 20,000 pounds, but not exceeding 50,000 pounds; and to the nearest 10 pounds for scales having a capacity over 50,000 pounds. Except in the case of scales having a capacity of 2,000 pounds or less where spirits are to be gauged for taxpayment not less than twenty percentum of the total capacity of the weighing tank scale may be entered into the tank for gauging for determination of the tax: Provided, That lots of spirits weighing 1,000 pounds or less must be weighed on scales having one-half pound graduations. If molasses or other liquids are used as distilling material, suitable weighing or measuring tanks must be provided for determining the quantity thereof.

§ 183.93 Construction of weighing tanks. Weighing tanks for distilled spirits shall be constructed of metal and shall be stationary and each such tank shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the contents will be correctly indicated. Each weighing tank shall be mounted on accurate scales and shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words, "Weighing Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. The inlet and outlet pipe connections of each weighing tank must be fitted with valves so constructed that they can be secured with Government locks, and any other openings in such tanks must also be so constructed that they can be closed and similarly locked.

§ 183.94 Test weights. The distiller shall provide a set of ten 50-pound cast-iron test weights, which shall be certified by the National Bureau of Standards or State departments of weights and measures as conforming to Class "C" requirements of the National Bureau of Standards. If the distiller has provided such test weights at an internal revenue bonded warehouse operated by him on the same or contiguous premises, or at a rectifying plant on contiguous premises, he need not provide a separate set of weights for the distillery. All test weights shall be placed under the control and in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger in charge, who shall keep them under Government lock when not in use.

§ 183.95 Furnace doors, steam and fuel lines. The door of every furnace of every still or boiler located on the distillery premises must be so constructed that it may be closed and locked with a Government lock in such a manner as will effectually prevent it from being opened and a fire lighted in the furnace or under the boiler: Provided, That where the stills are heated with steam and it is necessary to use the boilers for the generation of steam for other purposes during periods when distilling operations are suspended, the doors of the furnaces of such boilers need not be equipped for locking if the pipe lines used to convey steam from the boilers to the stills are provided with valves equipped for locking with Government locks at the point where they enter each still. Where the boilers used for generating steam for the operation of the distillery are located off the distillery premises, the pipe line used to convey the steam to the distillery must be equipped with a valve so constructed that it may be locked with a Government lock, either at the point where it enters the distillery premises or at the point of entrance to the stills. If the stills are operated with fuel conveyed to them by pipe line, such pipe line must likewise be equipped for locking.

§ 183.96 Distilling material storage tanks. If molasses or other liquid distilling materials are to be stored on the distillery premises, the distiller must provide substantially constructed tanks for the purpose. The inlets, outlets, and other openings of such tanks must be equipped for locking with Government locks. Such tanks need not be located in a room or building: Provided, That where spirits are received for redistillation, tanks used for storage thereof and pipe lines used in connection therewith must be installed and equipped in accordance with requirements of §§ 183.102 and 183.111.

(53 Stat. 318; 26 U. S. C. 2829)

§ 183.97 Off-premises material conveyors. Where distilling materials are conveyed to the distillery by chute, conveyor, or pipe line from adjacent premises, such chute, conveyor, or pipe line shall be equipped at a suitable place for locking with Government locks.

(53 Stat. 316, 318; 26 U. S. C. 2823, 2829)

§ 183.98 Cookers and mash tubs. Cookers and mash tubs must be so placed as to be easily accessible and subject to ready examination by Government officers. Each such cooker or mash tub must have painted thereon its designated use, as "Cooker" or "Mash Tub," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons.

§ 183.99 Fermenters. Each fermenter must be constructed of wood, metal, concrete, or other suitable material, and so arranged as to permit proper examination thereof. Each fermenter must have plainly and legibly painted thereon the word, "Fermenter," followed by its serial number, and capacity in gallons, depth in inches, and, if of uniform dimensions and standing on end, the capacity per inch of depth. Where such tanks are of irregular dimensions the distiller shall furnish to the district supervisor a table, in duplicate, showing the capacity of the tank for each inch of depth. The district supervisor will retain one copy of the table and forward the other to the storekeeper-gauger who will retain the same in the Government office. All tanks must be so constructed as to permit proper examination thereof, and so arranged as to leave an open space of not less than three feet between the top and the roof or floor above. Where tanks are equipped with manholes or valves in the top which are required to be locked with Government locks, suitable walks or landings with steps or stairways leading thereto and providing ready access to such manholes or valves must be constructed. All tanks, such as low-wine, high-wine, heads and tails, fusel oil and distilled water tanks, and similar equipment, shall each have plainly and legibly painted thereon its designated use, serial number, and capacity in gallons. Manheads, inlets, and outlets of the tanks and all openings in the distilling apparatus and equipment, except column stills, whereby access may be had to the spirits must be provided with facilities for locking with Government locks or otherwise securely fastened or sealed: Provided, That distilled water storage tanks need not be so equipped unless a pipe line is connected therewith for the conveyance of distilled water to contiguous establishments, as provided in § 183.106. Tanks used as receptacles for spirits may be permanently connected with pipe lines for the conveyance thereto of air and also distilled water, but the distilled water pipe line must be affixed to the top of the tank, and may not extend into the tank. Such pipe lines must be equipped with a control valve which may be locked with a Government lock. Pipe lines used for the conveyance of air must also be equipped with a check valve located near the point of entry to the tank in order to effectively prevent any abstraction of spirits from the tank. Other pipe lines, except those used for the conveyance of spirits, may not be permanently connected with such tanks.

§ 183.103 Heads and tails tanks. Every distiller desiring to collect heads and tails for destruction or removal for denaturation must provide for the purpose one or more tanks, each of which must be constructed and equipped in accordance with the provisions of § 183.102, and have painted thereon the words, "Heads and Tails Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. The tanks must be so arranged that the distillate to be collected therein will pass from the still into the tank through continuous and securely closed, fixed pipes and vessels. The pipe lines connecting the tanks with stills or other apparatus must be constructed in accordance with § 183.111. Valves must be provided in the pipe lines and so arranged as to control completely the flow of distillate both into and out of each tank. The construction of the valves must be such that they can be secured with Government locks.

§ 183.104 Unfinished spirits tanks. Whenever a distillery established or operated under the regulations in this part is to be operated alternately as such and as an industrial alcohol plant or fruit distillery in accordance with Subpart M of this part, and the distiller desires to retain unfinished spirits where the change in type of plant is to be temporary only, he must provide for the purpose one or more tanks, each of which must be constructed and equipped in accordance with the provisions of § 183.102 and have painted thereon the words, "Unfinished Spirits Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. The tanks must be so arranged that the unfinished spirits to be collected therein will pass from the still into the tank through continuous and securely closed, fixed pipes and vessels. The pipe lines connecting the tanks with stills or other apparatus must be constructed in accordance with § 183.111. Valves must be provided in the pipe lines and so arranged as to control completely the flow of unfinished spirits both into and out of each tank. The construction of the valves must be such that they can be secured with Government locks.

§ 183.105 Fusel oil tanks. Fusel oil tanks must be constructed and equipped in accordance with the provisions of § 183.102, and each such tank must have painted thereon the words, "Fusel Oil Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. Tanks for the temporary storage of fusel oil, after the same has been tested, need not be inclosed in a room or building, but must be located on the distillery premises. Fusel oil tanks shall not be connected with any pipe line used for the conveyance of spirits. The pipe lines used in connection therewith must be constructed and arranged in accordance with the provisions of § 183.111. Pipe lines connected with fusel oil tanks must be provided with valves so arranged as to control the flow of fusel oil both into and out of the tanks, and so constructed that they may be secured with Government locks.

§ 183.106 Distilled water tanks. Distilled water storage tanks shall be so located that their contents may be readily inspected by Government officers, and each such tank shall have painted thereon the words, "Distilled Water Storage Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. Where distilled water is to be conveyed by pipe line to contiguous establishments operated under the internal revenue laws and regulations, the storage tanks from which the distilled water is to be so conveyed must be so constructed that any necessary openings therein may be closed and secured with a Government lock. The pipe line must be an independent one, without any connection with any other pipe, tank, vessel, or utensil on the distillery premises: Provided, That where distilled water is to be so conveyed from two or more distilled water storage tanks, the pipe line may be connected with such tanks by permanent manifold connections. The pipe line must be constructed of metal or other suitable material and exposed to view throughout its entire length. The valves, flanges, and other connections in such pipe line on the distillery premises must be brazed, welded, or otherwise secured in such a manner that the pipe line and its connections cannot be detached or altered without showing evidence of tampering.

§ 183.107 Try boxes. Try boxes must be provided and so constructed as to permit reading the proof of the spirits, as well as the temperature, without unlocking the same. Such boxes shall be substantially constructed, and shall be equipped for locking with a Government lock. Each try box must be provided with an overflow pipe to permit by-passing of the spirits around the valves controlling the flow from the try box to the receiving cisterns. The overflow pipe shall be brazed or welded to the pipe line leading to the low or high wine tanks or the receiving cisterns.

§ 183.108 Rectifying equipment. Where spirits are rectified, purified, or refined, the pipes, percolators, vessels, tanks, and other apparatus used in purifying or refining spirits must be so constructed that the spirits will pass through the purifying process in their passage from the beer still to the receiving cisterns. Except as provided by § 183.64, the pipes, vessels, and other apparatus must be closed and continuous and all necessary openings must be so constructed that they may be closed and locked with Government locks. Except as provided by § 183.102, no permanent water pipe line shall be connected with the high-wine tanks, percolators, or other rectifying apparatus.

§ 183.109 Receiving cisterns. The distiller must provide in the cistern room receiving cisterns having sufficient capacity to permit the efficient deposit, withdrawal and supervision of each type of distilled spirits produced daily in accordance with this part. The adequacy of the capacity of the receiving cisterns shall be determined by the district supervisor. Receiving cisterns must be constructed and arranged in conformity with the requirements of § 183.102, and, in addition thereto, such cisterns must be elevated not less than 18 inches from the floor, and so separated that Government officers may pass completely around each. Each receiving cistern must be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated, and shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words, "Receiving Cistern," followed by its serial number and capacity in gallons. The cisterns must not be connected with each other, except that a connecting pipe line will be permitted between them in order to prevent loss of spirits by overflow. Such connecting pipe line must be located as close to the top of each cistern as the construction thereof will permit, and it must be closed and all connections therein brazed or welded to prevent abstraction of spirits without showing evidence of tampering. A valve equipped for locking with a Government lock must be provided in such pipe line. Pipe lines connected with receiving cisterns must be brazed, welded, or otherwise secured and sealed, in such a manner that they cannot be detached or altered without showing evidence of tampering. Except as provided by § 183.102, pipe lines for the conveyance of water, air, or other substance than spirits, may not be permanently connected with receiving cisterns.

§ 183.110 Stopcocks of receiving cisterns. The stopcocks which control the flow of spirits into the receiving cisterns must be so arranged that the spirits may be run into any of the cisterns, and if the stopcocks are in the cistern room, they must be controlled by rods, the handles of which must extend into the distillery or through the wall to the outside of the cistern room and be under Government lock. If such stopcocks are outside of the cistern room, they must be securely boxed and the box locked with a Government lock. The storekeeper-gauger will keep the key to the Government locks which control the stopcocks of receiving cisterns in his possession. The flow of the spirits from one cistern to another will, however, be changed by the distiller under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 183.111 Pipe lines. The distilling apparatus and equipment must be closed and continuous, commencing with the first still in which the vapors rise and continuing with securely closed vessels and pipes to the receiving cisterns in which the finished product is deposited. All such pipe lines must be of a fixed and permanent character, constructed of metal, or other material affording necessary protection, and so arranged as to be exposed to view in their entirety. All valves, unions, flanges, and other detachable connections in the pipe lines of the distilling equipment from the point where the vapors rise in the beer still to the receiving tanks must be so secured by brazing, welding, fastening, and sealing, or locking with Government locks as to effectually prevent disconnection and access to the spirits. Pipe lines authorized by this part for use in the conveyance of spirits from the cistern room to establishments on the same or contiguous premises shall be constructed, secured, and exposed in like manner and shall be so arranged that each such pipe line can be completely emptied or drained after each transfer of spirits: Provided, That such pipe lines may be connected with weighing tanks by means of flexible metal hose with ends brazed or welded to the outlet of the tank and the pipe line, or by means of short, detachable, hose connections, if the end of the pipe line is fitted with a valve so constructed that it may be secured with a Government lock. Pipe lines may likewise be connected with railroad tank cars by means of short, detachable hose connections.

§ 183.112 Additional requirements for pipe lines. Where spirits are to be conveyed by pipe line to contiguous establishments as authorized by this part, a separate pipe line to each such establishment must be installed for the conveyance of the spirits: Provided, That the Commissioner may authorize the use of a single pipe line where proper manifold connections, affording adequate control of the spirits to each establishment, are provided in the pipe line. A pipe line must also be provided for loading or unloading tank cars, except as provided by §§ 183.435 and 183.520. Such pipe lines may be connected only to the tanks to or from which transfer of spirits is authorized, except, where two or more tanks are used for the same purpose, manifold connections may be used. Manifold connections must be equipped with valves which may be secured with Government locks and so arranged as to permit complete control of spirits into or out of each tank. There shall be painted on each pipe line extending to and from a manifold a legend showing the kind and serial number of the tank or the type and registry number of the contiguous establishment with which the pipe line is connected. Where there are separate pipe lines leading directly from a tank to a tank car loading zone or an establishment on the same or contiguous premises, a legend indicating the use of such pipe line or the type and registry number of the contiguous establishment shall be painted thereon. Pipe lines so used shall be kept painted in the colors required by § 183.116.

§ 183.113 Preparation for sealing flanges. Where flanges and other detachable connections in the pipe lines (other than unions or valves) are not secured by welding or brazing, and are not to be secured by Government locks, they must be prepared by the distiller for sealing with "cap" seals by one of the following methods:

(a) By applying a "castle" nut with a hole drilled through the bolt, so the sealing wire may be passed through like a cotter pin, two such nuts being applied to each flange, opposite each other, unless the flange is secured with an uneven number of bolts, in which case three such nuts will be applied at approximately equal distances apart;

(b) By drilling a small hole through both nut and bolt, two such bolts and nuts being drilled for each flange, opposite each other, unless the flange is secured with an uneven number of bolts, in which case three such nuts will be applied at approximately equal distances apart; or

(c) By drilling a hole through the corner of the head of the bolt and one through the corner of the nut so the two will be sealed together, two such bolts and nuts being drilled for each flange, opposite each other, unless the flange is secured with an uneven number of bolts, in which case three such nuts will be applied at approximately equal distances apart.

§ 183.114 Preparation for sealing unions. Where unions in the pipe lines are not secured by welding or brazing, and are not to be secured by Government locks, they will be prepared for sealing by enclosing the same in a metal box with holes for the sealing wire.

§ 183.115 Preparation for sealing valves. Where small gate and globe valves in the pipe lines are not secured by welding or brazing, and are not to be secured by Government locks, they may be prepared for sealing by inclosing the packing nut and hood with a metal band or strap drawn tightly around the flange and fitted for reception of the sealing wire, or by drilling a hole in the packing nut so that sealing wire may be passed through and drawn around the pipe and sealed. Where valves have large flanges, such flanges may be sealed in the same manner as other flanges.

§ 183.116 Colors for pipe lines. The pipe lines in the distillery used for conveying the following substances shall be kept painted in the colors indicated:

Black	Whisky, gin, rum or other finished spirits.
Blue	Vapor, singlings, high-wines and low-wines, or other unfinished spirits.
Red	Fermented mash or beer.
Gray	Molasses or other unfermented material.
Brown	Spent beer or slop.
Yellow	Fusel oil.
White	Water.
Aluminum	Steam.
Orange	Air.
Olive green	Carbon dioxide.

These colors are intended for such pipe lines only, and are prescribed for the purpose of distinguishing such pipe lines from each other, and from all other pipe lines on the premises which are painted, but for which colors are not prescribed. The painting in one of the prescribed colors, or a color similar thereto, of a pipe line for which a color is not prescribed is prohibited. Pipe lines for which colors are not prescribed may be painted in sections of contrasting colors.

§ 183.117 Sufficient equipment required. Whenever a distiller desires to produce in his distillery two or more kinds of spirits simultaneously, he must provide sufficient mash tubs, fermenters, distilling apparatus, receiving cisterns, and other equipment to permit the production thereof without the commingling of dissimilar spirits.

§ 183.118 Details of construction and equipment. Where details of construction and equipment are not covered by this part, such construction and equipment must afford the same degree of security and protection to the spirits in the distillery as is intended by the construction and equipment specifications in this part prescribed. The Commissioner may approve details of construction and equipment in lieu of those specified in this part where it is shown that it is impracticable to conform to the prescribed specifications, and the proposed construction and equipment will afford as much security and protection as the construction and equipment prescribed. Where it is proposed to substitute construction and equipment for that for which specifications are prescribed, or where any doubt prevails in regard to the security and protection which will be afforded by construction and equipment not covered by this part, approval of the Commissioner should be first obtained.

§ 183.119 Distilleries heretofore established. Distilleries heretofore established may continue to operate if the present construction and equipment afford adequate security and protection to the revenue. The Commissioner or district supervisor may at any time require the distiller to make changes in construction and equipment conforming to the provisions of this part, if deemed necessary to safeguard the revenue or to permit more economical and efficient supervision by Government officers. All distilleries hereafter established, and changes in existing distilleries, must be in conformity with this part.

SUBPART H—QUALIFYING DOCUMENTS

§ 183.125 Notice, Form 27–A. Every person engaged in the business of a distiller, or intending to engage therein, or who wishes to continue in such business on and after the 1st day of May in each year, must give notice of such intention on Form 27–A. This notice must be filed in triplicate with the district supervisor of the district in which the premises are located, before engaging in the business, and on May 1 of each year thereafter during continuance in such business. Except as provided in § 183.136 in the case of amended and supplemental notices all of the information indicated by the lines of the form and the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto, and as required by the regulations in this part, shall be furnished. Notices on Form 27–A must be signed in accordance with the instructions printed on the form and sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths: Provided, That if the form officially prescribed for such notice contains therein a provision for verification by a written declaration that such notice is made under penalties of perjury, such notice shall be verified by the execution of such declaration, and such declaration so executed shall be in lieu of the oath required herein for verification. Such notices must be numbered serially, commencing with number 1 and continuing in regular sequence for all notices thereafter filed, whether annual, amended, or supplemental. All data, written statements, affidavits, and other documents submitted in support of the application shall be deemed to be a part thereof.

§ 183.126 Permit required. Under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and the regulations issued pursuant thereto (27 CFR, Part 1), any person, except an agency of a State or political sub-division thereof, or any officer or employee of any such agency, intending to engage in the business of producing distilled spirits, is required to procure a permit therefor. Application for such permit should be filed with the district supervisor, at the time of filing the original notice, Form 27–A.

(49 Stat. 978; 27 U. S. C. 203)

§ 183.127 Description of premises. The lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated must be described on Form 27–A by courses and distances, in feet and inches, with the particularity required in conveyances of real estate. If the distillery premises consist of two or more lots or parcels, the condition of the title to which is not the same, the entire distillery premises shall be first described, followed by a separate description by courses and distances, in feet and inches, of each such lot or parcel. The continuity of the distillery premises must be unbroken, except that the premises may be divided by a public street or highway, if parts of the premises so divided abut on such street or highway opposite each other. The premises may be similarly divided by a railroad right-of-way, if the railroad is a common carrier. In such cases, each tract of land constituting the distillery premises shall be described separately on the form.

§ 183.128 Description of buildings and rooms. All buildings and rooms on the distillery premises, including the cistern room, shall be accurately described on Form 27–A. The description shall include the designated name of the building or room, which shall be according to its use, such as distillery building, cistern room, etc., the materials of which constructed, the dimensions thereof, the location of doors, windows, and other openings, and the manner in which they are secured and protected. Each floor of each building shall be described separately. If more than one building or room is used for the same purpose, the name of each shall include an alphabetical designation to distinguish it as "Fermenting Room A," "Fermenting Room B," etc.

§ 183.129 Description of fence or wall. If the distillery premises are surrounded by a fence or wall, such fence or wall shall be separately described on Form 27–A. The description shall include information as to materials, construction, height, and the number of gates. If the height exceeds 5 feet, the form shall also show whether authority to construct or maintain such fence or wall has been obtained from the district supervisor.

§ 183.130 Fermenting capacity. The estimated maximum quantity of each kind of material it is proposed to use that can be mashed in a day of 24 hours must be stated in the space provided therefor on Form 27–A. The estimated quantity of the material that can be mashed daily will be based upon the capacity of the fermenters, using a maximum strength beer and a minimum fermenting period.

§ 183.131 Distilling capacity. The estimated maximum number of proof gallons of spirits that can be distilled in a day of 24 hours must also be stated in the space provided therefor on Form 27–A. The estimated quantity of spirits that can be distilled daily will be based on the capacity of the stills and the use of a maximum strength beer. The capacity of stills will be computed in accordance with the rules set forth in Subpart MM of this part.

§ 183.132 Daily production. The estimated maximum quantity of each kind of material that the distiller intends to mash in a day of 24 hours, and the estimated maximum quantity in proof gallons of spirits that will be produced from such materials, including spirits produced by redistillation pursuant to Subpart T of this part, in a like period shall be stated on Form 27–A. Where the distiller intends to mash different kinds of materials than those covered by Form 27–A, or a larger quantity of the specified materials than the maximum indicated on such form, or to produce a larger quantity of spirits than the maximum indicated on the form, he must file with the district supervisor an amended notice, Form 27–A, in triplicate, and, if the tax on the quantity of spirits to be produced during a period of 15 days will exceed the penal sum of the distiller's bond (if such penal sum is less than the maximum of $100,000), a new or additional distiller's bond must be filed, as provided in § 183.159. Likewise, where the quantity of spirits actually produced during any period of 15 days exceeds the estimated maximum quantity to be produced during such period, the distiller must file an amended notice, on Form 27–A and, where required, a new or additional distiller's bond, in accordance with § 183.159.

§ 183.133 Condition of title to premises. The condition of the title to the distillery premises shall be shown on Form 27–A. If the distiller is not the owner in fee, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, or other lien, of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the name and address of the owner of the fee and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, or other person having a lien thereon, shall be stated. Where the written consent of the owner of the fee and of mortgagees, judgment-creditors, or other lienors, is filed as provided in §§ 183.137–183.139, or where an indemnity bond is filed in lieu of such written consent, as provided in §§ 183.143, 183.147, 183.148 and 183.149, such fact, together with information as to the kind, date, and amount of the encumbrance and the balance due thereon, shall be shown on the notice in connection with the statement of the present condition of the title. In cases where an indemnity bond is filed, the date of the district supervisor's approval of the filing of such bond shall also be given.

§ 183.134 Condition of title to apparatus and equipment. The distiller's title to, or interest in, the distilling apparatus and equipment shall be shown on Form 27–A. If the distiller is not the owner of the distilling apparatus and equipment, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, or other lien, the name and address of the owner and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, conditional sales vendor, or other lienor shall be stated. Where the written consent of the owner and of the mortgagees, judgment-creditors, conditional sales vendors, or other lienors, is filed as provided in §§ 183.137–183.139, or where an indemnity bond is filed in lieu of such written consent, as provided in §§ 183.143, 183.147, 183.148 and 183.149, such fact, together with information as to the kind, date, and amount of the encumbrance and the balance due thereon, or, if the apparatus was purchased under a conditional sales contract, or other form of title retaining contract, the purchase price and the balance due, shall be shown in connection with the statement of the distiller's title to or interest in the property. In cases where an indemnity bond is filed, the date of the district supervisor's approval of the filing of such bond shall also be given.

§ 183.135 Distance from rectifying plant or vinegar factory. If the distillery premises are situated more than 600 feet in a direct line from any premises authorized to be used for rectifying spirits, or from a vinegar factory using the vaporizing process, such fact shall be stated on Form 27–A. If the distance between the distillery premises and the premises of a rectifying plant is less than 600 feet in a direct line, there must be stated on Form 27–A, the name of the proprietor of the rectifying plant, the exact distance in feet and inches between the distillery and the rectifying plant, and whether the location of the distillery within such distance of the rectifying plant has been approved by the district supervisor. If such location of the distillery has been approved by the district supervisor, the date of such approval shall be given. If the distance between the distillery premises and a vinegar factory using the vaporizing process is less than 600 feet in a direct line, such fact, and the date of the establishment of the vinegar factory, shall be stated on the form.

§ 183.136 Amended and supplemental notices. Amended and supplemental notices on Form 27–A may be executed in skeleton form, except as to the items amended or supplemented. All other items which are correctly set forth in prior notices, and in which there has been no change since the last preceding notice, may be incorporated in the amended or supplemental notice by reference to the respective notice previously filed in which the item is fully and correctly set forth. Such incorporation by reference shall be made by entering for each such item in the space provided therefor the statement "No change since filing Form 27–A, Serial No. ——" (the number being inserted), and the date of such form.

§ 183.137 Consent, Form 1602. Where the distiller is not the owner in fee of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, lien, or other encumbrance, or is not the owner of the distilling apparatus and equipment, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, lien, or other encumbrance, he must file (except as provided in § 183.140), the written consent, Form 1602, of the owner and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, lienor, or other encumbrancer, conditional sales vendor, or prior lessee, that the premises or property may be used for the purpose of distilling spirits, subject to the provisions of law, and expressly stipulating that the lien of the United States for taxes and penalties shall have priority over any right, title, or interest of the person giving the consent, and that, in the case of the forfeiture of the premises or property, or any part thereof, the title to the same shall vest in the United States, discharged from any such right, title or interest.

§ 183.138 Execution of consent. The consent shall be executed on Form 1602, in triplicate, in accordance with the instructions printed thereon, duly acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds, properly recorded, and submitted to the district supervisor with the notice, Form 27–A, and made a part thereof. The acknowledgment and certificate of recordation shall be executed on all three copies of the form.

§ 183.139 New consent when required. A new consent will be required for each year beginning on the first day of May, unless the consent is given for a definite period of time exceeding one year, in which event the consent should be given in terms to expire at the beginning of an annual period, May 1. If, after such consent is filed, the premises are extended and the distiller is not the owner in fee, unencumbered of the additional premises, or additional apparatus and equipment are installed and the distiller is not the owner thereof unencumbered, a consent on Form 1602 must be filed for such additional premises or apparatus and equipment. A new consent will also be required whenever there is a change of proprietorship, including a succession for a temporary period by a lessee or fiduciary, unless the consent procured by the predecessor specifically covers operation of the premises by his successor or assigns. In the event of failure of such consent, the distiller will be no longer qualified, unless an indemnity bond on Form 3–A is filed.

§ 183.140 Bond in lieu of consent. Where consent on Form 1602 cannot be obtained or where the distillery was sold at a judicial or other sale in favor of the United States, and there exists a right of redemption from such sale, the distiller may file in lieu of such consent, an indemnity bond, Form 3–A, as provided in § 183.141.

§ 183.141 Permission required for filing bond, Form 3–A. Where the distiller cannot obtain the written consent of the owner of the fee of the distillery premises, and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, or other person having a lien thereon, or where he cannot obtain such consent of the owner of the distilling apparatus and equipment, and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, conditional sales vendor, or other lienor, and desires to file an indemnity bond, Form 3–A, in lieu of such consent, he shall file application, in triplicate, with the district supervisor for permission so to do.

§ 183.142 Application. The application shall contain (a) an accurate description of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated and of the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus thereon; (b) a full and clear statement of the condition of the title to the distillery premises and apparatus and equipment, including the name and address of the owner and of all mortgagees, judgment-creditors, conditional sales vendors, prior lessees, and other persons having liens thereon, the kind, date, and amount of each encumbrance, and the balance due thereon, and, in the case of apparatus or equipment purchased under a conditional sales contract, or other form of title retaining contract, the purchase price and the balance due; and (c) a full and clear statement of the reasons why the applicant cannot obtain the prescribed written consent. The district supervisor will take action on such application in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.293.

§ 183.143 Bond, Form 3–A. If the application is approved, the distiller shall execute bond on Form 3–A, in triplicate, in conformity with the applicable provisions of Subpart I of this part, and file the same with the district supervisor. The penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus. If, after such bond is filed, the value of the distillery premises, buildings, or distilling apparatus is increased by additional land, buildings, or distilling apparatus, an additional bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required: Provided, That if such increase in value is less than $1,000, no additional bond will be required. In the event of a failure of bond on Form 3–A, the distiller will be no longer qualified, unless a new and satisfactory bond is filed.

§ 183.144 Appraisal. The appraisal to determine the penal sum of the bond on Form 3–A shall be made by two or more competent persons designated by the district supervisor. The appraisers shall render to the district supervisor a report, in duplicate, showing separately the value of the land and buildings and the distilling apparatus, and containing a full and clear statement of the methods employed by them in determining their valuations. The appraisal shall be at the expense of the distiller, unless it is made by Government officers.

§ 183.145 Permission required for filing bond, Form 3. In any case (a) where the owner of a distillery or distilling apparatus erected prior to July 20, 1868, has only an estate for a term of years, or other estate less than fee simple in the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the evidence of title to which shall have been duly recorded prior to that date; or (b) in like case, where the lease or other evidence of title is held but was not required by the laws of the State to be recorded in order to be valid at the time of its execution; or (c) in any case of such prior erection where the title was then, and has continued to be, in litigation; or (d) in any case of such prior erection where such owner is possessed of the fee, but encumbered with a mortgage executed and duly recorded prior to July 20, 1868, and not due; or (e) in any case of such prior erection where the fee is held by a femme-covert, minor, person of unsound mind, or other person incapable of giving the prescribed consent, the distiller may, in lieu of such consent, give bond on Form 3, upon securing permission so to do.

(53 Stat. 377; 26 U. S. C. 3180)

§ 183.146 Application. Any distiller desiring to avail himself of the privilege of filing bond on Form 3, in lieu of the prescribed consent, must file application, in triplicate, with the district supervisor. The application must show that the distillery was erected prior to July 20, 1868, and contain a full and clear statement of the condition of the title or the nature of the incapacity of the holder of the fee, as the case may be. The district supervisor will take action on such application in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.293.

(53 Stat. 377; 26 U. S. C. 3180)

§ 183.147 Bond, Form 3. If the application is approved, the distiller shall execute bond on Form 3, in triplicate, in conformity with the applicable provisions of Subpart I of this part, and file the same with the district supervisor. The penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, together with the buildings and distilling apparatus. If, after such bond is filed, the value of the distillery premises, buildings, or distilling apparatus is increased by additional land, buildings, or distilling apparatus, an additional bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required: Provided, That if such increase in value is less than $1,000, no additional bond will be required. The event of a failure of bond on Form 3, the distiller will be no longer qualified, unless a new and satisfactory bond is filed.

(53 Stat. 377; 26 U. S. C. 3180)

§ 183.148 Bond in lieu of consent where premises of distillery erected prior to July 20, 1868, are increased. The distiller may likewise give bond on Form 3 in lieu of the written consent of the owner of the fee, in the case of a distillery erected prior to July 20, 1868, where the premises have since such date been increased by the addition of land or buildings adjacent or contiguous thereto not owned by the distiller in fee. If the distillery is one which the distiller owns in fee, or in respect to which he has procured the written consent of the owner in fee and all encumbrancers, the penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the addition to the premises. If the distillery is one which the distiller is entitled to operate under bond on Form 3, then the penal sum of such bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the whole distillery as increased by such addition.

(53 Stat. 377; 26 U. S. C. 3180)

§ 183.149 Bond in lieu of consent where distillery is sold for United States. Where a distillery is sold at a judicial or other sale in favor of the United States, the distiller may give bond on Form 3–A, in lieu of the consent of the person possessing the right of redemption, and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, or other lienor, and be allowed, upon complying with all other provisions of law and this part, to operate such distillery during the existence of the right of redemption from such sale. A distiller desiring to give bond in such case shall file application, in triplicate, with the district supervisor for permission so to do. The application shall contain a full and clear statement of the condition of the title, including the name and address of the person having the right of redemption and of all encumbrances, the kind, date, and amount of each encumbrance, the date of the sale, and the date of expiration of the right of redemption. The penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, together with the buildings and distillery apparatus. If, after such bond is filed, the value of the distillery premises, buildings, or distilling apparatus is increased by additional land, buildings, or distilling apparatus, an additional bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required: Provided, That if such increase in value is less than $5,000, no additional bond will be required. The appraisal shall be made in accordance with the provisions of § 183.144.

§ 183.150 Certificate of title. The distiller shall submit a certificate and, when required, an abstract, in triplicate, of the title to the distillery premises, prepared by a person authorized by the laws of the State in which the distillery is located to prepare such documents. The document must contain an accurate description of the distillery premises corresponding to that set forth in the distiller's notice, and any liens or other encumbrances on the property must be fully described. Such certificate shall accompany the distiller's notice and be made a part thereof.

§ 183.151 Corporate documents. There must be submitted with, and made a part of the original or initial notice on Form 27–A, given by a corporation to engage in the business of a distiller, properly certified copies, in triplicate, of the following documents:

(a) Articles of incorporation and any amended articles of incorporation.

(b) Certificate of incorporation.

(c) Certificate authorizing corporation to operate in State where distillery is located, if other than that in which incorporated.

(d) Extracts of minutes of meetings of stockholders, showing election of directors.

(e) By-laws.

(f) Extracts of the minutes of meetings of the board of directors, showing the election of officers.

(g) Extracts of the minutes of meetings of the board of directors, authorizing certain officers or other persons to sign for the corporation.

(h) List of the names and addresses of the officers and directors.

(i) List of stockholders, as provided in § 183.152.

§ 183.152 List of stockholders. In the case of corporations and similar legal entities, there must be submitted with Form 27–A, at the commencement of business and annually thereafter on May 1, a list of the names and addresses of all stockholders and other persons interested in the corporation or other legal entity and the amount and nature of the stockholding or other interest of each, whether such interest appears in the name of the interested party or in the name of another for him: Provided, That where more than 100 persons are interested in the corporation or other legal entity as stockholders or otherwise, there need be furnished only the names and addresses and the amounts and nature of the stockholding or other interest of the 100 persons having the largest ownership or other interest in each of the respective classes of stock or other interest, except where more complete information shall be specifically required by the Commissioner or the district supervisor: And provided further, That where there has been no change in the stockholders and other persons interested in the corporation or other legal entity, or in the extent of the stockholding or other interest of such persons, the distiller may furnish, in connection with the annual notice a certified statement, in triplicate, to that effect in lieu of the prescribed list. Where a corporation operates two or more distilleries or other plants situated in the same supervisory district, or wholly owns one or more subsidiaries operating distilleries or other plants so situated, and in connection with qualifying for the operation of one of such distilleries or plants files a list of stockholders and other persons interested, as prescribed herein, the filing of an additional list for each distillery will not be required, provided that in lieu of such additional list there is submitted with the distiller's notice, Form 27–A, a certificate, in triplicate, definitely identifying the corporation and plant with whose notice the list of stockholders and other persons interested is filed, and giving the date of the filing thereof.

§ 183.153 Affidavit. In the case of a corporation, there must be submitted with each list of stockholders an affidavit, in triplicate, executed by an officer of the corporation authorized so to do, showing the number of shares of each class of stock or other evidence of ownership, such as voting trust certificates, authorized and outstanding, the par value thereof, and the voting rights of the respective owners or holders, and certifying to the correctness of the list of stockholders or the statement authorized to be furnished with the notice in lieu of such list. In the case of an individual owner, copartnership, or association, there must be submitted with Form 27–A, at the commencement of business and annually thereafter on May 1, an affidavit, in triplicate, giving the name of every person interested or to be interested in the distillery, whether such interest appears in the name of the interested party or in the name of another for him.

§ 183.154 Articles of copartnership or association. In the case of a copartnership or association, a certified copy, in triplicate, of the articles of copartnership or association, if any, and, where the business is to be conducted under a firm or trade name, a trade name certificate or statement in lieu thereof, in accordance with § 183.228, shall be submitted with and constitute a part of the notice, Form 27–A.

§ 183.155 Power of attorney, Form 1534. If the notice or other qualifying documents are signed by an attorney in fact for an individual, partnership, association, or corporation, or by one of the members for a copartnership or association, or, in the case of a corporation, by an officer or other person not authorized to sign by the corporate documents described in § 183.151, such notice or other qualifying documents must be supported by a duly authenticated copy of the power of attorney conferring authority upon the person signing the document to execute the same. Such powers of attorney will be executed on Form 1534, in triplicate, and submitted to the district supervisor.

§ 183.156 Execution of power of attorney. Where the principal giving the power of attorney is an individual, it must be executed by him in person, and not by an agent. In the case of a copartnership or association, powers of attorney authorizing one or more of the members, or another person, to execute documents on behalf of the copartnership or association must be executed by all of the members constituting the copartnership or association. However, if one or more members less than the whole number constituting the copartnership or association have been delegated the authority to appoint agents or attorneys in fact, the power of attorney may be executed by such member or members, provided it is supported by a duly authenticated copy, in triplicate, of the document conferring authority upon the member or members to execute the same. Where, in the case of a corporation, powers of attorney are executed by an officer thereof, such documents must be supported by triplicate copies of the authorization of such officer so to do, certified by the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation, under the corporate seal, if any, to be true copies.

§ 183.157 Duration of power of attorney. Powers of attorney authorizing the execution of documents on behalf of a person engaged in, or intending to engage in, the business of a distiller shall continue in effect until written notice, in triplicate, of the revocation of such authority is received by the district supervisor, unless terminated by operation of law.

§ 183.158 Bond, Form 30. Every person intending to commence or to continue the business of a distiller shall, upon filing his notice of such intention, Form 27–A, and before proceeding with such business, and on the 1st day of May of each succeeding year, execute bond on Form 30, in triplicate, in conformity with the provisions of Subpart I of this part and file the same with the district supervisor.

§ 183.159 Penal sum. The penal sum of the distiller's bond, Form 30, shall be not less than the amount of the internal revenue tax at the rate prescribed by law on the maximum quantity of distilled spirits that will be distilled in the distillery during a period of 15 days of 24 hours each, but in no case shall the penal sum of the bond be less than $5,000 or greater than $100,000. Where the distiller has not furnished bond in the maximum penal sum of $100,000 and he intends to produce a larger quantity of spirits than that covered by his bond, he must file a new or additional bond in a sufficient penal sum to cover the tax on the increased quantity to be produced. Likewise, where the quantity of spirits actually produced during any period of 15 days exceeds the penal sum of the bond on file, if in less than the maximum penal sum, the distiller must furnish immediately a new or additional bond in a sufficient penal sum, effective as of the beginning of such period. If an additional bond is furnished in either case, it must be in accordance with § 183.189.

§ 183.160 Registry of stills, Form 26. Every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still or distilling apparatus set up must register the same with the district supervisor for the district in which it is located, on Form 26, immediately it is set up in accordance with the instructions on the form. Such registration shall be verified in the manner prescribed in § 183.125 with respect to notice on Form 27–A.

§ 183.161 Plat and plans. Every person intending to engage in the business of a distiller must submit to the district supervisor with his notice, Form 27–A, an accurate plat of the distillery premises and accurate plans of the buildings, apparatus, and equipment thereon, in triplicate, conforming to the requirements of Subpart J of this part.

§ 183.162 Statement of process. There must be submitted to the district supervisor with the distiller's original notice, Form 27–A, a statement of process, in triplicate. Upon any change in the process, a new statement, in triplicate, must be filed with the district supervisor. Reference by date to the current statement of process must be incorporated in each annual notice, Form 27–A. The statement of process should present a step by step description of the mashing, fermenting, distilling, purifying, and refining processes used in the production of each type of distilled spirits. It must show specifically the kind and approximate quantity, or proportion of all nonalcohol producing materials or substances added to the yeast mash or beer for the purpose of providing yeast food, or for inhibiting the action of wild yeast, or for any other purpose, and all materials used for purifying, refining, or otherwise treating the spirits. Samples of any such material or substance will be prepared and furnished to the district supervisor, upon request, for analysis by Government chemists. Materials or chemicals which are volatile, and would remain incorporated with the finished spirits after final distillation, may not be used, except that juniper berries and other aromatics may be used in the production of gin.

§ 183.163 Additional information. The Commissioner or the district supervisor may at any time, in his discretion, require the distiller to furnish such additional information as he may deem necessary.

§ 183.164 Instruments and papers made part of regulations. The terms, conditions, and instructions contained in instruments and papers required to be furnished by law or this part are hereby made a part of the regulations in this part as fully and to the same extent as if incorporated herein.

SUBPART I—BONDS AND CONSENTS OF SURETY

§ 183.170 General requirements. Every person required to file a bond or consent of surety under this part shall prepare and execute it on the prescribed form, in triplicate, in accordance with this part and the instructions printed on the form, and shall submit it to the district supervisor.

§ 183.171 Surety or security. Bonds required by this part shall be given with surety or collateral security: Provided, That in any case where the distiller operates an internal revenue bonded warehouse on the distiller premises, and the distiller's bond, Form 30, is in the maximum penal sum of $100,000, it may be accepted without surety if it is supported by the consent of the surety on the transportation and warehousing bond, Form 1571, which bond in such case shall be in the maximum penal sum of $200,000. If bonds on Forms 30 and 1571 in the maximum penal sums stated are not given, separate bonds on said forms, each with surety or security, must be given in sufficient penal sums.

(53 Stat. 310, 311, 336, 337, 339, 373, as amended, 377; 26 U. S. C. 2814, 2815, 2885, 2886, 2888, 3170, 3180; 28 Stat. 279; 6 U. S. C. 6; 44 Stat. 122; 49 Stat. 22; 6 U. S. C. 15)

§ 183.172 Corporate surety. Bonds may be given with corporate surety authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury to become surety on Federal bonds, subject to the limitations prescribed by the Secretary in Treasury Department Form 356, Commissioner of Accounts, Section of Surety Bonds, which is issued semiannually, and subject to such amendatory circulars as may be issued from time to time.

(53 Stat. 310, 311, 336, 337, 339, 373, as amended, 377; 26 U. S. C. 2814, 2815, 2885, 2886, 2888, 3170, 3180; 28 Stat. 279; 6 U. S. C. 6; 36 Stat. 241; 6 U. S. C. 8)

§ 183.173 Two or more corporate sureties. A bond executed by two or more corporate sureties shall be the joint and several liability of the principal and the sureties: Provided, That each corporate surety may limit its liability in terms upon the face of the bond in a definite, specified amount, which amount shall not exceed the limitations prescribed for such corporate surety by the Secretary, as set forth in Treasury Department Form 356. When the sureties so limit their liability, the aggregate of such limited liabilities must equal the required penal sum of the bond.

(53 Stat. 310, 311, 336, 337, 339, 373, as amended, 377; 26 U. S. C. 2814, 2815, 2885, 2888, 3170, 3180; 28 Stat. 279; 6 U. S. C. 6; 36 Stat. 241; 6 U. S. C. 8)

§ 183.174 Powers of attorney. Powers of attorney and other evidence of appointment of agents and officers to execute bonds on behalf of corporate sureties are required to be filed with, and passed upon by, the Commissioner of Accounts, Section of Surety Bonds, Treasury Department. Such powers and other evidence of appointment need not be filed with, or submitted to, district supervisors.

(53 Stat. 310, 311, 336, 337, 339, 373, as amended, 377; 26 U. S. C. 2814, 2815, 2885, 2886, 2888, 3170, 3180; 28 Stat. 279; 6 U. S. C. 6; 36 Stat. 241; 6 U. S. C. 8)

§ 183.175 Individual sureties. Bonds may be given with individual sureties, of which there must be not less than two, each of whom must qualify by executing Form 33, in triplicate. In the case of bonds given on Form 3 in accordance with the provisions of §§ 183.147 and 183.148, individual sureties are required by section 3180, I. R. C., to be residents of the collection district or county, or of an adjoining county, in the same State in which the distillery is located. In the case of other bonds required by the regulations in this part, individual sureties must be citizens of the United States and reside in the State in which the business of the principal is to be conducted. No person will be accepted as an individual surety in a State in which he is not authorized to become a surety.

§ 183.176 Ownership of real property. Each individual surety must own unencumbered real property, in fee simple, the appraised value of which, over and above any exemptions from execution allowed by the laws of the State, is equal to the penal sum of the bond. In the case of bonds given on Form 3, individual sureties must, under section 3180, I. R. C., not only be residents of the collection district or county, or of an adjoining county, in the same State in which the distillery is located, but the amount of unencumbered real property which they are required to own must also be situated in the said district or county, or adjoining county. In the case of other bonds required by this part, the amount of unencumbered real property which individual sureties are required to own must be located within the State where the business of the principal is to be conducted.

§ 183.177 Description of real property. The real property must be described in the surety's affidavit, Form 33, with all of the formalities required in conveyances of real estate by the laws of the State in which it is situated.

§ 183.178 Execution of Form 33. The surety's affidavit on Form 33 shall contain all of the information required by this Part and the instructions printed on the form. The form shall be subscribed and sworn to before an officer duly authorized to administer oaths, and one copy thereof shall be attached to each copy of the bond to which it relates.

§ 183.179 Certificate of title. There must be submitted with the surety's affidavit, Form 33, a certificate of title, in triplicate, showing that the surety has a fee simple title, free of encumbrances, to the realty described in the form.

§ 183.180 Appraisal. There will also be submitted with Form 33 an appraisal, in triplicate, by two or more competent persons designated by the district supervisor for the purpose, showing separately the value of the land and buildings, and a full and clear statement of the method employed by them in determining their valuation. The appraisal shall be at the expense of the principal on the bond, unless it is made by Government officers.

§ 183.181 Investigation. The district supervisor will cause an investigation to be made of all the facts stated in the surety's affidavit on Form 33 and supporting documents.

§ 183.182 Requalification. The Commissioner or district supervisor may at any time, in his discretion, require the requalification of individual sureties on Form 33.

§ 183.183 Interest in business. The surety, whether individual or corporate, must have no interest whatever in the business covered by the bond.

§ 183.184 Deposit of collateral. Bonds or notes of the United States, or other obligations which are unconditionally guaranteed as to both interest and principal by the United States, may be pledged and deposited by principals as collateral security in lieu of individual or corporate sureties. District supervisors on receiving such bonds or notes, or other obligations, pledged and deposited by principals as collateral security in lieu of surety, shall deposit such securities in accordance with the requirements of Department Circular No. 154, revised (31 CFR, Part 225).

(44 Stat. 122, as amended; 49 Stat. 22; 6 U. S. C. 15)

§ 183.185 Consents of surety. Consents of surety to a change in the terms of a bond must be executed on Form 1533, in as many copies as are required of the bond which they affect, by the principal and all sureties with the same formality and proof of authority to execute as are required for the execution of bonds. Form 1533 will be used by obligors on collateral bonds as well as those on surety bonds. The Form 1533 must properly identify the bond affected thereby and state specifically and precisely what is covered by the extended terms thereof. If the surety is a corporation, the consent may be executed by an agent or attorney in fact duly authorized so to do by power of attorney filed by the surety with the appropriate district supervisor, or the consent may be executed by the home office officials of such corporate surety; except that, in cases where the saving of time is an element, the consent may be executed by an agent or attorney in fact where the home office officials, by specific direction, order its execution. A copy of such specific direction should be attached to each copy of such consent.

§ 183.186 Approval required. No individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association, intending to commence or to continue the business of a distiller, shall commence or continue such business until all bonds in respect of such business required by any provision of law have been approved.

§ 183.187 Authority to approve. District supervisors are authorized to approve all bonds and consents of surety required by this part.

§ 183.188 Cause for disapproval. Bonds or consents of surety submitted by any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association, in respect to the business of a distiller may be disapproved if the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association giving the same, or owning, controlling, or actively participating in the management of such business of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association giving the same, shall have been previously convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction of (a) any fraudulent noncompliance with any provision of any law of the United States, if such provision relates to internal revenue or customs taxation of distilled spirits, wines, or fermented malt liquors, or if such an offense shall have been compromised with the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association upon payment of penalties or otherwise; or (b) any felony under a law of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or the United States, prohibiting the manufacture, sale, importation, or transportation of distilled spirits, wine, fermented malt liquor, or other intoxicating liquor. The distiller's bond, Form 30, may also be disapproved if the situation of the distillery is such as would enable the distiller to defraud the United States.

§ 183.189 Additional or strengthening bonds. In all cases where the penal sum of the bond on file and in effect is not sufficient, computed as prescribed by law and this part, the principal may give an additional or strengthening bond in a sufficient penal sum, provided the surety thereon is the same as on the bond already on file and in effect; otherwise a new bond covering the entire liability will be required. Such additional or strengthing bonds, being filed to increase the bond liability of the principal and the surety, are in no sense substitute bonds, and the district supervisor will refuse to approve any additional or strengthening bond where any notation is made thereon intended, or which may be construed, as a release of any former bond, or as limiting the amount of either bond to less than its full penal sum. Additional or strengthening bonds must show the current date of execution and the effective date in the blank spaces provided therefor. Such bonds must have marked thereon, by the obligors at the time of execution, "Additional Bond," or "Strengthening Bond."

§ 183.190 New bond. A new bond may be required at any time in the discretion of the Commissioner or district supervisor. A new bond shall be required immediately in the case of the death or insolvency of an individual surety, or the insolvency of a corporate surety. Executors, administrators, assignees, receivers, trustees, or other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity, continuing or liquidating the business of the principal, must execute and file a new bond or obtain the consent of the surety or sureties on the existing bond or bonds. When, in the opinion of the Commissioner or the district supervisor, the interests of the Government demand it, or in any case where the security of the bond becomes impaired in whole or in part for any reason whatever, the principal will be required to give a new bond. Where a bond is found to be not acceptable, the principal shall be required to file immediately a new and satisfactory bond, or discontinue business forthwith.

§ 183.191 Superseding bond. Where a new bond is submitted by the principal to supersede a bond or bonds then in effect, and such superseding bond has been approved, notice of termination of the superseded bond may be issued as provided in Subpart P of this part. Superseding bonds must show the current date of execution and the date they are to be effective, and each such bond shall have marked thereon, by the obligors at the time of execution, "Superseding Bond."

SUBPART J—PLATS AND PLANS

§ 183.200 Plat and plans required. Every person intending to engage in the business of a distiller must, as provided in § 183.161, file an accurate plat and accurate plans of the distillery premises, apparatus, and equipment, in triplicate, with the district supervisor.

(53 Stat. 312, 373, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2816, 3170)

§ 183.201 Preparation. Every plat and plan shall be drawn to scale, and each sheet thereof shall bear a distinctive title, enabling ready identification. The cardinal points of the compass must appear on each sheet, except the elevational plans. The minimum scale of any plat will be not less than 1/50 inch per foot. Each sheet of the original plat and plans shall be numbered, the first being designated number 1, and the other sheets numbered in consecutive order. Plats and plans shall be submitted on sheets of tracing cloth, opaque cloth, or sensitized linen. The dimensions of plats and plans shall be 15 by 20 inches, outside measurement, with a clear margin of at least 1 inch on each side of the drawing, lettering, and writing. Plats and plans may be original drawings, or reproductions made by the "ditto process," or by blue or brown line lithoprint, if such reproductions are clear and distinct.

§ 183.202 Depiction of distillery premises. Plats must show the outer boundaries of the distillery premises by courses and distances, in feet and inches, in a color contrasting with those used for other drawings on the plat, and the point of beginning, with respect to its distance and bearings, from some near and well-known landmark, and must contain an accurate depiction of the building or buildings comprising the premises, and any driveway, public highway, or railroad right-of-way adjacent thereto, or connecting therewith. The depiction of the premises shall agree with the description in the notice, Form 27-A. If the distillery premises consists of two or more lots or parcels of land, the condition of the title to which is not the same, each such lot or tract shall be separately depicted by courses and distances, in feet and inches, and such lots or parcels shall be delineated or cross-hatched in contrasting colors. If two or more buildings are to be used, the designated name of each shall be indicated, and all pipe lines or other connections, if any, between the same, depicted. Where two or more buildings are used for the same purpose, the name of each such building shall include an alphabetical designation, beginning with "A," and they shall be so shown on the plat. All first floor exterior doors of each building on the premises will be shown on the plat. Except as provided in § 183.208, all pipe lines leading to or from the premises, the purpose for which used, and the points of origin and termination will be indicated on the plat.

§ 183.203 Rectifying plant within 600 feet. Where a distillery is to be established on premises at a distance of less than 600 feet in a direct line from a rectifying plant, the plat must show the relative location of such premises, all pipe lines and other connections, if any, between them, and the distance, in feet and inches, that they are from each other in a direct line. The outlines of the two premises must be shown in contrasting colors.

§ 183.204 Contiguous premises. Where an internal revenue bonded warehouse, rectifying plant, tax-paid bottling house, or other premises on which liquors are manufactured, stored, or sold, is contiguous to the distillery premises the plat must show the relative location of the distillery and such contiguous premises, and all pipe lines, if any, and other connections between them. The outlines of such contiguous premises and the distillery premises must also be shown in contrasting colors.

§ 183.205 Floor plans. The plans shall include a floor plan of each floor of each building, showing the general dimensions of the rooms and floors, and the location of all doors, windows, and other openings, and how such openings are protected. All fixed apparatus and equipment, except pipe lines, must be shown in their exact location on the floor plans, and their designated use indicated. Pipe lines may also be shown, if desired. In the case of stills, tanks, and similar equipment, the serial number and capacity shall also be shown.

§ 183.206 Pipe lines in colors. The pipe lines must be shown on the plans in the colors in which they are required to be painted, as prescribed by § 183.116.

(53 Stat. 312, 373, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2816, 3170)

§ 183.207 Location of valves, flanges, locks, etc. All valves, flanges, and other connections in pipe lines must be properly indicated on the plans: Provided, That where flanges, unions, or other connections in pipe lines are brazed, welded, or otherwise permanently secured in such a manner as to constitute a continuous, single pipe line, the location of such flanges, unions, or other connections, and the manner of securing the same, need not be shown on the plans. The location of all Government locks required to secure the apparatus and equipment, and the doors of rooms and buildings, must be indicated on the plans by the symbol "GL" at the points where the locks are to be attached.

§ 183.208 Pipe lines exempted. Approved public or private utility service lines, such as sewers, electric or gas conduits or pipes, and approved sprinkler, refrigeration, or heating systems which have no connection with the distilling equipment or any apparatus or pipe line connected therewith, need not be shown on the plans, provided that the point of entry to the bonded premises shall be indicated on the plans.

§ 183.209 Elevational flow diagrams. Elevational flow diagrams (plans) shall be submitted covering: (a) Distilling material system, (b) mashing and fermenting systems, (c) distilling systems, and (d) the cistern room system. Such diagrams or plans shall clearly depict all equipment in its relative operating sequence, and elevation by floors with all connecting pipe lines, valves, flanges (except as provided in § 183.207), Government locks, measuring devices, etc. The elevation by floors on the diagrams may be indicated by horizontal lines representing floor levels. All the flow diagrams as a unit must show the flow of the distilling material, and the resulting products, through the mills, mash tubs, fermenters, stills, doublers, try boxes, and other equipment, and the deposit and removal of the finished spirits from the cistern room. All major equipment, fermenters, stills, etc., must be identified on these plans as to number and use. The elevational flow diagrams must be properly identified, and so drawn that all fixed pipe lines, except those indicated by § 183.208 may be readily traced from beginning to end: Provided, That pipe lines leading to and from other buildings on the same or contiguous premises may be designated as to point of origin or termination. The direction of the flow of spirits through the pipe lines must be indicated on the flow diagram by arrows. Other types of plans that clearly depict the information required herein may be submitted in compliance with this section.

§ 183.210 Certificate of accuracy. The plat and plans shall bear a certificate of accuracy in the lower right-hand corner of each sheet, signed by the distiller, the draftsman, and the district supervisor, substantially in the following form:

(Name of distiller)

(Address)

Approved ---
(Date)

(District Supervisor)

Accuracy certified by:

(Name and capacity—for the distiller)

(Draftsman)

Date ---, 19---

Sheet No. ---

§ 183.211 Revised plats and plans. The sheets of revised plats and plans shall bear the same number as the sheets superseded, but will be given a new date. Any additional plats and plans will be given a new number in consecutive order, or will be otherwise numbered and lettered in such manner as will permit the filing of the plats and plans in proper sequence.

SUBPART K—REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING CHANGES IN NAME, PROPRIETORSHIP, CONTROL, LOCATION, PREMISES AND EQUIPMENT, AND IN THE TITLE TO THE DISTILLERY PROPERTY OR THE ENCUMBRANCE THEREOF

§ 183.220 General requirement. Under the law, notice in writing must be given, in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, to the district supervisor in case of any change in the location, form, capacity, ownership, agency, superintendency, or in the persons interested in the business of the distillery.

CHANGE IN INDIVIDUAL, FIRM, OR CORPORATE NAME

§ 183.221 Amended notice, Form 27–A and amended basic permit. Where there is a change in the individual, firm, or corporate name of the distiller, the distiller must submit to the district supervisor an amended notice on Form 27–A, in triplicate, covering the new name, which notice must be approved before operations may be commenced under the new name. He must also procure from the district supervisor under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act an amended basic permit authorizing operation of the distillery under the new name.

(53 Stat. 309, 373, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2812, 3170; 49 Stat. 978, as amended; 27 U. S. C. 203)

§ 183.222 Amended articles of incorporation, etc. Where there is a change in the corporate name of the distiller, he must submit to the district supervisor certified copies, in triplicate, of the amended articles of incorporation and the amended certificate of incorporation issued under the laws of the State in which incorporated, covering the change in the corporate name. If the operations are conducted in a State other than the State in which incorporated, there must also be submitted to the district supervisor certified copies, in triplicate, of the amended certificate issued under the laws of the State in which the operations are conducted authorizing the corporation to operate under its new name in such State. If other documents than those specified are required under the laws of the State to effect a change in the name of the corporation, certified copies, in triplicate, of such documents must be submitted with the notice, Form 27–A, in lieu of those specified.

§ 183.223 Amended articles of copartnership or association. Where there is a change in the name of the copartnership or association, the distiller will submit to the district supervisor certified copies, in triplicate, of the amended articles of copartnership or association, if any.

(53 Stat. 309; 26 U. S. C. 2812)

§ 183.224 Sign. Where there is a change in the individual, firm, or corporate name, the distiller will change the distillery sign to conform to the provisions of § 183.80.

(53 Stat. 318; 26 U. S. C. 2831)

§ 183.225 Branding and warehousing. Where there is a change in the individual, firm, or corporate name, the distiller will, upon receipt of the district supervisor's authorization, as provided in § 183.304, mark and brand and warehouse, or remove, under such new name the finished spirits produced thereunder.

§ 183.226 Records. Where there is a change in the individual, firm, or corporate name, the distiller will keep records and submit reports covering operations under the new name as provided in § 183.648 in the case of operations under different trade names and styles.

(53 Stat. 321, 322; 26 U. S. C. 2841, 2844)

TRADE NAMES

§ 183.227 Basic qualification required. Where the distillery is to be operated under a trade name or style, or under a number of trade names or styles, the distiller must file with the district supervisor a letterhead application for approval of such name or names. The district supervisor will forward such applications to the Bureau for action by the Commissioner. If the Commissioner finds that the name or names may be used he will so advise the district supervisor. The distiller will be advised accordingly. He may then file with the district supervisor an amended Form 27–A as provided in § 183.136 for permission to operate under the trade name (only one) specifying the date operations are to begin, and if the additional name or style has not previously been specified in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act Permit, he must also procure from the district supervisor an amended basic permit. The district supervisor's action will be in accordance with § 183.304.

(53 Stat. 309; 26 U. S. C. 2812; 49 Stat. 978, as amended; 27 U. S. C. 203)

§ 183.228 Trade names certificate; amended articles of incorporation. It will be the responsibility of the distiller to comply with all state laws by filing certified copies of trade names and amended articles of incorporation where required. If no such certificate, or amended articles of incorporation are required, the distiller will furnish a statement to that effect.

§ 183.229 Sign. The distillery sign must be changed to conform to the provisions of § 183.80, unless operation under the trade name is to be temporary, in which event it will not be necessary to change such sign.

§ 183.230 Branding and warehousing. The finished spirits must be branded and warehoused under each trade name in which produced as provided in § 183.647.

§ 183.231 Records. Appropriate entries must be made in the distillery records covering operations under each trade name, as provided in § 183.648.

(53 Stat. 321, 373; 26 U. S. C. 2841, 3171)

§ 183.232 Period of operations. Where the distillery is operated under more than one trade name or style, the operation under each must be in multiples of 24 hours.

§ 183.233 Subsequent operations. The basic qualifying documents having once been filed by the distiller and approved by the district supervisor, the distiller will qualify for subsequent operations, that is, changing from one trade name to another trade name, or from a trade name to the principal, or vice versa, in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.273.

CHANGES IN PROPRIETORSHIP

§ 183.234 Requirements of transfer. Where there is to be a change in the proprietorship of the distillery, the outgoing distiller must, preparatory to transfer of the business to the successor, comply with the requirements of §§ 183.235–183.240.

§ 183.235 Notice, Form 27–A. If the outgoing distiller is to discontinue permanently the business of distilling spirits, he will file with the district supervisor Form 27–A, in triplicate, stating thereon the purpose to be "Discontinuance of business," and giving the date of the discontinuance. If the outgoing distiller is to temporarily discontinue the business of distilling during operation of the distillery by the successor, the statement of the purpose on the notice shall conform to the provisions of § 183.270 (a).

§ 183.236 Registry of stills. If the business is to be permanently discontinued, the distiller will file Form 26, in triplicate, in accordance with § 183.640.

§ 183.237 Notice of suspension. The distiller will file with the district supervisor Form 124, in duplicate, in accordance with Subpart Z of this part.

§ 183.238 Finished spirits. The distiller will draw off, brand and mark, and remove all finished spirits in the individual, firm, or corporate name, or trade name or style, under which they were produced.

§ 183.239 Materials and unfinished spirits. If distilling materials and unfinished spirits are to be transferred to the successor, the distiller will file with the district supervisor Form 1614, in quadruplicate, in accordance with Subpart DD of this part. If the unfinished spirits and distilling materials are not to be so transferred, he must completely finish operations in accordance with the provisions of said subpart.

§ 183.240 Records. The distiller will make appropriate entries in the distillery records and submit reports in accordance with the provisions of § 183.673.

§ 183.241 Qualification of successor. Where there is a change in proprietorship, and the successor intends to continue operation of the plant as a registered distillery, he must comply with the requirements of §§ 183.242–183.248.

§ 183.242 Lessee. If the successor is a lessee, he must qualify in the same manner as the proprietor of a new distillery, regardless of the temporary nature of the tenancy, except that he may adopt the plat and plans of his predecessor as provided in § 183.246. The lessee must also file with the district supervisor certified copies, in triplicate, of the lease.

§ 183.243 Other nonfiduciary successor. If the change in proprietorship is brought about by any other means, except by the appointment of an administrator, executor, receiver, trustee, assignee, or other fiduciary, the successor must likewise qualify in the same manner as the proprietor of a new distillery, except that he may adopt the plat and plans of his predecessor as provided in § 183.246.

§ 183.244 Fiduciary. If the successor is an administrator, executor, receiver, trustee, assignee, or other fiduciary, and intends to produce spirits, or to possess or dispose of spirits on hand in the distillery, he must comply with the provisions of Subparts C and H of this part, to the extent that such provisions are applicable, except that in lieu of filing a new bond and new plat and plans, the fiduciary may furnish a consent of surety extending the terms of his predecessor's bond and adopt the plat and plans of such predecessor in accordance with §§ 183.245–183.246. The fiduciary must also furnish certified copies, in triplicate, of the order of the court or other pertinent documents showing his qualification as such fiduciary. The effective date of the qualifying documents filed by a fiduciary should be the same as the date of the court order, or the date specified therein, for him to assume control.

§ 183.245 Consent of surety. The consent of surety extending the terms of the predecessor's bond to cover operation of the distillery by a fiduciary must conform to the requirements of § 183.185, and be executed by both the fiduciary and the surety.

§ 183.246 Adoption of plat and plans. The plat and plans of the distillery may be adopted by a successor where they correctly describe and depict the distillery premises and the buildings, apparatus, and equipment thereon, to be taken over by the successor. The adoption by a successor of the plat and plans of his predecessor shall be in the form of a certificate, in triplicate, in which shall be set forth the name of the predecessor, the address and registered number of the distillery, a description of the distillery premises, or in lieu thereof reference to the successor's Form 27–A describing such premises, the number of each sheet comprising each plat and plan covered by such certificate, and a statement that the distillery premises, and the buildings, apparatus, and equipment thereon, are correctly described and depicted on such plat and plans.

§ 183.247 Sign. The successor, if other than a fiduciary temporarily operating the distillery, must change the distillery sign to conform to the requirements of § 183.80.

§ 183.248 Materials and unfinished spirits. If distilling materials and unfinished spirits are received by transfer from the predecessor, the successor must comply with the requirements of Subpart DD of this part.

OTHER CHANGES IN PROPRIETORSHIP OR OF CONTROL

§ 183.249 Changes in partnership. The withdrawal of one or more members of a partnership or the taking in of a new partner, whether active or silent, shall constitute a change in proprietorship. Likewise, the bankruptcy or adjudicated insolvency of one or more of the copartners results in a dissolution of the partnership and, consequently, a change in proprietorship. Where such a change in proprietorship of the distillery occurs, the successor must qualify in the same manner as the proprietor of a new distillery, except that the successor may adopt the plat and plans of the predecessor as provided in § 183.246.

§ 183.250 Changes in stockholders, officers, and directors of corporation. The sale or transfer of the capital stock of a corporation operating a distillery does not constitute a change in the proprietorship of the distillery. However, where the sale or transfer of capital stock results in a change in the control or management of the business, or where there is any change in the officers or directors, the distiller must give notice thereof, in triplicate, to the district supervisor within 24 hours of such change. Mere changes in stockholders of corporations not constituting a change in control need not be so reported. The district supervisor must, in the case of changes in officers or directors, be furnished extracts, in triplicate, of the minutes of the meetings showing such changes.

§ 183.251 Reincorporation. Where a corporation operating a distillery is reorganized and a new charter or certificate of incorporation is secured, the new corporation must qualify in the same manner as a new proprietor of the distillery, except that the new corporation may adopt the plat and plans of the predecessor as provided in § 183.246.

CHANGES IN LOCATION, PREMISES AND EQUIPMENT

§ 183.252 Change in location. Where there is a change in the location of the distillery premises, the distiller must comply with all applicable provisions of Subparts C to H, inclusive, except that in lieu of the filing of a new distiller's bond, Form 30, the distiller may furnish a consent of surety, Form 1533, in accordance with § 183.185, extending the terms of the distiller's bond given for the former location to cover operation of the distillery at the new location.

§ 183.253 Changes in premises. Where the distillery premises are to be extended or curtailed, the distiller must file with the district supervisor an amended notice, Form 27–A, and an amended plat of the premises as extended or curtailed, except as herein specifically authorized in the case of alternate operations of the bottling department. If the plans are affected by the extension or curtailment, they must also be amended. If the distillery is within 600 feet of a rectifying plant, the distiller must also file a special application in accordance with §§ 183.42 and 183.43. The additional premises covered by an extension may not be used for distillery purposes, and the portion of the distillery premises to be excluded by a curtailment may not be used for other than distillery purposes, prior to approval of the notice, Form 27–A. Where an internal revenue bonded warehouse containing a bottling-in-bond department is located on the distillery premises, and the documents required by Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185) governing the alternate operation of the bottling house as a bottling-in-bond department and a tax-paid bottling house, are filed, and no change in proprietorship is involved, the filing of additional notices, Form 27–A, covering changes in the temporary status thereof from time to time will not be required.

§ 183.254 Changes in construction and use. Where a change is to be made in the construction of a room or building not involving an extension or curtailment of the distillery premises, or where a change is to be made in the use of any portion of such premises, the distiller shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes. If the changes involve buildings which are to be demolished or altered in such a manner as to decrease the value of the property the application shall include: (a) The date of original purchase; (b) the name and address of the vendor; (c) the original cost; and (d) the present book value and method used in determining such value. Upon approval of the application, the changes will be made under the supervision of a Government officer, unless in the opinion of the district supervisor, they do not require such supervision. The completed changes will be reflected in the next amended or annual notice, Form 27–A, and amended plans filed by the distiller, unless the district supervisor requires the immediate filing of an amended notice and amended plans. If the buildings to be demolished, or altered in such a manner as to decrease the value thereof, are on premises which have been eliminated from the distillery premises, a statement in writing, in triplicate, containing the data prescribed by items (a) through (d) shall be furnished the district supervisor.

§ 183.255 Indemnity bond covering changes in buildings. If buildings on the distillery premises, or on premises, which have been eliminated from the distillery premises, are to be demolished or altered in such a manner as to decrease the value of the property, and a lien for taxes exists on such property under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., the distiller must file with the district supervisor an indemnity bond, Form 1617, in triplicate, in a penal sum equal to the decrease in the value of the property: Provided, That, if such decrease in value is less than $5,000, no indemnity bond will be required.

§ 183.256 Appraisal. The amount of the decrease in the value of the property subject to the Government's lien, which will be caused by the demolition or alteration of buildings, shall be determined by appraisal by two or more competent persons designated by the district supervisor. The appraisers shall render to the district supervisor a report, in duplicate, of their appraisal, which shall include information as to the methods employed by them in determining their valuations. The appraisal shall be at the expense of the distiller, unless made by Government officers. The district supervisor may dispense with the formal appraisal when he has reason to believe that the value of the property concerned is less than $5,000.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800)

§ 183.257 Changes in equipment. Where changes are to be made in the distilling apparatus and equipment, the distiller shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes: Provided, That emergency repairs may be made under the supervision of a Government officer without prior approval of the district supervisor. If the distilling apparatus or equipment referred to in §183.258 is to be removed, the distiller's application shall include information showing: (a) The date of original purchase; (b) the name and address of the vendor; (c) a description of the article, including model and serial numbers, if any; (d) original cost; (e) present book value and method used in determining such value; and (f) proposed disposition of the article. Where emergency repairs are made, the distiller shall file immediately a report thereof, in triplicate, with the district supervisor. Changes covered by an approved application will also be made under the supervision of a Government officer. Upon completion of any change made under his supervision, the Government officer will authorize the removal of the dismantled equipment, and the use of the new or repaired equipment, and submit a report of the changes to the district supervisor.

§ 183.258 Indemnity bond covering removal of equipment. If distilling apparatus or equipment on which a lien has attached under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., for taxes on spirits produced which have not been tax-paid or withdrawn for a tax-free purpose, is to be removed from the distillery premises without adding property that will become a fixture in law of an equal or greater value than the apparatus or equipment to be removed, the distiller must file with the district supervisor an indemnity bond on Form 1617, in triplicate. Such bond must be in a penal sum equal to the value of the apparatus or equipment to be removed, or equal to the excess in value of the apparatus or equipment to be removed over the value of the property to be substituted therefor: Provided, That if such value or difference in value, as the case may be, is less than $5,000 no indemnity bond will be required: And provided further, That no indemnity bond will be required to cover the removal of equipment from the distillery bonded premises to another bonded premises, if the two premises are controlled by the same interests. The distiller must include in his application sufficient evidence to support a request for any waiver of indemnity bond requirements. The value of the distilling apparatus or equipment to be removed, or the difference between the value of such old apparatus or equipment and the value of the new property to be added will be determined in the manner prescribed in § 183.256.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800)

§ 183.259 Amended notice and plans covering changes in equipment. Upon completion of changes in equipment which materially affect the accuracy of the Form 27–A or plans, the distiller must file an amended notice and amended plans. Where an amended notice and amended plans are not filed immediately upon completion of minor changes in equipment, such as general repairs, changes in pipe lines, or the addition or removal of a tank, the distiller must include such changes in the next amended or annual notice, and amended plans to be filed by him. The Commissioner or the district supervisor may, at any time, in his discretion, require the immediate filing of an amended notice and plans covering any change in equipment.

CHANGE IN TITLE TO DISTILLERY PROPERTY OR THE ENCUMBRANCE THEREOF

§ 183.260 Change of title. Where the title to the lot or tract of land upon which the distillery is located is changed by a sale, judicial or otherwise, or where there is any change in the ownership of the premises or the distilling apparatus or equipment, subsequent to the approval of the distiller's bond, Form 30, the distiller is no longer qualified. If the distiller desires to qualify for further operation of the distillery when such a change occurs he must file an amended notice, Form 27–A, together with the necessary consent, Form 1602, or a proper indemnity bond in lieu of such consent. In addition to such amended notice and consent or indemnity bond the district supervisor may in his discretion require the distiller to file a new distiller's bond, Form 30.

§ 183.261 Encumbrance. If subsequent to the approval of the distiller's bond the lot or tract of land upon which the distillery is situated, or any part thereof, or any of the distilling apparatus or equipment becomes subject to or encumbered by any mortgage, judgment, or other encumbrance, the distiller must immediately file (a) an amended notice, Form 27–A, (b) consent on Form 1602, or a proper indemnity bond in lieu of such consent, and (c) a consent of surety on his present distiller's bond, or a new distiller's bond in lieu of such consent.

SUBPART L—REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING OPERATION OF DISTILLERY UNDER ALTERNATING PROPRIETORSHIPS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR INITIAL ALTERNATING PROPRIETORSHIPS

§ 183.270 Where no bonded warehouse on premises. A registered distillery may be operated under alternating proprietorships for the production of distilled spirits. Where it is desired to operate a registered distillery under alternating proprietorships and there is no internal revenue bonded warehouse on the distillery premises, the successor (lessee) distiller must qualify as proprietor of the distillery in accordance with the provisions of § 183.241. At the time a distiller first suspends operations preparatory to the operation of the registered distillery by an alternate proprietor, he must discontinue operations and comply with the following requirements:

(a) Amended notice, Form 27–A. File with the district supervisor an amended notice on Form 27–A, in triplicate, stating thereon the purpose of the notice to be "Temporary discontinuance in order that the registered distillery may be operated by an alternate proprietor" and give the date of discontinuance.

(b) Consent of surety. File a blanket consent of surety, Form 1533, in triplicate, to continue in effect bond, Form 30. Such blanket consent of surety may be filed to cover all such alternate operations and may be executed in the following form:

To continue in effect the said bond, whenever operation of the distillery is resumed from time to time, pursuant to application on Form 1696, filed by the principal following suspension of operations by an alternate proprietor.

(c) Materials and unfinished spirits. If distilling materials and unfinished spirits are to be transferred to the successor, comply with the requirements of §§ 183.670, 183.671, and 183.673. Whenever the proprietorship is to be alternated after the first suspension, the procedure prescribed in §§ 183.272 and 183.273 will be followed.

§ 183.271—Where bonded warehouse on premises. Where an internal revenue bonded warehouse is located on the distillery premises, the proprietorship of the distillery may be alternated in accordance with the requirements of § 183.270. In addition, the outgoing (lessor) distiller shall designate the plat on file which depicts the entire distillery premises, including the internal revenue bonded warehouse as "Plat A" and file a new plat which will be designated as "Plat B" depicting the internal revenue bonded warehouse and any other portion of the distillery premises not to be operated by the lessee as a portion of the registered distillery. He shall also describe in the amended notice, Form 27–A, the bonded warehouse and any portion of the distillery premises not to be operated as a part of the registered distillery. The description thereof must correspond with the depiction of the premises on Plat B.

Whenever the proprietorship is to be alternated after the first suspension, the procedure prescribed by §§ 183.272 and 183.273 will be followed.

SUSPENSION FOR SUBSEQUENT ALTERNATE PROPRIETORSHIPS

§ 183.272 Requirements. Where an alternate proprietor desires to suspend operations of the registered distillery preparatory to resumption by another alternate proprietor, he must comply with the following requirements:

(a) Notice of alternate operations. File Form 1696 through the storekeeper-gauger in charge, with the district supervisor, giving notice of intention to suspend operations. The form shall be executed and filed in accordance with the various lines on the form and the instructions printed thereon, or issued in respect thereto. Form 1696 shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is executed under the penalties of perjury. Operations will be suspended upon approval of the notice by the district supervisor in accordance with § 183.274.

(b) Materials and unfinished spirits. If distilling materials and unfinished spirits are to be transferred to the successor, the procedure prescribed by §§ 183.670, 183.671, and 183.673 must be followed.

(53 Stat. 309, 324, 373, as amended; 63 Stat. 667; 26 U. S. C. 2812, 2850, 3170, 3809)

RESUMPTION FOR SUBSEQUENT ALTERNATE PROPRIETORSHIPS

§ 183.273 Requirements. Where an alternate proprietor desires to resume operation of the registered distillery following suspension by another alternate proprietor, he must comply with the following requirements:

(a) Notice of alternate operations. File Form 1696, through the storekeeper-gauger in charge, with the district supervisor for authority to resume operations. The notice shall be executed in accordance with the instructions printed on the form, and otherwise completed as provided in § 183.272.

(b) Materials and unfinished spirits. If distilling materials and unfinished spirits are to be received from the predecessor, the procedure prescribed by §§ 183.670, 183.671, and 183.673 will be followed.

(53 Stat. 309, 324, 373, as amended; 63 Stat. 667; 26 U. S. C. 2812, 2850, 3170, 3809)

ACTION BY DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

§ 183.274 Approval and disposition of Form 1696. Upon receipt of Form 1696 the district supervisor will, if he finds that the notice may properly be approved, execute the certificate of approval on all copies and dispose of the copies in accordance with the instructions printed on the form, or issued in respect thereto.

(53 Stat. 309, 373 as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2812, 3170)

SUBPART M—REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING ALTERNATE OPERATIONS AS FRUIT DISTILLERY OR INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL PLANT

QUALIFICATIONS FOR INITIAL ALTERNATING OPERATIONS

§ 183.280 Where no bonded warehouse on premises. A registered distillery may be operated alternately for the production of distilled spirits under this part, the production of brandy under Regulations 5 (26 CFR, Part 184), or the production of alcohol under Regulations 3 (26 CFR, Part 182). Where it is desired to conduct alternating operations at a registered distillery and there is no internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises, the successor (incoming) proprietor must first qualify as proprietor of the premises. At the time of the first suspension for the purpose of conducting alternate operations, the outgoing distiller must discontinue operations and comply with the following requirements:

(a) Amended notice, Form 27–A. File with the district supervisor an amended notice on Form 27–A, in triplicate, stating thereon the purpose of the notice to be "Temporary discontinuance in order that the registered distillery may be operated as a fruit distillery" (or industrial alcohol plant, as the case may be), and give the date of discontinuance.

(b) Consent of surety. File with the district supervisor a blanket consent of surety, Form 1533, in triplicate, to continue in effect bond, Form 30. Such blanket consent of surety may be filed to cover all such alternate operations and may be executed in the following form:

To continue in effect the said bond, whenever operation of the distillery is resumed from time to time, pursuant to application on Form 1696, filed by the principal following suspension of operations as an industrial alcohol plant or fruit distillery.

(c) Materials, heads and tails, and unfinished spirits. If distilling materials are transferred to the successor or if heads and tails or unfinished spirits are to be retained on the premises pending the resumption of operations as a registered distillery, comply with the requirements of §§ 183.656–183.660. Whenever alternate operations are to be conducted after the first suspension, the procedure prescribed by §§ 183.282 and 183.283 will be followed.

§ 183.281 Where bonded warehouse on premises. Where an internal revenue bonded warehouse is located on the distillery premises, the distillery may be operated alternately as a registered distillery, a fruit distillery, or an industrial alcohol plant upon compliance with the requirements of § 183.280. The distiller shall designate the plat on file which depicts the entire distillery premises, including the internal revenue bonded warehouse as "Plat A," and file a new plat which will be designated as "Plat B," depicting the internal revenue bonded warehouse and any other portion of the distillery premises not to be operated by the incoming alternate proprietor. The outgoing distiller shall also describe in the amended notice, Form 27–A, the bonded warehouse and any portion of the distillery premises not to be operated by the incoming proprietor. The description thereof must correspond with the depiction of the premises on Plat B.

Whenever alternate operations are to be conducted after the first suspension, the procedure prescribed by §§ 183.282 and 183.283 will be followed.

SUSPENSION FOR SUBSEQUENT ALTERNATE OPERATIONS

§ 183.282 Requirements. Where a distiller desires to suspend operations of the registered distillery preparatory to resumption of operations as a fruit distillery or industrial alcohol plant, he must comply with the following requirements:

(a) Notice of alternate operations. File Form 1696, through the storekeeper-gauger in charge, with the district supervisor, giving notice of intention to suspend operations. The form shall be executed and filed in accordance with the various lines on the form and the instructions printed thereon, or issued in respect thereto. Form 1696 shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is executed under the penalties of perjury. Operations will be suspended upon approval of the notice by the district supervisor in accordance with § 183.284.

(b) Materials, heads and tails, and unfinished spirits. If distilling materials are transferred to the successor or if heads and tails or unfinished spirits are to be retained on the premises pending the resumption of operations as a registered distillery, comply with the requirements of §§ 183.656–183.660.

(53 Stat. 309, 324, 373, as amended; 63 Stat. 667; 26 U. S. C. 2812, 2850, 3170, 3809)

RESUMPTION FOR SUBSEQUENT ALTERNATE OPERATIONS

§ 183.283 Requirements. Where a distiller desires to resume operation of the registered distillery following suspension of operations as an industrial alcohol plant or fruit distillery, he must comply with the following requirements:

(a) Notice of alternate operations. File Form 1696, through the storekeeper-gauger in charge, with the district supervisor for authority to resume operations. The notice shall be executed in accordance with the instructions printed on the form, or issued in respect thereto, and otherwise completed as provided in § 183.282.

(b) Materials. If distilling materials are received by transfer from the predecessor, comply with the requirements of §§ 183.659 and 183.660.

(53 Stat. 309, 324, 373, as amended; 63 Stat. 667; 26 U. S. C. 2812, 2850, 3170, 3809)

ACTION BY DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

§ 183.284 Approval and disposition of Form 1696. Upon receipt of Form 1696, the district supervisor will, if he finds that the notice may be properly approved, execute the certificate of approval on all copies and dispose of the copies in accordance with the instructions printed on the form, or issued in respect thereto.

(53 Stat. 309, 373, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2812, 3170)

SUBPART N—ACTION BY DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

ORIGINAL ESTABLISHMENT

§ 183.290 Authority to approve. District supervisors are authorized to approve all notices, bonds, consents of surety, and other qualifying documents required by this part.

§ 183.291 Special application. Where a special application for permission to operate a distillery within 600 feet of a rectifying plant is submitted by the distiller, and such special application conforms to the requirements of this part, the district supervisor will cause an inspection to be made to determine whether the proposed operation of the distillery within 600 feet of the rectifying plant may be permitted without jeopardy to the revenue. The inspector will ascertain whether the application accurately describes the relative location of the two premises and all pipe lines and other connections, if any, between such premises. The inspector will also observe the surroundings, including all streets, roads, and driveways connecting the two premises, and any condition which might endanger the revenue, and will describe the same in his report. If the district supervisor finds, upon consideration of the inspection report, that the distillery may be operated at the designated location without danger to the revenue, he will note his approval on all copies of the special application. He will then return one copy of the approved application to the applicant, retain one copy for his files, and forward the remaining copy, together with a copy of the inspection report, to the Commissioner. Approval of the special application pertains to the location of the distillery only, and does not authorize the operation thereof. The distillery may not be operated until the distiller's bond and other qualifying documents required by law and this part have been filed and approved. If the special application is disapproved, the district supervisor will note his disapproval thereon, retain one copy and return all remaining copies of such application to the applicant, with advice as to the reasons for disapproval.

§ 183.292 Distillery fence application. Where a special application for permission to construct and maintain a fence or wall of a greater height than 5 feet around the distillery is submitted, and such application conforms to the requirements of this part, the district supervisor will, if he finds that the construction and maintenance of such fence or wall is necessary to give adequate protection from trespassers, and that the revenue would not be endangered, note his approval on all copies of the special application, return one copy to the applicant, retain one copy for his files, and forward one copy to the Commissioner with the distiller's notice, bond, and other qualifying documents. If the district supervisor finds that the construction and maintenance of such fence or wall is not necessary to afford protection from trespassers, or that the revenue would be endangered thereby, he will note his disapproval on the special application, retain one copy and return the remaining copies to the applicant with a statement of the reasons for disapproval.

§ 183.293 Indemnity bond application. When an application for permission to file an indemnity bond in lieu of the written consent of the owner of the distillery premises or apparatus or equipment, or of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, conditional sales vendor, or other person having a lien thereon, is submitted by the distiller and such application conforms to the requirements of this part, the district supervisor will cause an investigation to be made of the facts upon which the application is based, and will designate two or more competent persons to make an appraisal of the value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus. The appraisal shall be made as provided in § 183.144. If the district supervisor finds, upon consideration of the appraisal and reports of investigation, that under the law and this part an indemnity bond may properly be accepted in lieu of the consent of the owner or lienor, and if he is satisfied that the valuation placed upon the distillery property by the appraisers is fair, he will note the appraised value and his approval on all copies of the application. He will then return one copy of the approved application to the applicant and retain one copy for his files. He will forward the remaining copy of the application and copies of the reports of investigation and appraisal to the Commissioner at the time of forwarding the indemnity bond. If the application is disapproved, the district supervisor will note his disapproval thereon, retain one copy and return the remaining copies of such application to the applicant with a statement of the reasons for disapproval.

§ 183.294 Examination of other qualifying documents. Upon receipt of notice, plat, plans, bond, consent (Form 1602), if any, or indemnity bond in lieu thereof, and other documents required by this part, of persons intending to qualify as distillers, the district supervisor will examine the same to determine whether they have been properly executed, and whether they reflect compliance with the requirements of the law and this part. Where any required document has not been filed, or where errors or discrepancies are found in those filed, or where the documents filed do not reflect compliance with this part, action thereon will be held in abeyance until the omission, or error, or discrepancy has been rectified, and there has been full compliance with all requirements.

§ 183.295 Inspection of premises. When the required documents have been filed in proper form, the district supervisor will assign an inspector to examine the premises, buildings, apparatus, and equipment, and determine whether they conform with the description thereof in the notice, plat and plans, and special applications, if any, and whether the construction and measures of protection afforded meet the requirements of the law and this part. The inspector will observe particularly the manner in which the rooms or buildings on the premises are separated from each other and from other premises, means of communication, ingress and egress, adequacy of protection afforded windows, doors, and other openings, construction of apparatus and equipment, and the suitability of the Government office and facilities. The inspector will also make careful inquiry respecting the applicant's title to, or interest in, the lot or tract of land, the distillery, and the apparatus and equipment, in order to determine whether proper consents on Form 1602 of the owner and of any mortgagees, judgment-creditors, lienors, other encumbrancers, conditional sales vendors, or prior lessees, have been procured and submitted by the applicant. The inspector will examine the records in the office of the recorder of deeds or other office where titles and matters affecting titles are filed to verify the statements of the applicant respecting his title to, or interest in, the property. The inspector should require the applicant to submit for examination invoices, bills of sale, conditional sales contracts, leases, or other commercial paper for verification of the statements made on Form 27–A respecting his title to, or interest in, the apparatus and equipment. Where the inspection discloses minor irregularities in the qualifying documents or in the construction, the inspector will, at the time of their discovery, direct the attention of the applicant to the same in order that the applicant may correct the defects before completion of the inspection. Upon completion of the inspection, a report thereof will be submitted to the district supervisor.

§ 183.296 Report of inspection. The report of the inspection shall describe separately all irregularities and discrepancies found during the course of the inspection, and shall include a complete statement describing all unusual or special conditions. Where irregularities were corrected during the inspection, the report will indicate the corrections so made. The report need not set out in detail each description as set forth in the notice, plat, and plans. The description of buildings and equipment in the report should be general and brief. However, construction, equipment, signs, etc., which are not in conformity with the law and this part, will be completely described. If there are any pipe lines or other connections or openings between the bonded premises and other premises, the same shall be described in detail. There shall be further embodied in the report a statement as to whether or not another business is being conducted, or is intended to be conducted, on the bonded premises or in buildings thereon.

§ 183.297 Inaccurate documents. Where the district supervisor's examination, or the inspector's report, discloses discrepancies in the qualifying documents, the inaccurate or incomplete documents will be returned to the proprietor for correction. A record will be kept of all bonds so returned.

§ 183.298 Defective construction. Where it is found that the construction of the distillery or its equipment does not conform to the requirements of the law and this part, the district supervisor will inform the proprietor concerning the defects, and further action will be held in abeyance pending correction thereof.

§ 183.299 Law violation record. Before approving any bond or consent of surety given by any individual, firm, partnership, corporation or association in respect to the business of a distiller, the district supervisor will cause such inquiry or investigation as may be deemed necessary to ascertain whether such individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association or any person owning, controlling or actively participating in the management of the business has been convicted of, or has compromised an offense, of the nature specified in § 183.188. Where record is found of the conviction or the compromise of such an offense, the district supervisor may disapprove the bond or consent upon the basis of his findings; provided that if the bond or consent is disapproved, the principal may appeal the district supervisor's action to the Commissioner. Where an appeal is taken to the Commissioner, the district supervisor will furnish the Commissioner with full information respecting the reasons for disapproval including the nature and place of the offense, the names of the offenders and the date of conviction or acceptance of an offer in compromise.

§ 183.300 Approval of qualifying documents. If the district supervisor finds, upon examination of the inspection report and the qualifying documents, that the person seeking to qualify as a distiller has complied in all respects with the requirements of law and this part, and if the distiller's bond (Form 30) and the consent (Form 1602), if any, or the indemnity bond filed in lieu thereof may properly be approved under § 183.299, and if the applicant is entitled to a permit, he will assign a registry number to the distillery in accordance with § 183.301, note his approval on all copies of the distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, notice and plat and plans, and dispose of the qualifying documents and inspectors' reports in accordance with § 183.303. The issuance of a permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act should be withheld pending approval of the notice, bond, and other qualifying documents required by the internal revenue laws and this part.

§ 183.301 Registry numbers. Registered distilleries will be numbered serially in the order of their establishment. A separate series will be used for each State. Registry numbers heretofore assigned will be retained, and new distilleries will be assigned numbers in sequence thereto. Registry numbers previously assigned to discontinued distilleries will not be reassigned to other distilleries. The same registry number will be continued whenever there is a change of proprietorship.

§ 183.302 Disapproval of qualifying documents. If the district supervisor finds that the applicant has not complied in all respects with the requirements of the law and this part, or that the situation of the distillery is such as would enable the distiller to defraud the United States, or that the bond should be disapproved under § 183.299, he will note his disapproval on the notice, Form 27–A, and will dispose of the qualifying documents in accordance with § 183.303.

§ 183.303 Disposition of qualifying documents. Where the district supervisor approves the qualifying documents, he will forward to the applicant one copy of the documents with the original of the basic permit issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, forward to the Commissioner the originals of the qualifying documents and a copy of the basic permit issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, together with copies of inspection reports, and retain one copy of the qualifying documents for the file of the applicant. If the qualifying documents are disapproved, the district supervisor shall return to the applicant by registered mail, one copy of the disapproved notice, together with all copies of the qualifying documents and all copies of the bond without action thereon. The district supervisor shall forward one copy of the disapproved notice to the Commissioner and will advise him fully respecting the disapproval thereof. He shall retain the remaining papers in his files. If the applicant is not entitled to a basic permit, the district supervisor will, upon disapproval of the application therefor, return all copies of the qualifying documents to the applicant without action thereon.

CHANGES SUBSEQUENT TO ORIGINAL ESTABLISHMENT

§ 183.304 Procedure applicable. The provisions of §§ 183.290–183.303 respecting the action required of district supervisors in connection with the original establishment of distilleries will be followed, to the extent applicable, where there is a change in the individual, firm, or corporate name of the distiller, or in the trade name or style, or where the distillery is to be operated initially under a trade name or style, or where there is a change in the proprietorship, location, premises, construction, apparatus and equipment of the distillery, or in the type of plant, or in the title to the distillery property, or where such property becomes subject to a mortgage, judgment, or other encumbrance, or where operations are permanently discontinued.

§ 183.305 Indemnity bond, Form 1617. Where changes to be made in distillery buildings or former distillery buildings or distillery equipment are such as to require the filing of an indemnity bond on Form 1617, as provided in §§ 183.255 and 183.258, the district supervisor will, upon receipt of a satisfactory bond, note his approval thereon, and dispose of the bond as provided by § 183.303.

§ 183.306 Applications and reports covering changes. Where an application covering changes in the distilling apparatus or equipment, or in the construction or use of a room or building, is authorized by the district supervisor, he will, after completion of the change, retain one copy of the application and forward one copy to the distiller and one copy to the Commissioner. Similar disposition will be made of reports received from the distiller covering emergency repairs of distilling apparatus and equipment.

ANNUAL NOTICES, CONSENTS (FORM 1602) AND BONDS, CONSENTS OF SURETY AND ADDITIONAL AND SUPERSEDING BONDS

§ 183.307 Procedure applicable. The procedure prescribed in this subpart for the approval and disapproval of notices and bonds submitted in connection with the establishment of distilleries will, to the extent applicable, govern the approval and disapproval of annual notices, consents (Form 1602) and bonds, consents of surety and additional and superseding bonds.

SUBPART O—ACTION BY COMMISSIONER

ORIGINAL ESTABLISHMENT

§ 183.310 Review of documents. The Commissioner will review the action of the district supervisor relating to the establishment of registered distilleries and determine whether it is in conformity with the requirements of law and this part. If not, the Commissioner will advise the district supervisor as to the necessary action to be taken.

CHANGES SUBSEQUENT TO ORIGINAL ESTABLISHMENT

§ 183.311 Procedure applicable. The provisions of § 183.310 respecting the action of the Commissioner in connection with the establishment of distilleries will be followed to the extent applicable, where there is a change in the name or in the firm name, trade name or style or in the proprietorship, location, premises, construction, apparatus and equipment of the distillery or in the type of plant or in the title to the distillery property or where such property becomes subject to a mortgage, judgment or other encumbrance.

SUBPART P—TERMINATION OF BONDS

§ 183.320 Termination of distiller's bond. The distiller's bond (Form 30) is an annual bond and, therefore, upon expiration of the period for which it is given automatically terminates as to spirits produced subsequent to such period. Such bonds may be terminated as to future production prior to expiration of the period for which given, (a) pursuant to application by the surety as provided in § 183.324, or (b) upon approval of a superseding bond or discontinuance of business by the principal. Application for notice of termination of a distiller's bond upon approval of a superseding bond or discontinuance of the business must be filed in duplicate with the district supervisor.

§ 183.321 Termination of indemnity bonds, Forms 3 and 3–A. Indemnity bonds (Forms 3 and 3–A) given in lieu of the consent of the owner of the distillery premises or property, and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, lienor, encumbrancer, conditional sales vendor, etc., to priority of the Government's lien for taxes and penalties and other interests, run for an indefinite period. Such bonds may be terminated as to liability for future operations of the distillery, (a) pursuant to application by the surety as provided in § 183.324, (b) upon approval of a superseding bond or discontinuance of business by the principal, (c) if the distiller (1) becomes the owner in fee unencumbered of the property covered by the bond or (2) files the consent of the owner or encumbrancer to priority of the Government's lien for taxes and penalties and other interests as provided in § 183.137 or (d) if all spirits produced while such indemnity bond was in force are tax-paid or removed for lawful tax-free purposes. Application for notice of termination of such bonds upon approval of the superseding bond or discontinuance of the business or under conditions (c) and (d) of this section must be filed in duplicate with the district supervisor.

§ 183.322 Termination of indemnity bonds, Form 1617. Indemnity bonds (Form 1617) given in connection with changes in buildings and equipment on which a lien had attached under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., may be terminated (a) upon approval of a superseding bond, or (b) upon tax-payment or removal for a lawful tax-free purpose of all spirits produced while the property covering which the indemnity bond was filed formed a part of the distillery premises and equipment. Application for notice of termination of such bonds must be filed in duplicate with the district supervisor.

§ 183.323 Termination of export bonds. Bonds (Forms 547, 548, 657, and 658) given to cover the exportation, or the transportation for export, of spirits of not less than 180 degrees of proof, withdrawn from the distillery in tank cars for such purpose as provided in § 183.585, will be terminated in accordance with the provisions set forth in Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185) for the termination of such bonds when given to cover the exportation, or the transportation for export, of spirits withdrawn from internal revenue bonded warehouses.

§ 183.324 Application of surety for relief from bond. A surety on any bond required by this part may at any time in writing notify the principal and the district supervisor in whose office the bond is on file, that he desires after a date named, which shall be at least 60 days after the date of notification, to be relieved of liability under said bond. The notice shall be executed in triplicate by the surety, who shall deliver one copy to the principal and the other two copies to the district supervisor, who will retain one copy and transmit the remaining copy to the Commissioner. If such notice is not thereafter in writing withdrawn, the rights of the principal as supported by said bond shall be terminated on the date named in the notice, and the surety shall be relieved (a) in the case of a distiller's bond (Form 30) from liability for distilled spirits produced wholly subsequent to the date named in the notice, (b) in the case of indemnity bonds (Forms 3 and 3–A) from liability for operations of the distillery wholly subsequent to such date, and (c) in the case of export bonds (Forms 547, 548, 657, and 658) from liability for distilled spirits withdrawn for export wholly subsequent to such date: This notice may not be given by an agent of the surety unless it is accompanied by a power of attorney, duly executed by the surety, authorizing him to give such notice, or by a verified statement that such power of attorney is on file with the Department. The surety must also file with the district supervisor an acknowledgement or other proof of service of such notice on the principal.

§ 183.325 Action on application for notice of termination of distiller's bond. When an application for notice of termination of a distiller's bond as to future production is filed with the district supervisor in a case where a superseding bond has been approved, or the principal has discontinued business, as provided in § 183.320, the district supervisor will make a complete examination of records to determine whether there is any liability then due and payable outstanding against the bond. He will also ascertain from the collector of internal revenue whether there are any outstanding, unpaid assessments or demands for taxes on spirits produced under the bond. If it is found that violations of law or regulations occurred during the period covered by the bond and that penalties incurred or fines imposed have not been paid, or that outstanding assessments, or demands for payment of taxes, chargeable against the bond have not been paid, or otherwise settled, the district supervisor will disapprove the application, unless the liability is settled. If the district supervisor finds that the distiller's bond may properly be terminated, he will issue notice of termination thereof in accordance with § 183.327.

§ 183.326 Action on application for notice of termination of indemnity bond. When an application for notice of termination of an indemnity bond (Form 3 or 3–A) as to future operations of the distillery is filed with the district supervisor in a case where a superseding bond has been approved, or the principal has discontinued business, as provided in § 183.321, the district supervisor will take action in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.325, in the case of an application for the termination of a distiller's bond. When an application for notice of termination of an indemnity bond (Form 1617) covering changes in buildings or equipment is filed with the district supervisor, he will make a complete inquiry to determine whether all spirits, the tax on which constituted the lien in relation to which the bond was given, have been tax-paid or removed for a lawful tax-free purpose. If the district supervisor finds that the bond may properly be terminated, he will issue notice of termination thereof in accordance with § 183.327.

(53 Stat. 373, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 3170)

§ 183.327 Notice of termination. When the district supervisor has determined that an application for termination of a distiller's bond (Form 30) as to liability for future production, or of an indemnity bond (Form 3 or 3–A) as to liability for future operations of the distillery, or an indemnity bond (Form 1617) as to future liability, may properly be approved, he will execute Form 1490, where a superseding bond has been approved, or Form 1491, where the principal has discontinued business, in quadruplicate (in quintuplicate if there are two sureties) and will forward the original, together with one copy of the application, to the Commissioner, one copy to each obligor on the bond, and retain one copy on file with the bond to which it relates.

§ 183.328 Release of collateral. The release of collateral pledged and deposited with the United States to support bonds required by this part will be in accordance with the provisions of Department Circular No. 154 revised (31 CFR, Part 225), subject to the conditions governing the issuance of notices on Forms 1490 and 1491 of the termination of such bonds. Upon approval of an application for the issuance of notice of the termination of a distiller's bond, Form 30, or indemnity bond, Forms 3, 3–A, or 1617, supported by collateral security, the district supervisor will fix the date or dates on which a part or all of the security may be released. In fixing such date, which ordinarily will be not less than six months from the date of determination that there is no outstanding liability against the bond, the district supervisor will satisfy himself that the interests of the Government will not be jeopardized. Collateral pledged and deposited to support any such bond, will not be released by the district supervisor until liability under the bond has been terminated. At any time prior to the release of such collateral security, the district supervisor may, in his discretion, and for proper cause, further extend the date of release of the security for such additional length of time as in his judgment may be appropriate. Collateral pledged and deposited to support a distiller's bond (Form 30) or an indemnity bond (Form 3 or 3–A) will not be released by the district supervisor until all spirits produced while such bonds were in force and effect have been tax-paid or removed for a lawful tax-free purpose. Accordingly, collateral may not be released while spirits produced under such bonds remain in any internal revenue bonded warehouse. When an application for release of collateral deposited in support of a distiller's bond (Form 30) or an indemnity bond (Form 3 or 3–A) is received by the district supervisor, he will determine whether all spirits produced at the distillery while the bond was in effect have been withdrawn from warehouse and all outstanding liabilities settled, prior to taking action upon the application. Collateral pledged and deposited to support an indemnity bond (Form 1617) covering changes in buildings and equipment may be released by the district supervisor upon approval of a superseding bond or upon tax payment or removal for a lawful tax-free purpose of all spirits, the tax on which constituted the lien in relation to which the bond was given. Collateral pledged and deposited to support direct export bonds, or transportation for export bonds, will ordinarily be released by the district supervisor upon issuance of notice of the release of the bond, Form 1491.

(53 Stat. 373, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 3170; 44 Stat. 122 (6 U. S. C. 15))

SUBPART Q—WAIVER OF SURVEY REQUIREMENTS

§ 183.335 Provisions of law from which exempt. The survey requirements prescribed by section 2817 (a), I. R. C., are waived as to registered distilleries, and proprietors of such distilleries are relieved from the following provisions of law relating to the survey requirements:

(a) From so much of section 2812, I. R. C., as requires a distiller to state in his notice the number of hours in which the distiller will ferment each tub of mash or beer, and from the necessity of filing a notice of the change in the time of fermenting the mash or beer.

(b) From so much of section 2832, I. R. C., as requires the distiller to comply with the provisions of law relating to the survey of distilleries, as a condition precedent to carrying on the business of distilling.

(c) From the provisions of section 2840, I. R. C.

(d) From so much of the provisions of section 2846, I. R. C., as make a distiller liable to an assessment for a deficiency in producing less than 80 percent of the producing capacity of the distillery as estimated according to law; and as make him liable to an assessment for the tax upon the spirits that should have been produced from the materials found to have been used in excess of the capacity of the distillery for any month as estimated according to law.

(e) From so much of the provisions of section 2849, I. R. C., as prescribe the fermenting periods.

(f) From so much of section 2851, I. R. C., as requires the placing of close fitting covers upon fermenting tubs, for the purpose of reducing the producing capacity of the distillery.

§ 183.336 Exemption subject to changes. The exemption from the foregoing provisions of law will be subject to such changes as may be necessary to protect the revenue.

SUBPART R—MANUFACTURE OF DISTILLED SPIRITS

KINDS OF MATERIALS AND SPIRITS

§ 183.350 General. Distilled spirits may be produced at registered distilleries from any kind of suitable materials, and at any desired proof. The production, gauging, marking and branding, and removal of spirits shall be in accordance with this part.

§ 183.351 Alcohol. Where it is desired to produce alcohol, the registered distillery must be discontinued in accordance with Subpart M of this part and reestablished and operated as an alcohol plant in accordance with Regulations 3 (26 CFR, Part 182) governing the production of alcohol.

(53 Stat. 358; 26 U. S. C. 3105)

§ 183.352 Brandy. Brandy may be produced at registered distilleries, subject to all the requirements of this part. Where the distiller desires to produce brandy under Regulations 5 (26 CFR Part 184) governing the production of brandy at fruit distilleries under the exemptions from law afforded fruit distillers by virtue of section 2825, I. R. C., the registered distillery must be discontinued in accordance with Subpart M of this part and reestablished and operated as a fruit distillery in accordance with such regulations.

(53 Stat. 316, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2825)

COMMENCEMENT OF OPERATIONS

§ 183.353 Notice, Form 125. Before commencing operations at the distillery, the distiller shall file with the district supervisor notice on Form 125, in duplicate, specifying the date on which he desires to commence operations. This notice must be filed in time to enable the district supervisor to assign one or more storekeeper-gaugers to the distillery. If the distiller's bond, Form 30, and the other qualifying documents required by this part have been filed and approved, and the required storekeeper-gaugers assigned to the distillery have found the plant and equipment in proper condition, the distiller may commence operations at the time specified in the notice. Form 125 will not be required when operations are resumed pursuant to the filing of Form 1696.

§ 183.354 Assignment of storekeeper-gaugers. One or more storekeeper-gaugers must be assigned to, and on duty at, each distillery before the distiller can commence operations. In determining the number of storekeeper-gaugers to be assigned to each distillery, the district supervisor will take into account the distilling equipment and the process to be used, the quantity of spirits to be produced daily, and the number of hours the distillery will be operated each day. When notices of commencement of operations are received, the district supervisor will assign storekeeper-gaugers in time to prevent unnecessary delays to distillers.

§ 183.355 Examination of distillery. Upon assignment to a distillery intending to commence operations, storekeeper-gaugers will, prior to the actual commencement of operations, examine the distillery, the apparatus and equipment, the cistern room, etc., and determine that all valves, flanges, and other connections which would afford access to spirits are properly equipped for locking or are brazed, welded, or otherwise secured, and that all doors and other openings in the cistern room are protected in the manner prescribed by this part. The storekeeper-gauger will apply Government locks wherever the same are required, and will complete Form 125, in duplicate, deliver one copy to the distiller, and forward the original to the district supervisor.

(53 Stat. 317; 26 U. S. C. 2827, 2828)

§ 183.356 Supervision of operations. The storekeeper-gauger will have charge of the distillery to which he is assigned, under the direction of the district supervisor. The storekeeper-gauger will see that the operations of the distillery conform to the requirements of the law and this part, and will, in the course of his daily duties, carefully observe the character and condition of all connections, pipes, tanks, or vessels used for conveying spirits in the course of distillation to see if they are continuous and closed as required, and whether access can be gained to the spirits in the storekeeper-gauger's absence. The storekeeper-gauger will promptly report to the district supervisor any distillery operations or condition of apparatus and equipment not conforming to the law and this part.

DISTILLING MATERIALS

§ 183.357 Weighing materials received. Except as provided in § 183.91, the distiller will weigh, or in the case of liquids, weigh or measure all materials received on the distillery premises intended for use in the production of distilled spirits. He will prepare weight or quantity slips of all such materials received and furnish signed copies to the storekeeper-gauger. He will maintain a commercial record of all such materials received, showing the date of receipt, the name of the concern or person from whom the materials were purchased, and the kind and quantity of each material, and will report on Form 1598, the total quantity of each kind of materials received during the month: Provided, however, That the Commissioner or district supervisor may, in his discretion, require that daily receipts of materials be reported on Form 1598.

§ 183.358 Storage of materials. All grain received on the distillery premises will be stored in the meal or material room, bins, or granary, unless it is to be immediately used. Molasses and other liquid distilling materials will be stored in proper tanks provided for the purpose, unless they are to be immediately used.

§ 183.359 Supervision of material room. No materials shall be received on the premises of any registered distillery, or used for the production of distilled spirits or for any other purpose, or removed from the premises, except when the storekeeper-gauger is present on the distillery premises. The storekeeper-gauger will unlock the material room, bins, or tanks, at such time after the commencement of operations each day as may be necessary for the distiller to have access thereto, and will lock them when access for the day is no longer required, thus giving employees of the distillery access for the removal or deposit of materials, or for other necessary purposes, under his general supervision. When materials are received by chute or pipe line from adjacent premises, such chute or pipe line must be kept locked at all times with Government locks, except when necessary to be open for the transfer of materials.

§ 183.360 Storekeeper-gauger's record of materials received. The storekeeper-gauger will record on Form 1686 the total quantity of each kind of material received on the distillery premises, during the month, intended for use in the production of distilled spirits. Entries will be made from the distiller's weight or quantity slips. The storekeeper-gauger will verify such slips by comparison with the distiller's commercial records and his Form 1598.

§ 183.361 Weighing materials used. Distillers will weigh or, in the case of liquids, weigh or measure all materials used in the production of distilled spirits. They will prepare weight or quantity slips of all such materials, and will furnish signed copies to the storekeeper-gauger. The materials used will be recorded by the distiller on Form 1598.

(53 Stat. 321, 333; 26 U. S. C. 2841, 2877)

§ 183.362 Storekeeper-gauger's record of materials used. The storekeeper-gauger will record on Form 1686 all materials used in the production of distilled spirits. Entries will be made from the distiller's weight or quantity slips. The storekeeper-gauger will verify such slips by comparison with the distiller's Form 1598 and commercial records, if any.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2877)

§ 183.363 Distiller's material slips. Each distiller will have prepared in uniform size material slips which show the name, number, and location of the distillery, and on which he will enter the date, kind and quantity of materials received and used, and the serial numbers of the fermenters filled, together with such other information as may be required. Where different types of mash are produced, separate entries shall be made showing the quantity of material, type of mash, and serial numbers of fermenters for each type. The term "type of mash" means the materials from which the mash is made, as molasses, wheat, corn in excess, rye in excess, etc. The information is necessary for the proper marking and branding of packages of distilled spirits. Material slips will be prepared in duplicate and will be filed chronologically, by months, by both the distiller and the storekeeper-gauger and will be retained for at least one year.

§ 183.364 Storekeeper-gauger's verification. The storekeeper-gauger will, from time to time, personally verify the accuracy of the distiller's determination of the weight or quantity of materials received and used.

YEASTING

§ 183.365 Materials for yeast mash. Materials capable of producing spirits which are used in preparing yeast mash will be weighed or measured by the distiller, who will furnish weight or quantity slips to the storekeeper-gauger and will make proper record on Form 1598. If the materials used in the yeast mash have been included in the materials weighed or measured by the distiller for use in the production of the main mash, a notation should be made on the slip to that effect, and no separate entry will be made on Forms 1598 and 1686. Such weight or quantity slips will be filed by the storekeeper-gauger for record and reference purposes.

§ 183.366 Materials for yeast culture. The distiller will not be required to furnish weight or quantity slips to the storekeeper-gauger of materials used in preparing pure yeast cultures or jug yeast which is added to the yeast mash, or to record the same on Form 1598. The pure yeast cultures or jug yeast may be prepared and held for use as needed.

§ 183.367 Non-alcohol producing materials. No non-alcohol producing materials may be added to the yeast mash for the purpose of furnishing yeast food, or for inhibiting the action of wild yeast or bacteria, or for any other purpose, unless such materials are included in the statement of process required by § 183.162.

MASHING OPERATIONS

§ 183.368 Distiller's notice of change in materials and strength of beer. The distiller may mash grain, molasses, or other fermentable materials covered by his notice, Form 27–A, in any quantity, proportion, or strength that he may desire, within the maximum specified in such notice, provided he shall give written notice to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the distillery of the quantity of each kind of material which he proposes to mash, and the strength of the beer. When desiring to change the quantity or kind of materials or strength of the beer, he shall, before making such change, give written notice to the storekeeper-gauger in charge. Where the distiller intends to mash different kinds of materials than those covered by Form 27–A, or a larger quantity of the specified materials than the maximum indicated by such form, he must also comply with the requirements of § 183.132. If the proposed change in mashing is such that either a smaller or larger number of storekeeper-gaugers may be required to supervise operations, the distiller shall give notice thereof to the storekeeper-gauger in charge in sufficient time for the district supervisor to reassign the unneeded officers or to assign additional officers to the plant.

(53 Stat. 312; 26 U. S. C. 2817)

§ 183.369 Non-fermentable materials. No chemicals or other substances, such as essences, flavors, coloring matter, etc., which are volatile and would remain incorporated with the spirits when the manufacture thereof is complete may be added to the mash or to the spirits at any stage of production, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(53 Stat. 391; 26 U. S. C. 3254)

§ 183.370 Presence of storekeeper-gauger required. Any mashing or distilling in the absence of the storekeeper-gauger from the premises is prohibited. The special attention of distillers is directed to the penalties imposed by law for mashing, distilling, or removing spirits in the absence of the storekeeper-gauger.

(53 Stat. 320; 26 U. S. C. 2838)

FERMENTING

§ 183.371 Restrictions removed. The survey requirements being waived, as provided in § 183.335, proprietors of registered distilleries are not restricted as to the period of fermentation nor as to the frequency or extent of the filling of the fermenting tubs. The distiller must, however, give notice to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the quantity of each kind of material which he proposes to mash and the strength of the beer, as provided in § 183.368, and when he intends to mash kinds of materials other than those covered by Form 27–A, or a larger quantity of the materials specified on the form than the maximum indicated thereon, he must file an amended notice on Form 27–A, as provided in § 183.132.

§ 183.372 Quantity of mash and beer determined. Storekeeper-gaugers assigned to distilleries will determine the number of gallons of mash in each fermenter at the time of filling and the quantity of beer in each fermenter after fermentation is complete, and will enter the same on Form 1686. They will not be required to determine the temperature and gravity of the mash or beer in the fermenting tubs, or to ascertain the number of dry inches.

§ 183.373 Tests of beer and slop. At the time of distillation, the distiller will thoroughly agitate the contents of each fermenter and the storekeeper-gauger will then take a sample of beer from each fermenter to determine the alcoholic content of the beer. He will also take, daily, several representative samples of slop or spent beer after the same has come from the still, and determine the alcoholic content of each sample. He will make the tests of beer and slop and compute the calculated yield, in accordance with the instructions on Form 1686.

DISTILLATION

§ 183.374 Continuous process required. The process of distillation employed must be such that the spirits will pass through continuous, closed stills, pipes, and vessels from the time the vapors rise in the first still until the finished spirits are deposited in the cistern room in locked receiving cisterns provided for that purpose. The distiller may, in the course of manufacture, carry his product through as many distilling operations as he may desire, provided the process is closed and continuous. Distilling processes are deemed to be continuous where the spirits are carried through the various steps from the beer still to the receiving tanks as expeditiously as normal, efficient plant operation will permit in the manufacture of a finished product of standard quality. The collection of high and low wines (heads and tails) for the purpose of redistillation is not deemed to be a break in the continuity of the distilling process, but such spirits, when so collected, should be redistilled promptly when a sufficient quantity has been accumulated to permit efficient redistillation. Where spirits are percolated through oak chips or otherwise treated before deposit in the receiving tanks, the retention of the spirits in tanks temporarily, pending such treatment, is permissible, but no larger quantities of spirits may be so held than are necessary for operation of the percolators. The distilling process is held to be completed when the spirits are deposited in the receiving tanks.

(53 Stat. 314, 391; 26 U. S. C. 2820, 3254)

§ 183.375 Gauging of unfinished spirits. At distilleries where spirits, in the course of distillation, are run into tanks in the distillery building for temporary deposit preparatory to completing the distillation thereof, and where twenty-four-hour supervision is maintained by the storekeeper-gauger, a daily gauge of such spirits will not be required. Where twenty-four-hour supervision is not maintained, the storekeeper-gauger, prior to leaving the premises, will gauge (measure and proof) the spirits retained in each tank, make an office record of the quantity and proof of the spirits therein, and attach locks in accordance with § 183.736: Provided, That where such tanks are enclosed in a room or building equipped for locking in accordance with § 183.64, such room or building will be locked in lieu of gauging the unfinished spirits. Upon his return to the premises the storekeeper-gauger will gauge the spirits in the tanks previously gauged and compare the quantity and proof with the office record. Any material discrepancy will be reported immediately to the district supervisor. Except as provided in §§ 183.655 to 183.665, unfinished spirits may not be stored in such tanks but may be deposited therein only temporarily in the course of distillation. At the close of the month the storekeeper-gauger will make an accurate gauge of all unfinished spirits on hand and report the total quantity on Form 1686. Distillates containing one-half of 1 percent or more of aldehydes or 1 percent or more of fusel oil, collected for destruction or for removal for denaturation, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 183.390 to 183.412, will be included in the report of inventory of unfinished spirits on Form 1686 until such distillates are destroyed or removed for denaturation. Fusel oil held in fusel oil tanks or in storage tanks pending removal, will not be included in the report of inventory of unfinished spirits.

LOCKING OF DISTILLERY

§ 183.376 When to be locked. Whenever spirits are contained at any place in the distillery other than under Government lock in the cistern room, or the temporary storage room therein, or in the rectifying room, the distillery building or portion thereof in which such spirits are contained must be kept securely locked by the distiller in the absence of himself or his agents. The locks used by the distiller to secure doors, windows, or other openings of the distillery buildings or portions thereof in which spirits are so contained must be such as will, in the opinion of the district supervisor, safeguard the spirits against illegal removal during the absence of the distiller or his agents.

§ 183.377 Keys of distillery locks. The distiller shall furnish the district supervisor as many keys to the locks provided for securing the entrance door or doors of the distillery building, or portions thereof, which are required to be locked, as may be deemed necessary by the district supervisor from time to time, in order that the distillery or any portion thereof may be accessible at any time to Government officers authorized to enter and inspect the premises.

TREATMENT OF SPIRITS IN COURSE OF DISTILLATION

§ 183.378 Rectification. The law provides that every person shall be regarded as engaged in the business of rectifying who rectifies, purifies, or refines distilled spirits by any process other than by original and continuous distillation from mash, wort, or wash, through continuous, closed vessels and pipes, until the manufacture thereof is complete. Therefore, a distiller may carry his product through as many processes of distillation as he may desire without becoming liable as a rectifier, provided the process is continuous (as defined in § 183.374), commencing with the distillation of the mash, wort, or wash, and the product of distillation of the mash is carried through continuous closed vessels and pipes until the finished product is deposited in the receiving cistern: Provided, That the redistillation of spirits received in bond from an internal revenue bonded warehouse or another distillery pursuant to provisions of this part shall not constitute rectification.

§ 183.379 Purifying or refining spirits. Under the law, distillers are allowed to purify or refine distilled spirits in the course of original and continuous distillation, including spirits received for redistillation, through any material which will not remain incorporated with such spirits when the manufacture thereof is complete. The apparatus to be used for purifying or refining spirits in a distillery must be arranged and constructed as required by this part.

§ 183.380 Percolation through oak chips. Spirits may be percolated through or treated with oak chips which have not been treated with any chemical, upon approval of the process. The apparatus to be used for percolating spirits must be arranged and constructed as required by this part.

(53 Stat. 391; 26 U. S. C. 3254)

§ 183.381 Samples before and after treating. Where the distiller has been authorized to introduce materials or substances into spirits during the course of original and continuous distillation, for the purpose of purifying or refining the spirits, or where he has been authorized to introduce oak chips into the spirits, the storekeeper-gauger will procure samples of such spirits, both before and after processing, when the process is first used and thereafter from time to time as directed by the district supervisor. The samples will be submitted to the Government chemist for analysis. The chemist will furnish a report thereof, to the district supervisor.

§ 183.382 Disposition of substances used for treating spirits. Materials used for purifying or refining the spirits, and oak chips introduced into the spirits, will be thoroughly washed, steamed, or otherwise treated to extract the spirits therefrom before removal from the process. Upon removal, the materials must be burned in the distillery furnace or in the distillery yard. If such burning is not practicable, due to the type of furnace in use, fire regulations, or to other valid reason, such materials must be treated with kerosene before the removal thereof from the distillery premises. Where kerosene is used, it must be sprayed or sprinkled on the materials, using not less than 1 gallon of kerosene to each 100 pounds of materials, in such manner as to preclude the abstraction of potable spirits from any part of the entire mass after the materials are removed from the distillery premises. This will be effected by stirring or agitating the materials while the kerosene is being applied. Such burning or treating of materials must be done under the supervision of the Government officer assigned to the plant. The district supervisor may authorize any other disposition of the materials as will effectively prevent recovery of spirits therefrom.

DEPOSIT OF SPIRITS IN RECEIVING CISTERNS

§ 183.383 Immediate deposit required. All finished spirits must be deposited immediately upon completion of manufacture in receiving cisterns in the cistern room. Finished spirits must be deposited in separate receiving cisterns according to (a) class (spirits, whisky, rum, gin, etc.); (b) type (neutral spirits-grain, bourbon whisky, rye whisky, etc.); and (c) proof of distillation (at or above 190 degrees, more than 160 degrees and less than 190 degrees, and not exceeding 160 degrees), as defined by § 183.25. The quantity of finished spirits produced will be determined and entered daily on Form 1686 and Form 1598.

(53 Stat. 314; 26 U. S. C. 2820)

COMPARISON OF ACTUAL YIELD WITH CALCULATED YIELD

§ 183.384 Abnormal differences to be investigated. The storekeeper-gauger will compare the quantity of spirits produced and deposited in the receiving cisterns with the calculated yield for the respective fermenters. The comparison will be made by single fermenters where it is possible so to do. Where, by reason of the mode of operation, it is not possible to make the comparison by single fermenters, it will be made by groups of fermenters distilled daily, if possible. If it is not possible to make the comparison either by single fermenters or by groups of fermenters distilled daily, the comparison will be made on a monthly basis or for such lesser periods as may be feasible. Where the difference between the calculated yield and the actual yield is more than that determined by experience to be the normal difference for the particular plant, the storekeeper-gauger assigned to supervise distilling operations and the storekeeper-gauger in charge will make a thorough inquiry to determine the reasons therefor, and will make a full report of their findings on Form 1686. Where the facts warrant, the officers will make a report by letter to the district supervisor and submit it with Form 1598 in accordance with § 183.701. If the findings of the officers do not fully explain the discrepancy, the district supervisor will cause such further investigation to be made as may be deemed advisable.

(53 Stat. 312; 26 U. S. C. 2817)

SUPERVISION OF CISTERN ROOM

§ 183.385 In charge of storekeeper-gauger. The receiving cisterns and the cistern room shall be in charge and under the lock and seal of the storekeeper-gauger designated for that duty. The doors and other openings of the cistern room will be locked with Government locks at all times when spirits are in such room, except when spirits are being drawn off or other necessary work is being done by the distiller in the presence of the storekeeper-gauger. The entrance door will be locked on the outside with a seal lock and other doors will be locked on the inside, as provided in § 183.65. The openings in receiving cisterns will also be kept locked at all times, except the inlets of cisterns being filled and the outlets of cisterns being emptied, and the manheads when spirits are being agitated and reduced preparatory to withdrawal. The cistern room must not be opened or allowed to remain open, nor may any person other than a Government officer be permitted in the cistern room, except when the designated storekeeper-gauger is present; nor will the keys to the Government locks be intrusted at any time to the distiller or any person in his employ, but will be retained at all times in the possession of the designated storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will promptly report any lack of security of the cistern room to the district supervisor.

(53 Stat. 314; 26 U. S. C. 2820)

SUBPART S—COLLECTION AND REMOVAL OF DISTILLATES, DISTILLED SPIRITS UNFIT FOR BEVERAGE PURPOSES, DISTILLED WATER, FUSEL OIL, AND CARBON DIOXIDE

COLLECTION, REMOVAL FOR DENATURATION AND/OR DESTRUCTION OF CERTAIN DISTILLATES AND VOLUNTARY DESTRUCTION OF SPIRITS UNFIT FOR BEVERAGE PURPOSES

§ 183.390 General. Distillers may collect in locked tanks provided in accordance with § 183.103 distillates containing one-half of one percent or more of aldehydes or one percent or more of fusel oil, commonly known as "heads and tails", removed in the course of distillation. Such distillates may be removed from the distillery for denaturation or destroyed on the distillery premises. In addition, spirits which, during the process of distillation or after deposit in the receiving cisterns, are found to be unfit for use for beverage purposes may be voluntarily destroyed as provided by this subpart. The removal or destruction in any such case will be under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger assigned to the distillery. When so denatured or destroyed with proper authorization such distillates or spirits shall not be subject to the tax imposed by law on distilled spirits.

§ 183.391 Collection of distillates. Distillates containing one-half of 1 percent or more of aldehydes or 1 percent or more of fusel oil, collected in locked tanks at registered distilleries shall be removed for denaturation or destroyed within 30 days from the date of commencement of the collection thereof, unless the distillates are to be shipped for denaturation and the quantity collected during such period is insufficient for a carload shipment (but not over 10,000 gallons), in which event the distiller may continue to accumulate such distillates until a sufficient quantity for a carload shipment has been collected: Provided, That no such distillates shall be held at the distillery for a period exceeding 90 days.

§ 183.392 Samples by distiller. Distillers may procure a requisite number of samples for laboratory analysis of the distillates, and of any spirits that appear to be unfit for beverage purposes. Such samples will be procured in accordance with the procedure prescribed in §§ 183.467–183.474.

(53 Stat. 340, as amended, 346; 26 U. S. C. 2901, 2916)

§ 183.393 Aldehydes and fusel oil not to be mixed with spirits. Where aldehydes or fusel oil, as distinguished from heads and tails, are drawn from column stills and run into separate tanks, such aldehydes and fusel oil may not be mixed with spirits for the purpose of making such spirits eligible for destruction or denaturation free of tax.

(53 Stat. 346; 26 U. S. C. 2916)

§ 183.394 Application. Whenever the distiller desires to destroy distillates or to remove same to a denaturing plant for denaturation, he shall make application, in triplicate, to the district supervisor, for such permission. The application shall be made on Form 1577 if the distillate is to be destroyed, or on Form 1678 if the distillate is to be removed for denaturation. Where the distiller desires to destroy spirits which are purportedly unfit for beverage purposes, he will make application to the district supervisor on Form 1577, in triplicate, properly modified, specifying the kind of spirits; the proof; proof gallons; the name, address and registry number of the distillery; the date of distillation; serial numbers of the tanks or other receptacles in which such spirits are contained; and the condition of the spirits which renders them unfit for beverage purposes. The applications in each case will be submitted through the storekeeper-gauger assigned to the distillery.

§ 183.395 Action by storekeeper-gauger. Upon receipt of the application, the storekeeper-gauger will inspect the distillate or spirits to determine the correctness of the distiller's statements, procure a one-pint sample, or if deemed advisable, a one-quart sample from each tank or other receptacle, label each sample for proper identification, note on each copy of the application the serial number of each sample, the serial number of the tank or other receptacle from which samples were removed and the date of removal. Where an application is filed for destruction of spirits unfit for beverage purposes, the storekeeper-gauger will prepare a report of his inspection of such spirits relating to the condition thereof. The inlet of each tank or receptacle must be closed and locked and the contents thoroughly agitated before a sample is taken. The inlet, outlet, and all other openings of the tank will be secured with Government locks pending analysis of the sample and action on the application. The storekeeper-gauger will submit the samples to the district chemist, at the distiller's expense, accompanied by a transmittal letter, in duplicate, and will submit all copies of the application and his report, if any, to the district supervisor.

§ 183.396 Analysis of samples. The district chemist will analyze each sample to determine the percentages of aldehydes or fusel oil and alcohol present in distillates, or the condition of spirits that would render them unfit for beverage purposes, and will submit a report of his analysis, in duplicate, to the district supervisor.

§ 183.397 District supervisor's order to gauge. If the chemist's report shows that the distillate contains one-half of 1 percent or more of aldehydes or 1 percent or more of fusel oil, or that the spirits are unfit for beverage purposes, the district supervisor will execute his order to the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1577 or 1578, as the case may be, directing him to gauge the distillate and supervise its destruction or removal to the denaturing plant named in the application upon presentation of proper permit as provided by § 183.402; or, in the case of spirits found to be unfit for beverage purposes, directing the storekeeper-gauger to gauge such spirits, and authorizing the destruction thereof by the distiller, under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. The district supervisor will forward all copies of the application, accompanied by one copy of the chemist's report, to the storekeeper-gauger at the distillery.

§ 183.398 Disapproval of application. If the report of the Government chemist shows that the distillate contains less than the required percentage of aldehydes or fusel oil, or that spirits proposed for destruction are fit for beverage purposes, the district supervisor will disapprove the application and return one copy to the distiller and one copy to the storekeeper-gauger at the distillery, accompanied by a statement of the reasons for disapproval.

§ 183.399 Distillates or spirits not meeting requirements for denaturation or destruction. Where distillates are of insufficient proof for denaturation, or contain less than the required percentage of aldehydes or fusel oil, or where spirits proposed for destruction are found to be fit for beverage purposes, they may, for the purpose of further distillation, be returned to the still through continuous closed pipe lines. Should the distiller still desire to remove or destroy the distillates after such redistillation, a new application and new samples must be submitted, in accordance with §§ 183.394 and 183.395.

§ 183.400 Gauge of distillate or spirits. The storekeeper-gauger will gauge the distillates authorized to be removed for denaturation or destruction or the spirits authorized to be destroyed, and will enter the details of such gauge on Form 1520. The form will be prepared in triplicate, if the distillate or spirits are to be destroyed, and in quintuplicate if the distillate is to be removed for denaturation. An extra copy of Form 1520 will be prepared when the distillate is to be shipped to a denaturing plant in another district.

§ 183.401 Destruction of distillates or spirits. The distillate or spirits authorized to be destroyed may be run into the sewer or destroyed by other suitable means. The destruction must be accomplished under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. When the distillate or spirits have been destroyed, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his report on Part 3 of Form 1577, and will attach a copy of the gauge report to each copy of Form 1577, and deliver one set of the forms to the distiller, forward one set to the district supervisor and retain one set for his files. The storekeeper-gauger will report such destruction on Form 1686.

§ 183.402 Release for denaturation. The distillate may be removed for shipment to a denaturing plant for denaturation pursuant to a special permit issued by the appropriate district supervisor on Form 1464, authorizing the denaturer to procure the same. The storekeeper-gauger will not release the distillate for shipment until the distiller has presented to him such special permit for examination. The distillate must be drawn into packages and gauged and marked and branded, as provided in §§ 183.400 and 183.403, or gauged and run into railroad tank cars in accordance with the provisions of § 183.404 and immediately removed from the distillery premises under the personal supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. When such impure spirits are removed from the distillery for denaturation they must in each instance be shipped to a denaturing plant. Such spirits may not be shipped to an alcohol plant or an alcohol bonded warehouse, nor may they, after receipt at a denaturing plant, be redistilled or used for any purpose other than for denaturation.

§ 183.403 Marking and branding of packages. When the distillate is drawn into packages for removal for denaturation, such packages shall be marked and branded in the same manner as packages of other spirits are required to be marked and branded when removed from the distillery for deposit in a bonded warehouse, except that (a) the kind of spirits shall be designated by the words "Impure Spirits—For Denaturation," plainly and durably stenciled or marked on the head of the package in letters not less than three-fourths inch in height; (b) the phrase "Contains _____% of aldehydes," or "Contains _____% fusel oil," or "Contains _____% aldehydes and _____% fusel oil," shall also be plainly and durably stenciled or marked on the head of the package following the words "Impure Spirits—For Denaturation"; and (c) the proof at which the spirits were distilled need not be placed upon the package.

(53 Stat. 346; U. S. C. 29[illegible]6)

§ 183.404 Removal in tank cars. The removal of such distillate in railroad tank cars from the distillery to the denaturing plant for denaturation shall be in accordance with the procedure (insofar as applicable) and under the conditions governing the removal and transfer of other spirits in bond in such tank cars, as prescribed in this Part. The markings prescribed in § 183.403 respecting the kind of spirits and the percentage of aldehydes or fusel oil therein, shall be added to the label the storekeeper-gauger is required to affix to such tank cars of distillates before they are released.

(53 Stat. 346; 26 U. S. C. 2916)

§ 183.405 Report of shipment to denaturing plant. When such distillates are released from the distillery for transportation to the denaturing plant, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his report on Part 3 of Form 1578 and will attach to each copy of such form a copy of the report of gauge. The storekeeper-gauger will forward one copy of Form 1578, with Form 1520 attached, to the supervisor of the district from which the shipment is made, retain one copy of each form on file, deliver one copy of each form to the distiller, forward one copy of Form 1520 to the proprietor of the denaturing plant and one copy to the storekeeper-gauger at the denaturing plant. Where the denaturing plant is in another district the extra copy of Form 1520 provided for in § 183.400 will be forwarded to the supervisor of such district.

(53 Stat. 346; 26 U. S. C. 2916)

§ 183.406 Inspection at denaturing plant. The storekeeper-gauger at the receiving denaturing plant will examine each shipment of the distillate upon its arrival and will report any losses or discrepancies in accordance with the procedure prescribed by Regulations 3 (26 CFR, Part 182).

(53 Stat. 346; 26 U. S. C. 2916)

§ 183.407 Regauge at denaturing plant. Upon completion of the storekeeper-gauger's inspection, the distillate will be gauged by the proprietor of the denaturing plant in accordance with the procedure prescribed by Regulations 3 (26 CFR, Part 182).

(53 Stat. 346; 26 U. S. C. 2916)

§ 183.408 Losses of distillates or spirits. The procedure prescribed by §§ 183.595–183.604 will be followed in connection with losses of such distillates or spirits while on the premises of a registered distillery. The liability of the distiller to tax on such distillates removed for denaturation shall continue until they have been deposited in the denaturing plant.

§ 183.409 District supervisor's account. An account of losses of distillates containing one-half of 1 percent or more of aldehydes or 1 percent or more of fusel oil shall be kept on Form 1691. The account shall show all the information as indicated in the heading and by the various columns and as required by instructions issued in respect thereto and by this part.

(53 Stat. 346; 26 U. S. C. 2916)

§ 183.410 Use for denaturation. If the impure spirits (distillate) are of improper proof for denaturation, they may be mixed with other spirits of higher proof at the denaturing plant in order to obtain the required proof for denaturation.

(53 Stat. 346; 26 U. S. C. 2916)

§ 183.411 Storekeeper-gauger's records. Distillates collected for destruction or for removal for denaturation will be included by the storekeeper-gauger in the inventory of unfinished spirits reported on Form 1686 until gauged and destroyed or removed for denaturation.

(53 Stat. 346; 26 U. S. C. 2916)

§ 183.412 Distiller's records. Distillates collected for destruction or for removal for denaturation, or spirits held pending authorization for destruction, will be included in the inventory of unfinished spirits reported by the distiller on Form 1598 until gauged and removed for denaturation or destroyed, whereupon appropriate entries will be made on Form 1598 covering the disposition of such distillates or spirits.

(53 Stat. 340, as amended, 346, 373; 26 U. S. C. 2901, 2916, 3171)

COLLECTION AND REMOVAL OF DISTILLED WATER

§ 183.413 Collection. If distilled water is collected at the distillery, it must be run into storage tanks provided in accordance with § 183.106 and retained therein until drawn off and removed as provided by §§ 183.414–183.416.

§ 183.414 Removal. Distilled water must be drawn off into barrels or other containers prior to removal from the distillery premises: Provided, That such water may be transferred off the distillery premises to contiguous plants operated under internal revenue laws, including tax-paid bottling houses, by means of an independent pipe line constructed and installed in accordance with the provisions of § 183.106. Distilled water must under no circumstances be drawn off or removed through the cistern room or the bonded warehouse. Barrels or other wooden containers in which distilled spirits were previously packaged may not be used for the removal of distilled water.

§ 183.415 Marking of packages. If distilled water is drawn into packages for removal from the distillery premises, such packages must be marked by the distiller with his name, distillery number, location (city or town and State), the words, "Distilled Water," and the date of removal, in distinct and legible letters.

§ 183.416 Supervision of removal. All distilled water when drawn into packages for removal, or when removed by pipe line, must be inspected by the storekeeper-gauger and removed under his immediate supervision. The distiller will enter all removals of distilled water on Form 1598, as indicated by the columns and lines provided therefor and in accordance with the instructions on the form.

COLLECTION AND REMOVAL OF FUSEL OIL

§ 183.417 Collection. If fusel oil is collected at the distillery, it must be run into locked tanks provided for the purpose in accordance with § 183.105, and retained therein until tested and removed from the distillery premises or transferred to storage tanks. The test of fusel oil for the purpose of determining the presence of ethyl alcohol therein must be made in accordance with the requirements of §§ 183.419–183.422, or by such other method as may be prescribed by the Commissioner.

§ 183.418 Storage. Where fusel oil is transferred from the tanks in which it is collected in the course of distillation to storage tanks for temporary storage pending removal from the distillery premises, it must be tested as provided in § 183.421 immediately before being deposited in the storage tanks and immediately before being drawn therefrom into shipping containers.

§ 183.419 Washing and purifying. The oil must be thoroughly washed and purified, and before being removed from the tanks in which collected or stored it must be well mixed and a sample drawn from each tank into a test tube to be provided by the proprietor for use by the storekeeper-gauger in determining whether the oil is substantially free from alcohol.

§ 183.420 Test tube. The test tube must be of glass, bulb-shaped, and closed at one end, having a graduated scale marked upon the glass in degrees from 0 near the top to 100 near the swell of the bulb. The bulb shall contain three times as much liquid as that portion of the tube which is graduated from 0 to 100.

§ 183.421 Test. The tube having been filled with saturated salt solution up to the mark 100, oil shall be added until the tube is filled to the mark 0. The oil and saturated salt solution shall then be thoroughly mingled by violently agitating the contents of the tube. If, after sufficient time has been allowed for the oil to separate fully from the saturated salt solution and resume its position at the top of the tube, the scale shall show that not more than 10 degrees or 10 percent of the oil has disappeared or been dissolved in the saturated salt solution, the oil shall be passed as merchantable, that is to say, containing so small a quantity of alcohol as to remove all practical possibility of recovering the same, but if over 10 degrees of oil disappears the oil shall not be considered as sufficiently purified, and may not be removed in that condition.

§ 183.422 Saturated salt solution. The saturated salt solution to be used is a solution of common table salt in water, containing all the salt which the water is capable of dissolving. The solution is to be provided by the distiller.

§ 183.423 Containers. Fusel oil which meets the requirements of the prescribed test may be removed from the distillery in barrels, drums, or similar packages or tank cars. Packages containing such fusel oil shall be marked by the distiller with his name, distillery number, location (city or town and State), the words "Fusel Oil," and the date of removal, in distinct and legible letters. When removal is made in tank cars the distiller will affix to each car a label containing such data.

§ 183.424 Supervision. All fusel oil must be removed from the distillery under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 183.425 Record of removal. The storekeeper-gauger will prepare Form 1520 in triplicate covering removals of fusel oil. Such removals will be entered on Forms 1598 and 1686. The storekeeper-gauger will give a copy of Form 1520 to the distiller, retain one copy and forward the remaining copy to the district supervisor.

§ 183.426 Disposition of washwater. The water used for washing or purifying the oil in the tanks may be conveyed directly to a still, or it may be run into a tank, beer well, or sewer, or it may be otherwise destroyed on the premises under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. If the washwater is run into a still, tank, or beer well, the quantity will not be entered on Form 1598 or 1686. If the washwater is run into a sewer or otherwise destroyed, the alcoholic content and quantity will be reported by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1520. Entry of such disposition will be made on Forms 1598 and 1686.

RECOVERY AND REMOVAL OF CARBON DIOXIDE

§ 183.427 Procedure. Carbon dioxide may be recovered from fermenters and removed from distillery premises, provided it is first thoroughly washed or scrubbed and purified to remove the alcohol therefrom. Where carbon dioxide is recovered, the washwater may be collected in a receiving tank and transferred by pipe line to a fermenter or to a beer well. Where the washwater is transferred to a fermenter, the transfer must be made prior to the testing of the beer by the storekeeper-gauger at the time of distillation. Where the washwater is to be transferred to a beer well after the calculated yield has been determined, the alcoholic content, the number of gallons, and the calculated yield thereof, will be determined by the storekeeper-gauger and interlined in Part 1 of Form 1686. The alcoholic content of the washwater will be determined in accordance with an approved method. The number of gallons will also be interlined in Part 1 of Form 1598. If the washwater is not utilized in the manufacture of distilled spirits, it will be run into the sewer or otherwise destroyed on the premises under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. Entry of such disposition will not be made on Forms 1598 and 1686.

SUBPART T—DISTILLED SPIRITS FOR REDISTILLATION

RECEIPTS FOR REDISTILLATION

§ 183.435 General. Distilled spirits may be received at the distillery for redistillation, upon the showing of a need therefor, and pursuant to an approved application in accordance with §§ 183.436–183.437. Spirits of any proof may be received in approved containers, including tank cars, from the distillery cistern room of any other distillery, or by pipe line from the cistern room of a contiguous distillery; or in approved containers from any internal revenue bonded warehouse. Spirits of 160 degrees or more of proof may be received by pipe line from storage tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises or contiguous thereto, or in tank cars from any internal revenue bonded warehouse. Spirits received in tank cars may be transferred to tanks by means of a hose connection under the immediate supervision of a Government officer. Where spirits are received in packages, the packages, including char and chips, if any, contained therein, shall be thoroughly rinsed. The rinse water shall be added to the spirits for redistillation. The char and chips will be disposed of in the manner prescribed in § 183.382. The consignee distiller shall assume the liability for all taxes and liens on such spirits from the time they leave the premises of the consignor distillery or warehouse and, upon redistillation, the redistilled spirits shall be treated the same as if the spirits were originally produced by the redistiller and all prior obligations as to taxes and liens on such spirits shall be superseded.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.436 Special application for permission to receive spirits for redistillation. A distiller desiring to receive spirits for redistillation shall make written application to the district supervisor of the district in which the applicant's distillery is located for permission to receive and redistill such spirits. Each such application shall be prepared in quadruplicate, serially numbered, beginning with No. 1, and contain the following information:

(a) The kind of spirits and the approximate date of production;

(b) The name, registry number and location of the producing distiller;

(c) Approximate proof of original distillation;

(d) The approximate quantity, proof and proof gallons of the spirits to be redistilled;

(e) The name, registry number and location of the distillery or warehouse from which such spirits will be removed;

(f) The serial numbers of packages, tanks or other receptacles in which such spirits are contained, if known;

(g) The method of transportation by which the spirits will be conveyed to the redistiller's premises;

(h) Statement of the process by which redistillation of the spirits will be accomplished, including any special treatment or process to be used;

(i) The type of spirits to be produced by the redistillation and approximate proof at which such spirits will be redistilled;

(j) The approximate period of time necessary to complete redistillation of all spirits covered by the application;

(k) Statement of condition and necessity for redistillation of the spirits.

The application may cover several lots of spirits or may be of a continuing nature for a stated period of time.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.437 Action by district supervisor. Upon receipt of an application for permission to receive spirits for redistillation, the district supervisor will determine whether all required information has been furnished. If, in the opinion of the supervisor, the redistillation of the spirits is justified, he may authorize removal of the spirits subject to such conditions and restrictions as are deemed necessary for protection of the revenue. He will also determine whether the applicant distiller's bond, or consent of surety filed in support thereof, covers such removals, and that the penal sum of the bond thereof is sufficient, and will note the amount of the bond, if less than the maximum, and his approval on each copy of the application, retain one copy, forward one copy to the storekeeper-gauger assigned to the applicant's premises and forward the original and the remaining copy to the applicant. Where approval of an application is conditional or subject to restrictions, such conditions will be stipulated on the application at the time of approval by the supervisor. In case the application is disapproved, the supervisor will note his disapproval on each copy of the application with statements as to reason or reasons therefor, retain one copy of the application, and return the remaining copies to the applicant.

§ 183.438 Form 236. Upon receipt of an approved special application for permission to receive spirits for redistillation, the consignee distiller shall prepare application on Form 236, properly modified for that purpose, for transfer of such spirits, and will enter thereon the serial number and date of the special application authorizing such removal. Where the special application covers removal of several lots of spirits for redistillation over an extended period of time, it will involve the use of multiple sets of Forms 236; however, in no case shall the total quantity represented by the Forms 236, singly or collectively, exceed the maximum quantity of spirits stated in the approved special application covering such removals. Where the consignor distillery or warehouse is located in the same supervisory district, the original and five copies of the Form 236 will be prepared and delivered to the storekeeper-gauger; the original and six copies if the consignor distillery or warehouse is located in a different district. The storekeeper-gauger will execute his certificate on all copies of the Form 236, indicating that the distiller's bond is sufficient to cover the redistillation of the spirits described, pursuant to the district supervisor's notation as to bond coverage on the special application and will return all copies to the distiller. The distiller will forward all copies of the approved Form 236 and one copy of the approved special application to the consignor distiller or warehouseman.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.439 Quantity to be determined at time of receipt. Where spirits for redistillation are received in approved containers, including tank cars, the actual quantity of spirits received will be ascertained by appropriate gauge and immediately transferred to tanks conforming to § 183.96, or introduced into the distilling system where the redistillation is to be accomplished simultaneously with primary distillation of other distilling materials. Where spirits for redistillation are introduced directly into the distilling system, the system must be locked and sealed in such a manner as to prevent access to its contents: Provided, That where small quantities of spirits for redistillation are to be mingled with beer in a fermenter or beer well, locking facilities will not be required where the volume of spirits is less than five percent of the volume of the beer. Such spirits received in tank cars may be conveyed directly into the weighing tank in the cistern room for gauging prior to deposit in the tanks or distilling system. Spirits received by pipe line for redistillation from a contiguous distillery or warehouse must be deposited directly into tanks on the redistiller's premises. Spirits produced from different type materials, such as grain, cane and fruit, must be deposited in separate tanks and redistilled separately or introduced into the distilling system with the same type of distilling material from which such spirits were originally produced. The storekeeper-gauger shall note the actual quantity received in proof gallons on each copy of the gauge report covering transfer of the spirits and use such information respecting the making or verification of entries in monthly records and reports, as to the quantity and type of distilling material thus received.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.440 Losses in transit of spirits received for redistillation. Where the gauge of spirits received for redistillation discloses deficiencies between the shipping and receiving gauges that cannot be attributed to normal transit losses or variation in gauge the applicable procedure prescribed by §§ 183.595–183.605 will be followed. In all cases the actual quantity of spirits received for redistillation and the quantity lost in transit, as indicated by comparison of the shipping and receiving gauges, will be entered by the storekeeper-gauger on the Form 236 and Form 1520 covering transfer of each lot of spirits received for redistillation. The storekeeper-gauger in charge will retain one copy each of Forms 236 and 1520, give one copy each of Forms 236 and 1520 to the distiller and forward one copy each of such forms to his district supervisor in the case of intradistrict transfers; two copies of Form 236 and one copy of Form 1520 in the case of interdistrict transfers, in which case the district supervisor will forward the extra copy of Form 236 to the supervisor-consignor.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.441 Redistillation of spirits. Spirits received at a registered distillery for redistillation must be redistilled as expeditiously as normal distilling operations will permit. The spirits introduced into the distilling system shall be entered in proof gallons according to class and type by the proprietor and the storekeeper-gauger on their respective records as materials used. Where spirits received for redistillation are commingled with beer in a fermenter, the transfer must be made prior to the testing of the beer by the storekeeper-gauger at the time of distillation. Where such spirits are transferred to the beer well after the calculated yield has been determined, the actual quantity of spirits in proof gallons, thus introduced, will be reported separately as the calculated yield to be entered in Form 1686 by the storekeeper-gauger. Spirits received for redistillation may be treated in any manner during the course of redistillation provided such treatment is included in the statement of process filed pursuant to § 183.162. Different kinds of spirits received for redistillation must be redistilled separately, or with distilling material of the same type as that from which such spirits were originally produced, and, except where used in the manufacture of gin, such spirits may not be redistilled at a proof lower than that specified for the class and type at which such spirits were originally produced. Where spirits for redistillation are on hand at the time the distillery is qualified for alternate operations as an industrial alcohol plant or fruit distillery, such spirits will be gauged and held in closed, locked tanks until the distillery re-qualifies as a registered distillery as provided for in this part.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.442 Deficiencies in redistillation. Deficiencies which occur during the redistillation of spirits received for that purpose will be treated the same as those which occur during the process of original distillation. In any case where the deficiency in redistillation of any particular lot or lots of spirits exceeds that which may be attributed to normal redistillation deficiencies, the storekeeper-gauger will make proper inquiry and appropriate investigation to determine the cause thereof, and both the distiller and the storekeeper-gauger will make explanatory statements relative to such deficiencies in the proper records.

§ 183.443 Deposit in receiving cisterns. Upon completion of redistillation of spirits received for that purpose, the redistilled spirits shall be treated the same as if such spirits were originally produced by the redistiller and deposited in the receiving cisterns in accordance with the requirements of § 183.383. Where such spirits were redistilled separately, the comparison of actual and calculated yields will be made in accordance with the provisions of § 183.384 insofar as applicable. Such spirits shall be withdrawn from the cistern room in the same manner as other spirits originally produced at the distillery and may be withdrawn for any of the purposes authorized by this part.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

REMOVALS FOR REDISTILLATION

§ 183.444 Gauge of spirits. Upon receipt of application, Form 236, and the copy of the special application authorizing removal, the distiller, when he desires to make shipment, will give a copy of Form 236 to the storekeeper-gauger, furnish a complete description of the spirits to be shipped and exhibit to him the approved special application. Where the spirits are removed to a contiguous distillery by pipe line, they may be gauged in weighing tanks either before removal or upon receipt. The storekeeper-gauger will verify the information shown on Form 236 with the corresponding information on the application. He will prepare his report of gauge on Form 1520. An original and 4 copies will be prepared for intradistrict shipments and an original and 5 copies for inter-district shipments. The marking of containers will be made in accordance with § 183.524 insofar as applicable, and, in addition to required transfer-in-bond markings for containers of spirits removed for redistillation, there will be stenciled thereon the words, "For Redistillation." The storekeeper-gauger will note on all gauge reports covering removal of spirits for redistillation the words, "For Redistillation," followed by the serial number and date of the special application authorizing such removal. Spirits may not be removed for redistillation until the proper authorization has been received at the consignor premises and exhibited to the storekeeper-gauger in charge who will determine that the quantity of spirits to be removed does not exceed the maximum stated in any particular application on Form 236 or the related special application, and, where previous removals have been made under the same special application, that the total of such removals are not in excess of the maximum quantity authorized by the special application. Forms 236 and 1520 will be disposed of in accordance with § 183.572 for intradistrict transfers and § 183.580 for interdistrict transfers.

§ 183.445 Records. Spirits removed from a registered distillery to another distillery, for redistillation, shall be reported and accounted for by the proprietor on Form 1598. In addition, there shall be entered on the line where each such entry for withdrawal is shown, the notation, "For Redistillation," followed by the serial number and date of the special application authorizing the transfer of the spirits for redistillation.

SUBPART U—THE TAX ON DISTILLED SPIRITS

§ 183.450 Rate of tax. The law imposes a tax on distilled spirits produced in, or imported into, the United States, at the rate prescribed therein, on each proof gallon, or wine gallon when below proof, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon, to be paid when withdrawn from bond.

(54 Stat. 552, as amended; 53 Stat. 298, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 1650, 2800)

§ 183.451 Attachment of tax. Under the law, the tax attaches to distilled spirits as soon as such substance comes into existence as such, whether it be subsequently separated as pure or impure spirit, or be immediately, or at any subsequent time, transferred into any other substance, either in the process of original production or by any subsequent process.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800)

§ 183.452 Persons liable for tax. The law provides that every proprietor or possessor of, and every person in any manner interested in the use of, any still, distillery, or distilling apparatus, shall be jointly and severally liable for the taxes imposed by law on the distilled spirits produced therefrom.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800)

LIEN FOR TAX ON DISTILLED SPIRITS

§ 183.453 Tax to be first lien. Except as provided in § 183.455 the tax on distilled spirits becomes, under the law, a first lien on the spirits distilled, the distillery used for distilling the same, the stills, vessels, fixtures, and tools therein, the lot or tract of land whereon said distillery is situated, and on any building thereon, from the time said spirits are in existence as such until the tax is paid: Provided, That where spirits are removed for redistillation, the consignee distiller shall assume the liability for payment of the tax on such spirits from the time they leave the internal revenue bonded warehouse or distillery, and the tax liability on the producing distiller or the warehouseman, and the liens on the premises of the producing distiller shall cease, and the tax and liens shall become the liability of the consignee distiller. Upon redistillation of such spirits, the redistilled spirits shall be treated the same as if the spirits had been originally produced by the redistiller and all prior obligations as to taxes and liens shall be superseded.

§ 183.454 Assessments become lien. Except as provided in section 183.455, all assessments made by the Commissioner upon examination of the distiller's monthly return, become a lien, from the time the assessment is made until the same shall have been paid, on all distilled spirits on the distillery premises, the distillery used for distilling the same, the stills, vessels, fixtures, and tools therein, the tract of land whereon the said distillery is located, and any building thereon.

(53 Stat. 323; 26 U. S. C. 2846)

§ 183.455 Exemption from lien. No lien attaches to any lot or tract of land, distillery, building, or distilling apparatus by reason of distilling done during any period included within the term of any bond taken on Form 3–A, pursuant to § 183.143.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800)

§ 183.456 Extinguishment of lien. Any lien under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., on any land, or any building thereon, shall be held to be extinguished if (a) such land and building are no longer used for distillery purposes, and (b) there is no outstanding liability for taxes or penalties imposed by law on the distilled spirits produced therein, and (c) no litigation is pending in respect to any such tax or penalty.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800)

§ 183.457 Certificate of discharge of lien. Any person claiming any interest in any such land or building may apply to the district supervisor for a duly acknowledged certificate to the effect that such lien is discharged, and, if the district supervisor determines that any such lien is extinguished, he shall issue such certificate, and any such certificate may be recorded.

SUBPART V—SAMPLES OF DISTILLED SPIRITS

§ 183.465 Unfinished spirits. Upon approval by the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the distillery of an application submitted in accordance with the provisions of § 183.467, the distiller may remove for laboratory analysis samples of distilled spirits in the course of distillation and prior to their deposit in the cistern room, as follows:

(a) Samples, not exceeding three pints in the aggregate, of the product of each still in a distilling unit in each 24-hour period;

(b) Where a discontinuous or batch still, such as a gin still, is operated, samples, not exceeding three pints in the aggregate, of the product of each batch distilled;

(c) Where the distiller desires to obtain spot-samples from various plates of a still in the course of distilling a day's production, samples, not exceeding one quart in the aggregate, from each of the various plates;

(d) Where special conditions prevail, such as the necessity for determining the efficiency of a new still, or for other valid reasons, which require additional samples of unfinished spirits for analytical purposes during specified periods, the application required by § 183.467 shall be submitted by the storekeeper-gauger to the district supervisor for his approval prior to the withdrawal of the additional samples. The size of such samples shall not exceed one quart, and the number of samples must be restricted to the minimum necessary for analytical purposes;

(e) Where the distiller desires samples in excess of those provided for in (a), (b), (c), and (d), he may remove such samples: Provided, That, if in containers of less than one proof gallon, such removal shall be subject to payment of tax in accordance with the provisions of §§ 183.472–183.473, and, if in containers of one proof gallon or more, such removal shall be made pursuant to tax payment in accordance with the provisions of §§ 183.541–183.544. The size and number of samples taken must be restricted to the minimum necessary for the purposes for which intended. In authorizing the taking of samples, the storekeeper-gauger will exercise discretion with the view of allowing sufficient samples to enable the distiller to determine the quality of the product.

§ 183.466 Finished spirits. The distiller may take from the cistern room of the distillery samples of distilled spirits for laboratory analysis. Such samples shall not exceed one quart, in the aggregate, in each 24-hour period from any tank in the cistern room: Provided, That, when a tank is filled and emptied and filled again in the same 24-hour period, samples, not to exceed one quart in the aggregate, may be taken from each filling of the tank. Such samples may be withdrawn upon approval by the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the distillery of an application filed in accordance with the provisions of § 183.467. The taking of samples from the cistern room at more frequent intervals or in greater quantities shall not be authorized: Provided, That, where the distiller desires samples in number or quantities in excess of these limitations, he may remove samples in containers of less than one proof gallon subject to payment of tax in accordance with the provisions of §§ 183.472–183.473, and in containers of one proof gallon or more upon taxpayment in accordance with the provisions of §§ 183.541–183.544.

§ 183.467 Application. When the distiller desires to remove samples of unfinished spirits or finished spirits for laboratory analysis under the provisions of §§ 183.465 and 183.466, respectively, he shall make application, in triplicate, to the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the distillery. The application shall be given a serial number beginning with "1" for the first application and running consecutively thereafter. The application should specify the reasons why the samples are desired, the number and size of the samples to be taken, and the place or places of removal. Where it is desired to remove samples regularly for the purpose specified, except samples subject to taxpayment, the application may be made for that purpose. Where samples subject to taxpayment are desired, application shall be submitted each day such samples are to be procured. No sample may be taken until the application is approved.

§ 183.468 Approval of application. The storekeeper-gauger must satisfy himself as to the need for the number of samples desired and the legitimacy of the purpose for which they are to be used before approving the application. The storekeeper-gauger, upon approval or disapproval of the application, shall return one copy to the distiller, forward one copy to the district supervisor, and retain the original copy in his office.

§ 183.469 Removal under supervision. All samples of finished and unfinished spirits must be taken under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 183.470 Label. At the time of the withdrawal of a sample, the proprietor shall prepare a label and a copy thereof. The label and copy shall be prepared on paper having approximate dimensions of 3" x 5". The proprietor shall show on the label and on the copy, in the order listed and upon separate lines, the following information:

(a) The word "Sample";

(b) The serial number of the approved application covering the withdrawal of the sample;

(c) The kind of spirits;

(d) The place from which the sample was removed;

(e) The name of the distiller followed by the registered number of the distillery and the name of the State in which located;

(f) The size of the samples and, in regard to samples in containers of less than one proof gallon taken subject to payment of tax, the quantity in proof gallons extended to the fourth decimal place (the proof gallon content of other samples need not be shown on the label);

(g) If the sample is to be analyzed at other than the immediate or contiguous premises of the proprietor, the name and address of the laboratory or purchaser to which the sample is to be sent.

Upon completion, the label and the copy shall be presented to the storekeeper-gauger, who shall verify the accuracy of the data thereon, date and sign both copies, and supervise the affixing of the label to the sample container. Where the label is to be placed upon a container of a sample taken subject to payment of the tax pursuant to the provisions of §§ 183.472–183.473, the storekeeper-gauger shall write upon the label and the copy the words "subject to tax payment." The copy of the label shall be filed by the storekeeper-gauger in accordance with the provisions of § 183.471. The distiller shall not be required to affix red strip stamps to containers of taxable samples of spirits. Containers of samples of spirits in quantities of one proof gallon or more taken subject to payment of tax, shall be marked, branded, and stamped, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 183.523–183.545: Provided, That where it is impracticable to so mark and brand a sample container, the mandatory marks and brands may be shown on an additional label affixed to the container.

§ 183.471 Office record. The proprietor shall furnish sufficient file cases for the filing and retention of sample records. The copies of labels shall be kept by the storekeeper-gauger as a record of samples removed and shall be filed numerically by application number and chronologically by date. If the distiller operates an internal revenue bonded warehouse on or contiguous to the distillery premises, the record of samples removed from the distillery shall be maintained separately from the record of samples removed from the warehouse.

§ 183.472 Report of taxable samples. Taxable samples shall be reported by the distiller on Form 1598 in accordance with the instructions on the form.

§ 183.473 Report of taxable samples, containers of less than one gallon. Each day that samples in containers of less than one proof gallon are withdrawn subject to payment of tax, the storekeeper-gauger shall enter on Form 1615, in quadruplicate, a record of the taxable samples removed. All the information called for by the form shall be furnished. At the end of each month, the storekeeper-gauger shall complete the report, retain one copy of the form and deliver the remaining three copies to the distiller, who shall forward the three copies to the collector with remittance for the tax due. The collector shall execute his certificate of tax payment on each copy of the form, retain one copy, and return the remaining two copies to the distiller, who shall retain one copy and deliver the other copy to the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger shall note the taxpayment on his retained copy and forward the other copy to the district supervisor.

§ 183.474 Disposition of samples. The samples must be used solely for laboratory analysis. They may not be furnished to salesmen and dealers for advertising or soliciting purposes. Where spirits are sold subject to approval as to quality, a sample taken pursuant to the provisions of §§ 183.466–183.468 may be furnished the purchaser. Remnants or residues of samples taken from the distillery or cistern room not subject to taxpayment remaining after analysis or examination and which are not desired to be retained as laboratory specimens or for further analysis or examination should be returned to vessels in the distilling system, unless the condition of the remnants or residues is such as to render them unsuitable for such disposition. If such remnants or residues of samples are unsuitable for return to the distilling system, they should be destroyed.

SUBPART W—TAX-PAYMENT, REMOVAL, AND TRANSFER OF DISTILLED SPIRITS FROM CISTERN ROOM

AUTHORIZED REMOVALS OF WHISKY

§ 183.480 Transfers to internal revenue bonded warehouses. Whisky may be removed to internal revenue bonded warehouses as follows:

(a) In approved containers, for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such approved containers; and

(b) In wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for the purpose of exportation only.

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2883)

§ 183.481 Tax-payment. Whisky produced at 160 degrees of proof or more, may be removed upon tax-payment for use for beverage purposes only, as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars, and tank trucks, to any tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant.

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2883)

§ 183.482 Redistillation. Whisky may be removed for redistillation, upon the showing of the need therefor, in accordance with § 183.435. Such whisky may be removed as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous registered distillery; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars, to any registered distillery.

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2883)

AUTHORIZED REMOVALS OF BRANDY

§ 183.483 Transfers to internal revenue bonded warehouses. Brandy may be removed to internal revenue bonded warehouses as follows:

(a) At any proof:

(1) In approved containers for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such approved containers; and

(2) In wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for the purpose of exportation only.

(b) If produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and without or after reduction to not less than 160 degrees of proof:

(1) By pipeline direct to tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises or contiguous thereto;

(2) In tank cars, for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such containers; and

(3) In tank cars in bond to any internal revenue bonded warehouse for deposit in tanks therein.

(c) If produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and reduced to less than 160 degrees of proof:

(1) In tank cars for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such containers.

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2883)

§ 183.484 Tax-payment. Brandy produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and without or after reduction to any proof may be removed, upon tax-payment, for use for beverage purposes only, as follows:

(a) By pipe line to a contiguous tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars and tank trucks, to any tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.485 Exports. Brandy of a proof of not less than 180 degrees may be removed in tank cars, free of tax, for exportation. Brandy of any proof may be removed to an internal revenue bonded warehouse in wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for exportation only.

(53 Stat. 333, 339; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2888)

§ 183.486 Redistillation. Brandy of any proof may be removed for redistillation upon the showing of the need therefor in accordance with § 183.435. Such brandy may be removed as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous registered distillery or registered fruit distillery; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars, to any registered distillery or registered fruit distillery.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2863)

AUTHORIZED REMOVALS OF RUM

§ 183.487 Transfers to internal revenue bonded warehouses. Rum may be removed to internal revenue bonded warehouses as follows:

(a) At any proof:

(1) In approved containers, for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such approved containers; and

(2) In wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for the purpose of exportation.

(b) If produced for denaturation at 150 degrees of proof or more, and without or after reduction to not less than 150 degrees of proof:

(1) By pipeline direct to tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises where produced.

(c) If produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and without or after reduction to not less than 160 degrees of proof:

(1) By pipeline direct to tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises where produced or contiguous thereto;

(2) In tank cars, for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such approved containers; and

(3) In tank cars in bond to any internal revenue bonded warehouse for deposit in tanks therein.

(d) If produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and reduced to less than 160 degrees of proof:

(1) In tank cars for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such containers.

§ 183.488 Transfers to distillery denaturing bonded warehouses. Rum produced at 150 degrees of proof or more, and without or after reduction to not less than 150 degrees of proof, may be removed by pipeline for denaturation direct to a distillery denaturing bonded warehouse located on the premises of the distillery where produced.

§ 183.489 Tax-payment. Rum produced at 160 degrees of proof or more, and without or after reduction to any proof may be removed, upon tax-payment, for use for beverage purposes only, as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars and tank trucks, to any tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.490 Exports. Rum of a proof of not less than 180 degrees may be removed in tank cars, free of tax, for exportation. Rum of any proof may be removed to an internal revenue bonded warehouse in wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for exportation only.

(53 Stat. 333, 339; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2888)

§ 183.491 Redistillation. Rum of any proof may be removed for redistillation upon the showing of the need therefor in accordance with § 183.435. Such rum may be removed, as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous registered distillery; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars, to any registered distillery.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

AUTHORIZED REMOVALS OF GIN

§ 183.492 Transfers to internal revenue bonded warehouses. Gin may be removed to internal revenue bonded warehouses as follows:

(a) At any proof:

(1) By pipe line direct to tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises or contiguous thereto;

(2) In approved containers for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such approved containers; and

(3) In wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for the purpose of exportation only.

(b) If produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and without or after reduction to not less than 160 degrees of proof:

(1) In tank cars for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such containers; and

(2) In tank cars in bond to any internal revenue bonded warehouse for deposit in tanks therein.

(c) If produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and reduced to less than 160 degrees of proof:

(1) In tank cars for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such containers.

(53 Stat. 333, 339; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2888)

§ 183.493 Tax-payment. Gin may be removed, upon tax-payment, as follows:

(a) If produced at less than 160 degrees of proof and without or after reduction to any proof:

(1) By pipeline, to a contiguous tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant.

(b) If produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and without or after reduction to any proof, for beverage purposes only:

(1) By pipeline to a contiguous tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant; and

(2) In approved containers, including tank cars and tank trucks, to any tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800, 2883)

§ 183.494 Exports. Gin of a proof of not less than 180 degrees may be removed in tank cars, free of tax, for exportation. Gin of any proof may be removed to an internal revenue bonded warehouse in wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for exportation only.

(53 Stat. 333, 339; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2888)

§ 183.495 Redistillation. Gin of any proof may be removed for redistillation, upon the showing of the need therefor in accordance with § 183.435. Such gin may be removed as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous registered distillery; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars, to any registered distillery.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

AUTHORIZED REMOVALS OF NEUTRAL SPIRITS

§ 183.496 Transfers to internal revenue bonded warehouses. Neutral spirits may be removed to internal revenue bonded warehouses as follows:

(a) Without reduction or if not reduced below 160 degrees of proof:

(1) By pipeline direct to tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises or contiguous thereto; and

(2) In tank cars in bond to any internal revenue bonded warehouse for deposit in tanks therein.

(b) Without or after reduction to any proof:

(1) Into approved containers, including tank cars, for transfer in bond to any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such approved containers.

(2) In wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for the purpose of exportation.

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2883)

§ 183.497 Tax-payment. Neutral spirits may be removed upon tax-payment, without or after reduction to any proof, for use for beverage purposes only, as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars, to any tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800, 2883)

§ 183.498 Exports. Neutral spirits of a proof of not less than 180 degrees may be removed in tank cars free of tax for exportation. Neutral spirits of any proof may be removed to an internal revenue bonded warehouse in wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than five wine gallons each for exportation only.

(53 Stat. 333, 339; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2888)

§ 183.499 Redistillation. Neutral spirits of any proof may be removed for redistillation, upon the showing of the need therefor in accordance with § 183.435. Such neutral spirits may be removed as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous registered distillery; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars, to any registered distillery.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

AUTHORIZED REMOVALS OF SPIRITS-GRAIN, SPIRITS-CANE, SPIRITS-FRUIT, ETC.

§ 183.500 Transfers to internal revenue bonded warehouses. Spirits-grain, spirits-cane, spirits-fruit, etc., may be removed to internal revenue bonded warehouses as follows:

(a) At any proof:

(1) In approved containers for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such approved containers; and

(2) In wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for the purpose of exportation only.

(b) If produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and without or after reduction to not less than 160 degrees of proof:

(1) By pipeline direct to tanks in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on the distillery premises where produced or contiguous thereto; and

(2) In tank cars, for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such containers; and

(3) In tank cars in bond to any internal revenue bonded warehouse for deposits in tanks therein.

(c) If produced at 160 degrees of proof or more and reduced to less than 160 degrees of proof:

(1) In tank cars for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such containers.

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2883)

§ 183.501 Tax-payment. Spirits-grain, spirits-cane, spirits-fruit, etc., produced at 160 degrees of proof or more, without or after reduction to any proof, may be removed upon tax-payment for use for beverage purposes only, as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars and tank trucks, to any tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended; 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2800, 2883)

§ 183.502 Exports. Spirits-grain, spirits-cane, spirits-fruit, etc., of a proof of not less than 180 degrees may be removed in tank cars, free of tax, for exportation. Spirits-grain, spirits-cane, spirits-fruit, etc., of any proof may be removed to an internal revenue bonded warehouse in wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for exportation only.

(53 Stat. 333, 339; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2888)

§ 183.503 Redistillation. Spirits-grain, spirits-cane, spirits-fruit, etc., of any proof may be removed for redistillation, upon the showing of the need therefor in accordance with § 183.435. Such spirits may be removed as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous registered distillery; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars, to any registered distillery.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

AUTHORIZED REMOVALS OF VODKA

§ 183.504 Transfers to internal revenue bonded warehouses. Vodka may be removed to internal revenue bonded warehouses as follows:

(a) In metal, porcelain, glass, or paraffin-lined containers for deposit in any internal revenue bonded warehouse for storage in such containers; and

(b) In wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans having a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons each, for the purpose of exportation only.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 183.505 Redistillation. Vodka may be removed for redistillation, upon the showing of the need therefor in accordance with § 183.435. Such vodka may be removed as follows:

(a) By pipeline to a contiguous registered distillery; and

(b) In approved containers, including tank cars, to any registered distillery.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

CONTAINERS

§ 183.506 Approved containers. "Approved containers" shall mean only those containers specified in § 183.6. Spirits may be drawn into railroad tank cars only in case the premises of the distiller and the consignee are equipped with suitable railroad siding facilities. If the spirits are to be warehoused in the tank car, the railroad siding facilities of the receiving warehouse must extend into the warehouse. Distilled spirits authorized to be removed upon taxpayment in tank trucks, pursuant to §§ 183.481 (b), 183.484 (b), 183.489 (b), 183.493 (b) (2), 183.497 (b), and 183.501 (b), shall be gauged, taxpaid, removed, shipped, etc., in accordance with the procedure prescribed by this part for the removal of taxpaid spirits in tank cars.

WOODEN PACKAGES CONTAINING METALLIC CANS

§ 183.507 General. As provided by this subpart distilled spirits may be drawn into wooden packages each containing two or more metallic cans, which cans shall each have a capacity of not less than 5 wine gallons, for entry into an internal revenue bonded warehouse for exportation therefrom.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 183.508 Kind and construction of packages. Each such package shall be substantially and securely constructed of clear, dressed lumber, and one side of each such package, to be known as the Government side, must be reserved for the marks and brands prescribed by § 183.512 and the export stamp required by Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185). The Government side must present a smooth and unbroken surface, and may consist of two or more pieces fitted closely together. The wooden packages shall be secured by metal straps or heavy wires, in addition to being securely nailed.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 183.509 Notice by distiller. Whenever distilled spirits are to be exported in wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans, the distiller shall file with the storekeeper-gauger a written notice, stating the number of cans which he desires to have filled for this purpose.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 183.510 Packages to be weighed before filling. The empty packages shall be weighed immediately preceding the filling of same. In determining the weight (tare) of the package, the metallic cans contained therein as well as the wooden case shall be weighed. The combined weight of the metallic cans and the case shall be the tare or weight to be marked on the empty package.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 183.511 Filling of cans. Upon receipt of the notice from the distiller pursuant to § 183.509, the storekeeper-gauger will supervise the filling of the metallic cans from the receiving cistern. After the packages have been filled they will be reweighed and the details of the gauge reported on Form 1520.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 183.512 Marks and brands. The name of the distiller or the person in whose name the spirits were produced, the registry number of the distillery, the city, town and state in which the distillery is located, the kind of spirits, the serial number of the package, the date of filling, and the proof, proof gallons and tare determined at the time of filling, will be plainly and durably stenciled on the Government side of the package in letters and figures of not less than one-half inch in height. In addition, when the spirits are to be withdrawn for transfer in bond to an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on noncontiguous premises, there shall be marked on the Government side of the package data showing the transfer date and premises to which transferred as "Trans. Aug. 1, 1950 IRBW 4 N. Y." The marks will be shown in the following manner:

Serial No. 999
JOHN DOE DISTILLING CO.
No. 9, Rockland, Pa.
Filled Aug. 1, 1950
Whisky
T.—
P.—
P. G.—
(Trans. Aug. 1, 1950,
IRBW 4—N. Y.)

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 183.513 Deposit in warehouse. After the packages have been filled, gauged, and marked as required by this subpart and recorded as required by § 183.586 they will be deposited in an internal revenue bonded warehouse for temporary storage pending their removal for exportation.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

DRAWING OFF, GAUGING AND REMOVAL OF SPIRITS

§ 183.514 Drawing off spirits. Distilled spirits must be drawn from the receiving cisterns on or before the third day following deposit therein. When spirits are to be drawn from a receiving cistern, the storekeeper-gauger will see that the valve in the pipe line controlling the flow of spirits into the cistern and the valve in any connecting overflow pipe line are closed and locked before the spirits in the cistern are reduced and proofed, and that such valves remain closed and locked until all spirits have been drawn from the cistern. Whenever spirits are to be drawn from receiving cisterns or transferred into or out of other tanks secured with Government locks, the storekeeper-gauger will open and close the locks, but it shall be the duty of the distiller to manipulate the stop-cocks or valves controlling the flow of the spirits. The storekeeper-gauger assigned to the cistern room is required to be present and personally supervise all operations therein, and to see that all such operations are properly performed in accordance with this part.

§ 183.515 Gauging of spirits. All distilled spirits drawn from receiving cisterns will be carefully gauged by the storekeeper-gauger by weighing and proofing the spirits in accordance with this subpart and the Gauging Manual (26 CFR Part 186), and the details thereof entered on the report of gauge Form 1520. Entries shall be made as indicated by the headings of the various columns and lines and in accordance with the instructions printed on the form or issued in respect thereto and as required by this part. The storekeeper-gauger shall, in every instance, note on Form 1520 the proof of distillation of the spirits gauged. The proof of spirits shall be adjusted to a whole or complete degree before being removed from the receiving cisterns: Provided, That the proof of rum transferred by pipe line from the receiving cisterns to the distillery denaturing bonded warehouse on the distillery premises need not be so adjusted. The spirits in the cistern must be thoroughly agitated before taking the proof. The proof so ascertained will be regarded as the proof of spirits run into all packages filled from the cistern and all spirits removed by pipe line or in tank cars. However, the proof of the spirits in the cistern will be checked several times while spirits are being drawn off. Distilled spirits to be transferred by pipe line or in railroad tank cars for shipment will be gauged in a weighing tank as provided in §§ 183.517, 183.520, and 183.555.

§ 183.516 Time of removal from cistern room. The spirits must be removed from the cistern room on the same day they are drawn from the receiving cisterns, except that where they are drawn into approved containers for tax-payment without being entered into a warehouse, or are drawn into such containers for deposit in an internal revenue bonded warehouse off the distillery premises, the same may be placed in a temporary storage room within the cistern room, provided in accordance with § 183.66, and permitted to remain therein for such period as may be reasonably necessary to accomplish tax-payment or removal for such deposit, but not more than three days, except in cases of emergency, and then only with the approval of the district supervisor. While spirits are stored in such temporary storage room it will be kept securely locked at all times, except when necessary to be open for the deposit or removal of spirits. The entrance door will be secured with a Government seal lock, the key to which will remain at all times in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 183.517 Weighing spirits removed by pipe line. Spirits removed by pipe line must be weighed in weighing tanks before removal, except that where they are transferred by pipe line from the receiving cisterns to an internal revenue bonded warehouse or denaturing bonded warehouse operated by the distiller on contiguous premises, or to a contiguous distillery for redistillation, the spirits may be run into weighing tanks in the bonded warehouse or the receiving distillery and weighed therein. The spirits must, in any event, be weighed once in connection with their removal. Spirits transferred from the cistern room to tank cars must be gauged in weighing tanks prior to such transfer. The storekeeper-gauger will balance the weighing tank scales before the spirits are run into the weighing tank. The details of the gauge will be reported by the storekeeper-gauger in each instance in accordance with this subpart.

(53 Stat. 298, as amended, 335, as amended, 355, 492; 26 U. S. C. 2800, 2883, 3070, 4017)

§ 183.518 Testing tank scales. Scales used for weighing spirits in lots of not over 500 gallons will be tested from time to time under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger by means of test weights provided in accordance with § 183.94. Such scales will be tested by placing the prescribed test weights on the scales and checking the weight registered on the beam of the scales. The test weights will then be removed without disturbing the beam and the weighing tank filled with spirits of water to the same weight, whereupon the test weights will again be placed upon the scales, the spirits or water being retained in the tank and the weight registered on the beam checked. This operation will then be continued until the scales have been checked in 500-pound notches at all weights for which the scales are used. Proprietors will have scales used for weighing spirits in larger lots tested and their accuracy certified by State, county, or city departments of weights and measures or by a responsible scale company at intervals of not more than six months. Officers will see that the proprietors have the scales of weighing tanks, used for weighing distilled spirits in lots of more than 500 gallons, tested and their accuracy certified by State, county, or city departments of weights and measures, or by a responsible scale company, at intervals of not more than six months. Officers will also check, at least once a month, the gallonage represented to be on the scale against the gallonage indicated by a volumetric determination of the contents of the tank. Such volumetric determination will be made by (a) accurately ascertaining the proof and the temperature of the distilled spirits and the depth of the liquid in the tank by means of a steel tape, (b) multiplying the depth in inches by the capacity of the tank for 1 inch of depth, and (c) correcting the volume to 60 degrees Fahrenheit in accordance with table No. 7 of the Gauging Manual. The corrected gallons thus determined will be compared with the gallons represented by the reading of the beam of the scale. Unless the volumetric check is within 0.5 percent of the quantity shown to be in the tank, the Government officer will take appropriate steps to have the accuracy of the scales verified. In addition to the volumetric check described, officers will, as frequently as conditions indicate the necessity therefor, test weighing tank scales of large capacity in the manner prescribed for smaller capacity weighing tank scales, except that such tests on large capacity weighing tank scales may be made when they contain considerable quantities of liquid. In this case the beam will be carefully balanced, and test weights will be added to the load, one at a time, until the range of 500 pounds is checked. At any time an officer finds a scale to be inaccurate, he will require the proprietor to have such scale adjusted and its accuracy certified.

(53 Stat. 307; 26 U. S. C. 2808)

§ 183.519 Use of tank scales. When spirits are to be gauged in a weighing tank, the storekeeper-gauger will balance the scales on which the weighing tank is mounted before the spirits are run into such tank for gauging. The storekeeper-gauger will not permit the use of any scales not tested as required by § 183.518 or which upon testing are found to be inaccurate.

§ 183.520 Pipe line removals. Pipe lines used for the transfer of spirits from the cistern room must conform to the requirements of §§ 183.111–183.112, except that spirits may be transferred into a tank car by means of a hose connection. The valves on such pipe lines shall be kept closed and locked at all times, except when necessary to be open for the transfer of spirits. The keys to all locks on the valves of pipe lines shall remain at all times in the custody of the storekeeper-gauger. Spirits may be transferred by pipe line or hose only under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

ADDITION OF OAK CHIPS TO PACKAGES OF SPIRITS

§ 183.521 Time of addition. Distillers may add oak chips which have not been treated with any chemical to packages of distilled spirits. Except as provided in § 183.522, the oak chips must be put into the package before the package is filled. When the chips are so added, the tare of the package will be determined after the addition of the chips, and the storekeeper-gauger will make a notation on the entry Form 1520 to the effect that chips were added to the package and included in the tare.

§ 183.522 Addition to packages in warehouse. Oak chips which have not been treated with any chemical may, as provided by Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185), be added to packages of distilled spirits in warehouses only where the spirits are shown to be unmerchantable by reason of being deficient in color.

MARKING, BRANDING AND STAMPING OF PACKAGES

§ 183.523 General. Before weighing empty casks or packages, officers will examine them and will not permit the use of any cask or package which contains or has on its interior or exterior, any substance that will prevent the correct ascertainment of tare. The tare of the empty package will be determined immediately preceding the filling of the same in all cases: Provided however, The tare of a number of packages may be ascertained and marked thereon before any are filled but not exceeding the number which are to be filled the same day or the following day. If the barrels are not to be filled until the following day, they must be locked in the cistern room after being weighed and marked. The tare or weight of the empty package will be marked on the package as soon as ascertained. All packages of spirits, when filled, shall be further marked and branded as provided by this Subpart, and where such packages are taxpaid, the taxpaid stamps will be affixed thereto and canceled in the manner prescribed in § 183.545.

§ 183.524 Marking of packages filled in cistern room. All packages of distilled spirits filled in the cistern room shall be marked as follows:

(a) Marks. The name of the distiller or the person in whose name the spirits were produced, the registry number of the distillery, the city or town and state in which the distillery is located, the kind of cooperage, the serial number of the package, the kind of spirits, the date of filling, the proof at which distilled, the original proof gallons, the original proof and tare determined at the time of filling (and, if taxpaid in the cistern room, the date of taxpayment and serial number of the taxpaid stamp, as required by § 183.544) shall be marked upon the head of each package. In addition, when spirits are to be withdrawn fo transfer in bond to an internal revenue bonded warehouse located on noncontiguous premises there shall be marked upon the head of the package data showing the transfer date and premises to which transferred, as "Trans. Aug. 1, 1950, IRBW 4–N. Y." The head of the package bearing these marks will be known as the "Government head."

(b) Abbreviation of marks. The registry number and state may be combined and abbreviated as "Calif-708." The kind of cooperage may be abbreviated "C" for charred, "REC" for recharred, "P" for plain, "PAR" for parafinned, "G" for glued, and "R" for reused (not recharred). In addition to these marks, the letters "PS" (pre-soaked) will follow the letters indicating the kind of cooperage if the barrel has been steamed or water soaked prior to filling.

(c) Symbols for proof of distillation. Symbols may be used to designate the the proof of distillation, e. g., "D190P" for "Distilled 190 proof or over," "D160–190P" for "Distilled between 160 and 190 proof," and "D160P" for "Distilled not over 160 proof," or in the case of spirits derived from fruit, "D170–190P" for "Distilled between 170 and 190 proof" and "D170P" for "Distilled not over 170 proof."

(d) Method of marking. All marks shall be plainly and durably burned, cut, imprinted, or stenciled on the head of each package. All marks, except the proof, proof gallons, tare and withdrawal data, shall be placed on the package in letters and figures of not less than three-fourths inch in height. The proof, proof gallons, tare and withdrawal data, and all marks in the case of half barrels, shall be in letters and figures of not less than one-half inch in height. The ink used in applying marks and brands shall be of suitable quality to effect durability and legibility and the heads of the packages shall be sufficiently smooth and free from defects to permit the marks and brands to be clearly and distinctly applied.

(e) Kind of spirits. The kind of spirits shall be stated as "bourbon whisky," etc., in accordance with §§ 183.527–183.534.

(f) Other marks. No marks other than those required by this part shall be placed upon the Government head of a package.

§ 183.525 Marks and brands illustrated. The following cut illustrates the order and manner in which the marks shall be applied to the head of each package upon filling and upon tax-payment. When spirits are transferred in bond or withdrawn free of tax, the required withdrawal information will be shown in lieu of the tax-payment data shown in the cut:

§ 183.526 Numbering of packages. Packages filled with distilled spirits at the distillery shall be serially numbered, beginning with number 1 for the first package filled and continuing in regular sequence: Provided, That the series in current use at existing distilleries will be continued. Where there is a change in the trade name or style, or in the proprietorship of the business, the series in use at the time of such change will be continued. A new series will be used where there is a change in the type of plant; but use of the prior series will be resumed when the plant is again operated as a registered distillery. When the serial numbers of packages filled at any distillery have reached the number 1,000,000, the distiller may, if he so desires, begin a new series, commencing with number 1 preceded or followed by a letter to distinguish it from the prior series, as 1A, 2A, etc., and when the number 1,000,000, so distinguished, is again reached the distiller may begin another series distinguished by the second letter of the alphabet, as 1B, 2B, etc., and subsequent series, distinguished by other letters of the alphabet in order, may likewise be commenced.

KIND OF SPIRITS

§ 183.527 Whisky. Spirits distilled from a fermented mash of grain at less than 190 degrees of proof in such manner that the distillate possesses the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to whisky and withdrawn from the cistern room of the distillery at not more than 110 degrees and not less than 80 degrees of proof, shall be branded "Whisky," except as follows:

(a) Bourbon whisky, rye whisky, etc. Whisky distilled at not exceeding 160 degrees of proof from a fermented mash of not less than 51 percent rye grain, corn grain, wheat grain, malted barley grain, or malted rye grain, and packaged in charred new oak containers, shall be branded "Rye Whisky," "Bourbon Whisky," "Wheat Whisky," "Malt Whisky," or "Rye Malt Whisky," respectively.

(b) Bourbon mash, rye mash, etc. Whisky distilled at not exceeding 160 degrees of proof from a fermented mash of not less than 51 percent rye grain, corn grain (except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section), wheat grain, malted barley grain, or malted rye grain, and packaged in reused cooperage, shall be branded "Whisky." Such whisky shall be further marked, either by branding or stenciling, with the words "Distilled from Rye (or Bourbon, Wheat, Malt, or Rye Malt) Mash," as the case may be.

(c) Corn whisky. Whisky distilled at not exceeding 160 degrees of proof from a fermented mash of not less than 80 percent of corn grain, and packaged in uncharred oak containers, or reused charred oak containers, and not subjected, in the process of distillation or otherwise, to treatment with charred wood, shall be branded "Corn Whisky."

(d) Sour mash whisky. Packages containing whisky produced by a sour mash method described on the distiller's statement of process may be so marked on the Government head at the time of filling.

(e) Treated with oak chips. Any whisky as defined in this section, which in whole or in part is treated with wood chips through percolation or otherwise, during distillation or storage, shall be further marked, either by branding or stenciling, with the words "Treated with oak chips."

(f) Quick aging. Where whisky is quick-aged, by any process, in packages at any time prior to tax-payment, the letters, "Q. A." will be burned, cut or stenciled upon the head of the package when such quick aging is completed.

§ 183.528 Brandy. Spirits distilled solely from the fermented juice, mash, or wine of fruit, or from the residue thereof, distilled at less than 190 degrees of proof in such manner that the distillate possesses the taste, aroma, and and characteristics generally attributed to brandy, shall be branded "Brandy," qualified as follows:

(a) Brandy distilled at not exceeding 170 degrees of proof. Brandy distilled at not exceeding 170 degrees of proof solely from the juice or mash of whole, sound, ripe fruit, or from standard grape, citrus, or other fruit wine, having a volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, not in excess of 0.20 gram per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.), with or without the addition (to juice or wine only) of not more than 20 percent by weight of the pomace of such juice or wine, or 30 percent by volume of the lees of such wine, or both (calculated prior to the addition of water to facilitate fermentation or distillation), is classed as fruit brandy and shall be branded as follows:

(1) Grape brandy. Fruit brandy derived exclusively from grapes, shall be branded "Grape Brandy" or "Brandy";

(2) Peach brandy, apple brandy, etc. Fruit brandy, other than grape brandy, derived exclusively from one variety of fruit, shall be designated by the word "Brandy," qualified by the name of such fruit (e. g., "Peach Brandy," "Apple Brandy," "Orange Brandy"), except that apple brandy may be designated "Applejack."

(3) Fruit brandy. Fruit brandy distilled from more than one variety of fruit shall be branded "Fruit Brandy," qualified by a statement of composition (e. g., "Fruit Brandy ------% Grapes and ------% Blackberries").

(b) Dried fruit brandy. Brandy that conforms to the standard for fruit brandy, except that it has been derived from sound dried fruit, or from the standard wine of such fruit, shall be branded as follows:

(1) Raisin brandy. Brandy derived from raisins, or from raisin wine, shall be branded "Raisin Brandy."

(2) Dried peach brandy, dried apple brandy, etc. Other brandies derived from sound dried fruit, or from the standard wine of such fruit, shall be branded in the same manner as fruit brandy from the corresponding variety or varieties of fruit except that the name of the fruit shall be qualified by the word "Dried."

(c) Lees brandy. Brandy distilled from the lees of standard grape, citrus, or other fruit wine, which are run into the still, shall be branded "Lees Brandy," qualified by the name of the fruit from which such wine and lees are derived (e. g., "Grape Lees Brandy").

(d) Pomace brandy. Brandy distilled from the skin and pulp of sound, ripe grapes, citrus, or other fruit, which are run into the still, after the withdrawal of the juice or wine therefrom, shall be branded "Pomace Brandy," or "Marc Brandy," qualified by the name of the fruit from which derived (e. g., "Grape Pomace Brandy"). Grape pomace brandy may be designated as "Grappa" or "Grappa Brandy."

(e) Residue brandy. Brandy distilled wholly or in part (except as provided in paragraph (a)) from the residue of fruit or wine shall be branded "Residue Brandy," qualified by the name of the fruit from which derived (e. g., "Grape Residue Brandy").

(f) Optional branding. Brandy distilled wholly or in part from residue materials which conforms to any of the standards set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section, may, regardless of such fact, be branded "Residue Brandy," qualified by the name of the fruit from which derived; but such designation shall be conclusive, precluding any later change of designation.

(g) Neutral brandy. Brandy distilled at more than 170 degrees of proof and less than 190 degrees of proof, shall be branded in the same manner as if distilled at a lower proof, except that the designation shall be qualified by the word "Neutral," e. g., "Neutral Brandy," "Neutral Grape Lees Brandy," or "Neutral Grape Pomace Brandy," "Neutral Peach Brandy," "Neutral Peach Pomace Brandy," etc.

(h) Substandard brandy. Brandy distilled from juice, mash, or wine having a volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, in excess of 0.20 gram per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.) (the volatile acidity shall be calculated exclusive of water added to facilitate distillation), and brandy which has been distilled from unsound, moldy, diseased, or decomposed juice, mash, wine, lees, pomace, or residue, or which shows in the finished product any taste, aroma, or characteristic associated with products distilled from such material, shall be branded "Substandard Brandy" qualified by the name of the material from which derived.

(i) Treatment with wood chips. Brandy as defined in this section which in whole or in part is treated with wood chips through percolation or otherwise, during distillation or storage, shall be further marked, either by branding or stenciling, with the words "Treated with oak chips."

(j) Burnt sugar or caramel. Where burnt sugar or caramel is added to brandy, the letters "B. S. A." will be marked on the head of the package.

§ 183.529 Rum. Spirits distilled from the fermented juice of sugarcane, sugarcane syrup, sugarcane molasses, or other sugarcane products, at less than 190 degrees of proof in such manner that the spirits possess the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to rum, shall be branded "Rum."

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2883)

§ 183.530 Gin. Spirits obtained by original distillation over or with juniper berries and other aromatics customarily used in the production of gin, and deriving their main characteristic flavor from juniper berries, shall be branded "Gin," and shall be marked to show the material from which produced, as "Distilled from grain," or "Distilled from cane products," or "Distilled from fruit."

§ 183.531 Neutral spirits. All spirits distilled at or above 190 degrees of proof shall be branded "Neutral Spirits" followed by a word or phrase descriptive of the material from which distilled. Such branding shall be in the following form: "Neutral Spirits—Grain," "Neutral Spirits—Cane," or "Neutral Spirits—Fruit," etc. In the case of fruit neutral spirits produced for fortification, the words "Neutral Spirits—Fruit" branded on the package shall be followed by the name of the fruit from which produced. Such branding shall be in the following form: "Neutral Spirits—Fruit–Grape," etc.

§ 183.532 "Spirits—Grain," "Spirits—Cane," "Spirits—Fruit," Etc. Spirits distilled at less than 190 degrees of proof which are not to be branded in accordance with §§ 183.527–183.533 shall be branded "Spirits" followed by the word or phrase descriptive of the material from which distilled. Such branding shall be in the following form: "Spirits—Grain," "Spirits—Cane," "Spirits—Fruit," "Spirits—Vegetable," etc.

§ 183.533 Vodka. Neutral spirits which are reduced to not more than 110 degrees of proof and not less than 80 degrees of proof and, after such reduction in proof, are so treated by one of the following methods as to be without distinctive character, aroma, or taste, shall be branded "Vodka":

(a) By causing the distillate to flow continuously through a tank or a series of tanks containing at least 1½ pounds of charcoal for each gallon of distillate contained therein at any one time so that the distillate is in intimate contact with the charcoal for a period of not less than 8 hours, not less than 10 percent of the charcoal being replaced by new charcoal at the expiration of each 40 hours of operation, at a rate which will replace at least 6 pounds of charcoal for every 100 gallons of spirits treated;

(b) By keeping the distillate in constant movement by mechanical means in contact for not less than 8 hours with at least 6 pounds of new charcoal for every 100 gallons of distillate;

(c) By purifying or refining the distillate by any other method which the Deputy Commissioner finds will result in a product equally without distinctive character, aroma, or taste, and which has been approved by him.

Vodka may be withdrawn from the distillery and stored only in metal, porcelain, or glass containers or paraffin-lined containers, including tank cars.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 183.534 Other spirits. If a distiller proposes to produce spirits not included in any of the classes enumerated in this subpart, he must first apply to the Deputy Commissioner for a designation for such spirits and they will be branded accordingly. They will be removed in accordance with §§ 183.500–183.503 unless otherwise directed by the Deputy Commissioner.

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2883)

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO MARKING

§ 183.535 Distiller to mark and brand packages. The prescribed marks and brands peculiar to individual packages shall be placed upon the package by the distiller, under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2878)

§ 183.536 Mechanical labor and materials. All mechanical labor pertaining to the gauging of packages of spirits at distillery cistern rooms shall be performed by the distiller. All materials and facilities required in connection with the application of marks and stamps shall be furnished by the distiller, except the instruments for proofing the spirits.

(53 Stat. 333, 336; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2884)

§ 183.537 Testing of scales. The storekeeper-gauger shall balance the scales before weighing either empty or filled packages, and will frequently test, by means of test weights provided in accordance with § 183.94, the accuracy of such scales. During the process of weighing he shall personally verify the weight of each package and record it in the proper column of Form 1520. The storekeeper-gauger will not permit the use of any scales which upon testing are found to be inaccurate.

(53 Stat. 307; 26 U. S. C. 2808)

§ 183.538 Proofing of spirits. The storekeeper-gauger shall personally take the proof of all spirits gauged and enter the same on Form 1520. The storekeeper-gauger will follow strictly the instructions set forth in the Gauging Manual (26 CFR Part 186) respecting the proofing of spirits, in order that the proof may be accurately determined. Hydrometers for determining the proof of distilled spirits are supplied by the Government for use of storekeeper-gaugers. The use of other than official hydrometers by storekeeper-gaugers is prohibited.

§ 183.539 Verification of marks and brands. The storekeeper-gauger shall verify the tare, proof and proof gallons marked on the packages, by comparison with his gauge report, Form 1520, and shall satisfy himself of the accuracy and correctness of the marks and brands and stamps (if any).

§ 183.540 Obliteration of stamps and marks and brands on empty packages. When packages of distilled spirits are emptied, all stamps and marks and brands required to be placed thereon must be completely effaced and obliterated. Where a portion of a stamp is cut out for submission to the district supervisor, when packages are dumped for rectification or for bottling without rectification, the remnant remaining affixed to the package must be completely effaced and obliterated when the package is emptied.

(53 Stat. 330; 26 U. S. C. 2866)

TAX PAYMENT IN PACKAGES

§ 183.541 Application, Form 179. Whenever the distiller desires to tax-pay and remove spirits in packages direct from the cistern room as authorized by this part or when, pursuant to approved application, he desires to tax-pay and remove samples of spirits for laboratory analysis in containers of one proof gallon or more, he shall execute application therefor on Form 179, in quadruplicate, and deliver all copies to the storekeeper-gauger.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.542 Gauge and tax payment. The packages will be gauged and marked and branded in accordance with this part. The details of the gauge will be entered by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1520, in quadruplicate. Three copies of Form 1520, accompanied by all copies of Form 179 with the storekeeper-gauger's report thereon duly executed, will be delivered by the storekeeper-gauger to the distiller. The distiller will then forward all copies of both forms to the collector of internal revenue with remittance in cash or by certified check or post office money order for the tax.

§ 183.543 Issuance of tax-paid stamps. The collector will issue the requisite tax-paid stamps. Each tax-paid stamp shall bear the signature of the collector, who shall write or stamp thereon the date of payment of the tax, by whom paid, the number of gallons and tenths of gallons of proof spirits, and the serial number of the cask. Facsimile signatures of collectors may be affixed by the use of hand stamps to the tax-paid stamps, care being taken to use only such ink as will neither fade nor blur. The collector will enter the serial numbers of the stamps in the appropriate spaces on all copies of Form 1520, sign the certificate of tax payment on each copy of Form 179, retain one copy of each Form 179 and Form 1520, and return the remaining three copies of Form 179 and two copies of Form 1520 to the distiller with the stamps.

§ 183.544 Removal of spirits. The distiller shall immediately deliver all copies of Form 179 and Form 1520, with the tax-paid stamps, to the storekeeper-gauger, who will verify the data thereon with his retained copy of Form 1520 and, if no discrepancies are found, he will note the serial numbers of the stamps on the retained copy of Form 1520 and, after affixing his signature to the stamps, which may be by the use of a facsimile stamp, will return them to the distiller. The distiller will mark, brand and stamp the packages as provided by § 183.524. The stamp must be affixed to the Government head of the package on the left side, and except as provided herein, on the right side opposite the stamp there will be marked the serial number of the tax-paid stamp and the date of tax-payment. These withdrawal marks may be waived by the district supervisor when packages of spirits are to be removed to a tax-paid bottling house or rectifying plant in the immediate vicinity of the distillery for prompt bottling or dumping for rectification where the establishments are owned by the proprietor of such distillery or a subsidiary or affiliate. When the packages have been marked and stamped, as required, they must be promptly removed from the distillery premises. After removal of the spirits, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his statement of the date of withdrawal on the three copies of Form 179, retain one copy each of Form 179 and Form 1520, deliver one copy of each to the distiller, and forward one copy of each to the district supervisor.

§ 183.545 Affixing and canceling stamps. The tax-paid stamps to be affixed by the proprietor as provided by § 183.544 will be securely affixed to the Government head of the package in such manner as to effectively prevent removal without mutilation. The stamp will be canceled immediately after it has been affixed to the barrel by imprinting with five parallel waved lines across the stamp, the stencil for which will be provided by the proprietor. The stamp will be covered with a protective coating of varnish, shellac, or lacquer which is sufficiently transparent to permit legibility of the markings on the stamp, except where the packages are to be transferred to contiguous premises and the coating is not required for protecting the legibility of the stamp. Such stamps must remain upon the packages until the spirits therein are emptied or drawn off.

TAX PAYMENT FOR REMOVAL BY PIPE LINE OR IN RAILROAD TANK CARS

§ 183.546 Application, Form 179. Whenever the distiller desires to tax-pay and remove distilled spirits direct from the cistern room by approved pipe lines to contiguous premises, or in railroad tank cars, he shall execute application therefor on Form 179, in quadruplicate. The distiller shall state, in addition to other applicable data on the form, the approximate quantity to be withdrawn and whether such removal will be by pipe line or by tank car. All copies of Form 179 shall be delivered to the storekeeper-gauger, whereupon such spirits will be run into a weighing tank and gauged for removal. The storekeeper-gauger shall enter the details of the gauge on Form 1520, in quintuplicate. The proof at which the spirits were distilled, and in the case of tank car shipments, the number and name or symbols of the owner of the tank car, shall be noted on Form 1520 by the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will execute his report on each copy of Form 179 and will return all copies thereof, with four copies of Form 1520 attached, to the distiller, who will enter in the space provided therefor on each copy of Form 179, the description of the spirits gauged.

§ 183.547 Application for certificate of tax payment, Form 1594. The distiller will forward all copies of Form 179, and Form 1520, with Form 1594, in duplicate, if the vendee is located in the same supervisory district and in triplicate if the vendee is located in a different supervisory district, accompanied by proper remittance for the tax, to the collector of internal revenue. Form 1594 will be appropriately modified to cover the transfer by pipe line.

§ 183.548 Certificate of tax payment, Form 1595. The collector will issue Form 1595, appropriately modified in the case of pipe line transfers, to show "For Removal by Pipe Line," note the serial number of the certificate, on all copies of Form 1520, and execute his certificate of tax payment on all copies of Form 179. The collector shall fill in all the required data in the blank spaces on the certificate, except those provided in the lower left corner for the verification of the storekeeper-gauger, and shall date and sign the certificate in the same manner as required for a tax-paid stamp by § 183.543. This certificate is not negotiable and shall not be used for any spirits other than those described therein. The collector will enter on the original and the copy or copies of Form 1594 in the space provided, the serial number, date and amount of the certificate issued. The collector will retain one copy each of Form 179 and Form 1520 and the original copy of Form 1594, and will mail or deliver the certificate, Form 1595, and the original and remaining copies of Form 179 and Form 1520 to the distiller or his designated agent, in accordance with the distiller's request on Form 1594. Where the certificate, Form 1595, covers a removal of spirits by pipe line or a tank car shipment to a consignee in the same supervisory district, the collector will send the copy of the application, Form 1594, to the district supervisor, and, in case the certificate, Form 1595, covers a tank car shipment of spirits to a consignee located in a different supervisory district, the collector will send the remaining copy of Form 1594 to the supervisor of the district in which the consignee is located.

§ 183.549 Route board. Railroad tank cars used for the transportation of tax-paid distilled spirits must be equipped with a route board at least 10 by 12 inches in size, to which Form 1595 can be attached. Such board shall be of substantial material and shall be affixed permanently and securely to the tank car by roundheaded or carriage bolts, nutted and riveted, battered or welded.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.550 Bill of lading. The distiller shall incorporate in the bill of lading a description of Form 1595, as follows:

Form 1595, "Collector's Certificate of Tax-payment of Distilled Spirits for Shipment in Tank Cars."

Serial No._____ Owner and No. of Car_____
Vendor_____ Address_____
Vendee_____ Address_____

Where no bill of lading is issued, as in the case of transfer of a tank car between plants by switching arrangements or a pipe line transfer, the distiller shall incorporate in Form 1520 such description of Form 1595.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.551 Storekeeper-gauger's verification. The distiller shall give the certificate of tax payment (Form 1595), the bill of lading (if any), and all copies of Form 179 and Form 1520 to the storekeeper-gauger at the distillery. The storekeeper-gauger will verify the contents of the weighing tank and the description of Form 1595 in the bill of lading or on Form 1520, as the case may be, and will date and sign the certificate, Form 1595, in the space provided therefor. The certificate must be attached to a board on the weighing tank.

RELEASE OF SPIRITS FOR TRANSFER

§ 183.552 By pipe line to contiguous premises. When the certificate of tax-payment has been affixed to the weighing tank, in the case of pipe line transfers to contiguous premises, it will be cancelled in the same manner as the taxpaid stamp on a package. The storekeeper-gauger will unlock the outlet valve and permit the distiller to transfer the spirits by pipe line to the contiguous premises named in the certificate. The spirits shall be transferred only under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger who, after release of the spirits, will forward one copy each of Form 179 and Form 1520 and the cancelled Form 1595 to the district supervisor, retain one copy of Form 179 and Form 1520, and deliver one copy of Form 179 and two copies of Form 1520 to the distiller. The distiller will deliver immediately one copy of Form 1520 to the proprietor of the contiguous establishment.

§ 183.553 By tank car. When spirits are to be removed to a tank car for shipment the certificate of taxpayment shall be placed upon the weighing tank by the distiller, whereupon the storekeeper-gauger will unlock the outlet valve and permit the spirits to be transferred to the tank car named in the certificate. The spirits shall be transferred only under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. Upon deposit of the spirits in the tank car, the distiller will remove the certificate of taxpayment from the weighing tank and affix it securely to the route board on the tank car, whereupon it will be cancelled in the same manner as the taxpaid stamp on a package and then covered with a coating of transparent varnish, shellac or lacquer. The storekeeper-gauger will verify the contents of the tank car, release same for shipment and note on all copies of Form 1520 the date of the release. When the tank car is released, the storekeeper-gauger will forward one copy each of Form 179 and Form 1520 to the district supervisor, retain one copy of each form, and deliver one copy of Form 179 and two copies of Form 1520 together with the bill of lading (if any) to the distiller. The distiller will forward immediately one copy of Form 1520 to the vendee.

PROCEDURE WHEN TANK CAR IS EMPTIED

§ 183.554 Requirements. When tax-paid distilled spirits are received in a tank car, the vendee authorized to receive such spirits shall, at the time the car is emptied, dispose of the certificate of tax-payment, Form 1595, in accordance with the procedure prescribed by Regulations 11 (26 CFR, Part 189) or Regulations 15 (26 CFR, Part 190). The district supervisor will investigate any discrepancy which may be found respecting the shipment in accordance with such regulations.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

DEPOSIT IN WAREHOUSE OPERATED ON DISTILLERY PREMISES BY THE DISTILLER

§ 183.555 Gauge of spirits, Form 1520. Where the distiller operates an internal revenue bonded warehouse on the distillery premises and spirits produced at the distillery are to be entered for deposit in such warehouse, the spirits shall, as authorized by §§ 183.480–183.505, be drawn into approved containers, gauged, marked, and branded, and then immediately deposited in such warehouse, or shall be run into a weighing tank, immediately gauged and transferred by pipe line into tanks in such warehouse: Provided, That where the cistern room is not equipped with a weighing tank, the spirits may be transferred by pipe line to a properly equipped weighing tank in such warehouse, gauged, and immediately deposited in storage tanks in the warehouse, or removed for authorized purposes. The spirits will be transferred to the warehouse and deposited therein under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. The storekeeper-gauger will enter the details of the gauge on Form 1520, in triplicate, and will note on each copy of Form 1520 the proof at which the spirits were distilled and, if transferred to a warehouse tank, the serial number thereof. Upon completion of the form, the storekeeper-gauger will deliver all copies thereof to the distiller for the execution of his entry of the spirits for deposit.

§ 183.556 Distiller's entry for deposit. The distiller's entry for deposit shall be executed in the following form:

(Date)

The distilled spirits described herein are hereby entered for deposit in Internal Revenue Bonded Warehouse No. _____, State of _____

(Distiller)

The entry shall be executed on the same date that the spirits are removed from the distillery. After execution of the entry, the distiller shall return the three copies of Form 1520 to the storekeeper-gauger, who will retain one copy as a permanent record of the deposit of the spirits in the warehouse, forward one copy to the district supervisor, and deliver one copy to the distiller.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2879)

§ 183.557 Mixing of different spirits prohibited. Spirits transferred by pipe line to an internal revenue bonded warehouse may not be deposited with other spirits in weighing or storage tanks, except as authorized by Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185).

(53 Stat. 391; 26 U. S. C. 3254)

§ 183.558 Sufficiency of warehouse bond. Where the bond covering the operation of an internal revenue bonded warehouse on the distillery premises is given in less than the maximum penal sum of $200,000, as shown by the record furnished by the district supervisor pursuant to Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185), the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse will see that the tax liability on the quantity of spirits deposited in the warehouse, plus the tax liability on spirits represented by all outstanding approved Forms 236 (§§ 183.562 and 183.575) is within the limits of the penal sum of the bond.

DEPOSIT IN WAREHOUSE OPERATED BY DISTILLER ON CONTIGUOUS PREMISES

§ 183.559 Procedure. Where the distiller operates an internal revenue bonded warehouse on premises contiguous to the distillery premises, and the location of the warehouse is such that the storekeeper-gaugers assigned to the cistern room and the warehouse are able to maintain the same supervision of the deposit in such warehouse of spirits produced at the distillery as is required in the case of the deposit in a warehouse on the distillery premises of spirits produced at such distillery, the distiller may deposit spirits in such contiguous warehouse in accordance with the procedure prescribed in §§ 183.555–183.556 for the deposit of spirits in an internal revenue bonded warehouse operated by the distiller on the distillery premises, except that where separate Government offices are maintained for the distillery and the warehouse an extra copy of Form 1520 will be prepared and one copy of such form will be filed in each Government office. When spirits are so deposited, the storekeeper-gauger assigned to the cistern room will in each instance deliver directly to the storekeeper-gauger at the warehouse a copy of the Form 1520. The storekeeper-gauger supervising the warehouse will personally verify the number of containers and the quantity received for deposit. Where the spirits cannot be deposited under such direct supervision, the procedure prescribed in §§ 183.561–183.573, inclusive, will be followed.

TRANSFER TO WAREHOUSE OFF DISTILLERY PREMISES IN SAME DISTRICT, EXCEPT WAREHOUSE OPERATED BY DISTILLER ON CONTIGUOUS PREMISES

§ 183.561 Application, Form 236. Where spirits are to be transferred to and entered for deposit in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located off the distillery premises in the same supervisory district, and such warehouse is not operated by the distiller on premises contiguous to the distillery premises, the proprietor of the receiving warehouse shall execute an application for the transfer of the spirits on Form 236. The applicant shall enter all applicable data indicated by the form including the maximum quantity in tax gallons to be transferred in any one truck, railroad car, or other vehicle, and the type of conveyance. The name of the carrier shall not be specified on Form 236. The applicant shall prepare an original and five copies of Form 236 and give them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the receiving warehouse.

§ 183.562 Storekeeper-gauger's certificate of sufficiency of warehouse bond. Upon receipt of Form 236 by the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse, he will compare the penal sum of the bond as stated in the application with his record furnished by the district supervisor pursuant to Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185). If the bond is given in the maximum penal sum of $200,000, he will certify to the sufficiency thereof on Form 236 and return all six copies of the form to the proprietor of the warehouse. If the bond is given in less than the maximum penal sum, the storekeeper-gauger in charge will determine from his records whether the tax liability on the quantity of distilled spirits represented by the Form 236, plus the quantity of distilled spirits stored in the warehouse, plus the quantity represented by all outstanding approved Forms 236, is within the limits of the penal sum of the transportation and warehousing bond. If so, he will certify to the sufficiency of the bond on Form 236, record such certification in his records, and return all six copies of the form to the proprietor. If the transportation and warehousing bond is not sufficient, he will certify to that fact on Form 236 and return all six copies to the proprietor. The proprietor will forward all six copies of the approved Form 236 to the proprietor of the consignor-distillery. The proprietor of the warehouse will be responsible for all outstanding approved Forms 236. If, at any time, he decides not to use one, he will obtain all copies from the consignor and give them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse for cancellation and return to the proprietor of the warehouse.

§ 183.563 Spirits to be transferred. When the distiller desires to make shipment, he will give a copy of Form 236 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge and furnish him a complete description of the spirits to be shipped.

§ 183.564 Report of gauge. Unless previously packaged, the spirits designated by the proprietor to be transferred will, as authorized by §§ 183.480–183.505, be drawn from the receiving cisterns into casks or packages, gauged, marked and branded, or into a weighing tank, gauged, and run by pipe line into a properly equipped railroad tank car, or into tanks located in a contiguous internal revenue bonded warehouse not operated by the distiller. The quantity transferred shall not exceed the maximum stated in the application. The details of the gauge will be entered by the storekeeper-gauger on five copies of Form 1520.

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended, 492; 2878, 2883, 4017)

§ 183.565 Tank cars. Each railroad tank car used to transport distilled spirits in bond must have permanently and legibly marked or painted thereon its number, capacity in gallons, and the name or symbols of the owner. The dome or manhole covers on all railroad tank cars used for shipping distilled spirits in bond shall be equipped with facilities for sealing with a cap seal when closed, and the outlet valves and all other openings to or from the tank cars shall be so constructed that they may be closed and securely fastened on the inside or sealed in like manner.

§ 183.566 Seals. Cap seals, to be furnished by the Government, will be used for sealing the tank car, and such seals will be attached as soon as the car is filled.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.567 Inspection of tank car. Upon receiving an order to gauge spirits to be transferred in bond in a railroad tank car, the storekeeper-gauger at the distillery will inspect the car to see that the dome may be sealed with a cap seal when closed, and that all other openings to or from the car may be closed and securely fastened on the inside or sealed in like manner. If the car is not so constructed, the officer will not permit it to be filled.

§ 183.568 Filling of tank car. The tank car must be filled in the immediate presence of the storekeeper-gauger. The pipe line from the distillery weighing tank to the tank car must be in full view of the officer and must not be connected or used except in his presence. The officer will seal the car as soon as it is filled. The officer will enter on Form 1520, covering the gauge of the spirits, the level of the spirits above or below the full mark and the temperature of the spirits at filling; for example: "Filled two inches above full mark at 80° F." The storekeeper-gauger will note on Form 236 the serial numbers of seals used on the tank car.

§ 183.569 Route board. Railroad tank cars used for the transportation of spirits in bond must be equipped with a route board conforming to the requirements of § 183.549.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.570 Label to be attached. When spirits are shipped in bond in a railroad tank car, a label dated and signed by the storekeeper-gauger showing that the spirits are shipped in bond and giving the name, registry number and location (city or town and State) of the distillery from which shipped, and the warehouse to which shipped, shall be securely attached to the route board, where it may be readily examined by Government officers. The label, which will be furnished by the distiller, will be in substantially the following form:

Shipped in Bond by
BOURBON DISTILLING COMPANY
D. No. 98, Frankfort, Ky.
To COMMERCIAL WAREHOUSE COMPANY
I. R. B. W. No. 110, Louisville, Ky.

(Date) (Storekeeper-gauger)

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.571 Distiller's entry for deposit. When the spirits have been packaged, gauged for transfer by pipe line to tanks in a contiguous internal revenue bonded warehouse not operated by the distiller, or run into a railroad tank car and such tank car sealed, the storekeeper-gauger in charge will deliver the copy of Form 236 and the five copies of Form 1520 to the distiller. The distiller shall, on the same date that the spirits are to be removed from the distillery, execute on all six copies of Form 236, the description of the packages, tank car, or pipe line transfer, and on all five copies of Form 1520, the entry for deposit. He shall immediately return all copies of such forms to the storekeeper-gauger in charge who will release the spirits for shipment.

§ 183.572 Storekeeper-gauger's certificate of removal. Upon removal of the spirits, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his certificate of gauge and removal on Form 236. He will retain one copy each of Form 236 and 1520, furnish one copy of each to the distiller, forward one copy of Form 236 to the district supervisor, and forward three copies of Form 236 and three copies of Form 1520 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the receiving warehouse. When shipment is made by truck, the three copies each of Form 236 and 1520 for the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the receiving warehouse will be sealed in an envelope addressed to such storekeeper-gauger in charge and handed to the person in charge of the truck for delivery to him.

§ 183.573 Storekeeper-gauger's receipt of spirits at warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger at the receiving warehouse will examine each shipment upon its arrival and ascertain and report on Form 1520 any losses or discrepancies and will dispose of Forms 236 and 1520, in accordance with Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185).

TRANSFER TO WAREHOUSE OFF DISTILLERY PREMISES, IN DIFFERENT DISTRICT

§ 183.574 Application, Form 236. Where spirits are to be transferred to and entered for deposit in an internal revenue bonded warehouse located in a different supervisory district than the distillery, the proprietor of the receiving warehouse shall execute an application for the transfer of the spirits on Form 236. The applicant shall enter all applicable data indicated by the form including the maximum quantity in tax gallons to be transferred in any one truck, railroad car, or other vehicle, and the type of conveyance. The name of the carrier shall not be specified on Form 236. The applicant shall prepare an original and six copies of Form 236 and give them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the receiving warehouse.

§ 183.575 Storekeeper-gauger's certificate of sufficiency of warehouse bond. Upon receipt of Form 236 by the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the warehouse, he will compare the penal sum of the bond as stated in the application with his record furnished by the district supervisor pursuant to Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185). If the bond is given in the maximum penal sum of $200,000, he will certify to the sufficiency thereof on Form 236 and return all seven copies of the form to the proprietor of the warehouse. If the bond is given in less than the maximum penal sum, the storekeeper-gauger in charge will determine from his records whether the tax liability on the quantity of spirits represented by the Form 236, plus the quantity of spirits stored in the warehouse, plus the quantity represented by all outstanding approved Forms 236, is within the limits of the penal sum of the transportation and warehousing bond. If so, he will certify to the sufficiency of the bond on Form 236, record such certification in his records, and return all seven copies of the form to the proprietor. If the transportation and warehousing bond is not sufficient, he will certify to that fact on Form 236 and return all seven copies to the proprietor. The proprietor will forward all seven copies of the approved Form 236 to the proprietor of the consignor-distillery. The proprietor of the warehouse will be responsible for all outstanding approved Forms 236. If, at any time, he decides not to use one, he will obtain all copies from the consignor and give them to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the warehouse for cancellation and return to the proprietor of the warehouse.

§ 183.576 Spirits to be transferred. When the distiller desires to make shipment, he will give a copy of Form 236 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge and furnish him a complete description of the spirits to be shipped.

§ 183.577 Report of gauge. Unless previously packaged, the spirits designated by the proprietor to be transferred will, as authorized by §§ 183.480–183.505, be drawn from the receiving cisterns into casks or packages, gauged, marked and branded, or into a weighing tank, gauged, and run by pipe line into a properly equipped railroad tank car. The quantity transferred shall not exceed the maximum stated in the application. The details of the gauge will be entered by the storekeeper-gauger on six copies of Form 1520.

§ 183.578 Tank car requirements. If the spirits are to be transported in a railroad tank car, such tank car must be constructed, marked, inspected, filled, sealed, and labeled, as provided in §§ 183.565–183.570.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2883)

§ 183.579 Distiller's entry for deposit. When the spirits have been packaged, or run into a railroad tank car and such tank car sealed, the storekeeper-gauger in charge will deliver the copy of Form 236 and the six copies of Form 1520 to the distiller. The distiller shall, on the same date that the spirits are to be removed from the distillery, execute on all seven copies of Form 236 the description of the packages or tank car to be transferred and on all six copies of Form 1520 the entry for deposit. He shall immediately return all copies of such forms to the storekeeper-gauger in charge who will release the spirits for shipment.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2879)

§ 183.580 Storekeeper-gauger's certificate of removal. Upon removal of the spirits, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his certificate of gauge and removal on Form 236. He will retain one copy each of Form 236 and 1520, furnish one copy of each to the distiller, forward one copy of each to the supervisor-consignor, and forward four copies of Form 236 and three copies of Form 1520 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the receiving warehouse. When shipment is made by truck, the four copies of Form 236 and the three copies of Form 1520 for the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the receiving warehouse will be sealed in an envelope addressed to such storekeeper-gauger in charge and handed to the person in charge of the truck for delivery to him.

§ 183.581 Storekeeper-gauger's receipt of spirits at warehouse. The storekeeper-gauger at the receiving warehouse will examine each shipment upon its arrival and ascertain and report on Form 1520 any losses or discrepancies and will dispose of Forms 236 and 1520, in accordance with Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185).

TRANSFER OF RUM TO DISTILLERY DENATURING BONDED WAREHOUSE

§ 183.582 Application, Form 573. Where rum of not less than 150 degrees of proof is to be transferred to a denaturing bonded warehouse on the distillery premises for denaturation, the proprietor will file application on Form 573, in triplicate, with the storekeeper-gauger in charge, for the transfer of the spirits. The applicant shall specify the maximum quantity in tax gallons to be transferred.

§ 183.583 Sufficiency of bond. Where the bond covering operation of a denaturing bonded warehouse is given in less than the maximum penal sum of $100,000, the district supervisor will inform the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the penal sum of the bond, and the storekeeper-gauger will see that the quantity of rum transferred to such warehouse is within the limits of the bond.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended, 355; 26 U. S. C. 2883, 3070)

§ 183.584 Storekeeper-gauger's report of gauge and transfer. The rum may be gauged by weight in the cistern room or in the denaturing bonded warehouse at the time of deposit therein. The details of the gauge of the spirits will be reported by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1520, in triplicate. Upon transfer of the spirits, and completion of the gauge, the storekeeper-gauger will execute his certificate of gauge and transfer on Form 573 and attach one copy of Form 1520, covering the gauge of the rum, to each copy of Form 573. The storekeeper-gauger will then forward one copy of each form to the district supervisor, deliver one copy of each to the distiller, and retain one copy of each.

REMOVAL OF DISTILLED SPIRITS, FREE OF TAX FOR EXPORTATION

§ 183.585 Procedure. When the distiller desires to remove distilled spirits of not less than 180 degrees proof, free of tax, from the distillery receiving cisterns for exportation in tank cars, he will file application on Form 206, in quintuplicate, and bond on Form 547, 548, 657, or 658, as the case may be, in triplicate, with the district supervisor and otherwise comply with applicable requirements of Regulations 10 (26 CFR Part 185), governing the withdrawal of distilled spirits from internal revenue bonded warehouses, free of tax, for exportation, which are hereby extended to cover the exportation, free of tax, of distilled spirits from the distillery. The tank cars must be so constructed that all openings may be securely closed and sealed.

RECORDS

§ 183.586 Distiller's records. The distiller shall enter on Form 1598 all removals of distilled spirits from the distillery, as indicated by the headings of the various columns and lines and in accordance with the instructions printed on the form.

SUBPART X—LOSSES OF DISTILLED SPIRITS ON PREMISES OF A REGISTERED DISTILLERY OR IN TRANSIT THERETO

§ 183.595 Loss by theft. The tax shall be collected on distilled spirits stolen while on the premises of a registered distillery or in transit thereto for redistillation, unless the distiller submits proof as to the cause of the loss and establishes to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that it did not occur as the result of connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the distiller, warehouseman, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier or the employees of any of them. Claim for remission of tax on distilled spirits lost by theft shall be filed as provided in this subpart. The tax on distilled spirits lost by theft may be remitted or refunded only to the extent that the claimant is not indemnified or recompensed for such tax.

§ 183.596 Unauthorized voluntary destruction. The tax shall be collected on distilled spirits voluntarily destroyed while on the premises of a registered distillery, or in transit thereto for redistillation, unless such spirits were unfit for use for beverage purposes, and the distiller or other person responsible for the tax obtained authorization for such destruction in each case, as required by Subpart S of this part.

§ 183.597 Losses except by theft. The tax on distilled spirits lost otherwise than by theft while on the premises of a registered distillery or in transit thereto, may be remitted. In the case of any such loss of distilled spirits prior to payment of the tax thereon, the district supervisor may require the distiller, owner, or other person responsible for the tax to submit proof as to the cause of such loss and, where deemed necessary, to file a claim for remission of the tax as provided by this subpart.

(53 Stat. 335, as amended, 340, as amended, 373, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2683, 2901, 3170)

§ 183.598 Report of losses. Losses of distilled spirits on the premises of a registered distillery or in transit thereto must be reported to the district supervisor by the distiller immediately after the losses are discovered. Where losses of spirits in the distillery occur or are discovered while a Government officer is on duty, the officer will immediately make a full report of the loss to the district supervisor. The reports should set out the nature, cause, and extent of the loss in sufficient detail to bring out all the known material facts and circumstances surrounding the loss. The condition of each cistern or other container from which loss has been sustained, and the quantity lost therefrom, should be reported by the officer.

(53 Stat. 340, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2901)

§ 183.599 Investigation by district supervisor. The district supervisor will consider the nature and extent of any loss reported by the distiller or Government officer and will immediately make such investigation and require such evidence to be submitted as he may deem necessary. Whenever so required the district supervisor will forward reports and data relating to losses to the Commissioner for review.

(53 Stat. 373, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 3170)

§ 183.600 Filing of claims. Claims for remission of tax on spirits lost on the premises of a registered distillery or in transit thereto, when required, will be filed promptly with the supervisor of the district in which the distillery is located. Where a required claim for remission of tax on such spirits is not filed as provided in §§ 183.595 and 183.597, the district supervisor will report the matter to the Commissioner.

§ 183.601 Form of claims. Claims for remission of tax for losses occurring on distillery premises, or in transit thereto, shall be made on letter size paper, in duplicate, and shall set forth, under oath, the following information:

(a) The name of the distiller and the registry number and location of the distillery;

(b) The serial numbers of the receiving cisterns or other containers from which the spirits were lost;

(c) The quantity of spirits lost from each cistern or other container, and the total quantity of spirits covered by the claim;

(d) The total amount of tax for which the claim is filed;

(e) The date of the loss or, if such date is not known, the date on which the loss was discovered, and the cause and nature thereof, together with all the facts surrounding the loss;

(f) The name of the carrier, if any;

(g) If lost by theft, whether the loss occurred as the result of connivance, collusion, fraud, or negligence on the part of the distiller, warehouseman, owner, consignor, consignee, bailee, or carrier, or the employees of any of them;

(h) Whether the claimant is indemnified or recompensed for the tax, and, if so, the amount and nature of such indemnity or recompense. The actual value of the spirits, less the tax, must be stated explicitly, and where required, certified copies of all policies of insurance or other documents of indemnity covering the spirits must be furnished.

§ 183.602 Supporting statements. Claims for remission of tax on spirits lost while on the premises of a registered distillery or in transit thereto, must be supported by affidavits of persons having personal knowledge of the loss.

(53 Stat. 340, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2901)

§ 183.603 Examination of claim. When a claim for remission of tax is received by the district supervisor he will carefully examine the same to see that all the required information has been furnished, and will cause such investigation to be made or require such additional evidence to be submitted as he may deem necessary. Upon completion of his investigation, if any, the district supervisor will forward the claim and accompanying papers, together with any pertinent reports and documentary evidence, to the Commissioner with his recommendation in respect to the allowance or disallowance of the claim.

§ 183.604 Records. Losses of spirits at the distillery will be reported by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1686 and by the distiller on Form 1598.

§ 183.605 District supervisor's account. An account of losses of distilled spirits on the distillery premises shall be kept on Form 1691. The account shall show all the information as indicated in the heading and by the various columns and as required by instructions issued in respect thereto and by this part.

§ 183.606 Prior losses. Any claims for remission or refund of the tax on any loss of spirits established prior to September 1, 1950, shall be subject to the provisions of section 2901 of the Internal Revenue Code and this part as they existed prior to that date.

(Sec. 4, Public Law 448, 81st Cong. Approved Feb. 21, 1950)

§ 183.607 Losses after taxpayment. Nothing in section 2901 of the Internal Revenue Cade as amended by section 3 of the act of February 21, 1950, or as theretofore amended, or in this part, shall be construed to authorize refund of the tax where the loss occurred after the tax was paid.

SUBPART Y—SPIRITS PRODUCED AND NOT ACCOUNTED FOR

§ 183.610 Commissioner to make assessments. Under the law, it is the duty of the Commissioner to inquire and determine whether the distiller has accounted for all the spirits produced by him. If the Commissioner finds that the distiller has not accounted for all the spirits produced by him, he shall, from all the evidence he can obtain, determine what quantity of spirits was actually produced by such distiller and make an assessment for the difference between the quantity reported and the quantity shown to have been actually produced, at the rate imposed by law.

§ 183.611 Storekeeper-gauger to report deficiencies. The storekeeper-gauger, upon completion of his monthly record, Form 1686, will compare the calculated yield for that month with the actual production, and take appropriate action concerning any deficiencies, in accordance with § 183.384.

§ 183.612 District supervisor's examination of returns. Upon receipt of the distiller's monthly return, Form 1598, the district supervisor will examine it to determine whether the distiller has accounted for all the spirits produced by him during the month. If he finds that the distiller apparently has not accounted for all the spirits produced by him, he shall make such investigation as he may deem necessary and determine, from all the evidence he can obtain, the quantity of spirits actually produced by the distiller.

§ 183.613 Use of materials not reported. If the district supervisor should find that the distiller has received on his premises materials which have not been accounted for, or has used materials which have not been reported as used, and has produced spirits which have not been reported, the quantity of spirits produced and not reported should be determined from all the evidence that can be obtained, including evidence of the normal actual yield of spirits from such materials at the particular plant.

(53 Stat. 323; 26 U. S. C. 2846)

§ 183.614 Determining spirits produced. If it is found that all materials received have been accounted for and all materials used have been reported, but that the distiller has not accounted for all the spirits produced, the quantity actually produced should be determined from all the evidence that can be obtained. The evidence that spirits have been produced from materials reported used and have not been accounted for by the distiller should be direct and positive.

(53 Stat. 323; 26 U. S. C. 2846)

§ 183.615 Notice to distiller. If it is determined that the distiller has not accounted for all the spirits produced by him, the district supervisor will, unless the interests of the Government require an immediate assessment, notify the distiller of the proposed assessment and afford him an opportunity to submit within 30 days, or such further time as the district supervisor may consider reasonable, evidence showing why the proposed assessment should not be made.

§ 183.616 Nature of evidence. The evidence submitted by the distiller should be in the form of affidavits and certified documents.

§ 183.617 Consideration of distiller's response. If the distiller responds to the notice and submits evidence bearing on the merits of the proposed assessment, the district supervisor will give due consideration thereto and make such further investigation as he may deem advisable. If, after consideration of all the facts, the district supervisor finds that tax is due, he will report the same to the Commissioner in accordance with the prescribed assessment procedure. If the district supervisor finds that tax should not be assessed, he will forward the affidavits and other documents submitted by the distiller, together with investigation reports, if any, to the Commissioner with his recommendation thereon.

§ 183.618 Claim for remission. Where the distiller claims, pursuant to notice of proposed assessment, that the spirits produced and not accounted for were actually lost on the distillery premises, the procedure prescribed by §§ 183.595–183.605 shall be applicable.

§ 183.619 Distiller's failure to respond. If the distiller fails to respond to the notice of the proposed assessment within the time specified, the district supervisor will report to the Commissioner, in accordance with the prescribed assessment procedure, the amount found due for assessment.

SUBPART Z—SUSPENSION AND RESUMPTION OF OPERATIONS

SUSPENSION OF OPERATIONS

§ 183.625 Notice, Form 124. Any distiller desiring to suspend operations at his distillery shall give notice on Form 124, in duplicate, stating when he will suspend operations. The notice will be delivered to the storekeeper-gauger in charge at the distillery. Form 124 will not be required when operations are suspended pursuant to the filing of Form 1696.

(53 Stat. 324; 26 U. S. C. 2850)

§ 183.626 Date of suspension. The distiller will fix in the notice the time when all the beer on the distillery premises will be distilled and all spirits in the distillery run into the receiving cisterns in the cistern room, except unfinished spirits or distillates containing one-half of 1 percent or more of aldehydes or 1 percent or more of fusel oil which are to be retained on the premises during a temporary change in the type of distillery, as provided in Subpart CC of this part.

(53 Stat. 324; 26 U. S. C. 2850)

§ 183.627 Locking furnace doors, etc. When notice of suspension is given by the distiller, the storekeeper-gauger will at the time fixed in the notice lock the furnace door of each still, or the control valve in the pipe line conveying steam or fuel to each still, and will supervise the disconnection of the distillery machinery and the removal to the bonded warehouse or the cistern room of some portion of such machinery necessary to distillation. The locks used for securing furnace doors, or the control valves in steam or fuel lines, will be taken from such other place in the distillery, where locks are not necessary while the distillery is suspended, as may be designated by the district supervisor. In lieu of removing a portion of the distilling apparatus to the warehouse or other secure place, the district supervisor may require two of the ports (manheads) of column stills to be locked open by passing a chain or two iron straps through the ports and around the outside of the still, and locking the chain or straps in place.

(53 Stat. 324; 26 U. S. C. 2850)

§ 183.628 Officer's certificate of suspension. The officer will certify on each copy of Form 124 to the action taken by him, and will furnish one copy of the form to the distiller and forward the remaining copy to the district supervisor. The district supervisor may relieve any officer assigned to the plant from duty thereat during the period of suspension.

(53 Stat. 324; 26 U. S. C. 2850)

§ 183.629 Mash, wort, or beer at suspended distillery forbidden. Except as provided in § 183.630, no distiller may, after the time fixed in his notice, Form 124, for suspension of work at the distillery, carry on the business of a distiller on the said premises, or have mash, wort, or beer in his distillery or on any premises connected therewith, or have in his possession or under his control any mash, wort, or beer with intent to distill the same on said premises.

(53 Stat. 324; 23 U. S. C. 2850)

§ 183.630 Suspension caused by unavoidable accident. In case of an accident necessitating a suspension of the distillery for a period of more than three days, the distiller should, if possible, distill all the beer and unfinished spirits on hand before filing notice of suspension in accordance with § 183.626. Should the accident be of such a nature as to render this impossible, the distiller will immediately give notice of suspension on Form 124, in duplicate, as provided in § 183.625. The storekeeper-gauger will then lock the furnace doors of the stills or the control valves in the steam or fuel lines leading to the stills, and supervise the disconnection and removal of distillery machinery, as provided in § 183.627. The officer will then certify on Form 124, in duplicate, to the action taken by him, and state the kind and quantity, if any, of mash, beer or unfinished spirits on hand at the time of such suspension, and will furnish one copy of the form to the distiller and forward the remaining copy to the district supervisor. The district supervisor may relieve any officer assigned to the plant from duty thereat during the period of suspension.

(53 Stat. 324; 26 U. S. C. 2850)

RESUMPTION OF OPERATIONS

§ 183.631 Notice, Form 125. No distiller may carry on the business of a distiller after the time stated in his notice of suspension, Form 124, until he shall have given another notice on Form 125, in duplicate, to the district supervisor, stating the time when he will resume operations. This notice should be forwarded to the district supervisor a sufficient time in advance of the date it is desired to resume operations, to enable the district supervisor to assign a storekeeper-gauger to remove the locks and supervise operations. The notice should ordinarily reach the district supervisor at least 48 hours in advance of the date the distiller desires to resume operations. The district supervisor will designate an officer to remove the locks and other fastenings placed on the equipment at the time of suspension and to supervise the connection of the machinery on the date specified in the Form 125. Where the suspension was caused by accident, and beer or unfinished spirits remained on hand, the designated officer will determine whether the same kind and quantity of beer or unfinished spirits reported on Form 124 as on hand at the time of suspension are on hand at the time of resumption, less natural evaporation.

§ 183.632 Officer's certificate of removal of locks and fastenings. The officer will certify on Form 125, in duplicate, to the action taken by him, and to the kind and quantity, if any, of beer or unfinished spirits on hand at the time of such resumption, and will furnish one copy of Form 125 to the distiller and forward the remaining copy to the district supervisor.

(53 Stat. 324; 26 U. S. C. 2850)

§ 183.633 Unauthorized removal of locks and fastenings. No revenue officer or other person may remove Government locks and fastenings and permit connection of the machinery where a distillery has been suspended, except by direction of the district supervisor pursuant to notice of resumption.

(53 Stat. 324; 26 U. S. C. 2850)

SUBPART AA—REGISTRY OF STILLS

§ 183.640 Registry on Form 26. Every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still or distilling apparatus that is set up, must register the same on Form 26, in triplicate, with the district supervisor for the district in which it is located. Stills to be used for the production of various types of distilled spirits may be registered for "distilled spirits," and the specific type need not be shown. Thereafter, when the plant is changed from the production of one type of spirits to another, reregistration by the same distiller will not be required. The temporary suspension of a distillery does not necessitate reregistration of the stills. The operation of a distillery by alternating proprietors, where no permanent change in ownership occurs, does not require reregistration of the stills by the proprietors. When there is a change in location or use, or a bona fide change in ownership of a still, the still must be registered to reflect the change. The district supervisor will, upon approving the registration of a still on Form 26, retain one copy, forward one copy to the Commissioner, and return the remaining copy to the distiller. The distiller will retain his copy at the distillery available for inspection by Government officers.

(53 Stat. 308, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2810)

SUBPART BB—OPERATIONS BY DISTILLER UNDER DIFFERENT TRADE NAMES OR STYLES

§ 183.645 Commencement of operations. Whenever a distiller desires to operate his distillery under a trade name or style which has not been previously approved, he must comply with the provisions of §183.227 and secure approval thereof in the manner prescribed by Subpart N prior to commencement of operations thereunder. Thereafter, whenever he desires again to operate under such trade name or style, he must comply with the provisions of § 183.233 and secure approval thereof in the manner prescribed by Subpart N of this part prior to commencement of operations thereunder.

§ 183.646 Disposition of materials in process. Whenever the distiller desires to operate his distillery under a trade name or style other than the trade name or style under which he is then operating, and has complied with the provisions of § 183.645, he will not be required to complete the distillation of mash, beer, and unfinished spirits in the process of manufacture before commencing business under such other trade name or style.

§ 183.647 Finished spirits. All finished spirits remaining in the cistern room at the time the change in trade name or style becomes effective must be marked and removed in the trade name or style under which they were finished. All finished spirits produced from the mash, beer, and unfinished spirits remaining on hand at the time the change in trade name or style becomes effective must be marked and removed in the trade name or style under which they are finished. The distiller will report the removal of such finished spirits on his Form 1598, on the same line covering its manufacture. A similar entry will be made by the storekeeper-gauger on Form 1686.

§ 183.648 Records. Separate record on Form 1598 will not be required for operations under each trade name, but the distiller must note on such record the trade names or styles under which he operated during the month and the dates of operation under each. The storekeeper-gauger will make a similar notation on his record, Form 1686. Where spirits are produced under a trade name, the storekeeper-gauger's report of gauge, Form 1520, must show both the real name of the actual distiller and the trade name under which the spirits were produced.

SUBPART CC—ALTERNATE OPERATION AS INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL PLANT OR FRUIT DISTILLERY

§ 183.655 Qualifying for alternate operation. Whenever a distillery established or operated under this part is to be operated alternately as such and as an industrial alcohol plant or fruit distillery, the procedure prescribed in Subpart M of this part for effecting such change in the type of the distillery must be complied with.

§ 183.656 Completion of operation required. When a registered distillery is to be operated as an industrial alcohol plant or as a fruit distillery, the business of producing spirits, except as provided in this subpart, must be completely finished by the person or persons first carrying on the business, and the distillery duly suspended before it can be operated as an industrial alcohol plant or a fruit distillery. Except as provided in §§ 183.657 and 183.658, all unfinished spirits, including high wines and low wines, and distillates containing one-half of 1 percent or more of aldehydes or 1 percent or more of fusel oil collected in accordance with the provisions of Subpart S of this part, must be redistilled and run back to the cistern room and warehoused by the outgoing distiller. Except as provided in §§ 183.657 and 183.658, all such distillates or unfinished spirits must be disposed of before the distillery can be operated as an industrial alcohol plant or fruit distillery.

§ 183.657 Retention of distillates. Where the change in the type of plant is to be temporary only, and the quantity of distillates on hand contains one-half of 1 percent or more of aldehydes or 1 percent or more of fusel oil is insufficient for a carload shipment (but not over 10,000 gallons), and is to be shipped for denaturation, the outgoing distiller may retain such distillates under Government lock in heads and tails tanks in the distillery until the plant is again operated by him as a registered distillery under this part (but for not more than 60 days), if such distiller furnishes a duly executed consent of surety, Form 1533, in triplicate, continuing liability on the distiller's bond, Form 30, for the tax on such distillates retained on the premises, notwithstanding the change in the type of plant. When such distillates are so retained on the distillery premises, the district supervisor will cause a sample of the contents of each container not previously tested to be taken and analyzed to determine whether the distillate contains the required percentage of aldehydes or fusel oil.

§ 183.658 Retention of unfinished spirits. Where the change in type of plant is to be temporary only, the outgoing distiller may retain unfinished spirits under Government lock in unfinished spirts tanks provided in accordance with § 183.104 in the distillery until the plant is again operated by him as a registered distillery under this part: Provided, That such distiller furnishes a duly executed consent of surety, Form 1533, in triplicate, continuing liability on the distiller's bond, Form 30, for the tax on such unfinished spirits retained on the premises, notwithstanding the change in the type of plant.

§ 183.659 Transfer of materials, etc. The outgoing distiller may transfer to his successor materials on hand, including mash and beer in process, at the time the change in type of plant takes place, but no spirits may be so transferred, except the residue of spirits in the stills which it is not practicable to completely boil out: Provided, That materials not usable and residue of spirits in stills not producible under the law at the succeeding type of plant may not be transferred to the successor. Where such materials and residue of spirits are not transferable, all mash and beer must be distilled, all basic materials must be removed from the premises, and the stills and other vessels must be completely cleared of spirits, and such spirits, if other than distillates or unfinished spirits intended for retention in accordance with the provisions of §§ 183.657 and 183.658 removed to the receiving cisterns in accordance with law before the change in type of plant becomes effective. When it is again desired to resume operations as a distiller under this part the business of producing alcohol or brandy, as the case may be, must be similarly finished and the industrial alcohol plant or fruit distillery suspended in accordance with Regulations 3 (26 CFR, Part 182) or Regulations 5 (26 CFR, Part 184), respectively.

§ 183.660 Transfer agreement, Form 1614. Where the outgoing distiller and his successor so arrange for the transfer of distilling materials, the outgoing distiller will file with the district supervisor four copies of Form 1614, duly executed by himself and the prospective successor. The form will be filed in sufficient time to permit consideration thereof in connection with the transferor's notice of suspension of operations and the transferee's qualifying documents. Spirits withdrawn for redistillation from other premises may not be transferred to a successor on Form 1614. The district supervisor will, upon approval, forward one copy to the transferor and one copy to the transferee. The district supervisor will retain two copies of the Form 1614, one for the file of the transferor and one for the file of the transferee. The provisions of § 183.125 concerning the verification of Form 27–A are hereby made applicable to Form 1614.

§ 183.661 Locking of furnace door not required. In cases of alternate operation of the registered distillery as such and as an industrial alcohol plant or fruit distillery without lapse of time, it will not be necessary for the storekeeper-gauger to lock the furnace doors of the stills or the control valves in pipe lines which convey steam or fuel to the stills, or to require disconnection of the distilling machinery.

§ 183.662 Completion of records. The outgoing distiller will complete his record, Form 1598, and the storekeeper-gauger his record, Form 1686, as to the removal of basic materials from the premises, or the transfer of basic materials and mash and beer in process to the successor, as the case may be, and the removal of all spirits produced by the outgoing distiller. If the distillates collected in accordance with §§ 183.390–183.412, or unfinished spirits are retained on the premises in locked tanks as provided in §§ 183.657 and 183.658, a notation will be made on Form 1598 that such distillates or unfinished spirits are temporarily retained on the premises pending resumption of operations as a registered distillery. The storekeeper-gauger will make a similar notation on his Form 1686 for such distiller. The distiller will continue to file monthly reports on Form 1598, and the storekeeper-gauger will continue to maintain a record on Form 1686 during the period such distillates or unfinished spirits are retained on the distillery premises. Where the plant is operated as a registered distillery in two or more periods during the same month by the same proprietor, the operations of such proprietor will be recorded on the same Form 1598 and the same Form 1686, but appropriate notations will be made on the separating lines on each form to show the dates the distillery was operated as a fruit distillery or an industrial alcohol plant and the names under which it was so operated.

§ 183.663 Records of successor. The succeeding proprietor will enter all materials, including those in process, received from his predecessor on Form 1442 if the distillery is to be operated as an industrial alcohol plant, or on Form 15 if the distillery is to be operated as a fruit distillery. The materials will also be entered on form 1686 by the storekeeper-gauger if the distillery is to be operated as an industrial alcohol plant. If materials are transferred when the plant is again operated as a registered distillery, appropriate entry thereof will be made on the records of the transferor and of the transferee, and the storekeeper-gauger.

§ 183.664 Disposition of spirits. Where a change in the type of plant takes place, the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the distillery will see that all distillates collected in accordance with §§ 183.390–183.412 are disposed of, and that all other unfinished spirits, except the residue of spirits in stills where the same is to be transferred to the successor as provided in §183.659, are distilled and transferred to the cistern room, unless retained in locked tanks in accordance with §§ 183.657 and 183.658, respectively, before the plant is operated as another type of distillery. Upon disposition or retention in locked tanks of such distillates or unfinished spirits, and transfer of all other spirits to the cistern room, the distillery may be operated as another type of plant, but all spirits transferred to the cistern room must be branded and removed in accordance with law by the outgoing distiller in the name under which they were produced, before any spirits are deposited in the cistern room or withdrawn from the distillery by the successor, and in any event within three days of their deposit in the cistern room.

§ 183.665 Alternate operations by same proprietor. Where the plant is to be operated alternately as a registered distillery under this part and as an industrial alcohol plant or fruit distillery by the same proprietor, the procedure will be the same as in the case where the succeeding type of plant is to be operated under a different proprietorship, except that in lieu of the submission of a transfer agreement on Form 1614 the distiller will, where distilling materials are to be transferred to himself at the succeeding type of plant, request authority on Part 1 of the form to make such transfer.

SUBPART DD—CHANGE OF PERSONS INTERESTED IN BUSINESS

§ 183.670 Completion of operations required. When a succession, or actual change, in the person or persons operating the distillery shall take place, other than a change brought about by operation of law, as by the appointment of an administrator, executor, receiver, trustee, assignee, or other fiduciary, the business of producing spirits must be completely finished by the person or persons who have been carrying on the business, and the operations suspended before the business shall be undertaken or begun by the succeeding distiller, unless by an agreement between the outgoing distiller and the successor it shall be arranged to transfer from the former to the latter, at midnight of a certain day, all mash and beer on hand, and all unfinished spirits outside the cistern room at that hour; and provided that, in either case, the notice, bond, and other qualifying documents of the successor have been approved, to take effect on the day next succeeding that at the close of which the transfer is made. Such documents should, therefore, be submitted to the district supervisor in sufficient time to permit such approval for the date desired. Except in the case of alternate operations by two or more previously qualified distillers, as provided by Subpart M of this part, the successor of a distiller shall not commence operations until all documents required for his qualification as such distiller have been approved by the district supervisor. All finished spirits on hand in the cistern room at the time of the change must be branded and removed by the outgoing distiller in the name under which they were produced before any spirits are deposited in the cistern room or withdrawn from the distillery by the successor.

§ 183.671 Transfer agreement, Form 1614. Where the outgoing distiller and the successor so arrange for the transfer of all mash and beer, and all unfinished spirits on hand, the outgoing distiller will file with the district supervisor four copies of Form 1614, duly executed by himself and the prospective successor. The form will be filed in sufficient time to permit consideration thereof in connection with the transferor's notice of suspension or discontinuance of operations, and the transferee's qualifying documents. Spirits withdrawn for redistillation from other premises may not be transferred to a successor on Form 1614. The district supervisor will, upon approval, forward one copy to the transferor and one copy to the transferee. The district supervisor will retain two copies, one for the file of the transferor and one for the file of the transferee.

§ 183.672 Locking of furnace doors not required. In such cases of succession or change in the operations of a distillery without lapse of time, it will not be necessary for the Government officer to lock the furnace doors of the stills, or the control valves on pipe lines which convey steam or fuel to the stills, or to disconnect the distilling machinery.

§ 183.673 Records. The outgoing distiller shall enter on his record, Form 1598, all materials and all unfinished spirits outside the cistern room transferred to his successor, who shall in turn enter such items on his record, Form 1598, as received from his predecessor.

Where the change in proprietorship is of a permanent nature, the outgoing distiller shall complete Form 1598 and submit a final report on such form to the district supervisor. Appropriate notations will be made on such final report showing the change in proprietorship and the date thereof. Where the distillery is operated under alternating proprietorships, each proprietor shall keep a separate Form 1598. When operations are conducted by the same proprietor in two or more periods during the same month, the operations by such proprietor will be entered on the same Form 1598, appropriate notations being made on the separating lines to show the names of the alternating proprietors and the dates the distillery was operated by them. The storekeeper-gauger will keep similar records on Form 1686. At the end of the month, the distiller will submit his report on Form 1598 to the storekeeper-gauger in charge in accordance with § 183.701.

§ 183.674 Succession by fiduciary. Where a change in proprietorship is brought about by operation of law, the administrator, executor, receiver, trustee, assignee, or other fiduciary may not continue the business until the required qualifying documents have been filed and approved. In the case of such change, the fiduciary shall make appropriate notation on Form 1598 of his succession, and the date thereof, and the storekeeper-gauger will make a similar notation on Form 1686.

SUBPART EE—SALES OF DISTILLED SPIRITS BY DISTILLERS

§ 183.680 Bulk containers. Under the regulations issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 CFR Part 3), distillers may sell or dispose of distilled spirits in bulk, that is, containers having a capacity in excess of 1 gallon, (a) to other distillers and proprietors of internal revenue bonded warehouses, industrial alcohol plants and industrial alcohol bonded warehouses (holding permits under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act), including those operating tax-paid bottling houses; (b) to proprietors of Class 8 customs bonded warehouses (imported spirits only); (c) to rectifiers; (d) to winemakers (brandy or alcohol) for fortification of wine; (e) to any agency of the United States, or of any State or political subdivision thereof; (f) for export; (g) on warehouse receipts, conforming to the regulations issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, for distilled spirits in internal revenue bonded warehouses; and (h) for industrial use, as follows: For experimental purposes, and for use in the manufacture (1) of medicinal, pharmaceutical, or antiseptic products, including prescriptions compounded by retail druggists; (2) of toilet products; (3) of flavoring extracts, sirups, or food products; or (4) of scientific, chemical, mechanical, or industrial products; provided such products are unfit for beverage use. Distilled spirits produced at 160° of proof or more may, however, upon tax-payment, as provided in §§ 183.481, 183.484, 183.489, 183.493, 183.497 and 183.501, be withdrawn for beverage purposes only. Under the regulations issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, distillers may not sell in bulk for industrial use other distilled spirits produced under this part, unless such spirits are shipped or delivered directly to the industrial user thereof.

(53 Stat. 333, 335, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2878, 2883; 49 Stat. 985, as amended; 27 U. S. C. 206)

§ 183.681 Retail containers. Except as provided in § 183.680, distillers may sell or dispose of distilled spirits only in containers having a capacity of 1 gallon or less. All such containers having a capacity of one-half pint or more must conform to the requirements of Regulations 13 (26 CFR, Part 175).

(49 Stat. 985, as amended; 27 U. S. C. 206; 53 Stat. 331; 26 U. S. C. 2871)

SUBPART FF—SPECIAL (OCCUPATIONAL) TAXES

§ 183.685 Wholesale and retail liquor dealer. Except as provided in § 183.687, distillers must, in order to sell distilled spirits, file returns on Form 11, and pay special (occupational) taxes as wholesale liquor dealers or retail liquor dealers, or both, as the case may be, in accordance with the law and Regulations 20 (26 CFR, Part 194).

§ 183.686 Warehouse receipts covering distilled spirits. Since the sale of warehouse receipts for distilled spirits is equivalent to the sale of distilled spirits, every proprietor of a registered distillery who sells, or offers for sale, warehouse receipts for distilled spirits held in registered distilleries or stored in internal revenue bonded warehouses, or elsewhere, incurs liability to special tax as a dealer in liquors at the place where such warehouse receipts are sold or offered for sale, and must file returns and pay occupational tax as provided in § 183.685.

§ 183.687 Exemption of distiller. No distiller who has given the required bond and who sells only distilled spirits of his own production at the place of manufacture, or at the place of storage in bond, in the original packages to which the tax-paid stamps are affixed, shall be required to pay the special tax of a wholesale dealer in liquors on account of such sales. This provision does not exempt distillers from the payment of special taxes for sales of distilled spirits of their own production in bond (by warehouse receipts or otherwise), or in cases or containers other than the original packages, or for exportation, fortification of wine, use of the United States, etc., without attachment of tax-paid stamps to the original packages, nor does it exempt them from liability for special taxes where distilled spirits produced by other distillers are sold by them.

SUBPART GG—STOREKEEPER-GAUGER'S RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 183.690 Form 1686. The storekeeper-gauger shall keep a daily record of the distillery operations on Form 1686. Entries shall be made as indicated by the headings of the various columns and lines on the form and in accordance with the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto, and as required by this part.

(53 Stat. 333; 26 U. S. C. 2877)

SYSTEM OF FILING

§ 183.691 Monthly records. The storekeeper-gauger's monthly records on Form 1686 will be filed in chronological order by months and in bound form as a permanent record in the storekeeper-gauger's office, and kept available for inspection by internal revenue officers.

§ 183.692 Gauge reports and removal applications. The storekeeper-gauger's copy of all gauge reports covering distilled spirits removed from the distillery cistern room will be filed in the Government office at the plant in separate files according to type of withdrawal, in chronological order and where spirits are withdrawn in packages, in sequence as to the serial numbers of packages removed. The applications for removal, including those on which the storekeeper-gauger prepares his report of gauge, will be filed separately according to form number, in chronological order. The Forms 1520 covering the entry gauge of spirits deposited in an internal revenue bonded warehouse operated by the distiller on or contiguous to the distillery premises will be filed separately as a permanent record in bound form.

§ 183.693 Reports covering deposits in warehouse operated by distiller on or contiguous to distillery premises. The Forms 1520 covering the entry gauge of spirits deposited in an internal revenue bonded warehouse operated by the distiller on or contiguous to the distillery premises will be filed as a permanent record, in bound form, in the storekeeper-gauger's office for the warehouse in a separate file, in chronological order and in sequence to the serial numbers of the packages deposited. Where separate Government offices are maintained for the distillery and the bonded warehouse, the extra copy of Form 1520, provided in accordance with § 183.559, will be filed in the Government office for the distillery in the manner prescribed in § 183.692 for the filing of such forms covering the removal for deposit in an internal revenue bonded warehouse not operated by the distiller on or contiguous to the distillery premises.

SUBPART HH—DISTILLER'S RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 183.700 Record of distillery operations, Form 1598. The distiller shall keep a daily record of the distillery operations on Form 1598. Entries shall be made as indicated by the headings of the various columns and lines on the form and the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto, and as required by this part. Entries shall be made on the form before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur, except that summary entries will be made at the close of the month. Where the making of the entries is deferred to the next business day, as authorized herein, appropriate memoranda shall be maintained for the purpose of making the entries correctly. Form 1598 must be verified under oath (or affirmation) by the distiller or his authorized agent at the distillery: Provided, That if the form officially prescribed for such report contains therein a provision for verification by a written declaration that such report is made under penalties of perjury, such report shall be verified by the execution of such declaration, and such declaration so executed shall be in lieu of the oath required herein for verification. Form 1598 will be disposed of in accordance with § 183.701.

§ 183.701 Monthly report. The distiller will deliver Form 1598, in triplicate, to the storekeeper-gauger on or before the 5th day of the month succeeding that for which the report is rendered. The storekeeper-gauger will examine the report, execute the certificate of the Government officer on all three copies of the form, return one copy to the proprietor, and forward two copies to the district supervisor. The proprietor will file Form 1598 at the distillery in chronological order by months and in bound form as a permanent record subject to inspection by Government officers. The district supervisor will, after audit of the report, and not later than the last day of the month succeeding that for which the report is rendered, forward one copy to the Commissioner, and retain the remaining copy.

§ 183.702 Execution of report. The report must be signed in the same manner as the distiller's notice, Form 27–A, except that in the case of a corporation the affixing of the corporate seal will not be required. Where the reports are signed by an agent, proper power of attorney authorizing the agent to execute the reports for the distiller must be filed, in duplicate, with the district supervisor, who will forward one copy to the Commissioner.

(53 Stat. 322; 26 U. S. C. 2844)

§ 183.703 Record of removal of bulk spirits, Form 1598. Every proprietor of a registered distillery shall keep a daily record on Form 1598 of all bulk distilled spirits shipped from the distillery, including impure distillates removed from the distillery premises for denaturation. Entries shall be made as indicated by the headings of the various columns and lines and in accordance with the instructions printed on the form.

(53 Stat. 328; 26 U. S. C. 2859)

§ 183.704 Record of sales at tax-paid premises, Form 52E. Every proprietor of a distillery who maintains tax-paid premises at which tax-paid distilled spirits are received, stored, and sold in bulk, shall keep form 52E, of all spirits, both bulk and bottled, received and disposed of at his tax-paid premises: Provided, That if such proprietor so desires, he may keep Form 52E for bulk spirits only, and Record 52, for bottled spirits only. Where only bottled spirits are received, stored, and sold at such tax-paid premises, the proprietor shall keep Record 52 of all such spirits received and disposed of at his tax-paid premises. By tax-paid premises is meant the "tax-paid" or "free" warehouse or room maintained in conjunction with the distillery or premises maintained at other locations for the receipt, storage, and disposition of tax-paid spirits. Separate records must be kept at each of such premises.

(53 Stat. 327, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2857)

§ 183.705 Record of warehouse receipts to be kept by distiller. Every proprietor of a registered distillery who sells, or offers for sale, distilled spirits by warehouse receipts shall keep a separate record, and render a monthly transcript, of all purchases and sales of warehouse receipts, on Form 52F. There need not be entered on Form 52F transactions in warehouse receipts not involving the purchase or sale of distilled spirits, such as the receipt from a warehouseman of warehouse receipts covering the deposit or bottling of spirits in his warehouse or the surrender of warehouse receipts for the bottling of the spirits in bond or their transfer in bond to another warehouse. Entries on Form 52F shall be made as indicated by the headings of the columns and lines of the form and in accordance with the instructions printed thereon or issued in respect thereto, and as required by this part. The provisions of § 183.707 with respect to the time of making entries, and of § 183.712 with respect to forms to be provided by users, are hereby made applicable to Form 52F. The provisions of § 183.708 with respect to a separate record of serial numbers of cases are hereby made applicable to Form 52F with respect to serial numbers of packages and cases purchased or sold by warehouse receipts. The monthly transcript on Form 52F shall be forwarded to the district supervisor on or before the tenth day of the succeeding month. The physical removal of distilled spirits from the registered distillery shall continue to be reported on Form 1598 in accordance with the provisions of § 183.703. The physical receipt and disposition of distilled spirits at tax-paid premises shall continue to be reported on Form 52E or Record 52, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of § 183.704.

§ 183.706 Place where Forms 52F shall be kept. Every distiller shall keep Form 52F at the place of business where warehouse receipts are sold or offered for sale.

§ 183.707 Time of making entries. Daily entries shall be made on Record 52 and Form 52E, as indicated by the headings of the various columns and in accordance with the instructions on the forms before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur. Where the proprietor of a taxpaid premises defers the making of the entries to the next business day, as authorized herein, he shall maintain a separate record, such as invoices, of the removals of distilled spirits, showing the removal data required to be entered on Record 52 or Form 52E, and appropriate memoranda of other transactions required to be entered on such records, for the purpose of making the entries correctly.

(53 Stat. 327, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2857)

§ 183.708 Separate record of serial numbers of cases. Serial numbers of cases of distilled spirits disposed of need not be entered on Record 52 or Form 52E, provided the proprietor keeps in his place of business a separate record, approved by the district supervisor, showing such serial numbers, with necessary identifying data, including the date of removal and the name and address of the consignee. Such separate record may be kept in book form (including loose-leaf books) or may consist of commercial papers, such as invoices or bills. Such books, invoices, and bills shall be preserved for a period of four years and in such a manner that the required information may be ascertained readily therefrom, and during such period shall be available during business hours for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by revenue officers. Entries shall be made on such separate approved record before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur. Where the making of the entries is deferred to the next business day, as authorized herein, appropriate memoranda shall be maintained for the purpose of making the entries correctly. The proprietor whose separate record has been approved by the district supervisor shall make a notation in the column for reporting serial numbers, as follows: "Serial numbers shown on commercial records per authority dated _____."

(53 Stat. 327, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 2857)

§ 183.709 Reports. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the proprietor shall file, daily, full and complete transcripts of Record 52 and Form 52E (Parts 1 and 2) on Forms 52A, 52B, and 52E (Parts 1 and 2) with the district supervisor, by delivering or mailing them to such officer on the date the transactions entered therein occurred: Provided, That in any case in which the district supervisor shall direct, the transcripts shall be so filed with the investigator in charge instead of with the district supervisor. The transcripts shall bear the following certification signed by the person or officer authorized to execute Form 338 or 52E:

I hereby certify that these transcripts, consisting of_____pages, disclose all the transactions which occurred during the period covered thereby, and that each entry is correct.

If in any case the district supervisor shall so authorize, the transcripts, in lieu of being filed daily, may be filed with him on or before the 10th day of the month succeeding the month in which the transactions in distilled spirits occurred. In such event, transactions will be entered on Record 52 and Form 52E in accordance with the provisions of section 183.707. Monthly summary reports on Form 338 (where Record 52 is kept) and Form 52E (Part 3) shall be prepared in duplicate, one copy of which will be retained on file and the original forwarded to the district supervisor on or before the 10th day of the month succeeding the month in which the transactions in distilled spirits occurred. Records kept on Record 52 and Form 52E shall be preserved for a period of four years, and during such period shall be available during business hours for inspection and the taking of abstracts therefrom by the Commissioner or any internal revenue officer.

§ 183.710 Payment of tax, bottling charge, etc., by third party. The proprietor of a registered distillery shall report, on Form 1598, Part 2, when Record 52 is kept, on Part 2 and on transcript, Form 52 B, and when Form 52E is kept, on Part 2, the name and address of each consignee, in the column now designated "Name." In the column now designated "Address," there will be reported the name and address of the person, firm or corporation paying (by advancement or reimbursement) either tax, bottling charge, brokerage fee, handling charge, or clearance fee, indicating which are included. The heading of both columns will be amended accordingly.

§ 183.711 Order by third party to ship or deliver distilled spirits. Where the proprietor of a registered distillery ships or delivers distilled spirits to a consignee on the order of another wholesale liquor dealer, detailed records of the transactions shall be kept (a) on Form 1598, Part 2 by the proprietor of the registered distillery making the shipment or delivery, (b) on Record 52 by the wholesale liquor dealer giving the order, and (c) on Record 52 by the consignee if he is a wholesale liquor dealer. For example, assuming that the proprietor of registered distillery (A) ships or delivers the distilled spirits to consignee (C) on the order of wholesale dealer (B), entries will be made on the prescribed forms as follows:

(a) The proprietor of the registered distillery (A) will show in his Form 1598, Part 2, the name and address of wholesale dealer (B) who ordered the distilled spirits, as well as the name and address of consignee (C), the person to whom the distilled spirits are actually shipped or delivered;

(b) Wholesale dealer (B) will show in his Record 52 that the distilled spirits were purchased from distiller (A), giving both the name and address of (A), and will at the same time make an entry showing that the distilled spirits were shipped or delivered by (A) to consignee (C) giving the name and address of (C); and

(c) Consignee (C), if a wholesale liquor dealer, will show in his Record 52 that the distilled spirits were purchased from wholesale dealer (B) and received by him from the proprietor of registered distillery (A), giving name and address of both. A copy of Form 1598 and transcripts of Record 52 on Forms 52A and 52B, required to be filed with the district supervisor, will similarly show the details of such transactions.

Where the proprietor of a registered distillery keeps Record 52, or Form 52E, and is a party to third party transactions similar to those described herein, he shall make similar entries of such transactions in Record 52, on Form 52E, as the case may be; and the transcripts on Forms 52A and 52B, or 52E, respectively, required to be filed with the district supervisor, will likewise show the details of the transactions.

§ 183.712 Forms to be provided by users. Record 52 and Forms 52A, 52B, 52E, 52F, and 338 will be provided by users at their own expense but must be in the form prescribed by the Commissioner: Provided, That with the approval of the Commissioner they may be modified to adapt their use to tabulating or other mechanical equipment: Provided further, That where the form is printed in book form, including loose-leaf books, the instructions may be printed on the cover or the flyleaf of the book, instead of on the individual form.

§ 183.713 Verification of reports. Reports on Forms 52E, 52F and 338 must be filed in accordance with the instructions printed on the forms and be sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths: Provided, That if the form officially prescribed for any such report contains therein a provision for verification by a written declaration that the report is made under penalties of perjury, such report shall be verified by the execution of such declaration and such declaration as executed shall be in lieu of the oath required herein for verification.

Subpart II—General Provisions Relating to Distilleries

§ 183.720 Production of mash, wort, or wash. No mash, wort, or wash fit for distillation or for the production of spirits or alcohol shall be made or fermented in any building or on any premises other than a distillery or industrial alcohol plant duly authorized according to law, except for the manufacture of fermented liquors or for the manufacture of vinegar.

(53 Stat. 319; 26 U. S. C. 2834)

§ 183.721 Sale or removal of mash, wort, or wash; distillation. No mash, wort, or wash made and fermented in any distillery or industrial alcohol plant shall be sold or removed therefrom before being distilled; and no person other than an authorized distiller or proprietor of an industrial alcohol plant shall by distillation or by any other process separate the alcoholic spirits from any fermented mash, wort, or wash, except for the manufacture of vinegar.

(53 Stat. 319; 26 U. S. C. 2834)

§ 183.722 Operations in officer's absence. No distiller or person employed at any distillery shall use or cause or permit to be used any material for the purpose of making mash, wort, or beer, or for the production of spirits in the absence of the storekeeper-gauger, or person designated to act as storekeeper-gauger, nor shall any spirits be removed from the distillery in the absence of the storekeeper-gauger.

(53 Stat. 320; 26 U. S. C. 2838)

§ 183.723 Operations on Sunday. Under the law, no malt, grain, or other material may be mashed, nor may any mash, wort, or beer be brewed or made, nor may any still be used by a distiller, at any time between 11:00 p. m. of any Saturday and 1:00 a. m. of the next succeeding Monday.

(53 Stat. 320; 26 U. S. C. 2836)

§ 183.724 Removal of spirits at night. Under the law, no person may remove any distilled spirits at any other time than after sunrise and before sunset in any cask or package containing more than 10 gallons from any premises or building in which the same may have been distilled, redistilled, rectified, compounded, manufactured, or stored. This provision does not forbid the removal from the distillery, under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger, of distilled spirits by pipe line after sunset to an internal revenue bonded warehouse, or denaturing bonded warehouse, located on the distillery premises.

(53 Stat. 331; 26 U. S. C. 2870)

§ 183.725 Use of distillery premises. Except as otherwise provided in this part, the distillery premises must be used exclusively for the purpose of distilling.

(53 Stat. 314; 26 U. S. C. 2619)

Subpart JJ—Manufacture, Tax-Payment, Removal and Registration of Stills and Worms

§ 183.730 General. Whenever distillers manufacture or reconstruct stills or worms, or set up, sell, or remove stills or distilling apparatus, they must comply with Regulations 23 (26 CFR Part 181), governing the payment of special and commodity taxes, the securing of permits before setting up or removing stills and distilling apparatus, and the registration of stills and distilling apparatus set up.

Subpart KK—Locks and Seals

§ 183.735 Furnished by Government. Except as otherwise provided in this part, the Commissioner will furnish at the expense of the United States all Government locks and seals required to be used at distilleries. District supervisors will see that the distilleries in their respective districts are fully equipped with locks in good condition and that the necessary seals are provided for seal locks.

(53 Stat. 314; 26 U. S. C. 2820)

§ 183.736 Where locks are required. Government locks are required upon all necessary openings in the distillery apparatus by which access may be had to spirits in the process of manufacture from the first still in which the vapors rise until the finished spirits are deposited in the receiving cisterns; upon all doors in the cistern room; upon the control valves in pipe lines which convey steam or fuel to the stills or which convey spirits to contiguous premises; and otherwise as specifically provided by this part or where deemed necessary by the district supervisor.

(53 Stat. 314; 26 U. S. C. 2820)

§ 183.737 Seal locks. Seal locks will be used on the entrance door of the cistern room and the entrance door of the temporary storage room therein (if any); on the door of the Government cabinet; and on such other places where the use of seal locks is required by this part or deemed necessary by the district supervisor. Where spirits are retained overnight in the still-house, and an officer is not assigned to night duty at the distillery, seal locks will be used on the manheads of the tanks in which the spirits are so retained, and on any outlets of such tanks leading to the stills, unless the spirits are retained in the wine room, rectifying room, or other room and the entrance door of such room is secured with a seal lock.

§ 183.738 Plain locks. Plain locks will be used at all other places in the distillery where locks are required by this part.

§ 183.739 Cap seals. All unions, flanges, and other pipe connections in the distillery equipment not secured by welding or brazing or similar methods, must be securely connected and sealed with seals approved by the Commissioner. A special type of seal, serially numbered, has been approved for use in sealing unions, flanges, and other detachable pipe connections. This seal has, for the purpose of identification, been designated a "Cap" seal.

§ 183.740 Affixing cap seals. Cap seals must be affixed in such a manner as to prevent disconnection of the equipment without detection. No. 16-gauge copper wire will be used in applying these seals, unless the use of a different gauge of such wire is authorized by the Commissioner. The seals must be used in serial order, beginning with the lowest number. When applied initially, they will follow in consecutive order the flow of the spirits.

§ 183.741 Custody of keys, seals and locks. The storekeeper-gauger will keep the keys to Government locks, in use under his charge, the seals for such locks and cap seals in his custody at all times and will not permit them at any time to go into the possession of the distiller or any other person except the district supervisor or another Government officer authorized to receive them. Seals for locks and cap seals furnished storekeeper-gaugers for use at distilleries must be kept by them in the Government cabinet. Under no circumstances will storekeeper-gaugers permit locks to remain open.

§ 183.742 Breaking of sealed connections forbidden. Sealed connections must not be broken by the distiller for any reason, except in cases of emergency and then only after notifying the storekeeper-gauger in charge or the district supervisor. Where the distiller desires to make changes in the equipment involving the breaking of a sealed connection, he will follow the procedure prescribed in § 183.257.

§ 183.743 Removal of cap seals. Except as provided in § 183.742, cap seals which have been affixed may be removed only by a storekeeper-gauger or some other officer designated for the purpose by the district supervisor. The officer will destroy all removed cap seals in a manner sufficient to prevent their reuse.

Subpart LL—Officer's Right of Entry and Examination

§ 183.750 Entry of distillery or premises used in connection therewith. Under the law, any internal revenue officer may at all times, as well by night as by day, enter any distillery or building or place used for the business of distilling, or used in connection therewith for storage or other purposes, and, if not admitted upon demand, having declared his name and office, he may break open any doors or windows or break through any of the walls of such premises necessary to be broken to enable him to enter.

(53 Stat. 317; 26 U. S. C. 2827)

§ 183.751 Authority to break up grounds or walls. Under the law, any internal revenue officer, and any persons acting in his aid, may break up the ground on any part of the distillery or premises of a distiller, or any ground adjoining or near any such distillery or premises, or any wall or partition thereof, or belonging thereto, or other place, to search for any pipe, cock, private conveyance, or utensil, and upon finding any pipe or conveyance leading from or to the distillery premises to break up any ground, house, wall, or other place through or into which such pipe or conveyance leads, and to break or cut away such pipe or other conveyance.

(53 Stat. 318; 26 U. S. C. 2830)

§ 183.752 Examination of worm tubs. Under the law, any internal revenue officer may require the water in any worm tub to be drawn off and the tub and worm cleansed at any time when the still is not at work, and the water must be kept out of the worm tub for two hours or until the officer has finished his examination.

(53 Stat. 321; 26 U. S. C. 2839)

§ 183.753 Distillers to furnish assistance. Under the law, on demand of any internal revenue officer, every distiller shall furnish convenient ladders to enable the officer to examine any vessel or utensil in his distillery, and shall furnish all assistance, lights, tools, or other things necessary for inspecting the premises and apparatus, and shall open all doors, boxes, packages, and all casks, barrels, and other vessels not under the control of the Government officer in charge thereof.

(53 Stat. 317; 26 U. S. C. 2828)

Subpart MM—Rules for Computing Capacity of Stills

§ 183.760 Pot or kettle stills. The estimated maximum capacity in proof gallons of distilled spirits capable of being produced every 24 hours, which is required to be shown on the distiller's notice, will be computed as follows: The working capacity of pot or kettle stills will be determined by multiplying 80 percent of the cubic capacity of the still by the maximum number of boilings that can be made in 24 hours and then multiplying this result by the percent of alcohol by volume contained in the highest yielding material to be used in distillation. This result will represent the quantity of wine gallons of absolute alcohol that can be distilled in 24 hours. This quantity, when multiplied by 2, will represent the number of proof gallons. For example, if a pot still having a cubic capacity of 2,000 gallons is used, and such still can be charged three times in eight hours, and the highest percentage of alcohol by volume in the distilling material to be used is 8 percent, the spirit-producing capacity of the still will be computed as follows: $2{,}000 \times 0.8 \times 9 \times 0.08 \times 2 = 2{,}304$ proof gallons. (The quantity that can be distilled in 24 hours.)

(53 Stat. 309; 26 U. S. C. 2812)

§ 183.761 Charge chamber stills. The estimated maximum capacity in proof gallons of distilled spirits capable of being produced every 24 hours, which is required to be shown on the distiller's notice, will be computed as follows: Where a charge chamber still is used, the estimated maximum quantity of distilled spirits in proof gallons capable of being produced will be determined by multiplying 80 percent of the cubic capacity of the top or charge chamber of the still by the number of times the same can be filled and emptied in 24 hours. This result will represent the total number of gallons of distilling material that can be distilled in 24 hours, which quantity will be multiplied by the percent of alcohol by volume contained in the highest yielding material to be used. The result of such computation will represent the number of wine gallons of absolute alcohol that can be distilled in 24 hours. This quantity, when multiplied by 2, will represent the number of proof gallons. For example, if a charge still is used having a charge chamber of a cubic capacity of 600 gallons which can be charged three times in one hour, and the highest percentage of alcohol by volume in the distilling material to be used is 8 percent, the spirit-producing capacity will be computed as follows: $600 \times 0.8 \times 3 \times 24 \times 0.08 \times 2 = 5{,}529.6$ proof gallons. (The quantity that can be distilled in 24 hours.)

§ 183.762 Continuous stills. The estimated maximum capacity in proof gallons of distilled spirits capable of being produced every 24 hours, which is required to be shown on the distiller's notice, will be computed as follows: If continuous stills are used, the maximum spirit-producing capacity in proof gallons of such stills will be computed on the area of the column in square feet. The first step will be to determine the inside diameter of the still at its base and the diameter will then be divided by 2 to ascertain the radius. The diameter may be determined (1) by accurately measuring the inside width of the still with a rod or tape, or (2) by measuring the outside circumference of the still and dividing the same by 3.1416 and deducting from the quotient twice the thickness of the sides of the still. The radius (in feet) will be squared and then multiplied by 3.1416 (Pi) to ascertain the area of the column in square feet. The area in square feet will be multiplied by the factor, 40 (the number of gallons of 100 proof spirits that can be distilled in 1 hour per square foot of plate area), and the result will represent the total number of gallons of 100 proof spirits that can be distilled in 1 hour. This quantity will be multiplied by 24 to determine the number of gallons of 100 proof spirits that can be distilled in 1 day. For example, if a continuous still having a diameter of 4 feet is used, the spirit-producing capacity will be computed as follows: $2\times2\times3.1416\times40\times24=12,063.74$ proof gallons. (The quantity that can be produced in 24 hours.)

(53 Stat. 309; 26 U. S. C. 2812)

3. The purposes of the regulations are as follows:

(a) To conform to Public Law 448—81st Congress (H. R. 5486);

(b) To delegate to district supervisors the authority to approve the establishment of registered distilleries;

(c) To incorporate the regulations relating to the gauging of distilled spirits at registered distilleries, now contained in the Gauging Manual (26 CFR Part 186) but which are being deleted from the current revision of such manual;

(d) To liberalize requirements pertaining to tanks now required to be of uniform dimensions;

(e) To provide for the weighing of spirits transferred by pipe line to a warehouse operated by the distiller on the distillery premises or on premises contiguous thereto, either in the cistern room or in the warehouse;

(f) To simplify the procedure relating to alternating proprietorships and types of plants;

(g) To prescribe in lieu of an oath a declaration, subject to the penalties of perjury, for the following forms;

Form 26, "Registry of Stills"
Forms 52E, "Monthly Record and Report of Importer or Proprietor of Tax-paid Premises"
Form 52F, "Wholesale Liquor Dealer's Monthly Record and Report of Purchases and Sale of Warehouse Receipts for Distilled Spirits"
Form 338, "Wholesale Liquor Dealer's Monthly Report";

(h) To effectuate other changes of a technical nature designed to clarify the present regulatory procedure;

(i) To rearrange the text to conform to the Federal Register Regulations (5 F. R. 1245).

Effective date. The provisions of this part shall be effective September 1, 1950.

[SEAL] GEO. J. SCHOENEMAN,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: August 9, 1950.

THOMAS J. LYNCH,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

TITLE 15—COMMERCE AND FOREIGN TRADE

Chapter III—Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce

Subchapter C—Office of Industry and Commerce

[5th General Revision of Export Regs., Amdt. 11]

PART 370—SCOPE OF EXPORT CONTROL BY DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

PART 371—GENERAL LICENSES

PART 373—LICENSING POLICIES AND RELATED SPECIAL PROVISIONS

SHIPMENTS ORIGINATING IN JAPAN

1. Section 370.10 Shipments entering foreign trade zones is amended to read as follows:

§ 370.10 Shipments entering foreign trade zones—(a) General provisions. Except for the commodities listed in § 371.9 (c), commodities wholly of foreign origin and for which no customs entry has been made with a collector of customs may be exported from a foreign trade zone without a license from the Department of Commerce.

(b) Shipments originating in Japan. Shipments of Positive List commodities (§ 399.1) originating in Japan (excluding the commodities listed in § 371.9 (c)) and moving through the United States may be exported from a foreign trade zone without a license from the Department of Commerce only when exported to the country of ultimate destination named in the bill of lading covering the shipment from Japan or when exported to a country of ultimate destination to which the same commoditiy could be exported from the United States under general license GO. In every such case, United States collectors of customs shall require production of either an original or true copy of the bill of lading to establish that the shipment is exportable from the foreign trade zone without a license.

2. Section 371.9 General in-transit license GIT is amended in the following particulars:

Paragraph (b) Special provisions for shipments originating in Canada is amended in the following particulars:

a. The headnote is amended to read as follows: "(b) Special provisions."

b. The first paragraph is designated as subparagraph (1) and a headnote is added to read as follows: "(1) Shipments originating in Canada."

c. A new subparagraph (2) is added thereto to read as follows:

(2) Shipments originating in Japan. The provisions of this general license GIT are not applicable to shipments of Positive List commodities (§ 399.1) originating in Japan and moving in transit through the United States unless the exportation from the United States is to the country of ultimate destination named in the bill of lading covering the shipment from Japan. In every such case, United States collectors of customs shall require production of either an original or true copy of the bill of lading to establish that the shipment is exportable under the provisions of this general license.

NOTE: Shipments of Positive List commodities which originate in Japan require a validated license for export from the United States unless exportable under the provisions of this general license GIT or of general license GO (See § 373.14.) For exportations of such commodities from foreign trade zones, see § 370.10.

3. Part 373 Licensing policies and related special provisions is amended by adding thereto the following section:

§ 373.14 Special provisions for certain commodities originating in Japan. Shipments of Positive List commodities (§ 399.1) which originate in Japan and are not exportable from the United States under general in-transit license GIT, or general license GO, or under the provisions of § 370.10, relating to shipments from foreign trade zones, require a validated license for export. Applicants for licenses to export such commodities must disclose, in item 9 (b) of form IT-419, that the commodities originated in Japan; and the application must be accompanied by a true copy of the bill of lading covering the shipment of the commodities from Japan.

This amendment shall become effective as of August 10, 1950.

(63 Stat. 7; E. O. 9630, Sept. 27, 1945, 10 F. R. 12245, 3 CFR, 1945 Supp.; E. O. 9919, Jan. 3, 1948, 13 F. R. 59, 3 CFR, 1948 Supp.)

Issued this 10th day of August 1950.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

Subchapter A—General Rules and Regulations

[Corrected S. O. 860, Amdt. 1]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

SUBSTITUTION OF REFRIGERATOR CARS FOR BOX CARS, TO TRANSPORT FRUIT AND VEGETABLE CONTAINERS AND BOX SHOOKS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of August A. D. 1950.

Upon further consideration of Corrected Service Order No. 860 (15 F. R. 5081), and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, that:

Section 95.860 Substitution of refrigerator cars for box cars, to transport fruit and vegetable containers and box shooks, of Service Order No. 860 be, and it is hereby further amended by substituting the following paragraph (a) (1) for paragraph (a) (1) thereof:

(a) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (a) (2), common carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act transporting fruit and vegetable containers, box shooks or other packaging or packing materials, in carloads, from origins located in the States of Washington, Oregon or California, to destinations in the State of California and between origin points and destination points wholly within the State of Washington may, at their option, furnish and transport not more than three (3) refrigerator cars of FGEX, WFEX, BREX, PFEX, SFRD or NP ownership, in lieu of each box car ordered, subject to the carload minimum weight which would have applied if the shipment had been loaded in a box car.

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective at 11:59 p. m., August 10, 1950.

It is further ordered that a copy of this amendment and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12. Interprets or applies sec. 1, 24 Stat. 379, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 1)

By the Commission, Division 3.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL,
Secretary.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 920]

[Docket No. AO-221-R01]

HANDLING OF IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN MASSACHUSETTS, RHODE ISLAND, CONNECTICUT, NEW HAMPSHIRE, AND VERMONT

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Hampshire, and Vermont, to be effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), hereinafter called the "act". Interested parties may file exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353 South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the tenth day after publication of this recommended decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed marketing order (hereinafter called the "order") were formulated, opened at West Springfield, Massachusetts, April 17, 1950, pursuant to notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 1809). The hearing was recessed April 20, 1950, and reopened June 20, 1950, following notice of such reopening published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 3191). The original notice set forth a proposed marketing agreement and order which was submitted to the Secretary of Agriculture by growers and shippers in the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, and New Hampshire, as represented by the Potato Advisory Committees of the respective States, with a petition for a hearing thereon. The Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, proposed amendments to the aforesaid proposed marketing agreement and order to include the State of Vermont and to establish such State as a district within the proposed production area.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing are as follows:

(1) The existence of the right to exercise Federal jurisdiction;

(2) The need for the proposed regulatory program to accomplish the declared objectives of the act;

(3) The identity of the persons and transactions to be regulated;

(4) The definition of the commodity and determination of the smallest regional production area to be affected by the proposed regulatory program;

(5) The specific terms and provisions of the proposed marketing agreement and order necessary and incidental to attain the declared objectives of the act, including, among others, those applicable to:

(a) The establishment of, maintenance, composition, powers, duties, and operation of the administrative agency;

(b) The method for limiting shipments of Irish potatoes grown in the production area:

(c) The establishment of minimum standards of quality and maturity;

(d) The handling under special regulations, under certain circumstances, and the procedure applicable thereto, of specified shipments of Irish potatoes grown in the production area;

(e) The relaxation of regulations in hardship cases and the procedure applicable thereto; and

(f) The requirement that all handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area must be in accordance with the provisions of the marketing agreement and order, and that inspection and certification of shipments of such potatoes and the payment of assessments must be accomplished in connection therewith.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the aforesaid material issues, all of which are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) A substantial percentage of the Irish potatoes grown in the proposed production area normally enters the current of interstate or foreign commerce, and virtually all of the remainder of such potatoes are consumed as table stock potatoes within the State where produced, or are used for so-called diversionary purposes. The market for potatoes grown in the production area is regional in scope and prices for such potatoes at markets both within and outside each of the respective States and the production area are closely related to each other and to f. o. b. shipping point prices within the respective States and the production area. Every movement and sale of such potatoes, whether to a market within or outside the State of production, or the production area, affects the price structure for all potatoes grown in the production area. The mere availability of a surplus of such potatoes in the production area, which could move or be sold to satisfy market demands, tends to decrease the prices in all markets for all potatoes grown in the production area.

Shipments and sales of potatoes grown in any one of the States within the production area may be scheduled originally for delivery to markets within such State, or the production area, respectively, and then be diverted en route to markets outside of the State or the production area. Conversely, such potatoes, destined originally for out-of-State markets, within or outside of the production area, may be diverted en route to markets within the State of origin or to markets within the production area. The movement and sale of such potatoes to markets within each of the respective States, to markets within and outside the production area are, therefore, inextricably intermingled.

It is concluded, therefore, that (i) all transportation and sale (except retail sales) of Irish potatoes grown in the production area are either in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burden, obstruct, or affect such interstate or foreign commerce, and (ii) it is impractical to regulate effectively the transportation and sale of such potatoes without regulating all transportation and sale thereof, except to the extent hereinafter indicated.

(2) Effective January 1, 1950, parity prices for Irish potatoes are to be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1948 and the Agricultural Act of 1949.

Seasonal average farm prices in the production area have been below parity during the past four seasons. During the four seasons it has been necessary to make extensive Government purchases throughout the production area to carry out the price support commitment. Purchases representing 20 percent of the crop in the production area were made in supporting prices at 60 percent of parity during the 1949 crop marketing season. Therefore, it is anticipated that seasonal average farm prices received by growers in the production area for potatoes produced in 1950 will not exceed the prescribed parity level.

The availability of supplies of Irish potatoes in excess of all market demand therefor tends to decrease the grower's average returns from all of such potatoes. Withholding the poorer grades, and undesirable qualities and sizes of such potatoes from such markets tends to equalize market supply and the demand therefor, and tends to increase the grower's average returns for all Irish potatoes. Poor grades, undesirable qualities, and undesirable sizes of Irish potatoes available for sale in wholesale markets sell at appreciable discounts from the sale price of the better grades and desirable qualities and sizes of such potatoes, and the former not only displace the latter to a considerable extent, but the former give poor consumer satisfaction, resulting in an over-all decreased consumption of Irish potatoes. Grade, quality, and size discounts in wholesale prices of Irish potatoes are reflected in similar discounts in grower returns therefor. Similarly, decreased consumption of Irish potatoes of all grades, qualities, and sizes, decreases grower returns from such potatoes.

Poorer grades, undesirable qualities, and undesirable sizes of Irish potatoes are frequently marketed in a manner designed to indicate that such potatoes are of desirable grades, qualities, and sizes, which results in consumer dissatisfaction, confusion relevant to Irish potato values, and generally chaotic marketing conditions.

Therefore, it is concluded that a marketing agreement and order is necessary to regulate the transportation and sale of Irish potatoes grown in the production area, to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will tend to establish parity prices for such potatoes. The marketing agreement and order should contain provisions for the establishment and maintenance of such minimum standards of quality and maturity and such grading and inspection requirements for Irish potatoes grown in the production area as will effectuate orderly marketing thereof in the public interest, because, even though prices received by farmers for such potatoes exceed parity, some potatoes of poor quality do not, under any circumstances, represent value to the consumers thereof, and the returns to the farmers therefrom are negligible.

(3) (a) The act authorizes the regulation of such handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce. (Such handling is hereinafter called "in commerce.") The marketing agreement and order should regulate such handling solely to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is essential, as a basis for such regulation, that the marketing agreement and order define a "handler," so that persons to be regulated thereunder will have notice thereof.

Common or contract carriers transporting Irish potatoes (grown in the production area and owned by another person) to market are performing a normal handling function in commerce but such handling should not be regulated under the marketing agreement and order for the reason that such carriers are not responsible for the grade, quality, and size of the commodity so transported, are not responsible for the introduction of such commodity in commerce, and their sole interest in such commodity is to transport it to destinations selected by others for a service charge. The responsibility for the grade, quality, and size of the commodity delivered to such common and contract carriers should be borne by the person or persons responsible for delivering such commodity to such carriers.

Other handling functions with respect to such potatoes, which should be regulated under the marketing agreement and order are hereinafter considered in connection with a definition of "ship", and the definition of "handler" should be synonymous with "shipper" because regulation of the handler performing any of such functions is necessary under the marketing agreement and order to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Therefore, the term "handler" or "shipper" should be defined to mean any person (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) who ships potatoes.

(b) Processing activities (such as storing, packing, washing and grading) with respect to Irish potatoes are handling functions in commerce. However, it would be impracticable, if not impossible, to require persons engaged in such activities to meet grade, quality, and size requirements, under regulations issued pursuant to the marketing agreement and order, prior thereto except as hereinafter indicated. Therefore, such handling activities should be exempt from regulation under the marketing agreement and order. Such exemption should be limited to storing, washing, packing, grading, and other preparatory handling functions accomplished in the production area because such activities are customarily accomplished therein. After the grading has been accomplished in connection with such potatoes, the handling activity of transporting them to market should be subject to regulation, under the marketing agreement and order, because the grade, quality, and size of such potatoes are determined by the grading process accomplished prior to such transportation and such transportation in commerce can then be limited, on a practical basis, to such grades, qualities, and sizes of such potatoes as will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Sales of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, in commerce are handling transactions which should be subject to regulation under the marketing agreement and order because such sales are generally made on the basis of grades, qualities, and sizes or any combination thereof; and because such sales introduce or continue such potatoes in commerce. Therefore, if such sellers fail to meet the requirements of regulations issued under the marketing agreement and order they should be responsible, except as hereinafter indicated, for such introduction or continuation of the potatoes in commerce. However, if a producer of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, sells such potatoes to a recognized packer in the production area on a field run or grade-out basis, such sale by the producer does not constitute a handling transaction in commerce. Under such state of facts, the sale from the producer to the recognized packer does not place the potatoes in commerce and the customary contemplation of the parties is that prior to their introduction in commerce. However, if a producer of Irish aforesaid for market. It is necessary to restrict the scope of this producer-packer sale to packers operating processing facilities in the production area because such restriction conforms to customary practice therein.

However, if a producer of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, sells such potatoes grown by him to an itinerant trucker, or any other person, for transportation to market without prior processing, such potatoes are thereby placed in commerce at the time of such sale and the producer, under such circumstances, is the first handler of such potatoes. It may be assumed under such circumstances, that the producer intended that the potatoes would be placed in commerce at the time of such sale and, therefore, he should be held responsible for any failure of the commodity so sold to meet such grade, quality, and size requirements as may be in effect under the marketing agreement and order at the time of such sale.

Irish potatoes grown in the production area and consigned or otherwise placed in commerce should be considered in the same category as potatoes sold in commerce because the former activities are merely different methods of selling potatoes. Such potatoes should also meet the minimum grade, quality, and size requirements in effect under the marketing agreement and order at the time they are so introduced into commerce to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The consignor or individual otherwise placing such potatoes in commerce should, therefore, be subject to regulation.

Irish potatoes grown in the production area are frequently transported, sold, or otherwise placed or continued in commerce by more than one person. Each of such persons is responsible for introducing or continuing such potatoes in commerce and, therefore, each of such persons should be required to conduct such handling activities in accordance with applicable grade, quality, and size regulations under the marketing agreement and order, to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is concluded, therefore, that "ship" should be defined in the marketing agreement and order to include and be applicable to all of the handling functions which must be subject to regulation to effectuate the declared policy of the act, that such definition should be synonymous with "handle," and that "ship" should mean to transport, sell, or in any other way to place potatoes in the current of commerce within the production area, or between the production area and any point outside thereof: Provided, That the definition of "ship" or "handle" shall not include or be applicable to the sale or transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area for storing, or the sale or transportation of potatoes to a recognized dealer or packer within the production area for the purpose of having such potatoes prepared for market.

(4) (a) It is necessary to define the commodity to be regulated by the marketing agreement and order so that persons handling such commodity will know that their handling activities relevant thereto are subject to regulation thereunder. The act authorizes marketing agreements and orders applicable to potatoes, or to any regional or market classification thereof. Irish potatoes of all varieties grown in the production area is a regional classification of potatoes and regulation of the handling thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is concluded, therefore, that "potatoes" should be defined to mean all varieties of Irish potatoes grown in the production area.

(b) A definition of "production area" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to specify and delineate the area in which potatoes must be grown before the handling thereof is subject to regulation. Potatoes are grown commercially in practically all counties within the production area. Production tends to be concentrated, however, in particular counties or portions thereof where soil, climate, topography, type of farming, and other factors are most favorable for potato production. The outstanding example of such concentration to be found within the production area is the Connecticut Valley section traversing western Massachusetts and Connecticut. Other examples are the Washington County and Newport County sections in Rhode Island. There are, in addition, numerous other localities scattered throughout the production area where commercial potato production exists and where environmental factors are favorable for further development. These areas, although relatively small in comparison with the Connecticut Valley section, in the aggregate comprise an important segment of the potato industry in the production area.

Potatoes from the counties of lesser commercial importance compete, both directly and indirectly, in the markets and influence prices received for potatoes grown in the major producing counties of the production area. Buyers frequently discount the prices paid for "locally grown potatoes" from the production area, in comparison with prices for "shipped-in potatoes," because they cannot rely in many instances on the grades and sizes packed and offered for sale by the local producer. The presence in the markets of off-grade and undesirable sizes of potatoes from sources within the production area also discourages buyers from purchasing and paying premium prices for the better grades and more desirable sizes of potatoes, thus bringing about lower prices generally for potatoes produced in the production area. To correct such undesirable marketing conditions it is necessary to provide for regulation under the marketing agreement and order of all potatoes grown in the production area.

Exclusion of the early producing areas, such as New Haven and Fairfield Counties, Connecticut, and Newport County, Rhode Island, from the production area is not warranted because potatoes from these counties compete in the markets with potatoes from other portions thereof. The combination of an early season and an early maturing variety, Irish Cobbler, enables growers in these counties to begin marketing ahead of growers in most of the other counties within the production area. The Irish Cobbler, however, is grown extensively in other portions of the production area such as Hartford and Tolland Counties, Connecticut, and Hampden, Hampshire, and Franklin Counties, Massachusetts. Later on in the season, Irish Cobblers from these latter counties enter into direct competition with such potatoes from New Haven and Fairfield Counties.

Production, harvesting, and marketing conditions and methods are essentially the same throughout the production area. Such differences in these factors as do exist, for example, in such counties as New Haven and Fairfield in Connecticut, and Newport in Rhode Island, are not of such magnitude as to justify, on the basis of reasons stated herein, the exclusion of any portion of the production area from regulation under the marketing agreement and order.

The marketing agreement and order makes ample provision for meeting the particular problems of administering the program in such areas in an equitable manner. The same or similar varieties of potatoes are grown throughout the production area and potatoes from each part thereof compete in markets both within and outside the area during each season. Exclusion of any portion of the production area from regulation under the marketing agreement and order would make the operation of such program unreasonably difficult and impractical. Therefore, the production area, hereinafter defined, constitutes the smallest practicable regional production area.

(5) It is necessary to define the terms hereinafter set forth, so that their applicability and meaning may be established and to preclude the necessity for redefining them when they are later used in the marketing agreement and order. The definitions of Secretary, act, person, producer, and varieties, as set forth in the notice of hearing, were not in controversy at the hearing. These terms are generally understood by members of the potato industry in the production area and the use of such terms in the marketing agreement and order is essential as the basic framework thereof.

A definition of "fiscal year" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to establish the beginning and end of an operating period. The establishment of such period, which should comprise a full twelve months, is necessary for businesslike administration of the marketing agreement and order and is desirable as a basis for establishing the terms of office of committee members and alternates. The date marking the end of one fiscal year and the beginning of the new should fall at a time of relative inactivity in the marketing of the potato crop and should allow sufficient time for the committee to organize and be prepared to function prior to the start of the new marketing season. Marketing of the potato crop grown in the production area begins about July 1 of each year and is completed prior to June 1 of the following year. June 1 of each year is, therefore, an appropriate date for establishing the end of one fiscal year and the beginning of the new. Fiscal year should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

A definition of "committee" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to identify the administrative body which acts as agent of the Secretary. Such committee is authorized by the act and the definition thereof, as hereinafter set forth, minimizes the use of words in the marketing agreement and order.

Definitions of "seed potatoes," "table stock potatoes," "consumer pack" and "wholesale pack" are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order because regulation is provided, under certain circumstances, differently for each. Special regulation for seed potatoes is justified because such potatoes are produced for a specialized use and the requirements of the seed market differ, in some respects, from that of the table stock market. For example, potatoes of small size are ordinarily discounted in the table stock market but may bring a premium in the seed market. The term "seed potatoes" should be defined to include such potatoes as are certified, tagged, or otherwise appropriately identified by the official seed certifying agency of the States of Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont, or such other seed certifying agency as the Secretary may recognize. Table stock potatoes should be defined as all potatoes other than seed potatoes. The sum total of the table stock and seed potatoes so defined will equal "potatoes," otherwise defined in the marketing agreement and order. Definitions of "wholesale pack" and "consumer pack" are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order because regulation is provided, under certain circumstances, differently for each. The definition of "consumer pack" should include all potato packs which are prepared for ultimate sale by the retailer to the consumer in the original container. The definition of "wholesale pack" should include all potatoes which are normally dumped into bins at the retail store. In practice, the distinction between the two types of packs rests on the capacity of the container. Consumer packs commonly in use in the production area consist of 5, 10, and 15 pound bags, while wholesale packs consist of 50 and 100 pound bags. The demarcation between consumer and wholesale packs should be drawn at a specified weight rather than by naming the individual container which should fall in each category. The possible introduction of containers differing in size from those now in use makes the latter approach impractical. A net weight of 50 pounds of potatoes appears to be an appropriate dividing line between the two types of packs. Consumer pack and wholesale pack should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

Definitions of "grade" and "size" are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to enable all persons affected thereby to determine the requirements thereof and to interpret specifically and intelligently regulations issued in such terms. Grade and size, the essential terms in which regulations may be issued, should be defined as comprehending the equivalents of the meanings assigned to these terms in the official standards for potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture or modification or amendment of such standards. Regulations under the marketing agreement and order can then use such terms (grade and size) with the constant meaning assigned thereto in such standards, or such modification or amendment of such terms as may be effected through amendment of such standards, or such variation of such terms as may be required at the time of regulation and spelled out in the regulation. Official inspectors are qualified to certify to the grade and size of potatoes, grown in the proposed production area, in terms of any one of the aforesaid standards, or modification, amendment, or variation thereof. The provision set forth in the notice of hearing for defining grade and size in terms of standards for potatoes issued by the State from which the potatoes are shipped is unnecessary and is, therefore, not included in the marketing agreement and order.

A definition of "export" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order because different regulations thereunder are authorized for export shipments than for domestic shipments. Export markets have certain requirements which differ from the domestic market and special regulations are, therefore, justified. Export should be defined to include all shipments of potatoes outside of the continental United States.

A definition of "district" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to delineate the geographical divisions of the production area for the purpose of electing nominees for membership on the committee. The production and marketing problems within each of the established districts are similar and election of committee nominees on such basis will afford equitable representation to all producers in the production area. District should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

(a) The marketing agreement and order should provide for the selection by the Secretary of an administrative committee, called the New England Potato Committee, composed of fifteen producer members. Establishment of this committee is desirable and necessary to aid the Secretary in carrying out the declared policy of the act and such committee is authorized by the act. The notice of hearing provided for a committee of 20 members, of whom at least 15 members should be producers and not more than five members should be handlers. Inasmuch as most producers within the proposed production area also perform handler functions and are familiar with marketing conditions for potatoes, no useful purpose would be served by providing for handler representation, as distinct from producer representation, on the committe. Provision should be made for an alternate for each member of the committee because circumstances may arise when it is impossible for a member, or members, to attend particular meetings of the committee and where positions are vacant because of death, resignation, or for other reasons. In such situations it is necessary and desirable for the respective alternate to act in lieu of the member, so that there will be no interruption of committee operations and to assure that committee activities will be representative of the thinking of all segments of the potato industry in all districts of the production area. Such alternates should have the same qualifications as the members if the alternates are to represent the same industry interests as such members. A committee of fifteen members will be sufficiently small to permit it to operate in an efficient manner and at the same time, on the basis of the division of the production area into districts and representation therefrom, will be of sufficient size to give adequate representation to all producers and handlers in the production area.

Members, and their respective alternates, selected to represent a district should be producers (or officers or employees of corporate producers), in such district, and residents therein. Persons with such qualifications will be intimately acquainted with the particular problems of producing and marketing potatoes grown in such district and for that reason can be expected to present accurately the views, problems, and economic conditions of producers and handlers in such districts with respect to committee actions.

A nomination procedure is provided in the marketing agreement and order to assure the Secretary that the names of appropriate prospective members and alternates will be brought to his attention. The nomination of prospective members and alternates by producers at meetings in the respective districts is a practical method of providing the Secretary with names of such members and alternates. Such procedure will insure that the Secretary has available a list of nominees whose qualifications have been reviewed by and acted upon by members of the industry.

The Secretary may appropriately select initial committee members and alternates from nominations which may be made by producers, or groups thereof. However, the New England Potato Committee, hereinafter called the "committee", does not come into existence until selection by the Secretary of the initial committee; therefore, the marketing agreement and order should provide for the selection of said initial committee in the absence of nominations.

Nomination meetings for the purpose of nominating succeeding members of the committee and their alternates should be held or caused to be held by the committee sixty days prior to the end of each fiscal year. By holding, or causing to be held, nomination meetings 60 days prior to the end of each fiscal year, the committee would have adequate time to prepare and submit nominee lists to the Secretary in time for the Secretary to select the members and alternates to take office at the beginning of the new fiscal year, and, in the event a selectee declines to serve, for the Secretary to make another appointment.

At least two nominees should be designated for each position as member, and each position as alternate member, so that the Secretary will have a choice in making his selection and, in the event a selectee declines to serve, so that he will have the names of other prospective members or alternates from which to make another appointment.

Nominee lists should be supplied to the Secretary in the manner and form prescribed by him to establish administrative uniformity in the handling of such matters. Such nominations should be presented to the Secretary at least 30 days prior to the end of the fiscal year so that the selection and qualification of the members and alternates for the new term of office which begins with the new fiscal year may be made prior to such date.

Each producer should be limited to one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, or representatives, in designating nominees for producer committee members and alternates regardless of the number of districts in which he produces potatoes. Voting on any other basis would not provide for equitable representation. If a producer could cast more than one vote by reason of operating in more than one district, such producer would have an advantage in selecting nominees over producers operating in only one district. Likewise, if more than one vote was permitted, a few large producers could dominate the elections and nominate producers not favored by a majority of producers. The producer who operates in more than one district should be permitted to elect, from among the districts in which he produces potatoes, the district in which he shall vote in order that he may cast his ballot for nominees for producer committee members and alternates where he believes his main interest lies. The one-vote limitation applies to any one producer position to be filled at a nomination meeting. Each producer is allowed one vote for each such producer position as a committee member and each such producer position as a committee alternate to be filled at a nomination meeting.

In order that there will be an administrative agency in existence at all times to administer the marketing agreement and order, the Secretary should be allowed to select committee members and alternates without regard to nominations if the committee, for any reason, fails to carry out the nomination procedure prescribed. Such selection, however, should be on the basis of the representation provided in the marketing agreement and order to insure that the entire production area is fairly and adequately represented.

Any person selected by the Secretary as a committee member or alternate should qualify by filing with the Secretary a written acceptance of willingness and intention to serve in such capacity. Each person selected as a committee member or alternate should qualify, so that the Secretary will have a means of determining if he intends to serve. This is sound operating procedure and is necessary and desirable to avoid delays in the composition of the committee. For this same reason, each member and alternate should file his acceptance within a definite time period after receiving notice of his selection. The ten-day period prescribed is reasonable for qualification and will not unduly retard composition of the committee.

Provision is made for the Secretary to fill any committee vacancies in order to maintain continuity of committee operation. The marketing agreement and order provide several alternative procedures which may be followed by the Secretary in making such selections. The administrative flexibility thus prescribed is desirable so that the Secretary will not be forestalled in making such selections and so that he may choose the most practical of the alternative means of obtaining the names of qualified persons to fill such vacancies. The Secretary should have authority to select persons to fill committee vacancies from nominations made at producer meetings. Practical considerations, however, may preclude the holding of special nomination meetings for this purpose. For example, a vacancy might occur during the height of the potato planting or harvesting season when it would be difficult for the committee to secure an adequate and representative attendance at meetings. It is therefore, appropriate that the Secretary should be authorized to make selections to fill vacancies from the nominee list last submitted by the committee prior to the occurrence of the vacancy.

It is also desirable and necessary that the Secretary should be authorized to fill committee vacancies without regard to nominations if the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within thirty days after such vacancy occurs. The Secretary should have recourse to such means of filling vacancies in order to maintain continuity of committee operation and to insure that all portions of the production area are adequately represented in the conduct of committee business.

The term of office of committee members and alternates, except for initial members and alternates, should be for two years. A two-year term is desirable so that members and alternates will have adequate time to familiarize themselves with the operation of the program and thus be in a position to render the most effective service in assisting the Secretary in carrying out the declared policy of the act. A term of two years gives producers adequate opportunity to vote for a change in their representation, while providing for efficient operation of the committee.

Provision is made in the marketing agreement and order for staggered terms of office of committee members and alternates. Under this provision, about one-half of the committee in office at the end of a fiscal year will continue in office through the next fiscal year. The establishment of such staggered terms will promote administration of the program in the most effective and efficient manner. By having staggered terms of office, the new members and alternates constituting about one-half of the committee membership selected to serve at the beginning of each fiscal year will benefit from the guidance of the experienced members who carry over. This provision for the carry over of experienced members will help insure continuity in the policies and procedures relating to the administration of the marketing agreement and order. Such continuity is an essential ingredient in the successful administration of the marketing agreement and order.

To facilitate the establishment of staggered terms of office, the marketing agreement and order provide that the term of office of a majority of the members and alternates of the initial committee shall be one year, and the term of office for the remaining members and alternates shall be two years. Such provision is fair and equitable and will permit the establishment, on a practical basis, of a committee with the members and alternates thereon holding office for staggered terms.

A quorum of the committee should consist of a majority of the committee members, and the same number of concurring votes should be necessary for passing any motion or approving any action of the committee. These requirements are reasonable and are necessary to insure that any action of the committee will be representative of a majority of the committee and that the interests of both producers and handlers will be reflected in committee actions.

Only members present at an assembled meeting of the committee, or alternate members acting for members, should be entitled to vote. This requirement will encourage greater attendance at meetings and will promote fuller discussion of committee actions. Provision is made, however, for meetings of the committee by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication, to meet practical situations where rapid decision with respect to committee actions is necessary. Such emergency situations occur quite frequently in the marketing of potatoes grown in the production area. Any votes cast at such meetings should be promptly confirmed in writing to provide a record of the action taken.

The apportionment and selection of producer members and alternate members of the committee by districts in the manner set forth in the marketing agreement and order will provide fair and equitable representation of all producers in the production area. The representation provided gives weight, on as fair and reasonable a basis as possible, to the various factors, such as acreage, number of producers, size of district, and variation in producing and marketing conditions, necessary to establish assurance of a fair and equitable representation of all portions of the production area on the committee. Therefore, selection of the members and alternates should be as follows:

Four committee members and alternates from each of Districts Nos. 1 and 3; three members and alternates from District No. 2; and two members and alternates from each of Districts Nos. 4 and 5.

Committee members and alternates should be compensated at a rate not to exceed $5.00 per day, or portion thereof, and should be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred when acting on committee business. Since such members and alternates will be serving in the interest of the potato industry in the production area, they should not be required to bear such expenses as they incur in attending to committee business. Compensation at not to exceed the rate prescribed herein will offset, to some extent, the losses which such members and alternates will sustain through committee service.

The powers of the committee, as set forth in the notice of hearing, should be granted to the committee because such powers are authorized by the act and are essential to the committee in order for it to discharge its responsibilities under the marketing agreement and order.

Each and all of the duties set forth in the notice of hearing should be given to the committee because such duties are necessary and essential to the accomplishment of the declared policy of the act and for the committee to discharge its obligations to the Secretary and for the committee to discharge its obligations to the Secretary. These duties are similar to duties given to other administrative committees under other marketing agreement and order programs.

(b) The declared policy of the act is to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for potatoes, among other commodities, as will tend to establish parity prices for such potatoes. The regulation of shipments of potatoes by grade, size, or quality, authorized in the marketing agreement and order, provides a means of carrying out such policy.

The procedures which are outlined in the marketing agreement and order for the development and institution of marketing policies relating to grade, size, or quality regulations provide a practical basis for the committee to obtain appropriate and adequate information regarding marketing problems. In turn, members of the industry are also provided an appropriate and adequate means of being informed regarding the policies and regulations the committee recommends and, if issued, the regulations that are effective. The factors which the committee should take into consideration in developing its marketing policy are the ones commonly or usually taken into account by growers and handlers in marketing potatoes.

In order that the Secretary may most effectively carry out his responsibilities in connection with the marketing agreement and order, it is provided that the committee should prepare and submit to the Secretary a report on its proposed policy, or amendments thereto, for the marketing of potatoes during each fiscal year. The initial marketing policy in each fiscal year should be prepared and submitted to the Secretary at the beginning of the fiscal year, to give all interested parties the maximum notice of regulatory possibilities, consistent with affording the committee sufficient time to prepare sound policies. Further provision should be made for the committee to make available the contents of such reports to producers and handlers in the production area.

In making recommendations for regulation, it is provided that the committee shall investigate enumerated relevant factors of supply and demand for potatoes. This requirement is necessary so that the committee will be in the best position to develop sound and practical recommendations for regulation and to advise the Secretary with respect to such supply and demand conditions. The committee will be well qualified to evaluate marketing conditions for potatoes produced in the production area and to recommend specific regulations which will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The limitation of shipments of the poorer grades, qualities, and less desirable sizes of potatoes grown in the production area will tend to increase the prices of the more desirable grades, qualities, and sizes, and to increase the returns to producers therefrom. Less desirable sizes include not only small potatoes other than seed potatoes but also excessively large potatoes. Such limitation of shipments will also help to improve the long-run demand for and competitive position of potatoes grown in the production area.

It is a necessary and desirable exercise of the authority granted by the act for the committee to recommend and the Secretary to establish grade, size, or quality regulations for any or all portions of the production area, and different grade, size, or quality regulations for different packs, for different time periods within the shipping season, for different varieties, or any combination of the foregoing. Such administrative flexibility is needed in the marketing agreement and order to effectuate the declared policy of the act through the issuance of appropriate regulations adapted to different and changing circumstances encountered in the marketing of potatoes.

Authority to issue different regulations applicable to different portions of the production area is necessary because a particular portion or portions of such area may have adverse growing conditions which cause an abnormally high percentage of the potatoes grown therein to fall within restricted grades, sizes, or qualities. To meet the administrative problems that would arise from a situation of this kind and to provide fair and equitable regulation of all shipments of potatoes grown in the production area, it would be appropriate to establish a less restrictive regulation applicable to such affected portion or portions of the area.

Supply and demand conditions for potatoes are subject to frequent and substantial changes during the course of a particular marketing season. For this reason, it is absolutely essential that the committee have authority to recommend such different regulations at any time during the season in order to carry out the declared policy of the act.

Different regulations should be authorized for different varieties of potatoes because varieties differ in particular characteristics such as shape and in susceptibility to certain defects. For these reasons, an appropriate grade and size regulation for one variety might not be appropriate for another. Moreover, a new variety may be introduced in the area which should be regulated differently than the varieties now being grown.

It is necessary to provide for different regulations, under appropriate circumstances, for different packs to improve and maintain consumer acceptance for potatoes grown in the production area. Consumer packs of potatoes require different size composition than wholesale packs; authority should be provided, therefore, to establish regulations with respect to minimum or maximum sizes of potatoes, or both, differently for consumer packs than for wholesale packs. Consumer acceptance of potatoes is more adversely affected by inferior grades and undesirable sizes in consumer packs than in wholesale packs. In the case of consumer packs, the consumer accepts the package relatively "sight unseen" and does not have an adequate opportunity to make a selection of individual potatoes. The consumer, however, can make the desired selection from bulk displays made up by dumping the contents of wholesale packs into a bin, as is standard procedure in the retail grocery business. Consumers demand a better and more uniform grade, size, and quality of potatoes in consumer packs than in wholesale packs and failure to maintain such grade, size, and quality in consumer packs will disproportionately decrease the total returns of growers of potatoes in the production area.

The Secretary, upon the recommendation of the committee, or other available information, should be authorized to modify, suspend, or terminate grade, size, or quality regulations with respect to shipments outside of the normal commercial markets for table stock potatoes. The committee should be well qualified, because of the experience and knowledge of individual members, to recommend such modifications, suspensions, or terminations as will be in the best interests of the potato industry in the production area and which will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Shipments of potatoes to the noncompetitive outlets, hereinafter set forth, which otherwise could not be marketed under the regulations, would tend to increase the total returns of potato growers in the production area.

The nature of the demand for seed potatoes differs from the demand for table stock in that small sizes are preferred for seed, whereas the same sizes are discounted in the table stock market. However, certain characteristics which constitute grade defects in table stock potatoes do not necessarily detract from the value of seed potatoes. It is desirable therefore, in order to promote more orderly marketing conditions for potatoes, to authorize the committee to recommend, and the Secretary to modify, grade, size, or quality regulations with respect to seed potatoes, or to suspend or terminate regulations relating to such seed shipments.

Export outlets, while relatively small, are an important factor in the demand for potatoes grown in the production area. Since certain export markets offer premium prices for certain grades, sizes, or qualities of potatoes which usually sell at a discount in the domestic market, it is desirable that the committee be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, modifications, suspensions, or terminations of regulations applicable to export shipments. Such shipments to export would tend to increase returns to producers in the production area and result in added increment to the value of the crop, thereby tending to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Substantial shipments of potatoes to the Federal government have been made in recent years in carrying out price support obligations administered by the Secretary. It is necessary, therefore, to authorize the committee to recommend and the Secretary to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations to facilitate such shipments, which will increase grower returns from potatoes grown in the production area and thereby tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The committee should be authorized to recommend and the Secretary to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations with respect to potatoes shipped for manufacture or conversion into specified products because such shipments, such as glucose, alcohol, etc., reduce the supply of such potatoes available for shipment to the table stock market and, therefore, such shipments tend to increase the total value of the entire crop of potatoes. The committee should be given authority to recommend which shipments should be classed as being for manufacture or for conversion into specified products because committee members are in an advantageous position to know whether and when such end products constitute outlets that are not competitive with table stock potatoes. It is concluded that the committee should have authority to recommend and the Secretary to specify such products because some products compete on a basis virtually equal to table stock potatoes, and, further, because new end products may be developed from time to time, some of which may, and some of which may not be competitive with table stock potatoes.

The committee should be authorized to recommend that shipments of potatoes for livestock feed, or for other specified purposes, should not be regulated, or to recommend modification or suspension of regulations governing such shipments. Livestock feed provides an outlet for potatoes that is not competitive with the table stock market. When such outlets are available it will tend to promote objectives sought under regulation to exempt shipments for this purpose, from grade, size, and quality regulations. The committee should be authorized to recommend that shipments of potatoes for a particular purpose or type of utilization should not be regulated, or to recommend modification or suspension of regulations with respect to such shipments, when it is found that such shipments are not competitive with table stock shipments in commerce. The Secretary, on the basis of such recommendations, or other available information, should be authorized to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations with respect thereto, when such action will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The aforesaid authorizations, for the modification, suspension, or termination of regulations with respect to shipments of potatoes for each enumerated special purpose, should permit the modification, suspension, or termination of one or more regulatory provision and the simultaneous retention of others regulatory provisions, because such shipments may require expenditures of administrative funds to police and they may compete, to some extent, with shipments of potatoes for table stock purposes.

The administrative difficulties of regulating small shipments, under some circumstances, may make it uneconomical, undesirable, and impractical to attempt to do so under the marketing agreement and order. Under such circumstances, which can be readily determined by the committee, regulation of such small shipments would not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is concluded that the committee should be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, the minimum quantities which should not be subject to any or all regulations issued under the marketing agreement and order. It is necessary to permit the maintenance of one or more regulatory requirements, while relieving such minimum quantities from other regulatory requirements. It may be desirable, for example, for the inspection requirement to be waived on small shipments but that handlers be required to pay assessments or comply with grade, size, and quality regulations with respect to such shipments. This provision provides authority to arrange flexible operation of the marketing agreement and order to meet such situations in a practical way. Such authority will promote more orderly marketing and prevent the imposition of undue burdens upon handlers making such small shipments.

The requirement that the Secretary shall notify the committee of any regulations, or of any modifications, suspensions, or terminations of regulations, is appropriate and necessary to enable the committee to be informed of such actions. The committee's obligation to give reasonable notice (which shall be given through newspapers, radio, mail or such combinations thereof as may be deemed desirable by the committee) of orders issued by the Secretary, is appropriate and necessary for proper and efficient administration of the marketing agreement and order.

Authority should be provided for the committee to recommend, and the Secretary to prescribe, adequate safeguards to prevent potatoes, including seed potatoes, which may be exempted as aforesaid, from regulation, from being placed, or continuing, in commerce contrary to the provisions of this program. Such safeguards, among others, may require inspection to provide the committee with an accurate record of the grade, size, and quality of such shipments of potatoes. In order to maintain appropriate identification of such shipments of potatoes, the committee should be authorized to issue Certificates of Privilege to handlers thereof and to require that such handlers obtain such certificates on all such shipments. Certificates of Privilege should be issued in accordance with rules and regulations established by the Secretary, on the basis of committee recommendations, or other available information, so that the issuance of such certificates may be handled in an orderly and efficient manner.

The committee also should be authorized to deny or rescind Certificates of Privilege when such action is necessary to prevent abuse of the privileges conferred thereby. The committee should be authorized to take such rescinding or denial action upon evidence satisfactory to the committee that a handler to whom a Certificate of Privilege has been issued has handled potatoes contrary to the provisions thereof. Action by the committee denying a handler such certificates should be in terms of a specified time period. Handlers affected by the aforesaid rescinding or denial action should have the right of appeal to the committee for reconsideration.

The Secretary should have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any safeguards prescribed or any Certificates of Privilege issued by the committee in order that the Secretary may retain all rights necessary to carry out the declared policy of the act. The Secretary should give prompt notice to the committee of any action taken by him in connection therewith and the committee should currently notify all persons affected by the indicated action.

The committee should maintain detailed records relevant to Certificates of Privilege and should submit, when requested to do so, reports thereon to the Secretary to supply pertinent information requisite for him to discharge his duties under the act and the marketing agreement and order.

(c) The committee should be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, such minimum standards of quality and maturity and such grading and inspection requirements during any and all periods of marketing, when potato prices are above parity, as will be in the public interest. Some potatoes are of such defective quality that they do not give consumer satisfaction at any time because of the great waste and undue amount of time involved in their preparation. The cost of such potatoes to the consumer per edible unit is frequently greater than the cost per edible unit of potatoes of better quality.

The shipment of immature potatoes causes an adverse consumer reaction to potatoes from the production area and tends to demoralize the market for later shipments of mature potatoes. There is a tendency for immature potatoes to deteriorate in transit and to develop undesirable cooking properties. Limitation of shipment of such potatoes would be in the interests of both consumers and of the potato industry in the production area. Continued shipments of low quality and immature potatoes may result in a permanent reduction in demand for potatoes grown in the production area.

(d) Provision is made in the marketing agreement and order for inspection by the Federal-State Inspection Service or such other Inspection Service as the Secretary may designate of all shipments of potatoes grown in the production area, except as hereinafter indicated. In some portions of the production area Federal-State Inspection Service may not be available at all times. Therefore, it is necessary that the Secretary have the power to designate other inspection service in order to efficiently operate the program. Inspection certificates issued by this service are a common and usual means of specifying the grade, size, and quality of potatoes and are generally used and recognized in the production area. Such certificates constitute prima facie evidence of the grade, size, and quality of the commodity to which they apply and they are accepted in court as such evidence. It is necessary to provide the handler, the committee, or any other interested party with a means of determining whether a shipment, or shipments of potatoes complies with the requirements of any particular grade, size, and quality regulation which may be in effect under the marketing agreement and order. Inspection certificates provide such a means. The Inspection Service can provide reasonably prompt inspection at all points for most potato shipments at a reasonable fee, if inspection is requested at a reasonable time prior to the anticipated shipment. Effective regulation of the handling of potatoes grown in the production area requires that the grade, size, and quality of each shipment thereof be authoritatively established. Accordingly, the marketing agreement and order should provide, except as hereinafter indicated, that no handler shall ship potatoes unless, prior thereto, such shipment was inspected by the aforesaid Service.

A sizeable portion of the potato crop grown in the production area is graded and marketed by the producer in relatively small lot shipments made at infrequent intervals. Some of these small lot shipments may contain other vegetables in so-called mixed load shipments. Most of these small growers own their own grading equipment either power or hand operated. Nearly all of these growers ran their potatoes over the grader before shipment. Some of these small lot shipments are made at regular intervals to supply regular customers while others depend upon the shipper's evaluation of market requirements on the day of shipment. The handler of such small lot shipments is almost always the producer of the potatoes involved. Where the quantity of potatoes involved in such small lot shipments is relatively small, modification, suspension, or termination of the Federal-State inspection requirements with respect thereto should be effected, in appropriate circumstances, on the basis of and for the reasons hereinbefore indicated for so-called minimum quantity or "small shipments."

When the quantity of potatoes contained in a shipment exceeds the aforesaid minimum quantity, the handler of such shipment in nearly all instances can obtain reasonably prompt inspection at a reasonable fee. However, in some instances and under some circumstances, it would require a large inspection force to promptly inspect all loads, thereby greatly increasing the costs to cover a relatively small portion of the shipments. In some instances these conditions could be caused by unusual weather such as snowstorms or blizzards. Immediately after these storms, shipments are above normal at a time when it is difficult for the inspector to travel to outlying points and make all inspections promptly upon request. Also in some instances while one inspector can inspect nearly all of the shipments in a given locality, two inspectors would be required to cover all of the shipments and thereby materially increase the cost of the service. Therefore, it is imperative to provide procedures whereby a waiver of inspection under the aforesaid conditions can be provided.

If a handler-applicant for inspection requests such service at a reasonable time prior to shipment, the inspection service should either perform the inspection within a reasonable time or notify the applicant and the committee that inspection could not be performed within this time limit. The time limits both on application and performance should not be specified in the agreement and order, as it is not possible in all instances and under all conditions to determine the most appropriate time limits. It may be necessary and desirable to specify different time limits for different portions of the marketing season such as early and late potatoes and from season to season. Therefore, the authority in the agreement and order should be sufficiently flexible to permit the committee to recommend reasonable and practical procedures for handling the inspection waivers. Also, provisions are made to specify adequate safeguards to prevent abuse of this privilege. The committee should be authorized to refuse the issuance of additional waivers when such action is necessary to prevent abuse of the waivers conferred thereby. Action by the committee in denying an inspection waiver should be in terms of a specified time period. Handlers affected by such aforesaid action should have the right of appeal to the committee for reconsideration.

There is substantial evidence in the hearing record that such waiver procedures are necessary and incidental to operation of the agreement for the granting of such waivers will provide methods for minimizing problems in connection with inspection on small lots. The elimination of such nuisances will benefit growers, the committee, and the Secretary in the operation of the agreement and order and promote orderly marketing to a greater extent than would the compulsory inspection of the small lots that may be relieved of this burden. In addition, recommendations with respect to the extent to which such lots will be relieved will be subject to the continuing test of practical operation, so that discretion regarding the extent to which methods should be used will remain in the hands of the committee and of the Secretary.

Copies of inspection certificates issued pursuant to the requirements of the marketing agreement and order should be supplied to the committee promptly, so that it may promptly discharge its administrative responsibilities thereunder. In instances where potatoes previously inspected are regraded, resorted, or in any other way subjected to further preparation for market in the production area, such potatoes should be and are required to be inspected and a copy of the inspection certificate should be furnished to the committee because such further preparation for market destroys the validity of the original inspection certificate as evidence of the grade, size, and quality of the potatoes involved. All of the aforesaid requirements are necessary for proper administration and enforcement of the provisions of the marketing agreement and order.

(e) Certain hazards are incidental to the production of potatoes grown in the production area which are beyond the control or reasonable expectation of the producer of such potatoes. Because of these circumstances and to prevent undue hardship among producers with respect to any regulations which may be issued under the marketing agreement and order, the committee should be authorized to issue exemption certificates to producers to permit each producer to handle or cause to be handled his equitable proportion of all potatoes shipped from the production area if the grade, size, or quality of his potatoes have been adversely affected by conditions beyond his control and by conditions beyond reasonable expectation. In determining such equitable proportion, the committee should be authorized to estimate the average percentage of production which has been and will be shipped by all producers in the producer's immediate area of production under a given regulation (which will be such equitable proportion). For such purpose, the committee will need a representative sample of the grade, size, and quality composition of the total crop in such area, a part of which, at any given time during the shipping season, may have been harvested and marketed and another part unharvested.

Similar hazards are prevalent in the handling of potatoes grown in the production area and equitable treatment of each handler, under the marketing agreement and order, requires that he be permitted to handle as large a proportion of his storage holdings of ungraded potatoes (acquired during or immediately following the digging season) as the average proportion of ungraded storage holdings handled by all handlers in an applicant-handler's immediate shipping area, if the grade, size, or quality of such applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by conditions beyond the applicant's control and by conditions beyond reasonable expectation. Restricting the aforesaid exemptions to cases involving conditions beyond the producer's and handler's control, respectively, and to conditions beyond reasonable expectation, is necessary to preclude the granting of such hardship exemptions where the producers and handlers could have avoided the condition responsible for their hardships.

The committee, by reason of its knowledge of the conditions and problems applicable to the production and handling of potatoes grown in the production area and the information which it will have available in each case, will be well qualified to judge each producer's and handler's application in a fair and equitable manner and to fix the quantity of exempted potatoes which each such applicant may handle or cause to be handled.

The provisions contained in the notice of hearing relevant to the procedure to be followed in issuing exemption certificates, in transferring such certificates, in investigating exemption claims, in appealing exemption claim determinations, and in recording and reporting exemption claim determinations to the Secretary, are necessary to the orderly and equitable operation of the marketing agreement and order and they should, therefore, be incorporated in the marketing agreement and order.

Provision should be made for the Secretary to modify, change, alter, or rescind the procedure established for granting of exemptions, and any exemptions granted pursuant to such procedure. This is necessary to guard against inequities in the granting of exemptions and to preclude the issuance of exemption certificates in unjustifiable cases.

(f) The operation of the committee and the marketing agreement and order require funds for the payment of necessary administrative expenses. The committee is the logical agency to recommend what expenses are necessary and appropriate for operation of the program. It is also necessary that assessments be levied on the handlers to meet such expenses since no other source of funds is authorized under the act for defraying such expenses. The committee should be required, each year, to prepare and submit to the Secretary a budget showing its estimated expenses and a proposed rate of assessment. This is desirable in order that the Secretary will have the best possible information on probable expenses of the committee and the proper rate of assessment to be levied to meet such expenses.

Assessments should be levied against each handler who first ships potatoes, herein called the first handler, to establish an appropriate basis for each handler paying his pro rata share of necessary administrative expenses. Each first handler should pay assessments to the committee, at its request, to preclude multiple assessments in connection with individual shipments of potatoes. Each first handler's pro rata share of such expenses shall be a percentage of such expenses equal to the percentage his total season's first handling of potatoes subject to regulation is of the total season's first handling of potatoes subject to regulation by all first handlers. The Secretary, upon the basis of the committee's recommendation, or other available information, should fix a rate of assessment per given unit of shipment which first handlers must pay as an equitable share of the expenses of administering the program.

The Secretary shall be authorized to increase the rate of assessment which first handlers should pay if he finds, during or after the fiscal year, that the then applicable rate of assessment is insufficient to cover expenses. Such increased rate should apply to all assessable potatoes handled during that fiscal year to preclude inequities among handlers.

Revenues collected through assessments in excess of expenses for any fiscal year should, at the end of such fiscal year, be credited pro rata to each contributing handler's account, or, upon demand, refunded to any handler.

The committee should be authorized to maintain, with the approval of the Secretary, suits in its own name, or in the name of its members, against any handler for collection of such handler's pro rata share of the committee's expenses. Such authority is contained in the act.

The committee should be permitted to make such expenditures during a fiscal year as are authorized and are necessary for effective administration and proper functioning of the marketing agreement and order program, within the limitations of the budget submitted by the committee and approved by the Secretary for such year.

Any committee member or alternate responsible for or having in his custody any of the property, funds, records, or any other possessions of the committee, should be required to transfer it to his successor or to such person as may be designated by the Secretary, and to execute such instruments as may be necessary to effect such transfers. The committee, and such members and alternates, should be required to give an accounting for all committee receipts and disbursements and for all committee property whenever requested by the Secretary and whenever, in the case of members and alternates, they cease to be such members or alternates. These transfer and accounting requirements represent sound business procedure and are necessary in order that there will be an unbroken succession in committee possessions.

(g) For proper and efficient administration of the marketing agreement and order, the committee needs information on potatoes with respect to supplies, movement, prices, and sundry other relevant factors which are best obtainable from handlers. The committee should be authorized to request, with the approval of the Secretary, and every handler should be required to maintain records of such facts and furnish to the committee upon request, with the approval of the Secretary, such information therefrom as may be required for the committee to exercise its powers and perform its duties under the marketing agreement and order. The committee should be authorized to audit such records to verify reports submitted as aforesaid. The Secretary should retain the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any requests by the committee for information in order to protect handlers from unreasonable requests for reports.

(h) The provisions of §§ 920.8 through 920.20, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 30, 1950 (15 F. R. 1809), are common to marketing agreements and orders now operating. Each of such sections sets forth certain rights, obligations, privileges, or procedures which are necessary and appropriate for the effective operation of the marketing agreement and order. These provisions are incidental to, and not inconsistent with section 8c (6) and (7) of the act, and are necessary to effectuate the other provisions of the marketing agreement and order and to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The substance of such provisions, therefore, should be included in the marketing agreement and order. With respect to the announcement prior to January 1 that the program will be terminated at the end of the fiscal year, growers and handlers will be afforded sufficient time to plan accordingly for the next production and marketing season.

General findings. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The order, as hereinafter set forth, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) Such order regulates the handling of potatoes grown in the production area in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a proposed marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(3) The said order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistent with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of the production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) The said order prescribes, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of the production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to the differences in the production and marketing of potatoes grown in the said area;

(5) All handling of potatoes, as defined in said order, is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Interested parties were allowed until July 5, 1950, to file briefs with respect to findings of facts and conclusions based on evidence introduced at the hearing.

Briefs were filed on behalf of the Connecticut State Farm Bureau Federation and Potato Committees of Fairfield and New Haven Counties in Connecticut. The briefs contained proposed findings of fact, conclusions and argument with respect to the proposals discussed at the hearing, with particular reference to the proposed area of production to be included under the marketing agreement and order. The findings and conclusions suggested and contained in the brief filed on behalf of the aforesaid potato committees of Fairfield and New Haven Counties would exclude these two counties from the proposed area of production. It is argued that the evidence at the hearing discloses that potatoes grown in these two counties do not compete in any serious form or manner with potatoes grown in any other portion or portions of the proposed production area, that marketing conditions for potatoes grown in the two counties are free from the chaotic conditions prevailing in other portions of the production area, and that the operation of a marketing agreement and order in such counties would be administratively impractical and uneconomical.

Potatoes grown in New Haven and Fairfield Counties do compete, directly or indirectly, in the markets with potatoes grown in other portions of the production area. The marketing season for potatoes grown in these counties is normally from July 15 to November 1 of each year and overlaps, for example, with the marketing season for early varieties, such as the Irish Cobbler, grown in the Connecticut Valley area of Massachusetts and Connecticut which is approximately from August 1 to November 1. Even though most of the potatoes grown in the aforesaid counties are sold locally, they displace potatoes that otherwise might be shipped in to supply local needs from other portions of the production area or from areas outside thereof. The sale of off grade and undesirable sizes of potatoes by growers in New Haven and Fairfield Counties depresses prices and creates disorderly marketing in the same manner as does the sale of such potatoes from any other portion or portions of the production area.

Potato production in New Haven and Fairfield Counties is not as highly commercialized as in certain other counties within the production area. The acreage of potatoes per farm is relatively small and marketings are mostly in comparatively small lots. A considerable number of producers in these counties, however, carry on large-scale potato farming. These conditions of producing and marketing potatoes in New Haven and Fairfield Counties are similar to those in a number of counties scattered throughout the production area. Inspection in all such counties would be more of a problem than under more highly commercialized operations, particularly if all lots of potatoes shipped therefrom were required to be inspected. Under the flexible provisions of the marketing agreement and order, however, such administrative problems can be met in a practical and equitable manner.

In the brief filed on behalf of the Connecticut State Farm Bureau Federation it is concluded that a finding should be made, on the basis of the evidence in the hearing record, which would limit the production area to the Connecticut Valley area comprising Hartford and Tolland Counties, Connecticut, and Hampden, Franklin, and Hampshire Counties, Massachusetts. The five-county area described does include the most important single potato section within the production area. It represents, however, less than half of the total potato acreage and production in the production area. Also, the individual potato goals and assigned potato acreages in these counties account for less than half of such assignments made under the price support program in the entire production area. Regulation of shipments of the Connecticut Valley fraction of the production area's potato crop without regulation of the remainder of such potatoes would be impractical and would not carry out the declared policy of the act.

To the extent that such suggested findings and conclusions contained in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in the recommended decision.

Recommended marketing agreement and order. The following marketing agreement and order are recommended as the detailed means by which the aforesaid conclusions may be carried out.

DEFINITIONS

§ 920.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any other officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture, who is, or may hereafter be authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 920.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051).

§ 920.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any organized group or business unit.

§ 920.4 Production area. "Production area" means all territory included within the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Hampshire, and Vermont.

§ 920.5 Potatoes. "Potatoes" means all varieties of Irish potatoes grown within the aforesaid production area.

§ 920.6 Handler. "Handler" is synonymous with shipper and means any person (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) who ships potatoes.

§ 920.7 Ship. "Ship" or "handle" means to transport, sell, or in any other way to place potatoes in the current of commerce within the production area or between the production area and any point outside thereof; Provided, That the definition of "ship" or "handle" shall not include or be applicable to the sale or transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area for storing, or to the sale or transportation of potatoes to a recognized dealer or packer within the production area for the purpose of having such potatoes prepared for market.

§ 920.8 Producer. "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of potatoes for market.

§ 920.9 Fiscal year. "Fiscal year" means the period beginning on June 1 of each year and ending May 31 following.

§ 920.10 Committee. "Committee" means the administrative committee, called the New England Potato Committee, established pursuant to § 920.22.

§ 920.11 District. "District" means, describes, and refers to each of the geographic divisions of the production area established pursuant to § 920.24.

§ 920.12 Varieties. "Varieties" means and includes all classifications or subdivisions of Irish potatoes according to those definitive characteristics now or hereafter recognized by the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 920.13 Seed potatoes. "Seed potatoes" or "seed" means and includes all potatoes officially certified and tagged, marked or otherwise appropriately identified, under supervision of the official seed potato certifying agency of the State where grown, or other seed certification agencies which the Secretary may recognize.

§ 920.14 Table stock potatoes. "Table stock potatoes" means and includes all potatoes not included within the definition of "seed potatoes."

§ 920.15 Wholesale pack. "Wholesale pack" means a unit of fifty pounds net weight or more of potatoes contained in a bag, crate, or any other type of container.

§ 920.16 Consumer pack. "Consumer pack" means a unit of less than fifty pounds net weight of potatoes contained in a bag, crate, or any other type of container.

§ 920.17 Grade. "Grade" means any one of the officially established grades of potatoes, and "size" means any one of the officially established sizes of potatoes, as defined and set forth in:

(a) United States Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon;

(b) United States Consumer Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (12 F. R. 7281), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon.

§ 920.18 Export. "Export" means shipment of potatoes beyond the boundaries of continental United States.

§ 920.19 Part and subpart. "Part" means the order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Hampshire, and Vermont, and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders issued thereunder, and the aforesaid order shall be a "subpart" of such "part."

COMMITTEE

§ 920.22 Establishment and membership. (a) The New England Potato Committee consisting of 15 producer members is hereby established. For each member of the committee there shall be an alternate who shall have the same qualifications as the member.

(b) Each person selected as a committee member or alternate shall be an individual who is a producer (or an officer or an employee of a corporate producer) in and a resident of the district for which selected.

§ 920.23 Term of office. The term of office of committee members and alternates shall be for two fiscal years, and until their successors are selected and have qualified: Provided, however, That the terms of office of the initial committee shall be determined by the Secretary so that the terms of office of a majority of the initial members and alternates shall be for one fiscal year. Committee members and alternates shall serve during the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified, or during that portion thereof beginning on the date on which they qualify during the term of office.

§ 920.24 Districts. For the purpose of determining the basis for selecting committee members, the following districts of the production area are hereby established:

District No. 1: The State of Massachusetts;
District No. 2: The State of Rhode Island;
District No. 3: The State of Connecticut;
District No. 4: The State of New Hampshire; and District No. 5: The State of Vermont.

§ 920.25 Selection. The Secretary shall select four members of the committee, with their respective alternates, from each of Districts Nos. 1 and 3, three members with their respective alternates from District No. 2, and two members with their respective alternates from each of Districts Nos. 4 and 5, which members and alternates shall represent the respective District from which they are selected.

§ 920.26 Nomination. The Secretary may select the members of the New England Potato Committee, with their respective alternates, from nominations which may be made in the following manner:

(a) Nominations for initial members of the committee and their respective alternates may be submitted by producers, or groups thereof, and such nominations may be by virtue of elections conducted by groups of producers.

(b) In order to provide nominations for succeeding committee members and alternates:

(1) The New England Potato Committee shall hold or cause to be held prior to April 1 of each year, after the effective date hereof, a meeting or meetings of producers in each of the Districts designated in § 920.24;

(2) In arranging for such meetings the committee may, if it deems desirable, utilize the services and facilities of existing organizations and agencies;

(3) At each such meeting at least two nominees shall be designated for each position as member and for each position as alternate member on the committee;

(4) Nominations for committee members and alternate members shall be supplied to the Secretary in such manner and form as he may prescribe, not later than 30 days prior to the end of each fiscal year;

(5) Only producers may participate in designating nominees for committee members and their alternates; and

(6) Regardless of the number of districts in which a person produces potatoes, each such person is entitled to cast only one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives in designating nominees for committee members and alternates: Provided, That in the event a person is engaged in producing potatoes in more than one district, such person shall elect the district within which he may participate as aforesaid in designating nominees: Provided further, That an eligible voter's privilege of casting only one vote, as aforesaid, shall be construed to permit a voter to cast one vote for each position to be filled in the respective district in which he elects to vote.

§ 920.27 Failure to nominate. If nominations are not made within the time and in the manner specified in § 920.26, the Secretary may, without regard to nominations, select the committee members and alternates which selection shall be on the basis of the representation provided for in § 920.25.

§ 920.28 Acceptance. Any person selected as a committee member or as an alternate shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary within ten days after being notified of such selection.

§ 920.29 Vacancies. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a committee member or as an alternate to qualify, or in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any qualified member or alternate, a successor for his unexpired term may be selected from nominations made in the manner specified in § 920.26, or the Secretary may select such committee member or alternate from previously unselected nominees on the current nominee list from the district involved. If the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within 30 days after such vacancy occurs, such vacancy may be filled without regard to nominations, which selection shall be made on the basis of the representation provided for in § 920.25.

§ 920.30 Alternate members. An alternate member of the committee shall act in the place and stead of the member for whom he is an alternate, during such member's absence. In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, his alternate shall act for him until a successor of such member is selected and has qualified.

§ 920.31 Procedure. (a) A majority of the committee members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum and the same number of concurring votes shall be required to pass any motion or approve any committee action.

(b) The committee may provide for meeting by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication and any vote cast at such a meeting shall be promptly confirmed in writing: Provided, That if any assembled meeting is held, all votes shall be cast in person.

§ 920.32 Expenses and compensation. Committee members and their respective alternates shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties and in exercise of their powers under this part, and shall receive compensation at a rate to be determined by the committee, which rate shall not exceed $5.00 for each day, or portion thereof, spent in attending to committee business.

§ 920.33 Powers. The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this part in accordance with its terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this part;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violation of the provisions of this part; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this part.

§ 920.34 Duties. It shall be the duty of the committee:

(a) At the beginning of each fiscal year, to meet and organize, to select a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary, to select subcommittees of committee members, and to adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable;

(b) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer or handler;

(c) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(d) To appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries and define the duties of each such person;

(e) To investigate from time to time and to assemble data on the growing, harvesting, shipping, and marketing conditions with respect to potatoes, and, upon approval of the Secretary, to engage in such research and service activities which may be necessary and incidental to the operation of the marketing agreement and order;

(f) To keep minutes, books, and records which clearly reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and such minutes, books, and records shall be subject to examination at any time by the Secretary or his authorized agent or representative;

(g) To make available to producers and handlers the committee voting record on recommended regulations and on other matters of policy;

(h) At the beginning of each fiscal year, to prepare a budget of its expenses for such fiscal year, together with a report thereon;

(i) To cause the books of the committee to be audited by a competent accountant at least once each fiscal year, and at such other time as the committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request. The report of such audit shall show the receipt and expenditure of funds collected pursuant to this part; a copy of each such report shall be furnished to the Secretary and a copy of each such report shall be made available at the principal office of the committee for inspection by producers and handlers; and

(j) To consult, cooperate, and exchange information with other potato marketing committees and other individuals or agencies in connection with all proper committee activities and objectives under this part.

EXPENSES, ASSESSMENTS, AND BUDGETS

§ 920.40 Budget. The committee shall prepare a budget for each fiscal year showing its anticipated expenses and a proposed rate of assessment to cover such expenses. The committee shall also transmit to the Secretary a report accompanying the budget showing the basis for its calculation of expenses and the proposed rate of assessment.

§ 920.41 Expenses. The committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary, upon the basis of the aforesaid budget and other available information, finds may be necessary during each fiscal year to perform its functions under this part and for such other purposes as may be appropriate pursuant to the provisions of this part.

§ 920.42 Rate of assessment. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying on handlers of assessments which shall be at a rate recommended by the committee and fixed by the Secretary on the basis of such recommendations or other available information. Each handler who first ships potatoes shall pay assessments to the committee upon demand, which assessments shall be such handler's pro rata share of the expenses which will be appropriately incurred by the committee during each fiscal year. Such handler's share of such expense shall be proportionate to the ratio between the total quantity of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof, during the applicable fiscal year, and the total quantity of potatoes handled by all handlers as the first handlers thereof, during the same fiscal year.

§ 920.43 Increasing rate of assessment. Upon recommendation of the committee and upon a later finding relative to the committee's expenses or revenue, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to cover expenses which shall be appropriately incurred. Such increase shall be applicable to all potatoes handled during the given fiscal year.

§ 920.44 Accounting. All funds received by the committee pursuant to any provision of this part shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part and shall be accounted for in the following manner:

(a) The Secretary may at any time require the committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements; and

(b) Whenever any person ceases to be a committee member or alternate he shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his hands, together with all books and records in his possession, to his successor in office or to such person as the Secretary may designate, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor or in such designated person the right to all the property, funds, or claims vested in such member or alternate.

§ 920.45 Refunds. (1) If at the end of a fiscal year, it shall appear that assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund of the excess assessments shall be credited with such refund against the operations of the following fiscal year, unless he demands payment thereof, in which event such proportionate refund shall be paid to him.

§ 920.46 Collection of funds. (a) The committee may, with the approval of the Secretary maintain in its own name or in the name of its members, a suit against any handler for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of the expenses of the committee.

(b) In order to provide funds to carry out the functions of the committee, handlers may make advance payment of assessments.

REGULATION

§ 920.50 Marketing policy preparation. At the beginning of each fiscal year the committee shall consider and prepare a proposed policy for the marketing of potatoes during such fiscal year. In developing its marketing policy the committee shall investigate relevant supply and demand conditions for potatoes. In such investigations the committee shall give appropriate consideration to the following:

(a) Market prices for potatoes, including prices by grade, size, and quality in wholesale or in consumer packs, or any other shipping unit;

(b) Supply of potatoes, by grade, size, and quality, in the production area and in other production areas;

(c) The trend and level of consumer income; and

(d) Other relevant factors.

§ 920.51 Marketing policy reports. (a) The committee shall submit to the Secretary a report setting forth the aforesaid marketing policy. The committee also shall notify producers and handlers of the contents of such reports.

(b) In the event it becomes advisable to deviate from such marketing policy, because of changed supply and demand conditions, the committee shall formulate a new marketing policy in accordance with the manner previously outlined. The committee also shall submit a report thereon to the Secretary and notify producers and handlers of such revised or amended marketing policy.

§ 920.52 Committee recommendations. The committee shall recommend regulation to the Secretary whenever it finds that such regulation, as provided in § 920.53 will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The committee also may recommend modification, suspension, or termination of any regulation in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for the specified purposes set forth in § 920.54.

§ 920.53 Issuance of regulations. The Secretary shall limit the shipment of potatoes whenever he finds from the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information that such regulation would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Such limitation may:

(a) Regulate, in any or all portions of the production area, the shipment of particular grades, sizes, or qualities of any or all varieties of potatoes during any period; or

(b) Regulate the shipment of particular grades, sizes, or qualities of potatoes differently for different varieties, for different portions of the production area, for consumer or wholesale packs, or any combination of the foregoing during any period; or

(c) Regulate the shipment of potatoes by establishing in terms of grades, sizes, or both, minimum standards of quality and maturity.

§ 920.54 Modification, suspension, or termination. Upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the committee, the Secretary shall modify, suspend, or terminate regulations issued pursuant to §§ 920.42, 920.43, 920.53, 920.54, or 920.65, or any combination thereof, in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for the following purposes whenever he finds that it will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act:

(a) For seed;

(b) For export;

(c) For distribution by the Federal Government;

(d) For manufacture or conversion into specified products;

(e) For livestock feed; and

(f) For other purposes which may be specified.

§ 920.55 Minimum quantity regulation. The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish, for any or all portions of the production area, minimum quantities below which shipments will be free from regulations issued pursuant to §§ 920.42, 920.43, 920.53, 920.54, or 920.65, or any combination thereof.

§ 920.56 Notification of regulation. The Secretary shall notify the committee of any regulations issued or of any modification, suspension, or termination thereof. The committee shall give reasonable notice thereof to handlers.

§ 920.57 Safeguards. (a) The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe adequate safeguards to prevent shipments pursuant to § 920.54 from entering channels of trade for other than the specific purpose authorized therefor, and rules governing the issuance and the contents of Certificates of Privilege if such certificates are prescribed as safeguards by the committee. Safeguards, as prescribed in this section, may include requirements that:

(1) Handlers shall file applications with the committee to ship potatoes pursuant to § 920.54;

(2) Handlers shall obtain inspection provided by § 920.65 or pay the pro rata share of expenses provided by § 920.42 or both, in connection with potato shipments effected under the provisions of § 920.54: Provided, That such inspection or payment of expenses may be required at different times than otherwise specified by the aforesaid sections; and

(3) Handlers shall obtain Certificates of Privilege from the committee for shipments of potatoes effected or to be effected under the provisions of § 920.54.

(b) The committee may rescind or deny Certificates of Privilege to any shipper if proof is obtained that potatoes shipped by him for the purposes stated in § 920.54 were handled contrary to the requirements applicable thereto.

(c) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any safeguards prescribed and any certificates issued by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(d) The committee shall make reports to the Secretary, as requested, showing the number of applications for such certificates, the quantity of potatoes covered by such applications, the number of such applications denied and certificates granted, the quantity of potatoes shipped under duly issued certificates, and such other information as may be requested.

INSPECTION

§ 920.65 Inspection and certification. During any period in which shipments of potatoes are regulated, pursuant to the provisions of §§ 920.42, or 920.53, or both, no handler shall ship potatoes unless, prior thereto, such shipment was inspected by an authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, or such other inspection service as the Secretary shall designate. Each handler procuring inspections pursuant to this section, shall make arrangements with the inspecting agency to forward promptly to the committee a copy of the inspection certificate: Provided, That the regrading, resorting, repacking, or other further preparation of inspected potatoes for market shall invalidate prior inspection thereon and subsequent shipment of such potatoes after regrading, resorting, repacking, or other preparation for market shall not be effected unless, prior thereto, such shipment is inspected as provided in this section: Provided further, That the committee may adopt, subject to the approval of the Secretary, procedures permitting the shipment of potatoes without the required prior inspection thereon; such procedures shall include a requirement that each handler-applicant for a waiver show that he requested shipping point inspection and that the appropriate inspection agency stated that it could not supply reasonably prompt service in connection with such request; and such procedures may require that each applicant agrees, as a condition for the issuance of a waiver, to one or more of the following:

(a) That the potatoes to be shipped under such waiver will be inspected and certified at destination if an inspector is available for such purpose;

(b) That, where inspection indicates that potatoes shipped under a waiver fail to meet minimum grade, size, and quality requirements in effect at the time of such inspection, the potatoes will be removed from all normal domestic commercial channels, except for disposition pursuant to § 920.54; and

(c) That additional waivers will not be granted to an applicant, for the remainder of the fiscal year, if the potatoes shipped under a waiver and failing to meet minimum grade, size, and quality requirements, are not removed from all normal domestic market channels, except for disposition pursuant to § 920.54.

EXEMPTIONS

§ 920.70 Procedure. The committee may adopt, with approval of the Secretary, the procedures pursuant to which certificates of exemption will be issued to producers or handlers.

§ 920.71 Granting exemptions. (a) The committee shall issue certificates of exemption to any producer who applies for such exemption and furnishes adequate evidence to the committee, that by reason of a regulation issued pursuant to § 920.53 he will be prevented from shipping as large a proportion of his production as the average proportion of production shipped during the entire season, or such portion thereof as may be determined by the committee, by all producers in said applicant's immediate production area and that the grade, size, or quality of the applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's control and by acts beyond reasonable expectation. Each certificate shall permit the producer to ship the amount of potatoes specified thereon. Such certificate shall be transferred with such potatoes at time of transportation or sale.

(b) The committee shall issue certificates of exemption to any handler who applies for such exemption and furnishes adequate evidence to the committee that, by reason of a regulation issued pursuant to § 920.53, he will be prevented from shipping, as large a proportion of his storage holdings of potatoes, acquired during or immediately following the digging season, as the average proportion of storage holdings shipped by all handlers in said applicant's immediate shipping area, and that the grade, size, or quality of the applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's control and by acts beyond reasonable expectation. Each certificate shall permit the handler to ship the amount of potatoes specified thereon. Such certificate shall be transferred with such potatoes at time of transportation or sale.

(c) The committee shall be permitted at any time to make a thorough investigation of any producer's or handler's claim pertaining to exemptions.

§ 920.72 Appeal. If any applicant for exemption certificates is dissatisfied with the determination by the committee with respect to his application, said applicant may file an appeal with the committee. Such an appeal must be taken promptly after the determination by the committee from which the appeal is taken. Any applicant filing an appeal shall furnish evidence satisfactory to the committee for a determination on the appeal. The committee shall thereupon reconsider the application, examine all available evidence, and make a final determination concerning the application. The committee shall notify the appellant of the final determination, and shall furnish the Secretary with a copy of the appeal and a statement of considerations involved in making the final determination.

§ 920.73 Records, reports, and review of exemptions. (a) The committee shall maintain a record of all applications submitted for exemption certificates, a record of all exemption certificates issued and denied, the quantity of potatoes covered by such exemption certificates, a record of the amount of potatoes shipped under exemption certificates, a record of appeals for reconsideration of applications, and such information as may be requested by the Secretary. Periodic reports on such records shall be compiled and issued by the committee upon request of the Secretary.

(b) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any procedure and any exemptions granted pursuant to §§ 920.70, 920.71, 920.72 or any combination thereof.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 920.80 Reports. Upon the request of the committee, with approval of the Secretary, every handler shall furnish the committee, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, such information as will enable the committee to exercise its powers and perform its duties under this part. Handlers shall maintain records from which such reported information can be verified by the committee. The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, or rescind any request for reports pursuant to this section.

§ 920.81 Compliance. Except as provided in this part, no handler shall ship potatoes, the shipment of which has been prohibited by the Secretary in accordance with provisions of this part, and no handler shall ship potatoes except in conformity to the provisions of this part.

§ 920,82 Right of the Secretary. The members of the committee (including successors and alternates), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committee, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination or other act of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time. Upon such disapproval, the disapproved action of the said committee shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 920.83 Effective time. The provisions of this subpart shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways specified in this subpart.

§ 920.84 Termination. (a) The Secretary may, at any time, terminate the provisions of this subpart by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which he may determine.

(b) The Secretary may terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions of this subpart whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart at the end of any fiscal year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of producers, who during the preceding fiscal year, have been engaged in the production for market of potatoes: Provided, That such majority has, during such year, produced for market more than fifty percent of the volume of such potatoes produced for market; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before January 1 of the then current fiscal year.

(d) The provisions of this subpart shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

(e) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this agreement at the end of any fiscal year, upon the written request of handlers signatory to this agreement who submit evidence satisfactory to the Secretary that they handled not less than sixty-seven percent of the total volume of potatoes handled by the signatory handlers during the preceding fiscal year; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before January 1 of the then current fiscal year.[1]

§ 920.85 Proceedings after termination. (a) Upon the termination of the provisions of this subpart, the then functioning members of the committee shall continue as trustees, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the committee, of all the funds and property then in the possession of or under control of the committee, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination. Action by said trusteeship shall require the concurrence of a majority of the said trustees.

(b) The said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the committee and of the trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall, upon request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the committee or the trustees pursuant thereto.

(c) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered by the committee or its members, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations imposed upon the members of the committee and upon the said trustees.

§ 920.86 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendments to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this subpart or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart or of any regulations issued under this subpart, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violations.

§ 920.87 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon the termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 920.88 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the Government, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 920.89 Derogation. Nothing contained in this subpart is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 920.90 Personal liability. No member or alternate of the committee, nor any employee or agent thereof, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or to any person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate, agent, or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.

§ 920.91 Separability. If any provision of this subpart is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this subpart, or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing, shall not be affected thereby.

§ 920.92 Amendments. Amendments to this subpart may be proposed, from time to time, by the committee or by the Secretary.

§ 920.93 Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts and when one counterpart is signed by the Secretary, all such counterparts shall constitute when taken together, one and the same instrument as if all signatures were contained in one original.[1]

§ 920.94 Additional parties. After the effective date of this agreement, any handler who has not previously executed this agreement may become a party to this agreement if a counterpart of this agreement is executed by him and delivered to the Secretary. This agreement shall take effect as to such new contracting party at the time such counterpart is delivered to the Secretary, and benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement shall then be effective as to such new contracting party.[1]

§ 920.95 Order for marketing agreement. Each signatory handler favors and approves the issuance of an order, by the Secretary, regulating the handling of potatoes in the same manner as is provided for in this agreement; and each signatory handler hereby requests the Secretary to issue, pursuant to the act, such an order.[1]

Done at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of August 1950.

The areas described aggregate 6,876.24 acres.

[1] Applicable only to the proposed marketing agreement.

The lands are primarily suitable for grazing.

No applications for these lands may be allowed under the homestead, small tract, desert-land, or any other non-mineral public-land laws, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of such lands until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order. At that time the said lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, and selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, the public lands affected by this order shall be subject only to (1) application under the homestead or the desert-land laws or the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, 52 Stat. 609 (43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944, 58 Stat. 747 (43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications under subdivision (1) of this paragraph shall be subject to applications and claims of the classes described in subdivision (2) of this paragraph. All applications filed under this paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a. m. on the said 35th day shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, selection, or other appropriation by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land and Survey Office, Salt Lake City, Utah, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and applications under the desert-land laws and the said Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land and Survey Office, Salt Lake City, Utah.

WILLIAM ZIMMERMAN, Jr.,
Assistant Director.

ARIZONA

CLASSIFICATION ORDER

AUGUST 8, 1950.

1. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Director, Bureau of Land Management, by Order No. 319 dated July 19, 1948 (43 CFR 50.451 (b) (3), 13 F. R. 4278), I hereby classify under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609), as amended July 14, 1945 (59 Stat. 467, 43 U. S. C. section 682a), as hereinafter indicated, the following described lands in the Phoenix, Arizona, Land District, embracing 1108.84 acres,

ARIZONA SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION NO. 19

For lease and sale for all purposes authorized by the act except business sites:

T. 4 N., R. 3 E., G. & S. R. B. & M., Arizona
Sec. 6, All
Sec. 7, N½
Sec. 25, NW¼SW¼
Sec. 28, E½NE¼
Sec. 31, W½NE¼
Sec. 33, SE¼NE¼

2. These lands are situated north of Phoenix, Arizona, at distances varying from 12 to 20 miles, depending upon the location of the subdivision in the township and upon the route traveled. Sections 6 and 7 lie farthest north of Phoenix and the north line of Section 6 may be reached by traveling northwest out of Phoenix 2 miles via Grand Avenue to Mission Drive, thence north on Mission Drive and the new Black Canyon Highway 17 miles, thence east 1 mile to the northwest corner of Section 6. Nineteenth Avenue, when extended due north, will form the west line of sections 6 and 7. The distance to the extreme north edge of the area via Nineteenth Avenue would be 19 miles.

Section 25: The NW¼SW¼ may be reached by traveling North 7th Street from its intersection with McDowell Road 7 miles north to Sunnyslope, thence 6 to 6.5 miles northeast via Cave Creek Road, thence 1 to 1.5 miles east and northeast to the land.

Section 28: The E½NE¼ may be reached by traveling north and northwest via North 7th Street and the Cave Creek Road a distance of approximately 13 miles, thence west along the south line of section 27, 1 mile, thence north 0.5 of a mile, a total distance of 14.5 miles. The last mile and one-half is over rough, sandy desert trails.

Section 33: The SE¼NE¼ may be reached by traveling North 7th Street and Cave Creek Road 13 miles north and northwest from Phoenix, thence 1 mile west along the south line of section 27, thence ¼ mile south from section line to land.

Section 31: The W½NE¼ may be reached by traveling Grand Avenue northwest 1 mile from Phoenix to Nineteenth Avenue, thence north on Nineteenth Avenue 12 miles to Bell Road, thence northeast 0.5 of a mile over desert terrian to the land.

Electric power transmission lines traverse the west and south sides of the township and another electric power transmission line parallels Cave Creek Road. Thus, electric power is obtainable for all the lands classified. There are no other public utilities available and lessees must provide their own water, fuel and sanitary facilities. Business facilities such as stores, service stations and garages, and some educational, religious and recreational facilities are available at the town of Sunnyslope lying from 6 to 12 miles south of the various subdivisions and all such facilities common to a city of 200,000 population are available in Phoenix. The elevation of these lands above sea level ranges from 1,500 to 1,600 feet. The topography is level to rolling. The soil is an admixture of clay, silt, sand and gravel and very fertile. Potable water in considerable quantity is found at depths ranging from 300 to 600 feet. The mean annual precipitation is approximately 8 inches and temperatures range from a rare below freezing point to as high as 120° F.

3. As to applications regularly filed prior to 1:00 p. m. mountain standard time on May 7, 1946, and which are for the type of site for which the land is classified, this order shall become effective upon the date it is signed.

4. As to the land not covered by applications of the class referred to in section 3, this order shall not become effective to permit leasing under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, as amended, until 10:00 a. m. mountain standard time on October 10, 1950. At that time such lands shall, subject to valid existing rights, become subject to application as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day preference period for qualified veterans of World War II from 10:00 a. m. on October 10, 1950, to close of business on January 8, 1951.

(b) Advance period for veterans' simultaneous filings from 1:00 p. m. on May 7, 1946, to 10:00 a. m. October 10, 1950.

5. Any of the land remaining unappropriated shall become subject to application under the Small Tract Act by the public generally, commencing at 10:00 a. m. on January 9, 1951.

(a) Advance period for simultaneous nonpreference right filings from 1:00 p. m. on May 7, 1946, to 10:00 a. m. on January 9, 1951.

6. Applications filed within the periods mentioned in sections 4 (b) and 5 (a) above will be treated as simultaneously filed.

7. A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

8. All of the land will be leased in tracts of approximately 5 acres, each being approximately 330 feet by 660 feet; and the longer dimensions of the tracts may extend either north and south or east and west, provided the tract conforms to or is made to conform to the area and dimensions specified above, and, provided the tract is not described in such a manner as to break up a ten-acre rectangular subdivision. This proviso applies to all leases issued, preference and nonpreference alike. The longitudinal directions of tracts described in applications filed prior to the date of this order shall not be disturbed unless they have been filed in such a manner as to violate the rectangular subdivision rule.

9. Leases will be for a period of 5 years at an annual rental of $5.00 payable for the entire lease period in advance of the issuance of the lease.

10. Leases will contain an option to purchase clause at appraised values as follows:

Section 6: For those tracts lying in the W½ of Lots 4, 5, 6 and 7 (equivalent to the W½W½W½), $250.00 per tract.

For tracts lying in the E½ of Lots 4, 5, 6 and 7 (equivalent to the E½W½W½), $175.00 per tract.

For tracts lying in the E½W½ and E½ of the section, $125.00 each.

Section 7: For tracts lying in the W½ of Lots 1 and 2, $250.00 each.

For tracts lying in the E½ of Lots 1 and 2, $175.00 each.

For tracts lying in the E½NW¼ and NE¼ of the section, $125.00 each.

Section 25: NW¼SW¼, per 5-acre tract, $100.00.

Section 28: E½NE¼, per 5-acre tract, $100.00.

Section 31: W½NE¼, per 5-acre tract, $150.00.

Section 33: SE¼NE¼, per 5-acre tract, $100.00.

(a) Applications for purchase may be filed at or after the expiration of one year from the date the lease issued, provided that improvements, appropriate to the purpose for which the lease is issued and which meet with the approval of the Regional Administrator shall have been constructed upon the lands prior to filing of the application for purchase.

(b) Leases issued under the terms of this order shall not be subject to assignment unless and until improvements as mentioned above in (a) shall have been completed.

(c) Leases for lands upon which the improvements above mentioned shall not have been constructed at or before the expiration thereof shall not be renewed.

11. Lessees and/or their successors in interest shall comply with all Federal, State, county and municipal laws and ordinances, especially those governing health and sanitation, and failure or refusal to do so may be cause for cancellation of the lease in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management.

12. Rights-of-way for road and street purposes 33 feet in width are reserved from each tract and said 33-foot strip may be taken for street, road or alley from any edge of any of said tracts, but not more than one such strip for right-of-way shall be taken from any tract without the consent of the lessee first had and obtained, or unless such right-of-way shall be condemned by proper eminent domain proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction. The said rights-of-way, may in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to issuance of patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued. All rights-of-way herein mentioned and reserved may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the State, county, or municipality in which the tract is situated, or by any agency thereof.

13. All structures with the exception of fences and like movable installations shall be set back from the exterior boundaries of the tract not less than 33 feet, and if there is a road or street in existence, or an identified and definitely established right-of-way for such road or street, then and in that event, all permanent structures will be set back not less than 33 feet from the outside line of the said established road, street, or definitely identified right-of-way.

14. Survey of individual tracts shall be at the expense of the applicant.

15. All leases and patents issued shall contain a reservation to the United States of all fissionable material sources, and all minerals, together with the right to prospect for, mine and remove the same under applicable laws and regulations.

16. All inquiries regarding these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, United States Land and Survey Office, 100 U. S. Courthouse, Phoenix, Arizona.

E. R. SMITH,
Regional Administrator.

ARIZONA

CLASSIFICATION ORDER

AUGUST 8, 1950.

1. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Director, Bureau of Land Management, by Order No. 319 dated July 19, 1948 (43 CFR 50.451 (b) (3), 13 F. R. 4278), I hereby classify under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609), as amended July 14, 1945 (59 Stat. 467, 43 U. S. C. 682a), as hereinafter indicated, the following described lands in the Phoenix, Arizona, Land District, embracing 110 acres.

ARIZONA SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION NO. 20

For lease and sale for home, and cabin site purposes:

T. 10 N., R. 6 W., G. & S. R. B. & M., Arizona
Sec. 26, NW¼SW¼, N½SW¼SW¼, S½S½SW¼SW¼
Sec. 25, NW¼NW¼

The N½S½SW¼SW¼ of Section 26 is excluded and reserved from classification for small site purposes and is hereby designated and classified as an administrative driveway for livestock.

2. These lands are situated about 1 mile north of the village of Congress Junction which is on U. S. Highway 89, 16 miles northwest of Wickenburg and 50 miles southwest of Prescott, Arizona. The village is also the junction point for U. S. 89 and State Highway 71 which latter is a short-cut between Congress Junction and Aguila, Arizona at which latter point State Highway 71 intersects U. S. 60–70 to California. Congress Junction is also a shipping point on a branch line of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway which connects Ashfork via Prescott with Phoenix, Arizona. The village has the business, educational, religious and recreational facilities usually found in villages of its size. The town secures its water supply from the railroad company, there being no water wells or other source of such supply. The city of Phoenix lies 60 miles south. The lands are accessible by a maintained dirt road paralleling the railroad on the west side of the tracks.

The elevation of the lands above sea level ranges from 2,200 to 2,300 feet. Winters are short and mild and summers are long and hot. Precipitation of moisture averages about 10 inches per annum. The topography of the lands is level to slightly rolling, and the soil is a mixture of clay, sand and gravel. There is no timber or brush. The appearance of the land is that of a prairie and the predominating vegetative cover is grama grass, weeds and various species of cacti. Water must be hauled from the railroad station at Congress Junction or a supply caught from roof runoff into cisterns during the infrequent rains. Electricity is obtainable from a power transmission line paralleling the railroad and highway. Settlers on the lands must furnish their own fuel, water and sanitary facilities.

3. As to applications regularly filed prior to 9:30 a. m. mountain standard time on August 5, 1948, and which are for the type of site for which the land is classified, this order shall become effective upon the date it is signed.
